VALUABLE MAN TO HAVE IN COMPANY

What Arbutnot Told Associates as Reason for Giving Dr. Young Stock

ONLY MAN HE KNEW WHEN HE CAME TO VICTORIA

Oral Testimony in Big Mining Case Was Commenced This Afternoon

Further mention of the stock in the Pacific Coast Coal-mines Company which was set aside for Hon. Dr. Young was made at the afternoon sitting of the supreme court yesterday, in the course of the reading of the examination for discovery of James M. Savage, who for some time was secretary and treasurer of the company.

The recipient of this large block of stock in a company which was being formed to exploit one of the natural resources of the province was only referred to by counsel and witnesses in the course of the examination as Dr. Young, a mining man in the north, and Mr. Justice Clement, who is presiding, asked what else the person spoken of was besides being a mining man. He was informed of the identity of the doctor.

Mr. Savage, when examined for discovery, said that he and John Arbutnot, coming here as strangers, knew no one except Dr. Young, known to Arbutnot, and he was told by his partner that Dr. Young was a mining man in the north, whom it would be very valuable to them to have associated with them in the company they were going to form.

As Savage understood it Dr. Young was in the company from the start as an interested party, getting this block of stock without cash as a friend of Arbutnot's whom it would be very valuable to have with them. The rest of them, understood from the outset that they were to give this stock without consideration, other than what over may have been connected with his value as an old friend of Arbutnot's.

The pooling of the stock which took place prior to the incorporation of the company in March, 1908, accounted for 12,150 shares, held by six members of the syndicate which controlled the properties which were to be acquired by the company—John Arbutnot, J. M. Savage, E. Hodgson, Mrs. Wishard (represented by L. D. Wishard), J. C. McEwan and W. J. Moran. To these were added the 1,250 shares handed over to Arbutnot for Dr. Young and the whole 13,400 were then treated in the Pacific Securities Company, a Whelan company, and it gave Arbutnot proxies covering all the shares except a few hundred which apparently were used for bonus purposes.

In the examination for discovery of Henry G. S. Heisterman, one of the defendants and solicitor for the original Pacific Coast Coal-mines company, read yesterday afternoon, a good deal of attention was paid to the bill which was passed by the legislature in 1911, as he had attended one of the meetings of the private bills committee at which this was considered. He was not at the first meeting, when the committee decided to waive the starting orders, which had not been complied with in the matter of giving notice of intention to apply for this legislation. He did not remember any representations being made to the committee in that connection.

Original Draft of Bill.
The bill as originally drafted, he had found, provided that the agreement of February 14 should be ratified and passed at a meeting of shareholders, and this was amended. There would have been discussion in the committee as to that, but he could not remember on place this. In the original bill there was no mention of a specific majority, but simply that a "shareholder's meeting must pass the agreement. Seventy-five per cent," suggested by the committee and he had pointed out that it might be difficult to secure the attendance of the proportion of shareholders, and this objection was given effect to by the addition of the words, "Being present personally or by proxy." Mr. Heisterman did not know whether anything was said to the committee as to the shareholders being in favor of the agreement, and could not say whether it was represented that 75 per cent was a favorable, but it was certainly represented that a large number were.

The further testimony of Mr. Heisterman went into the drawing of the agreement which settled the Hodgson-Spence suit, the dealings with the Richardson, Fiddick and South Wellington properties, the articles of association of the company which were validated by act of 1909, and other matters. He was questioned at great length as to the drawing of the agreement, its terms, nature and effect, and the advice he gave either as a shareholder or as solicitor.

E. P. Davis, K. C., read portion of Mr. Bodwell's examination of this witness (concluded on page 7.)

Zeppelins Fired on As They Passed Over Holland; One Damaged

Rotterdam, Oct. 15.—Four Zeppelins, which are believed to have participated in the raid over the London area on Wednesday night, were sighted homeward bound over various parts of Holland early yesterday. In most cases they were fired on by Dutch sentinels in accordance with recent orders, but apparently were not damaged.

One airship bore the number L-Z-77, which was crippled and disappeared toward the German frontier moving erratically and, apparently in great distress.

CASUALTIES 98,899 UP TO OCTOBER 9

18,957 British Soldiers, Including 1,185 Officers, Killed at Dardanelles

LOSSES OF AUSTRALASIAN CONTINGENTS WERE 29,121

London, Oct. 15.—The total of British casualties at the Dardanelles up to October 9, according to figures given out officially today, was 98,899.

Of this total the number of men killed was 18,957, of whom 1,185 were officers. The casualties of the Australasian contingents were 29,121.

Announcement of the losses of the British forces at the Dardanelles follows the sensational speech in the House of Lords last night of Lord Milner, who is said to have characterized the expedition as hopeless. He suggested the withdrawal of the troops from Gallipoli peninsula and their transfer to some other front.

Lord Lansdowne, responding for the government, said that it was impossible to give any promise that the troops would continue at the Dardanelles, or would be withdrawn.

The figures given out today do not include all the losses at the Dardanelles. In addition to the British casualties are the losses of the French, concerning which no reliable information is available. The British total, however, bears out dispatches from correspondents on this front who have described the loss of life as very heavy.

The Turkish losses have been described as enormous.

TRYING TO EXPLAIN BULGARIA'S ACTION

Stephen Panaretoff, Minister to United States, Gives Out Statement

Washington, Oct. 15.—An explanation why Bulgaria entered the war on the side of the Germanic allies was given out here today by Stephen Panaretoff, the Bulgarian minister. It follows:

Bulgaria entered the war in defence of the principle "Bulgaria for Bulgarians." She seeks to recover Macedonia, whose Christian population has been solidly and truly Bulgarian since the beginning of modern Bulgaria.

My country is not ambitious beyond the limits of nationality. Serbia if she will, will be granted Bosnia, Herzegovina, Rumania, Northern Albania and parts of Hungary, and will be a state of ten or eleven millions. This would destroy the balance of power in the Balkans, and would not have followed the lines of nationality.

Bulgaria seeks to enforce a treaty with Serbia, and before the first Balkan war, when Serbia agreed to cede to Bulgaria most of Macedonia, its population was overwhelmingly Bulgarian.

The second war was fought chiefly because Bulgaria insisted upon compliance with this treaty.

By the terms of the treaty completed at Bucharest, Bulgaria was stripped of her Macedonian territory and lost to Rumania a part of the richest region of upper Bulgaria. This latter territory must be returned some day.

Greece is declaring herself an armed neutral.

I cannot predict her future course or that of Rumania. After signing the treaty at Bucharest, Greece, Serbia and Rumania, with conscious guilt of despoiling Bulgaria, compacted to defend each other from Bulgaria. Today Greece refuses to aid Serbia on the pretext that Serbia is not attacked merely by Bulgaria, but by the central powers as well.

CANADIAN HONORED.

London, Oct. 15.—Captain Anderson, of the Fifth battalion, First Canadian Division, was invested with the insignia of the Distinguished Service Order at Buckingham palace today.

VIOLENT ARTILLERY ACTIONS REPORTED

Duels Last Night Before Loos and to Northeast of Souchez

FRENCH REPLIED TO FIRE IN CHAMPAGNE

Spirited Fighting With Trench Weapons at Points in Vosges

Paris, Oct. 15.—There was a violent bombardment last night, both sides taking part, before Loos and near Souchez according to the announcement given out by the war office this afternoon.

There also took place spirited trench fighting near the Hache forest.

There was severe cannonading near Lihons, and between the Oise and the Aisne, near Quennevillers and on the Nouvron plateau.

In the Champagne district, French batteries answered with energy artillery fire from the German lines against the French positions to the east of Aubervilliers.

In Lorraine the French fire put an end to violent German artillery and infantry attacks.

There has been violent trench fighting in the Vosges as well as intense artillery exchanges at Hartmanns-Wellerkopf.

The text of the statement follows:

In Artois District.

"In the Artois district there was a violent bombardment last night, in which both sides took part, in front of Loos and to the northeast of Souchez. There have been reported also spirited engagements with hand grenades in the trenches to the south of the forest of Hache.

"There were severe artillery exchanges in the sector of Lihons, as well as between the Oise and the Aisne, in the regions of Puisseulles and Quennevillers, and on the Nouvron plateau.

"In the Champagne district our batteries have replied with great energy to a concentration of the enemy's artillery fire on our positions to the east of Aubervilliers.

Curtain of Fire.

"Along the front in Lorraine a curtain of fire put an end, at a point in front of Letcourt, to a violent fire in which the artillery, the infantry and the machine guns of the Germans took part. We have directed an effective fire against the works of the enemy to the north of Reillon.

"In the Vosges there has been very spirited fighting with trench weapons in the suburbs of Champolteux, to the northeast of Bainsvillers, and on the heights of the Ling and of the Barckenkopf.

There also has been violent cannonading at Hartmanns-Wellerkopf, in this vicinity."

NO MORE NOTES, SAYS COUNT BERNSTORFF

No Tension Between United States and Germany, He Declares

New York, Oct. 15.—The submarine issue between Washington and Berlin has been cleared entirely up and no further notes will be passed, according to a statement issued here today by Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States.

The statement follows:

"The exchange of notes over the submarine controversy is ended. Everything is settled satisfactorily. The heat of feeling prevails, and I am positive that this state of affairs will continue for some time to come."

"How about the Lusitania note?" he was asked.

"The exchange of all notes in regard to Germany's submarine activities have been completed," he reiterated.

"The confidential conference to be held next week between Secretary Lansing and myself will clean up everything I shall go to Washington next week and will see Mr. Lansing as soon as I arrive."

"All tension, then, is over?" von Bernstorff was asked.

"Indeed yes," he replied. "There is no tension whatever. A most peaceful feeling now exists between the two countries."

WILL EXCHANGE GRANTED DIVORCE.

London, Oct. 15.—An arrangement by which Britain and Germany are to exchange prisoners unfit for further service has been completed, according to announcement here today.

GRANTED DIVORCE.

London, Oct. 15.—Sgt. Maj. Clarke, of the Canadian expeditionary force, has been granted a divorce.

WAR DECLARED BY SERBIA ON BULGARIA

Attacks on Zaitchar and Radovitch Fronts Led to Action

BALKANS HOLD CHIEF INTEREST IN LONDON

Situation Has Undergone Little Change Since Belgrade Changed Hands

Nish, Oct. 15.—An official announcement issued here today says: "Owing to Bulgarian attacks on Serbian forces on the Zaitchar and Radovitch fronts, Serbia considers herself at war with Bulgaria."

London, Oct. 15.—Official announcement was made here today that Serbia had declared war on Bulgaria.

The announcement stated that war had been declared on account of Bulgarian attacks on Serbian armies on the Zaitchar and Radovitch fronts.

Chief Interest.

London, Oct. 15.—Military operations in the Near East once more are holding chief place in the interest of the public, which, as indicated by press comment, is not entirely satisfied with the plans made by the entente powers for meeting the latest offensive of their opponents. Even papers like the Manchester Guardian, which has been unwaveringly loyal in support of the foreign office, express dissatisfaction with the speech of Sir Edward Grey in the House of Commons on the Balkan situation.

The military operations in the Balkans show but little change since the capture of Belgrade, except for brief forays by Serbians and Bulgarians. Trying to defend her action in declaring war, Bulgaria alleges that her neutrality was violated by Serbia.

Official announcement that Serbia had declared war on Bulgaria was made today. The Serbians are clinging stubbornly to the heights above Belgrade, waiting for assistance from their allies. Such aid is expected soon, as General Saraj, commander of the allied expeditionary force, whose splendid defence of the Verdun district contributed greatly to the victory of the allies on the Marne, has landed at Salonica.

Western Front.

On the western front the British gained considerable ground, some of which they did not succeed in holding under the German shells. Conflicting claims concerning the possession of Hill No. 79 were ended by the statement in the House of Commons by the under-secretary for war, that the British official reports had been read incorrectly, in reality claiming only the capture of the mining works around this position.

Although admitting that the forces of General von Hoff had fallen back again across the Stuyva river, in Eastern Galicia, Petrograd asserts that the advantage still rests with the Russians who hold eight miles of the east bank of the river after actions which have virtually separated the Austro-German armies.

Violent actions continue on the Dvinsk front with little relative change in the positions of the contending armies.

Reprisals Demanded.

Irritation is displayed by the press at the failure of the reorganized aircraft force for the defence of London to bring down a single Zeppelin of the squadron which attacked the capital on Wednesday night. The demands for reprisals are increasing.

Lists of casualties in the British army published in newspapers, here during the first 15 days of October, show a total of 31,955 killed, wounded or missing. Of these, 1,443 were officers.

FIVE VESSELS SENT DOWN BY SUBMARINES

Washington, Oct. 15.—Confirming news dispatches that British submarines had been active against German shipping in the Baltic, a dispatch to the state department from Sweden yesterday told of the sinking of five German vessels by undersea craft.

"VICTORIES" IN ARTOIS AND THE CHAMPAGNE

Berlin, Oct. 15.—The official statement issued today claimed that the Germans had won victories in the Artois district and the Champagne region.

Near Vermelles (north of Arras) the British were driven out of the German positions again, it was alleged.

ADMIT THAT RUSSIANS PENETRATED POSITIONS

Berlin, Oct. 15.—In the official statement today dealing with the eastern front, the admission is made that the Russians have penetrated German positions in the region of Wessolowa.

Says It Is Not Duty of Greece to Go to the Aid of Serbia

London, Oct. 15.—In a note to the British government, received today, Greece announces her definite decision not to intervene in the war on behalf of Serbia at present.

In the communication, which is of great length, M. Zalmis presents his interpretation of the Graeco-Serbian treaty. He concludes with the statement that the present Greek government is of the opinion that the treaty with Serbia does not call for intervention by Greece in the present circumstances.

ASKED FERDINAND TO TAKE BACK JEWELS

Duke of Orleans No Longer Member of Bulgarian Orders

MADE HIS POSITION CLEAR IN LETTER

Paris, Oct. 15.—The Duke of Orleans addressed a letter to King Ferdinand of Bulgaria several days ago requesting the monarch to take back the jewels of Bulgarian orders which had been bestowed upon him, but the letter was published only on the day Bulgaria entered the war. In his communication the duke said:

"The attitude your majesty has thought right to take in the present war, contrary to your previous policy, forces me to the sad duty of praying your majesty to take back the jewels of Bulgarian orders with which your majesty invested me, first upon the death of your venerable mother, and second when your majesty was in Paris to point out how much Bulgaria owed to France."

"I tell your majesty to take back the jewels because, alas, I cannot send them, but your majesty only has to apply to his ally, who for more than a year has accepted the challenge in Belgium and for whom my safe can have no secrets. I authorize the giving up to your majesty of the orders I no longer can wear. Your majesty will understand."

Struck Off.

