Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a transcription of the scene's events, arranged in two columns separated by a vertical line. The text is written in a fluid, connected style, typical of 19th-century handwriting. It appears to be a narrative or a list of observations related to the illustration above.

Handwritten text in cursive script, split by a vertical line. The text is mirrored across the line, appearing as if written on both sides of a page. The characters are stylized and difficult to decipher, but they appear to be a form of shorthand or a specific dialect of cursive.
