OVER 7,000 BODIES BEFORE THE LINES

Futile Attempts Made by Germans at Loos Were Very Costly

ARTILLERY ACTIONS IN REGION OF SOUAIN

New German Trench to Southeast of Tahure Was Captured

Paris, Oct. 11.—The only news of the night, according to the official announcement made public this afternoon, is that of fairly severe bombardments on the part of the Germans near La Scarpe and in the Champagne district, in the region of Souain. The French batteries everywhere replied effectively.

Later information confirms previous reports that the German counter-attacks of recent days in front of Loos have resulted, only in a serious and costly check. The Germans left a number of dead in front of the allied lines which is estimated at between 7,000 and 8,000, says the statement.

Artillery Actions: Paris, Oct. 11.—Heavy artillery actions on the hills near Souchez were reported last evening by the war office. German attacks in the wood of Givenchy were repulsed. Engagements at close quarters occurred in the Lihons sector and in Lorraine.

There have been artillery actions by both sides in Belgium, in the environs of Lombaerde, and on the whole of the Artois front. The struggle with trench guns has been very spirited in the region of Lihons and to the north of the Avre.

In the Champagne we still are making progress to the northeast of Tahure. A brilliant assault made us masters of a new German trench to the southeast of the village.

In the Vosges, at Hartmanns-Wellendorf, there has been a very violent struggle with bombs and torpedoes. A German aeroplane, struck down by one of the French machines, fell within the lines in the forest of Favencelle, to the south of Font-a-Mousson. The two aviators aboard were killed.

One of our air squadrons this afternoon dropped about 100 large shells on the stations at the rear of the German front in the Champagne district and on the enemy troops who were concentrating.

Attacks Repulsed: Paris, Oct. 11.—The following official statement was issued yesterday afternoon:

There was continued activity on the part of the artillery on both sides of the ridges to the east of Souchez and to the south, at the approaches to the road to Lille. Further attacks by the enemy against the field forts in the Givenchy wood have been repulsed.

There was lively fighting with grenades and torpedoes from trench to trench in the sector of Lihons.

Between the Oise and the Aisne, artillery fighting was very active before Nouvron and Queveville.

In Lorraine fighting continued with grenades in the vicinity of the trenches which were captured by our troops yesterday on the Reillon-Leintrey front.

ITALIAN EMBASSY WRECKED BY TURKS

Constantinople Police Looked on While Mob Did Its Work

Rome, Oct. 11.—According to the news from Athens, a Turkish mob has attacked and wrecked the new building of the Italian embassy in Constantinople. The police looked on while the building was devastated, its doors and windows broken and everything portable carried away. The rioting was provoked by the high cost of living.

Four thousand Moslem women, assembled in front of the Sublime Porte and held an anti-war demonstration. They were charged and dispersed by troops and the police. The mobs regularly loot the bakeries, which are guarded now by the police.

Reports purposely spread to the effect that the Anglo-French forces have abandoned their operations at the Bardanelles, are believed despite the fact that enormous numbers of wounded soldiers arrive daily in Constantinople. Many of these are dying owing to the lack of medical attention and hospital accommodation. The massacre of Armenians continues. The Turks are openly threatening the Greeks with the same fate.

ENEMY WAS THROWN BACK TWENTY MILES

Russian Offensive in Direction of Lutsk Being Carried Out With Success

3,500 PRISONERS TAKEN BY THE CZAR'S FORCES

Enemy Compelled to Fall Back on Both Sides of Railway

Petrograd, Oct. 11.—The stubbornness of the troops of General Ruzsky is still a match for the attempts of the Germans under General von Buelow to secure Dvinsk and the line of the Dvina. A new German offensive has been noticed, moving northward from Garbunawka, in which, in order to pass the approach to the river, the Russians met the Germans with machine gunfire of such terrific violence that whole columns were flung back.

Similar fruitless attacks were made in the Smorzon-region. Heavy fighting is continuing.

It is reported that in the marshes of Pinsk bands of German deserters are plundering right and left. The peasants are forming flying commands armed with rifles and are conducting a successful guerilla warfare against the German irregulars.

Offensive Renewed: After a fortnight's halt the Russians have renewed their offensive from the Styk to the Sereth. Infantry forces, by an energetic attack, dislodged the enemy from the right bank of the Styk and occupied his position at Koshistchi.

More important still is the Russian offensive in the direction of Lutsk. On both sides of the Kowroval railway the enemy was thrown back near Lutsk for a distance of 20 miles. The Russians captured 3,500 prisoners, besides numerous trophies.

Successful aeroplane raids have been made against the enemy's railway at Chernowzy. The station is important in the German operations in the south.

Masses of troops and munitions have been brought here. The raids caused extremely heavy damage to the enemy, and seriously disorganized his plans.

WERE STOPPED BY SERBIAN ARTILLERY

Belgrade Only Point at Which Enemy Secured Foothold in Serbia

Paris, Oct. 11.—"One hundred and fifty thousand Austro-German soldiers have crossed the Save and Danube rivers into Serbia, according to reports in diplomatic circles at Athens," says the correspondent of the Havas agency. "These troops were stopped by Serbian artillery before they could penetrate beyond the border. It is asserted, and Belgrade is the only point at which they gained a foothold on Serbian soil."

Roumania Also: Rome, Oct. 11.—Telegrams from Bucharest foreshadow general mobilization in Roumania and a concentration of troops on the Bulgarian frontier.

German naval forces have taken command of the Bulgarian torpedo boats and the crews have been replaced, almost entirely, by Germans.

General Liman von Sanders is directing Bulgaria's military operations against Serbia.

Berlin Statement: Berlin, Oct. 11.—It is claimed in the official statement issued here to-day that attacks by the Austro-German forces which are invading Serbia are proceeding to the south of Belgrade, the crossing of the Danube by the invading forces having been completed.

It also is alleged that the mountain heights between Zarkowo and Mirjowo have been captured, along with 14 Serbian officers, 1,542 men, 17 cannon and five machine guns.

The statement adds that all attacks by the allies in France were repulsed at Dvinsk, Baranowich and Plaski.

AIRMEN BOMBARDED GHENT YESTERDAY

Amsterdam, Oct. 11.—Aeroplane of the allies bombarded Ghent yesterday, according to dispatches received here to-day. Although the German high-angle guns kept up a hot fire against the raiders, they escaped uninjured under cover of a heavy fog.

SAYS 400,000 SHOULD BE SENT TO ASSIST AT VANCOUVER TO-DAY

Col. Repington Writes of the Outlook in the Balkans

London, Oct. 11.—Colonel Repington, the London Times' military expert, writes:

"There either are or soon will be 250,000 to 300,000 Germans under General von Mackensen concentrated against Serbia. Austrian troops on the Drina will co-operate by making east. We should not doubt the ability of Serbia to deal with this invasion if it stood alone, but the addition of the Bulgarian army to Serbia's enemies is a fatal danger and comes from a fatal direction."

"We cannot suppose that the Bulgarian offensive will be conducted with fewer than 200,000 men, and if the Turks take over Varna and the Black Sea front, the number may be higher. That Serbia will give a good account of herself we are sure, but unless from 200,000 to 400,000 allied troops come to her aid in time, the chances of successful resistance are not good. The Bulgarians probably will be heard of soon on the Timok and the Nisava. Repayment of Debt."

"The removal of the Serbian archives from Nish shows that a Bulgarian attack on this town was anticipated. The dispatch of a small force of allied troops from Salonika to Serbia is not a military operation and could be regarded only as the repayment of a debt of honor and a tribute to the herod and constancy of our Serbian ally. If Greece or Roumania, or both, enter the field on our side, the failure of the attack on Serbia is assured, and the war at once will assume a different aspect."

"Failing, however, the active intervention of one or both of these states, or the prompt junction of 300,000 allied troops with the Serbians, Germany has the best of the deal. The Germans are welcome to their diversion in the Balkans if as a result Russia is given the winter in which to recuperate and the campaign in the west goes against Germany. The quarter of a million men under Mackensen might have taken Rovno or Dvinsk or Riga, or passed the Russian centre east of Minsk and then might have carried out a strong counter offensive against France."

Offensive in West: "For lack of them the German invasion of Russia has languished for the last three weeks. It is for us to take advantage of the moment to press our offensive in the west and for Russia to strike by every means to build up new armies and complete her equipment. It is on the French and Russian fronts that this war will be decided, and decided more surely in our favor if we keep steadily before us the main issues of the war and refuse to be led away by the mirage of a secondary operation."

"Even if Germany were installed at Constantinople and had all the Balkans under her heel, it would not profit her were we victorious in the main theatre, while if Germany's ambitions tempt her further east toward Asia and India, then the cases federals under our treaty with Japan would come into force and a fresh enemy would face the Germans."

WILL BE NO TREATING IN LONDON HEREAFTER

London, Oct. 11.—At 1 o'clock to-day the "no treating" order came into force in London and the time-honored custom of paying for a friend's drinks became an offense punishable by six months' imprisonment and a £500 fine. Drinks taken with meals are exempt. The order prohibits the evasion of one man advancing money to another wherewith to purchase drinks. Credit for drinks also is banned.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT WILL MEET TO-MORROW

Conduct of Censorship in the Motherland Will Be Discussed

London, Oct. 11.—Parliament will assemble to-morrow after its ten days' adjournment. Events move so rapidly in these times that it will be faced with an entirely new set of problems. The members separated with higher hopes based on the allies' offensive in the west than they had cherished in many months. They will come together again with the feeling that the Balkan crisis introduces an element absent from previous discussion on measures needed to win the war.

The reason given by the government for the ten-days' recess was that the only business was a finance bill, and that was not ready. Mr. McKenna, who has been busy arranging Russian credits with Mr. Balfour and getting the Anglo-French loan floated in the United States, has not much time to give to the budget.

The Loan: Mr. McKenna will introduce to-morrow a bill authorizing the floating of the Anglo-French loan in the United States.

The matter is regarded as so urgent that the great hopes exist that the bill will be passed through all its stages in the least possible time.

The members are very anxious to hear what Sir Edward Grey has to say on the Balkan situation and the diplomacy which led to it. The foreign secretary is expected to reply also to the request for a statement on the massacre of Armenians by the Turks.

One matter likely to be raised immediately is the conduct of the censorship. This is one of the few subjects on which the House of Commons has never been prepared to give a free hand to the government, and it does not intend to pass over in silence the disclosure of recent lapses in the censorship.

ENEMY FOUND TASK WAS NOT EASY ONE

Rearguard Left by Serbians in Belgrade Offered Stubborn Resistance

Budapest, Oct. 11.—The Austrians and Germans encountered desperate resistance from the Serbians at Belgrade, and for two days a terrible battle with bayonets raged in the streets before the capture of the city was completed. Describing these operations the Aget says:

"Our gain of ground and the breadth of our march into Serbia continues to increase. Despite all efforts of the Serbians, in whose ranks are British officers and who use British artillery, the river crossing has been accomplished according to the plan made."

"The enemy attempted with all means at his disposal to hold his line of defence. Though he subjected those troops who crossed the river to a murderous fire, the latter nevertheless succeeded in attaining Serbian territory."

"A severe battle raged about Belgrade, where the Serbians offered particular opposition. Nevertheless, we succeeded in reaching the newly-installed connections over the Save river and invaded the northern portion of the city, where our troops remained until reinforcements arrived."

"A bloody battle in the alleys in the northern part of Belgrade, a terrible encounter with bayonets, raged for two days and nights. The Serbians were pushed back step by step in these fights and finally had to surrender the whole city."

GERMANS ACCOMPLISHED NOTHING BY ATTACKING

London, Oct. 11.—In the western theatre of the war the German attack in the vicinity of Loos appears to have subsided. It accomplished nothing except the securing of a temporary partial footing in some trenches, from which the assailants of the allied line afterwards were expelled. Since October 4, according to Field-Marshal Sir John French, the only change of consequence on the Loos front has been a steady gain of ground by the British between Hill No. 70, which is the key to the situation, and Hulluch,

PARLIAMENT MEETS IN LONDON TO-MORROW

THE PRIME MINISTER

POLICY STILL IS BEING CONSIDERED

Greek Cabinet Has Not Decided Whether to Honor Treaty With Serbia

M. VENIZELOS AT HEAD AGAIN WITHIN MONTH?

Athens, Oct. 10.—The representatives of the entente powers, while exercising no pressure on the Greek government, are urging it to reply to the question put last Thursday in regard to its future course respecting the Serbo-Greek alliance. The cabinet deliberated on this question at great length yesterday and to-day, but has not succeeded in reaching any determination.

A neutral diplomat in Athens reported to his government his opinion that within less than a month M. Venizelos, former prime minister, will be returned to power or else the ports of Greece will be blockaded by the entente powers.

Has Left London: London, Oct. 11.—The rupture of relations between Bulgaria and the entente powers was complete to-day. Semi-official announcement was made that Hadji Michoff, Bulgarian minister to London, had left London for Sofia via The Hague.

