

STARS IN HER CROWN

MRS. E. W. ARNETT HAS SERVICE FLAG WITH FIVE STARS FOR SONS IN ARMY AND NAVY

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Arnett of 311 Jackson street are citizens of the sort that gladden the heart of Theodore Roosevelt and all who inorse the no-race-suicide propaganda, for they are the parents of nine living children, of whom five sons are in the service of Uncle Sam and all doing their best to defeat autocracy and win the war. Mrs. Arnett is a young-appearing woman to be the mother of so many, and her only grief now is that her family is so small with the soldiers and sailors away. To remedy this, she is trying to persuade her daughter-in-law to join them with her baby, the first grandchild. She pointed with pride to her service flag, bearing five stars and when asked about her sons explained that Claud Arnett, who is married and the eldest of her sons, and his brother Richard are in the infantry. Both are lieutenants. Richard is overseas and she has just received the announcement of his safe arrival in France. Lieutenant Claud Arnett was at Camp Mills, New York, when she received his last letter, but was expecting soon to leave for "over there" and is probably en route now.

Harold Arnett, her third son, is a Pharmacist Mate in a hospital corps of the Aviation Branch of the Navy and has been in France since the first of January. When last his father and mother heard from him he was well but very busy, as are all the men overseas. He mentioned there had been quite an epidemic of sickness, but it was pretty well abated at the time he wrote.

The fourth boy, Wilson R. Arnett, is at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, Pa., and has been in service only since August. In that time, he has completed a course in machine gunnery and is now machine gun instructor at the camp. As he is not twenty-one, his mother feels he has made good in a very efficient way.

The fifth son, Robert W., is a seaman in the navy and expects soon to be sent to the Atlantic Coast. He was given a furlough last week which he spent with his parents, and leave of that sort is usually an indication of an impending move.

Lieutenant Claud Arnett is an ordained minister, but did not register as a conscientious objector. Instead, he entered the branch of the service where he felt he was most needed and could do the most good in winning the war.

MRS. R. F. SHACKELFORD PASSES AWAY

The many friends of Mrs. R. F. Shackelford, who until recently lived at 1418 West Fifth street, will be grieved to learn that she passed away on the twenty-fifth of September. Mrs. Shackelford, with her two children, Ray and Marie, moved to Bakersfield on the first of the month that they might be with Mr. Shackelford, a railroad engineer, who had just purchased a new home for them. Ray Shackelford will enter a military school near Los Angeles that he may be near his sister, who will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. R. S. Henry of 315 West Harvard street, Glendale.

Mrs. Shackelford also leaves another sister, Miss Clella Culver of Los Angeles, and three brothers, L. R. Culver of Oakland, Calif., E. B. Culver of Casper, Wyo., and Orrie Culver of Denver, Colorado.

Services were in charge of Payne's undertaking establishment and were conducted by Mrs. J. E. McMillen, First Reader of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Bakersfield, California.

GROSVENORS IN WASHINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grosvenor, who formerly resided in Glendale, where they still have a large circle of friends and where Mrs. Grosvenor is remembered for her work in connection with the Tuesday Afternoon Club, are now in Washington, D. C., where Mrs. Grosvenor has an appointment with the Bureau of Markets of the Department of Agriculture. She gives the new address to which she wishes to have the "Sentinel-Progress" mailed to her and says of her new work and location:

"I like it very much in Washington and especially my work with the Government. We anticipate a rather trying time this winter, however, having lived for so long where the winters are so delightful. We hope to see the country in and around Washington before we leave here. It is very beautiful here now and the surrounding country is beautiful and the crops look fine. In fact, everything looks very prosperous."

WITH THE 143RD

CORP. SIDNEY SIMON WRITES FIRST LETTER FROM "OVER THERE"

September 7, 1919.

Dear Mother:

I expect you have thought that by this time I was lost or something, but in fact we are located in one of the prettiest spots in France, and I am feeling just fine. The name at the upper right hand corner is the nearest village to us but we are only a few miles from a pretty good sized city.

I hardly know where to begin to tell you of my experiences and the present surroundings, but you can get the best idea by picturing in your mind a beautiful old castle and grounds, such as we see in the movies, with high spires, winding stairs, and all surrounded by the most beautiful rolling country, with large trees, springs, creeks and little villages. We are billeted on the grounds of one of these grand old chateaux formerly occupied by royalty. The office where we work is sure an ideal place, large French windows overlooking widespread lawns, flowers and trees, and some different from our camp in the States. Of course we do not have near the conveniences, nor the grub, but it does very well and we hope to be at the front soon, and then of course we expect the war won't last much longer, and then we can all come back to the good old U. S. A.

You would have laughed could you have seen me at work yesterday. I went down to the creek to take a bath and do my washing, but only did my washing. All the villagers wash at a place down close to us, and they have some system. They have a board about two feet wide and ten feet long, fastened securely at the edge of the creek with one side slanting in the water; then you kneel down and go to it, and use little paddles to pound the dirt out of the clothes. I worked right alongside the peasants and had some time trying to understand them when they spoke to me (my pen has run dry and we have no ink, so I guess a pencil will have to do from now on). I am picking up a few words of French, and by pointing and using gestures I can sometimes make myself understood.

You should see the loaves of bread they make, about three or four feet long or else large round ones two or three feet in circumference. I can eat anything now, Mother, so you won't need to worry about cooking for me when I get home. We miss our good California vegetables, but get lots of hard tack, canned "Winnie," and beans, which is good solid food.

