Coming Back

America is proud of them—the whole world is proud of them. They finished their part of the job with a courage and daring best described by Marshal Foch in these words to General Pershing before the battle of the Argonne:

DO GLENDALE PROPERTY OWNERS FAVOR BEING FORCED TO PAY TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS TRIBUTE AND EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS ANNUAL PREMIUM?

By Wm. J. Schaeffe, Editor American Globe, 1859 San Fernando Blvd.

It is very interesting to learn that at a meeting of 153 people, 135 voted for a bond issue of $200,000 (one-fifth of a million dollars) and an annual premium of $8,000 for upkeep, in addition to an annual interest payment of another approximate $8,000 on the bonds which simply increases the interest in a memorial park for our boys who return from the front.

As a property owner who VOTED FOR TROPICO TO GO INTO GLENDALE, the writer feels as if he has a license to express a few opinions.

Since this proposition, of which a park committee of the Glendale Development Association is the founder of the scheme, it has been observed from all reports, that no mention was made as to how many members of such committee are actual property owners in Glendale. Neither was it indicated how many of the number at the mass meeting are property owners and how many owned property out of walking distance of the proposed site.

If my property, as well as hundreds of other property owners were located near the proposed site for the memorial park, it probably would make some difference in the enthusiasm.

The first thing my brother asked about when he returned sick from France, was not for memorials, not for praise, not for tribute of admiration, but he wanted to know WHERE HE COULD GET A JOB and HOW SOON.

Two hundred thousand dollars is quite a sum for a few men to handle and spend when it belongs to others, and it is also an incentive for those who have the handling of this amount of money to advocate vigorously for such a bond issue. Since it could be considered a temptation in the event such a bond issue did go through, it would be advisable to have a body of at least twenty representative business men and bigger property owners check up on every item of expense before a cent of such were even contracted for, since the amount involved is entitled to all the safeguarding as that which is provided by our biggest financial institutions.

The location seems to have been specially selected with the launching of what appears to be a scheme cloaked in the guise of patriotism.

We agree with City Clerk Sherer, also with the fearless spirit demonstrated along practical lines by Mr. Beldin, neither of which gentlemen we are personally acquainted with.

We wonder if a location on the Tropic side of the Glendale High School would meet with the same enthusiasm of the sponsors of this scheme and whether the location that they suggest has to be a part of the program with the bond issue. More could be said on this subject.

An industry on the Salt Lake Railway or the Southern Pacific Railway where shipping facilities would be adequate along the lines of canning and packing plants as well as other industries that would provide employment for our returning soldiers WHO

HAVE TO EAT, as Hiram Johnson would say, is more along the line of reason rather than that of reckless expenditure of the tax payers' money, which all expenditures for luxuries comprise during these times when the cost of living and other expenses have become rather prominent items in the eyes of property owners as well as those who rent houses. If the majority of those living in Glendale who own no property would obligate themselves to pay a fair sum per annum to bear the burden with the property owners, since they would otherwise enjoy these luxuries at the property owners' expense, it would be a different proposition providing the parks were established in an absolutely central location according to the city limit lines of Glendale as they now exist.

There are numerous other angles to this scheme which is growing into a propaganda and which apparently is interesting, since the people of Glendale who own property, not the non-property owners, are requested to assume an additional DEBT OF ONE-FIFTH OF A MILLION DOLLARS, an annual premium of $8,000 upkeep, and annual interest of around $8,000 on these bonds. It all depends perhaps, on who is most interested.

Such matters as these are not a matter of sentiment when they are DANGEROUS LIABILITIES to our citizens. Think it over.

Several Guesses Allowed.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. DR. THOLEN

The funeral services for Mrs. Emil Tholen were held Friday afternoon at the Little Church of the Flowers in Memorial Park, conducted by the Rev. Hatch, a former pastor here, who acted in the same capacity for Mrs. Tholen's mother several years ago. The L. G. Scovern Company had charge.

THE MISSION PLAY

With but another week to run before the official closing of the Mission Play for the season, May 4, it is expected that the Mission Playhouse at San Gabriel will be filled to capacity at each remaining performance.