"I am obliged to warn your majesty that the day he takes up arms against my country, France, his name will be struck from the chapter of Knights of the Holy Spirit. I do not ask your majesty to send back the jewels of the order of the Holy Spirit, but wish on the contrary, that these souvenirs of France you have betrayed, shall keep alive perpetual remembrance."

A letter the duke wrote to Emperor Francis Joseph at the outbreak of the war also has been published. In it he asked the ruler of Austria-Hungary to take back the jewels of the Order of the Golden Fleece and referred to his marriage to the Archduchess Maria Dorothea as the "misfortune of my life."

Prince Louis Philippe, Duke of Orleans, the French pretender, was married to Archduchess Maria Dorothea of Austria at Vienna in November, 1859. She obtained a separation from him in Paris in July of last year. Under the decree granted by the court of arbitration, she was to receive $11,000 a year from the duke, who also was ordered to restore to her money which the court ruled he had used improperly. While the separation was granted, the court refused to recommend a decree of divorce.

SAILED AWAY AND DID NOT COME BACK

Several Members of Crews of German Auxiliary Cruisers Were Granted Leave

Washington, Oct. 15.—All leave of absence for the men of the German auxiliary cruisers Kron Prinz Wilhelm and Prinz Eitel Friedrich, interned at the Norfolk navy yard, has been revoked by the navy department until the disappearance of six warrant officers of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm has been explained satisfactorily. The department took this action when it was reported by Rear-Admiral Beatty, commander of the Norfolk yard, that several men of the German crews had bought a yacht and had been granted leave for a sail but had not returned at the expiration of their leave.

While no prosecution could follow the arrest of the six, it was indicated at the navy department that more rigorous enforcement would be enforced if it was found that the men had attempted to leave the country.

STILL ARE LANDING MEN AT SALONICA

Allies Are Building Up Force Which Will Assist Serbians

KING PETER'S TROOPS HOLD BELGRADE HEIGHTS

Unofficially Reported Serbians Destroyed German Brigade; Varna Bombarded

Paris, Oct. 15.—The landing of the allied troops at Salonica continues, according to official announcement here today.

Still Hold Heights.

London, Oct. 15.—A dispatch to the Serbians from Athens says that the Serbians still hold the heights of Belgrade at a distance of one and a quarter miles from the city.

Serbian refugees are beginning to arrive at Salonica.

The dispatch adds that railway communication has been cut near the Bulgarian frontier.

Destroyed Brigade.

Geneva, Oct. 15.—An unconfirmed dispatch received here today from Bucharest says:

"On the banks of the Drina river the Serbians have repulsed the Austrians with heavy losses. Near Shabatz they destroyed a German brigade, taking 1,000 prisoners."

"A Bulgarian attack was repulsed and 2,000 prisoners taken."

Varna Bombarded.

Geneva, Oct. 15.—The Russian fleet has bombarded Varna, according to a dispatch received here today from Bucharest. Four German submarines which were sent overland to Varna are reported to have escaped into the Black Sea before the blockade was inaugurated by the Russians.

What Assist.

Rome, Oct. 15.—Italy cannot send an expeditionary force to the Balkans at the present, but will aid the cause of the entente powers in other ways, according to the Giornale d'Italia. Foreign Minister Sonnino's official organ. This indicates a change in the government's plans. It had been expected that following Signor Salandra's visit to King Victor Emmanuel at the front, the army would send an expedition to Albania. The new Austrian offensive on the Carso front is believed to have influenced the government's decision.

Austrian Claims.

Vienna, Oct. 15.—It is claimed in the official statement issued today that the Serbian forces southeast of Belgrade have been defeated decisively and are retreating into the Avala mountains.

"We have advanced from Belgrade," says the statement, "to the line of fortresses southeast of the city which stretches through Bordo, Erino, Cunak and Stawars."

Giant howitzers are said to be shelling the forts defending the railroad southeast of Belgrade today.

TWO OR THREE TIMES AS MANY AVAILABLE

Allies Can Throw Many More Men Into Balkans Than Enemy Can

Rome, Oct. 15.—In well-informed Italian circles it is thought that during the winter no great decisive military action can be attempted on the northern fronts. The Balkans will be the only important theatre of war. Therefore, the entente powers must follow the Austro-German example and concentrate the maximum of their efforts in the east.

A high political personage stated today:

"The violent Austrian offensive on the Isonzo, Carso, Carniola and Herzegovina fronts, and those of Germany on the Russian front evidently had as their sole object the preventing of the entente sending large forces to the Balkans. Germany understands that if the allies arrest the Austro-German offensive against Serbia, the European war will be definitely lost."

Must Sue For Peace.

"Today the entente possesses the absolute certainty that Turkey is at the end of her resources, and that within a month, unless she receives German assistance, she will be compelled to sue for peace."

"The enemy is equally convinced that Greece and Rumania will not move until they see that the entente is thoroughly resolved to arrest the Germans in their march toward Constantinople."

"There also is every probability that Greece and Rumania will desire to range themselves on the side of the

GERMAN DESTROYER SUNK BY SUBMARINE

British Undersea Craft Victor in One-Sided Fight in the Sound

CRUISER AND TWO DESTROYERS FLED

Submarine Rose to Surface and Remained on Scene for Some Time

Copenhagen, Oct. 15.—A British submarine torpedoed and sank a German destroyer this morning at the southern entrance to The Sound, a narrow strait between Denmark and Sweden which connects the Baltic with the Cattegat and the North Sea. A great explosion followed the striking of the torpedo and the destroyer foundered immediately.

The message from Falsterbo, Sweden, which brought news of this incident added another German destroyer and a cruiser which were accompanying the destroyer which was sunk, speeded to the southward.

Information received here indicates that all the members of the destroyer's crew were lost.

According to a subsequent dispatch, a German cruiser and three destroyers were engaged with the British submarine. The German craft moved in circles to avoid the attack of the submarine, which was bombarded heavily. This continued for some time until the submarine lodged a torpedo against the destroyer, which sank with a terrific explosion. The other German warships are said to have retreated.

The submarine rose to the surface and remained on the scene for some time before it disappeared.

MISLED BY GERMANY'S MANY BUSY AGENTS

Bulgarians Will Punish the Guilty, Says M. De Panafieu

Paris, Oct. 15.—That the Russian retreat, skillfully exploited by German agents, was the immediate cause of turning against the allies the sentiment of the Bulgarian people, who are intensely practical, was the assertion made by A. de Panafieu, who was French minister at Sofia, to the correspondent of the Journal at Paris.

"The event coincided," he said, "with the visit of the Duke of Mecklenburg, who found a ready tool in King Ferdinand, a blind believer in Germany's victory. The success in the Champagne came too late to restore the balance. The Bulgarian people understood nothing of diplomatic calculations. They see only Macedonia to be conquered. Certainly, if the Russian flag appeared at Varna or Burgas it might rouse memories in their innermost souls, but interest comes before sentiment."

Dreary Proceeding.

"Russia, the great motherland, henceforth will be far away to the Bulgarian peasant. Mobilization was a sad and dreary proceeding, without songs or speeches—entirely different from the heroic frenzy of October, 1912."

"Hundreds of German officers are acting as instructors of the Bulgarian armies, but they do not wear German uniforms, although a few Austrian uniforms are seen. Germans in Bulgarian uniforms organized the defence of Dedegatch and the Black Sea ports, and fixed batteries and anti-aircraft guns at Sofia."

"It would be premature to express an opinion about the possibility of a revolution for at least a month."

"The Bulgarian people are embarking upon a risky adventure without joy, but it is beyond question that when they find out that they have been deceived, they will seek out and punish the guilty. The rupture of diplomatic relations stifled the Bulgarian. Even when we went to get our passports no one in Sofia believed we were going. We were treated with the greatest cordiality, and our journey to Dedegatch was without incident."

central empire unless they find themselves supported strongly by the entente.

"The entente can send to the east twice or three times as many men as the Austro-Germans. Thus it is only a matter of acting promptly and strongly. Any delay or discussion now would be a crime against civilization."

Austrians Suffered Heavily When They Made Attack East of Monfalcone

Rome, Oct. 15.—The following official report was issued last evening:

"On Monte Nero (Mrzlivrh) on the evening of the 13th enemy detachments tried to rush our saps, which are now in close contact with the enemy's positions. The attempt failed with heavy losses."

"On the Carso front on the afternoon of the 12th, after violent artillery and rifle fire and volleys of hand grenades, the enemy attacked our positions east of Monfalcone. The enemy was mowed down by our fire and retreated in disorder and left the ground covered with bodies. A number of prisoners fell into our hands."

Austrian Statement.
Vienna, Oct. 15.—The following official statement was given out yesterday.

"An active artillery fire against our positions on the plateau of La Frau and against some positions of approach on the front of the Dolomites continued. An Alpine battalion advancing toward our advanced positions south of Riva was repulsed by our gun fire."

"On the Isonzo front, we occupied part of Italian trenches in the region of Favoreck."
"Two Italian attacks on Mrzlivrh made after strong artillery preparation, progressed to the front of our entanglements, where they were repulsed. On the other parts of the Isonzo front there has been only ordinary artillery fire."

PROGRESS BEING MADE.

London, Oct. 15.—The statement was made in the House of Commons yesterday by Rt. Hon. Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, that material progress was being made in the negotiations between the board of inland revenue and the Chicago packing houses with regard to the amount of income tax due from those firms. Taxes for a period of more than ten years are involved.

C. W. CAMPBELL IS THE NEW PRESIDENT

Elected by Vancouver Liberals; Evidence Regarding Submarines Analyzed

Vancouver, Oct. 15.—Charles W. Campbell was unanimously elected president of the Vancouver City and District Liberal association last night. When the largest number of delegates in the history of the association, representing every ward organization within the city, met in annual meeting for the election of officers and transaction of general business. The choice of the meeting was a popular one and the new president was accorded a splendid reception when he took the chair.

Ralph Smith, the retiring president, was elected second and honorary vice-president. One of the features of the meeting was the seating of twenty-two ladies, delegates from the Women's Liberal association, and the election of one of their number, Mrs. W. H. Griffin, as one of the four vice-presidents and to a place on the parliamentary committee.

A keen analysis of the evidence taken by the royal commission of inquiry into the purchase of the two submarines was given by S. Taylor, K. C., the new Liberal executive, selected to represent the party at the inquiry, and who was not permitted to set in an official capacity at the hearing. He said he merely would place the facts before his hearers and they could draw their own conclusions.

He pointed out that perusal of the evidence given made it abundantly clear that there had been great need of cross-examination.

SMALLEST REPUBLIC CONGRATULATES LARGEST

New York, Oct. 15.—Lawrence Grant of London, arrived here yesterday on the French liner Chicago with a letter from Pierre Font, president of Andorra, the smallest and second smallest republic in the world, to President Wilson, as head of the largest republic.

The letter congratulates President Wilson upon the stand taken by the United States for neutrality and also upon the material aid rendered to the Belgians.

Andorra, which is located on the southern slope of the Pyrenees, adjacent to France and Spain, became a republic about the year 700. It contains 175 square miles and has a population of approximately 8,000.

NO DEBATE ON GREY'S STATEMENT IN HOUSE

Asquith Declined to Grant Day for Discussion of Negotiations in Balkans

London, Oct. 15.—The diplomatic, rather than the military side of the situation, was the subject of Sir Edward Grey's eagerly awaited statement relative to the Balkan situation which he delivered to a crowded House of Commons yesterday.

"I propose to confine myself," the foreign secretary said, "to a resume of our diplomatic objects since the war. At the outset we desired that the war should not spread, and in common with all our allies we assured Turkey that if she remained neutral, Turkey and Turkish territory should not suffer."

"The situation was completely changed by the entrance of Turkey into the war, and all obligations on the part of the allies then ceased."
"We and our allies then concentrated upon securing an agreement of peace. Unfortunately the feeling in the Balkans is not one of accord. It is clear that the preponderating advantage for the allies would have enabled us to secure a policy of union."

"We were given to understand in the course of the negotiations that, except with regard to Thrace, the Central allies had offered to Bulgaria, to secure her neutrality, more than the entire allies could in fairness offer. Promises which induced Bulgaria to declare war were given by the Central allies at the expense of her neighbors, and without any corresponding advantage to them. We have remained throughout in friendly relations with Rumania, who has favored the policy of a Balkan union."

"The entry of Bulgaria made a great difference. The allies would have done all in their power to help Bulgaria."
"Serbia is fighting for her national existence, and with her the struggle is just now intense and acute. But the struggle is one and the issue is one, in whatever theatre of war fighting is taking place."

"All the allies are fighting for national existence, and for all who are fighting the issues arise. It is a fight for the right to live, not under the shadow of Prussian militarism, which does not observe the ordinary rules of humanity in war, and to leave us free from the menace of oppression."

"Regarding the attitude of Greece, Sir Edward referred to statements made by M. Venizelos, former prime minister, and M. Zaimis, the new prime minister.
"The interests of Serbia and Greece are identical," he said, "ultimately they must stand or fall together. The allies desire to help Serbia, and the co-operation of the Russian army is promised soon."

"At the outset of the negotiations," continued the foreign secretary, "we were given to understand that, in order to secure a Balkan union there were certain concessions Bulgaria would require, especially in Thrace and Macedonia."
"Allies Were Ready."
"The allies were ready to do all in their power to secure these for Bulgaria, but to obtain the consent of Serbia and Greece it was an essential preliminary that Bulgaria did not take sides with Turkey. In other words, if Bulgaria was to realize her hopes and aspirations, she must co-operate in a common cause in which the hopes and aspirations of other neighboring states were engaged."

"It will be enough to say that these reasonable hopes and aspirations were in the main founded on opportunity to give people of the same race, the same sentiments and the same religion, the liberty of joining themselves to a state under a government most akin to them."
"Mr. Asquith declined to grant a day for debate on Sir Edward Grey's statement."

In the House of Lords the Marquis of Creve made a statement similar to that of the foreign secretary.

London, Oct. 15.—The following report from Field Marshal Sir John French was made public last night:
"Yesterday afternoon, after a bombardment, we attacked the enemy's trenches under cover of smoke and gas from a point about 600 yards southwest of Hulluch to the Hohenzollern Redoubt. We gained nearly 1,000 yards of trenches just west and west of Hulluch, but were unable to maintain our positions there owing to the enemy's shell fire."
"Southeast of St. Effe we captured and held the enemy's trenches behind the Vermelles-Hulluch road and the southwestern edge of the quarries, both inclusive. We also captured a trench on the northwest face of the forest. We captured the main trench of the Hohenzollern Redoubt, but the enemy is still in two communicating trenches between the redoubt and the quarries."
"With regard to the statement in the German communication of October 14, that we attacked over almost the whole front between Ypres and Loos, no attacks whatever were made other than those described in an earlier message."

