Code of conduct and cultural awareness

Expectations:

- The Wikimedia Community User Group Malaysia & Wikimedia General safe space policy applies at all times.
- We will have a Trust and Safety team who speak Malay, Indonesian, Mandarin and English.

Ways of working:

- Everyone attending the ESEAP conference has a role and purpose for being there.
- Some represent an affiliate rather than themselves, some are staff doing their job, and others are interested in particular projects or wiki-related activities.
- In discussion and decision making, each person has equal standing.

Language:

- English will be needed for all activities including during presentations. Delegates are asked to speak clearly, slowly, and for a short period.
- Take time to listen and allow another person to talk. Work to involve all interested delegates in conversations and discussion. This may be by seeking someone to translate for you, or repeating or re-stating more simply to improve understanding.
- Live interpretation will only be provided for the plenary hall sessions via ZOOM. Please inform the organiser if you require language support.
- Please bring your own earphones to listen to the live interpretation via ZOOM. The organiser is unable to provide earphones for participants.

What else to bring?

- We encourage participants to bring candies and dessert from their respective countries. Cannabinoid remains illegal in Malaysia, so the participants are not allowed to bring any candies/snacks with such ingredients to the conference.
- We also encourage participants to bring in coins, postcards, stamps, travel brochures, or printed materials from their respective countries.

