

CANADIAN POSTAL WORKERS POSTPONE PROPOSED CALL FOR STRIKE FOR ONE DAY

Delay Contemplated Interruption of Service Throughout Country Until 5 p.m. To-morrow, So Members of Government and Their Representatives May Continue Conferences; Government Willing To Pay Bonus Temporarily

Ottawa, June 18.—The strike of postal workers throughout Canada which was to have gone into effect this afternoon in protest against the salary revision for postal workers as authorized by the Civil Service Commission and the Government has been deferred for twenty-four hours.

Ottawa, June 18.—Hon Charles Stewart, Acting Postmaster-General, has informed representatives of the postal workers that where the revised pay rates as determined by the Civil Service Commission are lower than the former rate and the 1924-25 bonus, the Government is willing to continue the bonus until the salary revision for the entire Civil Service has been consummated.

EVIDENCE POINTS TO MAN FROM VICTORIA AS ONE NOW SOUGHT

George Cummings Well Known In The City Boasted Of Friendship With Women All Over Canada and The United States; Carried On Extensive Correspondence Through Matrimonial Bureau

Volumeous correspondence which he conducted with women in the United States and Canada, his eccentricity demonstrated on several occasions, his interest in matrimonial papers and the general air of mystery that surrounded him are quoted as indications to justify the linking of the George Cummings, known in Victoria, with the man sought in connection with the investigation of the death of a woman near Wittenberg, Wis.

CLAIMED HIGH CONNECTIONS

Claiming personal friendship with leading Jewish financiers in Canada and the United States, he did not, when he first arrived in Victoria from Vancouver, appear to be well supplied with funds but a few weeks after his arrival, commenced to make investments in real estate. He first bought a piece of property for $1,000 which he soon turned over. He made first payments on two other pieces investing in all $2,500, but even after a short acquaintance those with whom he came in contact grew distrustful. He claimed to be making investments for capitalists who placed implicit confidence in him, and to be traveling with an unlimited expense account calling for no details to his expenditures. Always well dressed, with a Jewish cast of countenance, and claiming to be a son of French parents who settled in Montreal, Cummings stated that he served in France with a French Canadian battalion and was wounded on active service.

OLIVER RATE FIGHT STIRS U.S. CITIES

Buffalo Fears Return of Government Will Turn Grain Stream Westward

Who is this man Oliver who threatens Eastern supremacy? Shippers ask.

Buffalo, N.Y., June 18.—Who is this man Oliver of British Columbia who is forcing equalization of grain rates and imperiling Buffalo's supremacy in handling Canadian grain?

This is the question that is affording the chief gossip of this city just now. It is a very live topic of consideration in financial circles between Buffalo and New York, which route is just now busy handling some hundred and ten million bushels of Canadian grain. It may be the last year these nineteen huge bonded elevators will get a crack at the Canadian exportable surplus. That is the reason the British Columbia elections is a live subject of discussion here to-day.

CHARGES McRAE SEEKS ENORMOUS TIMBER PROFITS

Provincials' Timber Policy Involves $14,000,000 Profit, Says Candidate

Vancouver, June 18.—A profit of $14,000,000 to General A. D. McRae and his business associates is involved in the Provincial Party's timber policy. Such was the charge uttered here last night by Chris McRae, Liberal candidate, and directed at the leader of the Provincial Party.

In a carefully prepared statement the Liberal candidate revealed the whole basis of General McRae's proposal to pay off the public debt in twenty-five years out of timber royalties, laying bare to an audience of about 200 persons.

FACTS ABOUT GOVERNMENT SHIP SERVICES GIVEN TO M.P.'S BY THORNTON TO-DAY

Ottawa, June 18.—The Special Committee of the House of Commons considering the estimates of the Canadian National Railways and the Government Merchant Marine, has no intention of making its inquiry an inquisitorial effort or hampering the work of the system, declared Chairman W. D. Euler at the opening session to-day. He mentioned this specially for the benefit of Sir Henry Thornton, president of the system, who was present.

Sir Henry, giving the committee information with regard to the Government Merchant Marine, explained the decreased earnings by saying that generally speaking, last year was not a good year. The decrease in operating expenses had been brought about chiefly by cancellation of unpaying services. He showed there had been a loss of $514,000 on services to the United Kingdom in 1923 and voyages to the Orient had resulted in a loss of $1,729,000, while a single trip to India had turned in a loss of $73,400. He said that last year a grain route had been established from Vancouver to Liverpool by way of the Panama Canal. The results of this voyage were not included in the reports for last year, but they had been satisfactory. It was a service of considerable promise, he said.

BEER BARS MENACE YOUTH. RAYNOR WARNS; DEPLORES WIDESPREAD DRINKING NOW

British Columbia boys and girls must be protected from the dangers that would result from the opening of beer bars in this Province, Dr. M. Raynor, Liberal candidate in Victoria, declared in a vigorous address at the George Jay School last night.

"I tell you frankly," Dr. Raynor said emphatically, "I intend to vote 'No' on the beer plebiscite. We are told that if we allow the sale of beer we shall be utilizing a local product but I say we should first consider our boys and girls. If we allow the open sale of beer, our boys and girls will learn the taste of it and want it. We should fight this move and see that it does not succeed in British Columbia."

People were just beginning to realize now, Dr. Raynor asserted, the enormous amount of money spent in British Columbia on liquor and to understand that most of this money goes out of the Province. Of every $4 spent on liquor here, he said, only $1.25 stays in the Province, the rest going to outside distillers, the Federal Government, treasury and other places. He urged again that the young people of British Columbia be protected against the curse of liquor.

It is reported that Cummins is ready to return to Canada immediately upon the receipt of instructions from his Government.

Decision has not yet been reached whether the new loan will be floated entirely in Canada.

Premier Reveals Lengthy Negotiations With English Interests Which Seek To Tap Enormous Resources Of Peace River Area; Promises "Favorable Treatment" To Capital Undertaking Project; Scheme To Go Before Cabinet As Soon As Ministers Return To Capital

The Pacific Great Eastern Railway may be purchased and operated in the near future by a powerful syndicate of British capitalists as a result of negotiations between them and the Provincial Government. Details of these negotiations, made public by Premier Oliver this afternoon, indicate that the British syndicate is prepared to go ahead with the project, provided the Government is prepared to sell the P.G.E. at a satisfactory price and offer certain concessions.

CABLEGRAM RECEIVED

Announcement of the negotiations was made in a written statement issued by the Premier as follows: "I have this morning received a cablegram from F. C. Wade, K.C., British Columbia Agent-General in London, saying that a syndicate is ready to take over the P.G.E. Railway and operate same, provided that the price and concessions are satisfactory and that engineers are ready to proceed to British Columbia upon receipt of a satisfactory reply from myself. Plans for making Victoria the scene of another British Empire Exhibition, to be held during the next few years, will be laid before Premier Oliver and the City Council this week by representatives of the Inter-Empire Trade Organization who arrived here yesterday.

Victoria is favored as the exhibition centre, it was explained to the Premier to-day, because of its central location in the Empire and on account of its climate and scenic attractions.

Formal interviews between the promoters of the proposed exhibition and the Premier will take place this afternoon. Later this week the promoters will meet the City Council and outline their plans to them.

WINNIPEG PEOPLE HOLD CELEBRATION

Mark Fiftieth Anniversary of Incorporation of Capital of Manitoba

In honor of the event, the city has a gala appearance and its greater population of approximately 243,000 is in one way or another participating in the jubilee events.

The citizens were aroused this morning by the booming of cannon, which launched the day's festivities. A profusion of flags and bunting was in evidence, and with business corporations, service clubs, fraternal organizations and other public-spirited institutions joining in a parade seldom surpassed for pomp and magnificence in the history of the city, the actual celebration got under way.

More than 150 floats and bunting was depicting the growth of the city since the days of the Red River carts and trading stores of 1812 until the present time passing along Main Street and Portage Avenue, which years ago

TRANSPORTATION NOW IN HAND

Vancouver City Prepares to Welcome Battleships of Service Squadron

Vancouver, June 18.—Arrangements are being made to allow visitors to the British warships which will be in port from June 25 to July 5 to embark and disembark at six different wharves.

A committee in charge of transportation in connection with the fleet entertainment submitted a report to the City Council yesterday showing that it proposes to control transportation to and from the ships by a licensing system. No boat will be licensed unless it can accommodate at least twenty-five passengers, and is properly equipped with life-saving apparatus.

Details regarding the entertainment of the men were also laid before the Council. It is proposed to erect a large marquee on a vacant lot on Hornby Street between Georgia and Robson. The Courthouse Square will form the rendezvous where sailors and citizens may meet and at this marquee refreshments will be served by the L.O.E.E. The sum of $2,000 will be distributed among service clubs to permit them to put on smoking concerts for the sailors each evening.

lem, turn automatically westward. If it means stagnation here, it means prosperity in British Columbia.

SEES TREMENDOUS YIELD
James Richardson, president of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, and one of the largest shippers of grain on this continent, in Buffalo last week, discussing the Western Grain Route, said:

"In 1923 the Alberta wheat crop alone exceeded the exportable wheat surplus of recent years in Western Canada. This year it looks as though production would equal that of last year. Certainly in a short while that province whose prairies run up into the foothills of the Rockies will think nothing of raising 200,000,000 bushels of wheat, to say nothing of other grains, live stock, etc., while their coal is an enormous factor in transportation."

PORT MAKES RECORD
"In the past year by a miracle of speed they have shot 50,000,000 bushels of grain in ten months through the smallest port equipment for its discharge from the land in the world. This year the terminal discharge capacity will be six times larger, and I believe the Canadian Pacific proposes immediately to proceed to the discharge from the land in the world of its railroad. That may cost 50,000,000, but that is but one-fourth of the value of the yearly grain yield of Alberta. This does not take into consideration the wealth of the progressive province of British Columbia."

ADDS TO CONSTERNATION
Mr. Richardson's comment has added to the consternation of the bonded warehouse owners of Buffalo and the man whose money is invested in the huge floating elevators in New York Harbor, at Baltimore and Philadelphia, where the dividends depend on the Canadian grain handled. That is the reason they are asking in these American cities, "Who is this man Oliver who threatens by the return of his government rates to secure the equalization of grain rates, which means the ruin of the Buffalo interests by drawing this vast exportable surplus of grain to the Western Route?"

CITY ASKED OPINION ON OLD AGE PENSIONS

Victoria is among the scheduled cities which are asked to supply information with regard to the possible effect of old age pensions for persons of 65 years of age or over, five and upwards not otherwise provided for.

The committee appointed by the House of Commons provided the Mayor to indicate the number of persons in the city over sixty-five years of age who are likely to be in need of such assistance, and the number who have received relief, or at the present time are inmates of institutions for the relief of the poor.

CHARGES McRAE SEEKS ENORMOUS TIMBER PROFITS

the motives which have brought the timber millionaire into the political arena at this juncture in the history of the lumber industry of British Columbia.

Mr. McRae gave utterance to his charge in two big meetings, one at O'Brien Hall and one at L.O.O.F. Hall, Main Street.

Explaining that in all his life he had never seen it necessary to lay a charge against a fellow citizen and expressing regret that the attack made on himself by General McRae was necessary to bring these facts into the daylight, Mr. McRae analyzed the situation in regard to timber royalties. Some timber was held by license and on this an Act passed some years ago provided for a royalty of 10 per cent. on the royalty payable to the Crown, he said.

Next year a revision was inevitable and conditions had so changed that it was universally deemed necessary to alter the Act so as to change the basis of royalties.

With this explanation Mr. McRae launched into his charge which in substance was that General McRae's announced policy would put the license holders out of business and give the crown an enormous advantage of the holders of crown granted timber, among whom General McRae and his associates were outstanding figures.

thirty years of age was the making of a will. He made one soon after his arrival here which he requested W. H. Davies to place in safe keeping in the name of the Empire Realty company, having had dealings with Fred Landberg, manager of the company. A week later he appeared with another will and asked for the return of the former one. A few months later he appeared with a third will cancelling the two previous ones.

The third will is now in the safe of the Empire Realty company. Specimens of his handwriting are also in possession of the Victoria and Island Public Bureau where he was a frequent visitor. He made a point of using the Public Bureau's stickers on the many letters he sent out from Victoria, and his incoming mail he received at a post office box.