Paris, Oct. 15.—The following official report was issued last night:
"Artillery duels have occurred in Artois, in the valley of Souchez and along the Givenchy road. There also has been cannonading on both sides on the Aisne front, in the environs of Rheims, and in Champagne, near Auberville and the Navarin farm."
"Quite violent engagements with bombs and torpedoes have taken place on the heights of the Meuse, in the sector of Calonne and Troyon."

164,000 HAVE JOINED SINCE THE BEGINNING
Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Enlistment figures made public here last night show that 164,000 men have been enrolled in Canada for overseas service since the beginning of the war. Of these, 83,000 men have been sent across the Atlantic.
Another 50,000 men will be enlisted, it was reported, as soon as the war office gives the word. The first contingent and reinforcements totalled 36,185, and the second contingent and reinforcements totalled 48,485. The enlistment constitutes about 2 per cent of the total population of men, women and children.

RUSSIANS MADE GAINS ON DWINSK FRONT

Took Road South of Schlossberg; Stubborn Fighting at Other Points

Petrograd, Oct. 15.—The following official statement was issued last night:

"A German aeroplane has dropped several bombs on the Remers railway line north of Friedland. In the region of Jacobstadt the artillery fire has increased in intensity in some places.

"On the night of the 13th a Zeppelin dropped about 30 bombs near Dwinsk. No one was injured. On the Dwinsk front there has been an artillery duel on the road south of Schlossberg, which we captured yesterday. Obsolete fighting continues.

"A stubborn engagement in which both sides are attacking, also is in progress near the village of Sprungulne and in the vicinity of the village of Garbounowka.

"On the line of lakes Demmen and Drowulny desultory attacks by the enemy have met with no success. The artillery duel continues.

"We have occupied the village of Khropine, south of Nowel, on the Pripi river.

"On the left bank of the Styr, north of Rofalowka, our cavalry carried the Zaidine farm.

"In Galicia, on the Strypa front, the enemy at several points assumed the offensive without success. Very violent fighting is taking place around the villages of Beniawy and Lavoroska and west of Trembowla.

"On the Caucasus front the efforts of Turkish scouts to get past our advanced posts continue without success in the coast region. Our advance posts have repulsed the Turks with rifle and hand grenades. In the sector of the lower Dni river and the village of Svirachiv, southeast of Lake Tortum, there have been skirmishes between patrols. Near Vastan pass, on the southern side of Lake Van, we annihilated a Turkish detachment with its officers."

WHAT GERMAN PAPERS SAY ABOUT RESIGNATION

Berlin, Oct. 15.—The assertion is made by the Taeschelt that Theophil Delcasse, who has just resigned as foreign minister of France, opposed the landing of French troops at Salonica.

"Perceiving that popular opinion was turning against him," the Taeschelt adds, "Delcasse seized upon the pretext of the Salonica expedition as a reason to resign. He thus was able to disappear from the political theatre in the attitude of one who foresaw calamity and warned the nation, while in reality he, together with President Poincare and War Minister Millerand, brought about the present situation."

The Vossische Zeitung says:

"Delcasse's whole career was based upon the idea of revenge. He entered parliament with a speech in favor of a Franco-Russian alliance. He always represented the idea of war on Germany. He was inspired by the late King Edward, one of the most active workers for the isolation of Germany. In 1915 Clemenceau thought that Delcasse had disappeared from public life, never again to return. But he did reappear, and if he is now abandoned forever by his former associates, their decision comes too late for France."

REPORT GIVEN OUT AT CONSTANTINOPLE

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—A statement issued last night by the war office was as follows:

"Near Anafarta we inflicted heavy losses on the enemy by the use of bombs. Our fire damaged an enemy aeroplane which fell east of Lusagoel and finally was destroyed by our artillery.

"Our artillery destroyed an enemy machine gun position near Set-Berens.

"Our observation detachments near Suddul Bahr inflicted heavy losses on the enemy's right wing after a surprise attack with hand grenades on Tuesday night. A mine exploded before his left wing destroyed a considerable part of the enemy's trenches.

"Enemy torpedo boats and coast batteries vainly bombarded our artillery.

"Near Suddul Bahr our artillery forced torpedo boats, which were bombarding our left wing, to leave."

READING REFERS TO MOUNTAIN OF OBSTACLES

New York, Oct. 15.—Jurisprudence was the theme of Lord Reading, lord chief justice of England, and chairman of the Anglo-French commission, which negotiated the $50,000,000 war loan, at the reception in his honor given last night by the New York Bar association, Lord Reading said:

"I am strongly impressed with the undependability of the constant reporting of decisions which lay down no general principles, but only report the application of old principles to new facts. To make oneself familiar with your law, it is necessary to look up not only all the decisions, but all the statutes of your 48 states. I wonder how you surmount this mountain of legal knowledge. This system of citing corroborating cases has been changed with us. It is now a struggle to get at the merits—to allow no technicalities to prevent the court from perceiving the true facts and arriving at a just decision, notwithstanding all the learned counsel that appear before the judge."

NOTIFIED GREECE

Athens, Oct. 15.—The Bulgarian minister at noon yesterday notified the Greek government that Bulgaria, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, had declared war on Serbia, as a Serbian column had attacked the Bulgarians near Kest-noll (Southwest Bulgaria), killing 79 men and wounding 500.

KILLING ARMENIANS; SUPPRESSING NEWS

Turkish Officials Refused to Answer Questions Asked by A. P. Correspondent

Constantinople, Sept. 17. — (By Mail.) — By virtue of a total suppression of all news on the subject, the Turkish government has succeeded in throwing an impenetrable veil over its actions towards all Armenians. Nothing definite is obtainable in Constantinople of the fate of this people out in the provinces, but it is known that severe measures planned against the Armenians in the Ottoman capital were not carried out owing to objections of the German government.

Concerning the Armenian affair, three separate notes were presented to the Ottoman government by the acting German ambassador, Prince Hohenzollern-Langenburg. If the Associated Press is rightly informed, these notes had no far-reaching effect, because under present conditions the German government has been obliged to act rather gently. Turkey is still the ally of Germany, and it is all-god by the Germans that the Armenians have alienated the goodwill of the German government and people to a considerable extent by having made open cause with the entente powers. Many of them have joined the Russian forces near Van, and at Zeltoun and Dort Jul they revolted against Turkish authority. The three notes referred to were but official incidents in weeks of endeavor to persuade the Turkish government to take a more reasonable and humane view as affecting the Armenians. One of the notes drew attention to the great injustice of making all Armenians suffer for the acts of a few. The Turkish government, however, seems to have remained adamant.

As already stated, it has been impossible to secure accurate information in the provinces. Turkish officials either have refused to discuss the situation or have placed all blame on the Armenians; these latter, on the other hand, either have refused to talk for fear of also being persecuted, or have assigned all responsibility to the Turks. A mass of irreconcilable statements has been the result. Some Turkish officials made the absurd claim that the Armenians were being well treated. The Armenians declare that in Zeltoun, Dort Jul and other places 50,000 Armenians were massacred.

That in many instances the Turks have been guilty of needless severity, and in some cases have permitted barbarous acts of violence, including murder and rape, seems well established.

Efforts Failed.

It cannot be said that the acts of the Turkish government in this connection have found the approbation of the advanced Turkish classes in the capital, who for the greater part, favor a policy of conciliation, and some of whom even go as far as to advocate the establishment of a separate Armenian state in Asia Minor under the sovereignty of the Ottoman imperial government. While the tendency of the Ottoman government either to deny altogether that the Armenians are being persecuted, or to give its acts a too obviously artificial basis and character, would have but one result, namely, that it is both ashamed and afraid to let the truth be known. The many attempts made by the Associated Press correspondent to throw some light on the Armenian situation resulted in failure, because the Turkish officials would not talk and the censorship would not permit the free passage of dispatches on the subject.

For weeks Constantinople has had its daily crop of Armenian rumors. One of the most interesting of them is that even the Sheik-ul-Islam protested against the excesses from which the Armenians have suffered. There is a possibility that this is true, because the Sheik-ul-Islam is a man of moderation and very progressive tendencies.

It is asserted in Constantinople that the German government, for some time, even at the beginning of the war, has taken a special interest in the Armenians. The Germans feared from

TRYING TO LAY BLAME ON THE SERBIANS

Sofia, Oct. 14.—The general staff last night issued the following statement, charging the Serbians with being the aggressors:

"On Tuesday night the Serbians attempted a surprise attack at several points near Trem, Bastovograd and Kustendil, with the object of taking possession of Bulgarian strategic points commanding the road to Sofia. The attempt was frustrated by Bulgarian troops posted near the threatened points. Later our troops succeeded in driving back the Serbians. The fighting continues."

WERE WE HIDING IN THE CELLAR? In their exuberant zeal to justify the submarine transaction some worthy gentlemen in this city and Vancouver have pretty nearly, if not altogether, made a fool of the place.

The people of Victoria did not hide under the bed or scurry to the basements, and it would be well to establish that fact for future reference. There was needlessness at times due not a little to the eccentricities of an overworked official, and the banks took the natural precaution to transfer their gold to the mainland, which, by the way, indicates that they were not convinced of the omnipotence of the submarines as a means of defence.

A Seattle newspaper entertained its readers with a number of sensational yarns about the postulated condition of this city which did as a great deal of harm. Both Victoria papers denied those stories and a protest from the local Rotary Club to the Rotarians of the Sound city was effective. But the imaginative accounts of the Seattle daily were scarcely more absurd, and little less damaging, than was the evidence of some of the witnesses before the submarine commission.

British Columbia, it is true, was devoid of adequate naval protection when the war broke out, as far as Canadian effort was concerned, and the votes of practically all of the "patriotic" witnesses in this city and Vancouver helped to make it so. But for the British alliance with Japan the case might have been serious, for it is quite probable that the hostile fleet, after establishing its rendezvous off the British coast, would have come north, demoralized our trade routes and inflicted other serious damage.

CRITICIZES THE COMMISSION. The Evening News, a Conservative newspaper of independent trend, published in Montreal, criticizes the methods adopted by Sir Charles Davidson in conducting the inquiry into the purchase of horses in Vancouver, and expresses the hope that they will not be adhered to in future investigations.

Sir Charles: "Was it your purpose, sir, to bribe public officials?" "No, sir," said the witness coloring. "This is a criminal proceeding and I am giving you full opportunity of justifying your conduct," warned the court.

view. On the other hand it may be taken for granted that no one is more anxious for a thorough ventilation of the question of purchasing horses than Sir Charles Davidson. There is, however, something disquieting in the methods of investigation adopted at Vancouver. If witnesses coming before the commission with important revelations are to be sternly warned that they leave themselves open to the criminal charge of inducing witnesses to talk freely, which is the great object to be attained?

There is sound sense in this. No commission can adequately probe into the matters it is charged with investigating if through the methods adopted in examination it causes parties concerned in the various transactions to cover up their tracks. That this was not done by those implicated in the horse, bandage, binocular, motor truck and other deals that were laid bare in the east was due to the fact that the public accounts committee of parliament, through a rigid examination and cross-examination conducted by some of the ablest legal men in Canada, already had established strong cases against the culprits.

HOW NEW ZEALAND DID IT.

Discussing the urgency of increased agricultural production in this province, a contemporary has maintained that the government can do nothing to bring this about; that it is a matter which rests entirely with the farmer himself. We disputed this theory pointing out that it was disproved not only by the experience of every country where agriculture was a flourishing industry but by the report of the inquiries made on this continent, in Europe and in Australia by the royal commission appointed by the government two years ago.

Commissioner Lucas reported that in New Zealand up to 1912 the agricultural industry was in a languishing condition; exports were unprofitable and the value of the financial obligations of the colony was felt that some decisive action on the part of the government was imperative; otherwise bankruptcy would be inevitable. The Seddon ministry, therefore, decided to initiate legislation which would make it possible and profitable for more people to settle on the land and for those already on the land to improve and stock their holdings.

Experts were sent to Europe to study the state aid systems in operation there, but as conditions in New Zealand were different from those existing in the old settled communities of these islands, the Seddon ministry in 1914 an "Advances to Settlers Act" was passed, which with sundry amending legislation proved of great benefit to the agricultural industry.

On this point Commissioner Lucas said: "The adoption of the New Zealand loaning system has not only resulted in largely increasing the output of the farms and giving a great impetus to the agricultural industry, but it has reacted in related and other industries in a further stimulation of trade in general. Failures have decreased fifty per cent in the last five years." The commissioner added: "With money available on terms suitable to the industry, the farmers have built better houses or remodelled their old ones, brought a large increase of land under cultivation, that would otherwise be lying idle, bought and kept better live-stock, bought and used more labor-saving machinery on the farms and in the houses, erected elevated tanks and windmills, laid out water in their dwellings and in their outbuildings, furnished irrigation for their vegetables and flower gardens around the houses, and have increased their dairy herds. Throughout the country a higher and better civilization is gradually being evolved; the young men and women who are growing up are happy and contented to remain at home on the farms."

Teutonic casualties have been less than twenty thousand per day for five or six months. With another front developing the proportion will be continued until the enemy has collapsed, which may not be far away as many people think.

A neutral and non-hypnotized American writes to the New York papers saying he is beginning to think the United States is afraid of Germany. If a nation without protest permits itself to be catalogued among the "powers" which are "too proud to fight," it may be expected to endure considerable provocation.

A Washington dispatch says the submarine controversy between Germany and the United States has been entirely cleared. And the waters around the British Isles have been almost entirely cleared of German submarines.

Which is the most successful nation in the war so far? Answer: Austria, which has not lost a battle, a prisoner, or a gun. If you do not believe it read the Vienna bulletins. We suppose one of these days Berlin will be "disavowing" Zepelin attacks on London, and thinking of a celebrated precedent, imagining that will be sufficient atonement for sinking a few hundred non-combatants.

Von Borsdorff having, on behalf of Turkey, "discovered" attacks on the Armenians, there surely cannot be any danger of Enver Bey and his gangs of butchers forfeiting the sympathy of the United States? Greece has informed Great Britain that she does "not consider herself bound by the treaty with Serbia to intervene in the war at present. Greece always was slippery. Our second job this year.

MILITANCY. Montreal Mail. The world is filled with war alarms. All kind souls (including), And women too, must rush to arms. The aged get grievous fighting. O' my well, I do not care. A plea for any truce. But I am certain to be there. When Mary tumbles.

BRITAIN'S FINANCES. London Daily Telegraph. Our sea power is unchallenged and unchallenged, our military strength grows greater every day. But our ability to stand the tremendous drain on our resources is not unchallenged and cannot grow greater. We in the country know not only that we can meet the financial challenge of our enemies until the last rag of the credit of the central empire is exhausted, but that we can stand the strain of accomplishing that feat of suicide—but that we are entirely resolved to do so. But we have also understood even that there has to be discipline on this side of the war, as on every other, if the nation is to come out of the struggle without permanent financial injury. That discipline is economy—rigid economy all round.

