PREFACE.

THIS volume, although complete within itself, is designed as an addition or supplement to "The American Draught Player," a treatise published by the Author in 1860, and containing upwards of 1700 Games and Positions. †

Attention is called to decided improvements in this work over all others that have preceded it, by combining all the Games and variations under one head, and by placing at the bottom of each variation, the variation or variations from which it arises.

Having had many applications for more simple instructions than are found in other works of the kind, the Author has in this treatise endeavored to give them so plain as to be within the comprehension of all.

For a concise Rule illustrating the "Changes of the move," by an exchange, the Author is indebted to Alonzo Brooks, Esq.

The Author also acknowledges himself indebted to many friends for contributions of Games and Positions; and having availed himself of everything of interest in the Game since the publication of his first treatise, hopes this volume will meet the expectations of those who may examine it.

H. SPAYTH.

INSTRUCTIONS.

The Game of Draughts is played on a board of sixty-four squares of different colors, and with two sets of twelve men each, of adverse colors. The following diagram represents the board and men at the commencement of the game.

BLACK.

WHITE.

Each player in turn moves one of his men to the right or left along the diagonal on which it stands, and the men can only move forward one square at a time, until they reach the extreme line of the board, when they become Kings, and being crowned, can then move either forward or backward to the end of the Game.

The men capture in the direction they move by leaping over any opposing piece that may be contiguous, provided there be a vacant square behind them to set the piece upon, and the men thus leaped are removed from the board.

When there are two ways of capturing, you may take your choice whether in one way one piece only is taken, or in the other way more.

When you reach the King row, whether by a jump or otherwise, that terminates the move, until your opponent shall have moved, excepting when you leap in with a piece that is already a King—when you may leap out again if a piece lies in the way of capture.

The final object of each player is to confine his opponent's pieces in a situation where they cannot be played, or, both to capture and fix, so that there may be none that can be played, and the person whose side is brought to this state, loses the Game.

The following diagram represents the board numbered, which is done for the purpose of recording and communicating the moves.

WHITE.

To play the Games in this treatise, turn to page 1, and under Game you will observe your first play with Black is from 11 to 15, White plays from 22 to 18, you jump from 15 to 22, White jumps from 25 to 18, you play from 8 to 11, White plays from 29 to 25, you play from 4 to 8, White plays from 24 to 20, and so on to the bottom of the column, when the Game is abandoned as drawn, neither side having any advantage.

Now place all the men on the board again, and you will observe before 11-15 in first column under Game, the figures 1, 2, 3 and 4; 1 refers to variation 1, in the next column, the first move for Black being 11-16, and by playing that column down to the bottom completes the game; 2 refers to variation 2 in the next column, the first move for Black being 9-14; 3 refers to variation 3 in the next column, the first move for Black being 9-13; 4 refers to variation 4 in the next column, the first move for Black being 10-15.

Now you will observe you have the choice for Black's first move of 11-15, 11-16, 9-14, 9-13 or 10-15.

Supposing however you play for Black's first move 11-15, as given in the first column, White can, instead of 22-18, play variations 5, 6, 7, 8 or 9, the first moves being 23-19, 23-18, 24-19, 24-20 and 22-17.

It will now be observed that the variations are numbered in natural succession, at the top of the page, on a line with the word Game; and the numbers that refer to them follow each other in succession down the columns, thus: 1 leads to variation 1; 2 leads to variation 2, and so on. The brace, when used, has its central point to the move at which variations occur. The letters refer only to variations in the same column. The Stars (*) indicate supposed corrections or improvements of the "American Draught Player." The letters A. D. P. refer to "American Draught Player," and for the continuation of the Games so noted, see that Treatise. The figures at the bottom of the columns, refer to the variations from which they arise.

THE MOVE AND ITS CHANGES.

THE MOVE.

To have The Move, signifies, the occupying of that position on the Board, which, in playing piece against piece, backward or forward, without regard to the others, till only one square intervene between the pieces, will eventually cause the player who occupies that position, to have the last move.