The Bulgarian ministers to France, Russia, Serbia and Italy already have departed from the capitals of those nations.

Asks For Cars: Bucharest, Oct. 11.—Bulgaria has asked Roumania for railway carriages to transport 6,000 Bulgarians from Germany.

The entente ministers are taking steps to prevent this on the ground that these carriages would serve to carry German officers.

MOVED FORWARD IN DENSE FORMATION

Germans Attacked French Line in Champagne and Were Mowed Down

Paris, Oct. 11.—Thousands of bodies of German soldiers, estimates running as high as 8,000, lie before the French trenches in the Champagne district to-day as a result of a most furious attempt by the enemy to drive the French from the captured trenches which dominate the Bazancourt-Challerange railway, north of Tahure. Realizing that their communications were in the gravest danger, the Germans, to-day's communiques says, advanced to the attack with utter disregard of the loss of life. The principal assault came when four divisions, from 60,000 to 80,000 men, in solid mass rushed against the French line. Under the fire of their cannon they came on in solid formation and simply were wiped out by the concentrated fire of French "75's" machine guns and the sheets of rifle bullets which met their rush. In the Souain region the attack was fiercest and there, before the French trenches, the ground literally was paved with the bodies of Germans.

In the region about Loos and to the north of that point both the British and French received the German shock. In no section was it successful and the violent attack ended with a serious and costly check to the Teutons all along the line.

NOT IN CONTACT WITH MAIN FORCES

Austro-Germans Have Encountered Only Small Serbian Forces as Yet

SERBIANS READY TO FIGHT TO LAST MAN

Probably Will Make Stand in Mountain Range North of Kragujevatz

Paris, Oct. 11.—The capture of Belgrade by the enemy was announced in an official communication from Nish, issued here yesterday at the Serbian legation. The Austro-German attack on the lower Drina, on the northwestern frontier, was repulsed with enormous losses for the Teutons. The statement follows:

"Belgrade has fallen into the hands of the Germans after a desperate resistance."

"Fighting continues all along the Danube and the Save fronts. The purpose of the enemy is to advance through the Morava valley, separating Kostolac (38 miles southeast of Belgrade) from Dubravatzka, on the Danube, 35 miles east of Belgrade) where his chief efforts are concentrated."

"The enemy suffered enormous losses in making unsuccessful attacks on the lower Drina. The enemy has been thrown back on an island he occupied before opening the operations."

Telephone Cut: Paris, Oct. 11.—Three-quarters of the city of Belgrade has been destroyed by six thousand Austro-German shells and the fighting continues, according to an Athens dispatch to the Matin. Telephone communication between Belgrade and Nish has been cut.

A Berlin Report: Berlin, Oct. 10.—Via London—Dispatches from the Serbian front report that Belgrade was not damaged greatly by the bombardment. The city was spared as far as possible, although some private buildings were destroyed.

Serbian rear-guards contested the passage through the city streets of the Teutonic forces. Part of the civilian population remains in Belgrade.

Stubborn Resistance: London, Oct. 11.—The Austro-German armies which crossed the Danube and the Save rivers and occupied Belgrade are meeting with stubborn resistance at the Serbian advance defenses, but have not come in contact with the main Serbian forces as yet.

The Serbian plan of campaign depends considerably upon the amount of assistance they will receive from allied troops, but it is not believed that they will attempt, in any event, to make a decided stand north of the mountain range near Kragujevatz, which they already have proved to be a line offering superb facilities for defence.

Serbia United: Telegrams from the Balkans, though not minimizing the seriousness of the Serbian position, reflect a tone of cheerful confidence in the ability of the allies ultimately to check the Austro-German invasion and duly meet any future attack from the side of Bulgaria. The national danger, says the telegrams, has united Serbia as never before, and throughout the country men, physically unfit for the regular army and women and old men are arming for the defence of their country.

The population of Macedonia has gathered into bands with the object of repulsing a possible Bulgarian attack. In addition to 300,000 Serbian soldiers, a million Serbians of both sexes and all ages are said to be ready to dispute all attempts at Austro-German-Bulgarian conquest.

RAID WAS MADE BY ITALIAN AVIATORS

Fourteen Aeroplanes in Squadron; Enemy's Attempt on Carso Plateau Failed

Rome, Oct. 11.—The following official communication was given out on Saturday night:

"There have been artillery actions along part of our front. In certain places the enemy launched asphyxiating shells.

"In Carnin and the Fella valley we have repulsed numerous enemy patrols, capturing some of them.

"On the Carso plateau, on the afternoon of October 7 after an intense cannonade, the enemy in great force tried to attack in the direction of Soib, but was repulsed before reaching our trenches.

"Yesterday afternoon the enemy of fourteen aeroplanes, yesterday bombarded the offices of the Austrian command at Constantevica, enemy camp at Spacchissellin and the railway station at Nalburg. In spite of a heavy aerial bombardment, our machines returned undamaged. An Austrian aeroplane dropped arrows on one of our camps, but no damage was done."

—Vienna Statement.

Vienna, Oct. 11.—The following official statement was given out on Saturday night:

"Yesterday forenoon the Italians, reinforced, twice repeated attacks on our position on the Vigevech plateau. The attacks collapsed, the Italians losing afterwards in bringing up steamroller forces. Only single companies advanced and they were repulsed easily.

"On the Lattain plateau the Venetian section was under heavy artillery fire during the afternoon.

"In the region of Slitch, also, the enemy's artillery is showing renewed activity. In the Dobordo section, between San Martino and Palazzo, Italian bomb throwers attempted to approach, but were repulsed easily."

Cremona was common in Greece and Romania, the spread of Christianity made it unpopular. A test case in 1881 legalized cremation in Great Britain.

BRITISH MADE GAINS NORTHEAST OF LOOS

Advances Varying from 500 to 1,000 Yards Reported by Leader

London, Oct. 11.—The following report was sent by Sir John French under date of Saturday, at 7.20 p. m.:

"Since my report of October 4 the enemy has shelled our new trenches south of La Bassée Canal constantly, and has made repeated bombing attacks in the southern portion of the 'Hohenzollern redoubt,' which is held by us. These attacks were all repulsed.

"In spite of the enemy's artillery fire, we have pushed our trenches steadily northeast of Loos, between Hill 70 and Hilluch, and have gained ground varying from 500 to 1,000 yards in depth.

"Yesterday afternoon the enemy heavily bombarded the whole area we recently won from him and followed this by an attack in successive waves of infantry on the whole front from south of Loos to the 'Hohenzollern' redoubt. This attack was repulsed everywhere with heavy loss to the enemy. We gained possession, by a counter-attack, of a German trench 500 yards west of Cite St. Elie.

"Great numbers of enemy dead are lying in front of our trenches. Our losses were comparatively slight."

—French Report.

Paris, Oct. 11.—The following official statement was issued on Saturday night:

"The Germans this morning renewed their attack against our trenches before Loos. They were driven back to the trenches which they had left.

"A violent bombardment on both sides occurred this afternoon along the whole front in the Arrais district.

"Demonstrations by the enemy, consisting of artillery and rifle firing, at the five roads to the east of Souchez, and on the Aisne, near Godat, were arrested by our fire and were not followed by any infantry action.

"In Champagne we completely repulsed a counter-attack against the Tahure hill and dispersed enemy concentrations, which appeared to be preparing for a new attempt.

"A struggle with bombs and torpedoes has been in progress in the Argonne, in the region of Four de Paris and on the heights of the Meuse, at the Calonne trench and at Les Eparges.

"In Lorraine we conquered a trench where the enemy had been able to maintain himself after his attack of yesterday on the Reillon-Leintrey front."

JAPAN'S DUTY IS TO SUPPLY MUNITIONS

Resources of Empire Placed at Disposal of the Allies

Tokio, Sept. 20.—(By Mail).—Munitions—not men for Russia—that is the great need of the allies to-day, say Japanese officials. The authorities repeatedly have denied reports that Russia has asked for troops and that Japan will send troops. They are concentrating their efforts on the big problem of increasing the output of munitions for Russia.

The decision to enlarge the government arsenals, and even to establish special factories, pleases the military circles of Japan, who see in this an opportunity not only to help Russia and hasten the end of the war, but to create the means of increasing their own permanent production. It signifies military expansion without the necessity of a home campaign. Now that the arsenals are to be placed on a war footing, the enlargements will remain for future use and thus the actual expansion of military equipment will have been effected with it attracting the notice of the public. This is a cause of great satisfaction to the military interests. It is understood that regular payments for the cost of the increased production will be made in London—in cash, thus augmenting the gold reserve held by the Japanese government.

—Endorsed by People.

Public opinion heartily endorses the government's decision to place all its resources at the disposal of the allies in the way of furnishing ammunition and general supplies.

"There is not a moment's hesitation," said the Japan Times, vindicating the sentiments of the Japanese press, "in making a prompt response to this demand for help from Russia. It is the voice of a friend in need. To the fullest capacity of our arsenals, factories and workshops, national or private, we will help our friends. Japan is proud to be shown where and how she can help."

Referring to the impracticability of sending troops, the newspaper said:—"We know full well that our friends, our allies, will not ask or expect this country to take the bread from the mouths of our children, to leave the home unprotected, or make future recovery for this country impossible. These are the only limits we set to the share we are prepared to take in the great struggle in which our friends are involved."

Great interest is attached here to references to the European war just made by Baron Takaaki, Kato, ex-foreign minister, in a series of political addresses, because Baron Kato directed the foreign policy of Japan during the first year of the war. After voicing Japan's desire to help the allies with more ammunition, the ex-minister intimated his belief that Japan's physical capacity was insufficient to meet the needs of Russia; still Japan would do all she could.

Growing Weaker.

Turning to the war itself, Baron Kato expressed the opinion that although Germany had been prepared to a degree of perfection beyond the anticipations of the allies, her real strength had passed its zenith and henceforth would begin to decay.

The statesman had something to say of France and Great Britain, and undoubtedly voiced the prevailing sentiment among Japanese.

"France," he declared, "has brought her potential power into play at last, but Britain has not yet roused her dormant power to action. Though many noblemen in Britain have rallied around the colors, some of the populace apparently do not take much interest in the life-and-death struggle into which the nation has been plunged."

This state of things, the baron observed, was in sharp contrast to conditions in Japan, where the people in general had played the main and decisive part in two great wars. He believed the present war to be one of exhaustion, and expressed his unwavering conviction that the allies would win.

He was impatient, he said, with Japanese alarmists who were obsessed with the absurd idea that Germany would become mistress of the world in the long run, and eventually descend upon the Far East, seeking retaliation against Japan.

Baron Kato talked very plainly as to why Japan would not send troops to the European theatre of war.

"Such a thing," he said, "is an impossibility, to say nothing of the complete absence of a proper cause belli."

No Ships.

"According to experts, a large number of troops would be needed, but we have no ships to transport large numbers. This difficulty might be overcome by a special agreement with the allies, powers for the supply of their own transports, but another and still more serious difficulty is the financing of such a step. The expenditure would amount to thousands of millions of yen per annum. How could such an enormous sum be raised? National honor prevents us from fighting at the expense of others. Assuming that Japan resorts to loans for the purpose, how could she raise or redeem such loans?"

The general feeling in the various walks of Japanese life is that it would be unwise for Japan to risk the prestige gained in two victorious wars by a questionable military adventure in Europe.

Figure it out. If you have no telephone, what does it cost you in actual coin, to go to the store when you want something? If you go down town, several hours are taken up. Apart from the monetary consideration, by using your telephone you would have more time for other household purposes.

If you want to get your friends over for an evening, you have either to travel or send letters. Postage, envelopes and paper count up.

If you jot down little items of expense during a month you will probably find that they total to more than the cost of a telephone.

ATTACK CONTINUED BY LONDON TIMES

Blue-Ruin View Again Set Forth at Length To-day

London, Oct. 11.—Despite the protests of many newspapers against the attack in a section of the press on Sir Edward Grey and the government, on the ground that nothing could be more welcome to Germany, the Times, in an editorial to-day, referring to the failure of British diplomacy in the Balkans, says:

"From the first moment of the war, when the Germanic empire stood alone against us, right down to the landslide of last week, one miscalculation seems to have followed another with almost mathematical certainty. Roumania still holds out, but she holds out now in passive isolation, no longer in touch with the advancing Russian armies and inevitably influenced by what is passing around her."

The Times thinks that the foreign office must bear the brunt of the blame, but it recognizes the handicap of allied diplomacy and especially the handicap of Italy, with her special claims on the eastern Adriatic seaboard, while it says it is naturally impossible for the allied diplomats to make the swift decision of a single foreign office in Berlin.

"Unless we are misinformed, however," the Times adds, "the British foreign office, which from the first had a privileged position in dealing with the Balkan peoples, was entrusted by the allies with the leading part in diplomacy and must therefore be responsible for its failure."