Teutonic casualties have been less than twenty thousand per day for five or six months. With another front developing the proportion will be continued until the enemy has collapsed, which may not be far away as many people think.

Return from Nanaimo.—Automobiles at Nanaimo are enthusiastic over the work being done from the Victoria headquarters of the Island Automobile association, according to Charles L. Harris, the secretary of the association, who returned to-day from a three-day trip to Nanaimo, where he enrolled several new members. Nanaimo automobilists and the prominent citizens there, he says, appreciate the efforts of the association board of governors in trying to get the Canadian highway extended from Alberni to Chilliwack.

Rowland's Band Concert.—J. R. Rowland will speak on the temperance question on Sunday evening at Fanctes theatre. The speaker will be introduced about the middle of the programme, which will be given by Rowland's band. There will also be vocal solos and solos. Mrs. R. W. Hindson, contralto; W. Kelway, tenor; and W. Charles are amongst those assisting. By special request the musicians will be heard in well-known hymns and a medley of opera favorites.

St. Saviour's, Victoria West.—Harvest Thanksgiving services will be held at St. Saviour's, Victoria West, on Sunday next, when the preacher will be Rev. Robert Connell the rector, who has just returned from the prairie. The choir, under the direction of the organist, Douglas Mackay, will render chosen music, in the morning singing Maunders' Te Deum in B flat, and at the evening worship Barnaby's well-known anthem, "Sing to the Lord of Harvest." All church people in the district and old friends of the congregation are invited to attend.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Y. R. Smith, assistant commissioner of the H. B. company, leaves this evening by the Premier for Westminster. He has gone up for the funeral of Captain Dunn, of the barque Titania, who was fatally injured last evening returning from the club. Captain Dunn was well known here, and for 26 years had been a master mariner. An Indian named Jim, formerly employed on the Hudson's Bay Upland farm, shot himself in his cabin on the reserve at noon to-day. The British farmers' delegates arrived at New Westminster on Tuesday from Calgary. They will be shown the farming lands in the Delta. On Thursday they will leave for Victoria by way of Vancouver. A stay of some days will be made at this city.

BE WINDOW WISE, MR. DEALER

Mr. Retailer, your show window should be a mirror that reflects people's wants. When standard articles are advertised in this newspaper your customers will read about them. They will want to see the goods. It will pay you if they see them in your window. People will know you are a window wise storekeeper and will come to you when they have money to spend.

Save Car Fares by living in the heart of the city. We have a limited number of clear cozy rooms from $2.00 per week. Let us show you them. Prince George Hotel (opposite city hall).

Unitarian Church.—On Sunday morning next, Rev. H. E. B. Speight will preach on "A Human and Humanitarian Religion." The following Sunday morning Mr. Speight will deliver his farewell service before he leaves to take charge of the University Unitarian church, at Berkeley, California.

Will Hold Social.—On Monday evening at 8 o'clock the Young People's Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church will hold a social in the church hall.

Young People's Rally.—Next Monday evening the Young People's Society of Victoria, associated with the local Christian Endeavor society, will hold their annual rally and election of officers in the Emmanuel Baptist church. The congregational quartette will be in attendance.

Empress Hotel Dances.—A dance will be held to-morrow under the auspices of the management of the Empress hotel, commencing at 4 o'clock. Miss Loughheed will be the chief vocalist.

Provincial Appointments.—Appointments made by the provincial executive during the week are those of P. S. Jack of Stewart, to be district registrar of births, marriages and deaths for the Portland Canal mining division, in the place of John Conway; and of W. R. Noel, Smithers, and Wilfred Andrew Willett, Duncan, to be notaries public.

B'Nai B'Rith Day.—B'Nai B'Rith day will be celebrated on Sunday evening next at the K. of C. hall, Fort street, at 8:30 p. m., under the auspices of Victoria Lodge, No. 758, I. O. B. B. This is the day set aside as an anniversary of the founding of the first Jewish order in existence to-day, the many branches of which exist all over Europe and America. A social and musical programme has been arranged for, and all who have received invitations are requested to attend and bring their families.

Cost of Special Survey.—The cost of the special survey which was made of portion of the municipality of Burnaby is announced as being $12,705.50.

Alleged Threats.—John Johnson, who looked somewhat of a wreck in the police court dock this morning, was charged with using threatening language to Morris Dumont in the words "I will kill you." He quavered out that he had nothing against the man and could not kill anyone. A remand was granted until to-morrow.

Building Permits.—Building permits have been granted to A. McDonald, of Denman street, for a frame addition costing $900, and to W. P. Hoggan for a frame, store on Dominion road.

Few Household Registers.—Although only two weeks remain in which to register in the city for licenseholders and householders, the assessor's office has only received fifty-one names to date. The registration is the slowest recorded for years.

Streets Committee.—Some routine business will be transacted at the meeting of the city streets committee to-day. Further attention is expected to be made to the construction of the swing span of the Hook Bay bridge. Efforts to reduce the dimensions to 60 feet, from the 70 feet sought by the government, have been in hand for some time.

Money for Red Cross.—Mrs. W. Matthews yesterday handed over to the Red Cross fund the sum of $49, this being the proceeds of the raffle by Capt. Ludlow, of the Pacific Coast Steamship company's ship "Umatilla," of an afternoon tea cloth, beautifully embroidered. The work was done by Mrs. Matthews, who is now engaged in making a second cloth to be disposed of in a similar way.

Losing Pastor.—Rev. Leland S. Albright, B. A., pastor of the Hampshire Road Methodist church, is leaving shortly for Toronto, where he will enter Victoria college and continue his studies with the object of securing his degree as Bachelor of Divinity. Mr. Albright has made for himself a warm place in the affections of his congregation here, who greatly regret his departure, but send him their best wishes.

Annual Thankoffering.—The annual thankoffering of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will be held at 3 o'clock next Monday, October 18. Mrs. E. P. Miller, now of Vancouver, and formerly a missionary in Africa, will speak.

At the close of the meeting afternoon tea will be served. All women interested in missions are cordially invited to be present.

Forbidden the Mails.—Still more anti-British and pro-German publications printed in the United States are being banned from Canada and forbidden the use of the mails. The latest to be added to the "Index Expurgatorius" of the postmaster-general are "Der Deutsche Lutheraner," published in Philadelphia, and "Ohio Waisenfreund," published in Columbus, Ohio. These are both weekly papers.

Moving Picture Operators.—The second examination under the by-law regulating moving picture operators will be held on Wednesday week at the city hall. Applicants for the examination should make their intentions known to the board by Monday week. As the by-law has been amended since the last examination, when matters did not proceed as smoothly as they might have done, it is anticipated that the examination will secure sufficient candidates to operate the moving picture business here, as well as afford necessary substitutes.

Nanaimo Assizes.—The Nanaimo assizes open in that city on October 25. Mr. Justice Clement is assigned to take the assizes there, in which case the trial of the Pacific Coast coal mines vs. Arbutnot and others will have to be postponed while he is away. Counsel engaged in that case are also briefed for the assizes, which are likely to last all the week. The cases set down for hearing are Rex v. Graham and Tomkin, manslaughter in connection with the South Wellington disaster; Rex v. Mackosky, lady-smith, arson; Rex v. Smith, carnal knowledge. The crown prosecutor will be W. H. Bullock-Webster.

Gave Reception.—At the Fairfield Methodist church parsonage, 220 Moss street, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, Rev. A. B. Osterhout and Mrs. Osterhout gave a reception. The home was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. Whiteley received with Mrs. Osterhout, while Mrs. Glass, Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Knott presided at the tea table assisted by Miss Henderson, Miss Robinson and Miss Pommerville. Miss Whiteley gave several instrumental and Miss Wright sang "A May Morn" and "Thora" in her usual attractive manner. Quite a number of people took the opportunity of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Osterhout during the afternoon and evening.

Gordon Head Concert.—A very successful concert took place in Gordon Head hall on Tuesday in aid of the funds of the Red Cross society. Reeve McGregor occupied the chair, and gave a short and interesting address, followed by a statement of the work accomplished by the members of the Women's institute, and others of the Gordon Head district, on behalf of the Red Cross. A musical programme followed, and several well-known artists took part, including Mrs. Hudson and Miss Harkness, Messrs. J. G. Brown and Thomas. Mrs. Hall acted as accompanist. A very interesting feature of the evening was the presentation by the reeve to Miss Ursula Edwards, of Gordon Head, of the gold medal given by him each year to the entrance examination candidate. In Spanish winning the highest marks. The medal was beautifully mounted as a brooch, and the recipient was heartily applauded. Refreshments were then served, and a short dance closed a pleasant and successful entertainment.

NEXT WEEK—Paul Armstrong's "THE ESCAPE."

AT THE THEATRES

PRINCESS STOCK CO.

The cosy little Princess theatre is comfortably filled nightly to see "Wildfire" played by the new stock company. The play has always had the distinction of being a press favorite and that the public endorses the verdict is shown in the way it is received. Opening very quietly, the action becomes swifter each succeeding scene, until at the end of the second act, where Mrs. Bawington outwits the cold-blooded Duffy by deliberately appropriating his handkerchief and giving a signal which defeats all his well-laid plans, the audience rises to the climax in a future of excitement. Dave Williams is warmly greeted each night by his old friends, and his pleasure at appearing again, before a Victoria audience is plainly shown in the whole-hearted manner in which he plays the staunch good-hearted horse-trainer, Donovan. The new company claims to have many New York successes which have never been seen here, among them, "The Escape," by Paul Armstrong, "Three Weeks," and many others. At the Saturday matinee, Lady M. will be shown on the stage after the performance, for the benefit of the children.

"THE STOLEN VOICE."

Robert Warwick, the famous movie star, is appearing on the Dominion Theatre screen in "The Stolen Voice," a wonderful drama which tells how a $500-a-week tenor, a feted celebrity to whom the respect and envy of men, the admiration and love of women came without the seeking, was robbed of his voice—his one priceless possession. Gerald Dorville became a motion picture actor. The man, who, driven by jealousy, had exercised his strange power to strip the singer of his unique and glorious faculty happened to witness a film performance of his former rival. As a result, in a manner remarkable, Dorville's voice returned to him. During his days of despair Dorville learned values. Re-arrired at the height from which misfortune had cast him he was able properly to discriminate between the shallow affectation of a glamer-loving woman who lionized him in his days of honor and condemned him in his humiliation, and the steadfast, unapproachable devotion of the simple single-hearted girl who loved the man—with or without the voice.

LENORE ULRICH IN FILM.

"Kilmens" with Lenore Ulrich, star of "The Bird of Paradise," in the title role is the attraction at the Royal Victoria for the last three days of this week, and is without doubt a very fine picture. It is a charming comedy-drama founded on one of the great Shakespearean masterpieces of fashionable England. The story of "Kilmens" is as follows: A beautiful, vivacious girl, Lenore Ulrich, who has kidnapped twelve years before had been one of the sensational mysteries of England, attracts Lord Leigh by her wonderful love of every living thing, and persuades his wife to take her into the castle. There dawns a romance with Lady Leigh's younger brother, but it comes to naught when Lady Leigh becomes foolishly jealous of her husband and the girl. The sensitive girl, unable to abide where she is not loved, leaves the estate and returns to the gipsies, even though it means marriage to a brutal fellow she had fled from. A little hunchback she has befriended stands her in stead, and he carries the word which results in Dorris Calhoun's real parents arriving on the scene and reclaiming their missing daughter. Conscience-stricken at having lost Kilmens, the Leighs meanwhile search for her high and low, to no avail. Finally, unable to find her any more, they come to spend the week-end with the rich Calhouns who live the other end of the

PANTAGES THEATRE.

Those who have not yet seen the local amateurs, including some of Victoria's best known singers, in the musical comedy "A Night in the Latin Quarter," showing all this week at Pantages, should not fail to go to the theatre either to-night, or one of the three performances to-morrow. The idea of having a local company to put on a regular turn is a distinctly novel one, and reflects great credit on the resource and initiative of the management. The music and libretto were written by Wilson Macdonald, the Canadian poet, who himself takes a prominent part in the comedy. Other principals are Ernest Fitch, H. J. Davis and Mrs. J. Maynard. The reigning comedienne has been one of the most successful round-the-circuit, and includes the spectacular and funny musical comedy, "Six Peaches and a Pair."

DOUBLE FEATURE BILL.

The week-end programme at the Majestic theatre is a particularly strong one, both as regards drama and comedy. "The World Film Features" are proving very popular, and a decided improvement both in attendance and also in the picture has been noticeable since the Dominion theatre company assumed control of this picture house. The programme for today and Saturday includes a World Film feature in five parts entitled, "The Boss." This picture is of strong dramatic interest, containing many stirring situations with a plot that is gripping in its entirety. The leading parts are played by two notable artists, namely Alice Brady and Holbrook Blinn. The rest of the cast is all that could be desired. The comedy part of the programme is well taken care of in the two-part comedy feature, "Work," with Charlie Chaplin. This is one of Charlie's best. The picture is full of laughs from start to finish.

An English traveller in the Orient, who was picking up material for a book, asked a pasha, "Is the civil service like ours? Are there retiring allowances and pensions?" "My illustrious friend," replied the pasha, "Allah is great, and the public functionary who stands in need of a retiring allowance when his term of office expires is a fool."

At Christ church, Vancouver, the marriage was celebrated on Monday last of Miss Doris Mabel Davis, of that city, and John D. Norris, of Victoria. The rite was performed by Rev. H. Beecham, of Holy Trinity church, Fairview. The bride was given away by her brother, D. H. Davis, and was attended by Miss Elsie Parkes as bridesmaid, R. Norris, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests, numbering about seventy-five, were entertained at a wedding breakfast by Mr. and Mrs. Leigh, of Point Grey. Mr. and Mrs. Norris are spending their honeymoon in Seattle.

A quiet but interesting wedding was celebrated yesterday afternoon at St. John's church, when Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick united in marriage George Slade, city salesman for the Vancouver Milling & Grain Co., Ltd., and Mrs. Nora Louise Monk, daughter of Mrs. E. J. Newson. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Florence E. Newson, and Walter Monk undertook the duties of groomsmen. Only relatives of the contracting parties were present. The happy couple left on the 4:30 boat for the Sound cities amid a shower of rice and confetti, their request Mr. and Mrs. George Slade will reside at 1223 Oscar street.

APPEAL IN AID OF STARVING JEWS IN RUSSIAN POLAND.

Millions of destitute Jews are literally starving and dying from exposure in these regions from the effects of the war. Their government is too much engaged and has not the means to help them. They are without food, shelter, or sufficient clothing to withstand the terrible Russian winter. This is the first time the Jewish community of Victoria has appealed to the public for aid of their suffering race, but the situation has become too vast for them to handle by themselves, and we are therefore solicited to help by your generosity for assistance. The money collected will be sent to the Jewish Relief Committee of Montreal, who will forward same to the Jewish Relief Committee in Russia. Subscription lists have been opened in the Times and Volunteer offices and the following banks, Royal Bank and its branches, Canadian Bank of Commerce, Bank of Montreal and Merchants Bank of Canada.

