Services Subject of Tributes Before the Supreme Council Disbanded

Paris, Jan. 21.—Before the Supreme Council was finally adjourned yesterday, Mr. Lloyd George asked that the following statement be entered upon the minutes of the Council: "Conscious of the inestimable services which M. Clemenceau, President during more than a year of the Peace Conference, has rendered the cause of peace, and grateful to him, as we are, for the dignity, impartiality and wisdom with which he has conducted our deliberations, we, his colleagues, desire to express to him our unalterable esteem as well as our hope that in the calm of his retirement he may live long enough to see his incomparable work bear fruit for the glory of France and the renewal of the prosperity of the world."

Wallace's Tribute. Hugh Wallace, the American Ambassador to France, who followed Mr. Lloyd George, said: "Mr. President: It is a deep regret for me not to have been able to be present longer at these deliberations and to profit by your great wisdom and your incomparable good temper. I have learned to know you that is to say to love you, and President Wilson already has told me how deeply attached he was to you. I want to express to you the sentiment we feel for you and to wish you a long and happy life."

Guarantee of Peace. M. Clemenceau, in thanking the Council for its expressions of esteem, said: "If Great Britain, the United States, France, Italy and Japan remain united, there is a guarantee of peace which exceeds all those guarantees which can be put on paper. If one day these nations are separated, I dare not think of the misfortunes which may result." In conclusion M. Clemenceau said: "I shall not lose sight of the peace we are completing, and shall continue to follow its progress until my last breath. I shall try by all good wishes, at least to do all in my power for the solidarity of that peace, for, indeed, if by misfortune the elements of discord should arise among

SINN FEINER WAS KILLED BY POLICE

London, Jan. 21.—A dispatch from Kilrush, Ireland, last night, said that an encounter occurred near there yesterday in which a man supposed to be a Sinn Fein man was killed. While policemen were removing their belongings from the village of Cooraclare to knock in a motor van they were fired on by a large party from both sides of the road. Four bicycle policemen returned the fire, killing one man and capturing two others, who were brought to Kilrush. The body of the man killed fell into a river and was swept away by the current. The policemen escaped injury.

A dispatch from Cork says that when the Sinn Fein commission of inquiry into Ireland's industrial resources appeared at the city hall in Cork yesterday, for the opening of its sittings, Darrel Figgis, who was accompanied by Liam O'Riordan (William Roche), Sinn Fein member of Parliament for Cork, found the building in the possession of the police. It was announced that the police intend to prevent the commission from meeting.

HEART SO BAD WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE

Miss Eva F. Yateman, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received by taking your Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better, although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls, whenever I was that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines and took several different kinds, but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them and before long had taken more than two boxes I could see they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes, and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me, and I advise any one troubled with their heart to try them, as I am confident they will find relief."

BIG MURDER PLOT FAILED IN STATES

Public officials were prominent in the "honor list" of proposed victims, it is asserted. The police think the bombs were to have been sent by express or hurried by fanatics. This information was forthcoming following a preliminary investigation of papers seized in the raids. Material for use in the manufacture of bombs, including those of the pipe variety, was found. The plotters' plans were only in the preliminary stages, it was said.

It is declared that the reception of the new Government by the people is apparently favorable. The situation in South Russia, according to official dispatches dated January 18, was as follows: "In the Caucasus, insurgent attacks against Derbent had been repulsed and the Bolshevik advance toward Fraidsoyaya likewise had been repulsed. The Caucasus army was holding the line astride the Bartsin-Ekateninodard railway, 120 miles southwest of Bartsin. "Farther west, Bolshevik attempts to pass the Don River had been unsuccessful, but a small party had gained the left of the stream south of Nakhichevan. "In the direction of the Crimea the Bolsheviks had reached a line twenty miles north of the Chongar isthmus."

Georgian Republic. Paris, Jan. 21.—Confidence in the ability of the Georgian Republic in the Caucasus to hold out against any Bolshevik advance if the Allies send the necessary supplies and war materials is expressed by M. Gobelet, one of the Georgian delegates here. He appeared before the Supreme Council on Monday with a representative of Azerbaijan with reference to the integrity of the territory of these Governments and its eventual defence against Bolshevik attacks, and it was understood that the Council considered measures for aid to these states for defence of their frontiers in case of need.

Why Women Grow Old More Quickly Than Men

Greater Percentage of Anaemia—Lack of Iron in the Blood—Among Women Makes Them Lose Much of Their Youth, Beauty and Former Attractiveness, And Become Fretful, Nervous and Run-down—
What Women Need Is Not Cosmetics or Stimulating Drugs But Plenty of Pure Red Blood, Rich in Iron

Physician Explains How Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron, Enriches the Blood, Strengthens the Nerves, Builds Up Physical Power and Often Makes Weak, Pale Careworn Women Look and Feel Years Younger.

Look for the woman who appears younger than a man of the same age and you will find the exception to that vast majority upon whom anaemia—lack of iron in the blood has fastened its grip and is gradually sapping the health, vitality and beauty which every woman so longs to retain. In most cases men safeguard their health better than women by eating coarser foods, being more out-of-doors and leading more active lives, thereby keeping their blood richer in iron and their bodies in better physical condition. The very moment a woman allows herself to become weak, nervous and run-down she is placing a drain upon her whole system which overtaxes the power of the blood to renew wasted tissue and keep active the natural life forces of the body. There are thousands of women who are ageing and breaking down at a time when they should be enjoying that perfect bodily health which comes from plenty of iron in the blood, simply because they are not awake to their condition. For want of iron a woman may look and feel haggard and all run-down—while at 50 or 60 with good health and plenty of iron in her blood she may still be young in feeling and so full of life and attractiveness as to defy detection of her real age.

But a woman cannot have beautiful rosy cheeks or an abundance of strength and endurance without iron, and physicians below have been asked to explain why they prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to help supply this deficiency and aid in building a race of stronger, healthier women.

Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital says: "Many women who are run-down, easily tired out, nervous and irritable, energy, and get themselves into a condition to ward off the millions of disease germs that are almost continually around us. I consider Nuxated Iron one of the foremost of the best body builders—the best to which I have ever had recourse." Among other physicians asked for an opinion was Dr. George H. Baker, formerly Physician and Surgeon Monmouth Memorial Hospital, New Jersey, who says: "What women need to put roses in their cheeks and the springtime of life into their step is not cosmetics or stimulating drugs but plenty of rich pure blood. Without it no woman can do credit to herself or to her work. Iron is one of the greatest of all strength and blood-builders, and I have found nothing in my experience so effective for helping to make strong, healthy, red-blooded women as Nuxated Iron."

THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

What It Is and How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force in Two Weeks' Time in Many Instances

SHOULD BE PRESCRIBED BY EVERY DOCTOR AND USED IN EVERY HOSPITAL
 Says Editor of "Physicians' Who's Who,"

Take plain Bitro-phosphate is the advice of physicians to thin, delicate, nervous people who lack vim, energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of this preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover, if we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness. Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements,

Bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing. Clinical tests made in St. Catherine's Hospital, N. Y. C., showed that two patients gained in weight 23 and 27 pounds, respectively, through the administration of this organic phosphate; both patients claim they have not felt as strong and well for the past twelve years. This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Physicians and hospitals everywhere are now recognizing its merits by its use in ever increasing quantities. Frederick Kollie, M. D., editor of New York Physicians' "Who's Who" says: "Bitro-phosphate should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital to increase strength and nerve force and to enrich the blood." CAUTION:—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its remarkable flesh growing properties it should not be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

Remember this, Catarrh can never be cured or even relieved by a cough syrup, a spray, or tablet treatment. Trouble is these remedies slip quickly over the sore irritated membranes, drop into the stomach and do little else but harm digestion. It's different with "Catarrhazone"—you inhale it. Every breath sends healing balsams to the inflamed tissues. Tightness, soreness and inflammation are cured by healing pine essences. The cough dies away, throat is strengthened, huskiness is cured. Nothing is so simple, so convenient, so certain to cure as Catarrhazone. The dollar outfit includes the inhaler, costs $1.00 and is guaranteed to cure. # WHISKY SMUGGLERS USE PLANES

New York Customs Collector Looks for Movement From Canada

New York, Jan. 21.—Wholesale smuggling of liquor into the United States from Canada by aeroplane was prophesied yesterday by Byron R. Newton, Collector of the Port of New York. He declared it would be extremely difficult to check such attempts over the 4,000 miles of Canadian border.