Frederick Warde in the impersonation of that renowned character, Fray Junipero Serra, is the realization of John Steven McGroarty's visualization of the central figure of his wondrous play.

To miss seeing the Mission Play this year is to miss seeing one of the greatest attractions, not only in the Southland, but in America. It is all in one—a sacred drama, a dramatic classic, a historic pageant.

Performances will be given every afternoon, including Sunday, until May 4, and on both Wednesday and Friday evenings at the Mission Playhouse at San Gabriel.

SONG OF THE SPUD

By Samuel Parker
Among the foodstuffs of the earth
That others gladly mention,
To one superior in worth
I ask your kind attention.

While not, like bread, the "staff of life,"
Safely it may be reckoned
With life-sustaining power rife.
To bread it stands a second.

A luxury in every land,
Toasted in song and fable,
It has a place at banquet grand
And at the poor man's table.

When all on Erin's verdant soil
Were threatened with starvation,
It came from the kind hand of God
And saved the Irish nation.

Then loudly cheer the toast I bring,
No longer silent wait. Oh
Let every one its praises sing—
Potato, Oh, Potato.

Spikenard, or hard, mentioned by St. John 12, 9, and St. Mark 14, 3, was a highly aromatic plant growing largely in the Indies. From this plant was made the valuable extract or ingredient or favorite perfume used at ancient baths and feasts.

This report recommended the purchase of the Sanitarium property on Broadway and the block on the west of same with certain improvements at an estimated cost of $200,000. Mr. White requested that the Trustees issue a call for an election putting the proposition before the people. Mr. W. B. Kirk also spoke in favor of the project. On motion of Trustee Henry, the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole. In connection with this matter the City Attorney stated that it would be unwise to proceed with an election until firm options had been secured from the owners of the Sanitarium property and from a good number of owners in the other block.

Corporals Noble Ripley and Charlie Allen are still stationed at Brest, France, where the army of occupation is kept busy at a general "clean-up" of that coast city. With no improved streets, or even sidewalks, the almost continuous rains for weeks and months, and the steady tramping in and out of the thousands of our boys in khaki, as well as the boys of our allies, one can dimly picture the result of such condition. But it's safe to predict that when the last of Uncle Sam's boys embark for home, Brest will be in a far better condition than ever before.

Jottings By The Way

By The Rambler

The man who never made a fool of himself is in a class by himself.

Every great man has a weak spot. Well, it's so. We admit it.

The Neffs, visiting Dad and Mamma Wight, on Los Angeles Street, have gone to Long Beach.

If what we don't know don't hurt us—well—most of us will be immune from injury for a long time.

Eugene Weir, of East Acacia Street, left Wednesday to take a railroad position at Mojave, California.

Don't mind the fog. Just remember that the sun is behind it, a-pushing along.

Mrs. I. C. Wasson, of 621 East Acacia Street, was called to Lancaster Monday, an account of the illness of her daughter.

Champagne-less campaigns will soon be here, and then we will have a beerless, fearless peerless nation, second to no other in creation.

MRS. BANTA DEAD

Mrs. Emily Banta, wife of John J. Banta, died Wednesday morning in Los Angeles, at the home of the nurse in whose care she has been during a long illness, lasting about four years. Mrs. Banta was a native of Indiana, and was 59 years of age. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the L. G. Scovern undertaking parlors, and interment was made in Hollywood Cemetery.

WILL MARPLE HOME

Will Marple arrived home from overseas at 8:30 Thursday morning, and is being joyfully welcomed by his relatives and friends.

Will left Glendale in December, 1917, and after a stay in Philadelphia of four or five months, was sent to Scotland until about four months ago, when he was transferred to Brest, France. He had the rank of Pharmacist Mate No. 2 in the Hospital service, and while at Brest was an Ambulance driver. While there he had a ten days furlough, and visited all the battlefields, where he picked up many very interesting souvenirs.

After a stay here of some five months he plans to go to the State University and take the agricultural course.