I am broke, but letters come so irregularly it might not do any good to send some. We have not received any mail since leaving New York, but expect to any day and, believe me, I am sure anxious to hear from you and Grace. Tell all my friends hello for me, and I will write again as soon as I have the chance.

Lots of love and kisses, your loving son,

SID.

Corporal Sidney M. Simon, Headquarters Co., 143rd Field Artillery, 49th Division American E. F. C/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y. Censored by 2nd Lieut. Ben H. Warren.

MR. AND MRS. TIFFANY RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. William Tiffany, former residents of this city on Los Feliz road, who moved to Porterville last spring to the very great regret of a host of friends, have returned and are likely to spend the winter here with Mrs. Tiffany's mother, Mrs. Della Haggood. It seems that Mr. Tiffany could be spared at this time from the ranch which he and his son are developing at Porterville, and as he had been urgently solicited to return to his old work as ruler foreman in a book bindery at a good salary, he has come back for a few months. Mrs. Tiffany was secretary of the Tropic Branch of the Red Cross when she moved to Porterville and there was great lamentation when she moved. There is corresponding rejoicing now that she is here and she will find it difficult to keep out of harness.

INFORMAL LUNCHEON

Mrs. John Hobbs of Glendale avenue entertained a party of ladies informally at luncheon Wednesday, her guest list including Mesdames Harry Lynch, William C. Wattles, Hal Davenport, Wesley Bullis, Charles Barker, John A. Logan and Andrew Stephenson. A pleasant afternoon was spent socially following the luncheon and some work for the Red Cross was done.

GERMAN EVACUATION OF BELGIUM BEGINS

RETREATING FROM ARMENTIERES TO LENS WITH THE BRITISH IN HOT PURSUIT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, October 3.—The indications today were that the German evacuation of Belgium may have commenced.

The Germans are retreating on a twenty-mile front from Armentieres to Lens and the British are in hot pursuit. Early today the British had advanced a depth of two miles to the line St. Auguste-Gavrine east of Labouchere and Aubers and west of Bois Grenier.

The Germans are relinquishing highly organized ground which they have held since the beginning of trench warfare and have desperately defended.

Field Marshal Haig in his report of the retreat said the withdrawal was no surprise and that the British are in hot pursuit, inflicting heavy casualties and capturing many prisoners.

"Allied progress in Flanders and at Cambrai and St. Quentin continues with heavy German losses, compelling withdrawal," Haig said.

The British today resumed their attack north of St. Quentin and simultaneously the French attacked on a fifteen-mile front from St. Quentin to Laferre and are drawing near to Berthencourt rapidly, outflanking Laferre.

North of the Vesle river to the Loire the attack in this region was renewed this morning.

In all of the dispatches the fact was emphasized that the German losses have been extremely heavy.

TURKISH PLANS UNCERTAIN

DISPATCHES FROM ZURICH AND PARIS CONTAIN CONFLICTING STATEMENTS AS TO HER MOVE FOR PEACE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, October 3.—Zurich dispatches today declared that Turkey has formally notified Berlin she is going to propose peace to the allies, and that Germany replied at length, half menacingly, half pleadingly. The dispatches said Germany declared she will occupy Bulgaria immediately. A Central News dispatch from Paris, however, says that Turkey does not plan a peace move and has decided to maintain her German alliance.

PRINCE MAX APPOINTED CHANCELLOR

FORMER AMBASSADOR GERARD CHARACTERIZES IT AS AN INDICATION OF GERMANY'S DESIRE FOR PEACE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, October 3.—Prince Max of Baden has been appointed German Chancellor to succeed Chancellor Von Hertling.

LOS ANGELES, October 3.—Former American Ambassador Gerard today declared that the allies must not be "led from the track of vengeance" by the appointment of Prince Max as Chancellor.

He said the new Chancellor has a charming personality and is the new type of German statesman. He characterized the appointment of Prince Max as an indication of Germany's desire for peace.

AMERICAN BOYS NOT TO BE BALKED

MOVE UP ARTILLERY AND WAGONS BY HAND AND EXPOSE THEMSELVES TO LOCATE MACHINE GUN NESTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY WEST OF VERDUN, October 3.—The Americans have advanced a total of four miles in the Argonne forest since their offensive began. They have progressed steadily through the elimination of machine gun nests systematically and the breaking of wire entanglements. They have moved up their artillery and wagons by hand. In many instances the American soldiers purposely exposed themselves to machine gun fire in order to locate concealed machine gun nests.

CUTTER "CAMPA" SUNK BY TORPEDO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 3.—The Navy Department announced today that former U. S. Coast Guard Cutter "Campa" was sunk, probably by a torpedo off the English coast September 26th and all on board probably were lost. The Campa carried ten officers and 102 men.

"FAG" OF TRAINMEN CAUSES DEATH AND INJURY OF WORKMEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CLEVELAND, October 3.—Twenty-two workmen were killed and twenty injured today when a fast Pennsylvania train plowed through a party of workmen who were leaving a work train near here. "Fag" was said to have been responsible.

AUTO BANDITS ROB FIVE HOMES GETTING $2000

LOS ANGELES, October 3.—Automobile bandits went through the University residence district last night and robbed five homes and one gasoline station, making a total haul of more than $2000.

LIBERTY LOAN SALES

TUESDAY NIGHT TOTALS $63,000. L. A. GETS CREDIT DUE GLENDALE

John Robert White, Jr., Secretary of the Men's Committee of the Fourth Liberty Loan drive in Glendale, reports that subscriptions in this city reported up to Tuesday night as turned in by various captains reporting to him and to Miss Eva Daniels, Secretary of the Woman's Committee, totalled about $63,000. This represents only three days' work and Mr. White considers the chances good for going over the top.

