Campaign of Labor Party Will Be Opened by Several Members of Cabinet, Which Yesterday Announced November 29 as Date of Polling; Conservatives and Liberals Striving to Avoid Three-Cornered Contests in Constituencies; Premier's Son Among Candidates.

London, Oct. 10—The campaign which will lead up to the general election in Great Britain on November 29 will be started in a few hours and the first big guns will be fired by some of the members of the Labor Cabinet who will go on the trail of votes as soon as the Cabinet, which is in session to-day, decides on its manifesto to the electors. The Labor Ministers were in high spirits when they met at 10 Downing Street this morning, having made their way to the Premier's residence through a large crowd of well-wishers.

Premier MacDonald will be opposed by Captain W. H. Williams, Liberal, in the Aberavon district of Glamorgan.

A SHARP CONTEST

London, Oct. 10.—With Parliament dissolved at the request of Premier MacDonald following the defeat of the Government in the House of Commons, the utterances of the politicians and the comments of the press indicate that the coming general election on October 29 is likely to be one of the bitterest in Great Britain in recent years.

Sidney Webb, President of the Board of Trade, is quoted as saying the campaign "will be an especially dirty one," and the angry tone already manifest in many declarations. seems to justify the prediction.

CREW PREPARES TO FLY BIG AIRSHIP ZR-3 FROM EUROPE TO FIELD IN NEW JERSEY

If Weather Reports Favorable New Dirigible Built for United States Government Will Leave Friedrichshafen To-morrow Morning for Long Trip Across Atlantic Ocean; Zeppelin Director Postponed Start Because of Weather Disturbances To-day.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Oct. 10-Saturday morning is the time set for the departure of the dirigible ZR-3 for Lakehurst, N. J., provided the Atlantic weather clears sufficiently to indicate to the observers that no storms will be encountered in the early stages of the flight. This announcement was made by Dr. Hugo Eckener, director of the Zeppelin Company, which constructed the dirigible for the United States navy.

Reports indicated disturbances in mid-Atlantic, and Dr. Eckener said it was more on this account that he had decided not to start to-day than because the day was Friday. A Friday start Though Germany surrendered a good many of her ships to the Allies after the armistice, she still has quite a few left. Here are some of her batteships and cruisers at anchor in the bay of Swinemunde. Germany's armed strength is to be discussed at the disarmament conference to be called as early as possible in accordance with the views of the League of Nations Assembly expressed at Geneva.

The ZR-3 is similar in appearance but somewhat larger than the United States navy dirigible Shenandoah. While the Shenandoah was the first vessel of the kind ever built in the United States, however, the ZR-3 was numbered 126 at the Zeppelin plant, and is the product of more than twenty-five years of German experience in dirigible construction and operation, including the German warficets. She is the last word in lighter-than-air design, and will form the foundation for the building of future American commercial fleets if this proves to be a practicable form of transportation in the United States.

of transportation in the United States.

656 FEET LONG

The ZR-3 has an over-all length of $55 feet, a diameter of 99.7 feet, and a gas capacity of 2,409,000 cubic feet, is driven by five 460-horse-power engines giving a maximum speed of 2,000 horsepower, and makes a maximum speed of nearly eighty miles an hour. She is a fully equipped-passenger vessel with accommodations for thirty passengers in addition to the crew, the passenger accommodations comparing favorably with those of modern sleeping cars and including an up-to-date electrical kitchen. The passenger cabin is divided into five compartments which have large windows furnishing a wide view of the country below as the ship is in flight.

Sutherland Moves to Get Damage Money From Rail-ways to Help Pay Costs

That the Government will act with extreme caution in awarding contracts for the completion of the Transprovincial Highway was indicated to-day when full details of the scheme were given out by Hon. W. H. Sutherland, in the West, to consider what amounts the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Rallways should pay the Province for damage caused by them to the old Cariboo wagon road through their construction of their lines along the Fraser River Canyon, this money to be devoted to the road work.

"The Government, by calling for tenders," said a statement given out by the Public Works Department," is not finally, committed to its present choice as the final decision will, of necessity, have to depend on the prices aubmitted for the various classes of work on the different contracts. Through the Canyon the road is located at many points in close proximity to either the Canadian Pacific or Canadian Northern Rallways, and the tenders of the different contractors will be governed by the view they individually take of the difficulty and risk involved in carrying out work under these conditions.

MUST PUT UP BONDS

MUST PUT UP BONDS MUST PUT UP BONDS

"Contractors will be required to deposit very heavy bonds with the Government to as far as possible insure that they take all steps humanly possible to preserve the safety of the traveling public on the rail-ways; and, further, it is improbable that the Government will consider the bid of any contractor who is not specially experienced and qualified in this class of dangerous work. This is a case where angels may well fear to tread, and where the Minister of Public Works may be more than justified in not necessarily accepting the lowest tender.

ALL ROUTES CONSIDERED

"The decision to call for tender was only arrived at after the mos painstaking and thorough investigation into all possible routes connecting the Coast with the Interior of British Columbia. All the data col British Columbia. All the data collected by the various engineers and parties in the field on the various projected locations has been independently checked up; every suggestion of the various boards of trade, automobile clubs and other public-spirited bodies has been fully considered; and the local interests of the various established communities affected by each suggested road have been duly weighed as against the public need of the Province as a whole.

public need of the whole.

"It is felt that a wise and impartial choice of route has been made, having regard to engineering, economic and social considerations."

SEVERAL CONTRACTS

"A series of contracts will be awarded to cover the whole of the new road from Hope to Spence's Bridge, Dr. Sutherland explained. The Government will first complete the stretch from Hope to Lytton and later will build the road along the Thompson River to Spence's Bridge. Meanwhile, before this last link is installed, it will be possible for motorists to drive north from Lytton towards Lillocet and swing southward along the Marble Canyon to Spence's Bridge, thus reaching the atter point by detour.

The first unit of the work is the retch from Hope to Yale, which lill be done by day labor and for hich no contract will be let. The cond unit, for which tenders are ited, is from Yale to the site of old Alexandria Bridge, a distance is the contract will be the site of old Alexandria Bridge, a distance tance from Bothroyd to Lytton, twenty-two miles. A few sections of this stretch will be done by the Government by day labor.

SEPARATE BRIDGE CONTRACTS

SEPARATE BRIDGE CONTRACTS

The final contract from Lytton to Spence's Bridge will cover twenty-four miles and will not be started until the other parts of the road are installed. It is hoped that the Hope Lytton section, which will create a road through British Columbia, aithough by a roundabout route, will be finished next year. Separate contracts will be awarded for the large new bridge to replace the old Alexandria Bridge and several other bridges which will be installed at various points.

MOTION PICTURE CENSOR IS DUE FOR RETIREMENT

Arrangements for superannu-ating Walter Hepburn, British Columbia motion picture censor, are being made by the Attorney-General's department now, it was learned to-day. Mr. Hepburn has reached the usual age for super-annuation, it was explained. When an official who is looking into the matter returns to the city from Vancouver to-morrow it is understood that a definite an-nouncement will be made.