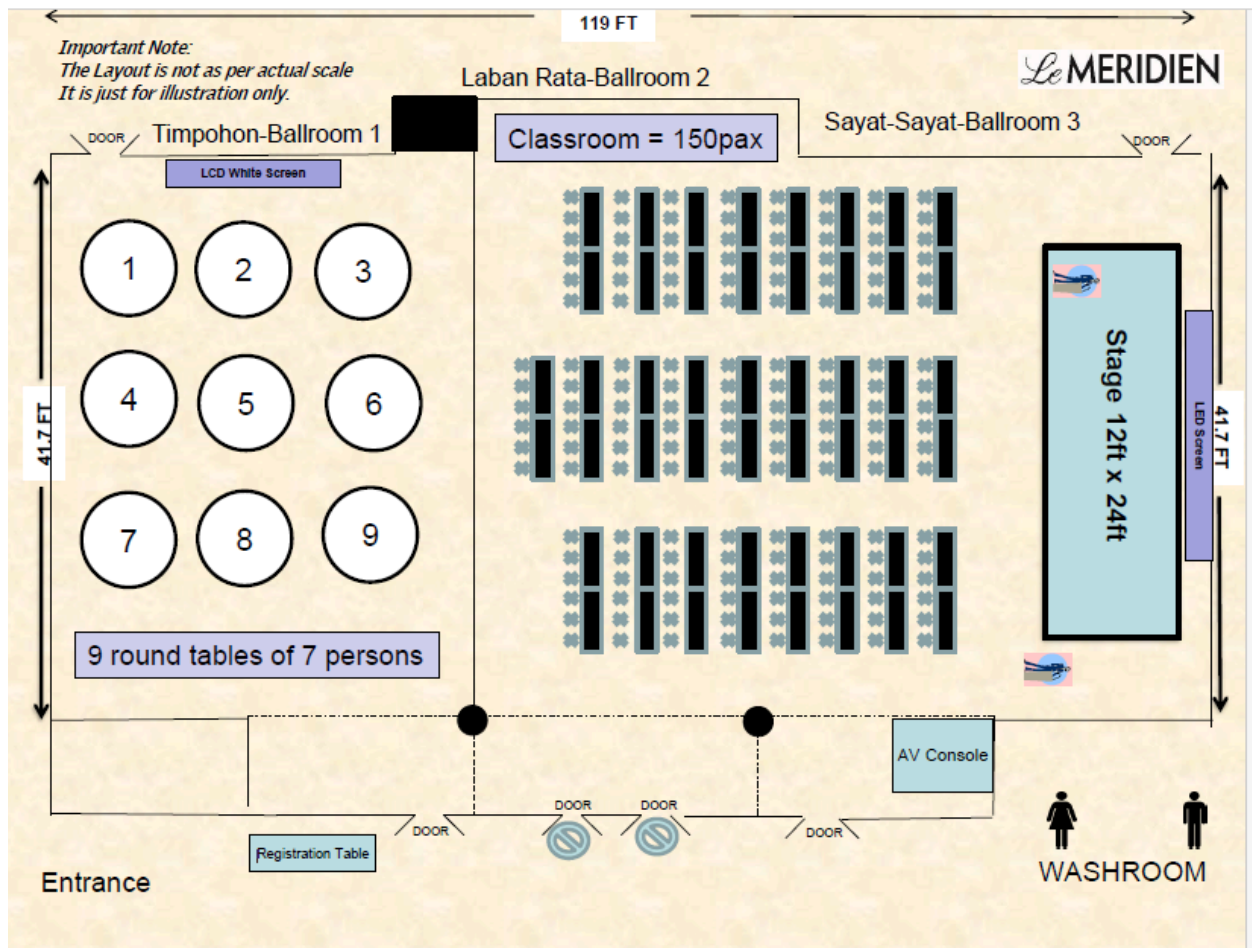

Conference venue

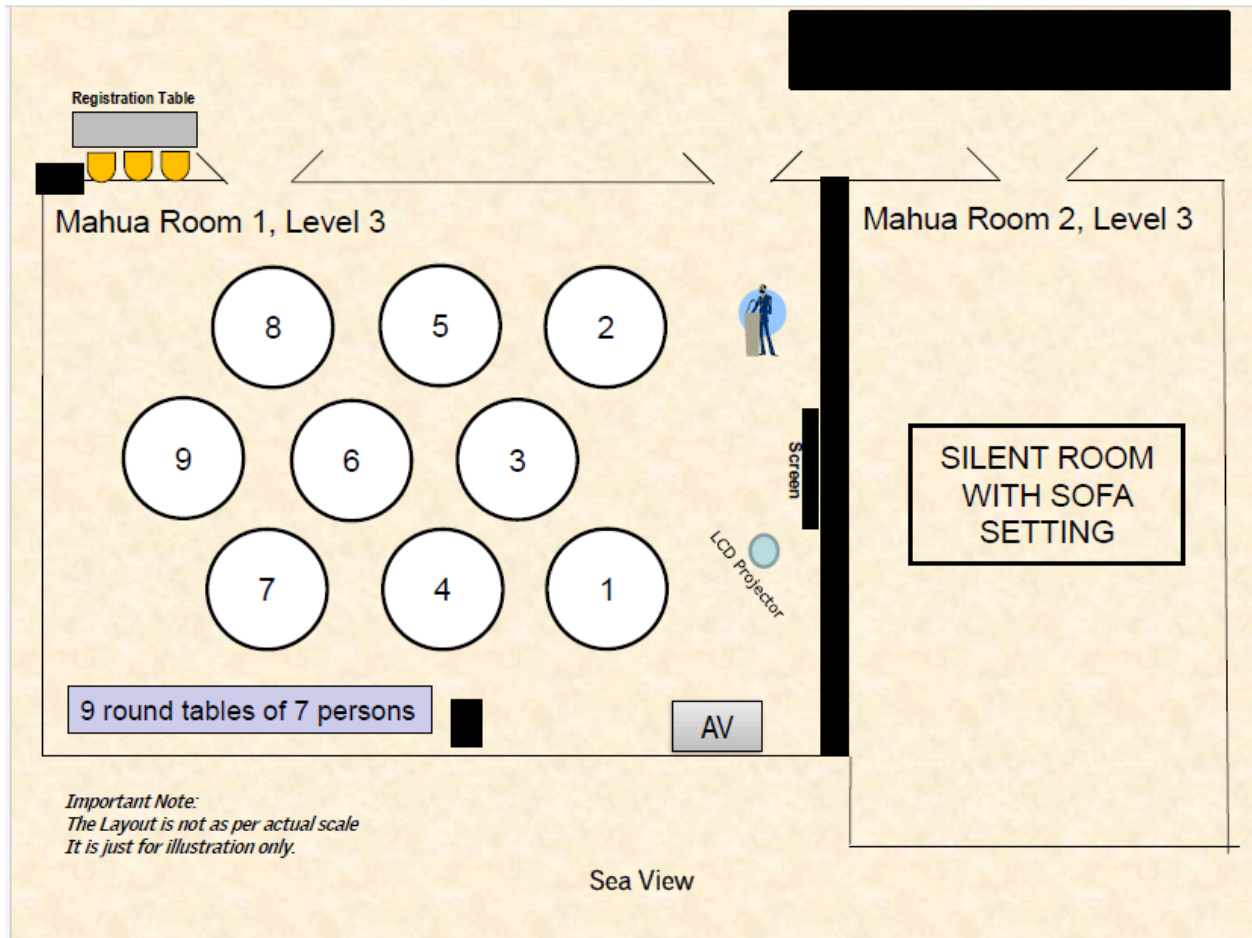

The ESEAP Conference is being held at the Le Méridien Kota Kinabalu, Sinsuran, Jln Tun Fuad Stephens, 88000 Kota Kinabalu, Sabah, Malaysia. See Google Maps.

Wifi

- Free to use for all participants
- Do not require any password

Floor Plans

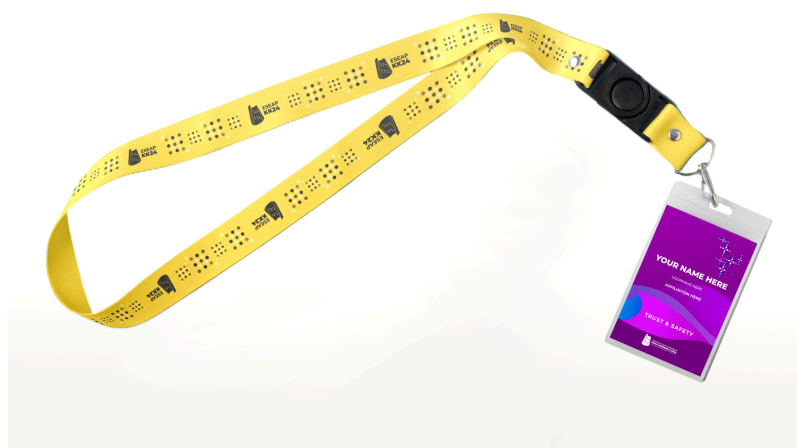

Trust and Safety team

There will be five people at the ESEAP acting in the Trust and Safety team.

You can easily spot them by their distinctive yellow lanyards.

The hotel registration desk can also advise you. In an emergency please contact emergency services by dialling 999 (triple nine) and requesting police, ambulance or fire brigade.

The Universal Code of Conduct and Friendly Space Policy applies at the ESEAP Conference.

Please take a moment to familiarize yourself with them.

https://meta.wikimedia.org/wiki/Universal_Code_of_Conduct

https://foundation.wikimedia.org/wiki/Policy:Friendly_space_policy

Do look out for the small colour stickers found on the participant's name tag.

Green indicates the participant allows other people to hug them.

Yellow indicates the participant allows other people to shake their hands.

Red indicates the participants only allow other people to wave their hands at them.

Please respect other participant's personal space and boundaries throughout the conference.

Report Violations

If you want to report a violation of these rules or if you witness or experience harassment, please reach out to the Trust & Safety team

For on-site participants:

- 1) You may approach Trust & Safety team wearing special lanyards with name tags at the venue or;
- 2) There will be a report box at the entrance of the room, you may submit your report in that box or;
- 3) You may call our Trust & Safety team through
 - Taufik Rosman : +6011 3146 6653
 - Ahmad Wafiq : +6011 2564 3573

For online participants:

- 1) You may report any violations or enquiries through email at persidangan@wikimedia.org.my
- 2) The Logistic Team will be available online via Zoom under the initial name "[LogTeam]". Feel free to contact them if needed.