In the southern part of the city in the districts in which Norton C. Wells is Captain of the Men's Committee, he reports that they are just getting organized. Delays in receiving literature from the Los Angeles office put the workers back somewhat, and his own responsibilities as chairman of the School of Instruction for this district under the local Exemption Board, have prevented him from devoting the time and effort he otherwise would to the Loan Campaign. Now that the instruction work is well launched, he is free to push the Liberty Loan and will probably be able to make things hum.

If bond buyers will bear this in mind they can easily arrange to have their securities delivered to them by local banks, and workers should keep the point in mind and see that Glendale institutions are designated on the applications.

Captain Wells says all indications point to a repetition of the previous fine record of that section of the city in its support of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

YEAR OF CHANGES

There are many changes this year in business concerns. There are also many changes in schools. Young men have been called to war leaving as their successors men of less experience in banks and stores. The consequence is that wholesale houses are working to a disadvantage in correctly and promptly filling orders for their retail customers. Now the draft taking many men over 31 years of age is on and other men will be called who are holding responsible positions with business firms, and new and inexperienced men will be required to take the place of these men.

The patrons of all business concerns must have patience with those trying to serve them. In a few months conditions will adjust themselves and things will become in good working order again.

PLEASANT SHOWER

The pleasant shower of today with indications of still a greater fall of makes all vegetation seem very refreshed. However, the bean crop is suffering on account of the rain and thousands of dollars may be lost to the growers.

DEATH OF WILLIAM RILEY BURRINGTON

Members of the N. P. Banks Post of the G. A. R. and other friends will learn with sorrow of the death at Mission Rest Hospital, October 1st, 1918, of Comrade William Riley Burrington at the age of 73 years. He has been a patient sufferer for many months and the end was to him a blessed relief. He is mourned by a devoted wife, Mary E. Burrington, and by a large fraternity in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of which he had been a member for forty years, and will be missed among the veterans of the G. A. R., having been a member of the local post, which will have full charge of the funeral services to be held Friday, October 4th, at 2:30 p. m., in the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Company. Interment will be made at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

LOSE INFANT SON

Lee Ray Howard, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Oren L. Howard, passed away Tuesday, October 2nd, at Thornycroft Hospital. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Howard join in extending to them their sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow. Interment, which will be private, will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Wednesday, October 3rd, at 11 a. m. with the Jewel City Undertaking Co. in charge.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The City W. C. T. U. will be entertained by Mrs. E. D. Potter, 244 North Verdugo road, Friday, October 4th, at 2:30 o'clock. The residence of the hostess is just north of the Eagle Rock car line. Members are asked to bring their sewing kits to work for the Belgians.

DRILLS ARE POPULAR

FINE ATTENDANCE AT LANKERSHIM LAST NIGHT AND CROWD PROMISED HERE FRIDAY

The Board of Instruction for Los Angeles County Local Exemption Board No. 7 held its first meeting at Lankershim last night, on the ball grounds, with over one hundred registrants present for drill work. It was a wonderful showing considering the crowd that attended and enrolled at San Fernando on Saturday night last.

Captain Wattles was in charge, assisted by Captain Kelly and Sergeant Todd. There will be drills hereafter at Lankershim on Monday and Thursday evenings, beginning next week, on the ball grounds. It is expected that before another week elapses the Lankershim unit will be greatly enlarged.

Tonight there will be an initial drill at Annandale, with every promise of a record attendance.

Too much can not be said for the registrants of the Glendale district who turned out Tuesday night. The rechecked set-up shows there were nearly one thousand on the High School grounds and that fully two hundred of the men had had military experience.

The next drill in Glendale will be held tomorrow, Friday evening, in the same place and all indications point to an even larger attendance. Many compliments have come in from outside military organizations on the masterly way in which Captain Wattles handled the situation and it is freely predicted that the local district will set the pace for other district organizations of Southern California.

That the local Board of Instruction is not only working for but with registrants is shown by the fact that practically every member was in the ranks Tuesday night. One of the most notable sights was Chairman Norton C. Wells doing his bit with the privates, taking the same instruction as any other rookie.

To men who can not drill and to the wives and families of those who are drilling, a most cordial invitation is extended to attend as spectators Friday night. It will be a most interesting spectacle to see one thousand men without any knowledge of military drill developing as time goes along into a splendidly drilled and disciplined organization.

MUNICIPAL INQUIRIES

The rumor on the streets today seemed to indicate that a petition will be presented to the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale this evening asking that the services of a city manager be dispensed with for at least the period of the war. The street rumor has also been that many citizens will be present to give argument favoring and opposing the petition. The members of the Board of Trustees are a level-headed set of fellows, and they undoubtedly will consider the question in an impartial manner.

WEATHER FORECAST—Unsettled weather, occasionally threatening, gentle westerly winds.

TANK COMES FRIDAY

LIBERTY LOAN TANK "DEMOCRACY" TO REACH GLENDALE AT 7:30 P.M. MET BY ESCORT

Fred Deal, Chairman of Publicity of the local organization for the sale of the Fourth Liberty Loan bonds, has just been advised that the war tank "Democracy" will arrive in Glendale Friday, October 4th, at 7:30 p. m. to assist in a rally for the sale of bonds.

Mr. Deal is arranging for the proper reception of the tank and it will be met at Broadway and Pacific avenue at 7:15 p. m. by an escort which will include a good band, a delegation of Red Cross nurses, a company of High School Cadets and the Elks' Patrol. These marching delegations will be followed by a train of decorated automobiles and a march will be made to Broadway and Brand, where the tank will be stationed during the evening and where a program of speeches and music will be given.

