Billposters DISTRIBUTORS AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS

IMMENSE BULLETINS

Erected By the Winans Advertising Company, of New York.

The Winans Advertising Company, New York, has just completed two of the most striking bulletins on walls that have ever been undertaken. One advertises the Messrs. Shubert's New York theaters, the Casino, the Herald Square and the New Prince, and occupies the entire south wall of the big Bartholdi Hotel at Broadway and Twenty-third street, being a work of art.

The Casino panel is bright yellow with an enormous cut of "I want to be a lady." The Herald Square panel has a pale green background with an enormous dark green shamrock in the center. The New Princess panel has a Yale blue background with a large six-pointed crown at the top.

The other bulletin wall is at the corner of Wall and Pearl streets, and advertises the Egyptian Arab Cigarette. The head of the Arab is the largest ever painted on a bulletin wall, the face being nearly 20 feet across.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of Rocky Mountain Bill Posters' and Distributors' Association in Salt Lake City.

The eighth annual convention of the Rocky Mountain Billposters' and Distributors' Association was held in Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 10-12, in the offices of Owens, Varney and Green. President Edwin A. Haskell, of Grand Junction, was presiding. A. H. Searies, of Denver, acted as secretary, and there were representatives from Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Victor, Cripple Creek, Salida, Buena Vista, Florence, Leadville, Glenwood Springs, Grand Junction, Laramie, Cheyenne, Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Phoenix, Tucson, Salt Lake, Provo, Ogden, Springville, Heber and Logan.

Denver was selected as the next place of meeting, on May 23, 1903. The principal business was the granting of franchises, and some excitement was afforded by a contest between Heaton & Spear and the Curran Company, of Denver, for the Greeley, Colo., franchise. Heaton & Spear were represented by an attorney, but the franchise was awarded to the Curran people. Franchises for Loveland, Longmont and Evans, Colo., were awarded to the Curran Company; for Florence to the Fremont Bill Posting Company; for Springville, Utah, to J. C. Graham, of Provo; for Goldfield, Col., to the Quinn Bill Posting Company; for Heber, Utah, to H. L. Mann, and for Ogden to the Utah Bill Posting Company.

The following were elected as officers for the ensuing year: President, Joseph Quinn; vice president, C. H. Ernstman, Salida; secretary-treasurer, A. H. Searies, Denver; executive committee, E. A. Haskell, Grand Junction; Robert L. Anderson, Salt Lake, and John A. Coleman, Leadville.

SEVERAL TOWNS

Added to the Plant of John Donnelly & Sons, of Boston.

John Donnelly & Sons, whose main offices are situated at 97 Warren street, Boston, Mass., have purchased from W. H. Trowbridge, of South Framingham, Mass., the bill posting plant including Framingham, South Framingham, Saxonville, Ashland and Holliston.

The entire plant will be remodeled and rebuilt, every board being made of sheet-steel. Additional steel boards have already been secured, increasing the capacity of the plant 500 per cent., and the new proprietors announce that they will spare no expense to bring the plant up to date in every particular. In describing the location of the plant, Mr. C. T. Donnelly, a member of the firm, says, in part:

"South Framingham is a very important railroad center on the Boston & Albany Railroad, about twenty-one miles from Boston. Here is located the great plant of the Dennison Manufacturing Company, employing 2,500 people, the largest manufacturers of shipping tags, labels, etc., in the world. Throughout this territory also lies the Sudbury and Cochituate aqueducts, and the famous water basins which supply metropolitan Boston. It is one of the most interesting places of interest in New England for tourists. At South Framingham is the camp grounds of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, the State muster being held here regularly every year.

"The rapid growth of business and the great increase for the necessity of commercial advertising has necessitated the acquisition of this additional territory, and it will be run on the same broad and liberal policy as our Boston plant.

"We are thoroughly equipped already to handle posting orders for this territory, and advertisers will be guaranteed a service thoroughly up-to-date and thoroughly satisfactory."

DAUBS.

Frank E. Whitecilld, of Bellefontaine, O., has erected several new bill boards the past week.

The Joliet (Ill.) Billposting Company reports their boards full of commercial paper and business good.

The Minnesota State Bill Posters' Association will meet at Minneapolis on Thursday, September 4, in the National Hotel parlors.

The Bill Posting Sign Company, of Philadelphia, Pa., has put the per-sheet method of payment into operation, and are in need of good sober bill posters.

The Kentucky Bill Posters and Distributors Association will hold a meeting in the Ludd House parlors, at Owensboro, Ky., Monday, September 8, next.

Alexander Harbison, manager of the Indianapolis (Ind.) Bill Posting Company, is taking an outing at Winona Lake. Mr. Harbison has caught the golf craze, and says he will wear a golf suit all winter.

W. C. Hardin is erecting new boards in Texarkana, Ark., to meet the increase in business incident upon his acquisition of the billing of the local theaters. He will have at least 25 locations on the east side.

Thomas Spielman, the popular bill poster of Hagerstown, Md., has leased all his space to the Robinson Shows, which will appear there the 28th. Mr. Spielman reports very gratifying business during the past few months.

Six members of the No. 2 advertising car of the Great Wallace Shows recently joined the Billposters and Billposters Union No. 1, of Louisville, Ky. Some weeks previous ten of the men joined the Indianapolis (Ind.) union, making it a solid union car, the second such in the country.

Judge Cox, of Buffalo, has issued an injunction restraining the city from dismantling any more bill boards belonging to Ellbrick & Whitmer, inasmuch as the company is organized under the laws of New Jersey and the Buffalo authorities have no legal right to destroy their property.

"The Billboard" is in receipt of a number of photographs from J. M. Dishon, of Terre Haute, Ind., illustrating several of his hoardings. Judging from the photos, the hoards are in excellent condition and are eloquent of the scrupulousity and enterprise of the proprietor. We congratulate Mr. Dishon upon the fine showing of his plant.

W. S. Yerkes, manager of the paint department of the Bill Posting Sign Company, of Philadelphia, is spending a month's vacation at Cape May, N. J. That branch of the business has been very successful during the past year, and at the present time they have but very few bulletin spaces vacant in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

The "Force" Food Company, of Buffalo, N. Y., are preparing an eight-sheet poster, to be put up in every city of 2,000 inhabitants in America. The first month the paper will be posted in such a manner that the sheets will not match. The second month the paper will be posted again with the sheets in their proper places. Bill posters in all towns of the above-mentioned population will do well to write the "Force" Food Company.

DISTRIBUTORS' NOTES.

Wesley Cohn is distributing booklets in Bangor and Hartford, Mich., for a New York firm.

Chas. Ross, of the Protective Association, was in Philadelphia, arranging for an extensive distribution of Penna pamphlets.

Edwards and Kopp, of Clarksdale, Miss., report business booming in the distributing department. In the past four weeks they have distributed Dr. Clark's Nerve Cure booklets, Howe's Pure Cereal booklets, with several other orders on the road.

ADVERTISING TIPS.

Brevity is the pith of advertising. Be brief, be forceful, but never be inconsistent.

Advertising is the foundation of many a fortune, and to advertise judiciously is the surest road to business success.

Be honest in your claims. Modesty in advertising (providing sufficient quantity of paper is used) carries more force than glaring assurances.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS.

One health food that has been extensively advertised on the bill boards has grown into such great demand that new orders are being refused until the old ones can be caught up with.

Advertising has grown from a theory into a recognized mercantile force, and so long as it remains a help to the people it will continue to be a great and valuable part of our multiplex life.

A stock company is now being floated in Arizona having in view the advertising and exploitation of the mineral resources of the territory. Advertising has certainly reached vast proportions, and the poster has taken a decided lead of all other media.

The "Force" Food Company, of Buffalo, N. Y., is having prepared a very ingenious 8-sheet poster, which will be widely displayed in every town of 2,000 inhabitants in America. During the first month's showing the poster will be put up in such a manner that the different sheets will not match.

At the end of the month the paper will be posted properly. It is bound to attract much attention.

CLAIMS SOLVENCY.

American Lithograph Company Does Not Want a Receiver.

The American Lithograph Company, of New York, strenuously denies the charge of insolvency brought against them by Benjamin Hiltou, who holds stock and bonds in the corporation and who a fortnight since petitioned for the appointment of a receiver to wind up its affairs.

Concerning the affair, Louis Marshall, an attorney, representing the majority of stockholders, says:

"The company, instead of relying upon technical objections to the petition, has made a complete showing of all its assets and liabilities in the fullest detail, supported by voluminous documents, which indicate not only that the corporation is solvent, but that its assets are reasonably worth an amount at least equal to all its indebtedness and all of its outstanding stock. These assets consist of merchandise, accounts, bills receivable, machinery, real estate and a group of patents covering the multicolor process of lithography, which are revolutionizing that industry. These patents cover every conceivable feature of the process, have been secured in all of the principal countries of the world, and negotiations are now on foot for their acquisition by important European houses. The machinery is of the most approved type, is of the most modern construction and in the most perfect condition of repair. The merchandise consists of staple goods, which are valued at less than their actual cost. Reserves have been made to cover any possible depreciation of machinery and plant. The real estate owned by the corporation is worth much more than the figures at which it is carried on the books of the company.

HAGERSTOWN, MD.

The second advance car of John Robinson's Ten Big Shows arrived on Aug. 29, and the competent force soon had the town covered with paper. John will find big business, as circuses are very popular with the people in this community.

Academy of Music, (C. M. Fetter, Mgr.)—After being dark for a period of two months this house opened Aug. 20, in her new dress, with Quinlan & Wall's Imperial Minstrels, which company played to S. R. O. business. Many new and novel turns were given, and the principal entertainers of the company are as follows: Muleir and Corallo, who gave a piano trick exhibition which amused greatly; Gaspard Bros., jugglers, won several encores for the way they performed some difficult feats. Jimmy Wall gave the audience some lyric songs, accompanied by his partner, Dan Quinlan, who is also a master in his profession. The town is anxious for more business, and Quinlan & Wall certainly made good here. Sonsa's Band is booked for this house September 1.

The Hoop Hall (Mr. Heard, manager) will open shortly with a local organization on the boards. This house has been completely renovated, and presents a fine appearance.

W. D. VAN VOLKENBERG.

NAT GOODWIN

When he reaches Cincinnati, always dines at Nongard's Cafe, 229 East Fourth street. Most theatrical pictures visit this celebrated establishment, where they are sure to find the best.

Theatrical DRAMATIC, VAUDEVILLE MUSIC, MINSTREL, BURLESQUE, OPERA.

BIG DEAL.

Klaw & Erlanger Purchase New York Theater Property.

On August 20, Klaw & Erlanger purchased from the Sire Bros. the entire New York theater property, including the Criterion Theater, for $2,000,000.

DOOMED.

Boston Museum Will Soon Be Razed—Some Events in Its History.

Boston Museum, the oldest theater in Boston, and by far the most famous one, is doomed. It will soon be torn down to make room for a mammoth skyscraper.

On its boards a score of the most famous actors and actresses of a generation ago made their reputations. Among those were William Warren, Annie Clark (who recently died in Chicago), George Wilson, Mrs. J. R. Vincent, Jack Mason, Marion Manola, Sadie Martinot, Mrs. John Drew, W. C. Coudock, Joseph Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davenport and E. A. Sothern.

Edwin Booth made his first appearance as Treason there, P. T. Barnum's Tom Thumbo first appeared there in 1841, and John Bromberg and Mrs. George Barrett won fame on its stage.

THEATER COMPANY.

Articles were filed incorporating the Louisville (Ky.) Theater Company, with a capital stock of $10,000, in shares of $100 held as follows: Max Weber, 45 shares; David B. Weber, 50 shares, and Harry in Chicago; the two first named being the lessees of the new Masonic Temple Theater.

The articles simply state that the objects of the company are to conduct a theatrical business in Louisville and to own and operate theaters.

PLAYS AND SKETCHES COPY-RIGHTED.

"Every Man; or, The Summoning of Every Man," an old mortality play. Copyright by Mrs. Jessie Boustelle Stuart, Philadelphia, Pa.

"Her Wedding Day," a pastoral melodrama in four acts. Written and copyrighted by J. Theo. Walsh and Chas. F. Brown, New York City, N. Y.

"A Hot Coon From Mississippi," a comedy-drama in three acts, by Wm. Hallback. Copyright by William Hallback, Jackson, Miss.

"Lawful (The) Heir," a romantic drama in five acts. Written and copyrighted by Charles Day Wilson, Cleveland, O.

"Marguise, La," drama in four acts, founded on a plot by Balzac. Written and copyrighted by Lucie C. Falbe, London, England.

"Mrs. Buttermilk's Doll." Written and copyrighted by Lucy E. Arnold, Galveston, Texas.

"Pretender, The," an original romantic drama in four acts. Written and copyrighted by George Foster Platt, Milwaukee, Wis.

