902

A Plan of the Plantation lately belonging to Robert Williams, near Charleston on which the British army fixed their head Quarter and encamped during the siege of that Town — Containing in the whole 162½ Acres land and 136 Acres of Marsh making whole 298½ Acres

Ashley River ⟶ 66

State of South Carolina

I Joseph Purcell, one of the Lawfull and Sworn Surveyors of the State of South Carolina do hereby Certify, that the above is a true and correct Plan of the Plantation near Charleston, lately belonging to Robert Williams Esqr, on which the British army fixed their Head Quarters and encamped, during the Siege of the said Town: and that the part of the said Plan marked by the Letter A represents the wood land, said to be cleared (except some straggling trees) by the said Army for fire wood and Military purposes, in the Course of the Siege, which said parcels of wood land contains in the whole 93½ Acres to Wit. the pieces or parcels Containing 44½ — 2-9½ 3 — 12 and 4 — 17½ Acres on a careful admeasurement thereof by me this Second day of August 1786 —

J Purcell

4

903