Accompanying the tank will be a party of entertainers and speakers which will include sailors and soldiers and film artists. In addition to their contributions, a corps of local speakers is being secured by Mr. Deal which will include Frederick Baker, Oliver Clark and other orators of reputation in the community.

The meeting will open early enough to allow the members of the escort to reach the High School grounds in time for drill.

THESE ARE INTENSIVE TIMES

The country is in a war which is taxing the energies of the people to the limit. The men in service have dedicated their lives to winning the war, and the question arises what are we doing who have been left at home? Is every hour of our time spent in helping to win the war? The boys at the front are putting in all kinds of hours to keep the Huns on the run, and salaries are not very high. Now, what are the men of Glendale doing to help furnish the boys at the front with ammunition, clothing and food? Giving money? Yes. Money is very necessary. But what else are they doing? Are they helping to take care of the crops that this money may buy wholesome food for the soldiers?

In the middle west thousands of men are going out from the city to the country to spend leisure hours in helping to care for the crops. In most instances these men are paid for their work and it is right they should be, for the farmers are receiving good prices for their products. Without the assistance of these men from the city, much valuable grain would go to waste. Vacations the past season have been spent in the harvest fields doing a useful work. Every kind of work should be a useful work during war times. Every able-bodied man should fight or work in these strenuous times.

HOLDING POSITIONS

There is something more important during these times for men to do than to merely hold positions. The state, county or city that provides a department merely to give men jobs while the country is actively engaged in war is not patriotic. High salaries for non-essential work are unpopular and the men who are guilty of encouraging such proceedings have not awakened to the patriotic needs of the hour.

If you are a member of the Red Cross, then you automatically become a member of the "Eating Club," which has over 2,000 services per month to its credit. This is none other than the Canteen. The prime object of the Canteen service is to be a visible reminder to the soldier or sailor that "somebody cares." No distinction is made as to color or nationality. America and her Allies—that is sufficient.

Supplies for Palestine authorized by the Red Cross War Council include among other things six automobiles, and the Commission for Italy finds it necessary to buy 45 additional camions, 20 motorcycles and 7 touring cars to provide facilities for moving relief supplies the coming winter. What the motor vehicle has meant in this war has never been half told. But the man who drives the ammunition truck behind the lines can tell a rather complete story of it.

Be patriotic, not in words, but in works. Real, active, useful work is what counts. Subscribing does not count for anything unless payments are actually made.

BIG TOTAL OF PRISONERS AND GUNS TAKEN BY ALLIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
 PARIS, October 3.—The allies have taken 123,000 German prisoners on the West Front during September. Since July 15th they have taken 238,494 men, 5518 officers, 3639 cannon and 23,000 machine guns on the French and Belgian fighting line.

For any man, whatever his fortune, to employ another man for a service of mere comfort or convenience, or for any worker, whatever the attraction in wages, to engage in an unnecessary undertaking if he has the muscle and the strength to endure in heavy war tasks, is to commit the unpardonable crime against civilization and almost to be guilty of treason against the Republic.—Clarence Ousley.

The area of the sugar-cane crop of 1918 in the United States is estimated by the Bureau of Crop Estimates to be 533,880 acres, or 12 per cent above the acreage of 1909, as reported by the census. The estimate is for ribbon cane only, and hence sorghum cane is excluded. Ninety per cent of the total ribbon-cane area is in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia. Of this total area, about 53 per cent is intended for sugar, while the remainder, 47 per cent, is mostly intended for sirup and for planting part of the next year's crop.

A marked decrease in the amount of glass on the highways has resulted from the Automobile Club of Southern California "do your bit" campaign. The Auto Club is willing to send one of its cars a reasonable distance to clear glass from the roads when complaint is made. On country highways, the motorist who is a good sport will stop and eliminate the danger himself, remembering that every tire saved frees rubber for government use.

Those who continue the vandal practice of "shooting up" and otherwise damaging road signs of the Automobile Club of Southern California seem due to feel the cruel clutch of the law. Several valley cities have passed special resolutions protecting the club's signs and prescribing penalties for their damage. The Auto Club offers $10 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of guilty parties.

SOFT FOR HUN ON ENGLISH FARMS

(By United Press)
 LONDON, Sept. 11. (By Mail).—The Hun prisoner of war in Great Britain has a soft lot.
 There's no worry about the high cost of living bothering this captured Fritz, and he has the rich harvest fields of England to utilize his idleness.

Great Britain employs on farms 22,000 Germans, practically all of whom were captured on the western front.

Of these, 800 live on the farms, their jobs ranking with those of the American farmer's "hired man."

The others are kept in clean camps, under guard. Fritz is well pleased with his present lot and is content to abide on his present "job" until the fighting's all over. There's plenty of opportunity for the Hun to escape, but records show a comparatively small number of attempts.

Great Britain put the scheme for employing Germans on the land into effect in June, 1917. In that month 15 agricultural camps were established, with 100 Huns to each camp. Since then the number of camps has increased to more than 300 with a population of 20,000, and in addition there is a considerable number employed on drainage and other work.

The leniency with which Britain deals with the prisoners is illustrated at Cheshire; 26 guards take 200 prisoners from the camp for distribution among 96 farmers within a distance of three miles. As a mail carrier drops his letters, the guards drop a prisoner here and there, may be two, three or four at the next farm, and so on until all of the prisoners are disposed of. If there are more than three prisoners left at one farm, a guard remains with them. In the evening the guards return and collect the prisoners.

