Fall Fashions in Long Coats

N our advance showing of Fall and Winter Coats are some exceedingly attractive models. The only direct deviation from last year's style are the long coats with military fronts and collars, a change which will undoubtedly please Colors are in black, seal, brown, red, fawn, navy blue, green. The weights run from medium, for immediate wear, to the heavier materials, including broadcloths.

Trimmings embrace: Fancy buttons, heavy silk braid, turned up sleeves. Many of the coats are of very neat design with very little trimming at all. The military collars in some cases are edged in true military style, while others are of plain high collar.

These Coats are long, dressy garments and protective to inclement weather, and are also a fashionable outer covering for boulevarding, motoring or driving.

HOW CAPT. KENDALL IDENTIFIED SUSPECTS

Master of Montrose Tells of the Methods He Adopted When Suspicions Were Aroused

Quebec, Aug. 2.-Newspapers are giving nearly all the credit for the caping nearly at the credit for the cap-ture of Dr. Crippen and Mile. Leneve to Captain Kendall, of the Canadian Pacific liner Montrose, who yesterday gave an interview to the United Press, recounting his methods of identifying the suspects. "For some unknown reason I read all the newspaper accounts of the Isling-ton mystery," said Capt, Kendall, "I bought all available papers in London and even secured late ones just as my ship cleared from Antwerp. These papers contained pictures of Dr. Crippen. All of them represented him as a full bearded man.

When my suspicions became arouse by the peculiar appearance of 'Robin-son' and his 'son,' I again studied the pictures. Placing one of them on a table, I blocked out the mustache and beard with white crayon and the resemblance of the photographic reproduction to my passenger was marvel-

"I then took another picture, after blocking out the beard, I chalked out the eye-glasses, and the likeness again proved striking.

"After that I waited my chance to see Crippen when he could not see me, I studied his face carefully and became firmly convinced that he was the fugi-tive.

"Then I took a picture of Mile. Leneve. I eliminated the cluster of hair and the woman's hat and dress the 'boy' through a window. I also studied ber face through a telescope I made of paper and compared her face with my newspaper reproductions. They tallied exactly, Then I cultivated the acquaintance of 'Robinson,' but was unable to become acquainted with his 'son,' who stayed in their stateroom most of the time. While talking occasionally with Crippen, I studied his characteristics and compared them from time to time with the newspaper descriptions. I do not believe, however, that up to the time Inspector Dew boarded the vessel Crippen had any idea that his identity was known.

Dew hoarded the vessel Crippen had any idea that his identity was known."

Lewilyn Jones, wireless operator on the steamer Montrose, was praised by Capt. Kendall and the passengers of the steamer as one of the heroes of the trans-Atlantic pursuit of Dr. Crippen. Jones was at the key for many hours extra duty while the Montrose was in touch with Scotland Yard, and in communication with the steamer Laurentic on board of which was Inspector Dew, The last two days of the voyage Jones remained at his station constantly without sleep.

Difficer Leaves London.

London, Aug. 2.—Detective Mitchell, of the London police, will sail for Canada. Thursday, carrying papers deemed necessary for the transfer of Dr. H. H. Crippen and Mile. Leneve to London jurisdiction.

Inspector Dew, who is now at Quebec, originally planned to return to London immediately with his prisoners. The cleange of plans makes it impossible for him to leave for home within the death is attributed to the fact that he was a poor swimmer.

The change of plans makes it impossible for him to leave for home within a fixed time. In the meantime local officers will gain additional time for establishing the idetnity of the body found in Dr. Crippen's house at Isling-

MUCH INTEREST IN BIG FLOWER SHOW

Two-Day Exhibit to Be Held Next Week in Drill Hall, Wednesday and Thursday

The City of Flowers will have an opportunity next week to see what she can do in putting up a floral exhibit. The big summer show commences on Wednesday, August 10, and is open for wednesday, August 10, and is open for two days. It includes not only cut flowers but all kinds of plants, and more particularly ferns. These are the pride of the city and are in themselves sufficient inducement for everyone to attend.

and copies of it may be obtained from the secretary, J. A. Bland, at the court sides that there is the honor of beating the other fellow for the person who gets the blue ribbon, Already it is assured that the num ber of exhibits this year ready in flower or will be before the middle of next week.

Exhibitors would do weil to take special care of their flowers from now on, as if they once dry out they are not likely to recover before the date of the show.

THE DISLOYALTY CRY.

