

Minor Happenings of the Week

Athens—Greece has begun active military preparations for another war. Washington—The largest gun lathe in the world is to be installed at the Washington navy yard. It is 185 feet in length and will weigh 400 tons. Milwaukee, Wis.—Ten firemen were burned, three persons seriously, here, during a fire which destroyed $75,000 worth of coal, docks and dock buildings. Washington—The total damage from floods last spring was $163,000,000, of which 70 per cent was done in Ohio and Indiana, according to the United States Weather Bureau. New York—The hens around New York have almost quit laying and "strictly fresh near-by eggs" sold in Manhattan as high as 65 cents a dozen, an unprecedented price at this season. Washington—Advancement to the rank of Major-General will be tendered Colonel George W. Goethals, engineer in charge of the Panama canal, in recognition of his services to the government. New York—Corsets must go, according to Paul Poiret, the Paris fashion expert, who is visiting New York. High heels and feathers are also frowned on by high society in the French capital. Oujeda, Morocco—Another French military aviator was killed when Lieutenant Auguste Soule Ilian of the Thirteenth Rifle Regiment fell 250 feet while attempting to glide to the ground with his machine. Dublin, Ireland—John Redmond, leader of the Irish party, became a grandfather last week when twins were born to his daughter, Johanna. Her husband is Max S. Green, chairman of the Irish prison board. Rheims—Marcel Cavalier, the French aviator, was seriously injured when his monoplane fell from a height

News of Pacific Coast Condensed

San Francisco—Ira Nelson Morris of Chicago has been appointed special commissioner for the Panama-Pacific Exposition to Italy to arouse interest in that country in California's exposition. San Diego—A four-day carnival was held here last week to commemorate the discovery of the Pacific ocean by Balboa, the discovery of San Diego bay by Cabrillo and the building of the first mission in California by Father Junipero Serra. Alameda—As the result of complaints which have been received by the local police, Chief Conrad has sent out circular letters to all owners of cigar stores and pool and billiard halls to bar minors from their premises. San Rafael—The historic old Bolinas-San Rafael "stage and four" is soon to be a thing of the past. Horse flesh is about to give way to motor trucks which, it is claimed, will cut down the time between this city and the sea coast resort from five hours to two. Los Angeles—George F. Tilton, 43 years old, head of the Tilton Trolley Trip Company, committed suicide by taking poison. Tilton originated and conducted for several years trolley trips in the vicinity of Los Angeles. Several years ago the trolley companies took over the business. Oakland—Breaking a record of 28 years during which the California annual conference of the Methodist Church has been held in Pacific Grove, the meeting will be held in Oakland next year. It will take place at the new First Methodist Church, which is being built at Twenty-fourth street and Broadway at an expense of $150,000. Portland, Or.—Aviator Ed. Steele completed the last stretch of his Coos Bay-to-Yaquina flight by traveling in his hydro-aeroplane from Waldport to Toledo on Yaquina bay in one hour and 35 minutes. Steele, by virtue of his trip of 100 miles, claims the Pacific Coast record for an over-water flight, the distance he covered being 120 miles. Portland, Or.—In a spectacular fire which destroyed an entire downtown block of low buildings across the street from the Union Depot, the big union passenger terminal of Portland was scorched and menaced for a time, and about 150 horses owned by several

Moral Suasion Has Won In Mexico Is Belief of Wilson

Washington—President Wilson takes the position that the policy of moral suasion adopted by the United States towards Mexico had accomplished its two cardinal purposes—to obtain assurances that there would be a constitutional election and that Provisional President Huerta would not be a candidate to succeed himself. Advice received here, describing in detail the preparations being made for the election of October 26, and stating also that General Huerta would not be a candidate, but would support Federico Gamboa, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, the nominee of the Catholic party, encouraged President Wilson and Secretary Bryan to believe that the Huerta government was carrying out what the United States had emphasized in the Lind negotiations as the essential feature of a satisfactory settlement of the revolutionary troubles. The president realizes that it will not be immediately possible to judge whether the processes of the election are actually constitutional, and will withhold decision for some time as to whether the choice of that election will be recognized by the United States. The likelihood that foreign governments will await the judgment of the United States before extending recognition is being impressed upon the Mexican authorities, it is said, with a view to insuring free choice. Administration officials let it be known that the United States was not concerned with the personnel of the candidates beyond its opposition to General Huerta's continuation in power—a position justified in their minds because of his irregular assumption of authority and overthrow of Madero. This attitude was declared necessary to further the cause of stable government in Latin-America. Gamboa's candidacy caused much discussion in official circles, and doubt was expressed frequently that he could be elected. It was pointed out by administration officials that the Catholic party always had been a minority party in Mexico because most Mexicans, although of the Catholic religion, traditionally had opposed the idea of a Catholic political party as leading possibly to a reunion of church and state. With keen interest official Washington is waiting to see whom the Liberals in Mexico City will name.