The Times arrives at the conclusion that much of the trouble is due to lack of co-ordination between military effort and diplomatic knowledge and between the foreign policy and the military policy. It demands a reform in the methods, which, it says, too long have divided minister from minister and department from department and the government from the people.

TREASURE WAS NOT FOUND BY GERMANS

MORE THAN 21,000 SINCE OCTOBER 1

London, Oct. 11.—British casualties reported since October 1 amount to more than 21,000. The week-end casualty list published to-day brings 200 officers and 4,800 men. This brings up the total casualties published in the London papers since the first of the month to 981 officers and 20,251 men.

NOTE WILL BE SENT TO LONDON AT ONCE

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Wilson to-day approved finally the new note to Great Britain protesting against interference with neutral trade. It will go to London at once. Arrangements for publication will be made later. The note is long and goes into details of some cases on which American protests are founded.

DEPOSIT IN ONE MONTH WAS FIFTY-FOUR TONS

CONSTANTINE ILL; CONFINED TO ROOM

London, Oct. 11.—A critical examination of the air in the central part of London city was begun by the city corporation a year ago, and the results of twelve months of investigations with various scientific instruments on the roof of the city mortuary in Golden Lane have just been announced. Similar observations are being made on the Thames embankment and at points in the residential districts.

Although the presence of much impurity in the London atmosphere had long been known, the results have astonished Dr. Howarth, the city medical officer. During last December alone the amount of deposit registered as falling in the comparatively small area known as the "city" amounted to 54 tons. Of this total, 34 tons was soluble, including sulphates of ammonia, and chlorine, while 20 tons was insoluble, consisting of tar, carbon and grit. No dense fogs have been tested as yet.

VIOLENT FIGHTING IN REGION OF DWINSK

Russians Captured Village Northwest of Dubno, Taking 300 Prisoners

Petrograd, Oct. 11.—The following official statement was issued on Saturday night:

"There is a lull in the Riga region. German aeroplanes threw some bombs on Splook. An attempted German offensive in the Mischof region, on the railroad east of Mitau, was stopped.

"In the Dwinsk region the battle in progress near the village of Garbounawoka is assuming an extremely desperate character. Near Pochiline, north of Garbounawoka, the Germans also attacked, but were unable to withstand our machine gun fire and were forced to desist.

"North of Lake Bohine the Germans also attacked, but were unable to withstand our machine gun fire and were forced to desist.

"North of Lake Bohine the Germans attacked the Khwozty Farm several times and were repulsed. On the front south of the region of Smorgon and Krewo the position still is stationary.

"South of the Pripet the enemy reoccupied the village of Pojok, on the lower Stokhod. In the region north-west of Dubno, our troops captured the village of Konstantinowo, taking three machine guns and 300 prisoners. Repeated enemy attacks to recapture the village of Sapanow, northwest of Kremenetz, were repulsed on each occasion.

"During actions yesterday on the Rostok front, in the Nowo Dzinetz region, our troops at different points captured 1,175 prisoners, two trench mortars and eight machine guns. Our aeroplanes raided the station at Czernowitz and dropped bombs on trains and ammunition depots. A column of smoke and flame immediately ascended up from the railway station. An enemy aeroplane rose to engage our machines, but quickly descended on meeting their fire.

"Enemy submarines have appeared near the Crimean coast. Our destroyers are pursuing them.

"There have been secondary actions on the Caucasus front, where the general situation is unchanged."

Austrian Statement

Vienna, Oct. 11.—The following official statement was given out on Saturday night:

"The enemy vainly continued attacks on our Galician and Volhynian fronts, with strong forces. His troops in East Galicia assaulted our positions south of Tluste and near Barlanow, but everywhere were repulsed. East of Buzacz, a regiment of Cossacks fled before our artillery fire.

"Near Kremenetz the Russians also repeated fruitless attacks. A Russian infantry regiment was dispersed southwest of Kremenetz. Austrian and German troops, advancing from north of Kocki, again drove back the enemy across the Sty. The number of prisoners mentioned yesterday has risen to 6,000. (The previous report said the number of Russian prisoners taken during the fighting of October 7 and 8 in the Volhynian country was about 4,000.)

SITUATION IN SERBIA ALARMS LONDON PAPER

London, Oct. 11.—The Express' front page this morning is featured by a cry of alarm in big type with regard to the rapid German progress through Serbia. The paper draws the following pictures:

"Suppose von Mackensen were to triumph and the Germans joined hands with the Turks. What then? The Kaiser would control the whole of Central Europe, the Baltic and the Bosphorus. With the Germans established in Constantinople and Asia Minor, Egypt would be at their mercy. India might become their prey; the Suez canal would cease to be international—it would be as German as the Kiel canal."

A large number of Austrian and German aeroplanes is reported to have crossed Serbian territory in the direction of Bulgaria.

Six thousand men, described as Bulgarian reservists from Germany, have been held up at the Roumanian frontier on suspicion that they are Austrian and German engineers and officers. The Roumanian government has demanded that these men be identified.

London, Oct. 11.—The Daily Mail warns against the sending of any small or insignificant allied force into the new Balkan theatre.

"To help Serbia inadequately," it says, "is not to help her at all. This is a very big and perilous operation. It requires a very great army and it cannot be begun in a haphazard way. We do not want any new versions of the 'rescue of Antwerp.'"

LARGE ARMY SHOULD BE SENT, SAYS DAILY MAIL

London, Oct. 11.—The Times' Bucharest correspondent says he learns that the eleven Bulgarian divisions will form three armies which will be under command of Crown Prince Boris. The first army, under General Bogachoff, fighting against Serbia, will be directed toward Uskub, in order to attempt to cut the railway from Nish to Salonika. The second army, under General Teodoroff, will watch Roumanian movements.

London, Oct. 11.—Prince Frederic of Thurn and Taxis died in a Russian base hospital, according to a Petrograd dispatch to the Post, after being wounded in an encounter with Russian raiders in the Villya salient.

A dispatch from Amsterdam on Sept. 24 said that the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger had announced that Prince Frederic had been killed while fighting in the Diester region.

6,000 STOPPED AT ROUMANIAN BORDER

Men Described as Reservists May Be Germans and Austrians

Petrograd, Oct. 11.—Telegrams from Sebastopol report that bases for German submarines have been established at Varna and Burgas, the principal Bulgarian ports on the Black Sea. It is assumed that it was from these bases that the German submarines mentioned in the report issued on Saturday by the Russian war office approached the Crimean coast, from which they were driven by Russian destroyers.

A large number of Austrian and German aeroplanes is reported to have crossed Serbian territory in the direction of Bulgaria.

Six thousand men, described as Bulgarian reservists from Germany, have been held up at the Roumanian frontier on suspicion that they are Austrian and German engineers and officers. The Roumanian government has demanded that these men be identified.

London, Oct. 11.—The Post quotes approvingly the financial expert who declares that future war loans must not be subscribed by the banks, but by the people themselves. Unless this is done, he predicts, the war will be followed by "the greatest boom and the greatest collapse the world ever has seen, affecting alike Great Britain, the continent and the United States."

London, Oct. 11.—War is driving women to cosmetics. The authority for this statement is a London cosmetic manufacturer, who says, "Rouge now is used freely by women who, before the war, looked on make-up of any kind as in bad taste. His explanation is that the present stress and worry tell on looks and women have been driven to the use of rouge and paint to hide the marks left on their faces by these emotions."

ZAIMIS WAS GIVEN TEXT OF THE TREATY

Agreement Between Bulgaria and Germany and Austria Signed Last July

London, Oct. 11.—An Athens dispatch to Reuters' last evening said that the newspaper Hestral confirmed the news printed in Paris of the signature of a secret treaty between Bulgaria and the central powers last July.

The correspondent said that he also was able to confirm it and added that the British minister handed the text of the treaty to M. Zaimis the day he assumed the premiership.

"The treaty," continued the correspondent, "doubtless will be the subject of grave debate in parliament on Monday, when the new government will announce its programme and ask for a vote of confidence."

"It is understood that the supporters of M. Venizelos, the former prime minister, will give the government just sufficient votes to secure a minimum majority—in other words, they will tolerate it."

It is learned from an authoritative diplomatic source that the representatives of the entente powers have advised Greece that Bulgaria's present attitude results from a written agreement signed by Prince Hohenzollern-Lansburg on July 17, when acting German ambassador to Turkey. This agreement, made on behalf of Austria and Germany, provides for the cession to Bulgaria of Serbia and Greek Macedonia, including the Greek ports of Salonika and Kavala; of Kastoria, in northern Greece, near the Albanian border, and of all Albania. The representatives of the entente powers assert they have proof that this agreement was made.

SAYS ROUMANIA CAN NOT KEEP SWORD SHEATHED

Paris, Oct. 11.—A Havas dispatch from Bucharest, filed Oct. 5 but delayed by the censor, says: "Reports from Dobruddja tell of the concentration of Bulgarian troops in cantonments about three miles from the Roumanian frontier. These troops are engaged in construction trenches and at one place the presence of artillery is reported."

"The newspaper Roumanie declares Roumania about intervene in the new theatre of war and that she cannot keep her sword sheathed without risk of compromising her interests and honor."

SON OF SPOKANE MAN PRISONER IN GERMANY

Spokane, Oct. 11.—A cablegram received from a Paris news agency says that Lieut. Charles M. Sweeney, son of Charles Sweeney, a Spokane mining man, is held a prisoner by the Germans. Young Sweeney, who was born in San Francisco, spent three years at West Point reserving to take up civil engineering. He enlisted in the Foreign Legion while on a visit to France and was promoted to a lieutenancy in the French regular army.

HUNGARIAN LOAN

Budapest, Oct. 11.—The third Hungarian revenue loan will be opened on Nov. 1, and will be offered in sums ranging from fifty to ten thousand crowns. (A crown is worth about twenty cents), tax free at six per cent interest, payable every six months.

Plates

An ill-fitting, otherwise uncomfortable plate is generally the fault of the dentist, who does not have the facilities to assure perfection. In this office every plate is made and supervised by a plate specialist, and as he maintains his own laboratory he is in a position to produce PERFECT work. If you require a plate, please remember that all work in this office is GUARANTEED—no imperfect plate is allowed to leave this office. OUR PRICES ARE AS LOW AS $1.00 ON PERFECT-FITTING HIGH-GRADE PLATES.

Inlays

By the use of porcelain you can have broken or decayed teeth completely renewed—restored to their original contour and color so that even your intimate friends cannot detect the difference. This is delicate work and must always be entrusted ONLY to a specialist, such as in charge of the porcelain department of Dr. Gilbert's office. All porcelain fillings and crowns guaranteed in every respect.

Bridgework

INDESTRUCTIBLE BRIDGEWORK is an invention of this office. It is a proven method—not an experiment. Bridges made here will withstand every use you give them—just as substantial and sound as the teeth Nature gave you and as solid in your mouth. Made from porcelain, solid gold, or a combination of both as the case demands. Prices are the very lowest and every bridge guaranteed to remain perfect for ten years.

SERBIA'S PROSPECTS.

The occupation of Belgrade by the Austro-German troops will not be the occasion of religious and festive demonstrations in Vienna, Berlin and Budapest this time.

It is doubtful if more than half Bulgaria's fighting resources can be drawn upon, and half of these must be employed along the Roumanian frontier and the Black Sea coast.

PATRONAGE "AS USUAL"

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, October 11, 1890.

It is rumored that the National Electric Tramway Company has decided to engage in commercial and house lighting by electricity. It is said that a contract has been entered into with the Thomson-Houston Company.

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council held last evening, the shipwrights' delegation denounced the action of the Dominion government in sending abroad their new steamer when it might just as well have been built at home. Resolutions were passed strongly condemning not only the principle complained of, but that which is involved. The council considers that the revenue should be spent amongst those who contribute the same.

Mr. Manufacturer, when you figure out the profits of your sales force, do you take the force as a whole, or by individuals?

Don't you want to know whether Bill Jones is as good a salesman as Tom Brown?

Don't you eliminate the salesman who do not hold up sales?

Why not consider your national advertising with the same point in view?

The minute you do you will be convinced that newspapers are the logical media.

And once you realize this you will get down to a business basis and know what pays and what does not.

Bohemian Social Club—The annual general meeting of the Bohemian Social club will take place on Wednesday, October 15, at the Quaker Girl ten rooms, Douglas street at 8.30 p. m. There will be music and refreshments, and all members and those who would like to join are cordially invited.

Rowland's Band Concert—Rowland's concert band played before a packed house at Pantages last evening. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. Longfield, Walter Charles acting as accompanist. The band received double honours for the "Stephanie Gavotte" and "Chimes of Normandy." Joseph Patrick gave a ten-minute address on temperance and was listened to with great attention.