Only Experienced Firm to Get Suggested at Meetings Ad-Contract; Tenderers Must dressed by Party Touring Put up Heavy Bonds Vancouver Island of Trade of Vancouver Island may be the outcome of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and Publicity Bureau delegations' tour of Vancouver Island. The question was fully discussed at Cameron Lake on Wednesday and at a meeting held at Duncan it was decided to call for a special convention of the Boards of Trade to outline a more active programme of co-operation between the organizations on the Island. Duncan was selected as the city to call for free discussion on this matter as it is the home city of the President of the A. out by Hon. W. H. Sutherland, and at a meeting held at Duncan Minister of Public Works, after the had announced that tenders on the project would be called Monday, to be returnable November 10.

By Staff Correspondent Courtenay, Oct. 10-Reorgani zation of the Associated Boards

At the same time Dr. Sutherland announced that he would ask the Railway Board, at its next session the Railway Board, at its next sessi sociated Boards, Dr. D. E. Kerr. The opinion was expressed that the Island Boards are not functioning to the best advantage and that commercial organizations or industrial committees should be represented on a central body which would investigate local complaints and after selection was made a limited number of the complaints should be pushed with the authorities in a position to remedy them.

NEW ORGANIZATION

NEW ORGANIZATION

Some of the members expressed themselves in favor of the establishment of a new organization to replace the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island, but the majority opinion was that a multiplicity of bodies would defeat the ends of co-operation.

Speaking at a dinner of the joint Boards of Trade of Courtenay and Cumberland Wednesday might. Thomas Graham, general superintendent of the Canadian Collieries gave reasons why the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Rallway, failed to give a better service to East Coast points. He referred to the continual increase in motor transportation and said it was the encouragement given by the public, at the expense of the taxpayers to heavy motor vehicles on the highway which curtailed the activities of the railway. The road over which the heavily laden motor trucks tray eled were maintained by the public, who contributed to the upkeep of the Canadian Pacific Railway, he said two-thirds of the production of call at Cumberland would step.

The work of the Victoria branch of the Automobile Association of British Columbia was the subject of an address by Robert Webb, secretary of the branch.

Melbourne, Oct. 10 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuter's)—The House of Representatives has passed a bill authorizing Federal Government guarantees in the marking of primary produce up to eighty per cent of its value, and also the expenditure of £500,000 to assist in the development of overseas markets for the primary products of the Commonwealth.

MOTOR TRAFFIC

The motorists were among the most important factors in aiding movement to travel, in which all parts of the light special parts of the stand benefited, said R. R. Webb, secretary of the Victoria branch of the Automobile Club of British Columbia. In speaking of the work of the club.

He described the various steps under which the amalgamation had grown up. To encourage road improvement the motorists had commonwealth.

Thomsen Clark Company is Pushing Railway to Horne

(Times Staff Representative)
Comox, Oct. 8.—Some pessimism prevails with regard to the lumber industry on Vancouver Island, but a drive from Qualicum to Ceurtenay, such as was made to-day by the delegates of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce on tour of Island towns, convinced the most sceptical that the various interests logging in that area have no fear of the future. Not only are the existing sawmills increasing their capacity, but the logging roads are coonstructing tracks from their limits to tidewater for shipment of logs to Mainland mills. The largest new interest is the Thomsen Clark company at Bowser, which is building a railway from tidewater to its extensive limits at Horne Lake. This company will operate in a large way.

The Dollar company also logs in this area, at Fanny Bay, for its large mill at Dollarton, North Arm of Burrard Inlet.

No other district has such good transportation on Vancouver Island as Comox, said C. P. W. Schwengers president of the Chamber of Commerce, on transportation as Comox, said C. P. W. Schwengers president of the Chamber of Commerce, on the production of the Chamber of Commerce, the production of the Chamber of Commerce, the production of the Chamber of Courtenay Hotel, Courtenay. He described the Board of Trade of Courtenay-Comox as one of the most active on the Island. Board of Trade work was one calling for a great deal of personal attention, unselfish activity and occupying time which many men gave to golf. The higher their ideals the better would be the result. Van couver Island was the microcosm duplicated everything which he remainder of the Island pooks. She thus gave an incentive of remarkable character to the people of that district.

J. Carl Pendray, speaking for the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, declared that the areas outside Victoria had practically made no move to secure the result of improvement of the tourist traffic in 1924. The bureau offered to handle the distribution, provided that the Uprisland communities would prepare the material, for the issuance of literature about Up-island points.

He saw no reason why Courtenay should not become a direct port of call for ferries from the Mainland.

Mayor Hayward declared that the Camdian Pacific Railway was doing much for the development of Vigitoria, and incidentally for all parts of the Island. Co-operation would secure better results than they had hitherto possessed.

LOCAL NEEDS

Theed Pearse, president of the Courtenay-Comox Board of Trade, replied for the district. More speedy train service, or at any rate a more useful service on the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, was urgent, at present it took three days coming and going to transact business with Victoria, as compared with two days going and returning to Vancouver. The road conditions on the faland were very bad, and the Government ought to adopt a better system of road work, doing something towards permanent paving outside the Island towns, as had been done at Nan-aimo and immediately noth of Victoria.

of the natural resources of the Island. He gave some graphic figures about timber and coal production. LOSS IN COAL PRODUCTION

Mr. Schwengers spoke next of the coal situation in the light of the soal situation of 50,000 people. Pulverized coal would be a wonderful feature of the production, he said.

Good promise had been made of the mineral deposits of the Island. He emphasized the potential development of the magnetite are deposits. Emphasis was laid on the value of the tourist business by the president. Money must be forthcoming to carry this asset on properly. Only a small amount per head at present time much work had been done, particularly in Southern California, in which coals and shales have passed to carry this asset on properly. THE MISSION SUCCEEDS

REPORTS FROM THE Chamber of Commerce delegation which is now touring Vancouver Island indicate that its mission is assured of success. At all the points so far visited there has been manifested a genuine desire to encourage and develop Island co-operation and Island unity.

Island unity.

This is as it should be. The people of this part of the Province have been richly endowed by Nature and they are very fortunate indeed; but all the riches in the world are very little use to human kind as long as there shall be no concerted effort to utilize them for the common good.

The people of Vancouver Island less a community unto nselves; but a community possessed of every natural agency to promote a condition of prosperity which the rest of the world would grasp with both hands if it had the opportunity. This is realized by the members of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce who are preaching that gospel to their friends and iness associates to the North of

It has been shown in numerous instances how the right sort of cooperative labor can overcome most of the obstacles which sometimes obstruct the progress of young com-munities. And if the people of Vancouver Island will get in and dig with a will, no longer will this part of the Dominion have to reproach itself because natural wealth sufficient to support two or three millions of people is merely being scratched by a little more than a hundred thousand.