At first the scheme of placing the Huns on farms met with a storm of protest by women land workers, and as a result officials instructed county committees not to allow prisoners and women to work on the same farm. Where farms, employing land girls, adjoin farms employing Huns, inspectors are stationed to prevent communication between the prisoners and the farmerettes.

At one place a prisoner working unguarded in a field jumped over a fence and forced a girl who was driving a baker's cart along the lane, to sell loaves to him.

At Swindon four Huns are alleged to have attacked a 16-year-old girl. However, on the whole, the German war prisoner is content to let well enough alone and "play straight."

As a contrast to the generous treatment of the Germans in this country, recent reports from authentic sources show that allied prisoners in Germany are being badly treated.

Towards the latter part of May and at the beginning of June, several thousand Tommies prisonered by the Germans before and during the German offensive, arrived at Stendal camp suffering from dysentery, septic poisoning and hunger typhus. They had been forced to work behind the German lines on railways and shell dumps, under British artillery fire. Many of them, suffering from lack of food, had to march six or eight miles to their work every day. Two hundred of these died at Stendal soon after their arrival.

This is but an instance of thousands of cases of ill-treatment of prisoners by the Huns.

PEACE?

By Charles B. Driscoll
 (Written for the United Press)

Yes, we want peace. That's the reason why

We have taken up arms once more, When we thought to have laid them forever by.

When we thought we had done with gore.

But have we not said to you, Horrible Hun,

That the Right is more precious than peace?

Still, you are Prussian. Only the gun Speaks your language. So, arguments cease.

Your kultur-steeped mind can not comprehend

The things we are fighting for, Well, here is your answer then: War to the end!

Until you are beaten, it's WAR!

The club house being built for the Santa Monica Bay District Branch of the Automobile Club of Southern California is about completed. Members of the Auto Club are urged to make themselves at home in this new branch office, located at Santa Monica, when driving in the Bay District. The Auto Club now has seventeen active branch offices in addition to a number of information bureaus.

MODEL AMERICAN VILLAGE FOR ITALIAN REFUGEES AT PISA

The Red Cross issues the following: A cablegram from the American Red Cross commissioner to Italy, dated Pisa, states the following plans of a new enterprise in connection with the refugee problem:

Steps were taken here today toward building a model American village, for the purpose of providing new homes for people made homeless by the war. On a site comprising 30 acres of ground, adjacent to the leaning tower and other world-famous monuments of Pisa, ground was broken in the presence of the King, head of the Italian Red Cross, Maj. Chester Aldrich, and other officers of the American Red Cross. It is expected the village will be completed in 90 days.

The buildings will be made of cement. There will be a public square, church, schoolhouse, hospital, and public eating kitchen. Modern sanitary facilities will be installed. The water supply will be brought over the aqueduct built by the Medici 500 years ago, which still is in perfect condition. The site will provide homes for 2,000 refugees from the Venetian district.

It is proposed to transplant to the new village industries with which the refugees are familiar. The entire project is under the supervision of the American Red Cross, and is regarded as one of the most interesting undertakings in the effort to deal with problems arising out of refugees from devastated and threatened districts.

ITALIANS PRAISE YANKEE FIGHTERS

(By United Press)

ROME, Sept. 1. (By Mail).—Italian soldiers fighting on the western front express great praise of the American soldier and many letters are being received here in which special praise of the gallantry and bravery of the Italian-American Buddy is made.

Lieutenant Nicola Celeste of the Italian Artillery, located with the Italian Expeditionary Force in France, recently wrote a prominent member of the Italian parliament in which he said in part:

"I am among the American troops. These sons of Free America are marvellous for their dash, orderly appearance and discipline.

"They have a prodigious organization. They have their own railway and telephone systems. They have their own motor car service. Their supply of artillery and ammunition seems to be endless.

"I was surprised at the great number of Italian-Americans, most of whom have left families in the States, but preserving great love for Italy and the Italian Army. They were particularly surprised at the Caporetto disaster which they had considered impossible. All are very keen on being sent to Italy to fight in America's name for the country of their fathers."

SPEED IS NEEDED IN GAS DEFENSE WORK

(By United Press)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Sept. 3. (By Mail).—German gas can do little damage to the doughboys when the latters are on their toes and ready with masks. The gas department is driving this lesson home, and one of its means is posters. Some of them, posted in dug-outs and wherever the Americans gather are pointed and convincing.

Here are some of them:

THERE ARE THREE THINGS TO DO WHEN FRITZ SENDS IT OVER:
 1—Hold your breath. 2—Get your mask on quick. 3—Warn your pals. Don't take a chance. If you do, you'll never take another.

THERE ARE TWO KINDS OF MEN IN GAS ATTACKS: THE QUICK AND THE DEAD.
 Which crowd is yours? Don't be a dead one.

TO TALK WITH YOUR MASK ON:
 1—Take a deep breath. 2—Remove your mouth piece. 3—Talk naturally into your face piece until your breath is exhausted. 4—Replace your mouth piece and breathe again.

LUCKY HUN STARTLES PATROL BOAT LISTENER

(By United Press)

LONDON, Sept. 8. (By Mail).—Cruising in the Mediterranean for some evidence to confirm a report that a German submarine had been destroyed, a British patrol boat obtained the confirmation in an unusual manner.

He rushed to the deck and looked over the side. Climbing hand over hand, a German sailor was coming up the side, clinging to the hydrophone apparatus.

He was the sole survivor of the destroyed submarine.