He explained that a single aeroplane could carry nearly 2,000 pounds of contraband and land at some infrequent spot where the liquor could be transferred to motor trucks and brought under cover of darkness into thousands of communities.

A Tangle.—When 700 barrels of Kentucky whisky went to Davy Jones' locker just off New York Harbor last Friday, it meant not only a potential loss of $150,000, the figurative value of the liquor, but the possible necessity of the owners being obliged to pay the United States Government a tax of approximately $175,000 for 4250 barrels—as a penalty for not getting it outside the three-mile limit by January 16, according to T. S. Jones, Louisville, whisky broker, who brought tidings of the disaster here yesterday. The whisky, the property of the Green River Distilling Company, of Owensboro, Ky., was being lightered to a steamer for export on the last day of grace. The barge sprang a leak and sank. Had it gone down two miles farther out the tax of $650 a gallon would not be due, because there was no revenue tax on exported whisky.

Guarded.—Motor trucks with armed Customs guards transported 25,000 gallons of confiscated liquor yesterday from steamship piers here to warehouses, where it will remain indefinitely pending decision by the Federal authorities as to its ultimate disposition. The liquor arrived here from distant parts of the country, but largely from Kentucky, too late to be exported before the prohibition amendment became effective.

Considerable liquor which was not actually exported before the amendment became effective will be immune from seizure, as it was started for Canada or Cuba before midnight last Friday.

Saloonkeepers were given ten days' grace to-day to remove all signs dealing with alcoholic liquors, as required by law.

IRISH ELECTIONS GIVE MIXED RESULTS

London, Jan. 21.—While the Sinn Fein is celebrating its victory in the Irish municipal elections, official circles in London profess to find in the election returns an element which makes the prospects brighter for an amended proposal under the proposed Home Rule Bill. This element is said to lie in the fact that the voting showed neither Southern Ireland to be solid Sinn Fein nor Northern Ireland solid Unionist. Neither the Sinn Feiners nor the Unionists appear to have gained a majority of the total seats in their respective strongholds. Therefore, it is claimed that, since the citizens are divided in the country, it is better for them to come together quickly under one parliament, as proposed by Mr. Lloyd George in his recent speech in the House of Commons.

While there are still a few districts to be heard from, it would appear from available figures that the Sinn Fein has captured approximately 31 per cent of the seats and the Unionist party 20 per cent, while labor came strongly to the front with 17 per cent, and the Nationalists have again come to life and won 14 per cent. The other seats are scattered among independents and reformers.

This is the first time that the voice of all the people of Ireland has been heard in elections, which was made possible by the new proportional representation measure. In the last general elections the Sinn Fein captured 73 of the 105 parliamentary seats, thereby virtually sweeping the country.

UNIFICATION OF LABOR LAWS OF THE PROVINCES

Winnipeg, Jan. 21.—(Canadian Press).—To promote unification of labor laws, a national movement to be participated in by all trades and labor councils in Canada is planned. The Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council is now communicating with western councils in regard to preparing a programme which it believes would place Dominion labor legislation on a higher plane. A conference at an early date between the Government, employers and labor representatives from all sections of the country is among the plans contemplated.

SPOILED FOOD IS REACHING GERMANY

Berlin, Jan. 21.—Food parcel gifts from the United States continue to arrive in a spoiled condition. Very often putrid meat infects other contents of a parcel, and as a result joy over the receipt of a parcel quickly resolves itself into gloom.

OTTAWA REFERENDUM.
 Toronto, Jan. 21.—The Ontario Government will be asked by the Ontario referendum committee to request the Dominion Government to allow the taking of a vote in this Province on the question of the importation of liquor into Ontario, the vote to be taken at the earliest possible date under the terms of the recent Federal legislation thereon.

JOHN WALKER HAS GAINED 23 POUNDS

Had to Give Up His Business, But Is Back on Job Every Day Now

"My five years of troubles had pulled me down until I weighed only one hundred and fifteen pounds at the time I began taking Tanlac, but now I tip the scales at exactly one hundred and thirty-eight," said John Walker, a well-known tile layer residing at 428 Alexander Avenue, Winnipeg.

"I had suffered so long that I had no color in my skin, and hardly had strength enough to move about," continued Mr. Walker. "I had to give up my regular line of work and take up a different kind of business, and I was in such a weakened condition that I almost had to give it up also. It was all I could do to put in one or two days a week, and I had to lay off the rest of the time. At last I was compelled to go to the hospital, and I stayed there seven and a half weeks, but I came home in no better condition than when I went there. I had such a poor appetite that I hardly cared whether I went to the table or not, and my digestion was so bad that I had to get up to put in one or two days a week, and I had to lay off the rest of the time. NEW HOSPITAL NEEDED.

The need of a modern new establishment to replace the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital, has long been apparent. It was recognized by the ratepayers of Victoria about seven years ago, when they passed a bylaw authorizing the municipality to raise $225,000 towards the cost of a new building, while some seventy thousand dollars were raised by public subscription. Preliminary steps were taken in connection with the enterprise and the present laundry premises were erected out of the funds obtained from subscription. The outbreak of war, however, prevented further progress and subsequently the debentures issued in pursuance of the bylaw were cancelled on agreement between the municipal authorities and the Hospital Board.

Thus, seven years ago the urgent necessity of new hospital quarters on the site of the present institution was generally appreciated, and the necessity has grown more pressing in that time. The building is totally inadequate to the requirements. Because of its numerous glaring defects it costs as much to run as a modern institution much larger would cost, and too much praise cannot be given to the staff for the marked efficiency of their work in the face of such obstacles. Between the various communities and interests concerned there should be no difficulty in raising the wherewithal for a new hospital. The care of suffering humanity should have the first call upon the public.

HER RIGHTS ARE EXTINCT.

Turkey's "inalienable right" to Constantinople, or to any share in Europe for that matter, should be regarded as extinct from the time she allowed herself to become the tool of Germany. At the time she made her decision she was convinced that she had selected the victor and the belief carried with it the knowledge that her murderous policy in Armenia would automatically acquire fresh license. For these and other reasons little regard should be had for the protest emanating from Constantinople's mass meeting which, by the way, possesses all the earmarks of Teuton stage management. The world has suffered long enough from the Turkish plague spot and years of diplomatic leniency were rewarded with armed hostility. The reckoning has arrived. If the Allied Powers fail to internationalize the Ottoman capital they will consent to the continuation of a condition which for years has disgraced humanity.

ANOTHER ROYAL VISIT.

Canadians generally will welcome the official announcement from London that the Prince of Wales has decided to return from Australia by way of Canada, so that he may be able to visit his Albertan ranch. It may be expected, therefore, that His Royal Highness will reach Victoria during the latter part of July or early in August. By that time, of course, it is very probable that the Prince will have had sufficient in the nature of public ordeal to discourage the arrangement of anything like an exacting itinerary through this country. It is to be hoped, however, that action by the proper authorities will be taken well in advance of the time of his arrival here so that he may be Victoria's guest for a day or two at least.

MOVIES ILLUSTRATE GAME OF PROVINCE

St. John's Hall Was Crowded With People to See Government Films

The seating capacity at St. John's Hall was taxed to the limit last night when pictures taken for the Government of British Columbia illustrating game life and other sources of wealth of the province were shown on the screen.

Dr. Baker, Chairman of the Game Conservation Board, informed the audience that it was only possible to show a part of the pictures in one evening's entertainment. He hoped that it would be possible to give the audience an opportunity of seeing the rest of the scenes at a later date, before the pictures were sent to Europe, where it was planned that they should be shown.