"Price (The) of Infamy." Copyright by Evelina Cooke Hardy, New York City, N. Y. "Woman's (A) Name," a drama with scenic effects, in four acts. Written and copyrighted by Frank A. Ferguson and Mary Shaw, Chicago, Ill.

DRAMATIC.

Clyde Fitch's condition is materially improved.

The National Stock Company opened at Bowling Green, Ky., recently and scored a big hit.

Rupert Hughes, author of "A Wooden Wedding," has sold his new play, "What Will People Say?"

Manager Hunt, of the Pike Theater, Cincinnati, O., is in New York looking for a scenic artist for his theater.

Sarah Bernhart is to play in Berlin for a fortnight in October at the Royal Theater in a half dozen of her leading roles. From there she will go to Dresden, Leipzig, Halle and Weimar.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell, James K. Hacker and Mary Mannerling returned to America Aug. 20, on the steamer Oceanic. Mrs. Campbell will appear at the Garden Theater, New York, Sept. 15.

The Marble Fountain Company has been playing to excellent business in Houston, Texas, for the past three weeks under the able management of Jake Schwartz. "U No No," something doing all the while.

Thomas Farron, Jr., a chip off the old block and son of T. J. Farron, of Buffalo, N. Y., will make his mark in a revival of "Chris and Lena," of which Peter F. Baker and John Kennell will also be members.

William S. Devery, formerly chief of police in New York City, has written a drama in three acts, entitled "Secrets of the New York Police Force," the sale of which he is now negotiating with a Broadway manager.

The Robinson Opera House, Cincinnati, O., has been leased by Corse Payton and his sister, Mrs. Mary S. Spouner, of Brooklyn, and will be operated as a stock theater, with vaudeville turns between the acts.

There are at present about 3,000 actors idle in New York, which is due to the fact that new plays which are looked on with favor are such expensive productions that the managers are afraid to send them out on the road.

Messrs. Sullivan, Harris and Woods, managers of Miss Selma Herran, who is to star in "For Her Children's Sake," held their initial rehearsal at the Grand Opera House, in New York, Aug. 20, under the direction of the author of the piece, Theodore Kremer.

The Carvel (Clifford) Company opened their season at Alexandria, Ind., night of Aug. 18, presenting a romantic melodrama, entitled "The Mahatma." E. J. Carvel is the business manager of the company, and productions are staged under the direction of P. H. Clifford.

Annie Oakley, formerly with Buffalo Bill's Wild West, is to star next season in a melodrama, entitled "The Western Girl." The play will give her opportunities to exhibit with firearms. One scene in the play will require her to intercept a telegraphic message by cutting the wire with a ball from her rifle.

The Metson twin sisters were compelled to cancel their engagement at Shady Side Park, Louisville, Ky., because of Miss Darcy's having caught a severe cold. After a couple of weeks' rest at their home, in Cincinnati, they will join Stetson's big double Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, to do double topsies.

Owing to the number of companies using the name "National Stock," J. W. Leigh will, hereafter, call his company the Clare Jenkins Stock Company, to avoid conflicts in bookings, and all contracts will be filled under the new name. Miss Jenkins is making a hit in the new version of Camille, and business is beyond expectations.

Chas. A. Wade, of Auburn, Me., has on his farm ten pigs, all born of the same mother, and not one of the ten has any hind legs. The location of the tails of the little animals are either on their backs or on the side of their hindquarters. The porkers are living and getting around very well.

Katherine Willard, Edward C. White's new star, opens her second season under his management in "The Power Behind the Throne" at Keene, N. H., on Sept. 6. Manager White has gotten up an entire new scenic production for Miss Willard, also a new complement of costumes. The supporting company will be of the same excellence as last season, as nearly all the old members have been re-engaged.

There will be great doings at the opening of the Willis Wood Theater in Kansas City, when Amelia Bingham presents "A Modern Magdalen" with the cast which appeared at the Bijou in this city last season. O. D. Woodward, manager of the new theater, has invited the Governors of Missouri, Illinois, Kansas, Iowa and Texas to be present at the first night, and four of them have signified their intention of accepting his invitation. The Governor of Texas is yet to be heard from.

PLAYHOUSES.

Pittsfield, Mass., is to have a handsome new playhouse.

The new opera house at Hamilton, O., is to be ready for the opening Dec. 15.

Work on the Weller Opera House, on N. Third street, Zanesville, O., is progressing nicely.

The new Grand Opera House at Lafayette, Ind., will be opened Sept. 1 by the Howard-Dorset Company.

The Faust Opera House Block, Lima, O., has been purchased by John D. Rockefeller. The theater will be completely renovated.

Herman, the magician, will open the Lyceum Theater, Memphis, Tenn., early in September. He will be followed by Al G. Field's Minstrels.

Lew Wiswell, formerly of Cincinnati, O., has been selected by John Haylin to manage the Auditorium Theater, Philadelphia, which is one of the Stair-Haylin chain of theaters.

Several Philadelphia capitalists are planning to build a magnificent theater in Cleveland, O. Harry Scott, manager of a road company, first interested the said capitalists in the idea.

C. M. Frutter, manager of the Academy of Music, at Hagerstown, Md., has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, but was convalescent at the opening of the house, on Aug. 23.

Miss G. Neer has accepted a position with the E. D. Stahl's forces as representative of the Lyceum and Cleveland theaters, Cleveland, O. The revealed amount will be under Mr. Neer's personal direction.

George S. Turner, of Cincinnati, Ind., was spotted Aug. 19 with "landroad" fever as the condition. The theater has been removed, the stage changed, and now companies carrying large scenery will be able to stage their effects.

The lease of the Academy of Music, at Hagerstown, Md., now under the management of C. M. Frutter, and having a seating capacity of 600, will expire at the end of this season, and the proprietors want to get a list of engine names for the once.

The Auditorium Theater, at Memphis, Tenn., opened Aug. 25 with the Georgia Minstrels. As in the past, Mr. Stambaugh, one manager, will offer attractions of all classes to his patrons. Farce comedy, drama, band concerts, stock companies and grand opera will all be represented.

W. E. Lawrence and General A. F. Marsh, of the Avenue Theater, Detroit, Mich., and Thomas J. Nayn have closed negotiations whereby they have secured a piece of property in the very heart of Cleveland, O., upon which to erect a $100,000 theater. The property is located on Superior street directly opposite the Hotel de France. The lease runs for ninety-nine years.

A stock company will hold the boards of the Grand Opera House, Memphis, Tenn., the coming season. The leading man is Robert Wayne; Miss Lucia Moore is the new leading lady; Arthur Macey will play Neavies; Lee Stretet in character roles; William Stuart, comedian; Louisa McCormack "old man" parts; Colvin Kavanaugh and Theodore Gumble of last year's company. Of the ladies of the company, in addition to Miss Moore, there are Miss Anna Troninger, Miss Julia Gordon and Miss Vera Rosa.

E. Magee, manager of the Washington (Ind.) Opera House, has booked the following attractions for the coming season: "Star Boarders," "Jolly Man's Troubles," "Ways of the Wicked," "East Lynne," "New East End," "Strollers," Waldman in Shakespearean plays, "Where is Cobb?" "Hot Stuff," E. J. Witten's Vaudeville Stars, "Kip van Winkle," "My Wife's Husband," "When the Fall Tolls," "Jane Combs," "May & Sons," "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "Uncle Hes Company," "Next Door," "Metropolitan Plays," "Light House Robbery," "Manoia's Wedding Day," "Romeo and Juliet," "The Other Fellow," "Secret Despatch," "Melodrama Minstrels," "Mary, Queen of Scots," and is negotiating for other good attractions.

The new Masonic Theater, now in course of construction at Fourth avenue and Chestnut street, Louisville, Ky., will be finished by Nov. 1. Col. William H. Meffert, old-time theatrical manager, whose name has for years been associated with the Temple Theater, of Louisville, and with the stock company which played under his name is to manage the new theater. A stock company will most probably be put on, as this is the only field open in which the new theater would not come into competition with already established rivals. The theater, when completed, will be among the handsomest of the South, with a seating capacity of 1,500. The seats will be covered with leather, instead of plush, and there will be a space of 32 inches between the rows.

VAUDEVILLE.

The Thorns, jugglers and equilibrists, are appearing on the J. W. Gorman circuit of summer parks.

Vick B. Neal has just closed a five months' engagement with Wittman's Vaudeville Company at East Liverpool, O., and is now visiting at his home in Indianapolis, Ind.

Wett Marshall, husband of the late Edna Bassett Marshall, and who has been managing Island Park Theater, at DeLancey, O., this season, suddenly left the city Aug. 20 with his baggage and left his vaudeville stars stranded. He also left many unpaid bills among the merchants. The people stranded include the Major Sisters, Cilaton and Wilson and the Esterbrooks. They gave a benefit performance to raise funds with which to get to their homes.

Notes from the James Family, Swiss Bell Ringers: This finds the James Family Bell Ringers still "flinging" Wisconsin to banner business notwithstanding the rainy weather, and the ledger still balances in our favor. At Jamesville it interfered with business, but generally we have "faired" better than the one-night stand shows.

At Clinton we were against the Marietta K. R. Shows, but made good, although we had already been on the grounds a week before the above mentioned shows arrived.

Bessie Bonehill, who dhd recently at Fort Sea, was best known to the patrons of the vaudeville theater. She first appeared in New York, where her singing made a hit. J. J. Rosenthal afterward managed a starring tour for her in a piece called "Playmates," named after one of her greatest song hits. The venture proved a failure, and Miss Bonehill went back to the vaudeville houses. Her subsequent time was put in between this country and England. In private life the singer was known as Mrs. Will Sheeley, her husband managing her business affairs.

Notes from Katima Remedy Company, No. 5: This makes our fourteenth week of unparalleled success. Notwithstanding the bad weather we have played to full capacity of our seats, and our sales attest the quality of our remedies. Roster: Katima Remedy Company, Newark, N. J., proprietor; Dr. Jalliet, manager; Mme. Jalliet, organist and treasurer; William and Roy Jalliet, song and dancer; Thos. Madden, comedian and expert dancer; Gus Jalliet, impersonator, songs, punch, musical act; Geo. Christ, canvassman, general utility. All are happy, and "The Billboard" well, we could not do without it.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Duss' Band will take the road Oct. 6. Linn Leumann is about to publish "My Singing Art," giving her experience as a singer and her observations and personal reminiscences of musicians.

Villa Knox, who succeeds Mlle. Ried as prima donna of the Chester Park Opera Company, Cincinnati, has been very favorably received by the music lovers of the Queen City.

John R. Rogers has leased, on royalty, to the Bennett Moulton Company his musical comedy, "My Brother's Sister," for the East and Northwest territory. Miss Turner, a bright little comedienne, known as "the only Miss Turner," is to star in the role formerly played by Minnie Palmer.

A school for prospective stage artists is to be established in Pittsburg, Pa., by Charles H. Drew, general director; Alexander Flug, musical director, and William Dixon, stage director of the Duquesne Grand Opera Company. The new school, which will be opened September 1, will not teach singing, but stage conduct required in opera.

J. Raymond Hubbell and Addison Burkhardt, both of Chicago, are at work upon a comic opera, which is to be produced for the first time in Chicago about the first of October. Mr. Hubbell, who has quite an enviable talent as a composer, is writing the music for the opera, while his collaborator, Mr. Burkhardt, who enjoys a reputation as a lyric writer, is furnishing the libretto.

Some of the most attractive paper seen this season will be ahead of Goyert & Maysee's production of Paul Woodworth Hyde's musical comedy, "A Jolly Man's Troubles." And there will be plenty of it, too, for Mounser Goyert is guardian of the pretty little Haefrig Theater in Greensburg, Ind., and he knows what good billing means. All their scenery is now in readiness for the road, and the piece is being rehearsed ardently, so that the opening, which is booked for September 1, will see a good presentation of the lively play. Lots of good, catchy music is in the piece, and this combined with funny situations galore assures success to the enterprise. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Goyert has been seriously ill until the last week, he has attended to all the preparatory of the organization's tour. Mr. Hyde's other new musical comedy is now finished. It is called "All on Account of the Baby," and it may take the road in October.

MINSTRELS.

Dan Quinlan was called before the curtain for a speech in Elmira, N. Y., Aug. 18, and handsome bouquets were presented to him and other members of the company.

The Paragon Minstrels were recently organized in Vevay, Ind., opening the season in that city. They show under canvas and carry fifteen people, also a good band and orchestra. The show is backed by prominent business men of Vevay. They will tour Indiana, Kentucky and the West.

Active rehearsals commenced with the Who, When, What Minstrels, Aug. 18, and out of the forty-four people engaged only two proved disappointments. Mr. Chas. J. West replaces Mr. Fenstul as orchestra leader. Rehearsals are easy, owing to the re-engagement of nearly all the old members.