VICTORIA GIRLS
He talked lightly of marriage and frequently referred to himself as a bachelor who should have a home, but in similar terms to those a man would use in speaking of buying a new car. A daughter of a wealthy man in Montreal was only awaiting his word to marry him in this provincial state, he said. Within a couple of months after he arrived in Victoria he spoke of marriage to a girl in similar terms to those a man would use in speaking of buying a new car.

FROM MONTREAL
He claimed to be doing publicity work. Recently he gave to the Victoria Canadian Highway Association an article on a trip he alleged he made from Montreal to Vancouver, and in the article he mentioned that on that occasion he made the trip for big mining interests in the East with the object of securing information on the potentialities of mining in Canada. A marked map of his trip from Montreal shows him as calling at Sudbury, Carleton Place, White River, Heron Bay, Rossport, Lake Nipigon and to Kaminitiquia, which latter place is marked on the map in his own handwriting.

Besides acting as manager for one of the May Queens in Victoria and incidentally leaving about $100 in unpaid bills before he left the city, stated.

Nine-tenths of all stomach troubles—indigestion, sourness, gas, pain, heartburn, etc., are caused by an excess of acid in the stomach.

ing he was going to Chicago. He also stated that he was going to attend the Olympic games this year. He took a great interest in roller hockey in Victoria and although he gave a great deal of time to his peculiar nature prevented him from winning popularity with the boys.

MYSTERIOUS SANTA
During Christmas time he acted the role of a mysterious Santa Claus. Arming himself with a number of two-dollar bills he distributed them freely. He also inquired the names and addresses of children who appeared to be in need and later called at the houses and left one or two of his bills.

Recently in Victoria it is said he claimed the prefix Honorable. When he first came to Victoria he registered at the Strathcona Hotel, but later entered a boarding house. Well educated and almost to voluble the man obtained a sporadic popularity in sporting circles, and became known as a local athletic circles.

WENT TO SEATTLE
Business associates told of a long-distance telephone conversation from Seattle in reference to the purchase of further property here and said to the broker he would return two days later to sign the agreement.

Next day he visited the Great Northern Railway office and purchased a return single ticket to Chicago with local athletic circles.

At the time of his departure he was in possession of several hundred dollars in American currency which he had not the time to take with him. His actual departure was on the 4:30 boat to Seattle on June 1.

Several telegrams have been received from Seattle, but they have not been answered.

Ottawa, June 18.—The note issue of a bank would be limited to fifty per cent of its unimpaired capital, and the Finance Department would control the printing and issuing of all banknotes, under two amendments to the Bank Act, notice of which was given at a session of the Banking Committee yesterday by C. SEEKING TO ARREST FORMER TREASURER

Warrant Issued For C. A. Matthews, Former Official of Province of Ontario

Toronto, June 18.—Upon instructions from Attorney-General Nickle, a warrant for the arrest of former Assistant Provincial Treasurer Charles A. Matthews, Jr. of Toronto, has been issued by the Ontario provincial police. The charge is that of violation of the Secret Commissions Act.

Although it was on March 28 last that Matthews eluded provincial police detailed to shadow him, this is the first definite move on the part of the Government to secure his apprehension.

Assistant Treasurer Matthews left the Parliament Buildings about the middle of March following evidence at a night sitting of the Public Accounts Committee in which he was accused of participating in a three-way split of $11,000 profit on a provincial bond transaction. The evidence also involved L. C. Mason, a distant relative of Matthews, who disappeared about the same time and is believed to be with the former Assistant Treasurer.

NEW STANDARDS IN BUSINESS WORLD

Codes Advocated by Rotarians Adopted by Number of Organizations Progress is Reported to Big International Convention in Toronto

Toronto, June 18.—Thirty-six national, international, and provincial or state trade and professional organizations have adopted codes of standard ethical practices for their members during the past year. Rotarians were told by Raymond M. Havens, of Kansas City, during the course of the second day's session of their international convention here to-day. There are fifty-three great national trade and professional organizations now operating with ethical codes binding their members to discard the old "let the buyer beware" and "business is business" ideas and adopt the ideal that a business is only truly productive of profit to its owner as it gives service to the community in which it is established.

PROGRESS REPORTED

As Chairman of the International Committee on Business Methods, Mr. Havens, former international president of Rotary, told his fellow members from all over the world of the progress that has been made with the Rotary idea of unselfish service in business. Reports were presented from Great Britain, New Zealand, Japan, Cuba and other parts of the world. In Great Britain business ethics form the basis of a course of lectures at one of the great universities and in the United States members of the faculty of both Harvard and Yale have interested themselves in the matter. High schools in different sections of the United States have encouraged students to study codes of ethics and a study of business practices, the convention was told.

"ROTARY IDEA"

This is "The Rotary Idea" day at the convention and the entire program is designed to show progress that has been made in developing ethical practices in the business and professional world. John R. Willard, of Los Angeles, California, chairman of the International Committee of Rotary Education, told the convention of the work of his committee in developing an understanding of the Rotary idea of service in individual Rotarians so they could best act as missionaries to their business and professional associates.

CLASSIFICATION WORK

Harry Bert Cradlock, of Minneapolis, chairman of the committee on Classification, told of the work of classifying professions and business so each individual member of Rotary would have a clear-cut classification in his club. He said a Rotary Club was really a cross-section of the business and professional community with but one man from each business or profession, who was selected solely as being representative of his classification and to represent Rotary to his classification.

Edward J. Caspell, of Philadelphia, made a stirring address on friendship and Rotary's idea in developing it.

This afternoon three special assemblies are being held to discuss club administration, the program for the night and the annual reception and ball by the international president will be given.

281 NEW CLUBS
Two hundred and eighty-one new Rotary clubs were organized during the past year, of which 211 were in the United States, Canada and Newfoundland, thirty-seven in England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, France, Italy, Spain, Belgium, Holland, Denmark and Norway; Africa: Union of South Africa; Asia: India, China, Japan and Philippine Islands; Australasia: Australia, New Zealand and Tasmania.

NEW GROUND
Surveys have been made in Switzerland, Czechoslovakia, Austria and Sweden which, it is believed, will result in the formation of Rotary clubs in those countries within a few months. The establishment of Rotary districts in France, Italy, Holland, the Scandinavian countries and in New Zealand is being given consideration for better administration of the clubs that are now well established in those places. Rotary meetings are now being conducted in eight languages in different parts of the world and the number of clubs using Spanish and French has grown to such proportions that one section of the secretary's office of Rotary International carries on a large part of its correspondence in those languages.

KITE FLOWN

The highest Rotary sign in the world, according to promoters, was visible to hundreds of people in the downtown section here yesterday afternoon when the kite in the blue and gold of Rotary was flown from the top of the Canadian Pacific Building, with streamers, "Welcome Rotarians," and "Travel, C. P. R." Approximately one mile of cord was attached to the kite from the top of the building, seventeen stories in height.

When the wind became too strong for the kite, streamers twenty feet long were attached to the flagpole on the building, "Canada's Greatest Highway," and "C. P. R. Spans the World," could be plainly read with ease for a considerable distance.

served as the principal trails of communication for Indians and traders alike.

OPEN AIR DANCE

The afternoon will be devoted to a programme of sports in which children from every public school in the city will take part, while later, in the evening, citizens will throng to Market Square, where arrangements have been made for an open air dance, including reels and folk popular in the pioneer days.

The dance celebration will be brought to a close with numerous functions, the principal of which will be a civic banquet tendered to old-timers of the city, who were among the small colony of settlers that witnessed the official ceremony of incorporation on June 18, 1874.

ESSAY COMPETITION

In connection with the jubilee a city-wide competition has been conducted among public school students for the best essay on the history and development of Winnipeg. The efforts of the young citizens will be judged by a qualified committee, and the successful competitors awarded appropriate medals of merit by the Winnipeg Canadian Club.

A GREAT CHANGE

The story of Winnipeg of yesterday is the story of a village that has vanished utterly. The buffalo tracks and wallows that furrowed the banks of the rivers, the carts that squeaked on the rutted trails, the trading stores and shiny-cheeked Indians—all these and the rest of the adjuncts of Canada's unique pioneer West were swamped when after the "transfer" of 1870 the Easterners poured in.

Passing through the vicissitudes of a rapidly expanding city, Winnipeg has essentially kept pace with the progress of Western Canada until to-day the city is the virtual distributing centre of that vast stretch of rich and fertile country of the prairies.

MRS. MARY ROBERTS

Among the old-timers taking part in the celebration are Mrs. Mary Roberts, who came to the Red River in 1844 with only a girl settlement of seven years. A brisk, smiling old woman, full of interesting memories, she related to-day the story of her arrival here.

"When we reached Armstrong's Point, which is on the Red River, the Indians hauled us up the river and carried us across portages. That was a whole lot different from travelling in the railroad trains and automobiles of to-day," she said.

"It was on the General Palmer we came," she continued, "and it landed in Hudson Bay. We were there three months on the voyage and two more months in getting to Winnipeg, or you might say Fort Garry."

SETTLED ON LAND

"There was hardly any white people here then; just Indians and the Hudson's Bay Company folk. We lived in the fort for two years, but later settled on land near the junction of a West Coast Assiniboine River, where Winnipeg at present stands."

Her husband had served with the forces in suppressing the Red rebellion which she described as a "great fight."

Mrs. Roberts told of the first boat that sailed down the river to Winnipeg. Then there had been Indians—the local ones had been peaceful, but the Sioux had come up from the United States and once again caused considerable anxiety in the little settlement for some time.

Mrs. Roberts spoke of modern girls. "They're a great lot," she said with fine contempt. "With their bobbed hair, their paint and their cigarette smoking—they don't know what kind of wives they would have made for a man in my day."

W. D. MARSDEN DIED

Nelson, B.C., June 18.—As Winnipeg was approaching its jubilee celebration there died at Bull River, B.C., last week, W. D. Marsden, Indian Muliny, who was a pioneer in the west. He once held eighty acres in Winnipeg as a land grant, after being mustered out after serving in the Fenian Raid and the Red Rebellion. His grant covered what are now the principal thoroughfares of that city. Mr. Marsden was born on the township Great Eastern in 1843, and his father and one sister and brother died in battle on Christmas Day, 1860.

DR. TOLMIE SPEAKS FOR CONSERVATIVES

Third Parties Useless, He Declares, Telling of Ontario Turnover

R. H. Pooley Complains He is Not Loved, so Esquimaux Suffers

"Premier Oliver has taken serious objection to my presence here, saying we should all be back at Ottawa sawing wood. Fifteen days' absence is allowed, and after that time a fine of $25 is imposed. I am paying my way now," explained Dr. Simon F. Tolmie in rising to address a Conservative rally at the Sailors' Club, Esquimaux, last night.

The speaker criticized Liberal Government projects in B. C., including land settlement and returned soldier relief. "Premier Oliver could have kept out of the soldiers' land schemes altogether and left that to the Federal Government," he said. The question was how long could a business stand such management.

Turning to third parties the speaker said they were of the "salon" variety. They were composed normally, and without particular reference to B.C., of men who "nearly got nominated" in other conventions; chosen from the residue after old parties had kicked the best men to the side. For fifty-two years the old party had managed Ontario with a debt of $52,000,000, but by "strict economy and efficiency" the Conservative Party was successful in increasing that figure to $273,000,000. It had been an experiment that living generations would have to pay off.

When the Ontario Third Party had been ousted the country chose a Conservative regime to restore stability. The ex-provincial treasurer there was now out on $100,000 bond. The police had not caught up to some of the others yet, but Premier Ferguson assured the speaker recently the investigation had only just begun.

CANADA'S NEEDS

What Canada needed was stable Government; a careful survey of foreign and home markets; internal industrial research; and a study of real economy, not niggardiness. The speaker was a strong supporter of a protective tariff, but continued, saying a high American tariff wall should be similarly met. Buy home products, he urged.

Turning again to politics the speaker said the freight rate fight was being led by the late Sir Richard McBride and continued by the B. C. Boards of Trade. The Government had made some noise when it ran up a bill for $80,000 for legal advice, but the real work had been done by many years of pioneering before that. The Federal House was not opposed to just rates, he said.

On immigration, he continued, there was no need to bring large numbers of new people in before those already here were happy. If not Canada would become merely a stopping place between the point of origin and the United States.

"Throughout the country" was his conclusion, "there is a decided wave in favor of Conservatism."