St. John Ambulance Association—The first meeting of a men's class for instruction in first aid to the injured, will be held on Wednesday, October 13, at the Young Men's Christian Association building, at 8 o'clock p. m. A full attendance of those who have registered for this class is requested. There are a few vacancies available, and any men wishing to take the course are asked to send in their names: at once to J. H. Hill, 1145 Burdett avenue; phone 1459L.

Ladies' Musical Club—The following ladies and gentlemen have promised their services for the concert on Thursday evening to be held at the Empress hotel ballroom in aid of the Red Cross: Mrs. J. R. Green, Mrs. R. Baird, Miss Joy, Calvert, Hamilton Earle, and a vocal quartette from the Arion club. Father Wood has written a vocal composition to be sung for the first time at this concert. All the proceeds will go to the fund. The certainty of a most successful concert is already assured.

ATTRACT TOURISTS ON SOCIABILITY PLANS

Development Association Outlines Campaign for Enjoyment of Easterners

The winter campaign of the Victoria and Island Development Association, insofar as it relates to the visitors from the prairie provinces, is this winter to be conducted on the sociability plan. It is the determination of Commissioner Cuthbert after having heard the views of several former residents of the Northwest who now are residing here, to make Victoria the jolliest winter holiday resort of Canada.

The first step towards the desired end will be the registration at the Victoria and Island Development office of every former prairie resident who now is in Victoria. This costs nothing, the commissioner explains, but is a link in the chain of publicity and winter good cheer he is providing. Those who register will be asked to give the names of all the friends they had in the towns they formerly lived in back east, and to these will be sent by the association the attractive literature on Victoria got up by the Development association.

With the attractiveness of Victoria before them through the mails in a personal appeal from the commissioner, it is believed that there will be many who will prefer the equitable climate of the coast to the bitter cold of the prairies for a month or two during the winter, and once they arrive here Commissioner Cuthbert says his work of advertising Victoria will only have begun. It is the intention to give these people such a good time that they will be loth to go, but when they do they will all be missionaries for Victoria and their praise of the farthest west city will be such that the influx for the following winter will be double.

Mr. Cuthbert intends to open the Development association offices as a kind of prairie men's and women's club during the winter. It will be open to all old prairie men residing here, and will enable them to meet all visitors from the prairie for appointments and business meetings.

With the aid of the prairie people living here, Commissioner Cuthbert plans a prairie amusement campaign for the winter, consisting of dances and card parties, at which the visiting people can at small cost to them as holiday-makers have a jolly time instead of sitting round hotels. Subscription dances and card parties under the auspices of the Development association for prairie people, the commissioner thinks will prove a big draw.

The plan as proposed by the commissioner has been considered by him with several men from the east, who assert that it can be made very attractive. They believe that Victoria would gain immense popularity after the first winter, and would benefit greatly in the tourist business.

CITY TAX SALE

Proceedings to be Resumed To-morrow: Some Civic Business This Week.

The city tax sale will be renewed to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock, when the balance of the lots which have not hitherto been offered will be placed on sale, and the city treasurer hopes there will be a larger attendance than has attended on the two previous occasions. Some of the best of the property is yet to be sold.

At the council meeting in the evening several matters will come under consideration. The monthly report of the fair weights officer will be ready for the council's attention.

The tax notices are expected to be issued by the middle of this month, giving six weeks in which owners and agents may take advantage of the rebate. No one seems prepared to venture an estimate as to what percentage of the taxes will be paid, and that of course is the determining factor in any further work which may be undertaken.

The first meeting of the joint committee in regard to the beaches is also set for Friday afternoon.

FIFTH REGIMENT BAND

Successful Concert Given Last Evening Before Very Large Audience at Royal Victoria.

There was a very large audience in the Royal Victoria theatre last evening at the Fifth Regiment band concert, there being fully fifteen hundred people in the building. The concert was one of the best the band has given from an artistic point of view, as well as from the point of attendance and liberality of friends of the band and the public.

In the absence of Mrs. R. H. Pooley, prevented from being there by illness, Mrs. William Grant kindly sang on short notice. She gave an excellent rendering of "One Fleeting Hour," and was heartily enjoyed. Jack Lea sang "When You Come Home" in fine voice and he also was recalled and responded.

The concert was opened with the Russian national anthem, following the custom Bandmaster Smith has adopted of playing the anthems of the allied nations Sunday by Sunday. The audience rose to their feet as the strains of the dignified composition rang out.

Brabant's grand aria, "Death of Nelson," was splendidly played, with solo by Bandsman Raine, and to a well-deserved encore the band gave "Canada for Empire," by Mrs. Bridgewater and Mrs. Lewis. Marked ability on the clarinet was displayed by Corporal Willis, of the band, who rendered for the first time here a humorous fantasia on an old English round, "Three Blind Mice." The music is exceedingly tuneful, and the number was one of the Indian Sent to Jail.—Cockshutt Harry is one of the bad Indians of the Squirrel Cove reservation, and although a man of over seventy he has been giving the authorities quite a lot of trouble. He keeps a number of vicious dogs, and has been making a habit of driving the deer out of the woods into the water, where he either kills them or lets them drown. If a settler kills a deer for food he has been in the habit of taking half of it if he was able to build up or secure the deer, and he has been terrorizing the community for so long that Game Warden Dawley and Hollis got after him the other day. He put up a stiff fight and nearly drowned both the wardens, and drew a knife on them before they secured him. He was taken before Magistrate Pidgeon at Quathlasi Cove, and sent to jail for three months.

Victoria Man President.—At the recent sessions of the British Columbia Sabbath School association held in Wesley church, Vancouver, Noah Shakespeare, of this city, was elected honorary president. The president is Alderman E. C. Mahon, of Vancouver. Other Victoria men elected to office were A. C. Crompton, as secondary division superintendent, H. J. Knott, of Victoria, was elected one of the laymen on the central committee. This gentleman also read the report of the adult classes, and made a call on the members of those classes to render all the assistance in their power to obtaining prohibition. Rev. William Stevenson, also of Victoria, told something of how the war had thrown back Sunday work, and nearly every Sunday school from Michel to Port Alberni had its honor roll.

AT THE THEATRES

ROYAL VICTORIA THEATRE.

An excellent holiday programme has been selected for the Royal Victoria. The feature film will present Miss Bessie Bariscale in "The Mating." The story is one that will appeal to all, and presents many bright ensembles. It also gives Miss Bariscale the opportunity that suits her temperament. She impersonates a school girl of ambition who finds herself socially neglected. In order to raise her status among her associates she writes a letter to herself from an idol of the hour, a football player known as "Bullet Dick Ames." The scheme works to a degree when it becomes known that this fascinating hero is in correspondence with her, and has proposed marriage by letter, but there are sceptics among the girls of a wider social experience, and Bessie is called upon to meet her supposed admirer face to face. The story is well told, and Miss Bariscale cannot fail to hold attention by her interesting personality. In addition to this feature there will also be shown a Weekly, and a good comedy.

PANTAGES THEATRE.

Local amateurs to the number of thirty-two, will present "A Night in the Latin Quarter," a musical comedy by Wilson Macdonald, at Pantages theatre all this week. This evening, on account of the holiday, three performances will be given, the first commencing at 6.15. Some well-known singers will appear in the cast. The big regular vaudeville bill, in addition, include: Six Peaches and a Pair, one of the best girl acts yet seen; Wanzer and Palmer, in "Just Tips"; Norwood and Hall, in "Scams and Nonsense"; Van Der Koog, quick illusionist, featuring "Phenix"; the mind-reading duck, and Countess Von Derrum, Belgian rightingale and celebrated harpist.

DOMINION THEATRE.

Of all the great dramatic successes of Frances Hodgson Burnett, "Esmeralda" is the most tender and lovable characterization ever created by this gifted authoress. As "Esmeralda" in the four-part photoplay based on this great stage success, produced by the Famous Players Film Co. for Paramount Pictures, Mary Pickford renders one of the most touching screen impersonations of the year.

This great photoplay attraction will be the main feature at the Dominion theatre beginning to-day.

The strong attachment for home, "be it ever so humble," which this appealing drama extols, the simple but great love which it unfolds, and its dominant human note, have made its success on the stage endure for two generations. As a photoplay, "Esmeralda" is a faithful presentation of the beautiful and noble sentiments of the beloved play, in which Mary Pickford, assisted by an unusually strong supporting cast, attains another remarkable triumph. She has made the character of "Esmeralda" live with the starting humanness of which she alone is capable. The earnestness of Miss Pickford's impersonation, the depth of emotion with which she enacts her role, will make this one of her greatest character-creations, more than deserving to rank with her "Tess of the Storm Country," "The Dawn of a Tomorrow" (written by the author of "Esmeralda") and "Rags." The story is developed in a very charming manner, yet with increasing interest—growing stronger and stronger as it approaches the rather unexpected climax when Esmeralda is confronted by the sweetheart she has been made to believe, by her mother, to be dead, so that she can gratify her mother's social ambitions by marrying a poverty-stricken nobleman.

Rev. Dr. Hogg and Miss Anna Hogg, Winnipeg, have been visiting K. S. Hogg in Summerland, and are at present visiting another son and brother, R. J. Hogg, at Peachland, after which they will come on to Victoria.

A. O. Wheeler, who has been engaged on geological survey work in the mountains for some time past, has arrived at Banff but will not return home to Sidney for some time yet, as duties in connection with his summer's work will keep him there for a month or so yet.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hill, of Montreal, arrived in the city from the mainland this morning. Mr. Hill, who is a leading figure in the Pacific Coast Coal & Coke Company, was in the city for a considerable time after the South Wellington accident, and has now returned to the coast on business. Mr. Hill is well-known in connection with the Hillcrest collieries, Alberta.

NEW AUTO RECORD FALLS TO ANDERSON

New York, Oct. 11.—Gil Anderson in a Stutz car Saturday won the Astor cup race, making the 30 miles in 2 hours 24 minutes and 42 seconds, an average of 102.90. It was a world's record-breaking performance and set a crowd of nearly a hundred thousand wild with excitement. Rooney, in a Stutz, was second, close behind Anderson. His time was 3:25:29, an average of 102.19. Both of these times were official. Eddie O'Donnell, driving a Duesenberg, was third. His time was 3:39:55, an average of 97.64. Anderson and Rooney broke the world's record of 3:25:38, made in Chicago. Bob Burman was fourth out of the race a few miles from the finish by engine trouble.

NINTH INNING RALLY BEAT ALEX. BOSTON TAKES LEAD IN BIG SERIES

Red Sox Look Sure Winners as Result of To-day's Victory; Score 2 to 1

Braves Field, Boston, Oct. 11.—Bill Carrigan's Red Sox took the lead in the world's series this afternoon when they defeated the mighty Alexander in the third game of the series, the final score being 2 to 1. Leonard, Boston's southpaw, held the Phillies helpless, while brilliant support by his teammates nipped several Philadelphia rallies in the bud. The great Alexander was glorious in defeat, holding the American league champions to six hits and two runs. The final tally came in the ninth, Duffy Lewis' timely single driving Hooper back with the winning run. The fourth game will be played at Boston to-morrow, the teams shifting to Philadelphia on Wednesday for the fifth contest.

Boston, Oct. 11.—The Philadelphia Nationals and the Boston Americans, who meet to-day at the Braves Field in the third game of the world's series, had as a setting for their game a vast crowd, which should be greatest in point of attendance in the annals of baseball. The players had changed from the smallest park in the majors to the largest in the country. The Braves Field will be the scene of action for the next two games. This is expected to be a record-breaker. To date the attendance is behind that of last year.

The probable line-up is the same as previous games except the change in batteries. To-day's crowd began forming at the gates last evening. Some improvised boards, newspaper, overcoat or chairs went to sleep on the threshold of the park. Most of those who waited sought seats in the third base bleachers. There were 10,000 of these at a dollar each.

First Inning. Philadelphia—Stock got into the hit column on Saturday. Speaker and Cravath got into the hit column on Saturday. It was Foster's timely hitting that finally capped that win.

The Phillies' pitchers have been remarkably successful in keeping the hits scattered on the Red Sox. Burns' error really paved the way to the Red Sox win.

Hendrickson again failed as a pinch hitter for Carrigan's clan. If Boston can beat Alexander to-day they will take the edge on the series.

Moran may decide to give Rixey a chance against the Boston sluggers. Christy Mathewson says the Phillies' hope lies with Alexander.

Remarkable pitching in the pinches has been the feature of the series to date.

Record crowds are expected when the teams clash at Boston.

The National leaguers will be right at home on the Braves' park.

Chicago Americans will likely capture the Windy City title.

Wonder what chance the Federals would have against either the Phillies or Red Sox.

Milton Stock has been putting up a wonderfully strong defensive game for the Phillies.

President Wilson had a lot of nerve to be late and hold up Saturday's game.

RUGBY LEAGUE TO MEET. A meeting of the Victoria Rugby union will be held to-morrow night at the Y. M. C. A., when plans will be made for the approaching season.