LINEN SHOWER AT AGED LADIES' HOME

Annual Event is Surprisingly Successful; Handsome Donations Made

The homes of the committee of the Aged Ladies' Home were more than realized yesterday afternoon at the annual linen shower in connection with that institution. Despite the many demands at the present time on the resources of almost all over the empire, Victoria gave liberal support to the older work which has each year found an ever-widening circle of friends. The pile of linen which was stacked on the table near the door at the close of the afternoon were ample testimony to the sympathy with which the work is regarded by the ladies of Victoria. Towels, pillow-cases, bureau-covers, table-covers, sheets, bath-flannelette and linen, were received in generous quantities, besides which the cash donations amounted to the sum of $50.

The affair brought together a very large gathering of people, including Mrs. F. S. Barnard, who showed the greatest interest in the home and its management, and after a visit of inspection, had nothing but praise for the institution. Many of the old ladies joined the visitors at tea, which was served in the big dining-room, the occasion being quite a festive one for the residents. The tea-tables were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and dahlias, the matron and her assistant who poured the tea, receiving very capable help from the staff, who passed around the refreshments and looked after the comfort of everyone. The floral decorations, which were entirely the work of Mrs. and the Misses McTavish, were beautiful, and were much admired. Mrs. Leiser had charge of the table of fancy work, which proved quite a profitable enterprise as usual, and the Misses Vincent and Dorothy McTavish operated the candy sales, which netted a neat sum for the funds of the home. Mrs. Gould collected the linen listing each donation as it was handed in, and all the other members of the committee were also present looking after the visitors and conducting them over the home.

The "shower" was a complete success, and the committee seize the opportunity to thank heartily all those who so generously contributed to the needs of the home. "What is the difference between valor and discretion?" asked Mrs. Brown. "Valor," replied Brown, "is lawfully the act of the champion; discretion is the art of the champion's neighbor, the assertion that he is a puffin and could knock into fits." "And discretion?" "Is doing it over the telephone."

VALUABLE MAN TO HAVE IN COMPANY

news, in which he stated that at no time did he ever receive instructions to frame an article of association protecting the vendors and directors from liability for damage.

Interested With Arbutnot. James M. Savage's examination for discovery was read by E. V. Bodwell, K. C., as a friendly convenience to Mr. Taylor, whose value was tried by long reading. Mr. Savage described himself as interested with Arbutnot and others in several properties on the island, in varying combinations of the same group of half a dozen men.

"An Old Friend." "Arbutnot wanted to give Dr. Young an old friend of his," was Savage's reply, "an interest in some property, in some good things he could get. Wishard was wrong, there was no talk of political purposes. I remember when Arbutnot first came out to meet Dr. Young. We were strangers here and Young was the only man he knew. We understood Young was in mining in the north, and it would be very valuable to have him associated in some way, and he told Dr. Young that if he would come in there would be an interest in this coal proposition for him. That is what Arbutnot told me at the time."

"What is this Dr. Young apart from his mining interests in the north, a politician?" asked Mr. Justice Clement.

"He is minister of education," Mr. Bodwell replied. "Savage's examination proceeded as to what had been told others of the syndicate as to this, but he did not remember any conversations with any of them. No doubt there must have been some talk, but not with Kimball, as to Michener, who was first, he did not remember, but they must have talked with Wishard, since he knew about it. There was no more explanation given Wishard than that Young was supposed to have that interest in the company because he was a mining man whom it would be well to have in an outside."

"Why should you give up something to an outsider?" "We all understood we were to do it right from the start. It was the same as other transactions where we gave bonus stock."

The witness had been questioned as to the feeling of all those shares in the Pacific Securities Co., and the holding of a proxy by Arbutnot for 11,575 shares, and for 1,051 shares, apparently the 1,050 shares for Dr. Young and one subscriber's share, in January, 1911, Savage said, he had a talk with Wishard in the King Edward hotel, Toronto, when Wishard outlined the position the New York group wanted to take. He denied absolutely that he had pointed out to Wishard the great danger the company faced of Arbutnot pressing his claim against it, because he had always told Wishard there was no danger of that at all.

This morning Mr. Bodwell, reading for Mr. Taylor, concluded the examination for discovery of Mr. Savage. The examination of C. U. Michener, a director of the company for four years or so from February, 1909, was read by Mr. Taylor. Mr. Michener stated he and devoted his time to the company. As representing the stockholders in the east and his own family he made complaint from time to time of extravagance in management and in connection with the construction of the railway from Boat harbor to the South Wellington mines, and some feeling sprang up as a consequence, especially on the part of Arbutnot and to some extent on that of S. H. Reynolds. This at times reached the stage where little conversation took place between them. On one occasion Arbutnot said: "Damn the stockholders. I would be sorry for Kimball, an old man like him to lose his money, but I am running this property," Michener said he took this as an intimation to keep quiet, and furthermore he was told by Arbutnot that if he did not stop objecting and criticizing "Arbutnot would call a meeting of the stockholders and have him put off the board. Michener's duties were the marketing of the coal.

As to the book-keeping of the company Michener stated that Arbutnot's accounts and those of the company were mixed together, and money paid out by the company for Arbutnot and charged up against him. Arbutnot explained that he did not want his money in the province; that it meant taxes and other complications; and that he did not want to give Winnipeg cheques.

Change in Quorum. Reference was made in the course of the examination to a change in the quorum for a directors' meeting from three to five, and Michener gave his idea of the reason for this step, in which he acquiesced. This was that Kimball and Wishard had been added to the board and consulted together in New York, he himself was frequently in that city, and he supposed Arbutnot and the others here were afraid they would get together some time and take some action against the interests of the Victoria group. The examination of J. P. Hartigan, a Seattle lawyer, who was interested in the company and is one of the defendants, was read, and then Mr. Taylor put in the examination taken on commission in New York and elsewhere, when several of the foreign stockholders were examined. Many of these said they had never received any notice of the meeting held on March 1, 1911, while some of them had received a report in July of that year when the new directors were in office. The examination of witnesses began this afternoon.

HIGH SCHOOL CADETS. Many Attractive Numbers Found on Programme to be Given Next Wednesday Evening.

The High school cadets' concert to be held next Wednesday evening has many attractive numbers which should make it popular. The 25th Regimental Victoria Fusiliers' band, by kind permission of Lieut.-Col. Louis Collins and officers of the regiment, will be present, and will furnish some military music. The event is being held under the auspices of the Victoria Ladies' Musical Club, which has arranged the musical part of the programme, and the L. O. D. E.

VOLUNTEER RESERVE. Exhibition March Through City Held Last Night by Corps.

The Victoria volunteer reserve, D. B. McCannan, R. O. O. C., last night demonstrated the excellent results obtained through the perseverance of the officers (Capt. W. Crow, Capt. Beaumont Boggs, Lieut. W. B. Grant, F. Smith and I. W. Cookley) and non-commissioned officers in raising a corps of volunteers for home defence. At 8 o'clock six platoons left the drill hall on an exhibition march through the city. The route taken was along Government, Yates, Quadra, Hillside, Douglas and Broughton, at many points little knots of spectators watching the march past. The hearing of the march was excellent, and the movement of the corps equal to that of any regular unit. The strength of the corps is now 250. By a continual increase of recruits and the additional platoon which Royal Oak has now under training, the strength, it is reasonably assumed, will be brought up to 500 by November. Corps drill is held each Monday and

AMATEUR HOCKEY CLUBS TO OPERATE PORTLAND MAY TRADE STAR FORWARD

Four-Club City League is Likely This Year; Rosebuds After Goal-Tend Hebert, of Ottawa Club

That amateur hockey will flourish this season, was the statement of a well-known local fan to the Times this morning. The outlook, of course, is not as bright as in former years because of the fact that a great number of the players who took part in the game last year are now in training, or in the front. A city league of four clubs will be organized and the length of the season depends entirely upon the season that the Arena will announce.

The Royal Arcadians will organize shortly and this league will be represented by one of the strongest clubs that ever entered the city series. They will have a majority of last year's Y. M. C. A. team, including Jimmy Stewart, Chief Wakely, Keppie Miller and other stars. Short, Hill & Duncan again will have a team, while it is possible that the Commercial league clubs will merge with the City-league to organize a compact circuit.

Past President Jack Mowatt, of the City league, will leave in a few days for San Francisco, where he will resume his operations in Fort Hardy real estate. Mr. Mowatt is one of the greatest boosters for hockey on the coast, and if there was a chance of getting a rink in the California metropolises, Buckheart John would be one of the first to throw his hat in the ring and organize a hockey league.

Red Lustig, former member of the Y. M. C. A. and B. C. Telephone hockey teams, is now with the Pioneer corps at Vancouver, on his way to the old country.

It is likely that the Western Scots will organize a hockey team under the leadership of Lieut. Dick Ham and Corp. Jimmie Hewitt. The 5th Battalion has a number of excellent hockey players in their role and would not doubt be able to field an exceptionally strong team.

Portland, Oct. 15.—E. M. Savage, manager of the Ice Hippodrome and the Portland hockey team, arrived here from Vancouver, B. C., where he attended the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association.

While no actual trades were arranged at the meeting, Savage announced that negotiations were practically completed for a deal which would send Art Throop, last year's centre, to Ottawa in exchange for Hebert, goal-tender for the Ottawa National Association team. Mike Mitchell, last year's Rosebud goal-tender, has enlisted and will not be available this season.

In order to fill up the vacancy in centre he caused by the loss of Throop, Savage has two class AA men in mind, both of them also from the National Hockey Association. Three young fellows will also be signed up for tryouts, which will give the local team plenty of men.

Contracts have already been sent to

WORLD'S CHAMPIONS

TRIS SPEAKER
Famous Texan outfielder, who contributed to the winning streak of the Red Sox by his timely punches with the willow, and his defensive work.

Ernie Johnson, Charlie Tobin, Ed Ostman and "Smookey" Harris, of last year's aggregation, as well as Tommy Dunderdale, who was traded for Ian McDonald some time ago. These, in addition to Hebert, who did not play last year on account of an injury, and the men Savage is after, will complete the team.

AFTER CYCLONE.

It is just possible that Cyclone Scott will have a couple of bouts before he leaves for the front. Bob Bracken, well-known middle weight pugilist, has enlisted with the 6th, and is seeking Cyclone's scalp, while Ross Leighton, who is now with the navy, wants a return bout. Should Cyclone leave before the contests can be arranged, a match between Leighton and Bracken looks like a fixture.

CRICKET MEETING.

To-day at 5 p.m. the general meeting of the Civil Service Cricket club will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building. All members are requested to attend.

MIDGET CLASSES.

Saturday morning the Y. M. C. A. Midget Swimming club will give instruction in speed swimming, turns and racing dives will be demonstrated and taught by Mr. Frank Crompton.

THREE FOOTBALL GAMES TO-MORROW

Thistles, Wests and Scots Are Picked as Winners in Week-end Schedule; Teams

To-morrow's clash at the Royal Athletic park between the Jacksons and Western Scots, features the week-end football schedule. The fact that last year's champions were given a second hearing at Beacon Hill last Saturday by the reorganized Thistle eleven, places the Scots as favorites, but a keen match may be looked for. The Jackson club has been changed a bit, while the Scots will also present a few new faces. The latter team, won from the Wests in a close game at the Willows a week ago, but changes have been made in their forward line which are expected to produce a better scoring aggregation.

Wests should take the measure of the 5th Fusiliers, unless the Green Shirts are away below their form of past seasons. Jack Youson claims that his team was not in shape for their game a week ago, and he looks for a win. Thistles, with a couple of changes which ought to produce an even faster scoring line, look for a decisive win over the 5th Regiment at Beacon Hill. All three matches should produce a lot of fine soccer, and the fans will be able to get a line on the strength of the teams, as the players will be in pretty fair shape for to-morrow's schedule.

Sir John Jackson—Lomas, Sheriff and Thimbleliffe; Iven, Green and Allen; McGregor, Nichol, Grant, Heidge and Douglas. Reserves: Hendall and A. Kerley.

Thistles—Leeming, Ireland and Jayler; McKinnon, Adams and Ferris; Finckow, Muir, Fillmore, R. Lea and D. Munro. Reserves: Hawden and Cummins. Players are requested to be on hand not later than 2.45 p.m., as the game starts at 3 o'clock prompt.

Victoria Wests—Robertson; Whyte and Shakespear; Stewart, Church and Jackson; Sherrin, McLeod, Youson, Heyland and Baker. Reserves: Gardner and Mesher.

A game will be played to-morrow afternoon between the Y. M. C. A. Juniors and the Buglers of the 5th Highlanders at Central Park. The Y. M. C. A. line-up will be as follows: Goal, T. Wheeler; backs, F. Halford and W. Baker; half backs, T. Maywick, A. Powell and C. Constable; forwards, B. Morley, A. Taybome, W. Akerman, L. Francis and J. Marsh. Reserves, E. Bidlake and T. Wood.

The Y. M. C. A. team will meet at the institution at 2 o'clock, and invites the visiting team to make use of the dressing room and bath accommodation.

A game will be played between the navy and a picked team from the North Ward Park to take place on Saturday at the Canteen grounds. The Picked team will line-up, as follows: Frank Little, Charlie Whatman, Dump Lamphere, Bo Menzies, Joe Williams, Bobby Livingstone, Tiny Bigham, Bobby Cummins, Dud Laity, Huft Ploves, Finny Campbell, Babe Williams, the well-known magnet, will accompany the team to Esquimalt.

FIFTH REGIMENT ANNUAL SPORTS

Gunner Grimes is Big Point Winner; Belmont Battery Capture Relay Race

A splendid crowd witnessed the annual field day of the 5th C. G. A. at the Work Point barracks parade grounds yesterday afternoon. This well-known corps, covering itself with additional glory in the exceedingly high-class performances of its athletes during the afternoon's sports. The events were all keenly contested and aroused a great deal of enthusiasm amongst the members. The band of the 5th Regiment kept the crowd in good humor with the latest popular and military airs, while refreshments were also served.

Gunner Grimes was the big winner in the individual events, capturing the century dash in splendid time. The Belmont battery won the relay race in a close finish. Capt. Mulcahy presented the prizes at the conclusion of the sports, the complete results being:

SPORTING GOSSIP

Haley Jackson should land a regular berth on the West half-back line.

He is a good check and has a healthy kick in either foot.

Bob Whyte looks better than ever this season.

The 8th Fusiliers have a star goal-tender in Matheson.

Gordon Leeming, between the uprights for the Thistles, is a star.