CLEAN FIGHT

In opening, R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., took occasion to thank F. R. Carlow and E. P. Matheson, Liberal and Provincial candidates in Esquimaux, for a clean fight. He denied the Lockley charges of a hand-picked convention and stated an independent candidate was not happy. It was he who had saved Esquimaux in the Red-tubing Bill, he continued, though others were trying to take the credit.

"What has Pooley done for Esquimaux? They ask. It is true in last six or seven years I have not done much. Hon. John Oliver does not love Pooley, and he was always trying to hamstring Esquimaux through me."

Now that a Liberal candidate was running the Government talked of a West Coast road and railway. Reverting to his record Mr. Pooley said the "prune juice" talk had not been without effect. The Game Board investigation was another of his good works in the twelve years in office.

The real issue of the election was taxation. The Conservatives had left a debt of $21,000,000. In seven and a half years this had grown to $76,000,000, of which $3,000,000 had been borrowed by Order-in-Council since January this year.

The speaker took issue with the figures given by Mr. John Hart as to revenue-producing debt, saying he could see the debt but not the revenue.

The Government took credit for educational survey, but Hinchliffe had been "hired" at that for three years.

The Conservatives would protect British Columbia timber, he said. The P.G.E. inquiry had cleared the P.C. propaganda, he claimed.

PROFANANDA

Turning to Third Party propaganda he asked: "Have you ever seen such a campaign as this for slush and dirt. That disgraceful speech of L. G. McPhillips, K.C., is typical of the Provincial Party. Mr. Justice Gallier went out of his way to assist him, and he admitted it. I tell you if you stand for such a slur on your judiciary you are not worthy of the name of Britisher. If there is anything that will put the cap on the Provincial Party it is stuff like that. Mr. Justice Gallier is known from one end of Canada to another as a thorough sportsman and a gentleman."

SOCIAL LEGISLATION

IN the light of the record Premier Oliver is entitled to claim for his administration the credit of having put into operation the most comprehensive programme of social legislation ever initiated by any Government in this Province.

- Mothers' Pensions. Deserted Wives Maintenance Act. The maintenance of parents by their children. Maternity protection for prospective mothers who are obliged to earn a living.

The Government's interest in the welfare of labor drew from Mr. Tom Moore, President of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, the following tribute:

THE SERVICE SQUADRON

THE arrangements for the entertainment of the officers and bluejackets of the British Squadron, which will arrive here on Saturday, assure a pleasant stay at this port for the visitors.

A short time ago, in commenting on the visit of the squadron, we expressed the hope that apart from the formal programme of entertainment our citizens in their individual capacities would do their utmost to make the sojourn of the visitors here one of the most pleasant recollections of their tour.

Victoria can do even better in this respect, if her citizens rise to the occasion. If those who have the means and the facilities for doing it will show a little personal attention to the visitors when opportunity offers they will do something that will be more heartily appreciated than any lavish but perfunctory and formal diversion.

SOUTH AFRICA BRITISH

ALTHOUGH only eighty-three out of 134 constituencies had been heard from up till this afternoon, it looks as if Premier Smuts and his colleagues will have to contemplate the advent of a Labor-Nationalist Government in South Africa.

Latest reports give the South African Party—which includes the Unionists—thirty-seven seats; Labor, eighteen; Nationalists, twenty-seven and Independents, one. So that with fifty-one seats yet to be heard from the Government is in an actual minority of nine, with the Premier himself defeated in Pretoria West.

If the Labor-Nationalist Party should be successful in completely overthrowing the Government, however, especially if the present ratio is maintained in the subsequent returns, it will be a comfort for General Hertzog and his republican following. It will mean that, while the workingman in South Africa objects to some of the legislation which the united South African Party has placed on the statute books, and is still annoyed with the Premier for his methods of dealing with the Rand riots, he is going to do nothing that would give the extreme Nationalists the whip hand.

The Labor man realizes the benefits which he enjoys under the British flag and he is no more ready to snap the Commonwealth tie than he was in 1921, when he left his own Party candidate in the cold in a number of instances in order that Premier Smuts should be returned with a sufficient majority to defeat the then ambitious aims—now merely subdued for political reasons—of Hertzog and his following of malcontents.

Consequently the lesson so far in South Africa is merely that of the probable defeat of a Government whose legislation has offended the majority. Effective disapproval was only possible by unified action on the part of Labor and Nationalist. This was seen twelve months ago when Hertzog made his overtures to Colonel Creswell. But the leader of the Labor Party, a veteran of the war whose loyalty is above question, anxious as he was to defeat Smuts, would consent to join forces with the Nationalists for this one political object, only if Hertzog would eliminate the republican plank from his platform.

The Nationalist leader did this and, if Labor obtains the following that partial returns indicate, South Africa will once more have reaffirmed its support of British connections. For Labor would desert Hertzog and support the South African Party if a secessionist movement were launched in the House of Assembly.

OLIVER WORRYING BUFFALO

BUFFALO wants to know who this man Oliver of British Columbia really is. Commercial interests in that large and busy American city are asking themselves what is going to become of their nineteen huge grain elevators, and the $35,000,000 annual toll which the Buffalo-New York route exacts as the price of handling about 110,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat, if the Oliver Government is returned to power next Friday.

The contents of a dispatch from Buffalo indicate the real alarm which has seized our friends across the way, because their information leaves little doubt in their minds that the people of this Province will authorize Premier Oliver to continue his fight for equalized freight rates. Evidently Buffalo has been kept in close touch with actual conditions and political feeling in this Province.

Oliver's fight will certainly make a hole in that annual job which keeps Buffalo's nineteen grain elevators busy and nets $35,000,000 for the Buffalo-New York transportation route. But we have our own troubles and Oliver has obtained such a momentum that it would take a lot to stop him from getting British Columbia her rights.

STARTING DOWNHILL

PREMIER MUSSOLINI is reported to be facing a grave political crisis. He has brought it on himself. People will allow themselves to be driven only so far. When the urge begins to get irksome they look for a way out of the procession.

Mussolini gets very annoyed when any of his erstwhile followers differ from him. This is only natural among the average band of politicians. And the people expect it. But there are very few Western countries in which murder is regarded as fair punishment for changing a mind.

Many people in Italy are persuaded that Matteotti was killed by Fascists because he knew a lot about the way of Fascism and made it public. There may be nothing in the charge; but despot rule creates an atmosphere in which action comes first and reason afterwards.

SOMEWHAT UNGRATEFUL

THE Vancouver Province says that British Columbia wants "a strong and stable government that can tackle the problems before the Province aggressively, honestly and economically."

Nobody will seriously challenge the diagnosis of our Mainland contemporary. But it is difficult to understand why, in the event of neither party being returned with a sufficient following to assume power as well as office, it would advocate a coalition of Conservatives and Provincials.

Is The Daily Province no longer interested in the freight battle which Premier Oliver has waged and is waging with such marked success? Would it really ignore the one Government which has been fighting for benefits that British Columbia should now be enjoying—benefits which would mean more to Vancouver than to any other part of the Province?

Surely our contemporary is not serious when it implies that a coalition of Conservatives and Provincials—both of which parties have been slinging the stickiest kind of mud at one another—would make for "a strong and stable government."

On the other hand, swapping horses in the middle of the freight rates stream will certainly not be good business for Vancouver.

A Conservative advertisement says that Oliver is through. Opponents of his great freight rates fight are of a different opinion; they say he is thorough.

The solid Liberal four for Victoria, Pauline for Saanich, and Carlow for Esquimalt, should be the slogan for all progressives in this neck of the woods on Friday.

For the benefit of the three parties who are quite certain that the next Provincial Parliament will be composed of at least thirty-five Liberals, thirty-five Conservatives, and thirty-five Provincials, we may be permitted to point out that there is no vote in the Estimates for an extension of the Legislative Chamber.

A Farmers Advice to Dr. Tolmie

I note that Hon. S. F. Tolmie is campaigning on the Island on behalf of the local Conservative Party.

I am a Liberal and a farmer. In 1917 I supported Mr. Tolmie as a Unionist candidate. He was to give us non-partisan representation. Even in 1921 he stressed the fact that he was not a candidate of the Union Government, but again a candidate of the Union Government. Later on Dr. Tolmie strongly supported the reorganized Conservative Party and later became its political organizer at a large salary. He is now using the political influence which he acquired by the aid of our Liberal votes as a Unionist to oppose our Provincial Liberal Party, which has nothing whatever to do with Dominion issues.

The Hon. S. F. Tolmie is as a dry farmer advising the farmers of Vancouver Island how to vote in the Provincial election, but what claim has he on our confidence?

In the debate of May 15, 1922, and of June 6, 1923, in the House of Commons, he came out very strongly in favor of allowing oleomargarine to be made and imported into Canada. He was, in fact, the strongest supporter that the oleomargarine interests had, which he admitted, in answer to questions, were principally the Swift Packing Company and Chamberlain. As he said he represented the dairymen, and yet was in favor of allowing oleomargarine, his words, of course, had considerable weight. That was bad enough, but his recent attitude regarding the racehorses from an area infected with the foot and mouth disease is worse. The following telegram was sent by him to Mr. Coventry, who is connected with the Racing Association in Victoria:

"To T. G. Coventry: April 28. 'Order-in-Council passed this morning prohibiting the entrance into Canada horses that originate from or have been within States of California, Nevada or Oregon within sixty days of date entering Canada.'

"Will interview Minister Monday. Strongly urge that wire of protest be sent from all racing associations in B.C. and Chamberlain and other organizations that you can interest. Would like these to reach Minister of Agriculture previous to my call. Also wire Dr. King, representative in Cabinet from B.C. This Order-in-Council most drastic and was only imposed once in 1908 to meet wishes of British Government in connection with shipment of cattle. In all other outbreaks foot and mouth disease in United States disinfection horses as wired to you has been sufficient on entering Canada, and not a single case has ever appeared from the United States, showing that these regulations are quite sufficient. In your wire would advise using strong argument but the assistance of Dr. Maconachie. With this message Dr. Maconachie, Victoria, and secure his assistance. Please advise me what horses this order will keep out, and if you have enough to race without them and give me estimate your losses in event your being unable to race as a result this order.

(Sgd.) S. F. TOLMIE." The above shows how he was urging that strong wires of protest should be sent from racing associations and any other bodies that would do it, to the Minister protesting against his decision to exclude them, and he promised to follow them up himself by calling on the Minister and urging the withdrawal of the order. Mr. Coventry was assured that the assistance of Dr. Maconachie, a veterinarian in the employ of the Dominion Government, and it was his duty to support the Hon. Mr. Motherwell's policy, and he should not have been asked to undermine his superior's decisions. The regulations in England were referred to, but England is not in a place to quote in this matter, considering the enormous losses that have been caused by the spreading of the disease there; regulations which caused such widespread disaster in England are hardly wise ones for us to copy.

The suggestion is made that these horses were to have come from Mexico, and as the disease was there was no danger. That sounds alright, but the horses would have had to have been brought through a portion of California where the disease was bad; and, moreover, they were to come from Tia Juana, which, while it is in Mexico, is only two miles across an open border from a part of California where the disease was raging. Many of the horses at this meet were California horses and the slovenly methods of the Mexican officials, the ignorance of the jockeys, etc., and the constant intercourse that there would be backwards and forwards would easily allow bedding and clothing to become affected and bring it north to us. The people at the State of Washington thought it serious enough to forbid the cars to come through their state unless kept sealed up all the time. The Veterinary Association and many other public bodies in British Columbia strongly endorsed keeping these horses out. Had the Minister yielded to Dr. Tolmie and let them come in British Columbia might to-day be slaughtering its herds of cattle.

It appears there were some one hundred and seventy horses that they wanted to bring; and rather than some loss should happen to the owners of these foreign horses, and some possible loss to a racing association, Dr. Tolmie is willing to risk and serious endanger not only the whole farming industry of British Columbia, but that of nearly the whole Province, because if the disease gets in here it would not only ruin many of our farmers, but the restrictions of trade and tourist-traffic that would be put on against us from Washington and other provinces would be most disastrous for British Columbia generally. And who wanted it—a racing association.

This is a poor stand for an ex-Minister of Agriculture and the self-appointed friend and champion of the farmers of British Columbia. Dear Mr. Editor, if you happen to see the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, would you please ask him: (1) To abstain from using his Dominion position in our local politics.

(2) To go back to Ottawa and attend to his duties there.

(3) To please stop "helping" us struggling farmers by urging the introduction of oleomargarine and foot and mouth disease.

A WEARY DAIRY FARMER.