The Automobile Club of Southern California is requesting motorists to keep in mind the new "common sense" code of arm signals recently approved by the major motoring organizations of the state. The code reads as follows and is being used by all progressive drivers: arm extended upward—turn to the right; arm extended horizontally—turn to the left; arm extended downward—slow down or stop without turning.

Personals

Miss Frances Park is the guest of Mrs. Bert Woodard this week.

Mrs. Harry and Mrs. Fannie Charlton of Long Beach were luncheon guests on Wednesday of Mrs. Colin Cable of Columbus avenue.

Miss Myrtle Venske of North Louise street has left for Stanford University. This is no small honor, to be admitted to Stanford, as only a limited number of women students are accepted.

R. G. Muhleman, accompanied by his son John, has gone to the mountains for a two weeks' outing at Little and Big Bear Lakes. They will probably use the Chobe cabin while there. Mr. Muhleman is employed in the Glendale post office.

Friends of George Hastings, Jr., of North Maryland avenue will be glad to know that he is gaining after his severe illness at the Naval Reserve Training Station at San Pedro. His father was allowed to see him for a few minutes yesterday. As he is now able to sit up, his parents think he will soon be quite well again.

There are twenty-eight pupils in the reopened Magnolia school in the Tropic district, all of them little folks, and the parents are much pleased as they no longer have to cross the Pacific Electric tracks to get to school, nor do they have to go so long a distance as many of them did before. Mrs. Barclay is the teacher.

Mrs. Hallie Ise is in receipt of letters from her son Jim Henry, conveying the information that he is well and very busy with army work which apparently takes him reasonably close to the front. He encloses photographs of himself in which he looks so well that all her fears as to his health are set at rest. He also sends pictures of villages through which he has passed which show the devastation of war.

Mrs. James Ewins of 615 South Verdugo road entertained a week-end house party which included her sister, Mrs. John McDonough, her brothers, Edward P. Brady of San Diego and Joseph Brady and wife of Los Angeles, also Mrs. Frank Koenig and baby of Los Angeles, who came especially to attend the military service and banquet festivities of the Glendale Council of Knights of Columbus last Sunday.

Mrs. George B. Woodberry is spending several weeks with her daughter, Miss Woodberry, who is teaching at Nogales, Arizona, on the Mexican border. Though it sounds like a dangerous situation, Mr. Woodberry says it is in reality very safe as it is a port of entry with many soldiers stationed there. It is the first time Mrs. Woodberry has been away from home for any length of time for several years and Mr. Woodberry believes the change will be very beneficial.

Mrs. John Cotton, 837 San Rafael street, received Wednesday the first letter written by her husband since his arrival over there. It was post-marked London and conveyed the information that he had made the passage in a troop ship with the boys instead of the fast seamer he was first scheduled to take and which she supposed he sailed on. He arrived the 10th of September and of course had no idea what his destination would be from there. She is expecting another letter soon which will give definite information where he is to be.

Martin Veselich of 601 Vassar street reports that his son Stephen, formerly a real estate operator in Los Angeles, has been in the navy for a number of months, stationed at San Francisco, and is now a Second Lieutenant. When last his father heard from him about two weeks ago, he was about to sail for Honolulu. When Lieutenant Veselich returns from that voyage his father is hoping he will be granted a leave to come home. The Lieutenant was a member of the Tropic City Council at the time of the consolidation of that territory with Glendale.

THE COMMUNITY SING

At the Community Sing tonight in the auditorium of the High School, short speeches will be made by excellent orators on behalf of the Liberty Loan. The singers will be led as usual by Prof. Hugo Kirchoffer, who will probably be able to teach them the new song, "Here We Are, Here We Are, Here We Are Again," which he sang last time and which he was seeking permission to teach them. Everybody should come out.

HOTEL GRAY CLOSED

F. Marion Gray, who has successfully conducted Hotel Gray on Broadway near Howard street, has sold his furnishings, which were removed Wednesday, and has gone with Mrs. Gray to Los Angeles, where it is said they will conduct a restaurant at the corner of Washington and Vermont avenue. It is rumored that the hotel quarters will be closed for the present. F. M. Peckham is the owner of the building.

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS

Chairman Lanterman of the local Exemption Board reports that there seems to be a call for inductions into a Motor Transportation Corps which has recruiting offices on Forty-second street, New York, but the Board has received no definite information regarding it.

The Marine recruiting station in the Central building has refused to accept applications unaccompanied by order numbers, which can not be given until after the master list is in.

Some of the registrants who have appeared before the Board claim to have received personal information concerning inductions into a Motor Transportation Corps.

The chairman states that Walter L. Murphy of La Canada is about to leave for Florida for the purpose of joining the Remount Corps at Jacksonville, he having received a certificate from the local Board Wednesday that he is not in the class the Board is now considering. He is thirty-seven years of age and will go in under deferred classification.

The new edition of the service regulations has just been received by the Board. The regulations are practically the same as before but contain in addition the amendments which have been promulgated during the year. It is a volume of 433 pages and will give Board members a pretty good idea how to classify registrants if they are able to digest and remember all its instructions.

MAN OF 80 SETS EXAMPLE

Editor Glendale News:

A recent example of public spirit came to my notice that is worthy of publicity, as a model for the younger generation and especially praiseworthy when compared to those sovereigns (voters), the enemies at home of good government, who are too unconcerned to register and vote for either candidates or important amendments.

