12 VT (4 each from VC-9, VC-33, and VC-97) launched as direct aircraft support group to operate in the Marine sector on southern Okinawa.

The group was directed to attack mortar and AA positions and caves reported to be located in area 7467. A few dummy runs were made but no enemy positions could be located although some caves which might have concealed enemy guns were spotted. For the attack the Flight Leader split the group into three parts so that each squadron made its attack as one unit. All bombs and rockets hit in the areas designated but it was impossible to observe the extent of the damage although several caves were hit.

Pilots: Lt. E. A. PARKER; Lt.(jg) V. M. SCHUHART;
Ensigns R. FOREHAND, G. M. ROBERTS.