THE U. S. CAMPAIGN

DOLITICIANS IN THE up for the fray. The main political parties have rehearsed their campaign battle cries and are busy explaining them to all and sundry. The Democrats have chosen "Davis or Despair" and the Republicans retort with "Coolidge or Chaos."

These slogans are easy to memorize and represent the extrava-gance which characterizes most po-litical campaigns. They do not litical campaigns. They do not mean what they say. Very few supporters of Mr. Davis believe that the country would despair if he should end up second. Scarcely a single Republican would pack his bags and depart for destinations unknown if Mr. Coolidge's tenancy of the White House should to an end in the near future.

Meanwhile, however, Mr. Lafollette's vigorous campaign on befollette's vigorous campaign on behalf of the Progressives has introduced a good deal of speculation and the outcome is now all the more difficult to judge. Mr. Coolidge very naturally has an advantage over both his opponents. He has an excellent record to rely upon and the second of the second there are many who regard it the proper thing to endorse him in the position to which he was called under such tragic circumstances.

Canada has a direct interest in the campaign. The present Government at Washington is a high tariff Government. Its acts have increased the height of the barrier against the admission of Canadian products into the United States. Mr. Davis is an advocate of the freer exchange of commodities—the basis of successful world commerce. His success would be good business for this country.

SIGNS OF PROGRESS

TWO PARTICULAR TWO PARTICULAR items of interest appeared in our news columns yesterday. One of them announced the intention of the British America Paint Company to extend its premises in order that it might cope more expeditiously with business already in hand and make room for a large rush of orders from many parts of the country in the near future. The other item came from the Victoria Clearing House and indicated that the bank clearings for the week ending bank clearings for the week ending at the close of business yesterday totaled $2.092,107 as compared with $1,980,858 for the corresponding week of last year.

These facts do not need explanation; they tell their own story. We

omy. The reason is not difficult to discover. It is a comparatively simple matter to grumble about anything and everything and sneer at the labors of those who are demonstrating their faith in this part of the Province by downright hard work. If these melancholy individuals would allow themselves to be inoculated by the germ of community. lated by the germ of community service they would soon experience a very pleasant and profitable re-

THIS IS A STATE ABOVE FRIENDSHIP

OUT OF THE STRIFE OF factions in Ireland comes a remarkable story of a man's devotion to what he considered his duty towards the new state, when that duty clashed with the interests of intimate friendship. It is the story of Kevin O'Higgins and Rory

In the Sinn Fein war and during the negotiations for the Irish Treaty there were no closer friends than these two men. After the Treaty was accepted, Sinn Fein split. Mr. O'Higgins became Home Minister in the Free State cabinet; Mr. O'Connor elected to fight that cabi-But these two, just as in the cases of many other political enemies in the British Isles, remained close friends. Mr. O'Con-nor led those who held the Four Courts in Dublin against the Free State besiegers. But the friend-ship continued.

Finally Mr. O'Connor was cap-tured and sentenced to death. The warrant for his execution came to the desk of the best friend he had in the world. All pressure was brought to bear on Mr. O'Higgins, but with his sense of duty as a minister he replied: "He must die to-morrow," and closed his lips tightly as he signed. Mr. O'Higgins remained seated at the desk night, alone. Early in the morning messengers announced that his friend was dead. The Home Minister collapsed.

It is an instance of the struggles which strong and patriotic men face and the high conception of public devotion which some of them are displaying in their work of starting aright the new states arising in Europe since the war.

A second climax to the O'Higgins-O'Connor story came in its sequel which Rt. Hon. J. H.

Mr. Lloyd George once more has jumped into the newspaper lime-light of Britain.

Soviet Russia will get a good deal of free publicity during the election campaign which has just com-menced in the Old Country.

+ + + hed salmon took the stage at the 1923 election in Britain; this time the electorate will no doubt hear something about the Prime Minister's "tin Lizzie."

Although a test of political strength will be made in Great Britain on October 29 we shall hazard the guess that whatever the out-come John Bull will still be doing business at the old stand twelve months from now.

"Then excuse me for a moment, I will see the madame," said the headwaiter.

Presently he returned and said that dirmer would be served the gentleman in a private room if he must eat right away.

After partaking of an excellent dinner in the private room the gentleman called for his bill.

When the husband sent the cheque he made it out for $205. This included the bridge game and the lunch.

It is needless to say they were not bothered with that lady's attentions any further.

While there are cases in Oregon where oil shale is yielding sixty-two gallons to the ton, being mined just as coal is here, no encouragement of any such rich result was held out. One of the most hopeful features is that the cost of the retorts for treatment is much less, and one of the visitors is interested in a project which is giving just such results as the colliery company aims at, plus a residuum for road making purposes.

A special meeting will be called to discuss Island Development in the near future, at a date and place to be set by the president of the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island, Dr. D. E. Kerr, to give effect to the tour of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and Publicity Bureau. This course was decided upon at a largely at-tended dinner Thursday evening at Nanaimo. PLEA FOR CO-OPERATION

PLEA FOR CO-OPERATION

"We seek to forge a hammer which can be used to drive home the nail that is to bind us in the future success of Vancouver Island," said C. P. W. Schwengers, president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, who stated Victoria and Nanaimo were the sivotal points of the Island. He drew a mental picture of the state of the Dominion, summarizing the picture by stating that the various parts of Canada were quite able to take care of themselves. What was the position recently in the Legislature when the Redistribution Bill came up? A caueus of the mainland members had forced the Government to take away a member from Vancouver Island. Under the circumstances the Island must stand together. The islanders must know what they had on Vancouver Island, its resources and opportunities. Vancouver Island was sending away between $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 per annum in production.

Vancouver Island had fifty per cent of the standing timber of B.C. He also alluded to the prospects of the coal husiness, and of the metalliferous mining of the West Coastmone of the largest gold-copper properties of Canada.

MANUFACTURING FUTURE

MANUFACTURING FUTURE

MANUFACTURING FUTURE

"Across the Pacific we have the teeming millions of China, of India and of Japan, people who are learning the white men's habits, his methods of living, his luxuries," said Mr. Schwengers. "We must satisfy those wants, those requirements and those needs. On the other side of us there are the three prairie provinces of 2,000,000 people with very few facilities for manufacturing with economy, because the prairies do not have adequate water powers and other things to produce economically on a competitive basis.

Thus West and East there was a potential field, the value of which it was impossible to gauge. It was right to secure a share of that business—a great share. He looked for the growth of the manufacturing industry as a consequence.

