The Tribune, of the 13th, says: The Tribune, of the 13th, says:

An extraordinary excitement was occasioned in Bond street yeaterday, by the gathering in front of Mrs. Cumingbam's residence of a disorderly meb of women sadows. The women, about thirty in number, held a sort of drum head court martial, and unanimously agreed that Mrs. Cumingham as guilty of minder, and ought to be driven; rom the city. With the help of the boys hay made an attack on the house, stoning the windows and doors, ringing the bell-insking hideaus faces and shouting their gamons in no very delicate way. The attack was continued until the arrival of an Mer, who took the most active of the Amazons to the lock up.

BRIDGING THE EAST RIVER. -F. F. ROLK, erman architect, has prepared plans for the onstruction of a bridge five thousand two undred and seventy-two feet in length, to e two abutments are designed for purposes the two abutments are designed for purposes of defense, being pierced for a number of orge cannon, beneath which, in time of war, vesse's can take refuse. As a further disect to the great expenditure contemplated, to insure the desirability of the investment, the termin of the bridge are made the foundation for a coatombouse, lighthouse, or other puthe buildings, besides afording space for a number of stores or dwellings. Furthermore, the several piers planted on the bod of the river are adapted to storage, where vessels may discharge. We also notice submarine passage to Governor's Island. The bridge is calculated to be 300 feet in with a height of 100 feet above high water.
