

THE FIRESIDE

Betty Baxter's Gossip.

Be ye in love with April-tide?
I' faith, in love am I!
For now 'tis sun and now 'tis shower,
And now 'tis frost and now 'tis flower.
C. Scollard.

On Saturday evening, April 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Nash, of Forrest avenue, entertained the following at cards: Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Aldine K. Siler, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Booth, Mr. and Mrs. William Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Moore, Miss Florence Lyon and Mr. Percival Nash.

Mrs. William Parker, of Merion and Essex avenues, has been entertaining her friend, Miss May Trussell, of West Virginia.

Mrs. Robert E. Pattison, Jr., has been entertaining her sister, Miss Evelyn Surtees, of Atlantic City.

Mrs. E. Cockrill, of Dudley avenue, is visiting her immediate relatives in Buffalo, N. Y.

Charles Laurence Warwick, Jr., arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Laurence Warwick, 209 Merion avenue, on March 28th.

The Garden Nurseries received from Europe one solid carload of flowering trees and evergreen trees, among them more than 1,000 box-woods, in large sizes principally; a couple new varieties of holly and quite a number of rare trees and shrubs. The freight this year has been very much as ocean freight is charged by cubic feet, and trees are bulky. The freight rates were very noticeable—the freight rates and the freight costing as much as the trees. The entire shipment came to the port of Philadelphia as requested by the Philadelphia Board of Trade. Formerly the Garden Nurseries had all their shipments come to New York. The Japanese shipments have not arrived. As soon as they do, everybody will be notified.

Mrs. Carl Ludovici, of Elmwood avenue, is visiting relatives in New York City.

Mr. Craig, who resided with Mr. E. E. Bossert, of Woodside avenue, was stricken while on a trip to the South, and died Sunday evening.

Mr. Charles Chauncey died at his country home, Ardilage, Narberth, on Monday afternoon. Mr. Chauncey was taken ill with pneumonia several days ago.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Edward S. Haws; first vice president, Mrs. Arthur G. Compton; second vice president, Mrs. John Caldwell; secretary, Mrs. Edward G. Schaubroth; treasurer, Mrs. Anna M. Owens; assistant treasurer, Mrs. George Coleworthy. Chairman of Calling Committee, Mrs. Robert L. Beatty. The retiring president, Mrs. Lester W. Nickerson, was presented with a beautiful basket of cut flowers as an expression of appreciation of her most successful administration.

Postmaster Haws spent Saturday and Sunday in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Sydnie Bolch, of Iona avenue, entertained at Fire Hundred on Saturday afternoon. Her guests were Miss Edith Humphreys, Miss Madeline Mc-

WE HAVE WITH US THIS EVENING, MR. EVERETT TRUE

Friends and fellow citizens of Narberth, let me introduce you to my old, fat and estimable friend—Everett True.

I wouldn't attempt this portrait in words if Mr. True's pictures were not all copyrighted. To be brief, Everett True is a character in a newspaper comic. He is short and fat, generally of a very serious turn of mind, and disposed to be rough on folks who infringe on the niceties of civilized life. Everett's chief virtue is that he does what most of us would, at times, like to do to offensive persons who have annoyed us, but are still 'within the law.' For instance, you know the type of man who persists in reading your newspaper over your shoulder. There are times when you would like to throw him off the trolley—but you don't dare. Annoying?—yes, but he hasn't really committed a crime and you know you would not be justified in taking the law into your own hands.

But with Everett it is different. When a man reads over his shoulder or steps on his toe or persists in interrupting him when he is trying to tell a story, Everett just ups and finishes the annoyance then and there.

Now comes the spring and the green grass and the budding flowers—especially here in Narberth.

Also comes the butcher, the baker and the delivery boy—tramp, tramp, tramping straight across the lawn. It wouldn't be so bad if the houses and lawns were reversed, and the front were the back and the back were the front. But as it is, some of the delivery boys and men march straight across the lawn; and they keep it up, and the first thing you know, a nice, broad tow path finds its way straight across your front lawn.