Following is the roster of John W. Vogel's Big Minstrels: Arthur Rigby, chief comedian; Crawford Flaming, musical comedian; Don Gordon, trick cyclist; Brobst Brothers, dancing daudies; Latoy and Edmonds, comic acrobats; Chas. Gano; Grant Merkle, basso; and Prof. Norton's double symphony orchestra.

The Gideon Big Minstrel Carnival opened the season at Dulouque, Ia., Saturday, August 23. The show looked resplendent with its full line of new special paper by the Donaldson Lithographing Company, of Newport, Ky., the first part setting, painted by Armbruster & Sons, of Columbus, O., and the costumes are also new. The show carries thirty people and two bands, and is booked solid till March. Following is the roster: L. E. Gideon, proprietor; Harry F. Curtis, business manager; R. L. Wixton, press representative; Jack Burton, agent; H. S. Brown, programmer.

BURLESQUE.

The "Wine, Woman and Song" company reports business the best ever.

The Topsy Turvy Burlesque Company opened to excellent business in Baltimore last week.

Charles Hertzman, who last season was treasurer of the Buckingham Theater of Louisville, Ky., has received the appointment to the management of the Empire Theater of Detroit, Mich., the latest acquisition to the Empire circuit. Mr. Hertzman, who is only 23 years old, accepted a position with Whalen Brothers at the Buckingham Theater seven years ago and has steadily worked his way up. From stenographer he was promoted to work as Col. John H. Whalen's private secretary, and last season was made treasurer of the Buckingham Theater. His circle of friends is only limited by his acquaintance and they look forward to an exceedingly brilliant future for the young man.

PROFESSIONALS, ATTENTION!

Bingaman & Co., diamond importers, Sixth and Vine, Cincinnati, Ohio, give special reductions to members of the theatrical and circus professions on all diamond purchases.

CLOSED.

Great Buffalo and Wild West Encounter Overpowering Adversity.

The Great Buffalo and Wild West Show closed at Galena, Ill., Aug. 18, on account of the inclement weather. The show opened at Missoula, Mont., July 4, and traveled East. It encountered rain, wind and mud almost continuously from its opening. The Messrs. Saxon, who are wealthy men, and Manager Geo. L. Hutchin finally closed the show in sheer disgust.

ABSCONDED.

Claimed that Wm. Morrow Gets Away with Jewelry and Money.

On the night of August 20th it is alleged that Wm. Morrow, the porter on B. E. Wallace's private car, entered the state rooms occupied by Mr. Wallace, Al. Murtin and C. E. Cory. He secured two valuable diamond studs, a diamond collar button, a solid gold Howard movement watch, and about $300 in money. It was Morrow's second season with the show, and he was trusted implicitly by everybody. Morrow is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighs 130 pounds, has dark complexion, is very quiet in manner and talks with a decided Southern accent. He is a native of Virginia. There is a reward of $200 offered for his arrest and the return of the stolen property. Morrow left the train on the run into Cadillac, Mich., and will probably go to Chicago, as he worked there last winter.

CIRCUS GOSSIP.

Kansas is billed for six different shows through September.

John D'Aima will put out a three-car dog and pony show in 1904.

C. J. North, a bill poster of Forepaugh-Sells' Show, was fined $10 at Osborn, O., for nonpayment of license.

E. T. Brennan and Wm. Smith, of Howe's London Shows, recently visited Kansas City, Mo. to arrange for winter quarters.

Lazelle, the fortune teller, who was with the Sells-Downs Shows the early part of the season, has joined Buckskin Bill's Wild West.

Many of the members of the Great American Water Circus, which quit business at Gallipolis, O., have joined the Harris Nickel Plate Shows.

William Sells spent a few days in Kansas City, Mo., recently and engaged eight men to go in opposition to the Campbell Bros. and Buckskin Bill Shows in Kansas.

Fred Beckman, who was general agent of the Sells Show until its closing a few weeks ago, has resumed his old position ahead of Jacob Litt's "In Old Kentucky."

Tom Powell, an attache of Gentry Bros.' Show, was attacked and severely beaten by eight men of the same show. He left the aggregation and secured work in Gallon, O.

Thos. Ryan and wife have closed with the Sells-Downs Shows, and Mr. Ryan has accepted the management of Buckskin Bill's side-show, to which he has added many new features.

The Jenner family of equillibrists, acrobats and contortionists closed a sixteen months' engagement with Long's Palace Shows on Aug. 16 and joined Howe's London Show, Aug. 20, at Republic, Mo.

Wm. Paer, formerly of the Forepaugh-Sells Circus, is visiting his old fellow trumper, John Richardson, at the latter's home in Cambridge, O. They are having an excellent time exchanging experiences under the white tents.

Mr. Bailey last week brought Mr. Lewis E. Cooke from San Francisco to New York for an hour's conversation. Mr. Cooke made the trip across the continent in the unprecedented time of three days, twenty-one hours and twenty-five minutes.

On Aug. 20, while in Louisville, Ky., six of the boys of No. 2 advertising car of the Great Wallace Shows joined the Billers and Billposters Union No. 1, of that city. Sometime ago ten of their men joined the Indianapolis (Ind.) union. It is now a solid union car and the second such in the country.

At Mt. Vernon, O., a man upon whose lot the Robinson Shows held option attached a horse and buggy belonging to the aggregation, claiming that he had not been paid the price of option, the grounds not having been used, another lot being giving the preference. He would not accept bond and the case will come to trial.

During the parade of the Robinson Ten Big Shows at Cambridge, O., the horses attached to the band wagon became unmanageable and ran for several squares down a considerable hill. The musicians jumped to terra firma and were unhurt. The horses were stopped after a distance of several squares, and the magnificent wagon came out without a scratch.

While the Wallace Shows were exhibiting at Ft. Wayne, Ind., Ringmaster Sweeney got in trouble with Harry Griggs, an equestrian performer, and Griggs struck him twice on the head, sending him to the ground and partially stunning him. In the evening Sweeney was kicked by a horse and was carried from the hippodrome track in a senseless condition. His wounds were dressed about midnight at a near-by drug store. He has now entirely recovered.

Morris & Rowe lost Washington, D. C., owing to an arbitrary and wholly unwarranted ruling of the police commissioners of the District, who decided that the show was a circus and not a trained animal exhibition. They revoked the license which the agent had obtained, and informed Messrs. Morris and Rowe that they would have to abandon the heart-of-town lot secured, move out to the circus lot and pay $200 license per day. Upon inquiry it was found that even this could not be done, as the consent of 75 per cent. of the householders adjacent to the lot must be obtained before license could be granted. As this would take two or three days the town was abandoned.

Word reaches us that several attaches, the chief clown and one of the acrobats, connected with the Harris Nickel Plate Show were arrested at Portsmouth, O., for craps shooting. One of the city officers happening around and his ears catching the suspicious words, "come several, come leben," he at once notified several of his brothers of the force and they raided the game, arresting five men, who gave their names as Thomas Martin, Frazer Johnson, Vaughn, Earl Jewett and Fletcher Mortimer. The last two proved to be spectators and were dismissed, but they others were fined $2 each, a midnight session of police court being held. At the request of the manager of the show the mayor was hailed out of bed to sit in judgment upon the craps-shooters.

The warm feeling of fellowship which show people have for one another and for those with whom they were once associated is shown by the following little episode, which occurred during the visit of the Forepaugh-Sells Show to Columbus, O., recently. Duffield Lewis Leonard was formerly one of the clowns traveling with the above show, and while at Ashland, Ky., about two years ago he was stricken with paralysis. He is a native of Columbus and since his affliction has made his home there with relatives. While the show was at Columbus some of his old associates remembered "Duffield Lew," and a purse was at once gotten up for him. Lewis Sells started the subscription by giving a pony, and Peter Sells followed with a gift of $50. Each and every performer contributed to this noble act of charity and the nice sum of $411.75 was raised.

Lowery Brothers No. 1 Show slipped into Philadelphia two weeks ago and have been doing such a big business since that they will remain until cold weather. The cars have been sidetracked and the show is now hauled from lot to lot by "gilly" wagons. Week stands are being made. The performance given is a clean and bright one and pleases the large crowds that attend. Following is the roster of the company: Lowery Brothers, owners; George B. Lowery, manager; Phil Harris, general agent, with two assistants; James McGinnis, secretary and treasurer; Harry Lewis, press agent; Prof. John Dusch, leader of band. The performers are: Keuther Brothers, equillibrists and acrobats; Master Julian Rhodes, acrobat and contortionist; Rosse, Roman ring expert; The Kilners, illuminated statues; The Rhodes, breakaway ladder, and LaScheil, Baby Irene, contortionist; Prof. Lewis and his educated dogs; The Kohers, double trapeze, and Charles (Gorgie) O'Brien, the old time talking clown. The concert people are: Prof. Kelly, magic; Irene Davis, in singing specialty; Lewis and Lewis, sketch; Johnson and Drips, song and dance, and Charles O'Brien and Company in a farce. The show exhibits under a ninety-foot round-top with two forty-foot middle pieces.

Notes from Buckskin Bill's Wild West: Harry W. Semon was the first big show agent to strike Texas this season, and he has arranged for Buckskin Bill's Wild West Show to exhibit in all the important towns and cities of the Lone Star State. Henry E. Allott, better known to the profession as Bunk Allen, one of the proprietors and also manager of the show, and his charming wife, contemplate a trip to Europe at the close of the season. John Reynolds has succeeded William J. Dorris as manager of the privileges. The show has done a phenomenal business since it crossed the Missouri River. In less than two weeks it has cleared a little over $10,000. At Leavenworth, Kas., following two days after the Campbell Bros. Show we played to enormous business, and although Buckskin Bill has done some large business, Leavenworth proved to be the banner of the season. J. U. O'Brien is no longer interested in the show, his interest having been purchased by Mr. Val. Hoffman, the young Chicago millionaire brewer. An entire new spread of canvas has been made for us by the Murray Tent Makers, of Chicago, and will be used for the first time by this show at Great Bend, Kas., Aug. 25. Next season the show will be enlarged to twice its present size, and Manager Allott says he will expend at least $20,000 on improvements. Tambourine McCarty is the latest addition to the concert. The proprietors of Buckskin Bill's Wild West are so well pleased with the railroad contracts for their tour of Texas, made by Harry W. Semon, their general agent, that they have presented Mr. Semon with a substantial purse, as a token of their appreciation. Mrs. Henry E. Allott takes the paste boards at the big door, and makes numerous friends at every stand by her courteous treatment and affable manner.

DETROIT, MICH.

Avenue Theater, (H. Lamkin, Mgr.)—The Aurore Trio, comedy acrobats; Carroll, the whistler; Edwin Keoh and Dorothy Ballard, in "A Vaudeville Surprise"; Maud Hutt, monologue and songs; Robert Hayes and Roberts, in "The Infant"; Brackett and Gerard, song illustrators; Marie Dressler, in songs and recitations; Wiltis and Hassou, balancers; the American Vitagraph, new pictures. The show this week is a very good one, and has been playing to crowded houses at every performance.

Detroit Opera House, Lyceum Theater and Empire Theater all closed.

Wonderland and Temple Theater, (J. H. Moore, Mgr.)—Alice Hanson and Gussie Nelson, singing and dancing comedienne; Howard Bros., banjoists; Woodward, Layton and Rehn's pantomime, electric spectacular fantasy, "The Dream of Suzette"; Sophie Burnham, the sweet-voiced soprano; Grace Emmett and company, in her own Irish comedy skit, entitled "Mrs. Murphy's Second Husband"; the American Biograph, with new pictures; Ryder's famous troupe of educated and acrobatic monkeys. The show this week is a very good one, and has been playing to packed houses.

Whitney Opera House, (Chas. Altman, Mgr.)—"A Montana Outlaw" under the management of Altman & Warner, two local managers, opened at this house Aug. 17, and is one of the best shows of its kind ever seen at this theater. Sunday afternoon and evening people were turned away, and the company has been playing to packed houses at every performance.