THE RANK IS BUT THE GUINEA STAMP

Mr. Brown, who was a pit boy and miner, is the representative of King George in opening the annual assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Scotland. The Ramsay MacDonald Government got him that. He is, for the ceremonies, "His Grace." The Scotch miner stepped into it with the willingness of a Normal, and there was no profane noise. None of the ceremony was to be cut for him. Sound the fanfare and watch a flash of form and burst of speed. Probably it requires a thousand years to do this. It's a gift that may never be developed on this side of the Atlantic. American ceremonies are not an eyesful. The Senators could get away with a Maypole dance about as well.

SAY RESOLUTION OFFENSIVE TO ITALY

Critics of British Government Score Labor Leaders For Message Just Sent

Disappearance of Matteotti the Cause; Sympathy With Socialists

London, June 18.—Premier MacDonald and his ministerial colleagues are charged by the Opposition press and parliamentarians with adopting an amazingly offensive attitude toward the Mussolini Government by at least tacit approval of a condemnatory resolution passed yesterday at a meeting of the British Labor Party at which Mr. MacDonald and some of the other Ministers were present.

The resolution, after recording the party's "profound detestation of the kidnapping of the Socialist deputy Matteotti, who is believed to have been murdered, sends 'warm sympathy and hearty support to the Socialist Party of Italy in its struggle against the forces that are trampling upon the fundamental principles of liberty and democracy.'

It is not clear whether Premier MacDonald and his colleagues voted for the resolution, but it is stated they did not cast their ballots against it. Apologists for the Government say the resolution merely expresses the attitude of the Labor Party and does not commit the administration.

SAY OFFENCE GIVEN

The Government's critics, however, contend this is not likely to have weight in Italy, where offence is inevitable. They term it an unimaginable blunder in the light of Mr. MacDonald's known desire for friendly relations with the European Powers with a view to settlement of the German reparations problem.

It is understood the incident will be discussed in the House. They call Branch-Rickey a wise guy. But the boss of the St. Louis Cardinals, released Jacques Fourme last year and the same Jacques, now with Brooklyn, is leading the National League in home runs.

How to make better strawberry jam in a few minutes

Keeps perfectly—Make up a supply now to use during winter months.

By ANN PROCTOR

Everyone loves strawberry jam. For a spread on bread or hot biscuits nothing seems to equal it. Its wonderful flavor makes children of us all. Until now, however, an expert was required to make it. Until now, also, it was expensive. Certo, a natural product of fruit, has solved the problem so that everyone can now make and eat this delicious conserve.

This process banishes all the guesswork or worry, as perfect results are certain. Unlike the old method of "pound for pound" mixture which had to be boiled for thirty or more minutes, with consequent loss of fruit juice and flavor being boiled away, the economical Certo process requires only one minute's boiling and thereby saves all the fruit to produce 50 per cent. more jam.

Certo is an absolutely pure fruit product—contains no gelatine or preservative. Jams and jellies made the Certo way will keep perfectly. Certo will positively save you time and fruit and eliminate all guesswork. You can use it on all kinds of fruits and you can even use canned fruits—something you could never do before. It is highly endorsed by all domestic science experts. Every woman who has used it recommends it to her friends and says she will never be without it. To make Strawberry Jam by the easy Certo process: CRUSH WELL about two quarts ripe berries in separate portions so that each berry is mashed. This allows fruit to quickly absorb the sugar during the short boil. Measure 4 level cups crushed berries into large kettle, add 7 level cups sugar and mix well. Use hottest fire and stir constantly before and while boiling. BOIL HARD FOR ONE MINUTE. Remove from fire and stir in 1/2 bottle (scant 1/2 cup) Certo. From time jam is taken off fire allow to stand not over 5 minutes. BY THE CLOCK, before pouring. In the meantime skin and stir occasionally to cool SLIGHTLY. Then pour quickly. This same recipe may be used for making raspberry, blackberry or loganberry jam.

Write today to the Douglas Packing Co., Limited, Cobourg, for a copy of the Certo recipe booklet of 75 recipes. If your grocer does not have Certo send 40c in stamps to this Company and they will forward you a bottle. Be sure to start now—the new, sure, quick, economical way of making jams and jellies. You will never return to the old "hit or miss" method. 100

PIONEER FAMILIES UNITED BY PRETTY WEDDING TO-DAY

Miss Edith Richardson Becomes Bride of Mr. Ainslie J. Helmcken

Two of the oldest pioneer families in British Columbia were united by the marriage to-day of Edith Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. George A. Richardson and Mrs. Richardson of 835 Moss Street, to Ainslie J. Helmcken, younger son of the late Dr. J. D. Helmcken and Mrs. Helmcken of 1538 Beach Drive, and grandson of the late Hon. J. S. Helmcken, member of the British Columbia Legislature. By a curious and interesting coincidence the paternal grandfathers of both bride and groom first came to this Province in 1850 on the vessel Norman Morrison, arriving in Victoria from the Old Country via Cape Horn in 1850.

The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock at the Metropolitan Methodist Church, Rev. Dr. Sippel officiating in the presence of a large congregation, representing many pioneer families. A profusion of lovely summer flowers, a pretty setting for the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. W. J. Cullum. She was a winsome picture in her beautiful gown of ivory chamoise satin. The simple—bodice had for its distinctive sleeves three tiny frills of ivory georgette edged with silver beads, while a succession of similar frills appeared on the front of the skirt in apron effect and finished the slender train which hung from the shoulders. At each hip the skirt was finished with large true lovers' knots of French paste. A coronet of orange blossoms, which had been worn by the bridegroom's mother at her wedding, confined to the collar of the soft tulle veil with its pretty trimming of four-leaved clovers in silver and sweetheart roses completed the bridal toilette.

The bride had for attendants two of her cousins, Miss Dorothy Boggs was prettily gowned in primrose georgette, with rows of frills on the skirt and a girle of silver ribbon. The other, Miss Helen Brown, wore a pretty hat of primrose yellow and carried a bouquet of mauve sweet peas. Miss Marjorie Cullum wore mauve georgette, similarly fashioned, with hat en suite, and carried a bouquet of yellow sweet peas. Two little flower girls completed the bridal procession. Little Miss Helen Watson, niece of the bridegroom, was dainty in pale pink crepe de Chine and quaint poke bonnet and little Miss Helen Brown was sweet in powder blue crepe de Chine with poke bonnet to match. Both carried quaint Colonial bouquets of flowers and signs of the times. The register Mrs. Eric Oland sang "Bridal Dawn."

The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Mr. J. D. Helmcken, and the ushers were Robert D. Harvey and Lieut. W. Holmes, R.C.N. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, the young couple standing beneath an archway of flowers in the drawing room to receive the congratulations of their many friends. Mrs. Richardson, in a charming toilette of black georgette and Spanish lace with ermine collar and smart hat of black moire and lace was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. J. S. Helmcken. Later Mr. and Mrs. Helmcken left for their honeymoon tour, the bride traveling in a smart suit of beaver camelline with fox fur and a Peggy model hat in cloche style of beaver and silk with silk shot in similar colorings.

YOUR HEALTH

GUARD YOUR EMOTIONS IF YOU'D KEEP REALLY WELL

By Royal S. Copeland, M.D.

Too many of us overlook the part the emotions play upon health. Worry destroys sleep, reduces the appetite, acts the nerves on edge and results in loss of weight and efficiency. It makes every member of the household miserably unhappy and takes the joy out of life.

If there were no higher reason for living a man who holds up his head, thrusts out his chin and looks the world in the eye, because his own conduct justifies such independence of spirit.

There is nothing cringing about men who are fearless in conduct because of their own decent living. Such men do not walk softly and speak in whispers. They are willing to be seen and to express their thoughts in brave words.

You may wonder what such a mental attitude has to do with health. It has much to do with health because the emotions affect the heart, the most important organ of the body.

The heart is an intricate machine, as well as a powerful pump. To have good health and long life, this vital organ must never miss a minute of activity. It must run on, on, on, all day and every day. Even without special strain or unusual demand, the pressure on the heart is tremendous.

If you know anything about an automobile or an engine of any sort, you are well aware that you cannot jump it from low into high, putting it into full speed every little while, without destroying the mechanism.

Emotion of every sort has a similar effect on the heart. Sudden fright or steady fear, anger, sorrow—every such disturbance of the mental state makes for sudden or undue demands on this organ. The frequent repetition or too long sustained application of such effects must and does bring permanent impairment of the heart. St. Paul spoke so wisely when he said: "And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things." Within reasonable limits every man and woman, every boy and girl, can control the number of years of life. To a great degree, your length of days depends on your heart. How the heart performs and how long it will last are governed by the control of your emotions.

The pleasurable emotions are stimulating and helpful, but the depressing ones are deadly to happiness and longevity.

There are many residents of Victoria owning cars who are not members of any automobile club, an earnest appeal to them is made, asking that they will send in their names and addresses with telephone number to the entertainment committee's room, No. 6, Metropolitan Building, if willing to assist in taking the men of the fleet upon organized or other drives. The matter of cars for transportation to show the men the beauty spots of southern Vancouver Island is quite a problem to the committee, and any such assistance from the residents of Victoria will very greatly help in overcoming this difficulty.

FOR ALDERMAN TODD

To the Editor: I would like to ask Alderman Todd, if he is elected, will he conduct his work in the Legislature as secretly and as quietly as he promoted the golf links at Elk Lake?

Will he, if elected, resign as he has threatened to do several times in the City Council, if he cannot have his own way and thereby cause a by-election?

If he thinks he and Andrew Wright can work under General McRae in harmony with Alderman Woodward, a Socialist?

THE COACH'S JOB

Something of the taskmaster, the general and the diplomat, and a lot of the doctor must be hidden away in the man who would be the coach of a successful football or track team.

Emergencies of all kinds are his daily routine. A thorough knowledge of first aid is as essential as a knowledge of the game played by his men.

Bumps, bruises, strained ligaments and muscles are every day happenings, but the coach never becomes contemptuous of them. He knows that if neglected, they may result in anything.

Trainers everywhere keep Absorbine Jr. in their lockers. They use it not only for sprains, cuts and bruises, but for the skin and blood protection of its disinfecting properties.

And there are just as many everyday uses for Absorbine Jr. in the homes of Canada as there are in the training camps. Always keep it in the home where you can "jump to it" in case of emergency. $1.25 at your drugist.

BRITISH BEACON DIVING SOURCE OF OIL SUPPLIES

British Special Service Squadron Requires Over 7,000 Tons of Fuel Oil

Some idea as to how much fuel oil the British Empire Special Service Squadron consumes and where Britain gets her oil to supply her fleet was gained on the arrival of the tanker British Beacon, one of the Admiralty supply ships, at Esquimalt.

The British Beacon arrived from Borneo last Saturday with 65,000 barrels of fuel oil for the Special Service Squadron, which it arrives here.

The Anglo-Persian Oil Refineries have large fields in Iraq and are even now planning new development which will increase the export trade to 4,000,000 tons of oil a year.

Several shipping concerns, it is understood, desire to obtain from Fiji a subsidy and are willing to equalize such ships as they use in the Fiji trade with special refrigeration for the handling of tropical products.

At present the exports of Fiji are mostly sugar and copra. The colony produces a great amount of pineapples, tobacco, rubber, bananas, hardwood and even butter.

At present Canada gets only about one 1/4 per cent of our export trade. We buy more from Canada than we sell to her.

If such a corporation as is contemplated is formed, there are concessions to be got from the government of the colony in the form of a financial interest.

Postal Workers In Toronto on Strike To-day

Toronto, June 18.—Toronto postal workers are on strike. The decision to walk out was reached at 5.30 this evening by a mass meeting of the clerks, carriers, transfer men and porters at Bayside Park in conformity with the instructions sent out by officials of the Dominion Federation of Postal Employees.

It is reported that a dispatch from Ottawa had stated that the strike had been deferred for twenty-four hours in the event of the Toronto local declared:

"We are out and we will stay out until we are instructed by our federation officers to return to work."

The men were advised to report in uniform to all branch stations at 2 o'clock to-morrow morning "but do not go to work."

DEFENCE TO STAGE HIGH VOLTAGE WIRE TEST FOR COURT

To introduce 2,300 volts of electrical energy into a public court room in demonstration of a point of a technical nature is the plan for the defence in the action of Walton vs. B.C.E.R., continuing before Chief Justice Hunter to-day. Plaintiff, Mrs. Ruth Walton, seeks $40,000 damages for the death of the late George Wild Walton, her husband, by electrocution on January 5 last. The court rose at 12.30 to-day to view the premises at 1124 Fort Street, the scene of the fatality.