But the other day I picked up a newspaper in which Everett True makes a daily appearance. To tell the story of this picture requires two short scenes.

Scene 1—Everett, watering pot in hand, is about to water a flower bed. As he turns around he sees a delivery man, from a grocery store, walking straight across his lawn.

Scene 2—Mr. True seen in the attitude of a large coast-defense gun recoiling after the discharge of a 16-inch shell. A curved dotted line through the atmosphere indicates the course taken by the delivery man who has landed head first on the sidewalk, the packages in his basket flying in every direction, and Mr. True saying: "You and the milk man are doing your best to wear a pig path across this lawn! Over there is the walk!!!"

Now, of course, no respectable citizen of Narberth would want to do exactly as Everett True does. But I venture the thought that the disposition to emulate Mr. True is in the mind of many a resident these fine spring days, when the frost comes out of the ground and the green comes into the grass. However, some irate citizen may, in a moment of anger, lose his self-restraint—I have already heard several make threats—and then something serious may happen.

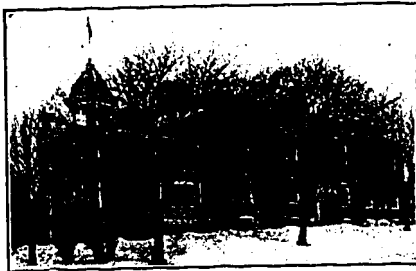

So here and now I introduce Everett True; explain to you his methods, and on behalf of the folks who take pride in their lawns, appeal to the storekeepers to instruct their delivery boys and men not to make short cuts across the lawns.

There is nothing particularly mean about men and women who prefer to buy their milk or their groceries from milkmen or grocers whose delivery men and boys stick to the sidewalk and respect the lawns.

PLAN MERION SCHOOL GARDEN.

Members of the woman's committee of the Merion Civic Association are planning a school garden alongside the Merion Country Day School, for the use of the nature study class, of that institution. The garden will be equipped and ready so the youngsters of the school can raise their "crops" this season. In line with this plan the committee in charge will give a flower market at the school on April 15.

School motto:

Without halting, without rest,
Lifting better up to best.

Last week Mr. McCarter, president of the Board of Education and Principal Melchior attended the Montgomery County Directors' Association at Pottstown.

On Saturday, the following members of the faculty were present at the meeting of the Montgomery County Teachers' Association, at Ambler: Miss Fryer, Miss Turner and Mr. Melchior.

We are indebted to Professor Nash for surveying the new athletic field. Thank you!

Last week the Sophomore class chaperoned by Mr. Melchior and Mr. Eshleman visited the places of historical and educational interest in Philadelphia. Many people living near Philadelphia do not realize the very great educational advantages which exist so near at hand.

Our basket ball team has finished its basket ball season, which was a very successful one. We scored 521 points against our opponents' 387 points, and won 9 out of 16 games. The results of the games were as follows:

	N. H. S.
Jenkintown	27 18
Abington	32 22
Narberth A. C.	9 47
Reading H. S.	41 25
Norristown 2nd	22 34
Schuylkill Sem.	38 11

Chestnut Hill	33 25
Doylestown	30 29
Conshohocken	22 25
Abington	27 51

The following shows the number of points scored by each fellow:

Durbin	303
McCarter	68
Smith	62
Downes	46
Harsch	22

Anderson	2

The athletic field is progressing slowly. Some of the trees have been taken down. Will we be able to use it this year?

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS MUSICAL.

Any organization which aims to cultivate, and cater to a taste for refined and high-class entertainment, merits the thanks and encouragement of the community in which such organization is located. Right along this line, the Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Church made a decided hit with the musicale given under its auspices on Tuesday evening, March 28. There have been many entertainments in Narberth, but for refinement, high tone and classical features, this musicale has not been surpassed, if equalled.

The artistes were at their best and displayed excellent judgment in the character of their selections. The appreciation of the audience was manifested by spontaneous applause, which was responded to with liberal encores.