Art Davies, the well-known 5th Regiment football player, left with the draft Saturday night for the old country.

Stan, Okell plays a steady game at half for the Western Scots.

Victoria Wests have landed a sterling player in Church, formerly of the Fairfields.

Tommy Blackford, who played with the West Juniors and the Argos last season, is with the Medical Corps at Vernon.

Billy Kerr, former North Ward Junior soccer player, has joined the 8th.

Bobby Lea played a steady game on the Thistle forward line.

Johnny Cummins, of the Thistles, has a wicked shot.

Jimmy Cummins, former Empire soccer star, has joined the ranks.

Archie Muir and Jimmy Adam, of the Thistles, are about the trickiest players in the province.

MURPHY IMPROVED.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—All the clubs in the Big Four football union will play out their remaining games as scheduled. The Argonauts, who were anxious to drop out on account of the injury to "Glad" Murphy (whose condition at last report was somewhat improved) have decided in deference to the wishes of the other clubs of the union, to continue. Ottawa and Hamilton wanted the Argos to play out their schedule while Montreal was willing for the armament to abandon it if they desired. There was a consideration of the situation at a meeting of the Argonauts last night, and it was unanimously decided that they would finish out the season.

SALE OF DEER OFF.

Only two months more of deer-shooting remain on the island, and official notification is given that venison cannot be sold after to-day. A game warden has made the rounds of local restaurants, and prosecutions will follow anyone who is found with venison on his premises after to-day.

MADDER WINNER IN SEATTLE BOUT

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 15.—The opening smoker at the Seattle Athletic club last night was a good one.

The last bout of the evening and one of the best ever seen in the big club was between Earl Baird and Lloyd Madden. It was such an even thing between them that a draw would have been the most satisfactory verdict, but under the amateur rules there must be a winner and a loser in each bout, so the decision went to Madden.

Another good bout was that between Charley Bontag and Claud Scott, the latter a brother of Pat. They are very evenly matched, but Scott got the decision.

JOCKEY DIES.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 15.—Jockey Carl Ganz, of Louisville, Ky., who was injured in an accident during the running of the first race at Latonia last Monday, died in a hospital here last night. Ganz had the mount on Beachcomber and in a mix-up of horses near the club house turn he was thrown from the saddle. One of the horses following Beachcomber kicked Ganz in the head, fracturing his skull. Ganz was considered one of the leading jockeys riding on western tracks.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONS REFUSE TOUR OFFER TRISCO EXPOSITION SERIES ABANDONED

Red Sox and Phillies Divide Coin and Disband; Big Training Camp Planned

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—The proposed trip to the Pacific coast of the world's champion Red Sox and the Philadelphia National League pennant winners was declared off yesterday by Robert B. McRoy, representing the national baseball commission.

Inability to come to an agreement is the cause for the abandonment of the trip.

Boston, Oct. 15.—With checks in their possession for $1,235,300, 149,000 individual shares of the proceeds of the world's series games, several members of the champion Red Sox team left for their homes yesterday. First baseman Abner Doubleday and Catcher Cady are planning to become members of a special team playing under the management of Secretary Bancroft, of the Queen's club.

Twenty-two players shared equally in the money split. McNally, one of the eligibles who was with the team only a short time, receiving a smaller sum than the others.

Phillies Get Theirs.—The Phillies ball players received their share of the receipts apportioned to the players taking part in the big games this week yesterday. Despite the fact that the team was on the losing end, each member of the squad who was with the team when the National League pennant was won, with the exception of one man, received the tidy sum of $2,492.22.

The Philadelphia end of the purse was divided into 24 parts, and each of the 25 men eligible received his share. The twenty-fourth share was divided into three parts, one of which went to Eitzner Oeschger, who rejoined the Phillies in September. The other two parts were divided among Mike Deek, the trainer of the team, and several others, including the mascot. Manager Pat Moran received the same amount as each player.

Phillies Disappointed.—The Philadelphia players expressed sorrow over the fact that their tour with the Red Sox, which had been planned for some time, had fallen through. Although several of the Phillie players will play on the all-national team which will make a trip to the west, the others have no plans for the future.

Although it has not yet been decided just who will make up the team which will tour the west, it is expected that Pitcher Alexander will be among the men to represent the local team.

Seattle, Oct. 15.—Regardless of the fact that the Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia National League teams will not make a trip to the Pacific coast, Seattle baseball fans will get a chance to see the all-star National and American league teams, which formerly made a date here for the middle of November.

New York, Oct. 15.—Dover Hall, a tract of 2,500 acres, a great deal of which is virgin pine, near Brunswick, Ga., is the new mecca for sporting men. Headed by Capt. J. L. Russell, president of the Yanks, a number of sporting men recently closed a deal of the place, and will turn it into a winter resort. While it was purchased primarily for a winter retreat, it is believed the place eventually will be converted into a gigantic co-operative training camp, where big league clubs can train in the spring.

Many Magnates Interested.

Those interested in the proposition are James Gaffney, Robert Davys and George Stallings, of the Boston Braves; Harry Hempstead and John McGraw, of the Giants; Ben Johnson, American League president; John K. Tener, National League head; Ed. Barrow, president of the International League; Ty Cobb, James Navin, owner of the Detroit Tigers; Col. Jacob Ruppert, part owner of the Yanks; and others.

Several of the magnates will erect buildings there. A large clubhouse also will be built.

Connie Mack is being picked for a pennant winner next year. If he does, he will be regarded as even more of a marvel by the baseball world than he now is. To cut away all the old heads and make up a new machine is a rather hard task.

VETERAN PASSES AWAY.

San Francisco, Oct. 15.—Stewart Cotton, a gridiron star of Stanford university in the late '90s, died here today following an extended illness. In 1888, when Walter Camp was coach of the Stanford football team, he declared Cotton was the greatest football player the Pacific coast had ever developed. After having been graduated from college Cotton went to the Philippine islands, where his health failed him.

GRAND CIRCUIT TO CLOSE AT LEXINGTON RACETRACK TO-DAY

Lexington, Oct. 15.—There is an easy winner in the 234 trial, the grand sweep of the next to last day of the Grand Circuit meeting here yesterday, beating Margaret Driscoll in the final heat by three lengths after losing the opening mile to the Paper the Girl at mare. Wright brought the Potpourri colts to the front and won as he pleased in the second and third mile.

Astley won the 213 trial in three heats. Guy Neill, well driven by Ed. being a customer in the first and third, and Abou, Tubel in the second.

The first division of the 129 race went to six heats before Hal Mages was awarded the victory, taking the last three heats. Farlight won the first two and the third went to Fred Mac. Leonard saved Hal Mages and had no difficulty in making the race for the next three rounds.

May Direct Wins Heat.

The second division went over until today, after May Direct had won the opening heat. It was intended to finish the meeting yesterday, but failure to complete this event carried the meeting over until today.

Peter Volo equalled his own time—2:22—in an effort to beat it, going in 27 to the quarter, 1:30 to the half, and 1:54 to the three-quarter. He tried badly after passing the last eighth pole and finished under the whip of T. W. Murphy. An occasion was given the straggler and the driver at the return past the stand.

Peter Belmont, by Peter the Great, put of Ella Belmont, made a new season record for 2-year-old trotting colts when he went a mile against time in 2:01 and 2:01. Thought made a new season mark for 3-year-old pacing fillies, by pacing a mile against time in 2:04.

SOUR GRAPES

CYCLONE TAYLOR

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Officers of the Ottawa Hockey club state that they know nothing of the report that Fred Taylor would play hockey here during the coming winter. President Bate said they had made no effort to land Taylor. Coach Smith said he would have no room for the Vancouver star. Taylor is still at Vancouver, and will probably remain there. President Bate said that the Ottawas had other plans, but that they did not concern Taylor.

One Ottawa director is said to be in favor of calling off the N. H. A. until the war is over. But there is no chance of the schedule being suspended.

CHANCE'S BONER COST THE YANKS. A FORTUNE

Frank Gilhooley, the former Montreal Royal, earned himself a nice piece of money by his brilliant performance on the International League circuit this season—and a good piece of money for the Buffalo club also. Gilhooley gets a $2,000 bonus for signing a two-year contract with the New York Americans. Besides that, Gil is to receive $1,500 a year for his services.

It is understood that Buffalo received $8,000 from New York for Flash. The latter being a good business youth, insisted that he receive at least $1,000 of this as a bonus, and in putting forth his demands casually mentioned that the Peds were after him and that the Buffalo Electric would be more than pleased to give him that amount as a bonus to sign. Inasmuch as Manager Donovan had but a few hours in which to sign Gilhooley, he agreed to the latter's terms. The drafting season opened yesterday, and Gil-hooley could have been drawn for a $1,000 bid. He will join Donovan's team at the close of the International League season. In addition to receiving $3,000 for Gilhooley, the Yankees will turn over some players to the Buffalo team.

Taken all through, Gilhooley has cost the New York Americans a pretty penny. In 1912 the Yankees paid the Montreal club $12,500 for him. Shortly after the season was opened he was traded to Buffalo with another player for Truesdale. The latter did not cut any too much ice in New York, and was later sent back to the International. Now the Yankees have come back and paid $5,000 for the same Gilhooley, and in addition must give Buffalo some players, as well as paying $1,500 a year for two years.

The entire transaction stands the New York club $7,000 for this one man, not to mention the players sent to Buffalo or to be sent.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Sunday Lacrosse in Montreal. It is a well known fact that a majority of the baseball leagues, except those operating in the State of New York, depend upon the Sunday "gates" for their profits. The National lacrosse club, of Montreal, staged a lacrosse match recently that drew nearly ten thousand spectators, while their Saturday contests averaged about two thousand for the N. L. U. season. This is one of the largest crowds that ever viewed a game in eastern Canada, and for war times it is certainly a wonderful record. The chances are that the Nationals will continue to play Sunday lacrosse in the eastern metropolis, and when the N. L. U. is formed next season a majority of their home games will be played on the Sabbath. Baseball flourishes in Montreal every Sunday, so that the Nationals are following an old sporting precedent. It is doubtful, however, if Ontario cities would care to follow the lead, even if they are not balked by the Lord's Day Alliance.

WILHOIT TO BOSTON.

News comes from Boston that the Braves have traded Bert Whaling, the old Seattle catcher, and Herb Moran, a good fly-chaser, to Vernon for Joe Wilhoit, the big, awkward outfielder who used to play with Victoria. Joe is a good hitter and a fair fielder. He is very fast getting down to first base.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED IN FERRY SERVICE

Vancouver Boats to Leave Here at 2:30 p. m. and Arrive at 3 p. m. Daily

Owing to a change in the time-table of the transcontinental trains, the B. C. Coast Service has found it necessary to alter the schedule of the boats on the Vancouver run in order that the connections may be maintained.

During the spring, summer and early fall months, the C. P. R. ferry leaves here for Vancouver at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. This is done in order to accommodate the tourists who arrive from Seattle, and are bound through to give them two hours in this city and enable them to take a full-day ride about the city.

No change will be made in the departure of the ferry for Seattle, which will have half an hour less over at this port, but this will not affect her to any extent.

St. Sophia Going North. The C. P. R. steamer Princess Sophia leaves for Prince Rupert and Skeena to-night. Along with the Princess Alice, the Sophia has been operating to Alaska for some months past. At the end of this month the Sophia will be cancelled as the mail connection will be at that time.

Northward of Triangle Island—Non-Existence of Uncharted Rock. Previous notice—No. 148 (60) of 1914. Position—53 miles 23 deg. (N. 53 deg. W. Mag. 1 from Triangle Island light-house.

Position—53 miles 23 deg. (N. 53 deg. W. Mag. 1 from Triangle Island light-house. Examined on Oct. 13. The above locality was examined by Lieut. Commander P. C. Musgrave, R. N., officer in charge of the hydrographic survey steamer Lilburt, who found soundings all round the position varying from 42 to 133 fathoms.

Another position deduced by lead reckoning from verbal reports made by the master of the steamer Quinault, 3 miles 24 deg. 0 min. (S. 28 deg. 0 min. W. Mag. 2 from the above spot, was also examined and soundings up to 22 fathoms found. The Pacific swell was sufficient at the time to break on any six-fathom bank, and no breaker was visible on any portion of the ocean within the horizon of the Lilburt.

Non-Existence of Uncharted Rock. The position was estimated by the master of the Quinault after a long run in dense fog, and as it is now apparent that he was seriously out in his reckoning, the shoal may be considered non-existent.

Removed from charts.—This shoal if previously placed on any charts as P. D. should be removed.

Milbank Sound—Non-Existence of Reported Rock. Location.—The rock charted P. D. bearing 180 deg. (S. 28 deg. E. Mag. 1) 4.10 miles from White Rock in Milbank Sound does not exist, and should be removed from the charts.

Examined—Lieut. Commander P. C. Musgrave, R. N., officer in charge of the hydrographic survey steamer Lilburt, recently examined the locality and found soundings of from 30 to 90 fathoms.

LADIES' MUSICAL CLUB CONCERT SUCCESSFUL

Talented Artists Present Delightful Programme in Aid of Red Cross

Victoria will ever remain indebted to the kindly fates who brought to dwell in her midst such a musician as Mrs. J. R. Green, than whom no more appreciated player has ever been heard in the city even among famous pianists who have visited here from time to time. "Summum Genus" of the piano, she has a delightful personality which reveals itself in her music, and has made her a favorite with the general public as with the higher musical critics. Her performance at the Red Cross concert at the Empress ballroom last evening constituted the outstanding feature of a programme replete with good things, and made memorable the first concert given by the Ladies' Musical Club in this year of grace.

Only a higher critic could do justice to her programme, and say which of the many numbers were the more difficult to perform. But from the popular standpoint they were equally brilliant in point of execution, and selected with a nice appreciation of what the average concert-goer is able to relish in the way of really good music. Although only down for two numbers, Moszkowski's Valse in E Major, and the lovely Paganini-Liszt composition, "La Campanella," with its many variations on the same theme, the audience had at least four other numbers, the most popular of which were undoubtedly "Solea Bolis," with its suggestion of glinting leaves, streams, and fairy bells, and Moszkowski's Italian Melody. Two other Moszkowski numbers were expertly performed, "The Juggler," a difficult composition which displayed the performer's mastery of technique, and his "Liebestraum." In all these the absolute purity of Mrs. Green's work, her clear definite execution, and her interpretative skill were impeccably revealed, and made her audience hope that at some future time she may be heard here in detail.

There were many other delightful things on the programme. Mrs. Robert Baird, who has one of the most pleasing contraltos, sang Mascagni's "Ave Maria" in a very finished and sympathetic way. Mrs. Green playing the violin obligato. At her second appearance two Cadman songs were heard, the first "At Dawning," suiting the singer admirably, and being followed by the less familiar but even more beautiful "Call Me No More." This latter, like the "Ave Maria," would be spoiled by a voice less sympathetic to the feeling of the singer than Mrs. Baird's, whose phrasing and vocalizing combined made of the song a beautiful thing. Her encore was a pretty French chanson which appealed to her audience instantly.