Western Scots will have two teams, while the 5th Regiment and 88th Fusiliers will also enter teams. Unless some of the city clubs come forward, a purely regimental section will be formed.

Fielding averages just issued show that Tacoma, which finished second to the Seattle pennant winners in the last week of the season, showed the way to all rivals who finished the league season in team fielding, and that she had to share the season's honors with the Victoria club, dropped from the circuit August 1. Spokane led the league in team fielding for a great part of the season, but slumped miserably toward the close and dropped to fifth place in the final standing.

Among the records of unusual merit during the year just concluded, the first base play of George Kelly and the third base play of Frank Gulgn stand out conspicuously. Kelly made only seven errors in over 1,000 chances at first base for a final average of .993. The tall boy is now wearing the uniform of the New York Giants.

Gulgn retained his 1914 honors as king of third sackers, and, singularly enough, finished with identical the same average, .993, as he did in 1914. He handled 37 out of 383 chances this year, and 419 out of 427 last.

Johnson, of Tacoma, was the smoothest fielding outfielder. Taking them by their respective positions, the all-star outfield, on the basis of fielding stops, would be Johnson, left; Kippert, centre, and Barth, right.

"Dutch" Hoffman, of the Tacoma club, led the catchers, but Walter Cadman had a great year behind the bat, accepting more games than any other man in the circuit. He had 223 assists, which was about 50 per cent more than any other Northwestern league catcher.

Of the pitchers who finished the season, Izzy Kaufman was best in fielding his position. Pat Callahan and McKeeny, who went to Cincinnati before the season ended, were each among the leaders.

ander going to third. On the throw-in Bancroft went to second. Barry took Paskert's fly while running towards right field, a wonderful catch. Cravath sent a long fly to Lewis, who took the ball after a long run toward the left field fence. One run, 2 hits, 1 error.

Boston—Barry flew to Paskert. Carrigan walked. Whitted dropped Leonard's ball after a long run. It was not an error. Leonard fanned. Hooper popped out to Stock. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning. Philadelphia—Luderus struck out. Whitted fled out to Hooper. Niehoff sent up a high one to Scott. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Scott flied to Paskert. Speaker shot a long hit down to right field for a three-bagger. Speaker scored on Holtzner's sacrifice fly to Paskert. Lewis up. Lewis flied out to Paskert. One run, 1 hit, no errors.

Fifth Inning. Philadelphia—Leonard threw out Burns at first. Leonard threw out Alexander at first. Stock flied out to Hooper, who made a pretty running catch of a Texas leaguer. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Gardner's high fly was taken by Paskert. It was Paskert's sixth putout. Whitted took Barry's long line fly. Carrigan out on a short fly to Paskert. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning. Philadelphia—Carrigan took Bancroft's high fly down near the pitcher's box. Barry tossed out Paskert at first. Gardner took Cravath's grounder and threw him out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Leonard fanned for the second time. Luderus took Hooper's hopper and tossed to Alexander and the batter was out on a close play. Scott fouled out to Burns. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning. Philadelphia—Luderus whiffed for the third time. Whitted was out at first. Scott to Holtzner. Niehoff was a strikeout victim, going out on three pitched balls. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Speaker got a single to left. Holtzner hit in front of the plate. Burns took the ball and threw to Bancroft and Speaker was forced. Bancroft then threw to Luderus and Holtzner was out. Lewis got an infield single. Cravath took Gardner's fly. No runs, 2 hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning. Philadelphia—Burns flied out to Speaker. Alexander carved the air and was out on strikes. Stock shot a liner right into Speaker's hands. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Barry flied out to Bancroft. Carrigan struck out. Leonard flied to Bancroft. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning. Philadelphia—Burns singled over Gardner's head. Alexander was roudly cheered by the crowd. Gardner took Alexander's bunt and threw to Holtzner, who dropped the ball. Burns went to second. Stock sacrificed Gardner to Barry. Burns going to third and Alexander to second. Burns scored when Bancroft singled to centre. Alex-

B. C. A. A. U. TO MEET. President Geo. Nicholson, of the B. C. A. A. U., announced, this morning that the annual meeting of this body will be held on Thursday night. One of the important questions to come before the meeting will be the mingling of amateurs and professionals in the naval and military contests. The head of the local union favors abolition of all restrictions when an athlete is enlisted.

SEATTLE PUNCH BOWL. Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 11.—Shaughnessy Heights Golf club came into possession of the Seattle punch bowl, emblematic of the club championship of the Northwest, when its representatives defeated the representatives of the Vancouver Golf and Country club, the Jericho club of Vancouver and the Seattle Golf and Country club. The competition was eight-men team match play against Bogey, which is 77 on the Shaughnessy course, and the scores were: Shaughnessy, 144 down; Vancouver, 177 down; Seattle, 133 down and Jericho, 135 down.

EASTERN RUGBY. Montreal, Oct. 11.—The Rugby football season opened in the east yesterday, when the Big Four got under way, and Ottawa journeyed to Montreal and beat the locals 18 to 2. Hamilton Tigers won from the Argonauts at Toronto by a score of 22 to 9. Both victories were of the decisive kind and already it would seem the two winners to-day were the pick of the league and that the race for the title this year will rest between them.

VICTORIA MAGNATE CARRIES PETITIONS

Annual Meeting of P. C. H. A. Will Be Held at Vancouver To-morrow

Lester Patrick will carry over with him to Vancouver to-day a number of petitions for the operation of the Victoria franchise in the P. C. H. A. this season. The Victoria magnate expects to present a pretty strong case over, and he is enthusiastic over his chances of keeping the club here this winter. He says that the fans have responded nobly to the call, and he expects that with a reorganized team he can again whip up enough interest to make the team pay its own way. The whole question will be settled at to-morrow's meeting of the league, at which the name of the new league president will also be made known, while the choice of a Seattle manager will be handed out to the newspapers.

Montreal, Oct. 11.—Goldie Rodgers, arriving here yesterday from London, Ont., brings along the story that "Joe" Hall, the one-time Bad Man of Hockey, may not come east this year. Hall has been in harness for a score of years, and is said to be getting tired of the game.

Rodgers belongs to Quebec, and has signed a contract, but doesn't know where he will play this winter.

Gordie Roberts is another player to drift back to the city. The star Wanderer's winger, who spent the summer in New York, has resumed his studies at McGill.

The report sent abroad some time ago by letter from France that Sergt. Pete Charlton, the well-known Ontario hockey player, had been killed is unfounded. Pete denies the story himself in a letter received Saturday by his mother in Toronto. He is alive, well and fighting.

It is not at all certain that Victoria will exercise its franchise, and it is possible that Seattle, Portland and Vancouver will constitute the circuit. There are a lot of people in the British Columbia capital who believe that professional sport should be abandoned for the period of the war, while there are others who can see no reason why the public should be deprived of its usual pleasures because a war is in progress. Manager Lester Patrick, of the Victoria team, has his finger on the pulse of public opinion in Victoria, and will be ready to announce whether or not the team will be organized for the season by the time of the meeting on Tuesday. He will be guided entirely by the preponderance of public opinion in the matter, but just now it may be said that the outlook for hockey in Victoria is not bright.

Should Victoria drop out, a big load of work would be lifted from Frank Patrick's shoulders. The Victoria team would be available for service in Seattle, and there would be no necessity for further team organization which might have the effect of weakening the other clubs as a nucleus around which to build a Seattle team; and the filling of the gaps created by the inclusion of new blood.

SURPRISES FEATURE SOCCER OPENING WESTERN SCOTS AND THISTLES WON

West's Unable to Beat Strong Defence of 67th; Last Year's Champions Beaten at Beacon Hill

SATURDAY'S SOCCER. Senior League. Western Scots, 1; West's, 0. Thistles, 3; Jacksons, 1. Fifth Regiment vs. 8th Fusiliers, postponed. Junior League. Y. M. C. A., 4; Oak Bay H. S., 0. Exhibition. R. N. C. V. R., 3; Ordnance, 0.

Two unlooked for wins featured the opening of the Victoria Football association on Saturday, when the West's went down to defeat at the hands of the Western Scots, while the Thistles won from last year's champions, the Sir John Jackson club. Both contests proved productive of high-class soccer, and while it was necessary to postpone the 5th Regiment-88th Fusiliers' contest, this match will be played off on Wednesday, to allow the regular schedule to be continued this week.

Palying, before a crowd of over a thousand soldiers, and with Lieut.-Col. Lorne Ross an interested spectator, the Western Scots defeated Victoria West's in a very close match, the final score being 1 to 0. The solitary goal that the Scots scored was headed in by Pte. Dunge after a combined rush in the first half. It was the only score of the contest, which was featured by fine defensive work by both clubs. The Scottish presented a very effective line-up and the splendid condition of the soldiers told against the lone rushes of the West's. The game was a distinct surprise, and proves that the 67th will be a big factor in the championship.

Lieut. Stan Okell and Lieut. Ben McDiarmid, of the Scottish, former members of the Victoria West's, played great defensive soccer, while Riley in the net was a tough customer to beat. The forwards lacked combination, and it was only their continued forcing that penetrated the West's' defence. Whyte and Shakespeare played fine soccer for the West's, while Cyril Baker was the pick of the forwards. The teams: Western Scots—Riley, Ord and Cunningham; Okell, McDiarmid and Sherman, Paterson, Fenton, Allan, Dagg and Preston. Victoria West's—Robertson, Whyte and Shakespeare, Jackson and Stewart, McLeod, Sheratt, Youson and Baker. Referee—Elliott.

Thistles Won. With a distinctly better defence and pack of good shooting forwards, the Thistles took a fall out of the Sir John Jackson team Saturday at Beacon Hill, by the score of 3-1. The score does not indicate the play, as the Albert Road invaders had, equally as much of the same as did the Thistles, but their defence could not shake off the winners' attacks.

About fifteen minutes after the start of the game the Thistles netted the first goal of the game. Howden made a pretty run down the right wing and centred to Philmore, who bagged the net. This was the line tally the first half. With the wind in their favor the second half, the Scots worked hard to increase their lead. Another splendid run by Howden down the right wing after about fifteen minutes had elapsed resulted in a second goal for the Scots, Howden centring neatly to Philmore, who slipped the ball past Loomis, Johnny Cummins, a graduate from the intermediate division, playing inside right for the Thistles, scored the third goal which was the prettiest shot of the day, Loomis having no chance to save.

During the last few minutes of play the Jacksons opened a series of attacks on the Thistles' line of defence, but could not get the ball past Leeming. Finally an individual rush by centre-forward Green gave the Jacksons their only goal. He took the ball through the entire Scottish line and beat Leeming with a hard shot, just a few minutes before Referee Allen sounded the final whistle.

In point of material both teams looked good. The four graduates from the intermediate ranks on the Thistle lineup, Messrs. Cummins, Lea, Eflcken and Leeming, showed up well. Borland, the new back, was good, while the veterans, Jimmy Adam, Archie Muir and Everett Taylor, were their old-time form. For the Jacksons, Grant, a new addition to the team looks a corner, while Sheriff, Tomcliffe and Niven shape up well. The teams: Jacksons—Lomas, Sheriff and Tomcliffe, Niven, Blendall and Allen, Douglas, Nichol, Green, Grant and A. Kerley. Thistles—Leeming, Borland and Taylor, Muir, Adam and Brown, Howden, Cummins, Philmore, Lea and Erickson. Referee—J. R. Allen.

MAY NOT BE ABLE TO SALVE THE CALCHAS

Blue Funnel Liner is Exposed to Sweep of Strait; Salvage Work Proceeds

Salvage work on the stranded Blue Funnel liner Calchas, Capt. Jones, is proceeding, but opinion is divided as to whether the great craft can be floated. The place where she is pinned is surrounded by rocks and ledges, and the water being shallow, some claim that in case she can be floated it will be almost impossible for her to find a way to deep water without again meeting with a mishap.

Early yesterday morning the work of salving the Calchas was commenced. The United States life-saving tug Snohomish is lending a hand. She ran out a number of keg anchors to the stern of the Calchas to prevent her from swinging with the tides. Divers have surveyed the bottom and find that the damage is not quite as extensive as was at first announced. One big hole was punctured in her starboard side, about 10 feet from the bow. Several plates were sprung loose, and both 1 and No. 2 holds are flooded, which makes the discharge of freight difficult.

At the time of the accident the Calchas was steaming slowly through a dense fog. She lost her way and got about one mile off her course, with the result that she fetched up on the rocks about 1 1/2 miles off the Point Wilson light station, where she is exposed to the straight sweep of the strait. As soon as the vessel struck she began to take water forward, settling quite rapidly. She went on the rock at 9:40 a. m. As the tide started to come in it swung the big vessel completely around, so that her bow is now pointing west. At high tide last evening she was nearly submerged forward, while her stern was high.

Two big lighters were sent to the scene of the wreck on Saturday evening and the United States coast guard steamer Arcata stood by.

