NORTH AMERICAN HOTEL.

THE subscriber has the honor of informing the public that this establishment, which will soon be completed, will be opened in a few days for the reception of boarders and lodgers. The Hotel is situated at the corner of Bienville and Levee streets, in the middle of the crescent, along which New Orleans is built, and commands a beautiful view of both sides of the city and of Mississippi, which during the business season is crowded with masts, and enlivened by the arrival and departure of hundreds of steamboats. No expense will be spared in fitting up the establishment, and rendering it worthy of the public patronage. There are two stair cases—one for general use, the other for private families. Elegant furniture has been ordered; and every thing necessary to render the Hotel convenient and comfortable, will be prepared.
From its central position, it will be desirable for persons engaged in business; and from the prospect it commands, to enjoy one of taste. Travellers and private families will be accommodated with the greatest care. The tables will be furnished in the best style.
The best wines and liquors, of every denomination, will always be kept on hand for those who may call for them.
The subscriber assures the public that no pains will be wanting on his part to render the establishment comfortable, and to give satisfaction to all: he therefore respectfully solicits a share of their patronage.