CALCULATION OF THE MOVE.

For this purpose the squares of the Board are divided into two systems of four columns each.

The column of one system being those numbered downwards from squares 1, 2, 3, 4.

The columns of the other system being those numbered upwards from squares 29, 30, 31, 32.

RULE.

Add together all the pieces, in either system, and if their sum is odd, it being your play, you have the move. If even, your opponent has the move.

THE CHANGES OF THE MOVE.

RULE.

Add together all of the capturing pieces in both systems, and if they are the same as the captured pieces in each system, (that is both odd or both even,) the move is not changed: but if they are reverse to each other, (one odd and the other even), the move is changed.

LAWS OF THE GAME.

1. The standard board must be of light and dark squares, not less than fourteen inches nor more than fifteen inches across the squares.

2. The standard men, technically described as White and Black, must be light and dark (say White and Red or White and Black,) turned and round, not less than one inch, nor more than one and one-eighth inches in diameter.

3. The board shall be placed so that the bottom corner square on the left hand shall be black.

4. The men shall be placed on the black squares.

5. The Black men shall be invariably placed upon the real or supposed first twelve squares of the board ; the White upon the last twelve squares.

6. Each player shall play alternately with White and Black men, and lots shall be cast for the color only once, viz. : at the commencement of a match, the winner to have the choice of taking Black or White.

7. The first play must be invariably made by the person, having the Black men, and that alternately till the end of the match.

8. TIME.—At the end of five minutes, (if the play has not been previously made) time must be called by the person appointed for the purpose, in a distinct manner, and if the play be not completed on the expiration of another minute, the game shall be adjudged to be lost through improper delay.

9. When there is only one way of taking one or more pieces, time shall be called at the end of ONE MINUTE, and if the play be not completed on the expiration of another minute, the game shall be adjudged to be lost through improper delay.

10. After the first move has been made, if either player arrange any piece without giving intimation to his opponent, he shall forfeit the game ; but, if it is his turn to play, he may avoid the penalty by playing that piece, if possible.

11. After the pieces have been arranged, if the person whose turn it is to play, touch one he must either play it or forfeit the game. When the piece is not playable, he forfeits according to the preceding law.

12. If any part of a playable piece is played over an angle of the square on which it is stationed, the play must be completed in that direction.

13. A capturing play, as well as an ordinary one, is completed whenever the hand has been withdrawn from the piece played, even although one or more pieces should have been taken.

14. The Huff or Blow, is to remove from the board, before one plays his own piece, any one of the adverse pieces that might or should have taken. But the Huff or Blow never constitutes a play.

15. The player has the power either to Huff, compel the capture, or let the piece remain on the board, as he thinks proper.

16. When a man first reaches any of the squares on the opposite extreme line of the board it becomes a King, and can be moved backward or forward as the limits of the board permit, though not in the same play, and must be crowned (by placing a man on the top of it) by the opponent; if he neglect to do so, and play, any such play shall be put back until the man be crowned.

17. Either player making a false or improper move, shall instantly forfeit the game to his opponent, without another move being made.

18. When taking, if either player remove one of his own pieces, he cannot replace it; but his opponent can either play or insist on his replacing it.

19. A Draw is, when neither of the players can force a win: when one of the sides appears stronger than the other, the stronger party is required to complete the win, or show at least a decided advantage over his opponent within forty of his own moves—to be counted from the point at which notice was given;—failing in which, he must relinquish the game as a Draw.

20. Anything which may tend either to annoy or distract the attention of the player, is strictly forbidden; such as making signs, or sounds, pointing or hovering over the board, unnecessarily delaying to move a piece touched, or smoking. Any principal so acting, after having been warned of the consequence, and requested to desist, shall forfeit the game.

21. While a game is pending, neither player is permitted to leave the room without giving a sufficient reason, or receiving the other's consent, or that of the company.