The large audience followed the pictures with great interest. Some remarkable scenes of game life in British Columbia, many of which were secured on Vancouver Island, were shown on the screen. Huntmen on the trail were shown, and their experiences in search of the game that British Columbia provides were illustrated. The camera men had been wonderfully successful in securing pictures of deer, birds, and other game. Scenes on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, the Skeena River, Lillooet, and other beauty spots of the Province fully brought out the charm of British Columbia, especially to the many sportsmen present.

A hunt for black bear, the capture of a deer in the water, and the recovery of their prey from the water by the huntsmen, caribou and mountain goat were shown with a distinctness that reflects great credit on the skill of the camera man who has been particularly successful in getting clear close up views of his shy film actors.

Whaling.
 In connection with the pictures illustrating sources of wealth of the district a short picture on the whaling industry was shown, illustrating the vessel from the time it left port until the first whale was harpooned. The land of the great mammals, workmen with their long knives cutting up the enormous carcass in preparation of the process of securing the blubber, were shown while the lecturer discussed on the profitability of the whaling industry. "I believe before long," he said, while a picture was shown of government inspectors testing whale meat, "that whale meat will become as regular an article of diet on Canadian tables as ordinary meat is at present. The whale is not a fish," he emphasized, "it is meat," and he drew the attention of the audience to the great similarity to the enormous pieces of meat the men were shown cutting from the whale as he made his remarks, to ordinary butcher's meat.

Knights of Columbus Hut.—The Knights of Columbus Hut at St. John's Hall held the weekly entertainment to-night for all ex-service men and their lady friends. STARTLING FIGURES.

In the report of the Provincial Board of Health just issued in its official form is included a table of cases of contagion reported during the year ending in June last. One section is devoted to cases of tuberculosis which in itself emphasizes the urgent need of a determined war upon this awful malady much more effectively than reams of academic theorizing could possibly do. It is shown that out of 721 reported consumptive cases 149 died. This does not mean, of course, that 572 recovered. It does mean, however, that the lives of 149 people might have been saved if British Columbia had possessed adequate means of looking after and caring for them. It gives rise also to speculation on the fate of the 572. Moreover, could there be a more eloquent appeal for action than that which lies behind the figures of the most populous community of the Province. Out of 386 cases no fewer than 103 succumbed. Favorable consideration on the part of the Government to take over the institution of Tranquille has not come too soon. Until it can accommodate every tubercular subject who needs treatment under constant supervision, however, no policy will be adequate.

FOREWARNED.

Chicago's influenza wave, which appears to be claiming its victims at the rate of a thousand every twenty-four hours, again suggests the possibility of a recurrence of last winter's epidemic. Happily, however, the Provincial Board of Health is able to report a comparatively clear bill of health for the whole Province as far as this particular malady is concerned. Nevertheless, to be forewarned is to be forearmed, and it should be the part of wisdom for everybody to take no liberties with the ordinary cold. An ounce of prevention is more effective than a carload of cure.

When the Suffragan Bishop of Chicago asked a member of the Ulster Protestant Delegation to the United States what his solution for the Irish problem was, he answered: "Ten years of firm, impartial and honest administration of the law." If this remedy had been applied a few years ago in the North and South alike there might have been no Irish problem to-day.

When Lord French was appointed to the exalted position of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland a comparatively short while ago he was a confirmed Unionist. His conversion to Home Rule has been rapid and evidently his reasons are sound enough. He realizes the problem cannot be settled by force.

Winnipeggers know what it is now to do without their regular daily news service and the temporary enforced suspension of the newspapers was responsible for a crop of varied rumors which kept the newsroom telephones busy. By the same token how would Victoria like to depend upon the long-distance telephone for its information about the outside world?

What does Alderman Todd mean when he says that his recorded objection to the bridge bylaw might have more significance in a few years' time than it has now? It is dollars to doughnuts that five years from now he will be telling the visitor to this city that Johnson Street bridge was a pillar of progress erected by popular vote taken on January 15, 1920.

It is very likely Holland will reply to the demand of the Allies for the surrender of William Hohenzollern that, as the crimes with which the ex-Kaiser is charged are not covered by any existing law, that, as no person can be punished for an act for which no law exists, and that, as the Dutch constitution forbids extraditions, she cannot comply with the demand. In that event the next move of the Allies will be awaited with tense interest. They would not attempt to force Holland to give up Hohenzollern by arms. It has been suggested in some dispatches that the ex-Kaiser may be tried in his absence but such a trial obviously would be as empty and futile as a performance of "Hamlet" minus the melancholy Dane. The former German Crown Prince, however, is on a different legal status. The offences with which he is charged are violation of many laws common to practically all countries.

Appealed for Girls' Club.—At the meeting of the Women's Canadian Club held at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon, Miss Cross, President of the Local Council of Women, made a strong appeal for the sympathy and support of the Club members on behalf of the Girls' Club, 1242 Port Street. Recapitulating the aims and objects of the undertaking, she pointed out that its maintenance involved an expenditure of $150 each month, of which so far only about $42 was assured. The matter was referred to the favorable consideration of the executive on the motion of Mrs. Andrews, seconded by Mrs. Coady-Johnson.

CITY MUST GET A NEW CEMETERY FOR NEXT YEAR

Mayor Foreshadows Submission of By-law on Matter at Next Election

Victoria will have to establish a new cemetery next year, and a by-law on the subject will have to be submitted to the ratepayers at the next civic election if not earlier, Mayor Porter intimated to-day.

"The present cemetery will last for the present year," His Worship stated, "but not longer. I am informed by the officials who have charge of the institution. Something certainly will have to be done to meet the situation next year. The matter has been delayed quite long enough now. Of course I do not have a position to say that a by-law will be submitted. That is for the Council to decide, but it seems an absolute necessity to me. I have little doubt that something will be done."

In 1919 the ratepayers were given an opportunity of voting to allow the Council to spend about $40,000 on a new cemetery to be established on the Tod property near Mount Douglas. None of the aldermen then in the Council campaigned for the by-law submitted, or gave very active support to the plan and, perhaps due to this fact, the measure was defeated. Other efforts had been made frequently before that time. Indeed, as early as twenty-five years ago the late Mayor Teague was advocating the establishment of a new cemetery at Cedar Hill.

The inter-municipal committee has the question in hand at the present time.

SUPREME COUNCIL THING OF THE PAST

Disbanded Last Night Without Settling the Adriatic Problem

Paris, Jan. 21.—The Supreme Council disbanded last night without settling the Adriatic question. Signor Nitti, the Italian Premier, left last evening for Rome, and Mr. Lloyd George, the British Prime Minister, departed for London this morning.

With the disbanding of the Supreme Council without a settlement of the Adriatic question, Premier Nitti of Italy cleared his throat by his ultimatum that if the Jugo-Slavs did not accept Italy's terms he would withdraw his compromise offer, and that Italy would demand France and Great Britain execute purely and simply the Treaty of London, of April, 1915.

Prior to the breaking up of the Council, the Jugo-Slav reply to Italy's demands had been presented. Signor Nitti declared the terms unacceptable.

Nitti's Supreme Effort
 The Jugo-Slav note said it constituted "the supreme effort" of Jugo-Slavians to bring about an agreement with Italy. This fact, taken in connection with Premier's Nitti's statement, apparently leaves the situation a tense one.

The Jugo-Slavs accept internationalization under the League of Nations for Fiume and Zara, concede to Italy the islands of Dussini and Pelagosa, and agree to the demilitarization of the Adriatic islands with the condition that the island of Lissa remain Jugo-Slav.

The rights of the Italians in Dalmatia to choose Italian nationality without leaving Jugo-Slavians is recognized by the Jugo-Slavs, who also agree that Italian national rights in Dalmatian industries shall be guaranteed by an international convention. They refuse to make any alteration in the line drawn by President Wilson.

The note said the desire of the Albanians for independence would be respected, but if necessary the Jugo-Slavs would accept all the proposals.

Plebiscites
 Marshal Foch informed the Council that the British had notified him of their inability to send their quota of troops, numbering 25,000, to the plebiscite areas. The Marshal recommended that the British troops be replaced by French and Italians if necessary.