Health and Safety

This is our highest priority for all delegates. We will be working in a large group of 100 Wikimedians over quite a few days and our goal is for everyone to remain healthy. Please take extra care with COVID protection protocols in the week before you come to Kota Kinabalu, and wear a mask while travelling (even if this is not mandated). There will be masks and sanitizers available at the conference venues. Please respect those around you.

If you feel sick during the conference, you should let one of the organising team know and stay in your hotel room. The hotel registration desk can advise of a nearby medical centre if required.

The nearest hospital with the hotel will be Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Kota Kinabalu. See Google Map.

Emergency Situation - For example, someone gets a heart attack or a stroke, PLEASE CALL the EMERGENCY NUMBER IMMEDIATELY.

Emergency services number for Police, Fire, Ambulance: 999

Medical insurance

All scholarship recipients travelling outside of their home country for the Wikimedia ESEAP Conference will be covered for medical, evacuation, repatriation, security detail, and logistics assistance through Healix. Please review our FAQs for more information.

Bringing medicines from other countries

It is advised for participants to only bring needed, packaged prescription medicines to the conference. Please bring a valid prescription or letter from your doctor. You may buy medicines from pharmacies in Kota Kinabalu.

COVID safety

From 1st August 2022, all travellers are allowed to enter Malaysia regardless of their COVID-19 vaccination status and do not require a pre-departure or on-arrival COVID-19 test. There are no quarantine orders related to COVID-19 enforced by the Malaysian Government upon arrival. (more info).

Page provides a summarised view of the pandemic in Malaysia, allowing you to track its evolution on a daily basis; KKMNOW.

Safety at the airport

While at the airport, arriving and departing, be careful of strangers asking you to carry items in your bags. Make sure your bags are secured, be aware of your surroundings, and be smart. If in doubt, contact the emergency phone numbers mentioned above.

Travel

To and from airport

When you arrive at the airport, you can use several transportation apps to move directly to Le Meridien Kota Kinabalu. There are several popular ride-hailing options in Kota Kinabalu, such as buses, Maxim (Android, iOS), and Grab. The transportation also takes about 10-20 minutes depending on road conditions. The pick-up point for Grab is at Arrival Pillar 5 near Within Sabah arrivals.

- Maxim: RM10 (USD$2.10) for four seats.
- Grab: RM10 - RM14 (USD$2.10-USD$3) for four seats.

You can choose a cash or cashless payment method through a smartphone application. Cashless payment is required for late night trips. Do put your debit/credit card information into the e-hailing application before you depart to Kota Kinabalu.

For scholars, airport transfers will be provided according to your arrival and departure time from Kota Kinabalu International Airport to Le Meridien Kota Kinabalu, and Le Meridien Kota Kinabalu to Kota Kinabalu International Airport.

Payment and transfer

Cash payments are widely accepted in Sabah. Cash payments can be made at almost all stores. Payment for transportation can be made online, but payment for transportation such as buses must be made in cash. Similarly, some restaurants, shops, and markets in the surrounding areas may not accept online payments, so cash payment is required.

Most shops and convenience stores also allow payment by Visa and Mastercard. However, some local stores will prefer payment by cash or QR payment (which is normally applicable to those who own Malaysian bank cards and other Southeast Asian countries).

You can still use contactless payment cards in some shops, restaurants and markets such as a payWave/PayPass credit or debit card, TNG e-Wallet, Apple Pay, Google Pay or Samsung Pay.

Facilities near hotel

Le Méridien is a hotel located in an area surrounded by stores, markets, and shops that provide goods and services you may need. You can visit several places from the hotel.