Are You Among the 80,000 Who Will Pay Income Tax?

San Francisco—Joseph J. Scott, collector of internal revenue for the district which comprises all of California except ten southern counties and the entire state of Nevada, has completed the income tax estimate requested by the treasury department. After a thorough investigation, in which no reliable source of information was overlooked, he figures that his district has 80,000 residents who will be liable to the income tax. Of this number, he estimates, 65,000 have incomes in excess of $3000 exempt but not exceeding $30,000; 12,000 fall into the $30,000 to $50,000 class, and 500 will pay the top notch tax imposed on incomes in excess of $100,000. The tax runs from 1 per cent on $3000 up to 4 per cent on $100,000 and over. Revenue Collector John P. Carter of the Los Angeles district estimates that 20,000 persons resident in his section are liable for income taxes. Of those liable to taxation says Carter, 1000 have incomes ranging from $20,000 to $50,000; 40 must pay taxes on incomes of between $50,000 and $100,000, and 12 have been found whose incomes are more than $100,000. The rest of the 20,000 taxpayers have incomes of between $3000 and $20,000 a year.

White Grubs do Great Damage to Crops and Mills

Washington—Crops in Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin suffered to the extent of $7,000,000 last year from the attacks of common white grubs, while the damage to corn, timothy and potatoes in other infested areas of the country north of the Ohio, from the Atlantic ocean to South Dakota, was at least $5,000,000, so that the total loss last year from this cause was not less than $12,000,000, according to conservative estimates made by John J. Davis of the United States Bureau of Entomology. Observations seem to make it certain, he says, in reporting his findings, that in the northern states the total life cycle of this injurious species is three years. May beetles were unusually abundant in 1908 and 1911, and the grubs caused the largest damage in 1909 and 1912. He advises farmers in the regions infested last year to plow deep this fall, the best time ordinarily being between October 1 and 15.

Will Provides for Family Reunions to Aid the Poor

Los Angeles—A family reunion on each anniversary of his death to decide upon worthy poor who should have the income from a provident fund he established was provided for in the will of Fratelsdon Harris, filed in the Probate Court here. Harris, who formerly was a merchant of St. Louis, disposed in his will of Los Angeles property valued at $50,000 as well as a large estate in the Missouri metropolis. After arranging for the provident fund, he provided for his family.

Meat Packers Will Spend $500,000 Educating Farmer

Chicago—The American Meat Packers' Association, during its session here, adopted resolutions calculated to aid in preventing a beef famine in the United States. The association planned the expenditure of $500,000 in the next five years in educating the farmers of the country in the value of raising cattle and other livestock. Merchant Caught in Own Trap Kansas City—Daniel L. Lierley, a merchant of Gilman City, Mo., in Harrison county, died from gunshot wounds received when he was caught in his own burglar trap in his general merchandise store at Gilman City. Floods Ruin Rye Paris—Ninety thousand tons of rye was destroyed by the recent floods in French Indo-China.

Young Turks Again Look for Trouble in Balkans

Vienna, Austria—No quarter is being given in the fighting between the Servian troops and the Albanians, according to dispatches from Belgrade. All prisoners taken by either side are shot. London—The Balkan crisis is becoming more acute. It has been aggravated by the apparent determination of the Young Turk military party to profit by the dissensions among the former allies. Turkey is reported to have called again to the colors the Asia Minor conscripts, while an officer lately returned from Tripoli is said to be leading an uprising against Bulgaria in Thrace. In Athens many persons believe that Greece is on the verge of another war with Turkey.

England's Queen Has No Love for Suffragettes

London—The most unmistakable indication yet published as to Queen Mary's views on suffragism is afforded by what has happened with regard to Lord and Lady Spencer's invitation to Princess Patricia of Connaught to be one of the house party at Althorp with the king and queen. Princess Patricia recently appointed Miss Gienteil, a prominent suffragette, to be her lady-in-waiting during the absence of Miss Adams, and the new appointee was to have gone to Althorp in attendance. The Queen refused to meet Miss Gienteil and the Princess would not go to Althorp without her.

Hand That Rocks the Cradle Gives the Child Indigestion

London—The hand that rocks the cradle gives the child indigestion, according to the contention of a leaflet just issued for the use of mothers by the Public Health Department of the city corporation. A healthy child, it is declared, does not need rocking, and should, after being fed, be put to bed in the dark. Many of the digestive disorders of the present day are due to the maternal tradition that a baby must be rocked to sleep. Shows Honor to National Sport Newark, N. J.—Because the Newark baseball team won the championship of the International League this year, Mayor Hausung declared a holiday for Saturday afternoon. In a message addressed to the people of Newark he called upon the citizens to decorate their homes and business houses in honor of the team's triumph.