The Calchas had but little freight in hold No. 1. In hold No. 2 she has some tons of canned salmon loaded at Victoria and Vancouver. These two holds are partially filled with water. Capt. Jones states that while several miles distant from Point Wilson he could plainly hear the fog signal, but as the wind shifted to the west, he was unable to pick up the sound until it was too late to change his course. Pilots and shipmasters say that there is an area of water near Point Wilson where the fog signal can be heard only under the most favorable conditions.

The position of the Calchas is a short distance from where the steamer Unatilla struck in September, 1896, remaining pinned to the rocks for nearly a week.

Carried Local Freight.

The Calchas was at Victoria on Oct. 1 and 2 and she loaded 500 tons of box shoes and 7,000 cases of salmon. She went to Vancouver and loaded considerable additional freight and at Union Bay took on about 1,500 tons of bunker coal. All this freight is to be lightered.

This is the first accident the Blue Funnel line has had on this coast.

BAD SEA WILL MAKE OTTER TOTAL LOSS

Steamer Rests on Dot Rock Almost on Her Port Deck; in Nasty Position

VESSEL WAS FOUR MILES OFF HER COURSE IN FOG

Princess Maquinna and Quadra Tried to Float Vessel; but Failed

There appears little hope of saving the C. P. R. steamer Otter, which ran aground on Dot Rock, off Sidney Island, early on Saturday morning during a dense fog. Officials of the B. C. Coast Service announced this morning that it was one of those doubtful cases. If the threatening southeast gale springs up the Otter will be in pieces.

Following the unsuccessful attempt of the steamer Princess Maquinna and the light-house tender Quadra to release the stranded craft at high water on Saturday afternoon, the Otter turned almost completely over and now rests practically on her port deck and shows only four feet of her hull at high water. It is feared that her masts have been snapped off, and that her engines and boilers have shifted from their beds.

Cannot Explain Mishap.

So far no satisfactory explanation can be offered of the accident. The Otter was four miles off her course. The weather was thick. At the time she should have been off Klett Bluff, she was four miles to the westward. How she managed to get in there and escape the mass of reef which lie to the southward of Darby Island is a mystery.

On Saturday morning the Princess Maquinna left port to try to pull the Otter from her bed. The Quadra was summoned by wireless to proceed to the scene. In the afternoon a survey of the ship was made. She was found to be held just forward of amidships, with a slight list to port. There was a lot of water in her hull. Stout hawsers were run to her from both the Maquinna and Quadra and the tug tried desperately to float her. All efforts failed, as the hawsers were torn out of the Otter and the lines snapped.

As the tide dropped during the night the Otter settled by the stern. When the tide flooded again she refused to rise and she filled with water. Then she started to fall over to port, until now she rests almost on her port deck.

If a bad southeaster strikes the steamer she will pound into a hopeless wreck in a few hours, and it will be necessary to declare her a total loss.

A Staunch Craft.

The Otter is a staunch craft and was built in 1909 by the Canadian Pacific Navigation company at the Starr yards in the upper harbor. She has a length of 128 feet, a beam of 24 1/2 feet, and draws 11 feet of water. She is a freighter and at the time of the accident was bound from this port to Point Island to help the Salvor float the stranded steamer Mariposa.

ORIENTALS WAGE BAD SCRAP ON MINNESOTA

Japanese and Chinese Had Grand Melee on Main Deck; Many Injured

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 11.—Trouble that had been brewing between the Chinese and Japanese members of the crew of the Great Northern liner Minnesota all the way across the Pacific burst forth into flame yesterday when more than 200 of the Oriental aligned themselves racially and engaged in a furious free-for-all battle on the main-deck of the vessel at the Smith cove dock. Scores of the combatants on both sides were severely cut and bruised, and one Chinese was seriously scalded by hot water. Probable fatalities were prevented by the timely arrival of immigration officers, reinforced by a large squad of city policemen.

The trouble yesterday started suddenly. In less than a minute the deck was swarming with a writhing, struggling jumble of yellow and brown men. Apparently the battle was not prearranged, for the men fought with whatever came to hand. Picks, shovels, bottles, anything that was lying loose became missiles and were hurled back and forth with savage abandon by the battling parties.

Police Called.

A large squad of police hastened to the scene. The presence of the police allayed the trouble and within a short time peace had been restored. In view of further outbreaks several policemen were stationed at the dock throughout the night.

After the arrival of the police and after the trouble had subsided Chief Officer Crosby ordered the Chinese and Japanese segregated. There are about 150 Chinese and 106 Japanese members of the crew.

With the assistance of the police the segregation was accomplished. The Chinese are now quartered in the aft part of the vessel and the Japanese in the fore. A "head line" has been established and the Chinese and Japanese must now stay on their respective sides of the vessel under penalty of punishment.

MARIPOSA MAY SLIP OFF LEDGE AND SINK

Alaska Steamer is in Dangerous Position at Present; Salvor at Scene

Whether the stranded steamer Mariposa will be able to retain her grip on the rocky ledge or whether she will be lifted from it by the action of the tide is a question which shipping men are discussing. She has given signs of toppling over, and at present has a very dangerous list.

Mariners who have passed the scene of the stranding say that the Mariposa is ashore on a rocky ledge half a mile south of Napier Point, and about one mile south of Bella Bella, and not on Pointer Island, as at first reported.

When one of the passing ships sighted the Mariposa she was resting easily, and the port holes on the starboard side were visible, but as those on board watched the wreck the vessel listed suddenly, the water going over the decks. A work boat and some fittings on deck were carried away as she settled, and they thought that she would topple over.

Everything is Full.

The latest reports state that all of her holds, the saloon, staterooms, engine-rooms and observation and ladies' parlors are full of water. Capt. O'Brien made lines fast from the steamer's deck to the shore to keep her from slipping off the ledge into deep water. The salvage steamer Salvor, with Capt. W. H. Logan, special representative of the Salvage Association, of London, reached the Mariposa and a survey of the hull was immediately executed.

Survivors Arrive.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 11.—When the Mariposa struck she hit with a crash that brought everyone on deck. It sounded as though the bottom was coming through the deck. Then she began to list and half-hour later the passengers were able to step off the rail directly into the life boats. R. K. Willis, second engineer of the vessel was telling of the striking of the crack Alaska Steamship Company's vessel. With twelve other members of the crew, including the pilots and the engineer staff, Willis arrived in Seattle on Saturday.

The remarkable thing, according to Willis, was the lack of fear among the passengers, forty of whom were women, and the calm way in which they mastered the situation. "The passengers had time to dress and save all of their hand baggage before the water flooded their rooms," said Mr. Willis yesterday. "Then they stepped from the rail into the small boats and were towed to shore, about 100 feet away. Here they watched the slowly sinking Mariposa until the Despatch, of the Border Line, and the fishing schooner Starr arrived on the scene three hours later. The passengers went north on the Despatch and many of the crew south on the Starr. The captain, chief engineer, freight clerk and sailors are standing by.

"When the tide came in the Mariposa cased off the rocks a bit and slid into deeper water until now she is hanging by the bows. She struck hard and I think is badly damaged."

ALASKA DOGS ON WAY TO PLAY PART IN WAR

One Hundred and Six Malamutes Reach Seattle From Nome; Bought by French

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 11.—War's mailed fist has reached far across Europe, across the Atlantic ocean, across the continent of America and into the far north of the wide territory of Alaska—to find new food for the guns. This time it is dogs, 106 of Alaska's finest, that have been drawn into the battle zone in France.

The steaming Senator brought the animals on Saturday from Nome. Included among them are dogs that have been the pride of Alaska for years, twice winners of the all-Alaska sweepstakes. They are known as the Allan-Darling team.

Sons of the wolf, their forefathers were bred by the Russian priests at the mouth of the Yukon and by the natives of Siberia, in an endeavor to produce a breed fitted to match the fury of polar storms and the wild desolation of the ice fields that stretch in desert waste to the end of the earth.

Life with them has been one grand battle, in which none but the strongest survive. They are cruel and cunning, strong and fleet of foot, rugged of build and shaggy of coat, well mated to the country which bore them and well mated to the country they will go to, for they are to be used in the Alpine service, dragging supplies over snows, tugging machine guns into fortresses that command the passes, dying beside their masters as is the tradition of the breed.

The Allan-Darling team has been the boast of Alaska. On the fleetness of their feet in the 412-mile sweepstakes, thousands have been wagered. Persons of title and distinction have visited their kennels and admired the famous racers.

Bought by France.

Lieut. R. R. Haas, of the French army, went to Nome to buy the dogs. They were the property of "Scotty" Allan, of Nome, and Mrs. C. E. Darling, of Berkeley, California. "Scotty" Allan accompanies the dogs. Lieut. Haas left the firing line to go after these Alaskan racers. He is to be promoted to a captaincy on his return to the colors.

The dogs for the most part are malamutes. On Saturday night they were loaded aboard the steamer Princess Charlotte and taken to Vancouver, from where they will proceed to Quebec and then to France. Harness for every dog and six sleds are being taken along.

The dogs are valued all the way from $25 to $100 apiece.

"Scotty" Allan, the hero of many a race in the Alaska sweepstakes, left with the dogs and will go as far as Quebec. He will then return, to spend the winter with his family in California. Allan, upon Lieut. Haas' request, obtained the 106 dogs in twenty-four hours in and about Nome.

Don't Let Your Truss Make Operation Necessary

Operation for rupture would hardly ever be heard of, if it weren't for the mischief done by elastic and spring trusses. Mighty few people ever have to be operated on when FIRST ruptured. But wearing makeshift trusses year after year is sooner or later almost sure to make work for the surgeon. You know that from your own experience—you know you're worse now than a year ago—probably getting worse all the time. If you keep on that way, how long will it be before you'll have to undergo a dangerous and expensive operation? Aren't you willing to let us prove—by a sixty-day demonstration—how you can save yourself from all that? Especially when you can make this sixty-day test without having to risk a penny? 60 Days' Trial To Prove How Good It is. Here is something—a GUARANTEED rupture holder—which has saved thousands of people from ever having to be operated on. It has so thoroughly proved its merits that we are willing to SEND IT ON 60 DAYS' TRIAL. We'll make it especially for your case—make it to your measure—and practically LEND IT TO YOU just for a test. If it doesn't keep your rupture from coming out or from bothering you in any way, then you can send it back and it won't cost you a single penny. Don't Send Any Money. Simply write for our free book—that will tell you everything you want to know. It shows how our guaranteed rupture holder is made on an absolutely NEW PRINCIPLE—How it INSTANTLY and AUTOMATICALLY PREVENTS YOU AGAINST EVERY STRAIN so your rupture can't possibly be forced out. And how in ADDITION it provides the ONLY WAY EVER DISCOVERED FOR OVERCOMING THE WEAKNESS which is the real CAUSE of rupture. The book tells how our guaranteed rupture holder—the famous Cluette Automatic Messing Truss—has so beneficially benefited physicians in all parts of America, now

Mr. Albert Chevalier tells a good story about his early days on tour. After appearing one night at a small provincial hall, he told the manager that he did not expect to get such a cordial reception as the audience had given him. "What makes you say that?" said the manager. "I did not notice it." "Didn't you hear them banging their walking-sticks and umbrellas on the floor?" asked Chevalier. "That wasn't applause," replied the manager. "The post office is in the floor above us, and they were stamping letters for the mail!"

BELIEVE THEY HAVE SEEN A ROARING LION

Residents of Outskirts Tell of Seeing Monstrous Beast Prowling About District

The residents of Cloverdale, Maywood, Esquimalt and the districts thereabout have been greatly perturbed for days because of the existence in their midst of some marauding animal—a lion, most of those who have seen it believe it to be. Others have it a panther, and some who have suffered the loss of property get it down to wild dogs.

The bulk of the animal which has been seen suggests to many the monarch of the desert and jungle; but as no report has been received by the Saanich police of any escape from the lion's maw in the district it is not likely that the apparition is a lion.

One of the Esquimalt residents who have seen something is Dr. Book, at whose motor car it is rumored to have sprung the other night. Mentioning the matter to the chief of the Esquimalt police, Chief Palmer, however, Dr. Book reduced the story to the passage across the road in front of his car of a dark shadow which suggested itself to him as a panther. At this time of the year the wild things are in the habit of forsaking their lairs, driven out by the tramping of hikers through the woodland paths, and they have learned to seek the bush in Saanich and Esquimalt, where experience has taught them they are safe from molestation or disturbance.

Several sheep, perhaps thirty in all, have been destroyed in the meadows of Lock Brothers, the Esquimalt butchers, in the course of the last week or so; but the belief of the owners is that dogs are to blame in this case. There are always some dogs more or less wild prowling about that part of the district, and nothing worse has been seen by anyone connected with their ranch.