The new soul of the hitherto highly esteemed Vancouver News-Advertiser is sorely vexed at the triumphant progress of the Prime Minister of Canada through the west. We fear the cup of our contemporary's bitterness will be brim full and running over when Sir Wilfrid arrives in British Columbia, Has it heard of the magnificent reception Premier McBride purposes according the First Citizen of Canada in Vic toria in the name of all the people of the province? We almost tremble for the consequences should the editor of the News-Advertiser feel impelled to accept of an invitation to take part in such an official demonstration.

In the meantime might we be permitted to point out for the benefit of our neighbor that the people of this province have matters alleged fallure of the Liberal government to reseem the pledges contained in the platform adopted in the year 1893, or thereabouts. Those pledger Spain prove inimical to British connection the frankly blunt reply was "so much the worse for British connection." Yet the government that abolished the National Policy which was accounted inimica a time when the cause of Great Britain tablished before all the world the fact of Imperial solidarity-the leader of this government is the subject of insinuations reflecting upon his loyalty to British connection. That sort of political campaigning may suit the east out it will not find favor in the broadminded, discriminating west.

The Liberal party is loyal to its leader, loyal to itself, loyal to its priniples, loyal to the country it serves, nd loyal to the Empire. It has given repeated practical proofs of its loyalty nd its fealty. The fact that such an ssue should be raised at all is unfortunate for the Conservative party asmuch as from whatever point of view the matter may be regarded that party to-day presents a lamentable spectacle of disloyalty (internal and external) before the eyes of the peopl of Canada. It is rent asunder by internal dissensions, the legitimate fruits of disloyalty. During the late session of Parliament a conspiracy was afoot to dispose its leader. The party convention which was to be held during the present summer had to be called off because Mr. Borden could not trust timself in the hands of his followers. Hon. G. E. Foster, the chief lieutenent of Mr. Borden, has been read out of the party because he is not con-sidered trustworthy. Mr. Foster has cently declared that he is "not a head one," that he will be in his seat again when the House is called together, and will have something to say that will cause the ears of Canadians the province of Quebec has been deposed because of disloyalty to his chief. Chaos rules on every hand. And all the trouble is charged against Mr. Sorden, who is openly accused of incompetency. The Conservative party. short, is past redemption. If it had real leaders and were loyal to them, it has no policy that appeals to either the imagination or the business sense of the people of Canada. It is doomed to wander for many years yet in the

A SETTLER'S VIEWS.

To the Editor:—I notice by a Victoria paper that there is to be a meeting of sportsmen to take into consideration the action of the government in bringing in grouse this season two weeks before any other game. If the grouse are to be given a fighting chance, do not turn all the Victoria hunters loose on them two weeks before pheasants. It simply means that they will be annihilated. Whoever advised the government to do this must be they will be annimiated. Where the government to do this must be pheasant hunters who want their share of the few grouse before their preserves of pheasants are touched, for in the middle of September all the grouse are to be a second or the roads or near the

RELATIONS BETWEEN BRITAIN AND STATES

London Times Comments on Proposal to Celebrate Century of Peace

London, Aug. 2.—The Times, referring to the proposed celebration of the century of peace, says Sir Wilfrid Laurier dwelt eloquently yesterday upon the peaceful relations of the United Status and Britain, in a speech to American emigrants in tife Northwest. He did not overstate the case. The British Province of Penyllic could count be Empire and Republic could count be-tween them 430,000,000 of the European race, and in their desire for it lies the world's best hope of peace.

This is taken here to mean that the Clericals will first try to win by peace ful means, but that in the event of de-feat, they will raise the standard of revolt, appeal to the extles hovering on the Franco-Spanish frontier, ask the ald of Don Jaime, the Carlist, seek the support of the Vatican, with the temporary co-operation of the Republicans and overthrow the rule of King Al-

The Republicans and the disaffected thousands in industrial life probably would aid in the overthrow of the present regime, but would seek afterward to prevent Don Jaime from asending the throne and would endeavor to establish a republic. Montreal, Aug. 2.-A conference for the final settlement of the Grand Trunk strike will be held to-night, it is reported this afternoon. A basis for the settlement is said to have been reached at a conference between Presi-dent Lee of the Trainmen, Presidnt of the Conductors, Garretson President Hays of the Grand Trunk. The matter of arbitration, it is un-derstood, will be left to the Dominion government.

President Hays admitted this after-noon that all matters still in dispute, will be left to arbitration. He denied the statement of minor officials that a tically agreed to arbitration. The plan approved by both sides at the confer will be definitely formulated and will be considered at a later meeting.