GEO. W. RENCHARD.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

This city has been thoroughly agog over the production for the first time on any stage of the unique play, "Corianton." The bill boards proclaim it "an Aztec romance," founded on the Book of Mormon. A story of the Book of Mormon was written by Brigham H. Roberts, the man who came into national fame by being denied the privilege of sitting in the House of Representatives, to which he was elected by the people of Utah. The story of the Book of Mormon, by Roberts, suggested to Orestes U. Bean, of this State, the idea of a play to follow along its lines. Action followed the idea, and the play "Corianton" was the outcome. Those having the matter in charge realized the necessity of ready cash to launch the venture, procure the right kind of ability and give it the proper kind of an introduction, but all obstacles were overcome, and the play was produced at the Salt Lake Theater with capacity houses at each performance. The receipts for seven performances aggregated $8,000. The rush was so strong that the engagement was continued for the first three nights of the present week. As a play, "Corianton" is strong, and with such well-known actors as Joseph Howarth, of Empire Theater (N. Y.) fame, and Agnes Rose Lane, impersonating the leading roles, there is small wonder that there were overflowing houses. "Corianton" suggests "Quo Vadis," yet is altogether different. The former depicts life among the early inhabitants of this continent and incidentally the religious thought of the people, while the latter details the sufferings of the early Christians. Howarth thinks he has created a role that will make him famous, and there is good reason for it. New scenery, new costumes and new ideas pervade "Corianton." It goes East from here, and we hope to hear nothing but praise for it among the Eastern critics. George E. Blair is the manager and the Deseret Dramatic Syndicate are the promoters.

GEO. D. ALDER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA.

The coming season of 1902-03 will be one not soon to be forgotten, for not only have the Hirscher Bros. booked the strongest list of attractions, but they have remodeled the house from top to bottom—in other words, they have made an up-to-date theater out of the old one, and they can now stage any production that goes on the road. The Montgomery theater-going people will doff their hats to these enterprising managers. Not only have they improved the stage, but they have done away with all the 1770 styles and have put in steam heating apparatus, modern scenery, seats, etc. The season will open about Sept. 12. Long live Sam and Arthur Hirscher, for they come as a godsend.

G. F. McDonald has not been idle, and has had painters and decorators working all the summer on his beautiful little Bibb street playhouse, and has a strong list of attractions booked for the coming season, which will open in the latter part of September.

The attractions at Bloem Fountaine continue to draw, and business is good under John W. Keene's management. The best vaudeville people in the business have been with us this summer. Mr. Keene is making all arrangements for the next season, and will improve the park, etc., and when his name is mentioned as manager, that is a guarantee that we will have nothing but the best.

JOHN W. BAILEY.

WACO, TEX.

All our theaters are dark until Sept. 1, when the Grand will make its opening with the Krauss-Taylor Stock Company for week of Sept. 1-6. The Auditorium, it is announced, will open Sept. 15 with Murray and Mack. We expect to see a big show season this year, as everything points to good crops.

FAIRS & STREET FAIRS AND EXPOSITIONS

CATTLE ROPING

Will Be Feature of San Antonio Fair.

The fourth annual fair and exposition of the San Antonio International Fair Association will be held October 18-23 next, and everything points to a larger and better fair this year than ever before. Bigger premiums are offered and every available foot of space in the various buildings has already been contracted for.

The Fair Association has also been fortunate in the matter of attractions. Palme's fireworks display and "The Last Days of Pompeii" will be the main night feature. During the day a vaudeville troupe will give performances in the Music Hall free to all performers.

A very interesting feature of this fair will be the cattle roping contest, which will occur October 21-22. Already one hundred wild steers have been secured for this contest. The number of ropers will be limited to sixty and the best ropers of this country and Mexico will participate. The first prize in the roping contest is $1,000; second prize, $500; the third prize, $250 cash—in the aggregate prizes amounting to about $5,000.

FAIR NOTES.

Privileges are for sale at the Worcester (Mass.) Fair, September 1-2.

The Bonron County Fair will be held at Millersburg, Ky., September 18-19-20.

The Vigo County (Ind.) Fair was a big success. The association cleared about $5,000.

Onelda's (N. Y.) agricultural fair, booked for September 16-18, is the first held there in twenty years.

The Farmer City (Ill.) Fair Association will hold a meeting this fall, Oct. 7-9, which will be strictly a race meet.

J. E. Girard's Big Fair Ground Show is now fully organized at Buffalo, N. Y., and will open at Hornellsville, N. Y., Aug. 25-30.

The premium list for the Provincial Fair to be held at Victoria, B. C., October 7-11, has been issued and contains a comprehensive and liberal premium list.

The Shelby County (Ky.) Fair Association has secured White & La Mart, the novelty duo, (who present a novelty trick entitled, "It is to Laugh") for its fair next month.

An attractive prize list has been issued by the Dutchess County Agricultural Society for their sixty-first annual fair, to be held at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., September 22-26.

W. H. Smith is putting together a big fair ground show at Buffalo, N. Y., including statue turning to life, aerial acts and ventriloquist. It will also include a gypsy camp.

The prizes to be awarded to fancy horses this year at the Indiana State Fair amount to 3,057, which is considerably more than the directors have ever before spent in this department.

Some of the special attractions secured for the Tipton, Ia., fair, to be held September 3-5, are Martin & Crouch, comedy acrobats; Hanlon & Singer, aerial gymnasts; Japanese troupe; "The Olars"; the great Kartell, and the Ahrens.

The Lancaster (Pa.) County Fair, Horse and Cattle Show will be held September 16-19. The event has been well advertised and judging from the large number of applications received daily, the fair will be a big go. Premium lists have been issued.

The Richmond (Ind.) Fair Association's annual event will take place Sept. 2-5. The prospects are for the most successful fair ever held in Wayne county. The exhibits will be more complete than ever before and a special effort has been made to please and interest all classes of patrons.

The Winkelhofer Bros. and Holtgrewe, the Cincinnati strong man, recently formed a company under the management of Fred. Bosch and started out on the road. They will give exhibitions of heavy weight lifting and scientific bag-punching specialties at the county fairs throughout Ohio and the surrounding states.

Matt Cannon's Electrical Wonderland is playing the Indiana circuit of fairs. The roster includes Matt Cannon, manager; Etta Cannon, treasurer; Geo. C. Thomson, business manager and opener; "Iola," the girl from up there; La Belle Annette, fire and serpentine dances; the Renshieder Sisters, dancers, and three electricians.

D. R. Mills, of Des Moines, Ia., has been secured to promote and manage the Indianapolis Horse Show, which will be held in connection with the Fall Festival, October 13-18. Mr. Mills takes the enterprise in hand with several years of experience and a chain of unbroken successes in managing some of the best shows in the West.

Notes from the Scott County (Mo.) Agricultural Society: This being our first annual county fair, nothing is being left undone. Some of the finest buildings south of St. Louis are being erected, and our prizes and purses are the largest in southeast Missouri. We expect to have all kinds of attractions, and our fair is thrown wide open to all manner of privileges.

B. W. Parks, secretary of the Bourbon (Ind.) Fair Association, writes as follows: "Running-horse posters are not suitable for fairs. They have no runners to speak of, and want none. We leave that to cillies and gamblers. A fair must be run clean, or it will go bankrupt. We cater to the best moral and intellectual element, and have great success. Fairs that have used running horses and gamblers are dead or dying."

The Hamilton County Fair closed at Carthage (near Cincinnati) Friday evening, Aug. 22. It was the biggest success in the history of the association. More than 12,000 people attended the last day of the fair, and the officials were in high spirits. The total premium awards amounted to $8,000. The removal of the fair grounds was discussed freely among the directors, and the opinions regarding their future varied radically.

Much interest is being taken in the Bowling Green (Ky.) Horse Show and Race Meeting, which will be held September 11-14. Bowling Green is fast becoming an important horse market in the state of Kentucky. The premiums have been increased and will no doubt bring a big string of the best horses in Kentucky to the meeting. On account of the many applications for stall room for horses, new stables have been built under the amphitheater to accommodate fifty additional horses. The meeting is being advertised extensively and will certainly be attended by large crowds.

The Toronto (Can.) Fair Association has engaged the following attractions for its fair, to be held September 1-13: Bostock's Famous Animal Arena; Akoun's Beautiful Orient and Cingalese Theater; Stark's Troupe of Glass Workers; Fairyland; Sosman & Landis' Electric Theater; Hardy Dowling, loop-the-loop man; Captain Woodwards Troupe of Performing Seals and Sea Lions, and Lockhart's Elephants. Also, Madam Mariou Lijens, high diver and aquatic artiste; the Four Rianos, animal imitators; Willie Hale & Francis, club experts; International Cycle Whirl; Nelsons, grotesque acrobats; the Panzer Trio, and Lily Bietsoe, of Toronto, lady cornetist.

Street Fairs and Carnivals.

STREET FAIR AND CARNIVAL NOTES.

There will be no street fair at Clinton, Ia., this year.

Murlin, Tex., will have a street fair September 15-18.

Jacksonville, Ill., will have a street fair September 22-27.

Farmington, Ia., is to have a street fair September 10-12.

Carrollton, Mo., will hold a street fair. J. E. Diekson is chairman.

Minnok, Ill., will give one. A. Von Nordhelm is the man at the helm.

H. L. Leavitt closed with the Trades Council at Birmingham, Ala.

A. C. Babenhausen is heading the street fair movement at Jacksonville, Ill.

The Millie Christine Show is taking big money at the Elks' Carnival, St. Joseph, Mo., this week.

It appears that Hagerstown, Md., will not have a street fair this year, both Bostock and Sturgis having failed to promote it.

On the night of August 17 fire destroyed nearly all the booths at the Jeffersonville Elks' street fair, entailing a loss of $2,000.

The great Halle joined Layton's Carnival Company at Portsmouth, Va., to do his novelty wire and balance trapeze acts as free attractions.

Palostine, Tex., is to have a street fair some time in September. William Branagan is secretary and treasurer of the Festival Association.

The Flying Baldwin quit DeKreko at Lexington, Ky., and is booking fairs and street fairs independently. He has some open time in September.

The street fair at Mansfield, O., was a big success. The Gaskill-Mundy Carnival Company furnished the attractions, and report big receipts from all the shows.

The Two Hewitts' flying dog "Dan" has entirely recovered from his fall at the Rochester Fair, and is again doing his dive in the act with the Hewitts, with the Wright Carnival Company.

Boston's carnival opened Aug. 25 at Crescent Beach Park. It will be on for two weeks. Balloon ascensions take place each day and many other interesting features are on the program. The whole beach front (about one and one-half mile) is illuminated nightly.

Owing to bad business for several successive weeks, culminating in Lexington, Ky., the DeKreko Bros.' Roman Carnival and Exposition Company disbanded in Cincinnati, O., August 20. All the DeKreko people will book independently the remainder of the season.

Frevoll, the magician, brought suit last week against W. E. Williams and H. W. Wright, of the Wright Carnival Company, for alleged salary due, and was given judgment for $81.86. The case was appealed by the defendant and will come up some time in September.

Dana Thompson, high diver, formerly with the Morris-Berger Company, left the latter at Tiffin, O. He quit high diving altogether for his wife's sake, who could no longer endure the thought of his dangerous act. He was in the business four years, and in this time has earned a snug little sum.

The main features of the Garbrill-Mundy Carnival Company, which is furnishing attractions for the Fall Festival at Ft.

Wayne, Ind., this week, (Aug. 25-30) are as follows: Four bands, trained animals and 200 performers; Hagenback Trained Wild Animal Show, Trip to the Moon, Major Mundy's Dog and Pony Show, Japanese Village, Johnstown Flood, and the Haunted House.

Dr. Foster is hunting rattlers in Mexico, and expects to have a big supply on hand in a couple of weeks. Madam Foster, who is secretary and treasurer of the firm of Foster & Skim, has been putting in her spare time training a troupe of wild bears, and next season will go on the road with them. She is also training a troupe of cat animals, consisting of wild cats, catamounts and Mexican lions, which she will have ready for the road next season.

Mr. Victor D. Leavitt writes as follows, viz.: "The proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Elks at Salt Lake City, Utah, is only what I expected, and should have been done a year ago. This will cut out some of the snowflake carnival companies, but will not hurt the legitimate ones; only make it harder for the legitimate promoters, who will have to work under the auspices of the citizens and business men, and the sooner all fraternalism is cut out, and we get down to a business proposition, all the better for the towns and the legitimate carnival companies."

The following letter is from W. H. Rice: "The Elks' Carnival at Sault Ste. Marie was a success in every sense of the word. The notoriety that this lodge attained through the man who purchased the gaming privileges materially helped business. The strong graft advertised for was able to run but four hours. The Elks' contracts called for twenty-five-cent games with a dollar buy-back. The privilege people were led to suppose that anything and everything would be allowed to go. The loss of time and money must have been considerable, as there were over two hundred privilege men in the town Monday night. My fair at Flint, Mich., was only fairly successful. The five parades given were all very creditable and crowds were all that could be asked, but the capacity of the pocketbooks was limited. I am now at South Bend with Mr. Sam Haller, the Bostock-Ferari representative, endeavoring to make this the banner of all enclosed carnivals. Mr. Haller has posted over 20,000 sheets of Donaldson paper within a radius of 200 miles, and distributed 200,000 pieces of small stuff. The citizens have erected 24 electric arches, making the pathway to the carnival grounds as bright as day. Mr. Haller has organized one of the largest parades ever attempted for a street fair, to take place on Labor Day, and consist of every labor union within a radius of 150 miles, an industrial parade of over 200 floats, including the world famous Studebakers, Olivers, Slingers, South Bend Chilled Plow Company, Standard Oil Company, Birdsall Manufacturing Company, with all the smaller concerns of the city, and in addition to this will be all the uniformed secret bodels of this section and the society people's decorated vehicles. My next stand will be Milwaukee, Wis., where I will assist the city in putting on America's most famous Jahr market."