The Council later held a further discussion of Great Britain's announcement of her inability to send her quota of troops to the plebiscite areas. The discussion resulted in the British offering to send naval detachments to Memel and Danzig.

Baron Matsui will meet at 11 o'clock Wednesday at the Qual d'Orsay to examine into what form the inter-Ally diplomatic pourparlers will be continued in hereafter.

No statement outlining the proposal made by Italy to Jugo-Slavia for a settlement of the Adriatic controversy has been made public. The proposal, which was sent to Belgrade January 14, was said to have had the approval of France and Great Britain. Signor Nitti said that a copy had been communicated to the Washington Government, and that he hoped it would receive endorsement there.

In an interview with the Associated Press the day following the dispatch of the document to Belgrade, Signor Nitti said Italy had offered to leave the port of Fiume and the railways at Sussak under the control of the League of Nations.

"The city itself," the Premier added, referring to Fiume, "is absolutely Italian in its nature."

ARTILLERY BOYS TO HOLD BANQUET

15th Brigade, C.F.A., to Dine at Dominion Hotel on February 4

Arrangements were made at a largely attended meeting last evening to hold a grand re-union banquet of former members of the 15th Brigade, C.F.A., on Wednesday evening, February 4, at 7.30 o'clock in the Dominion Hotel. There are over 100 men who served with this unit residing in this city, and it is expected that the majority of these men with a number of their comrades from Vancouver and up-Island points will participate in the re-union.

J. H. Gillespie presided at the meeting last night. Two important matters were acted upon. The men decided to have a banquet, and to form an association, but left the details of organization until the night of the banquet. A committee composed of J. B. Clearthue, A. McLean, E. P. Siddall and H. Brown was appointed to arrange and present to the banquet the lines along which the association should be organized.

Arranging Banquet.
The arrangements for the banquet are now in the hands of a committee composed of Edgar Fawcett, Fred. Fellow, J. B. Clearthue, "Chuck" Kinlock and Archie Wilts. A musical programme is to be arranged, and a thoroughly enjoyable evening is promised.

The 15th Brigade, which was commanded by Lieut.-Col. A. T. Ogilvie, consisted of four western batteries and an ammunition column. Victoria provided the 62nd Battery and the ammunition column, which left here in May, 1916. In the reorganization in England both the local units were broken up, half the 62nd Battery being detailed to the 51st Battery and the other half to the 58th Battery. The ammunition column was split up among the other batteries of the brigade, and a number of the men went to the divisional ammunition column.

Tickets for the banquet may be obtained on Friday from Bobbie Ross, at Two Jacks' Store, or from members of the committee.

NEW HOSPITAL HERE

Will Secure Support of All
Public Bodies; Nominations
Are Made

Members of the G. W. V. A. have launched a campaign to secure a new hospital in Victoria. At their regular meeting last evening the deplorable conditions which exist at the Royal Jubilee Hospital were spoken of and the members unanimously decided to request the assistance of other public bodies, with the proper authorities, and demand that steps be taken immediately to provide proper hospital facilities in this city.

A resolution proposed by Dr. Paupy and seconded by Sister Smith was heartily endorsed. It reads as follows:

"Whereas hospital accommodation in Victoria is inadequate for present-day requirements, the Jubilee Hospital being built in 1889 for fifty-five patients and is now with some small additions treating 150 patients, and

"Whereas these conditions are intolerable from a health standpoint, beds being crowded together and heating and cooking arrangements insufficient, and

"Whereas many men are now out of employment, and whereas the construction of a new hospital building will provide employment for a number of men for some time.

"Be it therefore resolved: That we, the members of the Great War Veterans in Victoria, now combine with other organizations in the City of Victoria in soliciting for a new hospital building, and in waiting upon the proper authorities to have this work rushed forward immediately, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to all other associations in Victoria."

Officers Nominated.

Another important item of business transacted last night was the nominating of officers for the ensuing year. The election will be held on the first Tuesday in February. The new balloting system will be introduced. Every member, whether in town or out, will be sent a ballot paper, which, after marking, he will return to the secretary of the association.

The nominations were as follows:

PRAIRIE PEOPLE TO STAGE FIRST COMMUNITY TALK

Orations, Music and Dancing to Feature To-morrow's Programme

"No Prairie man in Victoria will be worthy the name unless he turns out to-morrow night and makes himself known to and learns to know all the other Prairie people in the city who will be there."

This is the ultimatum sent out today by William Lothian, president of the Prairie Club, in connection with the big reception to all former dwellers on the Prairies. The reception will take place Thursday night in Patricia Hall.

At 8 o'clock Mr. Lothian will enter the hall accompanied by Mayor Forster of Victoria, ex-Mayor Smith, of Regina; Commissioner McAdam, of the Victoria and Island Development Association, and several aldermen and others prominent in public life, who formerly lived on the Prairies. Mayor Forster is to give a special address on the spirit of progress that Prairie people bring to any community, and will deal with the civic inspiration that has come from several Prairie men now prominent in business and politics here.

Ex-Mayor Smith is known to all Prairie people as a fluent speaker. In his address, he will speak of the Prairie winter colony here before the Pacific winter colony here. The expense will be met by the Prairie Club and the Victoria and Island Development Association.

This is the first "blizzard" affair in Victoria, and others will follow here. For all young people and the older ones who are still young in spirit there is to be a real, lively Western dance.

Preparations are complete for the annual ball to be held at the Alexandra Club to-night under the auspices of the Elks' fraternity. The elaborate plans made for the comfort and enjoyment of the guests are fully commensurate with the high standard maintained by the Elks in all their entertainments, and the affair already has all the hallmarks of a pronounced success. For the comfort of dancers the number of tickets has been limited to 350. An up-to-date programme of music will be rendered by Ozard's orchestra, and dancing will be from 9 o'clock till 2. During the evening a delicious supper will be served in the downstairs cafe.

The Women's Auxiliary to the G. V. V. A. visited Craigdarroch last night and gave a most enjoyable concert and dance for the entertainment of the patients. Canon Hitchcock acted as chairman, and the following assisted with the musical programme: Mrs. Patterson, vocal solo; Miss Irene Beck, violin solo; Arthur Gore, vocal solo; Mrs. Atcherly, Hawaiian steel guitar; Mrs. Ross, accompanist; Mr. Norman Ballantyne, vocal solo; Mrs. Warren, dancing music.

At the close of the concert delicious refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Hunt, after which the floor was cleared for dancing. About one hundred patients and members of the staff were present during the proceedings, and at the close Miss McLeod, the matron, called for a hearty vote of thanks for the visitors, to which enthusiastic response was made. Much credit is due to Mrs. Lewis, the general convener, Mrs. Ball, the president, and Mrs. Hunt, refreshment convener, for their active contribution to the success of the affair.

DOMINION NEEDS HOMES, NOT MERELY HOUSES, SAYS DEAN

Women's Canadian Club Heard Stirring, Critical Address Yesterday

INDIVIDUAL FACTOR MUST BE EMPHASIZED

"My conception of salvation is not the conception of fifty years ago or even of the Salvation Army of today—much as I respect that body. It is a broader, finer thing than that. My conception of salvation is the making of happy, healthy and holy homes, and of those things which will make Canada worthy of the men who founded it and set it on its way. There are great social and moral problems before us. Even if the state were to do all it could do in caring for neglected and ill-fed children, there would still be much left for us to do. Your homes must be something more than dormitories. Not only must we make the homes fit for the children, but we must make the children fit for the homes, with clean tongues and clean minds. That is where the Church should come in. In these words Dean Quainton concluded a powerful address before the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon on the subject of "Some of the Circles that Surround the Child." So large a gathering of women, and some difficulty was found in accommodating the audience, and some of the late comers were obliged to remain standing throughout the afternoon. The size of the gathering elicited the remark from the president, Mrs. Jenkins, that the total membership of the Club was now 796, having increased by 184 since the annual meeting. During the afternoon Mrs. Archie Wills contributed a vocal solo which was greatly enjoyed.