This is the record: A voter of 80 years of age, so interested in a dry state that he circulated the bonedry petition and secured over 100 names. He also subscribed $2.00 to the fund and earned the money with his own hands and by the sweat of his brow, walking 3 miles and picking 20 boxes of apricots in a hot sun, and then cheerfully going into the headquarters and meeting his obligation, a feat hard to excel from the standpoint of practical patriotism, and only a smart man of 80 summers could do it.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MEETINGS

The first regular meeting of the Glendale Council No. 1920 Knights of Columbus, took place Wednesday evening in the K. of P. hall on Brand boulevard and Park avenue, where meetings will be held hereafter the first and third Wednesday evenings of each month. It was a large and enthusiastic "experience meeting" and prospects for the growth and prosperity of the Council are very bright. A decision was reached to hold the installation of officers followed by a dance Wednesday evening, October 16th.

Mrs. Rose Van Henlow and her two daughters, of Long Beach, have returned home after a few days' visit with her former eastern friends, Mr. and Mrs. Tower of North Maryland avenue.

Those Who Lie Often Commit Greater Crimes

Turkish Rugs and Mahogany Furniture are not a safeguard to wives, daughters and sisters against depravity

During the twenty-six years I have been fighting the Dental Trust, I have been accused by the ethicals of nearly everything from malpractice to manslaughter, but never until now have I been accused of being instrumental in raising dental prices.

The Dental Trust is publicly announcing that Dental Amendment No. 21 will require every dentist to employ a nurse and thereby raise dental prices. This is a wilful lie.

The official argument against this measure written by Dean Millberry, of the College of Dentistry of the University of California, is not based on the true facts, and is apparently made without sufficient knowledge of the amendment, or with deliberate intent to mislead the voter.

Dental Amendment No. 21 does not require any dentist to employ a nurse. It states plainly that when an anesthetic is used an adult third person must be present. That third person may be a friend, relative or any other available person.

Is there a mother, father, husband or brother who would say this requirement is not a needful safeguard?

To cherish the virtue of our girls and women, private wine rooms and boxes have been abolished by law from nearly every city in the United States. Yet persons under the influence of liquor can as well protect themselves as those under the influence of an anesthetic.

The dentist who objects to an adult third person being present when an anesthetic is given is not a safe person in whose care wives, daughters and sisters may be trusted, and yet we find the Dental Association, aided by Dean Millberry, openly opposing this particular clause in the Dental Amendment. Lies about raising dental prices do not answer or satisfy the people of California who put this amendment upon the ballot. It is up to Dean Millberry and these associates to explain.

If Dean Millberry does not stand for morality, he is not a fit person to direct the destinies of our young men in our foremost university, and he is not a fit man to draw a salary paid by the taxpayers of California.

It is up to you, Dean Millberry, to see that this shameful campaign of lying and misrepresentation to defeat a good measure is stopped, and stopped at once.

The people should know the truth about Dental Amendment 21.

VOTE YES.

PAINLESS PARKER.

The possession of Liberty Bonds is like good letters of recommendation, you can't have too many, they are an evidence of character. Buying Liberty Bonds signifies both patriotism and good business acumen.

ACTIVITY OF TIRE THIEF

Unusual activity on the part of the tire and accessory thief in all portions of Southern California is reported by Detective John Powell of the Theft Bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California. The Auto Club sleuth warns motorists to protect spare tires adequately or else bid the rubber a fond adieu. The latest practice on the part of the crooks consists in driving a car with one or two spares several blocks away from its parking place and helping themselves to whatever movable property can be found on the machine. 34x4 tires are especially popular with the thieving gentry.

Recently a pair of crooks succeeded removing an expensive top from an automobile standing in the downtown district of Los Angeles, this feat being accomplished in broad daylight. Much of the pilfering could be avoided if everyone would lock his car securely upon leaving it at the curb, many careless persons still persisting in leaving their keys in the lock.

KEEP A RECORD OF PART NUMBERS

A number of Southern California motorists lose their cars each year because they have neglected to keep a record of part numbers and other peculiar marks of identification. The Identification Bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California, from main headquarters and the seventeen branches of the Club, will gladly furnish to any car owner, whether a member of the Auto Club or not, a special identification blank designed to balk the success of the thief who endeavors to disguise the cars which he steals.

Famous for its accuracy and thoroughness in mapping and signposting the highways of California and other states, the Automobile Club of Southern California is now engaged in placing road markers advising the "Best Route to Berlin." Many thousands of these placards are due to be pasted on the windshields of Southern California machines, each of the 15,000 members of the Auto Club having pledged himself to present copies to his motoring friends.

The full wording of the stickers reads, "Best Road to Berlin via Liberty Loan Bond." Secretary S. L. Mitchell of the Auto Club believes that this innovation will prove even more successful than the "Free Rides for Soldiers" sticker campaign which the club originated several months ago. This latter movement has spread all over the United States and even into Canada.

The Auto Club's latest windshield sticker has been approved by the Liberty Loan Committee and will be given to all motorists who apply at club headquarters, 1344 South Figueroa street, or at any of the Club's seventeen branches, as long as the supply lasts.