The artistes who contributed to make the musicale such a success were: Mrs. Anna MacCardle, soprano; Mrs. Samuel Gerhard, contralto; Mr. S. A. Rudolph, 2nd., tenor; Mr. L. W. Arny, cellist; Mrs. L. W. Arny, accompanist, for Mr. Arny; Miss Mary Gyger, accompanist.

The committee having the musicale in charge and to whom too much credit cannot be given, consisted of F. C. Smith, H. E. McKee, Robert E. Pattison, Jr.

Manager Walzer's Candidates
Defeat South Siders, 14-1

In the first game of the season the champions came out victorious by a one-sided score. The game was just an eye-opener, and Manager Walzer was much pleased with the showing of the candidates.

The field was in fairly good condition for this time of the year and the boys seemed to enjoy their first outing.

The score:
Narberth...0 2 3 3 0 0 3 3 x—14 18 2
Elmwood...0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—1 4 6

Batteries—Bowen, Durbin, Koons, Ensinger, Long, Fine.

Next week a regular game will be played—the opponents being the P. R. R. Transportation team. Come out and look over Manager Walzer's recruits.

OBITUARY.

On Friday, March 31st, Colonel Tom M. Bowers, father of Mrs. Carroll Downes, passed away. Colonel Bowers' home was in Paris, Texas, where he spent his winters, but visited his daughter during the summers. He was 79 years of age, having always been strong and healthy until rheumatism attacked him eleven years ago, during which time he was a great sufferer, but always cheerful and bright, with a wonderful mind. While he was obliged to spend most of his time sitting around, his mind was most active, being a man of great inventive ability. He has obtained quite a number of patents. He had during the first seventy years of his life never needed medicine or a physician's services, owing to always having lived the simple life.

Colonel Bowers was a distinguished lawyer in the South, and was a very interesting conversationalist, being not only a well read man, but having kept up with the issues of the day. He will be greatly missed by all who came in contact with him.

He leaves two children, a son, Mr. Tom M. Bowers, of Chicago, and Mrs. Carroll Downes, of Narberth.

ARBOR DAYS NAMED.

Governor Brumbaugh on Monday issued a proclamation fixing Friday, April 14, and Friday, April 28, as the Spring Arbor Days in Pennsylvania. He urges a general observance of one of the two days.

EVERYBODY WELCOME.

The Community Bible Study Class which has been held every Tuesday evening in the Community room of the Y. M. C. A. has aroused a great deal of interest, and so much has been manifested that the members have almost unanimously voted to have the Rev. W. W. Rugh continue the class for another series of lessons on the book of Hebrews. The first lesson of the new course was given Tuesday evening, April 4, at 8 o'clock. In the meantime all those interested in Bible study are cordially invited to hear the closing lessons of the present series on the Tabernacle. It is not denominational and everybody is welcome.

To the Editor of Our Town:

It is with considerable interest that I have been reading the articles on the school situation. To me the standing of the majority of the School Board is incomprehensible. They seem to ignore the emphatic wishes of a majority of our people. They call upon the State Board to straighten out the tangle in which they have enmeshed themselves by endeavoring to force the taxpayers to grant a loan to increase the facilities of a property located within a few hundred feet of the edge of the borough limits. Do they consider the residents of Narberth incompetent to think for themselves?

The crowded conditions of our schools would have been averted this fall if the board had asked for a loan for a centrally located school. We are losing time by allowing this to continue.

Why not take the bull by the horns, and the necessary voters go before the courts and compel a central school for the smaller children? Surely there is some remedy besides appealing to our board who fail to acquiesce to the desire of our people.

I may be wrong, but it would appeal to me that within a short time (as time goes along) the property known as the Anthryn Farms and the property known as the Sullivan Estate will be a part of our borough. Then we will be compelled to supply additional facilities. The present location of the school is impossible.

Yours truly,
C. A. S. McKellan.