There will be five days of racing at the county fair to be held in Lafayette, Ind., September 1-5, and good purses are offered. Following is the program: September 1—2:40 trot, purse $300; 2:20 pace, purse $200; five-eighths mile run and repeat, purse $100. September 2—Two-year-old colt race, trot or pace, purse $300; gentlemen's road race, trot or pace, purse $200; September 3—2:35 pace, purse $300; 2:25 trot, purse $200; half-mile run and repeat, purse $75. September 4—2:30 trot, purse $300; 2:17 pace, purse $300; free-for-all trot, purse $300; one mile run and repeat, purse $150. September 5—Free-for-all pace, purse $300; 2:18 trot, purse $300; 2:25 pace, purse $300; five-eighths mile run and repeat, purse $100.

GREAT EVENTS

Looked For at the Kenelworth Driving Track, Buffalo, N. Y.

Kenelworth, the driving track at Buffalo, is practically finished, and Derby Day will show some of the fastest time pushers from the East and the West. The mile track is said to be a fast one. The club house is one of the features of the track. There will be six races Derby Day: First, all ages, for five and a half furlongs; second, three-year-olds and upwards, for a mile and an eighth; third, same ages, with conditions; fourth, Buffalo Derby; fifth, two-year-olds, for five furlongs; and a sixth a mile race. Horses are beginning to arrive, and the promise of great events are looked for.

SPEED RING NOTES.

The county fair at Platteville, Wis., will be Sept. 2-5. The sum of $2,500 will be given in purses for racing. The purses for the races of the twentieth annual fair of the Northampton Agricultural Society, to be held at Nazareth, Pa., September 16-19, aggregate $500. The Farmer City (Ill.) Fair Association will hold a meeting this fall, Oct. 7-9, which will be strictly a race meet. Purses of $300 will be offered. Wheel and book privileges are to let. J. R. Robinson is secretary of the association. E. G. Lybrand's (of Delaware, O.) mare Bertina won second money at Washington C. H., O., in the 2:40 trot, purse $300, in one of the hottest contested races ever trotted in Southern Ohio, in a field of 16 starters. Time by heats, 2:23 1/2, 2:24 1/2, 2:24 1/2, 2:25. First money went to Aerolite, a Columbus horse. A big race meet will take place at Bowling Green, Ky., September 11-14. Each purse has been fixed at $400, and there will be more trotters and pacers to contend for the money than ever before in the history of racing in Bowling Green. There will be at least 150 of these horses, and they will be the best and fastest goers of the country. Following is the program for the races to be held in connection with the Lancaster (Pa.) Fair: September 16—3:00 class, mixed, purse $300; 2:20 class, mixed, purse $200; running, one mile and repeat, purse $150. September 17—2:30 class, mixed, purse $300; 2:14 class, mixed, purse $300. September 18—2:24 class, mixed, purse $300; 2:17 class, mixed, purse $300; running, one-half mile and repeat, purse $100.

Following is the program of races to be run during the Tipton (In.) Fair, September 3-5: 2:35 trot, purse 200; 2:26 trot, purse $200; 2:20 trot, purse $250; 2:35 pace, purse $200; 2:25 pace, purse $250; free for all pace, purse $300; Tipton Derby, 1 1/4 mile dash, $250. There will also be two one-half, two three-quarter mile and two four and one-half furlong dashes.

Two thousand five hundred dollars will be hung up in the speed ring of the Dutchess County Fair, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. The money is divided in the following purses: September 23—2:40 trotting, purse 100; 2:30 pacing, purse $100 (county races); horses must have been owned in Dutchess County since January 1, 1902; 2:24 trotting, purse $250. September 24—2:17 trotting, purse $250; 2:23 pacing, purse $250; 2:30 trotting, purse $200. September 25—2:20 trotting, purse $300; 2:13 pacing, purse $300; 2:28 pacing, purse $200. September 26—2:27 trotting, purse $250; 2:18 pacing, purse $250.

The speed program for the Muskingum County Fair, to be held at Zanesville, O., September 9-12, is as follows: September 10—Farmers' trot, purse $100 (for horses that have not been trained on any track prior to three weeks next preceding the fair, and owned by farmers and driven by owners); this race confined to Muskingum County; horses that have taken first money in previous farmers' trots barred; farmers' run, purse 50; farmers' pace, same conditions No. 1, purse $100. September 11—2:25 trot, purse $300; 2:20 pace, purse $300; 2:20 trot, purse $300; one-half mile run, 2 in 3, purse $150. September 12—2:30 trot, purse $250; 2:40 trot, purse $200; one-half mile run, 3 in 5, $150.

There will be five days of racing at the county fair to be held in Lafayette, Ind., September 1-5, and good purses are offered. Following is the program: September 1—2:40 trot, purse $300; 2:20 pace, purse $200; five-eighths mile run and repeat, purse $100. September 2—Two-year-old colt race, trot or pace, purse $300; gentlemen's road race, trot or pace, purse $200; September 3—2:35 pace, purse $300; 2:25 trot, purse $200; half-mile run and repeat, purse $75. September 4—2:30 trot, purse $300; 2:17 pace, purse $300; free-for-all trot, purse $300; one mile run and repeat, purse $150. September 5—Free-for-all pace, purse $300; 2:18 trot, purse $300; 2:25 pace, purse $300; five-eighths mile run and repeat, purse $100.

PARKS
PLEASURE RESORTS SUMMER GARDENS

CHANGE IN MANAGEMENT.

Mr. Fauger, formerly associated with E. G. Winders, as manager of Edgewater Park, Cellul, O., has sold his interest in the resort to William McShaffrey, who made his advent at the park early in the present season, doing a musical specialty act. He became so fascinated with the park and its possibilities that he made overtures toward purchasing an interest in it, and as a result the present deal was pulled off. He will now devote his entire time to assisting Mr. Winders, the senior partner, in the management of the park.

PARK NOTES.

Lockhart's elephants showed to 60,000 people in two weeks at Electric Park, Kansas City, Mo. Muscutine's (Ia.) new park, known as Citizens' Railway Park, has been thrown open to the public. It is now settled that Sand Island, at Louisville, Ky., will be converted into a summer resort. Three aeronauts narrowly escaped death as a result of a balloon bursting at Courtland Beach, Omaha, Neb. The Ponce de Leon Springs, near Atlanta, Ga., are prospering under the management of the street railway company, who recently purchased the grounds. Great improvements are planned for the place. A landscape gardener from New Hampshire has been engaged and he will lay out a new plan for the springs. The summer theater at Woodland Park, Lexington, Ky., has been closed by Manager James Banta for the season. He says that his expenses were too heavy, but next year he thinks he will be in a position to renew his attempts in the summer theater line. High class vaudeville was ran exclusively by Mr. Banta. Electric Park, Kansas City, Mo., will close the most successful season in its history had more than its share of rain, but in spite of this handicap the profits are far ahead of previous seasons. The loop-the-loop railroad is doing a tremendous business and much credit is given this wonderful money getter for the banner business done by this "Coney Island" of the west. St. Louis has successfully supported eleven amusement parks. Forest Park Highlands is reported to be in the lead with the loop-the-loop railroad as its strong feature. Delmar Garden with its scenic road and the mill is a close second. Suburban, West End Heights, Hasgen's and the balance are all close up in a bunch. This is a remarkable record for a city of 600,000 population. It is safe to say that locally the World's Fair will be a big success.

The park season, which is now nearing its close, has been a very eventful one, although the long continued rain in many cities, combined with unseasonable weather, cut the attendance down in many parks.

The ones that have survived, and will have a nice balance on the right side of the ledger, are those in which up-to-date novelties and amusement devices have been installed to attract patrons. This is a pointer which wise managers will take advantage of to perpetuate the success of their resorts.

The advent of trolley parks into the amusement field has come to stay, but they must supply their patrons with novelties. Wherever this rule has been carried out, it has been successful.

BERT YOUNG.

Five years ago Bert Young, a very faithful likeness of whom is produced on our front page this issue, was selling peanuts for Colonel Hopkins around Forest Park Highlands, in St. Louis. His bright intelligent face gave promise of better things, but it was then little dreamed that he would in a few short years rise to the position of treasurer for one of the most popular houses in the South.

But Bert had brains and he knew how to use them. Furthermore he had the "push" and push is better than "pull" any time. There was a little streak in his character by which he remained undaunted. He worked throughout the entire Hopkins circuit in every capacity, from a Roman soldier in "Julius Caesar" to the exalted position he now does credit to.

Mr. Young is a prominent member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles No. 69, and is held in high esteem by his legion of friends who look to his future with great expectations.

TEMPLE OF ART

Is Kansas City's New Playhouse—Plan of Construction.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 23.—(Special).—From all indications the new Willis Wood Theater will positively open on schedule time, Aug. 25, with Amelita Bingham and her company in "A Modern Magdalen." For the opening night the house is entirely sold out at top-notch prices, and a heavy sale for the balance of the week is announced. Manager O. D. Woodward is deserving the greatest praise for giving to this city one of the most magnificent theaters ever erected in this country.

The designs and decorations of both the interior and exterior are of the Augustan period of the Roman empire. The auditorium of the new theater is like a shell—the side walls merging into the ceiling in great arches, a dome surmounting the whole. Aside from the beauty of the arches and panels the curve brings the greatest number of people to an equal focus and lends itself to the law of acoustics most admirably. The innovations in this modern "Temple of Thespis" begin at the floor and end only with the great air shaft that towers over the roof. The floor is of Portland cement, and no wood is to cover it. The cement floor is at once a fire and sanitary precaution.

From the first floor to the dome ceiling is 100 feet. The rear seats are 65 feet from the stage, and there are only two small columns to break the view. The greatest distance from the first row in the balcony to the stage is 40 feet.

Fresh air is supplied the building through a large shaft, and when heat is necessary it will be forced over coils of hot steam pipes from the cellar. All light, heat and power is carried to the theater in pipes and wires from the Hotel Baltimore, across the street, thus giving the house practical immunity from fire danger. In the decoration scheme thousands of electric lights and colors are used to bring out the shadows and projections in the architectural lines. It requires more than three thousand of these lights to illuminate the auditorium.

There are twenty-four dressing rooms, in four tiers, and all are above ground. The stage is 40 by 100 feet, with a forty-foot proscenium opening. From the floor to the roof is 100 feet, leaving room for entire settings to be suspended ready to be dropped to the stage in only a moment's time. Above the stage are the two skylights set on rollers on inclined planes and are held in place by a rope. In case of fire the rope would burn, permitting the skylights to slide back and form a great duct, 15 by 30 feet, through which the flames would be sucked out, taking them away from the front of the house. An asbestos curtain hangs rolled up above the front of the stage, held in place by a fusible link, which melts at about 110 degrees. When the temperature reaches that point the link melts, the curtain drops and the front of the house is shut off from the fire on the stage.

All in all the new house, as it now stands, is one of the finest structures of its kind. Only the highest class of attractions have been booked for the coming season, and in all probability the same success will attend this venture that has so far met all of Manager Wood's various operations in the theatrical business.

CHARLES H. SMALL.

PECULIARITIES

Of a Musician—Some Facts About Creator.

Ever since the light in July of his opening at Hammerstein's, on Broadway, Creator, the Italian band leader, has been the talk of New York. Many other leaders have been known there for years, but Creator became a favorite in a night. The papers are filled with illustrations and stories about him, and the music lovers have gone mad over the grand playing of his band and the energetic manner in which he conducts it. Creator is so natural and so unobtrusive that ordinarily he would not attract much attention, but he is magnetic, and when leading his band becomes so interested in his work that he forgets all else and throws his whole soul into the task. The roof garden where he plays has been crowded from the first night. Not only is the audience interested in the music, but it wonders at the remarkable acrobatic gestures of the man who is so wrapped up in his art that he never notices that an audience is listening to or watching him. Certain it is that he thrills his audience and furnishes a topic for conversation in all circles of the city. Few other personal successes have been so great since the days of Carmenita, Fregoli and Chevalier in New York, and Manager Oscar Hammerstein is making a fortune out of this lucky engagement.

CROP REPORT.

