and dont lift the vase by the handle.

Augusta King.

Dec. 26. 1843 -

a happy new year with her expect-ed one. It gave me pleasure to hear of the little gowns and caps.
The thought of John as a papa seems to me very funny. Give my love to him, and tell him he will always have a warm corner in my heart, if he cares for that.

Farewell. Yrs most affectionately
L,

L. M. Child.