MRS. BELINDA B. HOVEY

Mrs. Belinda B. Hovey, eighty-five years of age, died last Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Peart. Pneumonia was the cause of her death. Funeral services were

RETURNS FOR THE RECENT RED CROSS DRIVE

The following list of the amount of old clothing collected in the recent drive made by the Red Cross makes a splendid showing for the local branch. Much credit is due to the efficient chairman, Mrs. A. J. Becker, and her assistants. The total amount collected in this district was 1185 pounds, and is itemized as follows: Presbyterian Church, 125 pounds; P. E. O., 105 pounds; Thursday Afternoon Club, 131 pounds; U. and I. Club, 250 pounds; Atwater Tract, 100 pounds; Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, 114 pounds; Woman's Relief Corps, 160 pounds; Red Cross Depot, 200 pounds.

The Tropic branch of the Red Cross has been very fortunate, and is much indebted to Major Paine for the use of the store room which they occupy.

OLDEST INHABITANTS ARE KEPT IN IGNORANCE

I read with interest and enlightenment the article by M. M. Eshelman in "The Tropic Herald" of Saturday, April 19, 1919, and observe with some amusement that the oldest inhabitants are kept as much in ignorance of the intricate workings of municipal affairs as the newcomers—of which I am one.

I am quite in favor of municipal improvements, and the "Solid Six" are quite aware that I am because of the manner in which I have expressed myself before them.

I am, however, like Mr. Eshelman suspicious of the mysterious process by which the committee evaded the majority of vitally interested property owners in the assessment district.

I fail to comprehend any connecting link in the lure of the scenic advantages of the diagonal route offered by the committee when, it appears, that this same committee deliberately neglected some choice property which they owned in that same diagonal route until it was smothered with weeds and refuse, and finally was sold for taxes.

I admit that I am a newcomer, and must not be impatient. But I am compelled to presume from Mr. Eshelman's letter that old timers are equally and intentionally kept uninformed regarding municipal affairs unless they heedlessly or deliberately fall for the committee and their works.

Southern California Synod Meets Here, April 28th to 30th. A Fine Program

The Southern California Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod meets in the First Lutheran Church of Glendale, April 28th to 30th, and brings delegates and visitors from all portions of the state from Santa Barbara south. There will be many prominent men present, and the program is replete with good things in the way of addresses, papers, round table talks, etc.

The first session meets Monday evening at 7:45. The regular morn-

The conference of the W. H. and F. M. S. is held on Tuesday.

The general public is cordially invited to attend any and all of these meetings.

Good Explanation.

After looking over a vacant house with his parents, Willie, aged six, heard them discussing the rooms. All the rooms were immense and rather dark, with the exception of the dining room, which was very small and naturally lighter than the others. Willie said: "Yes, I guess the dining room was the lightest because it was closest to the windows."

"YOU BOUGHT BONDS FOR WAR; NOW BUY THEM FOR PEACE"

The above slogan, written by E. S. Brown, 2627 Fulton Street, Berkeley, yesterday was declared winner in the Victory Loan slogan contest open to the public of the seven states of this district.

Second prize in the slogan contest was awarded to Mrs. M. A. Collier,

The judges who made the final decision in the contest were Edgar T. Cutter, superintendent in San Francisco of the Associated Press, Karl M. Anderson, assistant managing editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, and Emile J. Gough, managing editor of the San Francisco Call.

More than 25,000 slogans were sub-

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS

Athletes at Glendale Union High School are showing other schools that they are still to be reckoned with. In track the school is not so strong, the team sent to the Southern California meet last Saturday not being able to figure in the scoring. In other lines, however, it is a different story. The baseball team defeated Citrus Union on Monday evening by a score of 15 to 1. The tennis team met the players from the same school on Wednesday evening, and appropriated all the points—17-0. On Tuesday night the girls' tennis team met the Citrus girls and defeated them by the same score. The girls also defeated Monrovia last Saturday, 9-8.

OPENS DINING ROOM

Last Tuesday evening the Elks' Club served its first regular dinner in the new dining room it has opened for the benefit of members and their friends. Walter Butterly, a professional caterer, who has just returned from the war, is in charge of the new enterprise.