The Mother's Influence

In opening his subject the Dean pointed out that the babe at birth found itself the centre of a number of concentric circles. "It is a paradox of Nature that while man is the most creative and destructive of all living beings, his offspring at birth, and for the longest period after, is the most helpless. This is perhaps because in the babe there germinates a great spirituality which takes a long time to develop. The infant, if left to itself for twenty-four hours, unaided and unprotected, would probably die. What is better provided as a circle of protection around that defenceless bit of life? The mother, the reincarnation of the mother in motherhood is the first circle of protection around that child. No other circle can form an adequate substitute for the mother's influence in the home. The mother's influence is the most powerful factor in the moral and religious upbringing of a child. In the upbringing of a boy the day comes when the father counts more than the mother in the moral and religious training. The headmaster of Eton once said, and rightly, that if religion obviously means more to a boy's father, it is too much to expect that boy to accept religious teaching from his schoolmaster."

Duties of Fatherhood.

Fatherhood comprised the second circle surrounding the child, according to the Dean. "Through no fault of our own we fathers do not understand the babe. But our first duty should be to protect the mother. Though for some years a father is away from the centre of influence, he may be an important factor in the moral and religious upbringing of a child. In the upbringing of a boy the day comes when the father counts more than the mother in the moral and religious training. The headmaster of Eton once said, and rightly, that if religion obviously means more to a boy's father, it is too much to expect that boy to accept religious teaching from his schoolmaster."

The Third Circle was the Home.

"Even in new villages we have a housing problem," continued the Dean, "but the housing problem is a greater one than the problem of the home. The true home is not a place of bricks and mortar merely. It is an atmosphere which is the cradle of the human affections, and to which all that is best in us is awakened and responds. It needs the true mother touch. One cannot have six homes in six years, although one may have six residences in that period. Home is a spot consecrated by memories and embalmed by tears. If we in Canada are going to have such homes we must send our roots down deeper than we are doing at present."

The Coming Government.

That governmental organ of the collective mind of the people, termed the State, provided the fourth circle around childhood, according to the Dean. "The day of the individual effort is passing, and the day fast approaches when the State must do for the children what the parents cannot do. We shall not be sorry to see the worst features of individualism go. The death of 1,000 babies per week in England during the war shows the failure of individual effort as far as the public health is concerned. That individual effort is breaking down, and the day is coming when we shall see a governmental organ arise which shall be as intelligent as the body of people which elect it. That organ will take within its scope such problems as mothers' pensions, maternity benefits. While these are planks in the Socialistic platform, at the same time I do not think there is much danger within the next few years of every child being born with a silver spoon in its mouth," said the Dean.

The State Not a "Midas."

"For the power and sake of the State the aid of the State must be invoked. It must first be realized that the State has no money," continued the Dean. "People speak as if the State had the wealth of Midas, but it has only what it takes out of your pocket, and mine, in proportion to what you invoke from the State. In that proportion you must be prepared to dig down into your pockets. There should be a more steeply graded income tax and a tax on all business profits, beyond certain percentages. While on the one hand the working classes will be benefited, and on the other the pockets of the rich will be lightened, it will be the middle class, those who have fixed salaries, who will suffer in this process of transition and in this view legislation."

League of Nations.

Declaring the final circle to be the League of Nations the Dean said: "Unfortunately one cannot see either in Canada or the United States much enthusiasm about the League of Nations. I think one of the bitterest disappointments you and I have suffered is the defection of America on this matter. Personally I am going to lose no opportunity of advocating the League. We church people have been twitted with having supported and stirred the war. Now we must belittle war and glorify peace. The League of Nations may not be a perfect scheme, but let us at least give it a trial. If we do not have something like it then we shall have nothing to prevent our boys from another hecatomb of blood. We must strive to make war a dream, and a horrible one at that. As was the Dean's trenchant observation.

Factors of Destruction.

"Among the factors which are tending to destroy the influence of the home," continued the Dean, "are the increased facilities for travel which tend to draw us away from home. Some of us suffer from 'picture-litis' and others from 'motor-litis.' While agreeing that some women have a vocation for public work, whether philanthropic or patriotic, such work should not be done at the expense of the home and the children, declared the speaker. "Exaggerated views of liberty—as they have in America—militate against the influence of the home. In England fifty years ago there was too much repression in the home. Now we have gone to the other extreme. While there is nothing finer than the comradeship of a mother and her daughters and a father and his sons, we should go farther and should couple with it some of the old spirit of obedience and respect."

In critical vein, the Dean said: "All is not well with our boys. They are too prone to dishonesty, to giving their word and breaking it."

The Prohibition Issue.

The Dean also criticized the attitude of the man in the street towards the "majesty of the law." "In England while we have dishonest men, they are ashamed of being found out. Here they have no fear of the majesty of the law. That majesty has been trampled in the dirt. We must raise the body of public opinion to that plane where an expression of its opinion would act as a deterrent to the wrong-doer."

Taking Issue on the Question of Prohibition.

Taking issue on the question of prohibition, the Dean declared that one of the greatest dangers of the present law was in its tendency to make hypocrites and rogues out of erstwhile honest men. "Social reformers should take the scale. On the one hand they should place the disadvantages accruing to our social atmosphere through the breaking of the laws, and on the other hand they should weigh its advantages."

In conclusion the Dean appealed to the women to work towards the building up of the homes of the nation, for those who were making good homes would be conferring a boon on the nation and on the Empire that no lapse of years could efface.

A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggly and Sammie Littletail.

Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. (By Howard R. Garis.)

"Where are my skates? Has any one seen my skates?" called Sammie Littletail, the rabbit boy, one morning...

"Your skates, Sammie? I guess you mean your school books, don't you?" asked Uncle Wiggly, the bunny gentleman.

"No, if you please, Uncle Wiggly," answered Sammie, as he looked under the hat rack. "I want my skates. I have my books."

"Here they are," said Susie, who was Sammie's sister. "You left them out in the woodshed."

"Oh, so I did! I forgot!" cried Sammie, trying to make his nose twinkle, as did Uncle Wiggly's.

"I'll see if I can save anything from the ashes," he said to himself. "It was bad luck to have a fire in the middle of winter, but it might be worse. I might not have any good friends like Mr. and Mrs. Littletail, and Sammie and Susie, to take Nurse Jane and me in. It might be a great deal worse."

"I am not going to tell you that Sammie, the rabbit boy, did very well with his lessons at school that day. He was thinking too much about the fun he was going to have, skating after school. And when the lady mouse teacher asked Sammie how many times two went into four, the rabbit boy answered:

"Two skates and part of another one!" "It is easy to see what you are thinking of, Sammie," said the lady mouse. "Susie, you may tell me."

And Susie gave the right answer. "Oh, you'd better not go there!" cried Susie, who, with the Wibblewobble duck girls, and some other friends, had stopped on the edge of the pond to watch the boys. "You'd better not go down there, Sammie Littletail!"

"Why not?" asked her brother. "Because the ice is thin and you'll fall in!" said Susie.

"Oh, I guess not," Sammie replied, independent like. "Yes you will!" quacked Lulu, the duck girl.

But Sammie and the other animal boys did not pay much attention to what the girls said. Soon the rabbit lad, with the squirrels and others, had on their skates, and down the pond they glided.

"Don't go there! Don't go there!" quacked Alice, the duck girl.

But Sammie, like many another animal boy, thought he knew best. On and on he skated, and he was just turning around to laugh at the other skating chaps when, all of a sudden, something happened.

"Crack! Clatter! Boom! Crash!" sounded over the pond. Then the ice broke, and Sammie, skates and all, fell through into the cold water.

"Oh! Oh, look!" screamed Susie. "My brother is in the pond!" "She was going to rush over the ice to try to pull Sammie out, but a voice cried:

"Stand back! Keep away, Susie, or you'll fall in yourself!" "I'll get Sammie out!"

Up rushed Uncle Wiggly. On his paw was a long clothesline. He had found it on the posts in the yard back of his bungalow. The fire had not burned the clothesline or posts.