22. Either player committing a breach of any of these laws, must submit to the penalty, and his opponent is equally bound to exact the same.

23. Any spectator giving warning either by sign, sound, or remark, on any of the games, whether played or pending, shall be expelled from the room during the match.

24. Should any dispute occur, not satisfactorily determined by the preceding laws, a written statement of facts must be sent to a disinterested arbiter having a knowledge of the game, whose decision shall be final.

25. A match must consist of an even number of games, so that each player will have the first move the same number of times.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Press are unqualified in their commendation of this valuable work. The following brief extracts are taken from extended notices of it:

"It is by far the best work upon the game that has ever been published."—ATLANTIC MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

"Mr. Spayth's book contains matter of the profoundest and most indispensable moment."—THE INDEPENDENT.

"It is the most instructive treatise on the game ever published in any country."—BUFFALO COURIER.

"Authors on the Game of Draughts (as all are well aware) are numerous, but Henry Spayth, author of "American Draught Player," stands pre-eminent and unrivalled. We make this assertion, feeling confident that no greater proof is needed than a simple comparison of his treatise with others on the game. It is true that Sturges,

Anderson, and many other gifted authors deserve much praise and credit; but every candid and unprejudiced player (who has compared the different treatise) will admit that Spayth is the only author who has been willing to take the responsibility of putting forth a universal work on the game, one that contains all the books. Besides giving us over five hundred of his own best games, he has also given us over five hundred games, the contributions of the most eminent American and European players, as well as the most judicious selection from all other authors.

"In addition to the laurels won by Mr. Spayth as an author of a work containing so much valuable information to the lover of Draughts, he stands to day the Champion of the World, having been for many years the most successful and accomplished of all players."—WILKES' SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Spayth's Game of Draughts. Containing upwards of 500 Games and Positions, Full Instructions, the Move and Its Changes, Laws of the Game, etc. By HENRY SPAYTH, author of "American Draught Player." This book is entirely new, and although it is designed as an addition, or supplement to the author's first work—"THE AMERICAN DRAUGHT PLAYER"—it is complete in itself. It contains lucid instructions for beginners, laws of the game, diagrams, the score of 364 games, together with about 140 novel, instructive and ingenious "critical positions." The work is an admirable treatise upon the noble game to which Mr. Spayth has given so much profitable study and thought, and will, if possible, still further enhance his reputation, both as a player and author. To the experienced Draught player it will, during the long winter evenings, prove an invaluable companion, and the novice can from its pages learn a mental recreation that has been and is the delight of many of our greatest minds. Cloth, gilt back and side, price.....$1 50

“Trump's” American Hoyle ; or, Gentlemen's Handbook of Games.

Containing clear and complete descriptions of all the Games played in the United States, with the American Rules for playing them, including Whist, Euchre, Besique, Cribbage, All-Fours, Loo, Poker, Brag, Piquet, Ecarté, Boston, Cassino, Chess, Checkers, Backgammon, Dominoes, Billiards, and a hundred other games. To which is appended an Elaborate Treatise on the Doctrine of Chances.

Reasons why the “American Hoyle” must be the Standard Authority for all Games played in the United States :

Because it is an American Book, prepared with great care, with the aid and counsel of a large number of the best players (both amateur and professional) in this country.

The Rules, descriptions, definitions and technicalities are all simplified and adapted to the several games as they are actually played here.

Many of our games are peculiarly American, and cannot be intelligibly described except by an American who understands them, while those of foreign origin have become so changed by American modifications, as to make the European rules and descriptions as likely to mislead as to instruct.

In preparing this work the best or greatest weight of authority for each particular game has been taken upon disputed points.

The important games of Chess, Draughts, and Backgammon are illustrated with over 150 diagrams of games, problems and critical positions, all of which have been carefully played upon the board since the work was stereotyped, and nearly 100 errors (which appear in English Game Books and their American reprints) have been corrected.

All the games played in the United States, whether of home or foreign origin, are given as they are played by Americans at the present day.