Miss Loughhead, who was seen here recently in "The Follies" and was, consequently, well-remembered by many present, represented Hamilton Earle, who was unable to come from Vancouver as announced. A pupil of Mr. Earle's, Miss Loughhead was the servely popular in "Rose in the Bud," "Come to My Garden," and "Gin-a-Body," all of which she sang with the freedom and clear enunciation of a true patriotic song, composed by Rev. Father Anselm Wood, who has been so active in the Red Cross work here since the organization of the society, was sung by Mr. Macaulay, who happily, was chosen to introduce the new composition. The piece, entitled "Keep the Red Cross Banner Flying," has a good melody and pleasing words, and proved immensely popular. It was regretted by many present that the composer himself was not present to respond to the applause which followed the rendering of the composition. Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Conyers Bridges, water, and Mrs. Green made thorough and constant accompanists for the vocalists.

It is some time since Miss Joy Carvert has played before a big audience here, and her several numbers on the violin last evening had the absolute attention of her hearers. Three numbers were programmed for this young artist, a Bach composition which was played perhaps with too much reserve but nevertheless in a manner which revealed the sensitiveness of the player. Wieniawski's "Scherzetto," played with much more spirit and vigor, and popular with the audience, and Kreisler's "Caprice," of which she showed talent.

Your Child's Cough

Is it nothing? Is it to be neglected until it leads to that terrible scourge consumption? Peps stand between winter coughs and colds, and serious consequences. Peps are tablets made up of Pine extracts and medicinal essences, which when put into the mouth turn into healing vapors. These are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes—not swallowed down to the stomach, which is not ailing.

Try a 50c. box of Peps for your cold, your cough, bronchitis or asthma. All druggists and stores of Peps Co., Toronto, will supply.

Peps

A quartette from the Arton club opened and closed the programme with at the beginning, "Holy Night," and at the end of the evening, "The Soldier's Farewell," which is one of the most favored of the numbers in the repertoire of the club. The ballroom was filled to capacity, and it is assumed that a neat sum has been cleared for the Red Cross as the result of the undertaking.

C. N. R. PARTY WILL BE HERE NEXT WEEK

Personnel Will Not Be Known Till Monday; Other Prominent People Here

As far as is at present known, the party of members of parliament and newspapermen who are en route by a special Canadian Northern railway train across Canada, as a formal opening of the new transcontinental line, will be in Victoria in the middle of next week. The mayor took up to-day with Commissioner Cuthbert the provision of automobiles in order to allow the visitors to see Victoria. His worship leaves on the night boat to-day to join the passenger train, departing at 8 a. m. to-morrow with the party to meet the special from the east.

The names of the members of parliament who are likely to visit Victoria will not be known till the special train arrives in Vancouver on Monday evening. It will contain the most representative body of men who have come west this fall.

A. M. Hirsch, of Montreal, N. J., who is visiting in Victoria, was taken over part of the Sooke waterworks system to-day. The company with which he is associated own the patent rights of the lock joint adopted with the concrete pipe used on the flow line.

The party of eastern engineers to whom reference was made yesterday, was given an opportunity of seeing something of the city paving and the northwest sewer to-day, prior to leaving on the afternoon boat for Vancouver.

S. H. Reynolds, a commissioner of the Greater Winnipeg Waterways scheme, is in the city. P. W. Herrick, a son of Myron T. Herrick, late American ambassador to France, will be here with Mrs. Herrick on Sunday. The duration of his stay is at present unknown.

YOUR SOLDIER BOY NEEDS ZAM-BUK

Read How They All Ask For It.

In your next parcel to your soldier at the front be sure to include a few boxes of Zam-Buk. Remember, they can't buy it out in the trenches, and depend upon you to supply them. Read the following to see how they need it.

Private E. Westfield writes: "We find Zam-Buk very useful. It is the best remedy for sore hands after trench-digging and for frost-bites, rashes and cold sores, which are very common out there. The man who has a box of Zam-Buk is very popular."

Private J. R. Smith, of the "Princess Patricia's," writing to a friend in Ottawa, says: "Tell the friends if they want to help me, Zam-Buk would be useful indeed."

Private Johnson writes: "Mrs. [redacted] referred to send me a box. I have written to tell her to send out some Zam-Buk instead. It will be of more use than all the blankets in creation."

Another says: "Advise every one of the boys to bring with him a box of Zam-Buk. It is better than a box of bread to a starving man out here."

For sore feet, chafed places, scalds, sores, barbed wire scratches, cuts, abrasions, cold sores, chapped hands, etc., Zam-Buk is a veritable marvel. It stops the pain and heals so rapidly. Here it costs but 50c. per box. Out at the front, to your friends in the trenches and engaged on communications, it is priceless. Send a few boxes to your next parcel. Remember also that for similar injuries sustained at home it is just as good.

MAKING MEN.

Toronto News. They took him from a counter. His face was thin and old. He shivered in the slightest draught. And frequently caught cold. They took him from a counter. And gradually he went. They let him sleep on his boards. Beneath an icy tent.

Sometimes of course he shivered. His feet were often damp. But pills and marches hardened him. He grew to like the cold. He had no cause to sniffle. To cough or sneeze or choke. He did not shrink from wintry gales. And draughts became a joke.

They took him from a counter. They fed him, wondrous well. They Swedish-exercised him in a way no tongue could tell. They kept him in the open air. No longer does he sigh. For he has gained some thirty pounds since early in July.

Quite recently a warship of the Atlantic fleet found it necessary to call for a few hours, at a military port on the coast of Ireland. Tommy Atkins, meeting a full-bearded Irish tar in the street a couple of hours later, said: "Pat, when are you going to place your whiskers on the reserve list?" "When you place your tongue on the civil list," was the Irish sailor's reply."

Y. M. C. A. MEN'S MEETINGS

Harry Ballantyne, Western Secretary of National Council, Will Speak on Sunday.

The Sunday afternoon men's meetings in the Y. M. C. A. were auspiciously inaugurated last Sunday, when about one hundred men gathered in the lobby of the building. The principal speaker for the afternoon was Rev. Charles A. Sykes, of the Congregational church. Mr. Sykes spoke on "A Battle-Scarred Veteran," referring first to the battle-scarred veterans of this war and their home coming, and secondly to the scarred veterans of the battle of life.

Next Sunday's meeting will be addressed by Harry Ballantyne, western secretary of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A. in Canada. Mr. Ballantyne will tell of some of the work being done by the Y. M. C. A. among the soldiers at home and abroad. Mr. Ballantyne's work keeps him in direct touch with all the military camps throughout Canada. There will be the usual musical programme, including several solos.

The religious work committee of the association, under the able leadership of R. G. Howell, is working hard to make the Sunday meetings a success. The committee has grasped the importance of its work, and intends to bring the spiritual side of the association to a higher standard than ever before.

A hearty invitation is extended to all men to attend next Sunday's meeting.

FOR HOME SERVICE.

A conscription army is required for service at home or in the immediate neighborhood of home. For service in India, or anywhere equally distant, it is out of the question. If we have conscription it must apply to every man in the country. It must not be the poor alone. That was possible in the old days when workmen had no vote, and when trade unions were rigorously put down. But now when the great bulk of the voters are workmen and when trade unions are vigorous and rich, it is literally out of the question. Consequently, if there is to be conscription, every man, from the poor to the peasant, must be liable to it. And does any body seriously suppose that the country would allow professional men, men in business, men producing great work to be taken as privates from their business and sent to the ends of earth to fight for what might or might not be worth fighting for? It's certain that we must maintain a standing army quite distinct from a conscript army—London Statist.

Greatest Massacre in Modern Times

From Toronto Mail and Empire

An appeal has been made to President Wilson to protest in the name of the United States against the massacre of Armenians which has been going on for several months past, and which...

The fact remains that of the 2,000,000 Armenians who dwell in Turkey some 500,000 have been murdered by Turkish troops and civilians, and that some 2,000,000 of them have been driven into the desert, there to become the prey of the Kurds and wild beasts...

A Policy of Extirmination. The massacre of 1895 and 1908 which shocked the world as no other...

The Business Men of Turkey. The Turks hate the Armenians for another reason besides their race...

When some thousands had been disposed of upon this pretext, the surviving Armenians were called upon to deliver up any arms they had...

A composer once brought a manuscript to Rossini, who, on listening, every minute took off his hat and put it on again...

Private Cars Must Not Be Allowed to Remain on Stands

There are certain areas of the roadway in the vicinity of Belleville street which are set apart for various purposes of utility for hire and these cannot be used by private owners to stand cars.

This was brought home to S. L. Wilson to-day by the imposition of a $5 fine. Mr. Wilson brought some friends down to the court on Saturday last, and stopped his car on Menzies street while he carried his baggage to the boat.

Sgt. Walker told his worship that he had warned Wilson to move on, but his orders were disregarded, and the car remained where it was for twenty-five minutes or more.

Constable Roberts bore out what the sergeant had said.

Constable Allen proved the offence, which had been acknowledged by the defendant at the outset when he said that technically the charge was all right, but that he got the evidence out by making a lot of small difficulties, and fined him $5.

Memorial Service.—Victoria L. O. L. 1426 and Victoria Purple Star, L. O. B. A. 104 will hold a joint memorial service in memory of Lieut.-Colonel Ross, C. C. Court, killed at the front, and his wife, Sister Court. All members of Orange lodges and their friends are invited to attend service to be held on Sunday, 17th inst., in Orange hall, Yates street, at 1 o'clock. Members of the Eagles and other fraternal societies are cordially invited. For committee, R. W. Jamieson.

SENT TO JAIL FOR THEFT OF ONE DOLLAR

Ex-Privates of 67th Battalion Each Receive Sentence of Three Months

Joseph Wells and William Houston, remanded on Tuesday by Judge Lamppman, who had convicted them of the theft of $1 from Pte. V. A. Scarborough at the Willows, were this morning sentenced to serve three months in jail. The men were formerly privates in the 67th battalion.

They were remanded on Tuesday after their conviction on the evidence of Pte. Scarborough and their own admissions, because they suggested that Lieut.-Colonel Ross, commanding the 67th battalion, would take them back and overlook the fact that they had been convicted of a criminal offence. Both pleaded that it was only necessary for them to sign a Col. Ross to make the matter right.

When their case was called this morning, Judge Lamppman asked if there had been any communication with Col. Ross regarding his willingness to take the men back, and was informed by Provincial Constable Owens that the officer commanding would not have the men back. He considered them undesirable as soldiers. They had been dismissed from the regiment following the complaint made by Pte. Scarborough.

The men were very disappointed. The police had information of past misbehavior against Wells. Judge Lamppman said the offence on which they had been convicted was not particularly serious, and therefore they would get three months.

The court then began the hearing of the case of Roy against Lane and MacLing, Chinese, who are charged with having retained in their possession articles belonging to Walter Daverne, knowing them to have been stolen. The goods were taken from a store adjacent to premises occupied by Chinese and were found in a shed at the premises of Mar Hong. The evidence of the witness is being interrupted slowly by the Chinese interpreter, and is a repetition so far of that taken at the preliminary inquiry held in the police court. Mr. Heschmer appears for the crown and Mr. Lowe for the accused.

When the case opened this morning Mr. Lowe sought an adjournment because he had received notice from the crown prosecutor, that new witnesses other than that introduced in the police court, would be introduced by the crown. He desired time to prepare against this. His honor ruled that the case should proceed with the witnesses that were present, and if an adjournment was then necessary it could be had. To adjourn the case this morning, his honor said, would only involve the additional cost of witnesses.

Judgment was given in the case of the Vancouver Milling company against Komp for $14.35 for goods supplied. The defendant did not appear.

Vauderville for "Red Cross"—This evening, at the Rex theatre, Esquimalt road, a vaudeville entertainment in aid of the Esquimalt branch of the "Canadian Red Cross" society will be held. The programme will consist of moving pictures, music and dancing.

Mr. R. H. Hooley will sing "Starshine in Your Smile" and Miss Laurin will sing "Hello" and other numbers will be sung. There will be a cello obligato by Mr. Middleton. There will be dancing by Miss Alma Bray and numbers by Mr. Halley, master-at-arms of the Esquimalt dockyard. The entertainment is being given under the distinguished patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Barnard. Sir Richard and Lady Melville, Mr. and Mrs. Storey, and their friends are invited to attend service to be held on Sunday, 17th inst., in Orange hall, Yates street, at 1 o'clock. Members of the Eagles and other fraternal societies are cordially invited. For committee, R. W. Jamieson.

WOUNDED IN THE HAND AT FESTUBERT FIGHT

Lance-Corporal Tait Arrived in the City To-day, Having Received His Discharge

Lance-Corporal Tait, who left the city with the 30th Battalion in January last, is back again in Victoria discharged from the army. He arrived in the city this morning, and has spent the day visiting his old friends. The young soldier has been badly wounded in the right hand, and is incapacitated from further fighting. He was wounded at Festubert in May last, and for some months has been recuperating in Lincoln hospital, England. Naturally he is glad to be back in Victoria again, after the nerve-shattering experience of trench-fighting in France.

Like several other of the local men who are back from the battlefield, Lance-Corporal Tait is loth to talk about his experiences at any length. His particular section of the Canadian line was attacking a farm-house at Festubert when he received his wound. The action was swam with it last night he told the Times. "The Germans had previously taken three lines of German trenches at Festubert, but were getting badly shattered. The Canadians were sent in to take the fourth line, which consisted of a farm-house and an orchard. We took it after two or three tries, but our losses were very heavy."

The returned soldier stated that they had been in trenches for two weeks before the big attack. At the beginning of the attack the British artillery appeared to have the upper hand, but later the German guns took the ascendancy.

Lance-Corporal Tait is the son of Leonard Tait, a well-known Victoria citizen. The young fellow was born in Washington, D. C., about twenty-five years ago, coming to this city with his parents at a very early age. He received his early education at the Victoria West school, graduating later in the High school. In June, 1912, he joined the 50th Gordon Highlanders, and from that regiment was drafted into the 30th.

Rev. Dr. Meyers, of Toronto, will preach next Sunday at St. Columba's, Oak Bay. Dr. Meyers is at present visiting in Victoria.

Alleged Sale to Interdict.—A charge against the purchase of the "Daily News" by Henry Hobson, of selling liquor to an interdicted came up in the police court to-day. It turned out that the licensee, who is in Vancouver at present, had not been served with the summons, but his manager, Mr. Mason, who happened to have been in charge of the bar on the day in question, was and he appeared in court with Frank Hickey as counsel. It was decided not to go on with the case until Mr. Hobson is served personally, the offence being one which may be enforced upon the licensee.