The Dutch Room has been furnished with new tables with rugs, a sideboard, new linen, dishes and silver. It is expected that club members will welcome this new departure and that it will prove a popular place for lunches and dinners, especially on Sundays.

BOND DRIVE IS ON

The drive for the sale of bonds of the Fifth Liberty Loan, the "Victory Loan," was begun Monday, and a meeting was held Monday night at Red Cross Headquarters for the purpose of organizing the campaign.

City Recorder F. H. Lowe is acting as chairman of the men's committee, and Mrs. Ralph Meeker is in charge of the work of the women's committee. W. B. Kirk is publicity chairman.

Headquarters have been secured on Brand Boulevard, just north of the postoffice, and a telephone has been installed with the number Glendale 2023. One of the encouraging early subscriptions was that of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of bonds to the amount of $300.

Glendale has been a bit slow in getting under way for this drive, but it should go with a rush from now on. These bonds are a wonderfully good investment, bearing interest at 4½ per cent, and the banks of the city will aid those who wish to buy them by the installment plan.

The present situation is a truer test of patriotism than were any of the drives of the other loans. The war was in progress then, and enthusiasm and excitement aided the work. Now the excitement is over. There is no longer any threat of a German victory. Now is the time to prove that your patriotism is the kind that lasts.

AT THE PALACE GRAND

Today's program at the Palace Grand Theatre is one of unusual interest, presenting dainty little Marguerite Clark in her latest hit, "Three Men and a Girl." This is adapted from "The Three Bears." On the same program is a tremendously humorous Mack Sennett comedy, "Reilly's Wash Day." It is a scream. A matinee for children and grown-ups begins promptly at 2:30, and evening shows at 7:00 and 9:00.

Dorothy Dalton, the great Thomas H. Ince star, appears tomorrow, Sunday, April 27, in her latest Sensation, "Hard Boiled." This is a strong character play, full of punch. On the same program, Larry Semon, the clever Vitagraph comedian, appears in his brand new scream, a fast stunt comedy, entitled "Well, I'll be —!"

Another great little comedy drama will be thrown on the screen Monday, "You Never Saw Such a Girl," a play that is full of humor, featuring Vivian Martin and Harrison Ford. Also Pa-the News of latest world happenings.

The latest hit of the famous Japanese actor, Sessue Hayakawa, will be offered to Glendale citizens on Tuesday. This is "The Courageous Coward." In this great picture you may see the Chinese New Year celebration in Chinatown, San Francisco, a fight in a gambling den in Chinatown, a murder trial in the underworld in the notorious Barbary Coast of San Francisco, a Hawaiian dancer entertaining the "rah-rah boys," and many other interesting sights. On the same program will be Harold Lloyd (Lonesome Luke) in one of his best comedies, entitled "Next Aisle Over." Matinee at 2:30. Evening shows at 7:15 and 9:00 o'clock.

On Wednesday, April 30, William S. Hart will appear in a new type of picture, different from the cowboy roles that have made him popular. It is a tremendous drama, called "The Poppy Girl's Husband." It is a wonderful "Boston Blackie" story, with an amazing theme, and the scene laid in the Barbary Coast, the old underworld of San Francisco. On the same program is a Lyons-Moran comedy, "Chicken a la King." Matinee at 2:30

Wallace Reid, the star of many a good picture, will appear on Thursday's program, supported by Ann Little, in "Alias, Mike Moran." This story was originally published in the Saturday Evening Post under the title of "Open Sesame." It was written by Orin Bartlett, one of the most popular of the fiction writers for the American magazines today. A clever comedy, "Boobs and Bumps," is on the same program. Matinee at 2:30, William Desmond, star of "The Prodigal Liar," is scheduled for next Friday, in his very latest comedy drama, "Life is a Funny Proposition."

This is a most entertaining picture. The big new D. W. Griffith hit, "The Girl Who Stayed at Home," will be the attraction a week from today.

An ingenious gardener has discovered that beans can be hulled with a clothes wringer. If the tension between the rollers is slightly loosened the beans will fall out of their pods without being broken.