The promise of the electrical display was made by Harold B. Robertson, K. C., acting with A. D. King for the defence, when a witness contested the ability of a human being to come in contact with any part of a circuit containing 2,300 volts without suffering death, or injury. If the defence could show such a phenomenon would witness credit it? Witness, Dr. H. Vickers, Professor of Electrical Engineering at the University of B. C., said that he would be pointed out that conditions as between the test and the actual tragedy might well be very different. Evidence for the plaintiff this morning turned on the nature of the current which killed Mr. Walton. Dr. Vickers gave it as his view that if a secondary wire from the transformer outside of the house had been grounded at the primary, or high voltage circuit, would have been blown and the house disconnected from the over charge. If this had been so Walton would not have died, he thought.

Mr. Robertson intimated that grounding, such as mentioned with witness, had been tried without success. It was in use by the defendant company in Vancouver, challenged witness, who affirmed that he saw evidence of it there himself.

The normal house wiring was designed to stand 110 volts, continued witness, and affirmed that the secondary circuit would have made little difference under a 2,300 volt charge. The crossing of primary and secondary circuit wires would over charge the house circuit, he said. This overcharging would not have taken place if the house side had been grounded at the transformer. From this contention witness would not move.

The hearing will resume this afternoon. Court and jury visited the premises at Fort Street during the noon hour. Harold A. Beckwith and E. F. Finland set for the plaintiff. The city's wiring by-law is one of the points at issue. The by-law deals with extension sockets as in basements, and is pleaded by the defence and attacked by the plaintiff.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Delegates to the Dominion Council of the Navy League will arrive here on Friday afternoon, and will go into session early next week.

Pamphlets describing the motor routes to Victoria from Los Angeles and ferry routes and rates between Victoria and Anacortes, Bellingham, Port Angeles, Seattle and Vancouver have been issued by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau.

All tickets for the Navy League luncheon to Vice-Admiral Sir F. L. Field must be purchased by to-morrow evening. This luncheon will follow the street parade of Monday morning, and will be commenced at 12.30 o'clock under the chairmanship of Sam Harris, president of the Navy League of Canada.

In a short session of the City Police Court to-day, Sam Wong and twenty-one other Chinese were remanded for hearing on charges of being found in a gaming house, for trial on Wednesday. Albert Dawson, charged with stealing $20, property of G. H. Keyes, was similarly remanded. Other remanded hearings were stood over.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church on Monday evening adopted the following resolution: "Believing as we do, that the sale of beer, by the glass, in licensed places, will greatly increase intemperance, that it will be a added menace to the home and a perilous temptation to the young people of the Province—Be it resolved: That as members of the women's missionary society of the First Presbyterian Church, we do all in our power, by vote and influence to defeat the proposed bill; that we urge the women of the congregation and all other friends to vote against the plebiscite and by prayer and saint endeavor, prevent an extension of facilities for securing alcoholic beverages."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Delegates to the Dominion Council of the Navy League will arrive here on Friday afternoon, and will go into session early next week.

Pamphlets describing the motor routes to Victoria from Los Angeles and ferry routes and rates between Victoria and Anacortes, Bellingham, Port Angeles, Seattle and Vancouver have been issued by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau.

All tickets for the Navy League luncheon to Vice-Admiral Sir F. L. Field must be purchased by to-morrow evening. This luncheon will follow the street parade of Monday morning, and will be commenced at 12.30 o'clock under the chairmanship of Sam Harris, president of the Navy League of Canada.

In a short session of the City Police Court to-day, Sam Wong and twenty-one other Chinese were remanded for hearing on charges of being found in a gaming house, for trial on Wednesday. Albert Dawson, charged with stealing $20, property of G. H. Keyes, was similarly remanded. Other remanded hearings were stood over.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church on Monday evening adopted the following resolution: "Believing as we do, that the sale of beer, by the glass, in licensed places, will greatly increase intemperance, that it will be a added menace to the home and a perilous temptation to the young people of the Province—Be it resolved: That as members of the women's missionary society of the First Presbyterian Church, we do all in our power, by vote and influence to defeat the proposed bill; that we urge the women of the congregation and all other friends to vote against the plebiscite and by prayer and saint endeavor, prevent an extension of facilities for securing alcoholic beverages."

S. J. DRAKE

Samuel James Drake, one of the Liberal candidates for Victoria, was born in Ontario, but, at an early age, travelled to Manitoba before the days of the C.P.R. and for some years was resident of Winnipeg. He was educated in public schools at Selkirk and at the Collegiate Institute in Winnipeg. For years he worked in a sawmill on the shores of Lake Winnipeg, during his Summer vacations, and for three years he spent his holiday months in the lumber camps.

He entered then upon a course of business training, at the completion of which he took service with the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada, and was cashier in the Winnipeg offices of this concern for some time. He stayed for years with that company, which handled a tremendous amount of business, and then went over to the Aetna Life Assurance Company, where he was cashier in the Winnipeg offices of this concern for some time. He stayed for ten years with that company, which handled a tremendous amount of business, and then went over to the Aetna Life. For two years he remained in service with this corporation, but after a trip to Victoria in 1907 he felt the lure of the Coast and came here to live and carry on the hardware business which he has successfully operated ever since.

He is a charter member of the Victoria Rotary Club, and has always been active in conducting his portion of the work which this organization accomplishes year by year.

He has twice been director of the Chamber of Commerce, and earned commendation from all sides for his work in the interests of the city. He has been a member of the Board of the Jubilee Hospital, and was councillor in the Oak Bay municipality in 1916. During the years of 1920, 1921 and 1922 he was Reeve of that district, heading the polls in 1923, twice chosen by acclamation and in his last term put into office by a large majority.

LABOR CANDIDATES GIVE REMEDY FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Hold Meeting in Shelbourne Street Hall and State Policies.

At the Canadian Labor Party meeting in the Shelbourne Street Hall last evening the audience was interested and attentive. Phil Smith, who spoke first, dwelt upon the causes which led up to the formation of the Labor Party in Canada. He dealt at length upon unemployment, which is increasing rapidly throughout the entire world, and urged that steps be taken to deal with it in British Columbia. He strongly appealed to all organized labor to take political action.

Mrs. H. W. Graves spoke from a new angle, taking up the business aspect of the situation. She drew attention to the large areas of timber held by the Government on this island, more particularly in the district south of Barkley Sound in the vicinity of San Juan.

She suggested that the Government at the earliest moment proceed to develop this area. A petition should be sent to Ottawa asking the Dominion Government to build a breakwater outside of the San Juan inlet, she suggested. This would make it possible to assemble the timber here and get it out under favorable conditions. The Provincial Government should cut its own timber and place it upon the market, thus reducing taxation and providing work.

J. H. Hawthornthwaite took a strong stand against "parsons in politics." He stated that in practice these "pillars of the church" have always proved to be reactionists in public affairs, notwithstanding that in private life they were generally clean men and good citizens. He quoted the records of many of them in the House, drawing particular attention to the votes of Mr. Hinchliffe and Mr. Menzies, of Vancouver, on a Conservative and the other a Liberal. The Comox electors refused Mr. Menzies in this election, a nomination, but the Conservatives of Victoria re-nominated Mr. Hinchliffe as their strongest card. This gentleman, Mr. Hawthornthwaite said, failed to contribute anything to the legislation of the country, good

Admiral To Meet Pupils Of City Schools on Monday Afternoon

Vice-Admiral Sir Frederick Field, Commander of the British Special Service Squadron, will meet the pupils of the Victoria schools, senior divisions and high school students, in the High School auditorium on Monday afternoon. It is desired owing to the lack of room, that parents and friends should not attend, as the prospective audience will of itself fill the building. The Vice-Admiral has given special attention to explain to the children the meaning of the great flotilla to British imperial connection, and will talk here, as he has done elsewhere in the southern hemisphere on the night of the navy from Saxon days. Trustee Litchfield, in making the announcement of the appointment, says the trustees are very pleased with the willingness of the Admiral to visit the schools shortly after the Navy League luncheon on Monday.

TO TALK HOBBIES

A very useful suggestion, capable of extensive development, has been made to the entertainment committee by A. S. Barton, whose interest in Nature is well known. Mr. Barton says many of us are specialists in scientific features of this neighborhood might be willing to explain to the officers and men who have hobbies, details about this district, and that a list could be prepared for issuance on arrival, and to be listed in the bureau which the Entertainment Committee will have at the Ogdén Point docks.

TIME OF ARRIVAL

Anticipating that the battle cruisers will be at their moorings shortly before two o'clock on Saturday, the following hours have been wired to the Admiralty for his official call: 2 o'clock Government House; 2.30 City Hall; 2.50 Chamber of Commerce. The Admiral will later return to H.M.S. Hood to receive newspapermen. The official dinner will be held at the Empress Hotel on Saturday evening.

Final of Dash to be Run at Montreal To-day; Trouble at Races Yesterday

Montreal, June 18.—The event of most importance to-day in the last day of the Olympic trials here will be the final of the 100-metre dash, in a heat of which G. Hester of Ontario equalled the Olympic record of 19 4-5 seconds yesterday.

Among the events for decision are the 400-metre hurdles, the pole vault, throwing the javelin, throwing the sixteen-pound hammer, putting the sixteen-pound shot and among the running events are the 200-metres, the 300-metres and the 1,500 and 10,000-metres.

A near riot was staged following the running of the final of the 100-metre dash yesterday. There were in the final Coffee and L. Armstrong, Manitoba; Hester of Ontario, and J. M. McKechney, Montreal.

All the men were koped up but when they took their places for the final they took a wrong start and the friendly spirit, Armstrong broke three times and the men were called back. Starter F. M. Van Wagner of McGill University, however, did not disqualify a man. After the third break Coach Nicholson of the M.A.A.A. demanded that Armstrong be put out.

The Canadian play a quiet calculating game and never have forwards adopted a more dominating style and disclosed such a wealth of technique as exhibited by Capman, Ford, Lanning and Forrest.

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., June 18.—The sturdy, tireless Washington crew triumphed over the eights of the eastern colleges yesterday and won the premier race of the intercollegiate rowing association regatta by a wide margin.

The victory of Washington, which had been regarded as favorite, with Pennsylvania her single dangerous opponent, was decisive but not surprising. It was the record of Wisconsin that stood out as the feature of the day's competition.

Washington never deviated from the slow, driving stroke from starting line to finish, and ended fresh. The time for the three-mile Varsity race was 15:02, as compared with the record for the course set by the navy in 1922 of 14:33 3-5.

Washington won second place in the Junior race, Pennsylvania capturing the event. Much of the credit for Washington's win is given to their crafty coxswain, Don Grant, who was also in last year's winning boat.

Tilden Tries To Pick Winner Of Wimbledon Title

Thinks Either Richards, Alonzo or Hunter Will Carry Off Championship

BY WILLIAM TILDEN The English tennis championship at Wimbledon, which until this season has carried with it the world's grass court title, should prove one of the most interesting events of the 1924 season.

The Olympic championships in France in July insure the presence of many foreign teams at Wimbledon. This year will be the first time that the seeded draw will be used in England, it having been adopted at the last meeting of the English Lawn Tennis Association.

There are several contenders for the title. The United States will be represented by R. N. Williams, 2nd, Vincent Richards, Carl Fischer, Francis Hunter, Watson Washburn and possibly Dean Mather.

Williams and Richards, with possibly Hunter, should be regarded as among the most logical contenders for the title. Spain, with Manuel Alonso in the field, should stand an excellent chance of victory.

France may bring home the title with Rene La Coste, Henri Cochet and Brugnon. Jean Washer of Belgium, is a fine player who is sure to cause trouble to any one.

England must rely on Colonel A. R. F. Kingscott, F. G. Ivereux, Mavrogordato and her other veterans, with the added strength of the young Davis cup stars, Jack Wheatley, Jack Gilbert and Max Watson, Washburn and possibly Dean Mather.

It is very hard to guess what the seeded draw will produce. I should guess that Williams and Richards would be placed on opposite sides of the draw, with Manuel Alonso and either Hunter or La Coste in the other quarter.

Much is going to depend on the rest of the draw. There are so many stars the draw may turn out top heavy, even if seeded. Should any one quarter hold a great quantity of the remaining stars, whoever comes through to the semi-final round will be a pretty hard man.

