THE UNION-IT MUST BE PERSONAL. FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 29, 1836.

To MERCHANTE AND OTHERS. - We have now opened out reading room for subscribers, where they will regularly find files of papers from every part of the United States; from the Canadas, Mexico and the West Indies; and from vari-

We carnestly invite the attention of citizens to this establishment; and hone to receive a visit today from the public generally. We have indeed made only a commencer what is purposed; but we strust and think that we shall obtain credit and custom for even this commancement.

The room is large; wellsized during the day, and well lighted with gas during the evening: so that gentlemen can tend, when most at leisere from morning till night. Every attention will be paid to their secommodation.

From an anthentic source we have ascertained that the on a cruise to the neighbourhood of Matasorda and Galverparacies committed in that quarter, having reacked this city; here any American vessels found engaged in transporting African negroes from Cuba to our coast or to Texas. We also learn that the collector had solicited from the command. ing officer of the West India squadron now at Pensacola, that the Grampus or some other suitable armed ship should he ordered to craise between Cuba and Texas.

by the corporation for tighting the city with gas, as being preferable to lighting by sperm or cotton seed oil, we are accused of having written against the gas and cottonseed oil be apprepriated in part payment of our claims; and that new companies. A happy reductie ad absurdam! No doubt we negociations should be commenced to ascertain what amount are acquainted by personal experience of other testimony with the superiority of gas over other lights for any city : and he ndvocating the propriety of promptly effecting a contract for introducing gaslight in New Orleans, we have certainly exhibited a singular mode of opposing that object. Persons should reflect a moment before they make ridiculous observations, and not only cominit themselves, but those whose interests they are supposed to advocate.

There are none more solicitous to promote every object of public importance and utility than the writer of this, no matter who may be its promoters or be more immediately benefited. Particular individuals and places must be more or less interested in every public work; but it does not therefore follow that those not so immediately advantaged should b

We have never uttered one expression against the gaslight banking company. True we have written against the charter granted; but our animadversions were on the legislature for having granted such a monstrous monopoly. Cannot this difference be perceived and understood? And we certainly do not recollect that we have ever written one word good, bad or indifferent-from ourselver, concerning the cottonseed oil company or its charter.

But as we understand that yesterday the subscription that the objects of that company (the partly experimental) Spencer. are worthy the patronage of the public; and that the charter presents many advantages to subscribers of the stock.

All doubts and fears are now happily removed of a disturbance between Michigan and Ohio; by the active media. tion of the United States commissioners; and an amicable compromise between the authorities employed on behalf of

It is sometimes consolatory or flattering to hope to cast a retrospective glance at the incipient prosperity of different parts of the union, in order to form an estimate of the present ndvancement or future greatness of the whole combined Currosity of this kind induced us to apply to the state treasur-Ter for access to the documents in his department, who with es usual courtesy granted our request.

We had hoped to be able to present an estimate of the relative value of property in the parish and city of New Ortenns, from its assessed - which is seldom or never its actualvalue at different periods. In looking over the detail of taxes on real estate and other property, and on paranits or professions in 1823, we find that the assessed value of real estate within the parish was then $11,277,126; and in looking to a similar account for 1834, it was $27,340,240—the value being granting the $25 millions will pass the Deputies with a more than doubled in 6 years. The actual value must evident by M. Bignon, to vote 12 millions of francs and to nego-ly have been enhanced in a similar ratio as the assessed; and considering that much of the real estate within the parish is thate for the rest. You cannot have a varieties of the rest estate within the parish is fitte to-day none being printed in Paris, yesterday being Sunday. Yours truly.

Hoping it would not be devoid of interest to institute comparison in other respects also, we transcribed the numher of taxable slaves and professional pursuits for 1828 and 1934 : some of which are as follow.

Desirous as we are that every object of internal improve ment should prosper, we view with some degree of apprehension for the fortunes of New Orleans, the project now seri. outly contemplated of constructing a railroad between St Louis and Wheeling or Cinesinati. If this succeed, the merchants of this city may bid adies to much of their western trade, unless they adopt more resolute measures than any now in progress: for a railroad line being once established a sighaf of these cities on the Chia is will medauhtedly it after the couldn't absorbed. The sastern mail of yesterday brought us journals from New York of the 16th instr and from Charleston of the 21st, They contain advices received via New York by two arrive at one having left Havre on the 13th ult; and one, London on

By the arrival from Havre, we are in possession of the debates in the chamber of deputies, on the 19th and 11th o April—two days later, soncerning the claim of 25 millions During the sitting of the 10th, Mr Salverte opposed the bill and in the course of his remarks stated that the sympathies rather than the conviction of the Late General Lafayette were enlisted in favor of our claims-which promptly produced a denial from Mr George Lafa jutte. But the bill was strenu one parts of Europe, particularly from France and Englucid and elaborate manner—in which he observed, 'Napole in himself had in principle admitted the justice of the American claim. The government of the restoration had repeated admitted it;-and as the government of July to he less liberal than Napoleon-less just than the government of the resto ration? He contended it is impossible to deny that Franc had injured America: and cosquartly owed her an inden niv: that if America had not for 20 years furnished a state would have recognized the principle and ordered the paycollector of this port had ordered the revenue outter Ingham | ment, but for its premature overthrow; and that the governston bays, some days previous to the news of the recent evaded the payment in consequence of dearth of funds to 92 3and that the object of that cruise was to capture and bring of the American minister to the French consul, Dupin read the snewer of Napoleon addressed to Talleyrand-which was subjects contained in this note, and especially on the first [the claum on America]. There is no question of a want of ability to pay; if we owe, we must pay.' This produced a very great sensation in the chamber, lasting for 10 or 15 minutes: during which several deputies examined the signature of Na

Despite the compromise proposal of Bignon, it is expected that the claim of 25 millions will be allowed by a majority of 50 in the chamber of deputies. This is strongly attested by the sustenance of the rise in the funds on the 11th in Paris, consequent on the change of ministry in England, by which it is expected that the disturbances in Spain will be

They also tell of a singularly chivalric proposal made by the Carlist general O'Donnell to Lopez, to meet him with an equal number of cavaliers, armed only with awords; and of General Lopez that he would keep the rendezvous with 100 men less than his adversary. Wha if O'Donnell brought only 50 or 20 men ? But the rhodomontade of our modern Bobadils is often ludicrous.

The intelligence from London is to the evening of the 10th uit; but it appears that a new ministry had not then been formed; and that there was no certainty as to any appoint ments.