"The City of Homes"

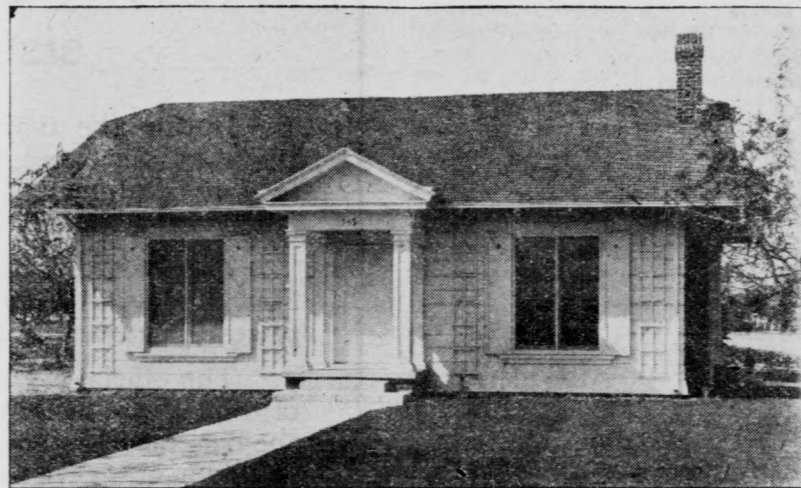

Long have we heralded Glendale as "The City of Homes," and the attractiveness of our residential sections has encouraged new comers.

It is a true axiom that "A city can be no better than its homes."

Let us keep our homes and surroundings attractive, our buildings repaired and freshly painted, our lawns and gardens clean, as an invitation of Glendale to the homeseeker.

Make good our claim of being

"A CITY OF HOMES"

This little home offers more real house value for the money than any other design we have. The Colonial lines make the exterior attractive and the arrangement of the six rooms, living room, dining room, breakfast room, two delightful bed rooms and bath. A delightful feature is the side porch with French doors leading from the dining room. If you like this exterior, we are sure the floor plan will please you. We also have the floor plan without the breakfast room.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The homes illustrated here each week are selected from the designs of the Lumbermen's Service Association. Any information, floor plans or cost to build will be gladly furnished by either of the local members of this association:

THE SLACKER

The man who doesn't buy a bond,
Yet of Liberty and Peace is fond,
Who has the coin, but lacks the heart
From his filthy lucre hates to part.

Or

The guy who walks the primrose path,
Buys a bond or two but flies to wrath
When asked to do a little more,
Yet lives as extravagantly as before.
Conservation to him is a matter small,
To appease his desires costs more, that's all.
He does without nothing that money will buy.
Should he buy more Bonds? He doesn't see why.

Or

The Profiteer or the Hoarder of Food,
The Loafer, the Grafter, the fancy dressed
Dood;

Each in his manner is helping the Hun
By makin' our task a more difficult one.
It ain't just the feller who dodges the fight
That's a slacker—not by a long sight.
The label belongs on every last man
Who ain't givin' and helpin' the most he can.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME

OWN YOUR OWN HOME

DO YOU KNOW?

The Fourth Liberty Loan workers are very busy and everybody must be busy to bring the Glendale quota of bond sales to double what it was at the close of the drive of the third loan.

In this column next week a full statement will be made of what Glendale people subscribed at the previous loans and the amount of war savings stamps purchased, Red Cross membership, etc.

In the meantime all unnecessary expenses should be cut out excepting those things that tend to preserve property and ultimately save money.

The leaky roof that will allow the rains to enter and water soak costly ceilings, warp valuable furniture and discolor expensive rugs, should be repaired and plumbing that is so imperfect that a waste of water is taking place or sanitary conditions are faulty, should receive the prompt attention of a competent plumber. The old adage "a stitch in time may save nine" should be borne in mind.

So, in going back to the introduction of this subject, it is well to apply the common adage to the winning of the war by advising that a Liberty Bond be purchased now, that the purchase of nine may not be necessary at a later date.

BUY ALL THE LIBERTY BONDS YOU CAN AFFORD---AND THEN ONE MORE

PAY FOR IT BY SAVING FROM YOUR UNNECESSARY EXPENDITURES. YOU CAN DO IT; AND THE LESSON OF THRIFT YOU ARE LEARNING, TOGETHER WITH THE DOLLARS YOU ARE SAVING WILL HELP YOU TO REALIZE THAT LONG-CHERISHED DREAM OF A HOME

A HOME WHERE YOU CAN ENJOY THE FREEDOM THAT YOUR MONEY HELPED TO WIN. AND LIKE THE GOVERNMENT BOND, A HOME IS AN INVESTMENT BOTH SAFE AND CONSERVATIVE, YIELDING RETURNS IN HAPPINESS, CONTENTMENT, LOYALTY AND PRIDE OF POSSESSION AS WELL AS DOLLARS.

THE SAME GOOD JUDGMENT, LOYAL SPIRIT AND LOVING SENTIMENT PROMPT THE BUYING OF BOTH.

THE BOND BUYERS TODAY WILL BE
THE HOME BUILDERS TOMORROW

Uncle Dan's Column

THE 75% BANNER

Well, folks, here we are again; everybody bein' given a chance at more o' these here high-class investment securities and gettin' free with ever' package a feelin' o' pride an' loyalty what don't come with most stock er bonds. An' ain't Uncle accommodatin'—offerin' 'em in any amount to suit an' on easy payments, too. Yes, sir, teachin' us to save and payin' us to learn.

T'other day I heered a feller low as how he allus felt this was a free country till his bo sorta hinted that such o' his help as wanted to remain help should orta buy some o' these Liberty Bonds. And this feller seemed ter think his rights and freedom as an American citizen was bein' trampled on. Say, folks, it 'peers to me that any man what has ter be asked or threatened into buyin' Liberty Bonds ain't no right to enjoy the freedom o' America anyway.

I see where ever' business house what come through and 75% o' the help buys bonds, that they gets a banner to hang out front tellin' folks that here is a real American institution. Guess the store what ain't flyin' this flag o' loyalty won't have ter hire any extry help to wait on the customers, eh? Personally I'd even buy a substitute for my favorite smokin' terbacker rather than spend my dimes over the counter o' places what is less than three-quarter American.