TOURIST FUTURE

TOURIST FUTURE

TOURIST FUTURE

Mr. Schwengers turned to the question of this tourist trade, that bidding for the business of the man of discrimination and means which had to enter into competition with other places. Such men must have good roads, good hotels and golf links. We have to give them these things," While Victoria had taken the initiative with this message, "We believe the time is coming." Mr. Schwengers said, "when we have to co-operate to secure a full measure of development to which it is entitled. We have got a wonderful island, but we must remember that with it comes a great responsibility, and the question is. "Are we going to rise to the occasion." Have we vision to grapple with this problem? We owe something to the future, to our families and ourselves, to secure some share of the success during our lifetime."

EFFECTIVE PUBLICITY

J. Carl Pendray, president of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, gave some figures with regard to the development of the tourist traffic on the Island in 1924.

He urged development for Departure Bay, whose biological station and awimming facilities, would be beneficial. A roadway was wanted to Mount Benson.

Mayor Hayward of the pealed for co-operative action, and pealed for co-operative action, and said Nanaimo could learn from Victoria's experience with tourists what its value with encouragement could accomplish.

His address the address the said said of the Automobile Club to B.C. also spoke briefly.

F. S. Cunliffe, vice-president of the Associated Boards of Vancouver Island, spoke on behalf of the president Dr. D. E. Kerr. There seemed to be a gulf fixed between the north and south, he observed, the natural barrier of the Malahat had been a serious handicap. He promised the support of the Associated Boards.

John W. Coburn alluded to the various organizations on the Island to accomplish the object of their gatherings. The Vancouver Island Development League had attempted the effort years ago: He alluded to the detriment to the traffic. He said that the lumber industry was standing with its back to the wall, and haything to ald it would be of real value to the Island.

Would Revoke Same For Speeding; Institute Women Want Stricter Liquor Laws

"Whereas it is necessary to protect the public from the present dangers of the highway caused through the reckless drivcaused through the reckless driving and speeding of motor-cars; this Shawnigan Women's Institute resolves that it would be in the best interest of the public that a driver's license be issued to all drivers of motor cars and that the law in this regard be so amended as to give our courts power to suspend or annul such licenses. This institute further suggests that such licenses be granted at a nominal fee."

"Whereas the women of British Columbia are alarmed and distressed at the rapid increase of the liquor traffic and feel that the sound teaching of the school text books on the dangers of alcohol are being obliterated from the minds of our children by the sight of constant indulgence; and also that this traffic not only is interfering with the lawful profits of more being of the school text books on the dangers of alcohol are being obliterated from the minds of our children by the sight of constant indulgence; and also that this traffic not only is interfering with the lawful profits of more being of the school text books on the dangers of alcohol are being obliterated from the minds of our children by the sight of constant indulgence; and also that this traffic not only is interfering with the lawful profits of more being obliterated from the minds of our children by the sight of constant indulgence; and also that this traffic not only is interfering with the lawful profits of more being obliterated from the minds of our children.

more strict control over the sale of liquor."

These two resolutions evoked much discussion at the Island conference of Women's Institutes yesterday afternoon, many members contributing their views concurring with the principles involved before the resolutions passed unanimously.

Mrs. Mason-Hurley of Shawnigan introduced the resolution designed to check reckless driving, Mrs. William Peden also speaking to the motion.

Mrs. Robertson of Cortex Island brought in the resolution asking for the stricter control of liquor sales, alleging that much misery was caused in the cases of families where the breadwinner worked in camp all Summer, returning with a big pay cheque, which was squandered at the liquor store. Her contention was endorsed by a number of other rural women.

NURSE FOR INDIANS

NURSE FOR INDIANS

Another resolution which called forth much discussion was that asking the Federal Government to appoint a nurse to assist the doctor on the Saanich Indian reserve, and praying for more adequate schooling facilities for the Indian children. Several members expressed surprise at the lack of schooling for the children, citing instances on other reserves where schools and teachers were supplied by the Government in conjunction with various missions, and pointing to the facilities provided for Orientals.

DEBATERS NAMED

Vancouver, Oct. 10.—James Craig, Susumu Kobe and Murray Hunter will represent the University of British Columbia in the Oxford debate to take place here November 24, it was announced following tryouts.
James Craig and S. Kobe formed the debating team which defeated the pick of Wyoming last Spring, while
Mr. Hunter is entering the major debates for the first time.
Eric Dunn and Gordon Telford were chosen as spares to the team, and will represent the college next Spring in an international debate.
One of the University of British Columbia men will support two of the Oxford men in supporting capitalism against the attacks of two British Columbia debaters and Malcolm MacDonald.

GERMAN COMMENTS ON THE ELECTION IN GREAT BRITAIN

Berlin, Oct. 10.—Commenting on the downfall of the MacDonald Gov-ernment, Germania, the clerical organ, which is very close to Chan-cellor Marx, stresses the part played by the first British Labor Govern-ment in promoting the London con-ference, which accomplished the rati-fication and enforcement of the Dawes plan.

neation and enforcement of the Dawes plan.

"This achievement is deserving of adequate recogition abroad." it says. The German reactionary newspapers are disinclined to manifest sorrow, declaring Mr. MacDonald disappointed Germans who had high hopes in him.

Sultan STARTS WAR

Léndon, Oct. 10.—Ibn Saud, Sultan of Nejd in interior Arabia, by advanction of Hedjaz, has just started a blaze which may set the whole Mohammedan world aflame.

Every one of the world powers is the Caucasus and in some of her Asiatic states.

MECCA PILGRIMS COMPLAIN

King Husseln, owing his rise largely to the allies and looking to the territory includes the holy cities of Mecca, and Medina. To Husseln, some were given the lingdoms of Irans-Jordania cast of Palestine.

Sultan STARTS WAR

Every one of the world powers is noticing with uncessiness this tribal brawl which upon its face would appear only a personal rivalry for possession of various deserts, paim trees, harems and shrines.

Hussein, then sheriff of Mecca, aided the allies during the war assist was rewarded by being made king His territory includes the holy cities of Mecca and Medina. To Hussein's sons were given the lingdoms of Iraq, formerly Mesopotamia, and of Trans-Jordania cast of Palestine.

SULTAN STARTS WAR

Sultan Ibn, type of the ancient zealot who carried the crescent throughout the world'at the point of the scimitar, has no patience with Hussein, his policies and his religion. Recently he declared open warfare. He captured Taif, Hussein's Summer capital, sixty miles east of Mecca. It is his reported intention to seize Mecca and drive the king to the protecting guns of the British fleet at Jeddah.

There begins trouble for the dominant Christian powers.

No nation wishes to take sides in the quarrel for fear of offending its own Mohammedan subjects who already are restless enough. There are about a quarter of a billion Moslems in the world, most of them living under the flags of Christian nations.

England has millions in India, the Soudan and various dependencies and mandates. France has them in Al-

Five Good Games on Card Which Will Open Season To-morrow Afternoon

J.B.A.A. and Wanderers Link Up in Great Struggle; U.S. Oppose Tillicums

It is expected that a huge crowd of spectators will assemble at the Willows, Cranmore Road and the University School grounds to-morrow afternoon to witness the opening games in the senior and intermediate rugby leagues.

