Frank F. Dawley

THE CEDAR RAPIDS EVENING

FRANK F. DAWLEY FOR THE BENCH

SOMETHING OF THE CEDAR RAPIDS CANDIDATE.

Has Won His Way to Prominence by Close Application — Acknowledged to Be a Foremost Authority on Corporation and Other Law.

The announcement that Frank F. Dawley would be a candidate for the federal judgeship, northern district of Iowa, to succeed Judge Shiras, who has announced his intention to resign, was received with pleasure by the people of the city. Mr. Dawley has for all these years been a quiet and unassuming citizen. So retiring has he been that, while they all know him by reputation, through the record that he has made, probably not one-fourth of the men of the city know him by sight. There was general satisfaction when he was appointed to and accepted a position on the board of education and he has been the mainstay of the library board, being the author of all the library laws of the state, untiring in his zeal for the cause, willing to spend his time and his money for the people and always courteous to his associates and to all he meets. He could have the unanimous vote of the city for the position to which he aspires, were federal judges chosen by such means, and that the republicans of the county gave him unanimous endorsement is a compliment that he has earned.

He is admitted to be a foremost authority on corporation law, a branch with which federal judges are brought much in contact, and his legal ability is lacking in no other direction. The following sketch is taken from "Bench and Bar of Iowa," page 316:

"Frank Fremont Dawley is a native of Iowa, being born in Fort Dodge August 11, 1856. His parents were A. M. and Ellen (Parker) Dawley, natives respectively of Ohio and Maine. They came to Iowa in 1855, and settled at Fort Dodge. Here the father engaged in merchandising for a number

THE LINN COUNTY TEACHER'S INSTITUTE

It Will Open for a Two Weeks' Session on July 20 at Marion. List of Instructors.

County Superintendent Vance has issued circulars to the teachers of Linn County, announcing the next annual institute. It will be the forty-sixth annual session of the county institute and will convene at Marion on July 20, for a period of two weeks.

All the teachers of the county will be required to enroll unless excused for special reasons. All persons who expect to be applicants for certificates, to teach during the coming year, should enroll in the institute. Teachers holding state certificates or state diplomas are expected to enroll the same as those holding county certificates.

On the subject of attendance the superintendent says:

"Teachers are expected to attend all the lectures given. No one can afford to miss the lectures given each forenoon. Instructors will grant no excuses. Excuse for necessary absence or tardiness may be obtained from the county superintendent, but always with the understanding that the best excuse is no substitute for work unperformed. Each member of the institute is expected to keep a normal institute note book, which will be furnished at the time of enrollment. All teachers are expected to be prompt in attendance upon all the exercises scheduled for the entire session; do not ask to be excused from any part of the program."

The work will be divided into four general divisions. In the A and B divisions the work will be largely elective for those who have had two years experience or more, the teacher selecting that which her personal interest demands. However, something must be taken for every period on the program. C division will include teachers who have had less than two years experience. All who have never taught will be classed in the D division. No change may be made from the above classification without consulting the county superintendent.

The instructors are:

Prof. Geo. Betts, Mt. Vernon, didactics.

Prof. Stephen Spoke, Cedar Rapids, grammar and physiology.

Supt. G. E. Finch, Marion, physics, history and geography.

Miss Mary Ziek, Cedar Rapids, arithmetic, orthography and reading.

Miss Blanche Goudy, Marion, primary methods.

Mrs. Mabel Withers, Vinton, vocal music.

Prof. J. R. Bayley, Cedar Rapids, penmanship.

J. E. Vance, conductor.

GRIFFITH MAY GO TO THIBET

The Boone News has the following concerning a former Cedar Rapids pastor:

"The Christian church in this city may lose Rev. S. G. Griffith, its new pastor. At the Iowa Christian convention held in Des Moines Thursday Rev. and Mrs. Griffith responded to an appeal for help in Thibet and will, if accepted by the missionary board, go to that far off country long full and work with Dr. Susan Rijnhart, well known in this city.

"The feature of the entire session of the Iowa Christian convention, which yesterday completed its thirty-fourth annual meeting at the University Place Christian church in Des Moines, was the spontaneous and enthusiastic ovation accorded Dr. Susan Rijnhart, the returned Thibetan missionary, at the close of her address yesterday morning. As a result of Dr. Rijnhart's

WEIGHMASTER GOUGH REPORTS

Recommends That Two Assistant Weighmasters be Removed—Renewed Efforts to Create Disatisfaction With the City Arrangements.

Last evening at the meeting of the council, Weighmaster Gough recommended that Assistants J. L. Sherman and A. D. Woods be removed. This recommendation stirred up something and the plans had been laid for a kick at the city scales and Weighmaster Gough. The facts are that, as shown by the books, Sherman made his last return in February and Woods in March, so that as assistant weighmasters they had been doing nothing, and their removal will affect only their right to sign a ticket officially, a thing that both had refused to do.

Some time ago Mr. Gough became aware that Mr. Sherman was issuing private tickets, and telephoned for the reason.

"That's my business," was the reply.

"Have you been doing this for some time?" was the next question.

"You won't find out from me," was the essence of Mr. Sherman's reply. When asked as to why he had made no return, Mr. Woods replied that he had understood that the market ordinance had been knocked out by the district court. Since then he has made no return.

