PREFATORY NOTE TO GENEALOGICAL-INDEX

The lists given herewith are approximately full as to the present (February, 1923) volumes, pamphlets, etc., in the Library of the New Jersey Historical Society.

Family histories and vital records printed in local histories, not of New Jersey, are not included in the following lists, with a few exceptions; nor are family genealogies published in New Jersey County Histories and Biographical Encyclopedias of New Jersey.

As to the tombstone inscriptions noted, it is to be said that few, later than 1850, or 1860, have been copied, but there are ~~many~~ exceptions, particularly in the southern part of the State. The law requiring the recording of vital records was passed in 1848, and, about 1878, the work was taken up by the Boards of Health, so that such records are now on file in the office of the State Board of Health, at Trenton.

In 1795 the New Jersey Legislature passed an Act requiring the recording of marriages in the offices of the county clerks, and most of the New Jersey counties have records of marriages from 1795 to about 1875 or later.

For a nearly complete list of preserved church records of New Jersey, see Nelson's "Church Records in New Jersey," reprinted from the "Journal of the Presbyterian Historical Society," Vol. 2, nos. 4 and 5, 1904.

New Jersey wills are filed in the office of the Secretary of State at Trenton, and were recorded there up to about 1804. Copies of wills probated after 1804 are also to be found in the offices of the surrogates of the different counties.

In the lists given, there is, necessarily, condensation in names of persons, churches, places of publication, etc. Among the briefer abbreviations are the following, with their meaning:

|                       |  |
|-----------------------|--|
| b. g.—burying ground. | MS.—manuscript.                            |
| c.—circa (about).     | N. J. H. S.—New Jersey Historical Society. |
| cem.—cemetery.        | n. p.—no place of pub. stated.             |
| ch.—church.           | no.—number.                                |
| ch. yd.—churchyard.   | p., or pp.—pages.                          |
| Comp.—Compiler.       | t. s.—tombstones.                          |
| Ed.—Editor            | v.—volume, or volumes.                     |
| fam.—family.          | v. d.—various dates.                       |
| gr. yd.—graveyard.    |  |

Names of authors, publishers, or place or date of publication in parentheses, indicate that they do not appear on the title pages but are gleaned from other sources.

In some few instances pages, or other usual facts, are not given, because the particular volume or pamphlet, etc., was out of place when the Lists were prepared, although listed in a card index.

Gifts of copies of books, pamphlets and other records of genealogical interest, not found in the succeeding lists, are earnestly solicited by the Society.