The weather man has practically assured the Victoria Rugby Union of sunshine for the initial tussless and with the interest that is now being taken in the game in this city the sidelines should be crowded when the rival teams face each other, the referees toot their whistless and the ball sails away from the kick-off.

THE PROGRAMME

Th games for to-morrow will be as United Services vs. Tillicums, at Willows, 2.30 p. m. Referee, G. C. Grant.

J.B.A.A. vs. Oak Bay Wanderers, at Willows. Referee, Bill Ellis.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

United Services vs. Victoria College at Cranmore Road, 2 o'clock. Referee, C. Sanson.

J.B.A.A. vs. Oak Bay Wanderers, 2.30 p.m., at Cranmore Road Referee, C. Stewart.

Normal School vs. Brentwood College, at 3 o'clock, at University School grounds. Referee, G. Campbell.

The other senior games will be staged as a double header at the Willows Oval. The Tillicums, who take the place of the Garrison in the League, will oppose the United Services, which fifteen is composed of players from the Army and Navy. This should prove a very fitting introduction for the season, and the play should be of a very strenuous nature.

CLO RIVALS AT IT OLD RIVALS AT IT

The second game will be between the J.B.A.A., last year's champions, and the Oak Bay Wanderers, runners-up. These clubs provided some thrilling games last season with the Bays, with the champions victorious in all cases. The Wanderers are anxious to reverse the decision tomorrow. They realize that they have a big job on their hands, as the Bays are reputed to be even stronger than last year.

are reputed to be even stronger than last year.

The Intermediate League looks forward to the best season in its history. Six teams, all well balanced and keyed up to a high pitch, are ready for the fray.

With five games on to-morrow's card the fans will have a nice array to pick from.

Takings Surpass Million-Dollar Mark at To-day's Game

Washington, Oct. 10.—The 1924 world series will pass the million-dollar mark in gate receipts for the second time in series history to-day and undoubtedly eclipse the previous high record set by the Yankees and Glants last season. This was not an iclipated when the series began, because Griffith Stadium has only a little more than half the capacity of the Yankee Stadium, but capacity crowds here and at the Fole Grounds in New York, have run the total should pass $1,106,000, as compared with the 1922 mark of $1,053,815. The mew records is being made possible, however, which were established last year at 301,430, were established last year. Buttem for the world and the follow of the same age. The Sons of England-Veterans' game should also provide a number of thrills as both teams will be battling to hold second position. The loser will drop down into third or fourth place. Fans will recall the great battles these teams put up last year when the drew five games.

At the Royal Athletic bitter competition is expected, as the Wests, smarting over their defeat in the opening game of the season, will be out to break into the winning column. They will have a strong team out as Thomas, who has been under suspension, will be back into the game, while Waddington, one of the fastest wing men in the city, will be on hand. The old reliable, Shandley, will also be back between the sticks, The Wards, who held Esquimalt to a draw last week, will oppose the greenshirts with a capable eleven. They are fully confident that when the dust of battle has cleared it will find them on the long end of the score.

Washington Right up in Air Over Deciding Game To-day in World's Series

Rice, Harris and Zachary Heroes in Yesterday's Game

Washington, Oct. 10.—The deciding game of the world series to-day will be fought with uncertain quantities on the pitching mound. Manager Harris has announced that he will gamble with Ogden, a young righthander obtained in mid-season from the Athletics. McGraw stated that he would probably use Virgil Barnes, who was knocked out of the box on Tuesday.

who was knocked out of the box on Tuesday.

Ogden, good when he is "right," is a speedball pitcher. If the Glants eat his fast ones as they did those of Johnson and Marberry, Harris will switch to Mogride, whose slow southpaw shoots baffled McGraw's team for more than seven innings on Tuesday. "Firpo" Marberry, the champion relief pitcher, will be held in reserve.

WARM THEM ALL UP

McGraw said he would warm up his staff and indicated that Barnes would be the probable choice, although McQuillam might be used.

"Bucky" Harris, young Washington leader, was confident that his club would go out to-day and finish the good work they began yesterday.

"We have the advantage of, our home grounds," he said, "and are doubly anxious to win for the people here now because of the great reception they gave us when we came, back from New York. Peckinpaugh's injury will keep him out to-day, and that will be the heavjest loss we could receive, but I believe Taylor will fill in the gap at third.

1,000 formed lines that were blocks long last night.
1,000 l.000 l.000 over the Giant bats that had volleyed and thundered base hits on Wedness.
1,000 d.000 l.000 l.000 on which they had thrived, the Giants had Zachary's slow curves and tantalizing floaters to contend with yesterday, and they made no effective headway against them.

After the third inning, when Frisch doubled for the second time, with one out, and got to third on Young's infield tap only to be stranded by Kelly, the Giants falled to get a runner to second base. In this six inning span, only four reached first base altogether, and Zachary was always dominant in the pinches, sided by some great defensive work which Sam Rice featured with three spectacular running catches in right field.

WORLD'S SERIES

WORLD'S SERIES
Zachary had his slow hook working perfectly in the sixth and retired the Giants on only three pitched balls, a world's series record. All of the batters hit at the first ball and Peckingpaugh threw out Gowdy, Rice came back of first for Nehr's hit, while Peckingpaugh got Gowdy.
Frisch, normally a left-hander at the plate, turned over to the right side in facing Zachary's southpaw shoots. The first two times up he placed drives down the right field in the first, close to the foul line.

"Muddy" Ruel, Washington's back stop, has but one more game in which to break the batting slump he has experienced throughout the series and escape making his name the fifth on the list of batting "goats" in the diamond classic. Ruel has been to the plate sixteen times without connecting safely. He has walked six times and made two sacrifices, one of them figuring yesterday in the Senators' winning rally. The other series regulars who have failed to make a hit were Bill Dahlen, of the New York Giants, in1905; Jimmy Sheckard, Chicago Cubs, and W. D. Sullivan, Chicago White Sox, both in 1905, and Jack "Red" Murray, Giants, in 1911. of them figuring yesterday in the Senators' winning raily. Members of Victoria Golf Club Eliminate Uplands Ladies in Semi-finals

Mrs. Wilding and Mrs. Fairbairn Lose Out in City Championship

Both representatives of the Up-lands Golf Club were eliminated in the semi-finals of the city ladies' golf the semi-finals of the city ladies' golf championship yesterday and two members of the Victoria Golf Club will have the honor of competing for the title this afternoon at the Uplands links.

Mrs. Philbrick, the leading lady player in this city, who has enjoyed the distinction of holding both Victoria and British Columbia championships, is again in the finals and will have as her opponent Mrs. Armstrong, who has been playing splendid golf in the tournament.

These ladies are playing this afternoon over eighteen holes and the victor will be presented with the trophydenoting the city championship, at a tea party at the close of the game in the Uplands clubhouse.