I believe that Manuel Alonso, R.N. Williams, 2nd, and Vincent Richards in that order are the logical candidates for the championship.

It depends largely on the luck of the draw as to which half two of the top four will be placed. If Richards meets Alonso and the winner Williams, then I pick Williams to win the title. If, on the other hand, he meets either Hunter or La Coste, I believe the Spaniard will win.

It is quite possible Richards may spill the beans, and defeat both of them. He is a serious menace to Hunter's advance. He defeated him last season in the United States championship, and I do not regard him as a contender, yet I realize that until he is solved there is a definite threat of victory in his entry.

There is always a chance of Okamoto turning up to have a tournament at Wimbledon. He is known in England and may sweep the country as Shimizu did on his first appearance. I do not regard him as a contender, yet I realize that until he is solved there is a definite threat of victory in his entry.

Canadian Football Team Badly Licked By Sydney Eleven

Manly, N.S.W., June 18 (Special Cable to the Canadian Press)—Canada's All-Star soccer team went down to defeat before the speedy Sydney Metropolitans here to-day by a score of 6 to 2. The Canadians, who were not playing their usual aggressive game, were outclassed in all departments.

The Sydney team, having enjoyed a long rest, played brilliantly. Three thousand persons attended.

Bowman and Stobart scored Canada's two goals. Mosher had the most effective work for the visitors, though they did not get up to their usual standard, were Dierden, Stobart and Anderson, The Canadians were obviously staid and played listlessly.

McLean, Lanning, Armstrong, Wilson and Hood did not play. The mayor of Manly delivered a warm address of welcome to the Canadian players before the game.

On Saturday Canada will play the strong South Coast team, Canadians have now won six, lost three and drawn four games.

Von Elm Is Man Touted Strongly For Amateur Title

Critics Believe That He Will Be Man to Beat in U.S. Tourney. This Year and there will be plenty of dangerous youngsters, with what Cummings, Held, Shute, Carlton, Crenshaw and McHugh competing.

George Von Elm, a blond viking from Salt Lake City, is the most dangerous youngster in the amateur boxing world.

Von Elm has something more than the other newcomers lack, a stern, fierce, unshakable competitive temperament. To back up this desirable quality he has a perfectly balanced game.

Von Elm was more than a mild thriller at Flossmoor last Summer. The Salt Lake youngster literally swamped two formidable players in the first and second round matches before bowing to the wizardry of Quiquet in the third round, and Quiquet, you should be told, was playing at the top of his form.

Von Elm crushed Capt. E. F. Carter, Irish champion, in the first round, 3 and 2. Beating Carter by a hole or so is no mean feat; taking him over, however, is a feat of giant achievements.

Quiquet fell into the bad graces of the authorities for refusing to meet an opponent he was drawn against in the semi-final of the Olympic boxing trials. He had been chosen to represent Canada at the Irish games.

Coulter fell into the bad graces of the authorities for refusing to meet an opponent he was drawn against in the semi-final of the Olympic boxing trials. He had been chosen to represent Canada at the Irish games.

Jackson Setting Pace For Hitters In Amateur Race

C.P.R. First Baseman Out in Front With Campbell and Salloway Next

"Haley" Jackson, the hard-hitting first-sacker of the C.P.R. is leading the hitters in the Victoria Amateur Baseball League, according to the averages released last night.

In twenty trips to the plate "Haley" has lifted the ball to the safety zone eleven times, giving him an average of .550, which makes the record of Holman and Hornsby look like the efforts of feeble men.

Faulkner Campbell of the C.P.R. is runnerup with eight hits in fifteen trips to the plate. He is followed by the sweet-looking lad in the Tillcum's line-up, in even crowding close to the top

BEER BARS MENACE YOUTH, RAYNOR WARNS; DEPLORES WIDESPREAD DRINKING NOW

(Continued from page 1) bonds were actually selling on the same basis as Federal Government bonds. This proved the wisdom of the Provincial Government's financial policies, he said.

British Columbia's sinking funds, Mr. Drake stated, are larger than the sinking funds of any other province in Canada and twice as big as those of the rich province of Ontario.

Freight rate fight The freight rates question, in Mr. Drake's opinion, was the most important issue before British Columbia today. Speaking as a business man, he declared that British Columbia business was strangled by the present exorbitant rates prevailing in Western Canada.

Already, Mr. Drake went on, the Oliver Government's freight rate fight had secured results of enormous value to the Province by bringing the grain of the prairies westward to the Coast. The enormous movement of grain to the Coast this year was the direct result of the rate reductions secured by Premier Oliver, Mr. Drake affirmed.

The fact is, Eastern Canada today is being built up at the expense of the West," he declared. "This is all wrong. We should be allowed equal opportunity. John Oliver has taken up the fight for that equal opportunity. He is the only politician who has taken up that fight and he must be kept in office to finish it."

The Oliver Government, Mr. Drake pointed out, had received from the Bowser Government in the Pacific Great Eastern Railway rather a doubtful legacy which cost $2,000,000 a year or about one-sixth of the provincial income.

"As a man who will lead a country up like that a safe man to leave in power?" Mr. Drake demanded, referring to Mr. Bowser.

Mr. Drake defended the Government's municipal policy. The Oliver Government, he stated, was contributing to the municipalities four times as much money as any other western province devoted to this purpose. Victoria, he said, was receiving $6 per capita annually from the Government while no other city east of the Rockies received more than $1.50 from a provincial Government.

CITY'S DEBT The speaker ridiculed attacks made on the Government by local municipal leaders who are running for the Legislature here. Victoria's financial affairs contrasted sadly with those of the Province. The city per capita debt, he said, was the highest of any city in the Province and was double the per capita debt of the Province. Moreover, the city had not maintained its sinking funds and had been forced to issue refunding loans to meet maturing obligations.

"These critics of the Government should look to their own house first," he declared.

Mr. Drake quoted figures to show how much more generous the British Columbia Government was to the municipalities than other western governments. While the British Columbia Government handed back to the municipalities last year $58,000 more than it collected in them, other western governments were collecting large revenues in municipalities and returning to the cities a relatively small proportion of these moneys.

Pessimism in British Columbia today is absolutely unjustified, Mr. Drake asserted. The growth of the Province's industries, he said, was demonstrated by the fact that the industrial payroll in 1917 was $38,000,000 and in 1923 $106,000,000, an increase of 178 per cent.

STRAIGHT VOTING Mr. Drake warned against the danger created by numerous parties. "Being on the fence with the third party," he said, "won't get you anywhere. There are only two sides to a question. If you can't agree with the Conservatives then vote with the Liberals and if you can't agree with the Liberals vote with the Conservatives."

INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS The primary purpose of the Department of Industries, Mr. Clearihue explained, was to assist in the re-establishment of returned soldiers. The Minister's efforts in this direction, he said, had been distorted and misrepresented by the opposition.

was no proof that its finances were unsound. Would it be sensible; he asked, to say that the C.P.R.'s position was precarious because it had piled up an enormous debt? The company had used its credit, based on its enormous assets, to borrow money and use it in the extension of its operations.

"The Government has borrowed money, it is true," Mr. Clearihue went on. "But it has used it for useful purposes, for productive enterprises, sound investments like the Sumas reclamation scheme, the South Okanagan development scheme, good roads and other valuable projects."

Mr. Clearihue found considerable amusement in the attacks made on the Government by City Council members now running for the Legislature. The council, he said, had succeeded in raising the tax rate year by year until this year the people of Victoria would pay more taxes than ever before.

POOR BUSINESS METHODS "Mayor Hayward says he has reduced the tax rate," Mr. Clearihue remarked. "True, but he is now taxing 75 per cent of all improvements which more than counterbalances the slight drop in the rate. Actually you will pay more taxes than ever before."

As an example of the council's business methods Mr. Clearihue declared that the council had taken away from a soldier's widow a garbage dumping contract costing the city about $300 a month and, without calling tenders, had made a contract for the same work with another concern for some $100 a month.

Mr. Clearihue warmly assailed Hon. S. F. Toome and Hon. H. H. Stevens for abandoning their duty at Ottawa to rush to the aid of the Conservative Party here. At this time, he said Parliament was debating the extension of Canadian National Railways on the Island—a scheme of vital interest to the people of the Province and yet Mr. Stevens and Dr. Toome were not at their posts to press the Province's case.

L. G. McPhillips, K.C., was attacked by Mr. Clearihue for his recent Provincial Party speech in which he scored Mr. Justice W. A. Gallinger. He urged the Benchers to discipline Mr. McPhillips for conduct disgraceful to his profession.

HUMAN RESOURCES "I am running in this election because I am interested in the human resources of this country," Dr. Raynor declared. "We have marvellous natural resources, but more important than these are our human resources—our men and women, our boys and girls. As we neglect these we fall in our greatest duty."

Looking over the recent history of British Columbia, Dr. Raynor asserted that the Bowser Government had done little in social legislation while the Liberal Government had made important progress in this work. Under the old Government the death rate of the Province was high and tuberculosis was on the increase. Now, with a vigorous health administration conditions had been greatly improved. The Government's action in taking over Tranquille Sanitarium, he said, had effected wonderful results in fighting tuberculosis. He also referred to the establishment of venereal disease clinics which were of enormous value.

Dr. Raynor praised the Government's legislation to provide mothers' pensions—a law which had aided many unfortunate mothers and their children and had removed from the cities the burden of maintaining these women. He referred also to the Minimum Wage Act and to the value of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Health insurance, however, was more important to British Columbia than any of the reforms already effected, Dr. Raynor asserted and he added his belief that this broader reform would be inaugurated soon. Health insurance, he said, had been successful wherever it had been tried. Under such a system, he explained, the burden of caring for the sick and injured was spread over the whole community and everyone was assured of protection and maintenance if he were incapacitated.

HEALTH INSURANCE "Under this system every man is protected whether he is rich or poor," Dr. Raynor declared. "To-day I find in going among the people that the wage of the average workman is totally inadequate to keep him and his family, educate them and lay up money to be used in case of sickness or accident. The result is that when sickness comes these people hesitate to call a doctor, and every day I see cases where they have waited until it is too late. I see every day, too, children whose teeth are neglected, thus opening the avenues to infection and other children whose general health is neglected. Do you know, too, that women today are preventing the birth of children simply because of these economic conditions and that other children are born maimed as a result of these practices? You think I am exaggerating but that is not so. There are facts. And there are many women today who do not receive at child birth the treatment which a farmer would give his livestock."

"It will cost money to change these things, but isn't it worth it?" Dr. Raynor demanded.

"We are allowing in British Columbia to-day things that are a menace to our boys and girls. It is my interest in these boys and girls that has prompted me to run in this election."

He is fighting your fight for Prosperity

Get behind Oliver's fight for Equalized Freight Rates & Bigger Pay Rolls

The only chance we have of developing this end of Canada within the next generation is to get out and fight for recognition, fight for equalized freight rates, an equal charge for equal service applying to other parts of Canada, fight for free and unrestricted use of the Panama Canal, fight for representation on financial and national directorates, and fight for the right of this Province to develop and grow.

Whether one likes or dislikes Premier Oliver; whether one agrees or disagrees with him on other questions (and The Vancouver Sun disagrees with him on many things), it must be admitted:

- 1. John Oliver's great homely common sense and dogged fighting qualities particularly adapt him for a champion of equity and justice.
2. That he is fighting for conditions which are fundamental to the prosperity of British Columbia. Without these conditions, we can make no real progress.
3. That great progress has already been made by him in the case of grain rates, grain elevators, and harbor improvements; and, working with a sympathetic Government at Ottawa, there is every reason to look for and expect even more favorable consideration in the immediate future.
4. That to replace Premier Oliver at this particular time with either Mr. Bowser or Gen. McRae would, in effect, say to official Ottawa that we were not sincerely interested in Premier Oliver's campaign. But this is not so. We are interested, vitally interested.
Disregarding petty issues; disregarding personal sentiment and political sentiment, our Provincial Election gets down to the simple economic question: Can this Province afford to repudiate Premier Oliver?

A Liberal Vote is a Vote for Equalized Freight Rates

The Premier assailed Hon. S. F. Toome and Hon. H. H. Stevens for coming out here to assist the Conservative Party while matters of vital concern to British Columbia were before Parliament. These members, he charged, had done nothing to aid the fight for lower rates.

