

THE ECONOMIST

THE TIMES-DAY

W. H. WHITING & CO.
Manufacturers of
WHITING'S

L. M. FAY THE BOOKSELLER.

NOTES

Quaker
will be
The
Pr
De
B
P

B. P. SMITH & WOODLEHAMS,
100 Broad Street, Boston, Mass.

S. Oliver's Shop

A. B. STURTEVANT
Retail Jeweler - We have his personal assurance that he has made a considerable investment in new stock and equipment and is prepared to handle all kinds of jewelry. We welcome
you to his shop.

High Day School for Young Ladies, Established 1866.

DR. JAMES BROWN (late Miss Brown), head nurse at St. Luke's Hospital and Infirmary, died yesterday morning at her home, 1625 Harrison Street. She was 65 years old.

State of Government Variable.
SEALED Proposals will be re-polved by Mr. H. C. Dyer, of the Counterparties' U. S. A., Inc., 149

Canton Street, New Haven, Conn.
Mr. W. J. Johnson, 149, for the purpose of the following named business, extending from which proposals will be sent to the Counterparties' General, for his decision.

FOR HAVANA—The regular packet
by A. & J. ANN JONES, Captain West, part of her cargo engaged, will meet with squalls. For freight or passage, having the accommodations, apply to the Captains on board.
W. J. MURKIN, 21 Gravier St.,

FOR HAVANA—The fine fast sailing packet by SALVADORA, Captain in having part of her cargo engaged, will have no dispatch. For freight or passage, having the accommodations, apply to the Captain on board.
J. W. COSTA & CO., 3 Front Street.