PLAYED FINE GOLF

Mrs. Philbrick maintained her fine golf yesterday when she halted her match with Mrs. Wilding of Uplands, on the thirteenth green, the score being 6 and 5.

Mrs. Armstrong disposed of Mrs. Fairbairn in the other semi-final yesterday by 4 and 2 after a very interesting game.

terday by 4 and 2 after a very in-teresting game.

The final to-day should be an ex-tremely keen match. Mrs. Philbrick, owing to her fine style and great ex-perience in championship play, is fav-ored to win the title, but she can count on being carried over practi-cally the whole route by Mrs. Arm-strong.

MIX DID SOME HOT SHOOTING IN FILM NOW AT THE CAPITOL

This isn't a golf story. It's just the echoes of some pistol shooting in Hollywood. No, not a scandal, either. Well, to be painlessly brief. Fom Mix was required to put two pistol bullets inside the black of an ace of spades at fifty yards, during one of the scenes of "The Last of the Duanes," adapted from Zane Grey's tale by William Fox.

Someone expressed doubt of Tom's being able to make the shot. Mix spoke quietly, almost tantalizingly, so slow were his words. "J'il put two shots in that spade ace without touching the trigger. Dinner for the company paid by the loser of the bet. Are you one?"

The skeptic assenting, Tom tacked up the card, stepped off the distance, firing as he turned toward the target. Nor did he touch the trigger, as the company noted. Tom fanned the hammer instead. The spade showed two bullet holes touching each other. That is probably the first time that anybody has ever made a hole in one with two balls.

"The Last of the Duanes" will play at the Capitol all this week.

SAID FLIES PLAYED HAVOC IN SCENES OF "SINNERS IN HEAVEN"

Just mention flies to Richard Dix and watch him explode. For the nemesis of this popular star is the fly—any kind of a fly, but particularly the pestiferous sand fly.

Down in Nassau, the Bahamas, where scenes were made for "Sinners in Heaven," a forthcoming Paramount picture to be shown soon at the Capitol Theatre, a sand fly worked havoc with one of the most intense love scenes between Dix and Bebe Daniels. The fly landed right on Richard's nose at the height of the love-making, and try as hard as he could there was no moving said fly.

"Didn't you see the fly?" asked said Dix.

Whereupon all the flies were chase out of the scene and the love-

OLD WOLF TRAP FOUND ON PRAIRIE

Carved From Block of Wood; Chain Also Composed of Wood

Moose Jaw, Oct. 10.—Believed to have been made by Indians or frontiersmen trappers of the Hudson's Bay Company regime, a wolf trap of unique manufacture has been unearthed by hunters near Rouleau, Sask, southeast of here. The trap is carved from a solid block of wood, with a chain, also made from a piece of wood. It was discovered near a slough.

VERY OBLIGING

Billy Jone's mother kept a sweetstuff shop, and, consequently, Billy was always supplying his small school friends with toffee. The schoolmistress observed this and, consequently, she sounced upon the small boy one morning.
"Billy Jones," she said, as the class
arranged themselves in their seats,
"have you any toffee?"
"No, miss," answered Billy.
"Have any of your friends any?"
"No, miss," again came the answer; and then, just as the teacher moved away, Billy leaned forward in his desk and whispered: "I'll bring you some this afternoon, miss."

My Beauty Is All Due to Beauty Helps

Convinced me that I should share these helps with others. Millions of girls and women want what I have gained. So I have combined all the helps I have discovered in four preparations, with 52 ingredients. And I have arranged so that all druggist and toilet counters offer them to all who wish.

One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth. Lucie Lantelme, the famous Parisian beauty, first toild me what it did. Now great beauty experts the world over are advising this formula. No other cleanser which man has discovered does what this cleanser does.

My Facial Youth contains no animal, no vegetable fat. It cannot in any way assimilate with the skin. It simply cleans to the depths, then departs. All the grime, dead skin and closging matter comes out with it.

That is the first beauty essential—an utterly clean skin. But I never dreamed what a clean skin meant until I found this Facial Youth.

Now Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is supplied by The Owl Drug Company.

Three Vessels at Rithets' Piers Taking Thousands of Feet From Victoria

Three steamers were due at the Rithet piers to load lumber to-day, the Dicto, which arrived early this morning, and two others, the Birmingham City and the Etna Maru, coming later in the day. All three vessels are loading from local mills for various ports, including California points, the United Kingdom and the Atlantic seaboard, and together take about 2,000,000, from this city's mills. The Dicto was in early this morning. The Birmingham City was expected, at noon, and the Etna Maru was leaving Vancouver at mid-day, and is expected here before dusk.

Born in Vancouver in 1895, Mr. lloway has the distinction now of ing the youngest official in Canana Pacific service, a distinction nich he has won through fourteen ars' service in the freight departent of the Company. He commended work as stenographer in the samship department of the General eight office in Vancouver in 1910, demained in that department til 1915 when he enlisted for active rice with the 72nd Highlanders are turned from overseas in the Fall 1917 and was attached to the samship export department in Vanuver until 1918 when he was loaned the British Ministry of Shipping, ting as assistant to the agent of the inistry at the Pacific port.

In June 1919, Mr. Solloway went Montreal as chief clerk to the iatic Freight Agent. Two years ter he was appointed chief clerk to General Foreign Freight Agent diast May appointed as Acting inter Freight Agent which office s been confirmed by promulgation.

STRANGE INSURANCE

and shipping circles were almost as reticent.

It is understood Mr. Preston was hapeful of securing from the combine important concessions in freight rates for the Dominion. Negotiations to this end were carried on for several weeks, but seemingly they came to a sudden end, coincident with the return of Sir Norman MacKinder, chairman of the Imperial Shipping Board, from a Canadian visit.

The assertion is made that the steamship conference conditions have tightened, and efforts are being made to embrace continental companies in the combine. If this is attained the possibility of Canadian influences detaching any steamship companies, now sailing to Canada from the combine will at least be considerably diminished.

Piracy Charges Not Proven in Montreal Court

The Japanese liner Yokohama Maru of the N.Y.K. fleet, will leave this port for the Orient at 6 o'clock this evening. The big freighter will arrive about 5 o'clock from the Mainland, and will complete a good cargohere. She has aboard a full passenger list, including several Europeans traveling first class.

There are twenty-one passengers going aboard the vessel at this port, including John Bolton, who is on his way to Calcutta, where his business headquarters lie. Mr. Bolton has been in this city for the past several months, enjoying a holiday after many years in the tropies. He chose Victoria as a place to enjoy a short recreation.

VESSEL MOVEMENTS

Victoria as a place to enjoy a short recreation.

He will sail this evening for India once more. Mr. Bolton has a deep insight into Indian affairs.

He asserts that India is not yet ready for home rule, as education is not yet sufficiently widespread to insure a stable and honest government, elected by the people.