Following is the general summary of crop conditions issued weekly by the Department of Agriculture:

The week has not been favorable for the rapid maturing of crops in the northern districts eastward of the Mississippi valley, where it has been abnormally cool, while hot and generally dry weather prevailed in the Southern states, and the protracted drought continues in the middle mountain districts. Drought has been relieved in Washington, and generally favorable conditions prevailed in the Pacific Coast states, although the week was unreasonably cool in that region, and showers interrupted grain harvest in Oregon during the fore part of the week.

Corn continues in very promising condition in the principal corn state, in the northerly portions of which, however, it is maturing rapidly under the low temperatures which prevailed during the week.

The reports indicate that early corn over the northern portion of the corn belt will be safe from frost by Sept. 10-15, and the late crop from Sept. 15-Oct. 1, while over the southern portions of the corn belt early corn is already matured, and the late will be safe by Sept. 15-23. Spring wheat harvest is nearly finished in the Dakotas, and has progressed under favorable conditions in northern Minnesota, but was interrupted by showers in the southern portion of that state, in which the crop generally has been harvested slowly and unequally. In Iowa, wheat in shock has been injured, and a large percentage ruined by wet weather. The loss was also interrupted on the Gulf Coast, but is well advanced in Washington.

Further reports to damage to oats in shock are received from the Ohio and Upper Mississippi Valleys. Harvesting is unfinished only in some localities in the more northerly portions of the New England and Middle Atlantic states.

Late cotton has improved in the Carolinas, Mississippi and Louisiana and in portions of Missouri and Tennessee. In Alabama and Florida a light crop is indicated, and in Georgia the outlook is so varied as to range from excellent to almost a complete failure. Rust and shedding are very generally reported throughout the belt, with premature opening in portions of Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina. In Texas cotton is opening rapidly, and picking is becoming general, but the crop has deteriorated on account of excessive heat, shedding and ravages of boll worms and weevil. While some damage has resulted from the dry, hot weather in Oklahoma and Indian Territory, where the crop is maturing fast and picking in progress, a large crop of good quality is indicated. Cutting and curing of tobacco progressed favorably, and the crop has generally done well. While benefited by late rains in Kentucky, the crop in that state has been permanently injured by drought in some sections.

The reports respecting apples are favorable from New England, Michigan, Kansas, Oklahoma and portions of Illinois, Ohio, Virginia, and the outlook in Wisconsin is improved, while in Missouri the prospects are less favorable, and variable reports are received from New York, where a generally light crop is indicated.

Flouring for fall seedling has progressed favorably over the northern portion of the Southern states and portions of the Middle Atlantic states, but dry soil has retarded this work in portions of the Ohio Central, Mississippi and Lower Missouri valleys.

INDUSTRIAL REPORT.

The oracle of industry is actually wearing a smile these days. At least that is the effect of its utterances. Times are generally good with the single exception of the district of the hard coal and circumstances are gradually adjusting themselves there, though it will be several years before managers can safely look that section.

Reports from the various branches of industrial enterprise show that each is in a very flourishing condition, especially the iron and steel industry, of which for several years the output will be severely tested by the demand.

Few even insignificant strikes have been reported during the week just passed, and the outlook for manufacturers is brighter than it has been for a number of years.

Managers can count on twelve months of general prosperity at the very least.

MARRIAGES.

May Allen, of the Chester Park Opera chorus, Cincinnati, O., was recently married to Frank G. Rath (non-professional), of the same city.

Miss Emma Galles (professional), formerly of Cincinnati, was married to Frank W. Smith (professional), on July 16 at Savannah, Ga.

Herbert Sallinger and Odette Bordeaux, of the Borlek's Glen Opera Company, Elmira, N. Y., were married in that city Aug. 13. Both have been engaged for "Morocco Bound" this season.

Marion Stone, a popular member of the James Nell Stock Company, was married on Aug. 19 to H. A. McKay, of the Western Fuel Oil Company, San Francisco, Cal. The couple will reside in San Francisco.

Marion G. Cullen, formerly leading lady of the Shore Acres and Paradise Alley Companies, was married on Aug. 19 to Percival C. Jones, son of Mayor Samuel R. Jones, of Toledo, O. Miss Sadie Cullen, a sister of the bride and also a member of the Shore Acres Company, was maid of honor.

OBITUARY.

Bessie Bonehill, the vaudeville artist, died Aug. 21 at Portsea, Borough of Portsmouth, England.

Mrs. Eleanor Wallack, wife of Lester Wallack, the actor, grandson of the famous Lester Wallack, committed suicide Aug. 19 by inhaling illuminating gas.

Purnice Averette, an aerial performer, with Long's Palace Shows, died recently at Mountain View, Okla., of typhoid fever. His remains were interred at the same place.

George Lea, who for forty years conducted theaters and other places of amusement in various parts of this country, died Aug. 21 at his home in Port Jervis, N. Y., aged 84. He was a native of France.

Querita Vincent, who was well known as a singer ofcoon songs throughout the country, died recently of consumption at her home in San Francisco. Miss Vincent traveled with The Rays for several seasons.

Make experiments in advertising. Carefully select the best mode and then go ahead and invest all the money you can afford to on the venture. You may lose sometimes (but this is not likely), and the experience gained will in time return all losses tenfold.

NEW YORK.

Robert Emmett Scores at the Fourteenth Street Theater—"The Wild Rose" Plays at Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt's Newport Residence.

The Garrick Theater will open Aug. 25 with a new English farce, entitled "The New Clown," in which the principal parts will be taken by Jessie Hunsley, Margaret Gordon and Jameson Lee Phinney. Mr. Finney, as the clown, (a fashionable Londoner in disguise), will have to do several acrobatic "stunts" with a donkey which has been in training for some time. The principal scene is a circus ring. Eva Tingray and Julius Witmark will also appear in the cast.

Robert Edison will appear again at the Savoy in "Soldiers of Fortune." He will, as Robert Clay, make love to his own wife, Ellen Hurg, who is to return to the stage to play the role of Hope Langham.

"Robert Emmett" scored a hit at the Fourteenth Street Theater last Monday night, when British redcoats and wearers of the emerald green met in battle. It was for this house the first new play of the season, and sins of omission and commission were disregarded by the folks in the orchestra, while the gallery went into ecstasies over the platitudinous speeches, cheered the hero and blasted the villain. "Robert Emmett" is like most all Irish dramas. The hero loves a girl, is beset by enemies, and triumphs over them at various stages of the play. Flowers were handed over the footlights, and a building inspector was wondering whether the foundations of the theater could stand the pounding of feet. "Robert Emmett" is an attractive sort of hero. He has the pleasing faculty of always arriving at the right time, which obviously makes him a fine fellow, and so the gallery is quick to appreciate him. The comedy Irishman helps to fill in the blanks, and so all are satisfied. The author, Brandon Tynan, played the title role, and did not overact his part. The audience called the players before the curtain at the close of each act.

William H. Thompson, the veteran character actor, again distinguished himself in the role of Michael Dwyer, an outlaw. Francis Powers was an acceptable villain, and Angela Russell an attractive heroine. The best character in the play was Jimmie Noonan, played by William Elton. It was a hard character to assume—that of an informer. Even the gallery admitted Elton's merits, and that is merit in Fourteenth Street. The manager, Mr. Rosenquest, offered an excellent setting for the play. The mounting of the second act, showing the Wlekkow Mountains, was charming, and Mrs. Carter and David Belasco, who were in a box, applauded heartily.

"The Sweet Girl" is worthy of her name. She came to the Cherry Blossom Grove and covered herself with glory. The one-act musical comedy tells of a girl with "glittered" securities, who wants to be loved for herself alone. She is, and that gives opportunity for bright lines. The music of "Gloomin' Lize" in "The Chaperons" made a success, and this music Ben Jerome has taken and incorporated in "The Sweet Girl," which May Vokes and Frank Doane sing to a comic end about "Counting Ties."

"She's the Homeliest Girl in Harlem," "Dear Old Pipe," "I'm Through" and "Trouble" are some of the other catchy numbers, and with such a cast as Frank Doane, Maude Alice Kelly, Sydney Dean, May Vokes and Edgar Ely, "The Sweet Girl" is entitled to all that is coming to her.

"A Jolly American Tramp" was to be seen last week at the Third Avenue Theater—a play intermingled with comedy, pathos, "sensational" and vaudeville turns, and this week "Coon Hollow" promises to retain the bumper houses this theater has been favored with since its opening date.

"Sally in Our Alley" the new musical comedy written by George V. Hobart, with score by Ludwig Englander will open a new theatrical season on Upper Broadway next Thursday night at the Broadway Theater. The new production is being staged by George W. Lederer, under whose management it will be presented. Conspicuous among the principals are Dan McAvoy, Marie Cahill, Louis Wesley, Richard F. Carroll, Joseph Herbert, Catherine Lewis, Georgia Caine, Frank Bernard, Frank Farington, Margaret Marston, Fred Titus, Merlan Bruce, Georgia Kelly, Georgia Lawrence, Joseph T. C. Challies, James Furoy, Agnes Wayburn and Viola Carlstedt.

The comedy is in two acts and several scenes, the first set showing the alley of Sally, the second the interior of an East Side odds-and-ends store, and the third reflecting the border of a mansion in the fashionable section on Fifth avenue.

"The Wild Rose" will close its run at the Knickerbocker next Saturday evening. Among the gypsies who take a prominent part in this production are a few girls, including Ida Gabriel, Helene du Heron and Elga Howard, who promise to rival the famous Florodora Sextette girls by reason of the attention they seem to draw upon the minor parts allotted to them. The Knickerbocker was closed Monday night to enable the entire company to give a special performance at the Newport residence of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. The company will then play the residue of the week out at the Broadway house, and will open in Boston on Monday next.

"A Chinese Honeymoon" continues at the Casino on the same high tide of prosperity that has marked the production since it landed in New York.

Hammerstein's Paradise Garden still continues to be picked lightly. Creator and his band still remain a strong attraction. Each week offers changes in the vaudeville portion of the program.

CHICAGO.

Both Theaters and Parks Doing Big Business—Hart's Gossip.

Business at parks and theaters still continues to be very good. At the theaters, to be sure of seats, they must be reserved ahead. At the parks, crowds have been in attendance nightly. The first of September will see all the theaters open, and the season of 1923 begins in earnest.

Pain Pompeii Spectacle—The second week of "The Last Days of Pompeii" shows a decided increase in attendance of the previous week. The performance concludes each night with a magnificent display of fireworks.

Sans Souci Park—This park shows no diminishing in the attendance. The following new people appear in the open-air theater. The great Leon, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Waterons, Mous, Torrah, the Rozinos. Just now there is joy in the Indian camp. A tiny daughter of Princess Neola and Eagle Eye has arrived. The little one will be christened Sans Souci, which means without care.

Chutes Park—The vaudeville performers are Riley and O'Dell, comedians; the Melvius, illusionists; Cross and Kerwin, pantomimists; the Llewellyn Family of acrobats; Parisian Marionettes; Selma, the female basso, and the Mitchell Sisters.

Ferris Wheel Park—The following artists will appear in the vaudeville performances: The Four Oliphants, the Great Northern Quartet, the Juggling Mathews, the Luns, Gordon and Gordon, John J. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, and Rosabel Travis.

Masonic Temple Theater—Marshall P. Wilder and Luella Saunders are the head-line attraction this week. These two leaders were surrounded by the following vaudeville acts: Mr. and Mrs. Perkins Fisher, sketch act; Little Young and Brother, hoop rollers; Alice, Asta, funny dancer and change artist; Lynch and Jewett, slingers and dancers; Miss Kay Stelman, and the Kadurus troupe of Japanese acrobats.

Grand Opera House—"The Wizard of Oz" finishes the tenth week of a most successful run next Saturday, the house being packed at every performance. "The Wizard's" attraction is general rather than special—all all-around gay, gorgeous spectacle, with sufficient variety in incidental action and music to hold the audience from first to last.

Dearborn—Fourteen weeks have passed, and "The Storks" is still bringing fine returns to the Dearborn Theater. The performance has gained in all stages of summer competition, and is drawing near the end of its long run with business on the increase. The success of "The Storks" is due largely to its originality and to its dependence on its own material. There is not an interpolated number in the piece, and the characters are not imitations of old and tiresome comic opera types. The smaller parts even have unusual importance, because of their oddity. The ephemerical man, played by William Rock, and the Jailer, played by Abbott Adams, are fair instances. The stock company will meet Sept. 1, for the opening of the fifth season of the stock company. First attraction, Ople Read's play, "The Harkriders."

Studebaker's—"King Dodo" is booming along at a splendid rate, and the six weeks' run will prove even more remunerative than was expected. No matter how the weather is, there is no diminution in the size of the audiences that merry "King Dodo" attracts. The past week was the largest, in the point of receipts, that "King Dodo" has ever played in Chicago. The advance sale for the remaining four weeks of the engagement indicate even greater receipts. One of the stronger of the new features is the "Hilana" song and dance, which Miss McKinney renders in the second act, assisted by twenty dancing girls.