To the Editor of Our Town:

A recent writer to Our Town expressed the hope that the citizens might express themselves through the columns of Our Town with reference to the school location. From the standpoint of economy and as a business proposition the school should be kept under one roof so that the management would remain undivided. The only objection put forth seems to be that of too great distance for some of the children to walk. It may be that the parents of these children are objecting to a condition which is beneficial rather than detrimental to the welfare of their offspring. Exercise is regarded as being essential to good health. What better exercise is there than walking? The writer believes that a child who walks a half mile or even a mile to school will be greatly benefited thereby. It was his fortune to be a member of an old-fashioned family of twelve children, all of whom traveled to school a distance of one mile and some of them one and a half miles. We did not have sidewalk walks cleaned off by a snow plow when the snows came, but real old country roads and there were times when the walking was not good, but we managed to get there, and of the twelve children there are twelve still living, the youngest being past the quarter century mark, and all enjoying good health up to the present time. We do not think that walking a mile to school did us a great amount of harm—rather, I would say, we were greatly benefited thereby. It would seem that rather than object to having the children take the exercise required to walk to the Narberth school, from any house in the borough, the parents should welcome the condition there this beneficial exercise, which is necessary to the child's development, may be secured.

A Friend of the Children.

RAGS AND PAPER.

Department of Commerce Advises They All Be Saved.

Few persons realize the immense amount of paper and cardboard made daily in the United States. There are 15,000 tons of paper and cardboard made every day in this country. Most of this paper and cardboard in a very short time becomes waste paper and where does it go? It is either burned or thrown upon the dumps where it is ruined for any other use. The Department of Commerce wants the people to save the waste paper and cardboard and thus give relief to the paper industry. The department states that there is a scarcity of materials from which to make the paper. Much paper is made from wood pulp. Thousands of acres of woodland are being swept daily and it takes years for the trees to grow. The best grades of paper are made from rags. In the early history of the paper industry publicity was given to the importance of saving rags. It is of scarcely less important now.

The Department of Commerce is glad to bring this matter to the attention of the public in the hope that practical results may flow from it. A little attention to the saving of rags and old papers will mean genuine relief to the paper industry and a diminishing drain upon our sources of supplies for new materials.

This matter was discussed at some length at our last Civic Association meeting.—Cut from the Bryn Mawr "Home News."

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—IT'S YOU.

If you want to live in the kind of a town,

Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.

You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing really new.
It's a knock at yourself when you
knock your town,

It isn't your town—it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead;
When everyone works and nobody shirks

You can raise a town from the dead.

And if you can make your personal stake,

Your neighbor can make one, too.
Your town will be what you want to see,

It isn't your town—it's you.

TALKS ON BANKING.

This is to be the centennial year of the savings bank. We shall hear much of the savings bank, what it is and what it does, and much of thrift, which is the foundation on which it is built.

It is but fitting that an institution which has survived a century should celebrate, for it has become an essential part of our everyday life, and whether we know it or not, we could not very well get along without it. It is proposed to tell you in this series (which will run throughout the year) something about the practical side of the bank, what it does for the individual, the community and the nation. You may think that when you hand in your money, and get a bank book in return, that the matter is ended, but the wheels have just begun to move, and they grind a grist which benefits you and the community more than you may know.

To single out the savings bank for special attention would be a very worthy compliment to a very worthy institution, but would do an injustice to other banks, many of which perform, in a certain sense, the same functions for the individual and serve the community just as effectively as does the savings bank, although it may be in a different way.

As a broad proposition a bank is a bank, in that it performs certain definite functions irrespective of its character, whether savings bank, bank of discount or trust company, which functions are: (a) to receive deposits; (b) to make loans, and (c) to issue bank notes, the latter being confined to the national banks and Federal reserve banks.

It is well at the beginning of this series to make a distinction. When you open account with a bank of discount in its checking department you create a different relationship than when you open account in the savings department. When you open a checking account you say in the eyes of the law: "This money is mine. I deposit it with you—it is now yours. I accept a credit on your books and you are my debtor. I shall expect my money on demand, and will make this demand by drawing checks on you." But when you open a savings account, you say: "I am willing to enter into a special contract with you. I will accept the pass book you give me as evidence of my deposit with you, and agree to be bound by the rules and regulations found therein. I will not draw checks on you, but will present the book at every withdrawal, and I also agree to give you notice of withdrawal, should you require it as a necessary measure of protection."