A. H. Hebb, agent for the N.Y.K. boats here, said this morning that travel over the Pacific to Japan and China was rapidly increasing, and that for the next few months it promised to be very brisk. E. & N. RAILWAY—CHANGE IN SCHEDULE

light.—Edward Fues, famous Canadian Pacific Raliway Swins guide, who led the Field-Harris expedition, conquering five new peaks in the Columbia Ice Field.

ALL THE NICE GIRLS—Two hundred happy Canadian University Students home from a stay of several weeks in England and on the continent. A group of girls are here seen with the commander of the ship. The steamer called at Cherbourg to pick up 250 returning Canadian teachers who had spent part of the Summer abroad.

MERGED BANK HEAD OFFICE—Head office of the Standard Bank, Toronto, which will be headquarters of the new Standard-Sterling Bank, following amalgamation.

WHERE ELSE BUT IN A BIG CITY?—Ruth Hull, five, is the youngest permanent wave subject on record. And doesn't this seem typical of New York—a child of five so concerned with such things?

KEAUY FOR FIGHT—Judge Landis, the czar of baseball, snapped in a belligerent attitude at the Washington ball park as criticism against him for not suspending more than O'Connell and Dolan of the Giants began to pile up.

IF MONEY HADN'T COME SO EASY—Alexander Fedelli of Baltimore married when he was seventeen and very poor. His bride was fifteen. Both worked hard. Along came the war and Fedelli went into a modest contracting business. Money came easy, at thirty-four he owned a car. He had also reached the "dangerous age." Mrs. Fedelli began to find hairpins and combs in the auto. The other night she took her son Arthur, seventeen, with her and followed Fedelli. Fedelli was shot dead as he sat in his machine with Miss Hermine Ulman, twenty-three. She says their friendship was purely platonic. "It all wouldn't have happened if he hadn't made his money so easy," say Fedelli's friends,

PROFESSIONALS

New York, Oct. 10 (By R. P. Clark was registered in the afternoon trading. The early factors to the buying movement were the large carloading figures and the expectations that the steel tonnage figures would show a surprisingly large increase compared with last month. At midday the steel tonnage figures were announced and shown an increase in bookings of about 194,000 tons. The figures were evidently a disappointment and were subsequently followed by a sharp selling movement in the general list. The temperament of the majority of the professionals is distinctly bearish and a good deal of selling was indulged in by this element this afternoon. In the course of the fresh display of weakness, quite a little outside selling was indulged in and the tone of the market at the finish today was heavy. There have been a series of constructive happenings of late but they have not aroused any enthusiasm in speculative circles, in addition to which indications point to an apparent indifference on the part of important interests to initiate constructive efforts marketwise. The market has a stale appearance and it would not be surprising if more scattering liquidation at the expense of values will make its appearance.

It would not be surprising if more scattering fluidation at the expense of values will make its appearance.

New York, Oct. 10 (By B.C. Bond Corporation)—With the success of the German loan apparently a definite certainty and the unfilled tonnage statement of U. S. Steel Corporation for September considerably better than Wali Street anticipated, professional traders figured that all the good news in immediate prospect was out of the way.

Basing their operations on this theory they launched a heavy drive on the whole market. Special declines took place in active stocks reaching their maximum issues subject to wide swings, such as General Electric and Woolworth. Smaller recessions took place in Steel, Baldwin, American Can and other leaders of the industrial group. It was not to be expected that Wall Street would escape a political scare.

Business news continued almost uniformly constructive. The rise in freight traffic to the highest levels for the year demonstrated that no let-up had taken place in the movement of general business toward expansion. This testimony was corroborated by Federal Reserve bank statements, whose large rediscounts and circulation proved the demand from the commercial and industrial centres was making steadily heavy calls on the country's resources.

Steel commmon was not affected by figures showing an increase in the floating supply, which totalled 1.160. 136 shares on September 4, equal to 22.82 per cent of the total issue compared with 1,038,725 or 20.45 on June 30. There is nothing unusual in this When the stock drops below par investment purchases pick up. But one factor which the investment public has not fully realised as yet is that Steel is now uirtually a seven per cent stock. Steel's unfilled tonnage report for September set for an increase 184,203, which was fully equal to the most optimistic forecasts which had been made.

Strength in Pittsburg and West Virginia was attributable to prospects of inauguration of dividends on the common stock early next year. The road's curre

Bank of Montreal Crop Re-port Shows Yield in B.C. Low as Well as on Prairies

Montreal, Oct. 10.-Weather con-year's according to the Bank of Montreal crop report issued to-day.

The report says that the yield generally is considerably below last year's, but higher prices this year should largely offset the reduced yield and grade.

In Ontario crops generally have been excellent with yield almost equalling record-breaking crop of 1922. In Qeuebec, despite unfavorable weather, cereals were harvested in most cases in good condition, and crops are satisfactory on the whole. In the Maritime Provinces very satisfactory crop conditions prevail. In British Columbia yields generally are below those of last year with prices considerably higher.

PRAIRIE PROVINCES

In July heat and drought in Al-prices considerably higher.

PRAIRIE PROVINCES

In July heat and drought in Alberta and Saskatchewan and development of rust in parts of Manitoba, followed by frost in three prairie provinces, lowered yield and grade.

Weather has delayed operations and threshing done varies from five percent to fifty per cent. Delieveries by farmers since August 1 total 45,800,000 bushels of wheat as compared with 101,350,000 at the same period last year. Railways are hauling grain expeditiously. The Manitoba Free Press of September 16 estimated wheat yield at 295,858,000 bushels. Dominion Bureau of Statistics on September 10 estimated yield at 267,177,000 bushels as compared with 452,280,000 in 1922. Weather has been unfavorable since these estimates were made. Dominion Bureau estimates yield of oats at 100,000,000 bushels below last year and barley at 13,000,000 bushels over last year. A favorable feature this year is the higher prices which should largely offset reduced yield and grade.

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

According to the Ontario Department of Agriculture yields of all

According to the Ontario Department of Agriculture yields of all grains show an estimated average increase of thirteen per cent as against last year, being 152,414,000 bushels as against 155,038,616 last year. Hay and clover yielded 6,615,238 tons against 5,799,422. Corn average eight tons to the acre as against seven tons. Potatoes, 175 bushels per acre against 110 bushels. Fruit crop was below average. Winter apples will not average more than sixty per cent of normal crop.

MARITIME PROVINCES MARITIME PROVINCES

MARITIME PROVINCES

Dry weather caused some damage to hay and pasture in New Brunswick, but main crop of potatoes in excellent condition, being a record yield, probably averaging 125 barrels per acre, against 100 in 1923, with a larger acreage sown. Other crops average: Nova Scotia—Annapolis Valley apple crop probably eighty per cent of average, say 1,600,900 barrels. Prince Edward Island—Conditions very satisfactory; all grain harvested in good condition.

