4 BANDELIER (ADOLPH F.)

THE ISLANDS | OF | TITICACA AND KOATI | BY | ADOLPH F. BANDELIER | (Seal) | NEW YORK | 1908. | (Published by the Hispanic Society of America)

In preparation.

This book embodies the later results of the long series of investigations which, continued through several decades with distinguished success, give to Mr. Bandelier his eminent position among archaeologists and ethnologists.

The author and his wife devoted seven months of the year 1895 to exploration of the Islands of Titicaca and Koati, in Lake Titicaca, and such sections of the lake shores as were geographically and historically connected with them. Extensive excavations were made, and many valuable discoveries followed.

The ruins on the islands are described in detail. Numerous ground plans, photographic views, and plates representing the antiquities obtained, accompany the text; also two maps of Lake Titicaca and its islands. Profuse notes impart indispensable documentary information.

Some of the subjects treated are: The Basin of Lake Titicaca; the Islands of Titicaca and Koati, their Physical Aspect and Social Condition; the Indians of the Island of Titicaca; the Ancient Ruins on the Island of Titicaca; the Ruins on the Island of Koati; Aboriginal Myths and Traditions Concerning the Island of Titicaca.

THE HISPANIC SOCIETY OF AMERICA

The general as well as the scientific reader will be interested in Mr. Bandelier's descriptions of the actual customs of the Bolivian (Aymará) Indians of the lake region, and in his picture of the culture of the ancient inhabitants of the two islands.

"El cancionero portugues tiene muchos mas poetas que el castellano. Este contiene solos los del siglo décimoquinto; pero aquel á vista de las poesías que pone del rei D. Pedro, que murió en 1367, tambien coloca, ó contiene algunas del siglo decimocuarto." (Sarmiento, Hist. de la poesia, p. 323). Sarmiento also states (p. 360) that the Portuguese Cancionero General contains poems of more than one hundred and fifty poets who lived in the XVth century.

14 CANERIO (NICOLÒ de)

OPUS NICOLAY DE CANERIO IANUENSIS.

Facsimile reproduction, issued under the joint auspices of the American Geographical Society and The Hispanic Society of America. New York, 1907.
Edited by Edward Luther Stevenson, Ph. D.

This important early Portuguese map is the second of a series, now in course of publication, which will illustrate the gradual expansion of knowledge concerning the geography of the New World, as known at the opening of the sixteenth century. It bears no date, but there is good reason for believing it was drawn as early as 1502. "Opus nicolay de canerio ianuensis" is the legend appearing in the lower corner on the left, which gives us the name of the author.

Little is known concerning Canerio; and we are left to conjecture as to whether this excellent piece of work was done in Portugal, the country whose language he employs, or in Italy, his native country. It belongs to the same type as does the Cantino, and it seems probable that they are somewhat modified copies of a common original.

The original map, and the only copy known, from which this facsimile has been made, was discovered a few years ago by L. Gallois in the Archives du Service hydrographique de la Marine, Paris. It appears that the map came to the archives of the State Department in 1669, which was before the first collection of papers relating to French Marine affairs was ordered by Colbert, and more than one quarter of a century before the creation of the Archives of the French Navy.

The Canerio map measures 225 by 115 cm. It is drawn with great care and artistic skill. Its reproduction has been difficult by reason of the crinkled and injured condition of the parchment. Every inscription of the map, however, is legible; and this reproduction in ten sheets is true to the original in every detail.

Its nomenclature is that of the Cantino map, perhaps of like date; but it contains important additions. The north continental area of the New World has here a farther extension southward than in the Cantino, and at both extremities of the Atlantic coast line Canerio has placed a Spanish flag. It is further noticeable that the southern continent has an added extension of ten degrees. Canerio, proud of his countryman, writes "The Antilles of the king of Castile discovered by Colonbo, Genoese Admiral—"; Cantino omits the word "Genoese." Canerio gives us on the eastern seaboard of Brazil, for the first time, the names "Porto de Sto Sebastian" and "Alapago de Sam Palo."

Though wanting some of the artistic touches of the Cantino map, Canerio has given us one that is scientifically of greater value, one richer in nomenclature, the oldest known marine chart on which are indicated degrees of latitude.

It seems altogether probable that the Canerio map or a copy of the same is the Portuguese sea-chart to which Waldseemüller refers in the "Supplementum" of the Strassburg Ptolemy of 1513. It is further to be noted that the agreement between Waldseemüller's Carta Marina of 1516 and the Canerio chart is so striking as to lead to the opinion that the Carta Marina is a printed edition of the Canerio chart on which, however, are to be seen some changes and some improvements.

Canerio's influence was undoubtedly far-reaching on the early sixteenth century cartography of the New World, and this influence was enhanced by the work of Waldseemüller.