"Here, Sammie! Catch hold of this!" cried the rabbit gentleman, flinging the end of the line out to Sammie, as a cowboy lassos a wild horse. "Catch hold!"

Sammie, who was grasping the edge of the broken ice of the hole with one paw, caught the end of the clothesline in the other paw, and Uncle Wiggly soon hauled him to shore.

"Now run home as fast as you can and get off your wet clothes!" said the rabbit gentleman. "And when the boy animal friends had helped the rabbit chap take off his skates they helped run home with him. And Sammie was soon made so warm that he didn't take cold at all.

"Well, it was good luck the fire didn't burn up my clothesline," said Nurse Jane when she heard what happened, and Mr. Longears said the same thing.

And, if the airship doesn't blow star dust in the eyes of the man in the moon and make him sneeze like goldfish, I'll tell you to-morrow night about Uncle Wiggly and Susie Littletail.

"Why not?" asked her brother. "Because the ice is thin and you'll fall in!" said Susie.

"Oh, I guess not," Sammie replied, independent like. "Yes you will!" quacked Lulu, the duck girl.

But Sammie and the other animal boys did not pay much attention to what the girls said. Soon the rabbit lad, with the squirrels and others, had on their skates, and down the pond they glided.

"Don't go there! Don't go there!" quacked Alice, the duck girl.

But Sammie, like many another animal boy, thought he knew best. On and on he skated, and he was just turning around to laugh at the other skating chaps when, all of a sudden, something happened.

PUNCH-BOARDS ARE BANNED FROM CITY

Two Men Fined in Police Court for Operating Game of Chance

"Punch-boards" have been classified as lottery games, and as a result the keepers of cigar-stands and candy stores which continue to operate them will be held guilty of committing an indictable offence.

John E. Ellis, of the Brunswick Cigar Stand, pleaded guilty to operating a punch-board, but said that he did not know it was an offence.

City Prosecutor Harrison stated that he was not anxious to see the men severely punished, but wanted them clearly to understand that they must discontinue the practice.

The magistrate pointed out to Ellis that he was liable to two years' imprisonment or a fine of $2,000, but stated that he did not intend to impose either. He wished the accused to understand that he must put away the "punch-boards" for good.

Richardson and Wagstock were called to answer a similar charge, but were remanded until to-morrow morning, owing to the absence from town of Mr. Richardson.

Young Hong, a Chinaman, who offered boxes of candy as prizes in his "punch-board" game, was also fined $15.

METHODIST COLLEGES IN CANADA WORTH SEVEN MILLIONS

National Campaign of Members Proceeds Here With Morning of Study

Methodists participating in the national campaign of the Inter-Church Forward Movement at the Metropolitan Church, spent from 9.30 until noon to-day studying missions under the direction of George Bell, M.P.F., Evangelism and social services under F. W. Davey, the superintendent fund under the Rev. R. J. McIntyre, religious education under the Rev. R. M. Thompson and educational institutions under the Rev. H. S. Osborne.

What we have of the worth while in education has grown out of the tremendous impulse of the Christian religion," said Rev. Mr. Osborne. "The West, he said, has a store of educational principles is God."

He told of the chain of Methodist schools and colleges, nearly fifty in all, stretching from Coast to Coast. The West, he said, far outstrips the East in the attendance records of these Methodist schools. The Methodist college at Regina has an attendance of 650, Calgary 350 and Edmonton about 1,200.

"It would be folly for the church to go back on its educational history," added Mr. Osborne. Methodist He gave the value of educational institutions in Canada as $7,000,000, against which there is a debt of only $740,000.

The Rev. Dr. Endicott, of Toronto, is to have spoken at noon, but his train was held up in the mountains, and he did not arrive. Arthur Lee had charge of the programme.

This afternoon, with the meeting presided over by Alderman Joseph Patrick, T. Ernest Mariner, a Victoria financial expert is giving professional information on "How to Organize a Financial Drive," and how the methods may be applied to church campaigns. Arthur Lee and the Rev. Dr. Sipprell, of Vancouver, are also speaking.

To-night Rev. Dr. Endicott, of Toronto, is expected. Mrs. Archie Willis will sing. Noah Shakespeare will preside.

LARGER COMMISSION FOR LIBRARY LIKELY

City May Have Commission of Five Members This Year

The city Library Commission probably will consist of five members this year, instead of three, as in the past.

Mayor Porter has the matter under consideration at the present time, and in all probability will recommend this change to the City Council when the matter is considered on Monday night.

Amendments to the Library Act allow the commission to consist of three, five or seven members, according to the wishes of the municipalities.

The idea of a Commission of five members has a good many advantages," the Mayor observed. "The work of the library is growing to such an extent and enlarging its scope over such a large area that probably a larger commission would be able to look after the work involved with greater ease."

The Mayor also has under consideration the advisability of appointing a woman to the Commission as recommended by the Woman's Canadian Club and the Women's Independent Political Association.

It is impossible at present to predict who will represent the city on the Commission this year. It is pointed out, however, that Alderman Sargent, Chairman of the Commission last year, is a member of a number of important civic committees at present, and probably will be unable to act.

Alderman Cameron, who is very interested in the library, is regarded as a possible secondary candidate, but is unable to continue.

The Council probably will give the matter attention next Monday night, and will elect the Commission then.

The attendance is increasing and nearly forty agriculturists of Saanich are now taking the course, which runs on until Friday night.

SHIP LOSING MONEY WHILE HELD IN PORT

Owners of Bianca Finding Stay of Vessel at Esquimalt Unprofitable

Pending the settlement of financial details relative to the charter of the American schooner Bianca the departure of the ship from Esquimalt harbor for Delagoa Bay, South Africa, is held up. The Bianca arrived in the Royal Roads from Genoa, B.C., December 30 and for the past three weeks she has been swinging idly at anchor inside the Fisgard Light at Esquimalt. In the interim the vessel was the scene of a stabbing affray which resulted in the serious wounding of the mate. A new mate has been signed on and the crew is on deck, but the windjammer still tugs at her moorings.

For every day that the Bianca remains in port, Captain R. Peterson, her master, estimates that the owners are out $500. Based on this estimate the owners have lost over $10,000 since the windjammer has been tied up here.

Ship Charter Rates. The Bianca is under charter to the San Francisco firm of J. J. Moore & Co., and her charter rate to South Africa is $54 per thousand board measurement feet. The freight on the cargo will amount to approximately $100,000 and the lumber cargo itself is worth about $70,000. The total lumber carried aboard the Bianca is 1,860,000 feet, of which 1,200,000 feet is stored in the hold and the balance lashed aboard as a deckload.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if kidneys feel like lead or bladder bothers.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the more you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

MANAGER MAY DON THE BLADES AGAIN

Players and Fans Desire Letter to Jump Into the Fray

LESTER PATRICK

Lester Patrick's efforts to confine his part in hockey to the managerial end look like being foiled again. The "brainy manager of the Aristocrats more than two seasons ago made up his mind never again to put on a skate in a Pacific Coast hockey rink. His brilliant record as a player and leader on the ice in the past, Lester felt, entitled him to drop out for the younger men, but when the "flu" and other troubles struck the Victoria aggregation the fans called for the manager to take his part in the fray, and Lester had to accede to the request.

Page the Manager. The call for the experienced manager comes again this season. "Why doesn't Lester get in and hold 'em together?" has been a frequent comment this season and with the schedule only a third of the way through, the manager may again have to reply to the popular demand by donning the blades and wearing a blue and gold sweater. The players themselves have asked that the manager jump into the battle and give them the benefit of his leadership. The veteran Bull Moose in particular is anxious to resume the combination of early years in hockey by playing side by side with the Aristocrats' manager.

The Grey Matter. Lester himself believes he has the finest hockey machine he has ever built up, but some of the younger hands have shown that although they are always there with the speed, the essential grey matter does not always work with the same rapidity. Many of the fans and the players themselves believe that the presence of the manager on the ice will work the trick.