Reports from Jordan river are to the effect that the work of installing the big power plant is advancing at a pace beyond the expectations of the company and that the system may be ready for use at an earlier date than was anticipated in the first instance. It had been calculated that the plant would be ready for operation at the first of next year, but if the present rate of progress is maintained it is not improbable that the company will be able to supply power from Jordan river at a date before Christmashence the desire of the company to get its trackage completed in the Saanich peninsula this fall.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

IS JURY'S VERDICT

City Engineer Smith is now in supreme authority in so far as the control of the public works staff is concerned, the city council at its meeting last evening having be packed the long-delayed by-law giving him this broad power. This is the first time in the history of the city that the engineer has been placed in a position to assume full charge of his department, and a better order of things is expected to result. The by-law as passed last evening reads as follows:

"All resolutions and by-laws appointing any official in the department of the city engineer are hereby repealed.

NORTH WARD WINS THE CLAXTON CUP

Fight Among Players Spoils Match -Cloverdale Fails to Score

CLUB STANDING. W. L. D. Pts. 4 0 1 9 1 2 1 3 1 4 0 2 North Ward 4

Cloverdale 1 Victoria West 1 The North Ward Lacrosse Club last night demonstrated their superiority and right to hold the Claxton cup for the first year of its presentation, by defeating the Cloverdale twelve in the city league series at Royal park by a core of 5 to 0. North Ward was faster and clevere than the opposing side, and although the defeat was decisive it was gradual. North Ward has gone through the series without a defeat, but made one draw with Cloverdale the first time the

A public meeting of sportsmen will be held to-night at the Driard hotel, when the new hunting regulations will be discussed and an endeavor made to obtain the opinion of the majority of sportsmen on the new date of the opening of the season for grouse, duck and deer, which, according to the last regulations, opens now on September 15th, while quall will not open until October 1st.

Sportsmen of the rank and file are generally reported to be against the season opening on September 15th, holding that two weeks later would be of more permanent benefit to the sport.

As in the match on Saturday there was a fight last night, and it is this was a fight last night, and it is this holding that two weeks later would be of more permanent benefit to the sport. There are some, however, who would willings have no close season at all, and it is to ascertain how many of these extremists there are who call themselves sportsmen, and to see on the other hand the strength of the true sportsmen brigade in Victoria that the meeting has been called.

The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock. The conveners of the meeting issue a general invitation to all spotsmen and couple it with a request that every man who has the future of sport at heart will be present.

THE CLAXTON CUP.

Morris, of the North Ward team and Morris, of the North ward team and Julian, of Cloverdale, got into trou-ble with one another, and several of the players on each side were about to take part in a disgraceful fight when outsiders stepped in and cuffed the unruly boys away from one another.

Lacrosse is not going to win public opinion when the players behave on the field like hot-headed youngsters, and the sooner there is a drilling administered against this sort of thing the better for the game and the players

Victoria The Cloverdale defeat is partly due

The Cloverdale deteat is partly due to loose checking, the real meaning of which is poor condition. Cusack as referee is a likely man and can be encouraged for the next provincial game. The Oak Bay council is being accused of sharp practice in connection with its regular fortnightly meeting, held last night. Promptly on time the meeting was called to order by Reeve Henderson, the councillors being all present with the exception of Councillor Sproule. Before commencing, however, it was announced that something had gone wrong with the switch of the electric light, and that the meeting must be a hurried one. Others say that the call of "Becky Sharp" was clear and strong and that this accounted for the electric light going wrong. It is a certainty, however, that all in the space of about lifteen or twenty minutes the minutes were read, the reports of committees passed, some correspondence disposed of, and three by-laws finally amended.

unprecedented run during the past year at the Garrick theatre, San Francisco, and the Beck theatre, at Bellingham, Wash., Harold Nelson, Canada's favorite dramatic artist, and a company of excellent players will be seen at the Victoria theatre on Saturday evening Inasmuch as Mr. Nelson will only be able to play one date on account of the brevity of his present tour, which is to be followed by a long return stock ngagement in Bellingham, he has seected an excellent vehicle to display his versatility. "Pierre of the Piains" is the title of the presentation. It has never been put on outside of the larger eastern cities at the highest priced playhouses.