French Aviator Performs Some Hair-Raising Stunts

London—The acrobatic French airman Alphonse Pegoud gave Londoners an exhibition of his aerial somersaults and topsy-turvy flying at the Hendon aerodrome. Pegoud's remarkable maneuvers began 1200 feet from the ground, where he tilted his aeroplane at right angles to the earth. He then pirouetted on the tip of one wing and did several dives with the nose of his machine downward. At a height of 3000 feet, Pegoud suddenly swooped downward, threw the aeroplane on to its back and flew in this manner for some seconds. He then righted the machine and repeated the performance.

Farmer's Children Asked to Write Essays on Good Roads

Washington—Logan W. Page, director of the office of public roads, has extended from October 15 to March 2, 1914, the time in which school children living on farms may submit essays on the repair and maintenance of earth roads in competition for a gold medal and two silver medals to be given by the Department of Agriculture. The essays are to be not more than 800 words long and must express ideas in the children's own language. Understanding of the subject, penmanship, English and spelling will count in the rating of the essays.

Baltimore, Md.—A race segregation ordinance was passed by the city council and signed by Mayor Preston. FIRST BOAT PASSES CANAL LOCKS

Work of Raising Vessel From Level of Atlantic, 65 Feet, is Done Without Hitch

Massive Gates Work With Exact Nicety—Thousands Line Banks and Cheer Great Feat

Panama—The most important step thus far toward the operation of the Panama canal took place September 26, when the sea-going tugboat Gatun, drawing 12½ feet of water, was passed successfully through the Gatun locks, and floated on the bosom of Gatun lake. This was the first attempt made to operate the locks on the canal, and the result was highly pleasing to Colonel Goethals, chairman of the canal commission, and canal officials generally. All day long, thousands of persons, men, women and children, withstood the burning rays of the tropic sun to see the act of passing the first vessel from sea level to the level of Gatun lake, which had reached a height of a little over 65 feet, or within 20 feet of its normal level. The operations were conducted with great care and everything went through according to schedule. The three chambers, upper, middle and lower, on the west side of the locks were used on this occasion. As the vessel passed inside the lower lock chamber, a mighty cheer went up from the assembled thousands that lined the lock walls, the tug's whistle was blown loud and long and all the whistles in the neighborhood joined in the chorus. The tug, gayly decorated, in the roomy lock chambers, appeared like a toy boat in a tub. The vessel was raised to the middle level at 5:45 p. m., and passed into the upper chamber at 6:15 p. m. Then at 6:42 p. m. the last gate was swung, and, although the tropic night had fallen, the waiting crowd remained and watched the tug sail out on the placid waters of Gatun lake. The rousing demonstration of the early afternoon then was repeated. The massive 500-ton leaves of the lock gates performed their functions perfectly, working with the precision and nicety of a well-oiled door.

Burbank to Exhibit Many New Wonders at Land Show

San Francisco—The Luther Burbank exhibit at the California Land Show and Home Industry Exhibition will be the most complete demonstration of the creations of the "plant wizard" ever shown, many new hybrids and other modifications and improvements of plants having been added to the list of his achievements since the exposition at Ghent, Belgium where three gold medals, the highest awards, were given for the Burbank display. The Burbank display at the land show will be one of the main attractions of the exhibition and will in itself be a decorative feature to set a standard for the other exhibitors. Burbank will attend the show on a day to be arranged later and a special programme is being arranged in his honor.

Fricassee Will Be Fate of Ohio's Crowing Roosters

Columbus, O.—Relief to the weary in their early morning slumbers is assured in the State of Ohio. An early day in June, 1914 is the date fixed by the State Dairy and Food Department, when their rest will cease to be disturbed by the crowing of roosters, as it is decreed that then all surplus roosters in Ohio will go to their death. Before then a proclamation will be issued urging the slaughter of every crowing cock in the state, except a few prize roosters for the benefit of the next summer's crop.

Bonds Sold and Stockton Will Improve Its Schools

Stockton—E. H. Rollins & Sons of San Francisco have purchased $511,000 worth of school bonds that remained after the local banks had taken over $85,000 recently. Of the bonds purchased, $53,000 are high school bonds and $458,000 grammar school bonds. Members of the Board of Education are elated over the fact that the bonds have all been sold, and the board will proceed with the improvements contemplated for the upbuilding of the efficiency of the Stockton school system.

TO REPAIR MISSION ROAD

A matter which has occupied the attention of the supervisors of late, is the proposed grading and improving of the main road leading from Mission San Jose and Warm Springs, which at the present time is for a certain distance, a succession of hills and hollows. The surveyor's estimate of the cost of the improvement is $8,000. The subject was taken up at last Monday's meeting of the board, but owing to a discussion over the matter of finances as to which fund the money should be appropriated from, the matter was deferred till the next meeting of the board.

The Newark team should have shut them out without a run if it had not been for the rough out field. It was not safe to run on it, therefore three runs were missed, allowing them the three runs.