Great Northern—"Brown's in Town," this jumble of humorous commentaries, pretty dances, catchy music, is familiar to Chicagoans. The new cast which now presents the farce introduces many new features, the original humor is greatly intensified, and the performance very much improved. Last Friday afternoon a performance was given for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the two policemen who were murdered by burglars a short time ago. Next attraction: Rose Melville, in "Sis Hopkins."

Columbus—"The Still Alarm" has been the magnet that has drawn big audiences all week. This play is certainly a laugh-producer and nerve thriller. A fire engine and horses and a singing quartet are some of the features introduced during the action of the play. Next: "The Ensign."

Alhambra—"Over Niagara Falls" opened last Sunday to the usual big business done at this house. The play takes its plot from the famous descent of Miss Annie Edison Taylor, of Niagara Falls. It being the first and only successful trip ever accomplished, and a feat that has long been considered fatal. The barrel used by her on this occasion has been secured by Messrs. Rowland & Clifford, and will be used nightly in their production in a scene Miss Taylor's exploit has made possible. Next: "A Little Outcast."

The Bijou Harry Emery's big production, "The Burglar and the Wolf," opened Sunday for a week's run to the capacity. This new production has a cast of perfectly blended characters to work out the well-developed plot. "The Wolf" is really a star part, and is certainly a new creation. She is not a copy of anybody or anything in dramatic writing, but a charming, joyous character, standing out in contrast to the other character drawings. Next: "The Cowboy's Daughter."

Criterion—"The Minister's Son," W. H. Patton, who heads the company presenting "The Minister's Son," is one of the most quaint and original comedians on the stage today. This is a play that no one can fail to appreciate; a play with a red-hot atmosphere surrounding it, of good healthy morals; not overdrawn, but true to nature. Next: "Over Niagara Falls."

Academy of Music—"A Little Outcast" is the name of the play in which Joseph Callahan, well known to theater-goers of the West Side, will star in this season, and which opened for a week's run at the matinee last Sunday. The drama is mounted in a more spectacular manner than any other exciting play given on the stage of the Academy in many seasons. Manager Roach of the Academy invited the newboys to witness the play last Monday night. About 500 were in attendance. Next: Katie Emmett in "From East to West."

Illinois opens Aug. 30 for a run with Klaw & Erlanger's "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast."

Bowers' Theater opens Sept. 1, Amella Hingham in "The New Magdalen."

New American opens Aug. 31 with "Heart of Virginia."

McVicker's opens Aug. 30, with "Foxy Grandpa."

Chicago Opera House—It would be almost impossible for this favorite place of amusement to do any larger business than it is and has been doing. The Four Madcaps, who head the bill this week, make their first appearance in this city. Other well-known artists appearing are James J. Morton, Hines and Remington, Hill and Silvano, Ed. Latell, Lowe-Huges Trio, Irving Jones, Alburus and Millar, Ola Hayden, the Shaws, Fogarty and Brown, Rose Lee Tyler, Charles Gloss and Son, Acres and St. Clair, and the Kinodrome.

Sam T. Jack's—The Casino De Paris Folies Company, which gave such good satisfaction last week, has been retained for the coming week. Some new faces have been added to the chorus. "Seaside Frolics" will be the curtain raiser, the performance concluding with "The Silly Dinner Table," an uproarious farce, with warm laughs all the way through. Between the burlesques will be an excellent specialty bill and a new series of living pictures. Ed. Morris, Bob Van Osten and Jimmy Thompson, all popular in Chicago, will be the chief comedians.

Troadero—The Orpheon Stock Company will present as the attraction for the coming week a new burlesque, "Fol De Rol." It is said to be fully up to the mark set all through the summer by the Orpheon Company. Nat Fields, the bulky German, will have a leading role, supported by those good comedians, Alex. Carr, Joseph Howard and Frank Damsel. Included in the specialties are Ida Emerson, Annie Peysor and the three Esmeralda Sisters.

Hopkins—The season opened at this house last Sunday with Waldron & Bryant's Troadero Burlesques to the capacity. The first part, "Prince Henry's Visit," with Larry Smith in the title role and James Sullivan as his valet, kept the fun going fast while they are on the stage. In the olio are Larry Smith and Mamie Champton, comedy sketches; Ernest and Joe Van, musical artists; Sullivan and Keeler, Irish sketch; three Horbert Bros., acrobats; Carrie Mason and Martha Habeman, duettists, and Cavella and Annetta Rold, vocalists. Next: "The Social Mads."

SWEEPINGS.

Mrs. Verda Stoll, an actress, caused considerable excitement on one of the most prominent corners of the city by cowhiding J. J. Callahan, a theatrical agent. Mrs. Stoll claims that Callahan had insulted her on several occasions.

Mr. O. F. Miller, of the Alhambra, Milwaukee, is a Chicago visitor every Wednesday. Mr. F. Barnes is his Chicago representative.

Mr. Chas. E. Schilling, manager Western "Two Married Men" company, arrived from Denver yesterday. He states that his company will open the season at Elkhart Sept. 1. Roster: Mullilly Sisters, Isabel Winloehe, the Great Harrington, Chas. and Jontie Welsh, Barden and Lefferes and Willis Sildrey; Alex. Henry, advance; C. C. Chipman, lithographer; Jas. Harkins, programmer.

Miss Ethel Tucker, a well-known Cincinnati, will shortly appear at the Ferris Wheel Park.

Main Street Theater, formerly Rouse's Hall, Peoria, Ill., with a seating capacity of 2,000, will open as a first-class vaudeville house Sept. 15.

The two Colonels, James E. Fennessy and James Whallen, of the Empire Circuit, were in Chicago last Sunday, attending the opening of their new purchase, Hopkins Theater. Both were delighted at the business done on that day. Mr. Joseph Barrett (Mickey, the Wise Guy) is the local manager of the house—a good selection.

Had the pleasure of witnessing a new and dare-devil act. Canary on his combination. Spiral and Cycle Dazzle, starts from the ground on a bike, riding up the spiral to the base of the dazze, 40 feet high; then at a terrific speed he rides around the Cycle Dazzle, doing a number of difficult feats in trick riding, disrobing at the same time; then rides around the slats on a small platform, completing this daring act by riding down stairs at terrific speed. Ten minutes is consumed after leaving the ground until he returns. This is one of the most daring acts of the present time.

A. H. HART.

PHILADELPHIA.

"Florodora" Presented at Atlantic City With Sousa's Band for Orchestra.

The Park Theater opened on Saturday night with a house that broke all records. The attraction was "The Evil Eye," the big pantomimed extravaganza, under the direction of Yash and Ellis. The scenery was all new and the play had been rewritten by the author, Sidney K. Ellis. A number of new and novel effects had also been introduced and the performance went with a swing and dash that speaks well for its success on the road. Among the novelties that made big hits were "The Phoney troupe of dancers, the electric ballet and the ladies' brass band." The Star Theater opened under its new management with Sam Scribner's Tiger Lillies as the attraction, and the Lyceum also swung into line with Harry Bryant's Burlesquers. Both of these burlesque houses draw good audiences in size, and as they are both in the wheel scheme the prospects for their continued success is bright. The opposition house, The Troadero, will not be able to open before Sept. 1, but as it has always had a clientele of its own and as a number of strong shows are booked the chances are that it will get a fair share of business. "The Devil's Auction" closed a big week at the National and will be succeeded to-night by "The Village Parson." The People's Theater opened on Saturday night with "The Devil's Island" and had a big house. The same bill will continue this week. Forepangr's Theater had a big week with "The Sporting Duchess" and this week will be produced "The Girl of My Heart." "Honor Thy Father," an English melodrama, new to this country, was the opening bill at the Standard Theater on Saturday night and it pleased the large audience. Keith's Theater had a big last week with vaudeville and the same will be continued this week. A number of other theaters will open next Saturday night, and in two weeks every house in Philadelphia will be open.

GOSSIP.

George Thilly, who has been losing at the rate of $3,000 a week at the Steeple Chase Pier, Atlantic City, has at last struck a winning pace and is turning people away at every performance. On last Monday the original "Florodora" company opened at that place with Sousa's band as an orchestra, and people fell over each other trying to get tickets. It is the most successful engagement ever played at a seaside resort. At Young's Pier "McFadden's Row of Flats" is to succeed "Lover's Lane," and after that Ezra Kendall is to open in his new play, "The Vagabond Buyer."

Harry Askus, who has charge of this attraction made a big hit in Atlantic City by getting out posters which stated that the promised tidal wave was postponed until the arrival of "The Vagabond Buyer."

Carrie Radcliffe has at last succeeded in getting a theater company under the management of Ignacio Marquette, her husband. The house is on a side street and has not been in use as a theater for some years, having been at one time a German theater. She has spent quite a lot of money on improvements and will call the renovated house The Columbia.

Fred, Nixon-Nirdlinger, son of Sam. Nixon, the head of the Theatrical Syndicate, has returned from a long vacation in Yellowstone Park. He will have full charge of the syndicate theaters in this city, and as they number seven he will have his hands full.

Jean Duff arrived at her home in this city last week from New Zealand. She had been on a tour of that section of the world with "The World's Entertainers," a vaudeville organization taken there under the management of Henry Lee and James G. Rial. The tour was a failure, as the "plague" broke out in that country and people refused to attend theaters, and in fact many of the amusement places were compelled to close. Most of the people returned to this country, although a small detachment were sent direct to South Africa under the same management. Charles Sweet, the musical burglar, was one of the company who went to Africa. Miss Duff was one of the company that supported Powell, the magician.

Al. Wilson, who is the star in "The Prince of Tatters" this season, hummed me over the melodies of some of the songs he is to introduce in that play this season and they are the quaintest and most beautiful I ever heard. He is to open the season on Sept. 1 at Reading, Pa. BOB WATT.

ST. LOUIS.

Attractions Justifying the Name at all the Parks—Fishell's Notes.

The past week in show circles in St. Louis has not presented any great change, or added any new acts to the list of attractions that have not already been seen in the city this season. The only novelty being presented is the Cycle Whirl which is at the West End Heights.

The Grand Opera House opened Sunday under the management of Mr. John G. Slocby with the production of Magie, introduced by Prof. Herman and his company. The opening was very strong considering the warm weather. The Haybus Theater under the management of Mr. William Garen, opened with the unusual melodrama of "Nobody's Claim."

At Suburban Garden, Mr. John C. Rice and Miss Sallie Cohen in their comely act pleased very much. Other numbers of bill were interesting.

At the Delmar Garden, Prince Bonnie was very well vocally presented. Col. Hopkins, at Forest Park, Highland, with Paponta and the Macartes Sisters did his share of business.

The West End Heights, with a strong bill headed by the Armstrongs, satisfied a crowded house every night.

Koerner's Garden presented "Camille" in a very clever manner, and the Hasbagen's Park, the regular routine of good vaudeville acts, were on the board.

Eclipse Park, in drama, did a fair business, and Manlius, in a good line of vaudeville numbers, headed by Army and Cass, pleased greatly.

The Columbia Theater opened to a very good business with Russell Brothers as the main attraction, although M. Frank Bush, in his Hebrew impersonation, received his share of applause.

The Imperial Theater and also the Standard will open Aug. 31.

NOTES.

The Gaskill-Mundy Carnival Company, who are to play in St. Louis Sept. 27, began preparations Aug. 24.

Mr. W. D. Russell, the new manager of the Imperial, is a very clever young gentleman, who makes friends very rapidly and holds them. As manager of the Imperial his work will bring results.

The Columbus Theater of this city is entertaining the Elks Lodge of Sedalia and their friends with refined vaudeville show, which they have selected from the very best numbers. Reports from Sedalia say that the opening entertainment was well received, and that Mr. L. P. Andrews, of the Elks, assisted greatly in the artistic results of the entertainment.

Mr. M. L. Shannon has returned from Atlantic City, where he has been dipping in the beautiful surf the past few weeks. Mr. Shannon is with Haylin's Theater this season.

DAN. S. FISHELL.

CINCINNATI.

Three More Theaters Open Big Season Promised.

Sunday marked the opening of three more local playhouses—Heuck's, the Walnut and the Lyceum.

At the Walnut, "Zig Zag Alley," a new trick farce-comedy, was presented to an appreciative audience in the afternoon and an equally enthusiastic and larger audience at night. Owing to the company's arriving an hour late the audience was kept in suspense for that length of time and the general impatience was expressed in the sounds of disapproval that emanated from the gallery. But when the curtain did rise the long hour of waiting was paid for. "Zig Zag Alley," an extravagant representation of a New York district, is put on by an unusually large and efficient company, many of whom produce most entertaining specialties. Especially is this true of Zeb and Zarrow, the features of the show, who are well known as expert cyclists.