Sir Gilbert Parker, whose powerful sir Gilbert Parker, whose powerful novels have startled the world, is the author of "Pierre and His People," from which Mr. Nelson gained his powerful adaptation. It is modern in construction and deals with settlers on the border, graphically depicted without being overdrawn. The French-Canadians stand out consciences by throughdians stand out conspicuously through-out. Pierre is a breed, with whom the whites and French will have nothing to whites and French will have nothing to do, and he is forced to exist in loneli-ness. At the start he is in love with Jen Galbraith, the daughter of a road-house keeper. He has not unfolded his devotion and she, believing the stories told of him that he is a wild irrespon told of him fut he is a wild irresponsible gambler, after a series of exciting events which embrace even a tragedy, learns Pierre's true courageousness and all ends amicably.

NEW GRAND THEATRE.

learty laughter and genuine applause was tendered a vaudeville show in Victoria, as that given to the five importations which opened the week's bill at the Grand yesterday afternoon. It is unusual that the whole five acts should win the public so tremendously as did the bill yesterday.

Every act is a genuinely good one.

Every act is a genuinely good one, but the leader of all is the astonishing act that ends the show, in which little human people fourteen inches big, with heads over-big in proportion to their bodies, looking like caricatures, sing and dance on a special stage in great form. They open in a song and dance, then appear as two sisters, are next seen in a Salvation Army song, and close the act with a wild Scotch dance, berts.

and song. The Mayvilles made a suc-cess that ranks with the biggest vau-leville has ever had here. Their act s so original and so simple as to be really startling for the moment, and then it becomes amusing and hilarlousthen it becomes amusing and hilariously interesting.

Lozelle, as a gymnast, excels in his tus, gets the most brilliant effects pos-sible, making his work as attractive for its beautiful staging as for its gymnastic excellence.

The man that makes you laugh and then closes the act by making you-cry, is Al. Lawrence, with his india-rubber face. As Al says: "A hair on the head is worth two in the brush," but then that is not all he tells in his lightning monologue, which is a rapidbut then that is not all he tells in his lightning monologue, which is a rapid-fire product of humorous genius. Law-rence got laughter after every one of his jokes yesterday, and the audience was close to tears at his pathetic reci-tation of his baby's first letter at the end of his act.

Mary Ann Brown is described as vaudeville's most enchanting character comedienne, and in her songs yesterday she justified the title. She sang "I'd Rather Be Like Pa," "You'd Better Get Off and Walk," and gave imitations of Fay Templeton, Vesta Victoria and George M. Cohn. She was certainly a success.

James McCormick and Eleanor Irving offered a bright and tuneful singing act, "Fiirtology." in which Miss Irving's deep and rich contralto voice was heard to distinct advantage. Like the other acts this week this one was a big winner.

"But I don't want to take it back."

"Yes, dear, you must. You know that's mother's rule. Mother wants you to be unselfish, but not unless you can be pleasant too. People who are un-selfish and frown all the time aren't nice. SECOND EXPRESS COMPANY COMING

WILL OPEN OFFICES IN COAST CITIES

Superintendent Ross, of Winnipeg, Here Making Preliminary Arrangements

The Canadian Express Company is making arrangements to open up in this city, and at several other points on this coast, and will within five or six weeks be in a position to handle money orders or express parcels between Victoria and any points outside.

N. R. Ross, superintendent of the western division of the company having charge west of Port Arthur, was in the ownsend. The crew are reported all city this morning looking over the are.

Washington, D. C. Aug. 2.—The reveloate that his company intends opening of fices here, at Vancouver, Prince Rupert and Stewart, and would also be prepared to handle business to and fro the Queen Charlotte Islands. He returning to Winnipeg after having visited all the points in which his company is interested, and will be here again in three or four weeks after having fully matured his plans,

For a beginning the Canadian Express Company's business will be handled by the passenger agents for the Grand Trunk Pacific and the passenger offices will also be the express offices. Later other arrangements may be made.

Arrangements have been made tem-

NEW STEAMERS FOR THE FAMOUS P. AND O.

Another Vessel for Carrying Coolies From Calcutta to West Indies

Orders for the two large intermediate steamers of the Lund line have now, it is stated, been placed with Carl & Company, of Greenock. This firm has built largely for the Peninsular & Oriental Company, which lately acquired the Lund line and now advertises it as a branch service to Australia via the Cape. More correctly, therefore, the new boats should be described as for the Peninsular & Oriental Company. A-third vessel for this Cape service is already in process of construction at Barclay, Curle & Company's yard, at Whiteinch, Scotland. At an early date, therefore, there will be three new steamers available in connection with Sir Thomas Sutherland's latest enterprise.