- Nearby Mall : Centre Point Sabah 450 metres/6 minutes walk
- Nearby Clinic : Klinik Dr Zulfikar 170 metres/2 minutes walk
- Nearby Market : KK Night Market 190 metres/3 minutes walk
- Nearby Pharmacy : CARiNG Pharmacy 220 metres/3 minutes walk
- Nearby ATM : Alliance Bank 180 metres/2 minutes walk
- Nearby FX : Focurex Services SDN. BHD. 230 metres/3 minutes walk

Additional Info: All scholarship and affiliate scholars covered by WMF health insurance.

Phone and SIM card

When you arrive at Kota Kinabalu International Airport (KKIA) there are Maxis and Digi stores selling SIM cards. Identification is required to buy a SIM card in Malaysia. You can use your passport, and you need to provide the address you are staying at. An activation process may be required for the SIM.

Prepaid SIM cards in Malaysia can be purchased from supermarkets, phone stores, and post offices. You can purchase a 'recharge' which will allow a certain amount of data and calls. Once this has expired you can purchase another recharge or allow your SIM to expire.

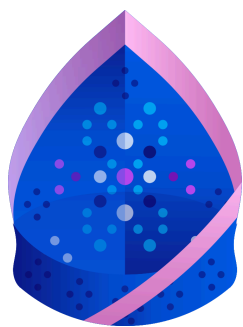

Note: The conference area, airport, hotel, and some areas of Sabah Malaysia have free wifi available.

Maxis

The nearest Maxis store is Maxis Centre Api Api located 900 meters from the hotel. It will take you approximately 13 minutes if you decide to walk. Maxis provides a variety of plans tailored to your needs. See their plans here.

CelcomDigi

The nearest SIM card store for CelcomDigi is at CelcomDigi Sabah Region Campus which is located along the same route leading to the Le Meridien hotel. This shop is 8.4km from the Airport and takes 11 minutes to reach by car. With CelcomDigi, you can choose from various plans according to your preferences. See their plans here.

Malaysian Border Force

Customs & Declaration

Visitors entering Malaysia for the ESEAP conference should ensure they have enough funds to support themselves during their stay. There is no limit on the amount of money you can bring into Malaysia. However, if you are carrying more than RM 10,000 or its equivalent in foreign currency, you must declare it upon arrival. Make sure to have sufficient funds to cover expenses such as accommodation, transportation, meals, and incidental costs during your visit.

Incoming Passenger Information

Beginning 1 January 2024, all foreign citizens travelling to Malaysia are required to complete the Malaysia Digital Arrival Card (MDAC) at least 3 days prior to entry into Malaysia, except:

1. Citizens of Singapore;
2. Diplomatic and Official Passport holders;
3. Malaysian Permanent Residents and Long Term-Pass holders;
4. General Certificate of Identity (GCI) Brunei Darussalam holders;
5. Brunei Malaysia Frequent Traveller Facility holders;
6. Thailand Border Pass holders; and
7. Indonesia Cross-Border Travel Document (PLB) holders.

Fill out the immigration and customs declaration forms provided on your flight, typically available in English.

Ensure you have a pen handy in your hand luggage to complete the forms. Familiarise yourself with any translated examples of the forms beforehand.

Questions at Border Control

Have necessary documents ready, including your visa and any invitation letters. Answer questions truthfully, ensuring consistency with your invitation details. Scholarship holders should be prepared to provide evidence of funding.

Quarantine Measures

Malaysia has biosecurity regulations governing the import of certain foods, plants, and animal products. Check the Malaysian Border Force website for a list of prohibited items and required declarations. Do not bring any food items or souvenirs made from natural materials. If carrying medication, ensure you have English documentation from your doctor or pharmacist.

Additional Notes

Passengers arriving at Kota Kinabalu International Airport from other Malaysian airports (except for Sabah airports) like Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KUL) are still required to go through the immigration counter.