This photo, taken at the University of Toronto commencement, shows Mr. Best with his fiancée, Miss Margaret Mahon, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Mahon of 370 Brunswick Avenue, Toronto. The wedding is to be in September. The romance of Mr. Best and Miss Mahon is one which began when they were students together at University College. Miss Mahon is a graduate of U.C. in 1923, while Mr. Best received his B.A. from U.C. in 1921, his M.A. in 1922, and is at present working on his doctor's degree in medicine.

PREFERENCE PART IS DEBATED IN BRITAIN... M.P.'s Express Views on Resolutions Based at Empire Economic Conference.

London, June 18.—The long-anticipated debate on the Imperial preference resolutions adopted at the last Economic Conference in London was opened last night in the House of Commons with the leaders of every party except the deputy Liberal leader, Lloyd George, listening to the opening speeches.

The debate was not concluded when the House adjourned. J. H. Thomas, Colonial Secretary, spoke of the necessity of improving the Imperial Conference, so that they would be really representative of all shades of opinion in the countries concerned.

LAUSANNE TREATY... Touching incidentally on the Lausanne Treaty debate in the Canadian House of Commons, Mr.

Thomas urged: "There is no one who can read that debate without being not only disturbed but positively alarmed. Some solution to the problem must be found. I have discussed it with responsible people from the Dominions, who are convinced some change such as I have indicated is necessary."

Mr. Thomas passed on to mention the objections of Premier King to the proposals for establishing an economic committee of the Empire because the terms of the reference were too wide. It would give the committee a roving commission.

Mr. Thomas said the Government wished it, but not otherwise, to consider the appointment of a committee on different lines from the one proposed.

Sir John Simon, who spoke for the Liberal free traders, maintained that "the preference system as presently administered is a failure. Very much more real and effective than in the past."

Mr. Thomas said he was not asked to adopt: "We impose no import taxes except for revenue," he said, "but tariff wall as the very basis of their fiscal system."

SUPPORTS RESOLUTIONS... Hayden Guest, secretary of the newly-formed Commonwealth Group, who has just resigned his private secretaryship to John Wheatley, Minister of Health, announced his intention of voting for the first four resolutions, and he hoped the other Labor members would do the same.

Bedtime Story... Uncle Wiggily and the Dust Rag... Copyright, 1924, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Uncle Wiggily was getting ready to hop away from his bungalow one morning to go adventuring when he heard a faint moving sound in the sitting room.

"This is the day of the week when the rabbit uncle was about to call good-bye to Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, when all of a sudden he heard her give a sort of squeaking sigh and she said, 'Oh, I must begin at home.'"

"Goodness," whispered Uncle Wiggily to himself, "this sounds like trouble, and right in my own bungalow! Well, that's what I'm here for—to help those in trouble, and, like charity, I must begin at home."

He opened the door of the sitting room, where Nurse Jane had been sweeping, and there Mr. Longears saw his muskrat lady housekeeper sitting in a chair and holding her head in her paws.

"Why, 'Nurse Jane,' what's the matter?" asked the rabbit.

"Oh, I have such a headache!" cried Nurse Jane. "I managed to get the sweeping done, but I simply can't do the dusting. And company is coming this afternoon! The animal ladies will see the dust on the floor and furniture, and—"

"No, they will not see the dust!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily quickly. "Excuse me for interrupting you, 'Nurse Jane,' but if the animal ladies come they will not see any dust."

"How can they help seeing it when it's all over? Look!" and Nurse Jane pointed to the streaks of grey dust on the floor and furniture. "Oh, such a lot of dust!"

"It will not be here when the animal ladies come," said the bunny, taking off his coat.

"What are you going to do?" cried Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy in surprise.

"First, I am going to carry you up stairs and put you to bed, answered the bunny, kindly but firmly. "Then I am going to sprinkle some toilet water on your head to cool it and stop the ache. Then I am coming down here and use the dust rag."

"Do you mean you are going to dust?" asked the muskrat lady, incredulous like.

"That's just what I mean!" exclaimed the rabbit. "And before Nurse Jane could stop him, he picked her up and gently carried her to her room. Then he put a handkerchief, wet in sweet smelling toilet water, on her aching head and she closed her eyes."

"But I can't bear to have you dusting 'Wiggily," she said.

"I may not be able to dust quite as clean as you would do it, but I will never stop for a time. Besides, I may get an adventure out of it. Now go to sleep, so that when the animal ladies come this afternoon your headache will be gone."

Nurse Jane took a long breath and closed her eyes again. She was feeling a little better already. As for Uncle Wiggily, whistling a cheerful tune, twinking his pink nose and feeling very brave, he went down to the sitting room and took up the dust rag. Nurse Jane had finished the sweeping.

"Come now, dust! Get out of here!" cried the bunny. "You can't stay here any longer. Out you go!" He wiped some dust from the piano, gathered the grains and fuzzy bits into the rag. Then he hopped over and shook the rag out of the window.

"Come, wind, blow the dust away!" cried the bunny, "I'm having a fine time," he shouted. He gathered more dust in a rag, wiping off a table, and again he shook the rag out of the window. "All this sudden as he did this the bunny heard a sound like: 'Ker choo! Ker choo! Ker choo!'"

"A sneeze," whispered the rabbit to himself, "but I must begin at home of some one and made them sneeze! They must be hiding under the window. It'll make him sneeze heard a sound like moving around in the sitting room."

"This is the day of the week when the rabbit uncle was about to call good-bye to Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, when all of a sudden he heard her give a sort of squeaking sigh and she said, 'Oh, I must begin at home.'"

bit for her caught sight of a little tail. "I see you—Bob Cat!" Quickly gathering up some more dust in the rag, Uncle Wiggily shook it down on the bush.

"A ker choo! Oh, ker choo!" came a loud sneeze and out from beneath the bush sprang the Bob Cat. "Ker choo! Ker choo! Ker choo!" he sneezed, harder than ever.

"Have a bit more dust!" cried the bunny. He wiped off a chair and shook the rag again.

"Oh, ga zunka!" sneezed the Bob Cat, and he sneezed so hard that he sneezed himself up in the air, and when he came down he bumped his nose and tears came into his eyes. Uncle Wiggily laughed.

"But I think you're smart, don't you, ker choo! Ker choo!" and the Bob Cat, with another sneeze, ran away because his nose hurt him so. He had hidden in the bush, hoping he might jump in the window and catch the rabbit. But Uncle Wiggily fooled him with the sneezing dust!

Then the rabbit finished the cleaning and by Ker choo! and the Bob Cat, with another sneeze, ran away because his nose hurt him so. He had hidden in the bush, hoping he might jump in the window and catch the rabbit. But Uncle Wiggily fooled him with the sneezing dust!

So if the traffic policeman doesn't try to ride in the baby carriage when he wants to catch a runaway auto, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the Blinkie Bug.

sure of being that representative, and that one must work for the interests of all. He said this was his third term as Mayor of Ladysmith, and last year had polled a record vote of any mayor in B.C. He had also been four years on the School Board, and knew a great deal about the requirements of a municipality such as this one.

Reeve John Evans acted as chairman.

Special to The Times... Oliver passed a very well attended meeting in the Opera House, Duncan, on Monday afternoon, and in spite of many interruptions, gave a very clear and interesting speech.

He referred to the Railway Bill presented at Ottawa for various extensions and the building of a line from Cowichan Bay and claimed that while Mr. Toimie was here helping the Conservative Party, his Tory friends there killed the bill.

There are two outstanding problems with regard to the P.G.E., he said, "we must get connected with the Peace River District as that is the only district from which a large amount of tonnage can be expected."

He went very fully into the matter of transportation rates and showed that the reduction obtained under the present Government was worth two million a year to the trade of B.C.

Mr. Oliver declared he had tried his best in every way to serve the interests of this Province, and they would never hear a whimper from him no matter what the result was on Friday next.

Mayor Walkem, the Liberal candidate for Cowichan-Newscape riding, next spoke. This was the first meeting he had held in Duncan, and although it is asserted that Cowichan and Newscape have nothing in common, he declared that at least at the present time they had this much in common that they were all electors of the one riding and could only have one representative, and he felt himself for the moment when Drummmond's crashing blow took him on the point of the law with mathematical precision, another mathematical law being to operate elsewhere—the law of gravity. Something fell from the ceiling on to a table in the room below that ceiling, even as in days gone by an apple descended into the eye of the discoverer of that law.

The two men seated in the room

gleaned. "You can guess who I mean, can't you?"

"Two girls, muttered the other, recalling a little in spite of himself. "Two girls, muttered the other, recalling a little in spite of himself. "Two girls, muttered the other, recalling a little in spite of himself."

"Blood!" he stammered, and his lips were shaking. "It blood." And then he heard the Russian's voice, low and tense.

"Look at the ceiling, man; look at the ceiling!"

He stared upwards and gave a little cry of horror. Slowly spreading over the white plaster was a great crimson stain, whilst from a crack in the middle the steady drip fell on to the table.

It was Yulowski who recovered himself first; he was more used to such sights than his companion.

"There's been murder done," he shouted hoarsely, and dashed out of the room. Doors were flung open, and half a dozen men rushed up the stairs after him. There was no doubt which the room was, and headed by Yulowski they crowded in—only to stop and stare at what lay on the floor.

"It's the Greek," muttered one of them. "He was guarding the girl. Any one who had severed the main artery of his arm."

With one accord they dashed across the passage to the room where Phyllis had been. "The Greek," muttered one of them. "He was guarding the girl. Any one who had severed the main artery of his arm."

Completely ignorant of what had taken place, he was just as ignorant of what was near by as the power. His one thought now was to get away with Phyllis. A start meant everything, and at the best he couldn't hope for a long time with his arm through hers he urged her forward, while behind him he heard a confused shouting which gradually died away under the peremptory orders of someone who seemed to be in command. And almost subconsciously he noticed that the thudding noise had ceased. Only the faint humming of the engine broke the silence.

Suddenly in front of him he saw the fence which had caused him to wonder earlier in the evening. It was just the same in this part as it had been in the other, but he wasn't concerned with speculations about it now. The only thing that was full for was that it was easy to get through.

He was not five feet from it when it happened—the amazing and at the moment inexplicable thing. For months after he used to wake in the night and find himself sweating with horror at the nearness of the escape. For it would have been Phyllis who would have gone through first; it would have been Phyllis, who— But it did happen—just in time.

economy you must begin at the top. He went over the Re-distribution Bill and said that the Provincial Party is anxious for and proposes to work for the restoration of the Cowichan electoral district. In the best possible way, although the Conservatives assert that they are the only party who will do anything in this matter.

The Provincial Party are coming before the people without making promises of the expenditure of large sums of money, they want the finances on a business basis.

Mr. Gordon Vancouver and Mr. Tait also spoke, and Mr. Duncan was cheered.

Special to The Times... Ladysmith, June 17.—A crowded house greeted Premier Oliver at the Rialto Theatre last night when a meeting was held in support of Mayor W. W. Walkem, Liberal Candidate in the Cowichan-Newscape district.

The meeting was very orderly, the Premier only being interrupted once or twice, and the speaker, who was expected to be large, and for this reason practically every seat was taken at the picture show which opened at 7 o'clock and by 8.30 when the Premier and candidate Mayor W. W. Walkem took the platform, every space was taken up.

Richard Morgan, chairman of the meeting, called for order and introduced the speakers. Mr. Walkem gave a short address, reminding the electors of election day on Friday next and to vote for whom they thought best after hearing the Premier's address. The Premier dealt, extensively with the various reforms that his Government had introduced, such as the Compensation Act, Mother's Pensions, Minimum Wage and several others. BEER IS A FOOD!

For years it has been prescribed by physicians as a tonic. Beer is also the weapon with which the true temperance worker fights spirit drinking.

The temperance forces of Great Britain fought spirits with beer and in twenty years cut the per capita consumption of hard liquor in half. The temperance forces of Switzerland fought spirits with beer and reduced the national drink bill by more than sixty per cent. The temperance forces of Norway and Sweden fought intemperance with beer under the Gothenburg system, where unusual facilities were offered beer drinkers and the consumption of spirits fell to a negligible minimum.

Does It Not Stand to Reason

That the light, health-giving brews from our own B.C. industries, manufactured from the barley and hops grown on our own B. C. farms is better for our people than imported distilled spirits? If the beer plebiscite carries, facilities will be given by the Government for consuming these light, nutritive beverages at a palatable temperature and by the glass, so that one need never purchase more than is desired for immediate consumption.