Drilling the Youngsters. He has been drilling the younger players strenuously since they were enrolled and has seldom missed any of the practices. Three periods of strenuous hockey may prove a bit too much for the manager, who has not trained with the intention of getting into the play this season, but on the sides in a uniform he could jump into the fray as soon as any sign of disorganization showed itself in the play of his men.

The Victoria manager's name stands out prominently in hockey history, and world's championship games of the past, as the Victoria fans well know, and he is sure of a cordial welcome if he jumps back into the game.

DATES ARE SET FOR AMERICAN CUP RACES

Successing races will follow on July 17, 20, 22 and 24, or until either the American defending yacht, or Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV, has won three out of five races. Storm, fog or calm may cause postponements, but these are the dates set by the American Cup Committee at a recent meeting.

LEONARD-DUNDEE FIGHT MOVED TO JERSEY CITY

New York, Jan. 21.—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion boxer, and Johnny Dundee, of New York, will meet in an eight-round bout in Jersey City, February 5, it was announced last night. They were to have met at New Haven in a twenty-round bout, no decision, on January 16, but the authorities interfered, classing the contest as a "prizefight." No decisions are permitted in New Jersey.

MARTIN LANDS HIS KNOCKOUT IN THIRD

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 20.—Bob Martin, champion heavyweight, of San Francisco, knocked out Jack Moran, of St. Louis, here to-night in the third round of a scheduled ten-round bout. They Both Figure in Goal Getting Records of Pacific Coast Hockey

FRED TAYLOR

"DOC" ROBERTS

Two Pacific Coast record-breakers in the goal-getting column on the Vancouver line-up are liable to make it hot for Heck Fowler next Friday night, and in fact throughout the whole of the race for the Pacific Coast hockey pennant. Norman Boswell has to stop shots from the most avaricious point compilers in the coast list, and both veterans of the game, when he jumps to the efforts of Cyclone Taylor and Doc Roberts. With the exception of one year when he only played in half of the games the present Vancouver centre forward has finished in the top position five times. Tommy Dunderdale, Bernie Morris and Neway Lalonde are the other players who have worn the crown, but only for one season since the game was started on the coast. The scoring champion of the Millionaire crowd is still piling them up as in the days of yore. He appears a little more bald each year and as serious as ever—if Cyclone were to smile during the game the fans would enter it in their diaries along with the world's championship records—but he still shows the game to the younger players.

Two Aristocrats. Only two men have got the jump on the Cyclone this season, Tommy Dunderdale and Eddie Outman. Tommy has frequently been the Millionaire's greatest contender for the honors. At the rate he is going this season the capital city fans at least believe that the Aristocrat will take the laurels from Taylor. In eight years of hockey on the coast four players have shared the scoring honors. The title went to "Neway" Lalonde in 1912, the first year of hockey. He scored 29 goals in 15 games. Tommy Dunderdale of Victoria led the league in 1912-13, but since then, with the exception

AUSTRALIANS SURE OF SINGLES TROPHY

Gerald Patterson Beat A. P. Kingscote in Davis Cup Tennis

Sydney, Aus., Jan. 21.—Gerald Patterson, the Australian tennis expert, beat A. R. Kingscote, of Great Britain, in their singles match to-day in the Davis tennis tournament, the score being 6-1, 6-4 and 8-6. The match was held on a hard court, but was postponed owing to rain after each player had won a game. This assures the retention of the Davis Cup for Australia. In the other singles match to-day, Anderson, the young Australian star, defeated A. H. Lowe, of Great Britain, 6-4, 5-7, 6-3, 4-6, and 1-6.

Canby, Jan. 21.—Miss Elizabeth Ryan, the American tennis player, and Dr. J. G. Ritchie, the English veteran, to-day defeated Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, the French champion, and M. Albaran, by a score of 6-1, 4-3 in the open tennis tournament which is being held here this week.

DOMINION

The "one girl in the world" idea doesn't bother Wallace Reid in his new Paramount-Artcraft picture, "The Lottery Man," which will be shown at the Dominion Theatre all week. "Come one, come all," is his invitation to the ladies, the only stipulation being that each pay a dollar for an opportunity to marry him. The result, according to the story, is a mad scramble to lead the handsome star to the altar. In the meantime, he has shattered his cynical thoughts on marriage by falling in love with "the only girl." It's the merry climax of the briskest Reid picture yet when he wiggles out of his difficulties and wins both a fortune and the girl. Rare doings occur "Up in Alf's Place," which is the name of the new Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy on the bill at the Dominion Theatre this week. Such well-known comedy favorites as Charlie Murray, Jim Finlayson, Kala Pasha, and Harriet Hammond are in the cast, and the

CRUELITIES OCCURRED VENERATED GROUND

Mount Ararat, Centre of Flood Story, Portrayed in Royal Film

"Auction of Souls," the sensational screen story of Aurora Mardiganian, the only survivor of half a million young Armenian girls persecuted by the Turks when they ravished her country, and which is being presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre, has its opening scene laid in the forbidding shadows of Mt. Ararat, which is linked with some of the most ancient of human history. It was in the shadow of this picturesque peak that Aurora Mardiganian lived with her parents and a sister and brother, all now dead, in 1915. Mt. Ararat, which is more than 18,000 feet high, was the mountain on which the Bible says the ark rested as the Deluge dropped, and those in Noah's boat returned to ground. In latter days the Assyrians were ambitious to add it to their domains, and it was the scene of many battles. In modern times it has been the joining point of the lines of Persia, Turkey and Russian territory. Frequently it has been the scene of earthquakes, and hundreds have been killed by such disturbances. The land lying in the region about Mt. Ararat is unusually fertile, and therein has been the source of the persecution of the Armenians. Industrious and inclined to accumulate, they have constantly been tormented, robbed and ravished by the indolent and unprincipled Turks. This persecution reached its height in the atrocities of 1915, which are pictured in "Auction of Souls." Based on the story of Aurora Mardiganian, this detailed portrayal of Turkish heartlessness follows closely the report of Viscount Bryce, the eminent Englishman who was made head of the commission which was appointed among the Allies to investigate Turkish treatment of the Armenians. Every detail of how this little girl, father, mother, sisters and brothers, with two million other Christian Armenians, were made to suffer before they died, is shown in such a way as to make Canadians feel the true character of the Turk, ever Christianity's scourge. Miss Mardiganian will appear personally and deliver an address at each performance.

ROMANO

"Genuine successes never occur by accident." The truth of this is well exemplified in "Nine-Tenths of the Law," starring Mitchell Lewis. "Nine-Tenths of the Law" will be the last of Lewis' subjects of a special nature for some time, as he has entered upon a contract for regular work with Select Pictures. He leaves behind a series of notable subjects, which has increased in power with progressive releases. "Nine-Tenths of the Law" is probably the high-water mark of the star's versatility. "Nine-Tenths of the Law" will be shown to-day at the Romano for the last time.

COLUMBIA

Those who have seen the wonderful wind storm in "A Man's Fight" are asking how it was done. This wind storm which is causing so much conjecture because of its realism starts with eddying gusts. The papers on the office tables are blown about. There is a rush to close windows. Outside in a Western street the wind grows in power. A "drunk" ambling along is blown off his feet; a Chinik laundryman has the family wash blown out of his basket; a jug and other articles on display in front of the general store are picked up and dance blithely away before the power of the wind. "A Man's Fight" will be seen at the Columbia Theatre all this week.

The means by which a clever, if prosaic, young man, who loved an adventurous and romantic young widow, rescued her from marrying several other young men who would not have made the romance-seeking young widow happy, is the theme of "Romance and Arabella," a new Select Picture in which Lewis J. Selznick presents Constance Talmadge. "Romance and Arabella" will be seen to-day and all week at the Variety Theatre. Arabella Cadenhouse is beloved by Bill, whom she has known all her life. She does not think that Bill is romantic enough and, while she considers him her very best friend, she will not think of marrying him. She says that her second husband must supply her with thrills and romance.