It is located on your right after stepping out from the airport gate. Find a yellow sign that reads “Ketibaan Semenanjung/Sarawak/Labuan / Peninsula/Sarawak/Labuan Arrivals”.

Do not exit the airport from Sabah arrival.

Malaysian Money

Malaysia's official currency is Ringgit Malaysia (RM) . Payment in Malaysia is only accepted in Ringgit Malaysia. To obtain Ringgit, you must exchange currency at a currency exchange office or take money from an ATM. Currency exchange bureaus and ATMs are available at Kota Kinabalu International Airport. Some stores might not accept cash, and others may not accept cards.

Malaysian Electrical Plugs

In Malaysia plug type, (240V at 50Hz) which is Type G plug is used, which is of British origin. Please bring your own universal adapter if needed, since it may be difficult or expensive to buy one in Kota Kinabalu.

Malaysia uses the same plug as Brunei, Singapore, Hong Kong, United Kingdom, Malta, Ireland, Cyprus and Malta.

Food and culture in Kota Kinabalu

Food

File:Kota Kinabalu Filipino Market fresh seafood.jpg by Tofeiku

Seafood extravaganza:

- As a coastal city, Kota Kinabalu is renowned for its fresh seafood. Visitors can indulge in an array of oceanic delicacies, including succulent prawns, flavorful fish, and delectable shellfish. Seafood markets and waterfront restaurants offer an immersive dining experience where patrons can enjoy grilled seafood platters, seafood noodles, and mouthwatering seafood curries.

File:Hinava Sabah.jpg by Terencetulus

Traditional Sabahan cuisine:

- Kota Kinabalu is a melting pot of cultures, and its cuisine reflects the diverse influences of its indigenous tribes and neighbouring countries like Indonesia and the Philippines. Visitors can sample traditional Sabahan dishes such as hinava or kinilau (raw fish salad), bosou (fermented fish), lato (a type of algae), and bambangan (wild mango pickle). These unique flavours and ingredients offer a glimpse into Sabah's culinary heritage.

Enjoy the experience of sharing Sabahan cuisine with your friends while enjoying the beautiful sunset in Kota Kinabalu's market.

Culture

File:Kadazan Tangara Papar.jpg by Jjurieeee

Kadazandusun heritage:

- The Kadazandusun people are the largest indigenous ethnic group in Sabah, and their cultural traditions play a significant role in Kota Kinabalu's identity. Visitors can learn about Kadazandusun customs, rituals, and folklore through cultural performances, traditional music, and handicraft demonstrations. The Kadazandusun Cultural Association (KDCA) Cultural Village provides an immersive experience where visitors can interact with locals and explore traditional longhouses, bamboo houses, and rice wine-making processes.

Islamic heritage in Kota Kinabalu:

- Kota Kinabalu is home to several mosques and Islamic landmarks that showcase the city's Islamic heritage. The Kota Kinabalu City Mosque, also known as the Sabah State Mosque, is a stunning architectural marvel with its majestic domes and intricate designs. Visitors can admire the mosque's beauty, learn about Islamic culture, and participate in guided tours to gain insight into the local Muslim community's way of life.

File:KAAMATAN 09.jpg by Ricardo Unto

Festivals and celebrations:

- Throughout the year, Kota Kinabalu hosts a variety of cultural festivals and celebrations that showcase the city's diverse heritage. May is the Harvest Festival month for the Kadazan, Dusun, Murut, Rungus community in Sabah which ends with a state-level festival on 30–31 May. The annual Sabah Fest celebrates the state's cultural diversity through dance performances, music concerts, and traditional arts and crafts exhibitions. Other festivals such as the Mooncake Festival (Mid-Autumn Festival) offer visitors the opportunity to immerse themselves in local traditions and festivities. Then, the Regatta Lepa water festival showcases the customs and traditions of the 'Sea Gypsies' which is also known as the Bajau Laut tribe in Sabah. Highlights include a floating parade of colourful lepa boats, lepa boat racing and tug-of-war, beauty pageant and fireworks.