For all that there are many people from Cloverdale across to the Royal Roads who are willing to swear that they have seen a lion at closer quarters than is comfortable, and the panther or dog theory will not convince them that what they have had a glimpse of is not the king of beasts. There is more than one family keeping indoors at night now on that account.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

To find the money we have to keep our exports as high and our imports as low as possible. In the first six months of this year our exports were about 72 millions less than in the same months of last year, and our imports 53 millions more; and this without including the value of government purchases from abroad, which is not made public. It is this great upsetting of the balance which causes the difficulty with the rate of exchange. We rely here it, of course, in proportion as we produce munitions of other war requisites at home instead of importing them; and we are bound to do this on a very large scale both for our own and the allied armies, because no neutrals could supply them all, nor could anybody ship or pay for them, if they did.—London Daily Chronicle.

HUNTER SLIPPED AND FELL FROM CLIFF

Golden, B. C., Oct. 11.—Plunging 400 feet over a cliff on Moberly Peak, L. G. Wyder, of Moberly, was killed instantly on Friday last. Wyder climbed the peak on Thursday while hunting goats, and after killing two, returned to his home. On Friday he climbed the peak to secure his kill and started on the return journey. While endeavoring to pass along an exceptionally dangerous ledge of rock, he slipped and an instant later plunged to the bottom of the canyon. Ole Olberg, an experienced mountain climber, has been detailed by the provincial police to remove the body, which is wedged in a crevasse and difficult to reach.

Wyder leaves a wife and six children, two now being somewhere on the prairies working as harvesters.

GRANADOS EXECUTED IN MEXICAN CAPITAL

Washington, Oct. 11.—Alberta Garcia Granados, minister of the interior in the Huerta cabinet, was executed on Saturday in Mexico City, according to state department advices, charged with complicity in the killing of President Madero.

FELL INTO BAY

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 11.—Lieut. Walter P. Talliaferro, on duty at the army aviation school on North Island, fell into the bay with his aeroplane from a height believed to have been 1,000 feet, and at 11:45 a. m. his body, it was stated, had not been recovered. No one was with him at the time of the flight.

AT THE DARDANELLES

Unless the allies can turn the Balkan situation decidedly in their favor and control the Dardanelles, they will be reduced to the necessity of fighting Germany and Austria on fronts thoroughly organized for defence. The immense moral and material advantages accruing from the control of the Dardanelles, in permitting the quick strengthening of Russia, and in hemming in the central empires, will be lost, and the loss will tell severely in the final stage of the campaign. Having once set their hand to the plow, Britain and France are not likely to turn back from their task on the Gallipoli peninsula, but their ultimate success there, under the peculiarly difficult conditions, depends entirely on the checkmating of any Teutonic attempt to sever the Turks.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

"They come to tell yez, Mrs. Malone, that yer husband met with an accident!" "An' what is it now?" wailed Mrs. Malone. "He was overcome by the heat, mum." "Overcome by the heat, was he? An' how did it happen?" "He fell into the furnace over at the foundry, mum."

BAYONETED MORE THAN 200 IN TRENCHES

Russians Also Captured 456 Germans at Point North of Likhovitchi

Petrograd, Oct. 11.—The war office made public the following communication yesterday:

"In Bukovina, east of Bucacz, the enemy's attack was repulsed by an attack of our cavalry, which, charging like an avalanche, put the enemy to flight and took 150 prisoners.

"A German aeroplane dropped some bombs on the railway station at Nitzhal, north of Dvinsk. In an action near the village of Pochilina we took 150 prisoners and captured some machine guns.

"There was desperate fighting all day yesterday near the villages of Pochilina and Gachoumawa. The battle raged in intensity toward evening. German losses were lost and retaken several times and finally was abandoned by us under the enemy's fire. During one attack on this village we took 250 prisoners and seven machine guns.

"In the district north of Likhovitchi our scouts made a successful night reconnaissance, penetrating into the enemy trenches, where they bayoneted more than 200 Germans and took prisoners three officers and 453 men, they themselves losing only 50."

Nineteen Vessels.

Petrograd, Oct. 11.—Eighteen Turkish food supply ships and one carrying munitions were destroyed by two Russian destroyers off the coast of Anatolia on Thursday last. Official announcement of the fact was made today by the admiralty.

BACELLI WINNER.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 11.—The Pastime stable's Bertini colt Bacelli won the thirty-eighth event of the Kentucky stake for 3-year-old trotters, the chief event of the Grand Circuit card Saturday, after losing the first heat to Colorado Range. Driven by Ben White, Bacelli made good in each mile except the first, and it probably would have been a straight heat race but for White's getting his charge into a pocket in the first round. He led easily in the other two.

The Dinner stakes, a sweepstakes affair, resulted in a straight heat victory for Sunlock, driven by Murphy.

The 2:16 pace, carried over from yesterday, was captured by Peter Worley. Cox drove Earl, jr., to victory in the 2:05 pace. Ames Abingen made a straight heat race of the 2:18 trot.

John Lafon, assistant forester of B. C., is making a tour of the Lillooet forest district, accompanied by Ranger Johnson.

MARATHON CONTEST IN COAST LEAGUE

Oakland Takes Long Game From Los Angeles; American Leaguers Win

Los Angeles, Oct. 11.—After playing 21 innings yesterday, Oakland won the afternoon game from Los Angeles, 3 to 1. The morning game was called because of the time limit at the end of the tenth inning with the score 5 to 5. By using four pinch hitters Los Angeles tied the score in the ninth inning of the first contest. In the afternoon session the Angels led off with one run and were tied by the Oaks in the fourth. In the eleventh inning Hosp doubled, took third on Middleton's infield hit, both scoring when Maggett missed Ness' grounder to centre.

St. Louis, Oct. 11.—"Tim" McCabe, who came to the Terral Americans from the Three League only a few months ago, won the post series city championship by shutting out the local Nationals, 5 to 0, in the second game of a double header. Score:

First game—R. H. E. Nationals 7 1/2 Americans 2 2 1
Batteries—Doak and Snyder; Hamilton, Cook and Severoid.

Second game—R. H. E. Nationals 0 7 0 Americans 5 5 3
(Called in eighth; darkness.)
Batteries—Boardman and Gonzales; McCabe and Agnew.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—The Chicago-American team won the championship of Chicago, against the National league, by taking yesterday's game, 11 to 2. The Americans' standing is four games to one.

The total paid attendance was given as 32,566. Score:

R. H. E. Nationals 3 3 4 Americans 11 12 2
Batteries—Lavender, Pierce, Standridge and Archer; Russell and Schalk.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—By beating the Luxus team of Omaha, 11 to 6, yesterday, the White Autos, of Cleveland, won the amateur baseball championship east of the Pacific coast. The winners are scheduled to play the Tacoma team, champions of the coast, at San Francisco, for the world's title.

BASEBALL SATURDAY'S RESULTS.

WONDERFUL TWIRLING BY YOUNG LEONARD

"Alexander the Great" Out-classed in Big Struggle; "Bone" Plays by Hoblitzel

(By Frank G. Menck.)
Boston, Oct. 11.—Boston 2; Philadelphia 1. Grover Cleveland Alexander got his to-day. He was in "Dutch" against the wonderful delivery of young Leonard of the Red Sox and 50,000 fans went mad when Duffy Lewis' California single brought Harry Hooper home with the bacon in a ninth-inning rally.

"Alexander the Great" got his good. Several times he was in serious trouble, but bonehead plays by Hoblitzel, the Red Sox first-baseman, saved the Philly star more than once. Six hits off Alec's delivery were gathered by the Beantown boys, but the best the Phillies could do was three taps from Dutch Leonard.

In the very first inning Leonard showed his class. Speaker missed a long fly by Scott which went for a double. Bancroft sacrificed. Scott—to third; Leonard settled down and put Paskert away on a foul to Gardner and then he fanned Cravath, the Philly slugger, while thousands of Bostonese went crazy with delight. In the third inning Philadelphia made its lone tally. Alexander was safe when Hoblitzel muffed Gardner's throw and a single by Bancroft brought in Burns, who had opened the inning. A wonderful catch by Lewis saved the day and prevented Alexander scoring from third. That one run was as far as the Phillies got. Tris Speaker did some business in the fourth. Scott had filed out when Speaker laced out his three-bagger, the first in the series. Hoblitzel helped then. He filed to Paskert and Speaker came home.

In the lucky seventh Speaker stung in on the nose for a single but Hoblitzel tried to bunt and flopped into a double play which killed both runners. Lewis singled, but the chance was gone. When the ninth came up for Boston such a storm of noise as never was heard on a ball park before broke loose. Forty thousand three hundred fans turned loose, every conceivable sort of noise. The strains of "Tessie" were unheard, although the bandmen almost split themselves in the din.

Hooper smashed Alexander's first ball right on the nose for a hot single and again the noise roared out. Scott was out but Hooper went to second. Alexander was afraid of Speaker and walked the big batsman. Hoblitzel went out again, while Hooper took third. Then Lewis came to the fore. He cracked it fair for a screaming single and Hooper dashed over the pan, while all Boston in the park simply went mad.

The receipts for the day were $83,191. The players' share will be $44,923.14; the National Commission's share $8,319.10, and each club will receive $14,948.90.

Both attendance and receipts broke all records.

STILL TO APPOINT BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Westminster Has Adopted Suggestion for Jitney Measure Which Might Be Followed

The enforcement of the jitney regulations which have been embodied in a by-law cannot be properly carried out until the appointment of the board of examiners. On this subject there has been considerable discussion in the council, as well as on the necessity for technical representation. Possibly the matter may be settled at the meeting of the city council to-morrow evening.

The New Westminster Jitney by-law, which is to become operative on Friday next, offers a suggestion which might be followed here. The chief of police is appointed the inspector, with power to call in any automobile dealer or expert to give advice on technical matters.

This method of handling the question would remove the objection which has been taken to put the control under the police, who after all are responsible for the administration of by-laws. Judging from the discussion the class of board which is favored is one composed of two city officials and a representative of the automobile industry, or the Island Automobile association. The subject will have to be taken up shortly because the by-law has yet no force, and with the increased number of jineys again plying on the streets, especially as soon as the rain begins to make the surface of the asphalt slippery, thus increasing the danger of accidents, the regulation of the men securing certificates would appear to be of great importance.

IS MUCH DAMAGED

Fire Does Considerable Injury to Unoccupied Resident at Burnside Road.

The unoccupied but furnished residence at 560 Burnside road, belonging to Mrs. J. K. Stewart, was found to be a mass of flames this morning about 4 o'clock, and a personal notification to the Dunedin street hall brought the fire department out.

In spite of the headway which the flames had made, the department managed to save a portion of the building and furniture, though much of the latter was gutted. The loss on building and contents is about $2,000, it is estimated. On account of the holiday, and the closing of business premises, it was impossible to-day to learn the nature of the insurance.

No satisfactory explanation of the cause is forthcoming. It is thought possible that some undesirable had taken advantage of the owner's absence, and had not extinguished their fires on leaving. The residence is of two storeys and of frame construction.

SALE OF YOUNG STOCK

Important Auction to Be Held at Colony Farm; Attractive Catalogue Prepared.

Arrangements are being made by the authorities of the Colony Farm for the holding of an important Auction Sale of pure-bred stock, both cattle and horses, on Thursday, October 14, at 11 a. m. in the arena of the magnificent horse barn at Colony Farm, Essondale, B. C.

The government in this way hopes to extend an opportunity to every stockman of the province to obtain thoroughbred stock for the laying of a good foundation for a first class herd. This great farm was started by Dr. C. E. Doherty some four years ago, and since his departure with the Overseas contingent to France, has been ably carried on by the acting medical superintendent, Dr. J. G. McKay, together with an efficient staff, who have made very careful arrangements so that the forthcoming sale will be an event of importance.

A very attractive catalogue has been prepared by the king's printer, and has just come to hand, showing photographs and extended pedigrees of the various cattle and horses to be disposed of at the sale.

It is understood that some thirty-five head of pure-bred Holstein bulls, will be sold.

There will also be some fine Clydesdale, Shire and Hackney colts. It is also the intention of the authorities to place the Clydesdale stallion, Bowhill Baron, up for sale; their reason being that he has now been used on the farm for the past four years, and new blood is therefore necessary. This magnificent stallion, which is a prize-winner at all the important exhibitions held in Canada, from coast to coast, should prove a very profitable investment for some district requiring such a horse. The same applies to the great black Shire stallion, Tandridge Rambler, also the Hackney stallion, Craigmere Peer. A number of the colts to be disposed of are Colony Farm product from the above stallions, and from such dams as Nerissa, Peggy Pride and Colony Lady Beg, Mosselle, etc., mares which have few equals on the American continent.

The thirty-five head of young bulls are offspring from the great Holstein Friesian dairy herd of the Colony farm, which has proved such prize-winners throughout Canada, and which in 1914, produced ten 199-lb. cows out of some twenty-two head, picked from the entire of Canada. These young bulls are all sired by "Aggie Cornucopia Newman or Korndyke Butter-boy Pride, and out of world record cows of great milking strain. Arrangements have been made for a cold buffet lunch to be served on the grounds.