First edition. Unknown for nearly two centuries and confounded later with the second, which was considered to be the first. The correction of this error is due to Salvá, who in his Catalogue of Spanish and Portuguese books, Part II, London, 1829, notes the differences in the two impressions of Cuesta and the fact that the first impression does not contain the Portuguese privilege which is found in the second. For most important differences between these two impressions, see Rius, Bibliografía crítica de las obras de Miguel de Cervantes, vol. I, pp. 2–3.

THE HISPANIC SOCIETY OF AMERICA

DESCRIPTIO MAGNA | cura & industria ex optimis quibusq; tabulis Geographicis et Hydrographicis nuperrimisq; doctorum virorum obseruationib; duobus planisphaerijs delineata Auct. I. Hondio. |

Facsimile reproduction in size of the original, issued under the joint auspices of the American Geographical Society and The Hispanic Society of America. New York, 1907. Edited by Edward Luther Stevenson, Ph.D., and Joseph Fischer, S.J.

This map is the first of a series, now in course of publication, which will illustrate the gradual expansion of knowledge concerning the geography of the New World. It is of great interest, being the work of Jodocus Hondius, the distinguished cartographer and engraver of the Netherlands. It could not have been drawn by Hondius later than 1611. In comparison with the Waldseemüller World Map of 1507 it exhibits forcibly the progress of map-making during one hundred years.

In size the map is 160 by 246 cm. It is, therefore, larger than that of Waldseemüller. In two hemispheres, each about 122 cm. in diameter, it presents the Old World in thoroughly modern outline, and particularly striking is the outline of America.

As Jodocus Hondius was the last of the three distinguished geographers and map-makers—Ortelius, Mercator, Hondius—and this large world map was probably his final, as it certainly is his great masterpiece, it is therefore an important landmark in the history of cartography.

Of this map but one copy is known to exist, which copy was found, as was the Waldseemüller map, by Professor Joseph Fischer, S.J., in the Library of Prince Waldburg Wolfegg of Wolfegg, Germany. It had been carelessly mounted on coarse linen and was attached to an oak stick about which it was rolled.

For the purpose of reproduction and preservation it became necessary to remove the torn linen backing that the eighteen sheets might be restored, in a measure at least, to their former condition. This difficult work was accomplished in a masterful manner by the distinguished Librarian of the Vatican Library, Doctor Franz Ehrle.

The excellence of the photographic negatives, made with the greatest care, under the direct supervision of Professor Fischer, in Feldkirch, Austria, has rendered it possible to bring out in the reproduction every detail as in the original.

Adorned by six large, and by more than forty small engraved pictures which fill the border and the spaces not taken by the two great hemispheres, this map is of no less significance as a cartographical masterpiece than as a masterpiece of engraving. The document is one rich in geographical record of mountains, rivers, local and regional names, and in its legends which are numerous. This reproduction will be of great interest to specialists, collectors, and students of American history.

It is issued in eighteen loose sheets in a portfolio, with a brief descriptive text and key-map.

The reproduction is ready for distribution, and other numbers of the series will follow within a short time. It is proposed to issue, subject to change, such important maps as the Canario, Juan de la Cosa, Sebastian Cabot, Paris Portuguese, Oleveriana, Catalan Map of 1457, with others of the fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

"El P. Juan de Pineda no fué un mero editor de este tratado singular, como parece darlo á entender Nic. Antonio, sino que abrevió la obra, aclaró pasajes oscuros y formó un verdadero epítome, segun aparece por la licencia para la impresion, por la dedicatoria de Pineda, y por el principio y final de la obra. Casi hubiera sido de desear no hubiese alterado y desfigurado tanto el testo primitivo."

45 MAIOLLO (VESCONTE de)

VESCONTE DE MAIOLLO COMPOSUY HANC CARTAN. | IN
JANUA ANNO DÑY. 1527. DIE. XX. DECENBRIS. |

A facsimile reproduction in four sheets of the parchment map of the world preserved in the Biblioteca Ambrosiana, Milan, Italy. Edited by Arthur James Weise, M. A. The original is in two sheets, the one measuring 82 by 60 cm., the other 93 by 60 cm. The parts are not so drawn as to admit a perfect adjustment; they are, however, clearly the two parts of one map.

Although a hasty examination of the date suggests the reading 1587, it does not call for the trained eye of the paleographer to detect in the original as we now find it, a forgery. Until Desimoni, a few years since, called attention to the altered date, the reading 1587 had been accepted. Vesconte de Maiollo held a place of first importance among the cartographers of his day.

This map exhibits certain very striking features, notably the Pacific coast of the Western Continent. For South America it is continuous, but is "Terra incognita." To the northward of "Stretto dubitoso," this coast extends in wide sweep almost parallel to the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, approaching the Atlantic seaboard in the region of the Carolinas.

In North America we find the regional names "Lavoradore," "Corte-Reale," notably "Francesca" in which country the French flag is particularly conspicuous, "Tera Florida," "Terra de Iuchatan de Spانيا."