Yesterday, for the first time since her return from Toronto, where she accompanied Rev. Bishop Scriven during the recent session of the General Synod, Mrs. Scriven was at home to her friends. The table was beautifully arranged with vases of dahlias and chrysanthemums, and assisting Mrs. Scriven were Mrs. Scriven, Mrs. Ketchen, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Mieses, Mrs. Becken, and Miss Lawson. During the afternoon about 150 visitors called. On Thursday, October 22, and also on the following Thursday, October 29, Mrs. Scriven will again be at home at Vancouver House, Belmont Place, Oak Bay.

Wiper's Saturday Special.—Honey Butter, 20c per lb., regular 30c. It is only fair to your children to give them Wiper's candies. You know them to be absolutely pure. 14 gold and silver medals awarded in England. Wiper's K. Confectionery, 1219 Douglas St.

Navy League Observation.—Victoria and Esquimalt branch of the Navy League will observe Trafalgar day, October 21, with a celebration at the Alexandra Club hall. The proceeds from the sale of tickets for the event will be devoted to the funds of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Red Cross society. Up to the present the details of the programme have not been arranged, but the performance will be in the scheme for a universal celebration under the auspices of the Navy League throughout the British empire, and is hoped that the public will give it their liberal support.

Fuel Donations Wanted.—Those wishing to make life pleasant for the soldiers while still with us are asked to donate to the Willows, Y. M. C. A. wood or coal (wood stoves are used but coal can be burned). No fuel is given by the government and the Y. M. C. A. building is the only one in camp heated. Phone 962. E. S. Whitaker, General Secretary.

Victoria Day Nursery.—The Victoria Day Nursery committee met on Wednesday afternoon at the new home. The chairman, Rev. E. G. Miller, occupied the chair. Among the articles needed by the home are a sewing machine, which it is hoped, some generous friend of the work will be able to contribute. In view of the shortage of funds, the report showed that for the past month 495 children had been looked after by the home. One delicate baby had been sent to the hospital to receive special care. The thanks of the committee for donations were numerous.

The funeral of the late Agnes Frayne will take place on Saturday, October 16, at 2:30 from her son's residence, Mill Bay. Interment will be made at Mill Bay Methodist church cemetery. Hamilton papers please copy.

The remains of Mary Ann Grandison, whose death occurred last Monday, were conveyed to their last rest yesterday afternoon, the funeral taking place at 1 o'clock from the Sands Funeral chapel. There was a very large attendance of friends of the deceased at the obsequies, and the floral donations were numerous.

The funeral of the late Agnes Frayne will take place on Saturday, October 16, at 2:30 from her son's residence, Mill Bay. Interment will be made at Mill Bay Methodist church cemetery. Hamilton papers please copy.

REGIMENT PARADES THROUGH VICTORIA

Fusiliers March Through Principal Streets This Afternoon; Recruits Apply

One of the first actions of the 88th regiment, Victoria Fusiliers, in connection with their recruiting campaign, is the parade which is being held through the city this afternoon. The regiment left the Willows barracks shortly after three o'clock this afternoon and, by way of Fort and Douglas streets, is marching to the parliament buildings, and back to barracks by way of government and Yates.

The parade is for the purpose of reminding those who are eligible of their duty at the present time. Lieut.-Col. Rous Cullin, the officer in charge of this regiment which is already busy recruiting in view of the recently-obtained authorization to bring the unit to battalion strength for overseas service, is convinced that there are sufficient unmarried men between the ages of 18 and 46 in Victoria to supply more than the number necessary to bring the unit up to strength. These, he thinks, should join the colors first, leaving the married men, who have greater responsibilities, until the last to be called on to bear arms against the enemy.

Applications for enlistment were received both yesterday and to-day at the Willows headquarters, and on the return of Colonel O'Neill, D. O. C. next week from Ottawa it is hoped to secure the use of the drill hall for the regimental parades.

Applications from those who feel qualified to conduct the brass band which is to be organized in connection with the 88th Battalion, Western Districts, should be sent to the adjutant, Captain Harbottle, Willows camp. It was announced last evening that a forty-two-piece brass band would be formed and attached to the regiment. The instruments have been ordered, and applications for the bandmaster's post have already been received.

The Corps of Pioneers has annexed the entire machine-gun section of the 47th Overseas Battalion. This is in charge of Lieut. J. J. G. of Vancouver, who will take over with him to the more recently-organized establishment 25 trained men who will proceed to Winnipeg with the Pioneers when they leave this week for the prairie camp.

Mrs. Bapty has had a cablegram to-day from Major Bapty, the officer in charge of "C" Squadron, 2nd C. M. R. to say that no inquiry had fallen him or any of his officers in any of the recent fighting which has taken place. The cable came via London. The 2nd C. M. R. left Victoria for Shorncliffe last June, and has been in France for some weeks.

Still more recruits for the 67th Battalion are expected to arrive in the next few days. These are young men enlisted in the Yukon, and who have been sent forward to the High school. In June, 1912, he joined the 50th Gordon Highlanders, and from that regiment was drafted into the 30th.

Custom Forms for all purposes carried in stock or printed to your order. Sweeney-McConnell Limited, Phone 190.

Home-Cooking Sale.—At the home-cooking sale to be held tomorrow afternoon in the lecture-room of St. Ann's church there will be a large variety of table delicacies at reasonable prices. Altogether, 100 will be served.

Wiper's Saturday Special.—Honey Butter, 20c per lb., regular 30c. It is only fair to your children to give them Wiper's candies. You know them to be absolutely pure. 14 gold and silver medals awarded in England. Wiper's K. Confectionery, 1219 Douglas St.

Corner Government and Broughton

IS HERE TO OBTAIN SHELL CASE SUPPLIES

Representative for British Government Confers With Provincial Officials To-day

In order to see to what extent British Columbia can supply box shooks and other necessary lumber for the British government, C. Peto Bennett, of London, England, arrived in the city this morning from the mainland. Mr. Bennett's object is to meet Sir Richard McBride, Hon. W. Ross, officials of the forestry department, and millmen and shippers, and to consult with them as to the available sources of supply.

Obviously Mr. Bennett is disinclined to any such thing as to purchase himself of the necessary information for which he came to this province. However, he explains that the demand for material for shell cases and similar packings is tremendous, and the government has been buying in all available sources of supply, including the Baltic, from which in normal times a tremendous supply of wood is imported into Great Britain.

Naturally the British government is anxious to distribute the orders as far as possible in the British empire, and the lumber resources of this province being so well known, the committee charged with the purchase of supplies has asked Mr. Bennett to make a tour of inquiry.

While the visitor is not yet ready to make any statement with regard to purchases from the British Columbia mills, there is no doubt that very large orders may be looked for, provided that the mills can offer the facilities which will be required by the British government. One of the Victoria mills is already handling large orders of box shooks for the British market, and the shipments have been proceeding steadily for some time, the last being on the 10th when she was loaded the other day. The anticipated orders appear to promise a considerable revival of business in a depressed industry, particularly if the problem of transportation can be effectively disposed of.

Mr. Bennett has already visited a number of principal eastern cities, and will return to Vancouver after meeting officials to-day. He is associated with one of the largest lumber concerns in Great Britain, and is therefore particularly suited to the important task he has now in hand.

ARRIVES IN ENGLAND
Lieut. Noel Bagshaw, Recently Promoted on Field, Takes Up His Commission With R. F. A.

A cable was received last night by E. C. B. Bagshaw to say that his son Noel had just arrived in England from France to take up his commission in the Royal Field Artillery. Lieut. Bagshaw received his commission on the field about two months ago, but has been gassed, after being on active service in France for nearly six months with the 7th battalion, C. E. F. The news of his safe arrival in England will be heard with a sense of relief by his friends here.

Pte. Colin Gray, a friend of Lieut. Bagshaw's, and who was wounded while fighting side by side with the latter in a trench "somewhere in France," is at Colchester hospital, and progressing nicely.

Assisting Ambition

Men of ambition—with the desire to forge ahead—need revitalizing food to help them to compel success.

Grape-Nuts

(Made in Canada)

is a success food. It is made from whole wheat and malted barley and, pound for pound, contains far more "go" and "get there" than ordinary foods.

It retains all the nutriment of the grains, including their natural mineral salts—Phosphate of Potash, etc., often lacking in ordinary food, but essential to thorough upbuilding of sinew, brain and nerves.

Grape-Nuts is partially predigested and agrees with all. It's the ideal vigor-food for child and adult.

PREPARE EXTENSIONS TO CITY PAVING WORK

Continuation of Permanent Roadwork on Douglas Street and Gorge Road Progressing

The work on Douglas street, north of Tolmie avenue, and on the Gorge road, in connection with the Spanish paving contract, has made so much progress that the paving contractors will be able to commence operations with the surface next week. Naturally on account of the shorter surface to be graded on Douglas street, the contractors will be ready there first, but on Gorge road there is already a considerable section approaching the permanent grade.

The necessary material for the Gorge road is being borrowed from three intersecting streets on the north side, where earth, essentially will have to be removed, and the steam shovel is able to handle it expeditiously. The most obvious result of the work so far as it has gone yet is the great improvement it will give to the city property at the Gorge. This park will certainly be frequented far more than it has in the past. While the undertaking at present is only concerned with paving to the intersection of Tillamook road, it is part of the general work to Craigflower bridge as a section of the island highway, and for that reason the provincial government, at the request of residents who were pressing for it to be commenced this winter, has allowed the road to rank in the thoroughfares to which the contribution could be applied in part.

Residents who have watched the fences being put in are commenting on the narrowness of the road, as they have become accustomed to wide paving in the city. There will, however, be plenty of width for two vehicles to pass on the roadway. It is obvious, in connection with this work, that the weather is required in order to complete grading operations.

The work in contemplation on Douglas street will give connection with the new macadam recently laid on the old Spanish road, and by way of Carey road, with Glenford avenue, where considerable money has been spent this year. These two pieces of paving will complete the paving programme of the Spanish council for this year.

From the expropriation by law for Stebbins street, advertised in the Times yesterday, it will be seen what lands have yet to be acquired, and those already acquired, for the work upon which preliminary construction has commenced. This is purely grading work, like a railway embankment, and will not be ready till 1917 for the paving contractors.

THE VICTROLA AND THE COMMUNITY—No. 2

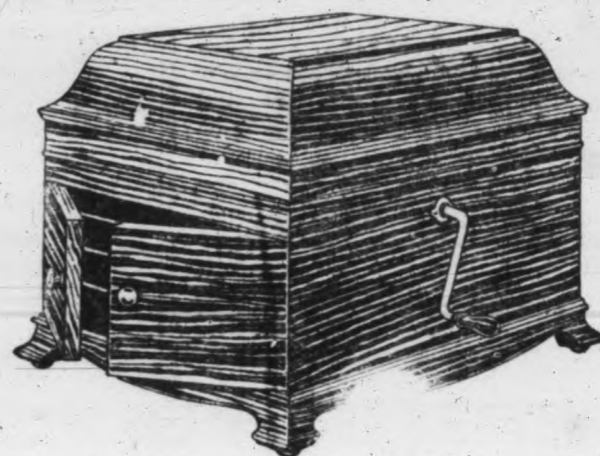

Mrs. Book-keeper

says: "Our home is as musical as any of our friends now. It used to be somewhat of an effort to entertain our friends when they dropped in.

"The Victrola does it now. The children are so easily amused too—and it's surprising how much they learn. There are so many records for children that we have a wide choice and ten-inch, double-sided Victor Records at 90 cents for the two selections.

"One of the new records I particularly enjoy is 'Abide With Me'—a duet by Alma Gluck and Louise Homer.

It is really delightful. We never feel out of it now when our Victrola-loving acquaintances talk of the new music.

TWO VICTORIA MEN DIE FOR EMPIRE

Pte. F. C. John and Pte. Robert Wylie Inscribed on Roll of Honor

News of three Victoria soldiers, whose welfare was a matter of anxious speculation among their friends here, has come to hand within the past few days. In two cases the information means that the soldiers in question have met heroic deaths: Pte. F. C. John, of the 7th Battalion, was killed in action; Pte. R. Wylie, of the 7th Battalion, died while a prisoner of war in Germany.

Pte. Frederick Clifford John was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson R. John, and was born twenty-four years ago at Saanichton, being one of the first native sons of the district to volunteer for active service overseas. He enlisted with the 88th Regiment, Victoria Fusiliers, was transferred to the 20th Battalion, and went with the 30th Battalion last February. He was drafted to the 7th Battalion as a member of the machine-gun section in charge of Lieut. John Hirsch, and was for several months in active service before meeting his death on September 27 while serving the gun. Educated on the island, Pte. John had many friends with whom he was deservedly popular, and news of his death has caused very general regret.

Pte. Robert Wylie, according to an unofficial report from Ottawa, died recently while a prisoner of war in a German camp. He was a native of Scotland, 34 years of age, and unmarried. For two years prior to coming to this country he served with the Prince of Wales Light Horse, served through the Boer war, and the King's medal with seven clasps. He had lived here only a short time before he enlisted for active service with the first overseas draft from the 88th Regiment which left here in August, 1914.

The third soldier of whom news has been received is Cpl. Godfrey Crafter. Some time ago Cpl. Crafter's name was among the list of missing. F. G. Mulliner, baggage master of the B. C. Coast Service, has had a letter from the soldier in question, who reports that he has had several narrow escapes. Cpl. Crafter left Victoria with the frontiersman section of the 7th Battalion, but has now been transferred to the 15th, with non-commissioned rank of corporal. His name was published with the missing on May 29, since when very little has been heard from him. For some time prior to enlisting he was in the real estate business with R. H. Duce, of this city, and by his numerous friends the news that he is safe and well will be heard with a sense of relief.

GOLD MINING.

Georgia River Mining Co. Ltd.: Favorable Assays Made; History of Location.

Considerable interest is being shown by mining men in the Georgia River Mining Co., which has its property in the Portland Canal Mining division in this province. The company owns twelve claims, and the improvements thereon covering about five hundred acres. C. H. Dickie, of Dunsmuir, is the managing director of the concern, while E. F. Miller is the secretary. The property is at present reached by trail about four miles in length from a camp on the Portland canal six miles south from Stewart. The trail crosses a mountain four thousand feet high, and then descends one thousand feet to the camp at the workings. A trail from the mouth of Georgia river to the mine is now in course of construction.

The history of the location may be very briefly told. Two prospectors, Hume and Jarvis, were looking for showing on the side-hill in September, 1910. Finding favorable indications near the top, they crossed to the Georgia river side. Not far below the top several veins were located and staked. Samples of the ore taken out were carried to Stewart, and assayed about eight ounces per ton in assay.

W. J. Elmendorf, the Seattle mining engineer, reports very favorably on the claims, and adds that the most important necessity is the provision of adequate transportation.