In a mutual savings bank you go a bit further and say: "Take this money and invest it for me. You are my trustees to do this. The law tells you what securities you may purchase and I expect you to obey the law. Pay your expenses, establish a surplus or guaranty fund to save me from losses by reason of depreciation of securities or otherwise, and pay me the balance as interest. It is my bank; you simply run it for me." You will see by this process that you become a partner in the savings bank and a creditor in the other.

PROTECT YOUR DOG.

Have you paid your dog tax? Put the tag on the dog collar. All dogs not wearing tag will be destroyed.
Do you value your dog enough to pay tax and get tag? All tramp dogs will be taken up in the spring not wearing a tag. This is a good law to get rid of dogs that are dumped into Narberth. The law requires to have published in a local paper the names of all persons that have paid 1916 tax on their dog or dogs.

WHY CLEAN SILVER With polishes that wear away the surface—blacken the hands—and actually AID in producing TARNISH?

WHY CLEAN SILVER With salt and soda devices that in a short time give a dead, lusterless appearance to the silver and often make it necessary to have it replated?

WHY CLEAN SILVER With U-Kan-Plate Silver Polish (label blue) that positively does NOT wear away the surface—that does NOT blacken the hands—that actually RESISTS the return of tarnish, keeping the silver bright, and saving labor—that makes the silver wear longer—that is very sanitary and clean to use?

LEGENDS OF NATIONAL EMBLEMS.

Most people are acquainted with the legend of St. Patrick and the shamrock, which has given Irishmen their special decoration. In somewhat similar manner most nations have equipped themselves with a symbolical plant to which is generally attached a legend.

Scotsmen are said to owe their symbol of a thistle to the fact that when a party of invading Danes were approaching the slumbering camp in the darkness, one of them trod on the prickly thistle, and announced his contact with it in rather loud tones, which awakened the Scots, who drove off the enemy.

Patriotic Welshmen decorate their caps with a leek on St. David's Day because that saint is supposed to have advised the Britons on the eve of a battle with the Saxons to wear leeks in their caps so as to distinguish easily friends from foes.

England has always been famed for her roses, but the adoption of the rose as the national symbol does not seem to have taken place till Edward IV. introduced it on his seal.

The lily of France has been traced to very early times, but probably owes its adoption to the Franks at the battle of Tolbiac, who crowned themselves with lilies after the battle.

It's sometimes easier to settle down than it is to settle up.

SAVE YOUR WASTE PAPER AND RAGS

William C. Redfield, secretary of the Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., has sent out notices to be displayed in the lobbies of all post offices, calling attention to the serious shortage of raw material for manufacturing paper. This includes old papers and rags. He urges that the department should make it known that the collecting and saving of rags and old paper would greatly better existing conditions for American manufacturers. What becomes of all the old paper? About 15,000 tons is manufactured every day, of different kinds. A large proportion of this could be used over again for some class of paper. A little attention to the saving of rags and paper will mean genuine relief to our paper industry, and a diminishing drain on our sources of supply for new materials. It may be disposed of to any one dealing in paper and rags, or given to any charitable organization which collects such matter, so that it finds its way back to the paper manufacturers.

OF NECESSITY

The father of a family presented himself at an emigration office, and asked for tickets.

"How many are you?" inquired the agent.

"Three—myself, wife and child."
 "Your age and profession?" went on the clerk.

"I've just turned thirty; profession, carpenter; my wife, a needlewoman."
 "The three of you, you said?" inquired the man. "What about the child—sex and age?"

"Boy; seven months."
 "Profession?"

The father's eyebrows were raised so much that they almost formed Gothic arches on his forehead.

"His profession, I say?" repeated the agent.

The astounded father paused just a moment longer wondering where red tape would stop; then, as if inspired, he said:

"Bachelor!"