LIBRARIES IN THE INTERIOR SOON

Following her tour through the interior, Miss Helen Stewart, City Librarian, is confident that, before long, a satisfactory system of book distribution will be established in the country around Nelson, Cranbrook, Revelstoke, Rossland, Trail, Creston, Grand Forks and other cities in the Kootenays, Columbia and Boundary. Miss Stewart journeyed to various other cities as a member of the B. C. Library Commission, which was formed last year to promote and establish co-operative libraries in the smaller municipalities of the Province. At each place she tried to ascertain whether the people desired libraries, how much they were willing to pay for the privilege of having books, and other matters affecting the work. A great eagerness on the part of the people for books, she states, exists everywhere, and Miss Stewart is confident that if a paid organizer is appointed he would be able to have a system of book circulation operating with little delay. A number of municipalities have made preliminary arrangements for the establishment of co-operative libraries and others are about to do so immediately.

Are You Fat? Just Try This

Thousands of overfat people have become slim by following the advice of doctors who recommend Marmola's Prescription Tablets, those harmless little pills that are sold in every drug store. If too fat, don't wait for the doctor's advice. Buy a box of Marmola's Prescription Tablets, 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich., and for $1 procure a large case of the tablets. They reduce two, three or four pounds a week without exercise, dieting, or any other treatment whatever. If too fat, try this to-day.

FIRE TRUCK KNOCKS DOWN MRS. W. DAVIS

While crossing the intersection of Douglas and Yates Streets at 8.40 o'clock this morning Mrs. W. A. Davis, wife of W. A. Davis, of 116 Wellington Street, was struck by the combination fire truck from headquarters. She was rendered unconscious. The injured lady was immediately picked up and rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital in J. D. O'Connell's motor car. She is being attended by Dr. Boak. Although suffering considerably from shock and bruises, it is not expected that Mrs. Davis has sustained any severe injury.

When a Tooth Aches

Come right away and have the matter attended to. This ache is but nature's way of letting you know that something is wrong—and it is a good thing, too, that this is so, for if you seek proper dental treatment as soon as a tooth begins to ache you will find expense, trouble and discomfort reduced to a minimum.
May I give your teeth a thorough examination to-day? Little defects can thus be seen and remedied before permanent injury has been done.

But Civic Authorities Are Worried Over Matter; Financial Difficulties

It is very improbable that the civic authorities will decide to build a new hospital this year or in 1921, or even to submit a by-law on the subject to the ratepayers at the next civic election, as advocated by various local organizations. No Plea. It was thought by some people that the City Council had pledged itself to submit a by-law for a new hospital when it cancelled $225,000 worth of hospital debentures last year. Mayor Porter, however, denied this when questioned on the matter to-day. "We are pledged to nothing," he declared. The proposal to build a new hospital had not been discussed by the City Council, and there seems little likelihood that it will decide to submit a by-law on the subject this year. However, we stand ready to discuss any proposition that the Hospital Board may lay before us. There is no doubt that the present hospital is pressed for room. The trouble is we have to take care of patients from such a large area. When the Municipal Health Centre is established, it will afford some relief, but this will not be for some time. While the members understand the matter, a new hospital probably would cost at least as much as the Johnson Street bridge will cost the city, and probably will involve the expenditure of a half a million dollars. Members of the Council are extremely doubtful if a by-law authorizing this expenditure would be ratified by the ratepayers. While the hospital situation has been given no formal consideration by the City Council, the individual aldermen have talked the matter over informally. A good deal of late, it is generally recognized that the present conditions are far from satisfactory, and it is pointed out that once a modern institution is established the city will have money on the upkeep, as the present hospital is necessarily expensive to operate.

STILL SEARCHING FOR MINE MURDERER

Man Who Killed A. Ewart at Merritt Still at Large
Merritt, B.C., Jan. 21.—Notwithstanding that every clue is being taken up and investigated, the mystery surrounding the murder of Alexander Ewart, pit boss in the Middleboro mine, still remains to be penetrated. That the outrage was deliberately planned and premeditated there is no doubt. Late on Monday afternoon a man in a jumper buttoned close to the neck and a trench cap completely hiding his face, surprised some of the workmen engaged in the 500-foot level by flourishing a Colt revolver before them. At first this was thought to be a piece of pipe but later it was found to be a real revolver. Apparently, after finding that there was not a pit boss in the mine at the time, the murderer decided upon a means of getting one. He evidently fired directly at Ewart, passing the bullet through the back of his leg and coming out over the knee in front. Then, coming close to his victim, he put another bullet through his head, which probably caused instant death. That the gunman was familiar with the surroundings is indicated by all his movements. One very significant point is that while Alexander Ewart was obtaining tools from the master mechanic's place, his brother Andrew, who came from the home of deceased, had passed along the tunnel without being molested, and waited some time near the cars at the faces. The brother not coming as expected, Andrew retraced his steps, only to be shocked by the discovery of the body of his brother, about half-way along the tunnel. One man who recently was discharged by the police, but so far nothing has been proved to connect him with the murder. Alexander Ewart, the murdered man, leaves a widow and five children, the eldest being about nine years old. He was a member of a lodge of Free Masons in Scotland. The funeral will take place in the local cemetery on Thursday. An inquest is being held.

Must Report Weekly. A man in order to benefit under the Dominion Government scheme must apply before the Labor Bureau of the S. C. R., situated in the Law Chambers, and satisfy the officials that he has had military service and has no employment at the present time. If he fulfills these inquiries satisfactorily he is, two days later, furnished with a certificate which he then presents to the offices of the Patriotic Fund. His case is immediately investigated, and if found satisfactory the man is given a two weeks' grant. In order that the man may continue to draw this allowance he must report to the Labor Bureau once a week, and when he has satisfied the officials that he has been unable to secure work, his card is renewed. A single man can draw $50 a month, and a married man with one child receives $87. There is a sliding scale for the latter amount. In no case can a man draw more than $100. In some cases where a man with a family is making less than $100, and finds it impossible to make both ends meet, the Patriotic Aid, on investigation, will make up the difference. Several men have applied for assistance, and stated that they were unemployed. In one instance where it was found that the man was employed. The officials plan to take legal action against any men who perjure themselves. There have also been reports that the man may attempt to secure this assistance. These cases are all being looked into.

U.S. POLICE PUT CHALLENGE OFF A YEAR
New York, Jan. 21.—The United States will not try to regain the international polo cup from England until 1921, it was decided at a meeting of the polo association to-day. A letter from Lord Valentia, chairman of the polo committee of the United States, was responsible for the decision to delay a challenge. Due to a shortage of ponies caused by the war, he wrote, "it will take us until the summer of 1921 to be able to put a team into the field worthy of such a challenge." Negotiations seeking to establish a set of universal rules for England, India and the United States are under way, it was announced.

But Civic Authorities Are Worried Over Matter; Financial Difficulties
It is very improbable that the civic authorities will decide to build a new hospital this year or in 1921, or even to submit a by-law on the subject to the ratepayers at the next civic election, as advocated by various local organizations. No Plea. It was thought by some people that the City Council had pledged itself to submit a by-law for a new hospital when it cancelled $225,000 worth of hospital debentures last year. Mayor Porter, however, denied this when questioned on the matter to-day. "We are pledged to nothing," he declared. The proposal to build a new hospital had not been discussed by the City Council, and there seems little likelihood that it will decide to submit a by-law on the subject this year. However, we stand ready to discuss any proposition that the Hospital Board may lay before us. There is no doubt that the present hospital is pressed for room. The trouble is we have to take care of patients from such a large area. When the Municipal Health Centre is established, it will afford some relief, but this will not be for some time. While the members understand the matter, a new hospital probably would cost at least as much as the Johnson Street bridge will cost the city, and probably will involve the expenditure of a half a million dollars. Members of the Council are extremely doubtful if a by-law authorizing this expenditure would be ratified by the ratepayers. While the hospital situation has been given no formal consideration by the City Council, the individual aldermen have talked the matter over informally. A good deal of late, it is generally recognized that the present conditions are far from satisfactory, and it is pointed out that once a modern institution is established the city will have money on the upkeep, as the present hospital is necessarily expensive to operate.