CHINESE CHARGED WITH SUPPLYING AN INDIAN

Prompt Work on the Part of Dominion Constable O'Connell Results in an Arrest

While Indians are at the wharf awaiting transportation to their reserves, as they were last week, a close watch has to be kept on them that they do not get any liquor, and in this connection the chief danger is from the Chinese, some of whom are always active in supplying whiskey to those who are prohibited from having it.

During last week a fatherly eye was kept on the Indians who were camped along Belleville street by Dominion Constable Thomas O'Connell, Namaimo, and the result was that only two case arose in which he had to be severe with his charges. One was that of an old Klutchman and the other was an old man of the Hesquot tribe, Bascol, whose case was mentioned on Saturday.

As a consequence of prompt action on the part of Mr. O'Connell and his aides among the Indians themselves a Chinese who is alleged to be the man who sold the whiskey on which Bascol became intoxicated was arrested on Saturday afternoon. The Indians, who were concerned with him in the matter and a native constable were sent to Chinatown by O'Connell to look for the culprit, and to the city constable who accompanied them they pointed out Hong Wong as the guilty man.

Hong was placed under arrest, and as a matter of convenience to the Indians, who went out to the west coast on the Princess Maquinna last night, Magistrate Jay held a session of police court late in the afternoon. The prisoner pleaded not guilty, and the evidence of the Indians was taken, after which the magistrate remanded the accused until to-morrow morning for consideration of the testimony.

Bascol, who had been fined $6 on Saturday for being drunk, was the first witness. He told of being down near the wharf in Chinatown with other Indians looking for someone from whom they could buy whiskey, and they met the accused, whom he distinctly identified. Money passed between them and a bottle of whiskey was handed over by the Chinese, which was drunk by them.

Dominick, an Ahousat Indian, was with Bascol at the time and he was instrumental in apprehending the Chinese later on. He said that he gave to the Chinese in the dock, whom they met down near the wharf, half a dollar to get some whiskey, and between Bascol and a Clayquot Indian they clubbed together to make the amount six bits. The prisoner went away and came back in a short time with a flask of whiskey, which he gave to Bascol and the three of them drank it at the wharf. Last year he saw the same Chinese often and he knew that he was trafficking in whiskey.

Constable Varney, one of the deskmen at headquarters, identified the prisoner as having been arrested by Constable Duncan after being brought in by the Indians. Before the Indian Bascol was brought in to identify, Hong Varney noticed that Chinese had placed a piece of white paper over his left eye as if it was cut, apparently for a disguise. The constable made him take this off, and Bascol, when brought in, immediately identified the man.

Peter Jackson, an Indian constable of the Muchalat tribe, described how he had gone into Chinatown with Dominick to look for the man who had sold the whiskey. Hong was pointed out to him and he secured the man until Constable Duncan arrived.

The accused, through the interpreter, denied that he had sold any whiskey this year or last, but he would not go into the box and say this under oath. The court remanded him until to-morrow.

VICTORIA BOY SCOUTS

Annual Meeting Held; Officers Elected; New Troop to Be Formed.

The annual meeting of the Victoria Boy Scouts association was held on Thursday at Christ church schoolroom, the assistant provincial commissioner, Rev. T. R. Henesse, presiding. The association elected the following officers: Chairman, A. D. Muskett; vice-chairman, G. W. Anthony; hon. sec. E. P. Ward; hon. treasurer, Y. Meakin; executive, W. C. Cuningham, G. T. Fox, K. Symons, A. B. Hennell, H. Gilbert, J. Killen, W. H. Wilkerson, A. D. Muskett and G. W. Anthony.

The balance sheet showed to Sept. 30 a credit of $46.50, and a balance of assets over liabilities of $102.32.

Sub-committees were formed to see that the shooting, football and relay race challenge cups be competed for this year. Rules were submitted and adopted governing the Wilkerson shield competition for patrols on Vancouver Island. The shield will be competed for twice yearly in future.

A new troop has been started at the Collegiate school (Victoria Troop, No. 2), with H. F. Greenwood as scoutmaster. The Victoria West troop, No. X, has been re-instated with M. Brinkman as scoutmaster.

An application from Assistant Scoutmaster Godson to form a new troop in connection with the Reformed Episcopal church was granted, provided that Mr. Godson could comply with the requirements as laid down in the rules of the association. A report was read from the district commissioner, Colonel Cunliffe, in which he stated that a total of 111 scouts of all ranks attended the inspection held by H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught on September 17. At the end of the inspection his royal highness said a few words to the boys, expressing the pleasure it had given him to see them, and also most kindly thanked the scoutmasters for the good work they were doing.

Residing in a little village is a lawyer who is famous for drawing wills, in which branch of business he has long enjoyed a monopoly of the country for miles around. A few months since a wealthy man died. There was much speculation as to the value of the property, and the town gossip set about to find out the facts. He hunted up the lawyer and, after a few preliminary remarks about the deceased, he said, rather bluntly: "I suppose you made Brown's will?" "Yes." Then you probably know how much he left. Would you mind telling me?" "Not at all," the lawyer answered, as he resumed his writing. "He left everything he had."

If Tea and Coffee Came in Capsules

as their drug, caffeine, is frequently sold, tea and coffee drinkers would wake up to the fact that tea and coffee are not foods but drugs.

Yet in spite of the warnings of reputable physicians, many persons fail to realize the harmful effects of caffeine, the subtle, habit-forming drug in tea and coffee. Taken regularly this drug—the frequent cause of nervousness, heart-flutter, headache and other ailments—sooner or later gets its hold.

Look tea and coffee in the face—read what physicians and health experts say: (Names on application)

"Some people get the craving for alcohol by first taking tea or coffee."

"Coffee is a dope and narcotic almost equal to opium. Slowly but surely it gets control of its victim and holds him in its grasp a pitiful, helpless victim."

"Coffee is a drug. Those addicted to its use are drug addicts."

"They (the tea and coffee drugs) are comparable to opium in that they induct a habit and should be avoided."

Right now is the time to find out whether or not tea or coffee has a hold on you. It's simple and easy—quit both for ten days and see.

IS INSPECTING THE WESTERN AGENCIES

Col. W. C. Macdonald Gives Some Impressions of Business and of War's Effect

On a tour of inspection of western agencies, Col. William C. Macdonald, managing director of the Confederation Life Assurance Company, arrived in the city yesterday, and is a guest at the Empress hotel. His headquarters are at Toronto.

In speaking of conditions in the west, Col. Macdonald says there is a much more confidence in the prairies than was the case twelve months ago. The people are looking to the proceeds of the harvest to meet their liabilities, and as the crop prospects have been excellent this year, the conditions should be easier than those which prevailed in 1914. The increased production has been stimulated by the demand created by the war. While he says the agricultural development of British Columbia has hitherto been limited, the number of people engaged in soil cultivation is increasing, and the acreage is greater than in past years, as people are beginning to realize that the land is the best asset, contributing to the general building up of the country.

"It is inevitable," he points out, "that cities on the coast which have their shipping tied up largely by the war, and the export trade in lumber handicapped by the shortage of tonnage, should feel the depression, and that their citizens should return to the land. As the Confederation Life has several million dollars invested in realty in the west, we are naturally as anxious as any one to see the financial conditions of the country return to a normal state of business. The lowering of realty values will not be permanent, and there must be a uniform rise eventually."

As a militia officer of many years' standing, Col. Macdonald, who was the first commanding officer of the 48th Highlanders, Toronto, is naturally greatly interested in Canada's place in the war.

"As one who has been particularly associated with patriotic aid efforts," he said, "I am confident we shall have to make much greater sacrifices than have hitherto been demanded of us. There are a great many rich people throughout the Dominion who have not yet come to our assistance, and as the war continues, and more men have dependents coming upon the funds, the Canadian people will have to put out larger efforts in the way of support. The uncertainty about the duration of the war, and the number of men whose dependents will become chargeable, have both contributed to the limited measure of support so far accorded."

"I have been greatly impressed with the splendid response made from the west, but there are still a number of men available in the larger towns. I saw the men at the Sewell and Sarcee camps, and was greatly impressed with their fine physique. The west is contributing the kind of men who are wanted in Europe."

Col. Macdonald thinks that in some respects Canada cannot fail to gain from the war. It should, in his opinion, lead to less extravagance, because the comparative ease with which money has been made in Canada in the past few years appears to have bred a capacity to spend freely and unnecessarily. He believes that it should also induce a more brotherly feeling between men, drawing them together, and should encourage the growth of a true national spirit.

He is visiting to-day an old friend here in the person of Col. Peters.

"You are an honest boy," beamed the old lady as she opened the roll of five one-dollar bills. "but the money I lost was a five-dollar bill. Didn't you see that in the advertisement?" "Yesum," explained the boy. "It was a five-dollar bill I found, but I had it changed so you could pay me the reward."

DULL HOLIDAY WEATHER.

Grey Skies Alter Plans of Many; Hunters Go Out of Town for Week-end.

Victoria awoke this morning to a dull Thanksgiving day, and there were early indications that there might be rain before the day is over. The weather conditions interfered somewhat with the plans of many who had prepared for outdoor activities, such as automobile trips and picnics, and some of these spent their time about the city or indoors. It also proved beneficial to the theatres which are being well-patronized.

The dull sky did not dismay the hunters. A large number went away on Saturday and yesterday for a week-end in the woods, and more who were unable by business ties to get away before, went up the island on the morning train, content with one day in the open.

The down-town people took the usual interest in the war bulletins.

Canadian Pacific Goes to 167; Street Adjourned for Holiday.

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

New York, Oct. 11.—For a prior holiday session, to-morrow being Columbus Day, the volume of trading in stocks was really remarkable. But one to two "million share days" have been an applied rule for some time, and traders apparently have settled to the belief that standard issues that relatively have been neglected in favor of "war specialties," merit some bull support. The aspect of the market to-day was smiling to the latter end of last week, the coppers and rails striking new high levels and finishing quite strong. Steel common was actively traded in at the 83 mark, while Canadian Pacific fluctuated around 167, a rise of three to four points from Saturday.

WALL STREET TURNS ATTENTION TO WHEAT

Reflecting Heavy Buying, Wheat Prices Gain Considerably

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Prices gained a good three cents for wheat and suffered only a slight set-back in last transactions. It looked as though certain Wall street interest again were tendering their support, and whether or no this was the case, the ease with which the market advanced counselled the bear element that levels were not likely to decline for the session in view of concerted buying on each soft spot. Clearances were on a large scale and the export business that a few weeks back looked in an unhealthy state appears to be getting very brisk.

CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ESQUIMALT

Municipal Elections

The Voters' List for the forthcoming Municipal Elections, is now being prepared for aid of their suffering race, but the situation has become too vast for them to handle by themselves, and we are therefore compelled to appeal to your generosity for assistance. The money collected will be sent to the Jewish Relief Committee, of Montreal, who will forward same to the Jewish Relief Committee in Russia.

Subscription lists have been opened in the Times and Colonist offices and the following banks, Royal Bank and its branches, Canadian Bank of Commerce, Bank of Montreal and Merchants' Bank of Canada.

Owners of property under an Agreement to Purchase, must make Statutory Declaration and file same with the Clerk of the Corporation on or before the Thirtieth day of November, 1915.

Declaration forms may be obtained at the Municipal Hall.

Try This English Auto Oil

Made by the famous firm of oil refiners, W. B. Dick & Co., it is a specially distilled lubricant that will leave no deposit on the cylinders, thus insuring more speed, more power—a "sweeter" running engine, and a minimum of trouble.

APPEAL IN AID OF STARVING JEWS IN RUSSIAN POLAND.

Millions of destitute Jews are literally starving and dying from exposure in these regions from the effects of the war. Their government is too much engaged and has not the means to help them.

They are without food, shelter, or sufficient clothing to withstand the terrible Russian winter.

This is the first time the Jewish community of Victoria has appealed to the public for aid of their suffering race, but the situation has become too vast for them to handle by themselves, and we are therefore compelled to appeal to your generosity for assistance. The money collected will be sent to the Jewish Relief Committee, of Montreal, who will forward same to the Jewish Relief Committee in Russia.

Subscription lists have been opened in the Times and Colonist offices and the following banks, Royal Bank and its branches, Canadian Bank of Commerce, Bank of Montreal and Merchants' Bank of Canada.

Notice is hereby given that under an order granted by the Honorable Mr. Justice Clements, dated 8th day of October, A. D. 1915, I, the undersigned, was appointed Administrator of the estate of the above-named. All parties having claims against the said estate are requested to forward particulars of same to me on or before the 9th day of November, A. D. 1915, and all parties indebted to the said estate are required to pay such indebtedness to me forthwith.

Dated at Victoria, B. C., this 8th day of October, 1915.

WILLIAM MONTEITH, Official Administrator.
