1. Reference is made to paragraph 2, letter your headquarters, subject as above, dated 29 August 1950.

2. Information available this command indicates that TM 38-410, 1 January 1946, Army Air Forces Supply Procedures, was rescinded by Section IV, Circular 1, Department of Army, 5 January 1949. FM 21-6, List and Index of Department of Army Publications, 1 January 1949, Section VII rescissions, supersessions, and cancellations also lists TM 38-410 as rescinded. SR 310-20-4, Military Publications, dated 1 January 1950 does not list TM 38-410 as a current publication, nor does it list it as a rescission or supersession, however, under the heading of supplies (page 440) AAF Base Procedure shows TM 38-410 as part of alphabetical index.

3. Request that clarification be given on subject matter for procedures to follow.

4. If not in effect request current regulations or instructions to be used as information supplied to us by Air Forces indicate that AFM 67-1 is being used by them as replacement to TM 38-410.

2. Basic letter publishes for information and guidance a Department of Defense policy on overtime and extra-pay shift work on production of urgent military items. Paragraph 2b thereof delegates to CINCFE, as head of a procuring activity, with power of redelegation, the authority for approval of such overtime and extra-pay shift deviations as may be required. CINCFE redelegation of such authority appears unnecessary at this time.

3. G-4 C/N 1 requests AG publication and distribution of basic letter and 1st Ind to major commands listed and to staff sections concerned. The 1st Ind forwards basic letter to major commands for information and guidance.

HC 400.12 (GPQM) 2 October 1950

SUBJECT: Procurement Receipt Procedure

TO: Assistant Chief of Staff, G-4, GHQ, FEC, APO 500
Attn: Receiving Officer

The following changes in Procurement receipt procedure are effective this date:

1. When, prior to payment, an erroneous procurement receipt is discovered, same may be corrected by the issuance of an amended GPA Form 2 which will contain on its face the statement "This receipt amends receipt #_____, dated _____". The amended receipt will bear the same number as the receipt being corrected. The receiving officers will contact Procurement Division, Quartermaster Section, Headquarters and Service Command, to check on whether payment has been made prior to the issuance of an amended receipt.

2. Once payment has been effected, a receipt may not be amended but corrections will be made by adjustment of future receipts against the same contract. The adjustment will be shown as a separate item with explanation entered thereon.

3. When final payment has been accomplished but further payment is due the contractor, adjustment will be made by issuance of a second final receipt, which will contain on its face the statement "This second final receipt is necessitated by the following adjustment".

4. When final payment has been completed and contractor has been overpaid, or when final payment has not been effected but the amount due from the contractor is greater than the amount owed to him on the balance of the contract, adjustment will be achieved by the issuance of a request to the Procurement Division, Quartermaster Section, to prepare necessary papers to effect reimbursement.

Item #1

Monitor Reel Cabinet: Six each cabinets will be manufactured in accordance with specifications indicated in drawings CCD 01, 02, 03, 04, and 05. Overall height will be 68½ inches, width 72 inches, and depth 21 inches. See perspective drawing CCD 01. Cabinet will be manufactured, assembled, and wired by the contractor, consisting of the following:

a. Each monitor reel cabinet will be built according to CCD drawings #01, 02, 03, 04, and 05. Cabinet will be constructed of angle iron and sheet metal, painted grey with a six-inch black strip around the bottom. Sheet steel covering will be approximately 1/20" thick. All bolts and other metal hardware visible from the outside will be chrome or nickel plated. Cabinet shelf supports will be capable of supporting 75 lbs each for a total of 675 lbs on all shelves. Construction engineering drawings will be engineered by the contractor.

b. The screen wire mesh shelves indicated in the perspective drawing will be so constructed as to be easily removed. One quarter inch mesh on a metal frame will be used. Note that center panel is solid metal without wire mesh, capable of supporting 62 lbs.

c. Shelf runners, door slides, and power panel will be manufactured in accordance with CCD drawing #03; receptacles, switches, and jacks will be supplied to the manufacturer per covering letter, paragraph 4. Samples will be available to the manufacturer for engineering drawings by calling at Room 333, Dai Ichi Building, and seeing Mr. A. Atkinson, Chief, Teletype Maintenance. Shelf runner assembly shown in detail drawing must be induction welded to allow the shelf to slide through the aperture.

d. One fuse panel per each cabinet will be manufactured, and holes drilled fit the fuse receptacles supplied by the CommCen Div as indicated in para 4 of covering letter. One Signal terminal block will be furnished and power terminal strip will be supplied by the manufacturer.

e. Wiring of each reel cabinet will be accomplished by the contractor using wire gauges as indicated in CCD drawing #05.

f. One gallon of paint per cabinet will be furnished by the contractor.

g. Three complete sets of engineering and wiring drawings will be furnished by the manufacturer.

MEMO FOR RECORD: The paper art coated both sides is required for the production of necessary Photo mosaics in support of the Korean effort. The remaining items are necessary to allow for the rehabilitating of dried ink, preparing and standardizing of colors of ink as required.

Since the above items are not stocked for normal issue and since the items are necessary to allow the 64th EBTB to reproduce the large number of maps and photo maps required for tactical support of the UN Forces in Korea, this msg requests the Japan Logistical Command to procure the above items from local sources for issue to the 64th EBTB by 1 Nov 50.