Bobbe & Mack's burlesque troupe, "The World Beaters," began a week's engagement at the People's Theater to the usual packed audiences Sunday. The show opened with a burlesque entitled "The Matrimonial Club," which proved a very laughable conception, and introduced the members of the company to advantage. During the action of the skit several new musical numbers were introduced, including "The Conversation Song and Dance," "Let's All Drink and Be Soberable," "The Different Kinds of Girls," "We're the Warmest Members," "Peg Leg Liz" and "The Jolly Jesters." Among the vocal selections rendered in the opening piece, that of Miss Marie Wartfield, who is the possessor of a fine baritone voice, was especially pleasing. Murphy and Mason were first in the olio, with a comely musical act. Bohannon and Corey introduced something new in the way of illustrated songs, which caught the audience and received merited applause. Rogers and Hilbert followed with a gun-juggling and fire-spinning act, and then came Tom Waters and Major Nowak, the latter billed as the smallest comedian in the world, who succeeded in making considerable fun. A comedy acrobatic act by the Prentice troupe, four in number, closed this part of the program. A somewhat sly extravaganza, called "The Wrenwurst Inn," closed the show and brought out the full strength of the company, in which mirth and music had the full run of the stage. The scenic equipment of this company is first-class, and the performance throughout was satisfactory.

Haverly's Mastodon Minstrels, under the direction of Will Nankeville, opened the season of 1902-03 at Heuck's Opera House Sunday very auspiciously. Two large audiences assembled at the matinee and night performances and listened to the music of the vocalists and band and the jokes of the end men with apparent relish. Under its present management the Haverly organization has met with great success. Last season the troupe, after opening Heuck's season, went to San Francisco, playing at all the more important cities en route. This season the same territory will be traversed, as the company is booked for return dates at all of the places where it appeared last year. The veteran entertainer, and one of the "old guard" of minstrelsy, Mr. George Wilson, is the star of the aggregation, and is apparently just as popular as ever. The Haverly Mastodons gave an old-time minstrel show, to the immense delight of their Heuck's patrons. The funny end men were there, and they "black'd up" and told their jokes in the same old way. Then there was the song and dance team, the quartet, the monologue, the Haverly choir, the acrobats, the band and orchestra. Something of a novelty in the way of a stage setting for the first part was exhibited. It was a view of the waters of old Venice, and was painted and arranged by Moses & Hamilton, the New York scenic artists. The performance gave excellent satisfaction. Wednesday night will be the last performance given by the minstrels, which will be followed Thursday matinee by the new melodrama, "The Way of the Wicked."

The Lyceum Theater threw open its doors Sunday afternoon for the season of 1902-03, and in its new dress looked as bright and shining as a newly coined $20 gold piece. Everything in and about the cozy play-house has an attractive and inviting appearance. In fact, the theater never looked better. "The Scout's Revenge" is the title of the new play, which was given its first production before a Cincinnati audience at the Sunday matinee. The play was well received and deserved the liberal applause which was given it without stint by both the afternoon and evening audiences. "The Scout's Revenge" is above the average melodrama seen at the Lyceum in point of literary merit. The plot (and there is a plot, and well-defined one at that) is ingeniously worked out. The cast is good, and those who stood out prominently by reason of their work were Frank La Rue, T. T. Rook, Harry E. Humphrey, Olga Bowen, Eleanor Worthington, Miss Adele Lane and Mrs. Fanshawe. The play is handsomely mounted and compares most favorably in this respect with the melodramas that have been seen at the Lyceum in the past. With such an auspicious opening, the season's outlook is very favorable.

A beautiful performance of "The Chimes of Normandy" is being given this week by the Chester Park Opera Company. The frequent applause of the audience shows that the company's efforts are appreciated. Miss Knox is a captivating Soprano. She sings with spirit, and puts vim and life in her work, and thus brings out the role in prominent fashion. Some of her principal numbers are given double encores. Mr. Clarke as Gaspard again scores a hit. The Barlow Minstrels, at the vaudeville theater, opened their second week's stay in a very successful manner. The fireworks on the lake in the afternoon and evening delighted immense crowds Sunday.

Coney Island is enjoying big crowds this week. Prof. Rice's Dog and Pony Show is making a hit. It includes a number of handsome Shetland ponies, dogs, monkeys and trick mules, and the animals display marvellous intelligence. The ponies give a military drill to the call of a bugle in a manner that would do credit to a cavalry troop. There are a number of vaudeville acts in addition to the dog and pony show.

Sunday was another record-breaker at the Zoo, the attendance being even larger than last Sunday. It need not be said that the management is delighted. Weber's Band concluded its engagement at the Zoo Sunday, and Bellstedt's Band began its engagement Monday.

Hon. James J. Butler, president of the Empire Circuit Company, as well as manager of the Standard Theater, St. Louis, spent a few pleasant hours in Cincinnati last week, automobileing with Colonel James E. Fennessy.

The box-office at the Lyceum is in charge of that genial little gentleman, Louis Foster, whose friends are limited only by his acquaintance.

Edward Aylward, the popular treasurer of the Chester Park Company, has resigned his position, and is now devoting his time to matters pertaining to the opening of the Grand.

BALTIMORE, MD.

The weather has been exceedingly cool and has greatly affected the park business.

Monumental Theater, (Mr. James L. Kernan, Mgr.) The Topsy Turvy Burlesque Company opened to good business Aug. 18. The Wine, Woman and Song Burlesque Company had a good week Aug. 11-16. The company is a good one and drew packed houses. The Tropians follow Aug. 25-30.

Holliday Street Theater, (Messrs. Kernan, Rife & Douck, Mgrs.—"Pennsylvania") was presented by a capable company Aug. 18-23. "Gypsy Jack" drew large audiences Aug. 11-16. Mr. Willis Grainger, in the leading role, was ably supported by an excellent company. "The Road to Ruin" appears Aug. 25-30.

Electric Park, (William Morris, Mgr.—Stuart, the male Patti, and Ameta, the fire dancer, have both been re-engaged for another week. Frederick, the juggler; Fields and Ward, comedians; the Musical Johnsons, re-engaged, and the American Vitagraph complete the program.

SYLVAN SCHENFHAL.

LANCASTER, PA.

Woolworth Roof Garden, (Capt. J. B. Peoples, Mgr.; Geo. E. Bogie, Associate Mgr.)—Week of Aug. 18-23. Chas. E. Grape-wick's new sketch, "The Gossips," received its first presentation, and scored a decided hit. Mr. and Mrs. Robyns, in "The Counsel for the Defense," were repeatedly encored for their very clever work, as was also Billy S. Clifford. Snyder and Buckley presented a musical act full of good music and comedy. Others on the bill were Harry Swenk, the Two Noles and Brooks Brothers. Business big.

Fulton Opera House, (Yecker & Gleim, Mgrs.)—Haverly's Minstrels, Aug. 19, pleased a fair-sized audience.

Walter L. Main's Show will appear in Columbia, Pa., Sept. 3, and is billing the country very extensively. They are sure of a good-sized crowd from this city attending, as the very favorable impression made by both attaches and show during their visit here earlier in the season won hosts of friends.

The John Robinson Show is billing the city and surrounding country. They show here Sept. 2.

BUFFALO, N. Y.

Teek Theater, (Walter S. Baldwin, Lessee and Mgr.)—Notwithstanding the hot shot of the Buffalo Courier, the Baldwin-Melville Stock Company still exists, and is doing an excellent business. "Sheuadoah" was the bill the past week. Maude Odell, as the Southern girl, and Robert Drouin in a leading part showed dramatic worth. Blanche Seymour and the balance of the cast were quite successful. "The Octoroon" closes the week and also the season. The regular season opens Sept. 1 with "Capt. Molly." Academy Theater, (Dr. Peter C. Cornell, Local Mgr.)—"Her Marriage Vow" had its first presentation in the city the past week. It is a railroad piece, and has strong elements. Millie E. Francis, Elizabeth Bathburn, Annie Ashley, W. A. Whittear and Thos. Irwin did nicely. The piece is well staged and the company talented. "For Love and Honor" opened to large business and took well. Lyceum Theater, (E. W. Oviatt, Local Mgr.)—A happy selection for the opening. Aug. 18-23, was the West Big Mustrels, which filled the house. The singing and dancing qualities are up to the standard, and the specialties, including the Zarrow trio, Ford Brothers, McMahon and King, Billy Van and Swift and Huber, all made good. Reilly & Woods' Big Show had a big roster of excellent talent. Star Theater, (John R. Stirling, Mgr.)—Opened the season with new decorations and a complete renovation throughout the house. "The Rogers Bros. in Harvard" made its first appearance on any stage. A funny vaudeville, with the following cast: Milo Kross, Gus Rogers; Christopher Karlstadt, Karenhuller, Max Rogers; Harry Hart, Will Gould; Clarence Chomondeley; Geo. Honey; Col. Hotskiss; Eugene Jepson; Major Gracie, Lee Harrison; T. Stanislaus McGurk, Pat Rooney; Jim Tip, Emil Heuser; Joe O'Rourke; James Cherry; headwaiter, J. C. Rungby; Madame Pelisse, Hattie Williams; Blanche Reverses, Clara Palmer; Peggy Chip, Emma Francis; Ida Claire, Edith St. Clair; Daisy Stew, Neeva Aymar; Gerlie Fell, Stella Maury; Clara Stone, Olive Ehrich; Mout, Julia Eastman; Ray, Pauline Frederick; Millie, Lillie Stanford. Ward and Vokes to follow. Lafayette Theater, (Chas. Baggs, Mgr.)—The regular season opened the past week. "Wine, Woman and Song" were the joys of life with the opening attraction. Business was up to high water mark, and an excellent show, including Mile. Vida in a fair change wire act; Gaffy and Shoby, in a good musical turn; Hawley and Gandrau, in club exercises; Bennett and Rich, in a military turn (they need something new); Bonita and Midgets took well; Alice Cheslyn, in illustrated songs, made good. The opening and closing sketches were well cast, although Mark Bennett looked overworked. The Bon Ton Burlesquers, Aug. 25-30. The Knickerbockers, Sept. 1-6. Shen's Garden Theater, (M. Shea, Mgr.)—People here the past week: Sam Bernard, Eugene O'Rourke and company; Bailey and Madison, Jordan and Cronch, Foster and dog, Leroy and Woodford, Murphy and Slater, Canfield and Carlton, and the Kinograph. Business fair. Ricabone's Horses and Dogs were a headliner. Convention Hall—The Klitties' Band, in "pop" concerts, filled the house the past week, and were quite popular. Coming: Dusa and his band, Oct. 6-11; Mascagni and company, Oct. 30-Nov. 1. Tivoli Theater, (Schmidt Bros., Mgrs.)—Vaudeville has a good calling, and talent of merit is offered each week. Fenton's Theater, (Geo. Shady, Mgr.)—Business is very good, and a change of bill each week gives a good variety of talent. J. E. Girard's fair ground show, from this city, is booked at the Hornellsville (N. Y.) Fair, Aug. 25-30. Thos. J. Farron, Jr., of this city, a son of T. J. Farron, of "Chris and Lena" fame, joins the Peter F. Baker revival of the same play, and will probably make a big success as a singer and dancer. JOHN S. RICHARDSON.

ST. JOSEPH, MO.

Casino Theater, Lake Conroy Park, (E. P. Churchill, Mgr.)—Punkle, comedy clay modeler; Agnes Behler, vocalist, assisted by Master Wright; Eddie Girard and Jessie Gardner, as soubrette and cop; Van Fossen and McCanley, slingers, dancers and comedians; Almont and Dumont, as instrumental hussars, closed the week of Aug. 17-23. The Casino Theater still continues to draw large crowds, and the management is highly complimented by the public for the high class vaudeville attractions which are being booked.

Lycium Theater, (J. Philley, Mgr.)—Opens Aug. 23 with Harry Corson Clark in the jolly comedy success, "Hello, Bill," as the opening attraction. The Lycium is booked solid for the coming season with high class attractions and prospects are good for crowded houses.

Tootle Theater, (J. Philley, Mgr.)—Sept. 15 is the opening date announced for the Tootle Theater, with "Zig Zag Alley" as the attraction. JESSE J. WAGNER.

FINDLAY, O.

Marvin Theater, (T. W. Cunningham, Mgr.)—The season opened with the old reliable Al. G. Field's Minstrels. The first part, "A Night in New York," was one of the finest stage settings ever seen in this city. The costumes were grand and the singing was up to the standard. In the olio especially, the Faust family of acrobats is worthy of praise. The theater has been entirely recarpeted, refrescoed and decorated. New dressing rooms and a magnificent foyer have been added, with a smoking room and check room. Mr. Cunningham is to be congratulated on the condition he has put the house in. The people appreciated the fact by packing the house on the first night. CHAS. H. MESSINGER.