After he had telephoned Mr. Sherman, Weighmaster Gough received the following letter:

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, May 2, 1903.
Mr. Jas. T. Gough:

Dear Sir: I have felt called upon to report your offensive and abusive manner to the mayor and caution you not to repeat the offense. Take warning. Yours, J. L. SHERMAN.

Certain parties, those who in some cases insisted that the city was trying to beat the farmers, have been circulating the story that Mr. Gough gives overweight to encourage the farmers to come to the city scales. Mr. Gough gives exact weights. His scales are balanced all the time. It would be possible to weigh a quarter of a pound on them. He is very particular to have them swept clean and to have them adjusted after a rain, so that there may be no mistake. No error has been proved against them. On the other hand errors have been proved against scales not so carefully kept, and The Gazette can prove one error that amounted to $14 in a single load of material. The Gazette can secure an affidavit to prove an error of about 500 pounds on half a ton of hay, and similar errors can be proved in many instances.

The enemies of Mr. Gough have gone to the extent of reporting that he was discharged for cause by the Sinclair Co., Ltd. Mr. Gough resigned, and being a common workman, it was somewhat unusual that he should have an especial recognition from the firm whose employ he left.

If there is to be a renewal of this fight against city weights, The Gazette has been accumulating some information that will be used to good advantage for the instruction of the buying and selling public. No farmer has been found by this paper who has objected to his weight, and on the other hand one farmer, in the presence of a reporter, assert-chosen by such means, and that the republicans of the county gave him unanimous endorsement is a compliment that he has earned. "Frank Fremont Dawley is a native of Iowa, being born in Fort Dodge August 11, 1856. His parents were A. M. and Ellen (Parker) Dawley, natives respectively of Ohio and Maine. They came to Iowa in 1855, and settled at Fort Dodge. Here the father engaged in merchandising for a number of years and was afterward the register of the United States land office at Fort Dodge. He was also a member of the bar, but dealt largely in real estate instead of practicing law.

"Frank was educated in the public and high schools of his native city, was a teacher from 1874 to 1876, and in the latter year entered the law department of the Michigan State university, being a member of the graduating class of 1878. He then entered the law office of Hubbard, Clark & Deacon of Cedar Rapids, and has practiced in that city ever since. When Mr. Deacon withdrew from the firm in 1879, it became Hubbard & Clark, which continued for two years, when it was changed to Hubbard, Clark & Dawley, in 1881. In 1887 Mr. Clark withdrew from the firm and the style of the firm was changed to Hubbard & Dawley. This it continued until 1897, when it became Hubbard, Dawley & Wheeler. The practice of this firm is very extensive, covering, as it does, all parts of the state. Their practice has been of a general character, but is now largely confined to corporation law. Since 1886 they have represented the legal interests of the Iowa divisions of the Chicago and Northwestern railway.

"Mr. Dawley is a republican in politics. He has been vice president of the city library board since its organization, and is a member of the Board of Education of Cedar Rapids. He was largely instrumental in securing the establishment of the Iowa State Library Commission, and has otherwise been actively identified with the best interests of the city in which he now resides."

"Mr. Dawley was married at Fort Dodge in 1882 to Miss Margaret E. Jacob, and they have four children, one son and three daughters. Mrs. Dawley is very active in the work of the Episcopal church."

The Marshalltown Times Republican says: "The bar of Marshalltown is unanimously in favor of the appointment of F. F. Dawley of Cedar Rapids, one of the best known attorneys of the state, to the federal judgeship, to succeed Judge O. P. Shiras in the northern district of Iowa. Judge Shiras has announced his intention of retiring from the federal bench about November 1, and a successor will be appointed by President Roosevelt. A petition was circulated among the members of the local bar, and all who were seen were glad to sign in favor of the Cedar Rapids attorney. The local bars of the opinion that it would rather see a Fifth district man appointed if the district's candidate is equal in every respect to any others who may seek the position. They feel that in Mr. Dawley the district has an able candidate. Attorney Wright of Sioux City is a candidate to succeed Judge Shiras, as is also Tom Heddle of Fort Dodge. Judge Sherwin of Mason City has also been talked of as a candidate."

Griffith, of Boone, volunteered to accompany her to Thibet and join in her missionary work.

PROPER DOPE FOR SKEETERS

The mosquito is particularly large and ferocious this year. People who live in the latter parts of the city where the water has stood in pools have informed The Gazette that some of these insects have grown to the size of strawberries and that they measure a great distance from tip to tip. One man has reported that he found a nest with eggs in it, built of grass, wire and feathers, but this is believed to be false. It is however true that if any person gets the reputation among the mosquitoes of being particularly good to eat, the condition of that individual is most unfortunate for the animals take means of advertising their finds that attract larger crowds. Most of the citizens build fires and put thereon something that will not burn, for the purpose of annoying the brutes and making them quit the neighborhood. One boy on the west side has his altar for burnt offering on a wagon and carts it about the premises, largely to the annoyance of the winged pests. But there is no need that the people should smoke themselves brown with rubber, traps and the like. An ounce of penitroyal oil in a pint of alcohol used as an ointment, will do the business. The mosquito does not like penitroyal, and prefers human flesh not seasoned with the aromatic herb.