1. Reference your C/N 1 (Lt Col Cooper 26-6040) above subject, 8 Sep 50, inclosing copy of DA letter and list of items expected to be available for field test under combat conditions in Korea, developmental QM items on list have been reviewed. Comments requested informally by Colonel Fitch, G-4, are as follows:

a. Items listed all appear suitable for testing in Korea and are desired. However, some show a date available for shipment so late that testing this winter may not be feasible. Examples are Shoepac, all rubber, available in May 51 and Underwear, pajama type, available in April 51.

b. Quantities listed appear small in comparison to those which could readily be used in testing in Korea. Larger quantities would furnish more reliable test information.

c. Since quantities are restricted it will be necessary to use items under close supervision of observer personnel to assure obtaining data needed.

d. Informal information from G-4 Petroleum indicates a desire to test additional items of petroleum handling equipment.

2. It is recommended all items on the list be accepted for testing as soon as they can be made available and if additional quantities or other items are required separate requests therefor will be sent DA.

APO 500
Attention: G-4

1. Request approval of the inclosed Occupation Forces Procurement Regulation which will be applicable to all commands.

2. The directive is a comprehensive statement of current policy and procedure covering the six phases of procurement activity. Its adoption will result in the establishment of a single instrument for orientation of and use by procuring officers. The advantage to the lowest echelon in the field is apparent.

3. Procedures have been simplified, unnecessary detail has been reduced to the minimum compatible with efficient operation and control, and all forms have been revised for uniformity.

MEMO FOR RECORD:

SUBJECT: Occupation Forces Procurement Regulation

1. By basic ltr JLCOM forwarded to CINCFE for approval draft of Occupation Forces Procurement Regulation. This was sent to CINCFE in error, as such is an internal matter of JLCOM and does not require CINCFE approval. However, text was reviewed by Sup Div (Lt Col Akin) and C&RE (Maj Miller) for policies, which were found to be in consonance with policies established by GHQ. By phone conversation with Mr. Gordon, JLC Procurement, it was agreed that text be returned informally and no reply be made to basic ltr. However, Mr. Gordon again phoned and requested that letter be answered in order to clear AG records. Inst indorsement is for that purpose.

1. Communication received from the Department of Army is to the effect that the prohibitions on purchasing and contracting as prescribed by paragraph 6a, AR 72-5, 9 November 1949, concerning supplies originating in the United States, etc., are waived for purchases in aid of United States military support of Korea by authorization of the Under Secretary of the Army. The waiver of these prohibitions is made for the purpose of permitting exploitation of existing local stocks of American made supplies and is not to be construed as authority to institute procurement procedures which will result in a flow of military supplies from the United States through commercial channels. The correct procedure in these instances is to obtain the supplies by timely requisition through regular supply channels.

2. The waiver granted in the above paragraph will not be construed to apply to paragraph 6b, AR 72-5, "Reacquisition of Surplus Items". This matter will be made the subject of a separate communication.

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD: 11 Sept 50 GD SP AKA/BH/lg

1. DA ltr addressed to major overseas commands, subj "Emergency Procurement in Aid of United States Military Support of the Independence of the Republic of Korea", 26 Aug 50, authorizes redelegation of certain contracting and procurement authority formerly limited to CINCFE, and waives certain prohibitions concerning the procurement of supplies of U.S. origin.

2. The redelegation of authority has already been accomplished by FEC Staff Memo 46, 1950, which extended to the Chiefs of Technical Services, GHQ, contractual approval authority in those cases wherein command approval is required. This constitutes manual approval for and in the name of CINCFE. The requirement still stands that any proposed contract involving $50,000 or more and not routine in nature will be submitted to GHQ in draft form for prior approval. Also the requirement still stands that any negotiated contract involving $100,000 or over must receive prior GHQ approval. However, the volume of such contracts is sufficiently small that it is considered unnecessary to redelegate approval authority of these two types of contracts to subordinate commands. Therefore, no action is being taken on that portion of DA ltr.

3. Instant ltr to CG JLCOM explains the waiving of certain prohibitions formerly in effect against procurement of supplies of US origin. Instant ltr also warns CG JLCOM that this waiver is limited and does not apply to other pertinent provisions of AR 72-5.

4. Instant ltr is addressed to CG JLCOM only as that command has been designated sole agent for procurement to support the Korean effort. Therefore, provisions of DA ltr are not applicable to other subordinate commands of FECOM.

5. Coordination: P&O G-4 (Lt Col Dorman).

1. DA ltr addressed to major overseas commands, subj "Emergency Procurement in Aid of United States Military Support of the Independence of the Republic of Korea", 26 Aug 50, authorizes redelegation of certain contracting and procurement authority formerly limited to CINCFE, and waives certain prohibitions concerning the procurement of supplies of U. S. origin.

2. The redelegation of authority has already been accomplished by FEC Staff Memo 46, 1950, which extended to the Chiefs of Technical Services, GHQ, contractual approval authority in those cases wherein command approval is required. This constitutes manual approval for and in the name of CINCFE. The requirement still stands that any proposed contract involving $50,000 or more and not routine in nature will be submitted to GHQ in draft form for prior approval. Also the requirement still stands that any negotiated contract involving $100,000 or over must receive prior GHQ approval. However, the volume of such contracts is sufficiently small that it is considered unnecessary to redelegate approval authority of these two types of contracts to subordinate commands. Therefore, no action is being taken on that portion of DA ltr.

3. Instant ltr to CG JLCOM explains the waiving of certain prohibitions formerly in effect against procurement of supplies of US origin. Instant ltr also warns CG JLCOM that this waiver is limited and does not apply to other pertinent provisions of AR 72-5.

4. Instant Ltr is addressed to CG JLCOM only as that command has been designated sole agent for procurement to support the Korean effort. Therefore, provisions of DA ltr are not applicable to other subordinate commands of FECOM.

5. Coordination: P&O G-4 (Lt Col Dorman).

6. Action complete on G-4 Journal 11984.