Along the Atlantic coast, which has the erroneous and rapid trend eastward so characteristic of early Spanish maps, numerous French names appear, most of which are repeated in the Verrazano map. "Saminito" (S. Miniato), "Caregi,"

"Norman Villa," "Anguileme," "S. de germano," "Valle Vnbrosa," "anaflor," "diepa." Cuba and Haiti are each without a name, though names are given to many of the islands of the West Indies. The outline of South America resembles that of the Turin-Spanish map with the exception that Maiollo has the hypothetical western coast. Only the explorers Corte Real, Columbus and Magellan, are especially referred to on this map; yet it seems evident that it was designed to call special attention to recent French exploration, that is, the exploration of Verrazano.

The Old World has been well drawn, but omits the eastern coast of Asia. The Molucca or Spice Islands are conspicuous. The map is highly ornamented with buildings indicating the location of important cities, or of those supposed to be important; the rulers of little known regions appear in state; flags are numerous indicating the respective claims of those nations participating in the recent discoveries. Compass roses and loxodrome lines are numerous, and ships sail the seas over routes now well known.

This reproduction is in the colors of the original.

62 TIRANT lo BLANCH

Tirant lo Blanc | Reproduced in Facsimile | from the Edition of 1490 |

(At end): Fon (sic) acabada d' empremptar la prefent obra en la Ciutat de Valencia a. xx. del mes de Nohembre del ãy dela nativitat de nostre senyor deu Jefu crift mil. cccc.lxxxx.

393 leaves:—2 blank, Title-page, Rev. blank, Dedication, 2 blank pages, Index, blank leaf, Text, Note of edition, 3 blank pages. No pagination. Signatures: a.ii.—a.iiij. (8 leaves), a.ij.—a.iii. (.a.ii. repeated) to zi.—z.iiij. (including additional signatures r.i.—r.iiii. and s.i.—s.iiij., in other forms of r and s); .A.i.—A.iii.—X.i.—X.iiij., all of 8 leaves, Y.i—Y.iij. (6) and Z.i.—Z.iij. (5), l. 8°., uncut. Text in double columns, black-letter.

In the winter of 1856–7 Ticknor saw and studied at the Sapienza the copy of the Tirant lo Blanch referred to above.

In his history, pp. 207, 297–9 of vol. I concern the Tirant lo Blanch. A publication of the current year, most opportune in its relation to the present issue, is the handsome, folio, large paper volume of 170 printed pages entitled Discursos leídos en la Real Academia de Buenas Letras de Barcelona en la Recepción Pública de D. Isidoro Bonsoms y Sicart el día 9 de Mayo de 1907, Barcelona. The two discourses are entitled respectively La Edición Príncipe del "Tirant Lo Blanch", Cotejo de los tres ejemplares impresos en Valencia, en 1490, únicos conocidos hoy día, por D. Isidro Bonsoms y Sicart and Discurso de Contestación del Sr. D. Antonio Rubió y Lluch. Four valuable appendices accompany the first discourse. The whole is practically a manual treating exhaustively of the Tirant lo Blanch, both in its bibliographical and literary aspects.

The discourse of welcome by D. Antonio Rubió presents the services of Catalonia, and especially of Barcelona, to the publication and study of Cervantes, and the special distinction of Señor Bonsoms, to whom the facsimile above described is dedicated, as the collector of a monumental Cervantes library, the patron of investigation, and the author of the Iconografía de las Ediciones del Quijote, 1905, and condenses in a few pages the results of a study begun fifteen years ago of the literary significance and value of the Tirant lo Blanch. The appreciation given by Don Antonio Rubió is a felicitous commentary upon the whole of the criticism of the curate in Don Quijote and especially upon the words: "aquí comen los caballeros y duermen, y mueren en sus cañas y hacen testamento antes de su muerte, con otras cosas de que todos los demás libros deste género carecen." The Tirant lo Blanch, as the other two Catalan fictions of the same class, shows the Breton cycle brought to earth and fact under the joint influence of the Catalan national character and the Italian Renaissance, the latter as shown especially in Boccaccio. Menéndez y Pelayo is cited as declaring that it is one of the best books of chivalry that have been written in the world. In it Don Antonio finds rapid dialogue and excellent description and narration, but also passages of desperate monotony. As a monument of the Catalan tongue it is also of rare importance.

There exists no more perfect bibliographical study than that which Señor Bonsoms has made of the three existing copies of the Valencian edition of 1490, viz.: that of the University of Valencia, that of the British Museum and that of the Sapienza, now in the possession of the Hispanic Society. In his third appendix Señor Bonsoms presents the typographical variants and a facsimile of the first and second pages of the three copies and gives their water marks and those of some leaves of a fourth copy owned by D. Angel Aguiló. The history of each copy so far as attainable is also given. The Sapienza copy was sold in 1861 by the Cardinal Ludovico Altieri with the consent of His Holiness Pius IX to the Marquis of Salamanca. He sold it to the Baron Achille de Seillière. From the family of the latter it came unto the hands of Quaritch. The details of the story, particularly those relating to the purchase from the Roman University, are of great interest.