BRITISH COLUMBIA BRITISH COLUMBIA

BRITISH COLUMBIA

In the early season a long dry spell was unfavorable to crops, though late rains proved beneficial to roots and pastures. Hay better than average crop in upper cattle country, but only eighty per cent of last year at coast with quality only fair. Grains seventy-five per cent, potatoes eighty per cent, roots seventy per cent. Shipments considerably reduced. Late berries failed through drought. Apples in good condition, duced. Late berries failed through drought. Apples in good condition, sixty-five per cent of last year. Pears and apricots ninety-three per cents, peaches forty-five per cent, plums and prunes fifty-one per cent. Up-country ranges above average, but pasturage and dairy livestock conditions only fairly satisfactory.

All Metal Mines Will Benefit as Silver Goes up

New York, Oct. 10.—The New York Sun to-day points out that the higher sliver prices which are now ruling mean additional prosperity for many mines on this continent and for all copper producers as they are the country's largest producers of sliver.

and women await their turn to appear before the judge.

According to French law, when suit is entered for a divorce, the judge, in a final effort at conciliation, summons both husband and wife before him. This is known as the meeting 'in extremis.' Two waiting rooms, separated by a corridor, have in the past sheltered respectively women and men until their particular case was reached. The corridor, however, proved inadequate to separate the estranged pairs, as daily some wife could not resist the temptation of crossing over to the

The squire had invited a neighboring farmer to dine and spend the evening with him. The night was dark, and when it was time to go, the squest, who had done himself very well, begged to be allowed to borrow a large lantern in the hall to light him on his way.

The next day the host sent his servant round with the following note: "I shall be glad to have back my parrot and cage if you have finished with them."

"You are back very soon, Adolphus," said Mrs. Turtle in a weak voice, for she was ill. "I didn't expect you so soon with my medicine. But I am glad, for I needed it. Thank you."

"Thank Uncle Wiggily, not me, said Mrs. Turtle, and his wife did. Then Mrs. Turtle took her medicine and soon she was quite well again. And just as the bunny was about to hop-home, the Bob Zat jumped out of the bushes at him.

"Bite the Bob Cat's tall, Mr. Turtle. Bite his tail!" hissed Mrs. Turtle. So Mr. Turtle fastened his sharp away hard on the Bob Cat's tall. As hard as he could Mr. Turtle inped the Bob Cat's tall.
"Oh, wowzie scowzie!" howled the bad chap, and finally, by squirming about, he shook the turtle off his silly little tall. Then, with another how, the Bob Cat ran off to the woods. So he didn't get the rabbit that time.

Mr. Longears thanked Mr. Turtle very much, and then hopped home to his hollow stump bungalow.

And if the potato pancake doesn't stay so late at the movies that it's afraid to go home in the dark. I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the falling leaves.

It lacked Julie's transforming touch.

Blake frowned again. Curious how such a shy, quiet, almost characteriess tittle thing as Julie left ner imprint! There was something restful and comforting about the very thought of having her waiting for him at home. She never asked questions, never disturbed his train of thought with nonsensical chatter, never dragged him out to parties when he was tied up with work or weary to death after a hard day at the Capitol.

He caught himself wishing Julie were with him in Cranston. In that case, they would both go to call on Anna Denniston and nothing would be expected of him beyond a courteous word of condolence.

The chime of the mantel clock reminded him that it was four-thirty. Anna had phoned him that morning soon after he arrived from the train and set four o'clock for his call. He wished now he had told her that he was leaving town again immediately—returning to Washington—that Julie had sent for hims!

He, caught himself up sharply, ashamed that he should even con-

Police Commissioners Will Decide on Charges Against Chief Brogan

The Saanich Police Commission will sit at Royal Oak this evening at 8 o'clock to render a decision upon written charge against Chief of Police Peter Brogan, made by D. Palantiere and Owen Lloyd. It is expected that all three commissioners will be present. Opportunity will be given James S. Brandon to speak as counsel for Chief Brogan, and H. W. Davey, attorney for Owen Lloyd, will be extended a like concession by the commission.

The great interest aroused in the case throughout the municipality has resulted in large galleries attending the past three sessions of the commission, and preparations are being made for the seating of a similar audience at to-night's proceedings.

In view of the strictures which have been expressed in Saanich in regard to the handling of the Boak tragedy by the Saanich police, it is generally anticipated that the commissioners will have something to say on the affair, and it is rumored that a severe shake-up may be made in the personnel of the police department in the very near future.

SEATTLE'S GROWTH

192,866 Persons Crossed Four Principal Bridges in Eighteen Hours

Court Shows Auto Traffic is Increasing Rapidly; Many More Trucks

Scattle, Oct. 10.—Scattle's growh in size and population during the past few years is reflected by figures made public by the municipal railway department showing results of a careful traffic check on the city's bridges last month.

ful traffic check on the city's unseasonate month.

The new check covers an eighteen-hour period from 6 a.m. until midnight, on the four principal bridges, the University, Fremont, Ballard and West Seattle structures. It shows that during that period 192,866 persons crossed the bridges. On the same day last year the number crossing was 173,526, while in 1922 it was 150,207. FEATURES OF REPORT re:

Street railway business is just bout holding its own, the number of street car passengers carried cross the four bridges during this ear's, check being 77,882, while that I last year was 77,872 and that of 922 was 76,672.

AUTO TRAFFIC GROWTH Automobile traffic is growing by leaps and bounds, the number of carserossing the bridges at this year's check being 55,165 and the number of passengers carried being 98,322, as compared with 44,419 automobiles and 50,278 passengers in 1923 and 31,974 automobiles with 58,489 passengers in 1922.

TRUCK TRAFFIC GROWTH

TRUCK TRAFFIC GROWIN
Truck traffic shows an even greater proportionate gain than automobile traffic, the 1924 check showing 8,860 trucks with 11,696 persons crossingthe bridges during the eighteen hour period, as against 7,692 trucks with 10,342 persons, is 1923 and 4,707 trucks with 9,315 persons in 1922.

PASSENGER STAGES

Passengers carried on stages show a slight decrease, being 2,138 this year against 2,145 last year and 2,953 in 1922.

MOST USED BRIDGE

The Fremont Bridge carries the heaviest traffic, the number of persons crossing this structure during the 1924 check being 72,665, as compared with 59,596 on the University Bridge, 41,097 on the West Seattle Bridge and 19,507 on the Ballard

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK Victoria and District Fire In

Victoria and District Fire Insurance Agents consider that eternal nigilance is needed to safeguard against fire and perhaps loss of lives. Fire Prevention Week has become an important factor in the welfare of the nation, yet the fact remains that the fire losses are still inordinately high and running a little below the highest recorded figures of the country. The entire week, Oct. 5-11 has been named Fire Prevention Week and during the entire time it is intended to convey as much as possible the particular factors of, fire prevention, more particularly inspecting of stoves and furnace pipes and the removal of all kinds of fire hazards.