EX-COMMISSIONER SEEKS SUFFRAGES

"Joe" North Has Ideas on Social Reform He Wishes Adopted

Unconventional Views Are Stated at Columbia Theatre

"You are requested to vote for the straight four, I say 'Vote for the straight man,'" asserted former Police Commissioner C. R. ("Joe") North, speaking at the Columbia Theatre last evening in support of his candidacy for the provincial House from Victoria. He was well received, and delivered a moderate appeal for support of his election.

He elected, said Mr. North, he was ready to fight for them again, though he doubted if any knew the trouble he had gone through owing to his past experience as a commissioner, "because I had the audacity to try to get something for 'em. He alleged two personal assaults by detectives, once in Vancouver and once here, and said they had recently seen what happened to poor old Clem Davies for trying to tell the truth. They had had an investigation in Vancouver, they had had the P.G.E. investigation in Victoria, and "there is not enough whites and in B.C. to supply the demand, for they have used it all across the Bay."

BEER QUESTION

Turning to the beer question, Mr. North declared he wanted to get good beer. It was up to the Government, he said, to see they got good beer. "We have a plebiscite. We want to know how much we are going to pay for it, who is going to handle it, and other things." He alluded to the increase of beer prices to the brewers. "We did not vote for that," said Mr. North, "and we did not vote to keep the hospitals up out of the booze, nor the municipalities out of the booze money. The hospitals are one of the greatest institutions among us, and I figure that a small tax on every able-bodied man who is making a livelihood—just a little tax, and see that they get it, and not spend too much of it in collections—would take care of the poor people afflicted with sickness or victims of accident, so that when you were sick you would go to the hospital and get your treatment without cost and without worrying about the hospital payments."

ELECTION EXPENSES

Alluding to the demand for a report within thirty-five days of his election expenses, he said he had not the money to spend, and his election so far had only cost $6,450, which went to a lawyer, and the other to a boy for carrying a sign. He asserted that it was a libel that "Joe North wanted to get into the Legislature to create a disturbance. He only wanted to represent them sincerely and to co-operate with any party which would work for the public good. What they wanted in the Legislature were men who would take their time and consider before they spent the people's money. In contrast to that he referred to the Johnson Street Bridge as an example where precipitate action had entailed heavy taxation.

"They say, 'What can an independent do on the machine so that it can go straight,'" he asserted amid cheers. They had a wonderful telescope near the city where astronomers had been looking in vain for an honest statesman several years. The audience would agree that the speaker had never been a politician, and did not want to be one.

He would like to tell them something about the lawyers. Instead of a law which they could love and respect, law that should be like an A B C, and that any boy or girl could understand, it is a thing which which could not be understood. Taking a simile from the attack of the octopus, he pointed out the way in which the devil had destroyed the victim, by drawing every drop of blood out of him, and compared it to the policy of the lawyers.

LARGE FORTUNES

Mr. North went on to argue against large fortunes and payments of excess about the lawyers. Some limit should be established by law.

Turning to his programme he declared for old age pensions. "A voice: 'You will have to pay for the P.G.E. first.'"

The candidate, "I had nothing to do with the P.G.E."

What was the difference between the farmer and the lawyer? asked Mr. North. The farmer feeds you and the lawyer starves you. There is nothing in favor of doing something for the farmer, and to do something to get them on the land and keep them there.

"I am in favour of the P.G.E. maternity bonuses of about $200. Is it not worth $200 to bring a child into the world?"

"If the price is too high, then the Legislature can fix it," he remarked. "How about birth control?" came a voice.

"I have nothing to say about that," remarked the candidate. "You can have the stage after I am through." He concluded by urging that children should be educated in their own country. He reminded his audience of the remark of St. Paul from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all as the best guide for a public man.

Police Commissioner Dr. Ernest Hall was notified among the audience, and C. F. Moriarty introduced the speaker as one whose virtues and frailties were known to all.

FAMED SONG BIRDS COME TO VICTORIA

Will Arrive Next Week and Give Two Concert Performances

Six of the most far-famed singing canaries on the continent, collected from various points in the United States, are en route to Victoria and will be heard here in two concerts at the Chamber of Commerce some time next week. It is expected, according to an announcement made yesterday by W. Edwards, secretary of the Victoria Roller Canary Club.

The birds are well known among fanciers throughout the continent. The Sheik, Chicago Chief, Duke of York, Voltairre and Gladiator. These six birds all are winners of first prizes in shows and competitions in America and are bred and trained by the leading breeders in Chicago, New York and elsewhere.

Arrangements are being made whereby the birds can perform in dozens of cities in Canada and the United States, and the only expense that is incurred is in the transportation of the singers from place to place. Victoria will face the charges in connection with the transportation of the birds from Seattle to Victoria. It is anticipated that they will attract many persons to the Chamber of Commerce when they arrive here, and a concert schedule of two performances has been arranged.

BOWSER AND MCGRAE ONCE CO-OPERATED BUT NOW FIGHTING

Premier Oliver Sees Menace to Province in Their Relations

"I charge W. J. Bowser with collusion or negligence in affairs which were vital to the well-being of this Province in connection with the large sums of money paid by the Government to General A. D. McRae, or those persons whom he represented in 1916 for property purchased for the railway terminals at New Westminster," said Premier Oliver in his address before the electors of Saanich, in the interests of Hon. F. A. Pauline, Liberal candidate in that riding, last night. The Premier pointed out that while this property was bought originally by General McRae for a comparatively small sum, it was sold for a fabulous amount.

It was a peculiar coincidence, he noted, that Mr. Bowser and General McRae, who had worked hand in glove together in previous years, should now be calling one another the worst names they could think of in a bitter political campaign.

CONSERVATIVES BLAMED

Mr. Oliver asserted that one of the main causes for the increased expenditure of the Province, and hence the added taxation, was the $2,000,000 which the Government was forced to pay annually towards the Pacific Great Eastern railroad, and which was incurred through the scheming of the Conservative administrators. All the land taxes in the Province, he stated, would not pay this great annual debt. "The Liberal Government in the past few years have made mistakes, and may have made some unwise investments, but compared with what the Conservatives are as white as snow," said Mr. Oliver. "It might be possible to have poor government by honest men, but it would be impossible to have good government with dishonest men in office," he continued.

The Conservative Party speakers have charged the Oliver administration with extravagance, he remarked, in the increasing of the salaries of the civil servants. Mr. Oliver explained that the Conservative Party had a change in the book-keeping policy of the Government showed large sums expended in salaries which were not recorded. After breakfast he asserted also, the salaries of the individuals had been raised, as had been those of other working people throughout Canada, with the high cost of living making a livelihood sometimes difficult to obtain, and he considered this increase justified and not in the least extravagant. "When Mr. Bowser says that he will cut the salaries of the civil servants by $1,000,000, he simply means that he will return to the old form of book-keeping, and that the expenditure will be just the same as it is now," charged the Premier.

EASTERN VISITORS

Mr. Bowser asserted scathingly to the presence here of Conservative Party members from Ottawa, visiting the Province and conducting an imperialistic "tourist" campaign. "While they are here," he said, "the Conservative majority in the Senate has rejected the development of railways on Vancouver Island." The representatives from this Province were not attending to their duty, he asserted, when they left matters to take care of themselves in the East and played their petty politics in British Columbia constituencies.

CANDIDATE SPEAKS

Hon. F. A. Pauline, the candidate in the riding, took the platform following the Premier's departure, and spoke at some length upon the freight question. There had been at least $5,000,000 saved last year to the people of B.C. by the lowering of the freight rates on commodities, he stated, and these reductions had greatly increased the flow of grain from the prairies to the West, whence it was shipped to the markets of the world. The Liberal Government had fought for lower freight rates since 1921, he said, and their requests were meeting with satisfactory consideration so far. But, he continued, given a little more time, changes would be brought about until the Western ports should have the same allotment as the grain shipping trade which was theirs by right of position and situation.

TAX QUESTION

"It is no use our political opponents attacking us the grounds of over-taxation," said Mr. Pauline, "and with the stunting of growth and industrial expansion when this is not the case. He went on to show that the Government annually paid back to the municipalities more than it received from them in taxes. "To be exact," he said, "ten per cent on the dollar."

Opposition speakers had grossly exaggerated the gross and net debt of the Province, the speaker stated, but the true Government figures showed their calculations to be entirely wrong. "The gross debt is approximately $112,000,000, and the net debt is only a little over $37,000,000," he challenged.

"Ever since we came into power, and the Conservatives lost office," he continued, "we have had an upward struggle. We have been faced by amassed debt and poor credit, and we have successfully combated all these evils, and it would be a pity should the people for one moment consider replacing the men who have saved this country in a position where they might do further damage to the great and abiding good accomplished by the Liberals."

B.C.'S EXAMPLE

In order to show the electors what the opinion of those outside of the Province was in connection with B.C.'s financial standing and the Liberal policy, Mr. Pauline referred to an Ontario paper which urged the same measures as had British Columbia in facing the serious situation which confronted them. This Province was an example of success.

the paper had said. Mr. Pauline took this as a great compliment for the Government.

He spoke at some length upon the log exporting question, saying that the quantity of uncut timber shipped to the United States annually was very small, and that a duty on this would only tend to slacken industry and put Canadians out of work. He did not favor an embargo on this export, he said, for that reason.

The meeting last night was held in the Mission Hall, North Quadra Street, and was quiet, orderly and well attended. Oliver and Mr. Pauline both were accorded warm greetings. The Premier urged that the people of Saanich should support the Liberal candidate in that riding with ardor and sympathy, for he had always done splendid work and unflinchingly labored for the well-being of the persons whom he represented in the Legislature.

MERRY PARTY OF CAMP FIRE GIRLS AT TOURIST CAMP

Fourteen Cars Were Registered at Curtis Point on Sunday

Reports From South Indicate Summer Season Will Eclipse All Others

Sunday was the biggest day at the Auto Tourist Camp at the Gorge since the opening in May with fourteen cars from different parts of the United States and Canada and one from as far as Michigan pulling through the archway to shady spots under the towering trees. To tourists hot and dusty from miles of travel the Gorge Camp contained a particular appeal to the Sunday arrivals. California, Oregon and Washington cars predominate in the registrations.

A party of nine Camp Fire Girls from Sonoma, dressed in the neat comfortable uniform of the organization arrived at the camp yesterday from San Sidney. Chaperoned by Miss MacKermer, the party had just come from Sidney. They are visiting several of the camps. With the skill of boy scouts the kindle a fire and prepare their meals. Bronzed and healthy from their outdoor life they get great fun out of their holiday. Provided with blankets they scoon away from the stars. Awake bright and early in the morning they roll their blankets with the precision of soldiers. After breakfast things are cleared away and everything is left neat and clean as the deck of a battleship. The bright, happy young party immediately set their way into the hearts of all the campers.

MANY COMING

That the camp will be well filled throughout the Summer is indicated by reports on tourist travel from Los Angeles. The summer season will eclipse all others in tourist travel from Southern California to the Northwest territory, according to predictions made by the Southern Railway and railroad officials over whose lines the north-bound travelers will make their journeys.

At the office of the Southern Pacific Railway there it was reported since the first of the month travelers from Southern California who are either intending to pass the Summer months in the Northwest territory plan stop-overs there while en route east, are leaving the city on an average of fifty a day. This figure was disclosed by H. P. Monahan, district passenger agent of the Southern Pacific.

The railway official's estimate was substantiated by Geo. M. Heath, city ticket agent of the Canadian National Railways and also representative of the Canadian Pacific lines at Los Angeles. A similar inquiry made at the Los Angeles office of the Admiral Line Steamship Company resulted in another highly optimistic report of the outlook for the Summer season in the Northwest. According to R. B. Schutzen, general passenger agent of the company there, out of five north-bound sailings of that line each week, our ships are carrying an average of 400 persons from Los Angeles harbor and officials state that it is safe to estimate that at least half of this number are tourists from Southern California, Arizona and New Mexico intending to tour the Northwest.

Both railroad and steamship men agree that the intensive advertising campaign in this section of the country which the Northwest territory has fostered, has greatly stimulated interest in that country as a Summer resort for Southern Californians. This campaign has included full page advertisements with illustrations in newspapers and a number of magazines, circulated in the Southwest territory.

As further evidence of the results of this campaign and prospects for a heavy tourist season in the Northwest, the Information Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce reports an increased demand for literature and maps pertaining to resorts in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. Another large information bureau gives a similar report.
