Seabrook Aug. 2. 1848

My Dear Friend:

We had a most successful time yesterday. Nothing could have gone off better. The day was perfect, as we could have picked out of the three hundred sixty five, & we had from four to five hundred on the ground. Proctor did well - Malpala sent 40. Wraitham about as many - all Ripley's Community came excepting the sick & they who stayed to take care of them.
They excited some astonishment among the plainer folk - the men being in blouses & both men & women with garlands of oak-leaves, twined around their head-looks like Tapa's moccas. Parker was there - but declined speaking & left early on the score of illness.
In the morning the children spoke

P.S. Should there be as much on the ground when you arrive at the Seabrook Court. apply to the conductors for tickets - get you in.

& extremely well, too, the speaking being interspersed with singing.
The tables were very prettily set out & decorated with flowers & I believe every body had enough. After dinner we conversated again & after singing opportunity was given for addresses - it being left free. I began & was followed by - whom do you think? - the tearful Dennis who had come over from his parsonal charge at Newton to give us his ^{congratulations} He was followed by Sanderson & by Pierpont. Pierpont made a very good telling speech - though not particularly apropos to the Fair of August. This indeed was the case with all the addresses - excepting that of my excellency. Mr. Russell, the minister of Marlboro' Chapel, made a good speech - though I never heard of him before. Wellen of course seized the opportunity of a free meeting & dispersed the assembly as effectually as the reading of the riot act!

Hilton was the last speaker. I am happy to inform you that the dog licking 'Lyric' was sung in the after part of the day with much justo-hud I believe that most picturesque scenes was omitted. Mrs. Tallen was on the ground all day & enjoyed the scene highly. Her nephews Fred. Cabot seems a very zealous Abolitionist. He had a large party from Dorchester - & a good many from Needfield, Canton & the neighboring towns. The rejoice in having had the celebration - having had a delightful day & believing that it has done good. Our Deabam women deserve much credit for the pains they took in drilling the children - in ^{getting at} ~~parading~~ the camp - & in doing the needful on the ground.

And now I want to know how you do at Little Danvers? How did Chapman bear his journey to & from Weymouth? When are you going to give us that day? The fatigue & an excursion to Deabam will be nothing compared to that of our to Weymouth & I hope you will utter dissuaded from coming here by the possible effects of that expedition. Tomorrow (Wednesday) we propose going to Linn & spend the day - & on Friday in have Eddy's school in the afternoon. There is no reason why you should not come on Friday except the riot there will probably be.

Thursday we shall probably be at home. And next week I do not know of anything that will be likely to call us away from home.
Of course your coming cannot be decided upon till the very morning, & it will make no difference to us when you come, as we are always ready for company on Sundays.

I should like to hear of the Lynn Celebration - which seems to be a ^{little} ~~more~~ 4th of July minus some of our powder & also of the Hingham one, I suppose your visitors were there. I felt a little as if we had no business to have Pease but understand he had made no part engagement of the Hinghamites. I hope to see you no disappointment. Love to Father, Mother, & yours
Edmund Quincy.