Another new steamer for an entirely different trade is that which has been ordered by James Nourse (Limited) from Cammell, Laird & Company. Her business will be to carry coolles from Caicutta to the West Indies, a trade which for many years was conducted solely by sailing ships. The conditions under which years was conducted solely by sailing ships. The conditions under which for many years was conducted solely by sailing ships. The conditions under which these dusky passengers will make the voyage may be inferred from the fact these dusky passengers will make the voyage may be inferred from the fact that the vessel will be fitted with electric fans and ventilators, and that there will be spacious deck-houses containing baths and wash-houses. Something like a thousand coolies will be carried in the vessel's tween decks, which will have a clear run fore and aft of the ship. Messrs. Nourse have a long experience in the carriage of coolies, for the trade is one with which they have been identified for something like half a century. The White Star

GERMAN BUILDERS

ARE NOT VERY BUSY

Construction in Fatherland Compares Unfavorably With Work Done in U. K.

The report of the German Shipbuilders' Society for the year ending June 30th is rather pessimistic in tone regarding the prospects for the trade. It points out that Arrangements have been made temporarily with the Great Northern Railway Company to handle the through business for the express company between this city and all eastern points. Everything from a money order to a carload of horses may be expressed right through.

The Canadian Express Company operates over the lines of the Grand uncertain economic position of the United States location. United States, together with the Ger Shipbuilding in German yards does not show the same advance as his been made in England, where at the end of June over 1,100,000 tons were under construction, as against 250,000 tons under way in the yards of Germany.

BALCOM COMPANY IS IN BUSINESS TO STAY

Small Freighters Will Be Followed by Larger Ones in Very Near Future

Harry Moxon, the local agent for th alcom Steamship Company, states that is firm intends to remain in the Coas eighting business. They are charterin his firm intends to remain in the coan-freighting bosiness. They are chartering small steamers for the present, he says, but they expect to have something better soom. They have as much freight offering as they can handle, a very desirable state of affairs for a shipping concern. The new company is in a peculiarly ad-vantageous position, in that their steam-ers can carry explosives of any kind-something which the larger freighters, carrying passengers, cannot do. Mr. Moxon thinks the business will be good in the North and will continue right along, increasing rather than diminishing. He is enthusiastic over the prospects at Stewart.

Notice Concerning Construction

The vessels will be built according to the The vessels will be built according to the plane and specifications of the British Admirality which, being of a confidential nature, will only be exhibited to approved firms. The Department of Navai Service would, therefore, be glad to hear from any Canadian or British firm who would wish to tender for the BUILDING IN CANADA of these warships.

It would be necessary for such firms to show that they have, or propose to put in, a shipbuilding plant that will be considered sufficient for the building of cruisers of the Bristol class, and that they have had such experience as will enable them to guarantee the building of such ships according to the Admiraity specifications.

It should be borne in mind that the Rush-Bagot Convention provides that no warships should be built on the Great Lakes, and, therefore, shipbuilding firms should arrange for establishments elsewhere than on these lakes.

MRS. FISKE IN "BECKY SHARP"

GREAT ACTRESS IN A FAMOUS COMEDY

Crowded House at Victoria Theatre Saw a Splendid Presentation of the Play

years since "Becky Sharp" had its premiere, in the old Academy of Music in Montreal-now only a playhouse of memory. The New York production followed a week later in the Fifth avenue theatre, when the house was crowded with a notable audience, and the occasion was marked by a remarkable demonstration of enthusiasm for the play and admiration for Mrs. Fiske. From time to time Mr. Mrs. Fiske. From time to time arrand Mrs. Fiske nace revived this comedy, and on her present western tour she is using it in conjunction with Ibsen's "Pillars of Society," one of the earlier works of the Norwegian dramattst, and one which works up to a happy conclusion in a brighter atmosphere than we have come to associate with his dramas.

phere than we have come to associate with his dramas.

Last evening "Becky Sharp" was presented before an audience which completely filled the Victoria theatre in every part, It was a keenly appreciative audience, too, and while not demonstrative to the degree that a Nicke audience elsewhere is it never-demonstrative to the degree that a Fiske audience elsewhere is, it nevertheless made its pleasure in the performance evident.

Langdon Mitchell has succeeded inturning "Vanity Fair" to dramatic use for the first time, often as the attempt had been made before. Up to the end of the control o had been made before. Up to the end of the third act we have a logical and dramatic sequence of events, and in the fourth a final series of scenes which reflect Thackeray's humor more than the preceding portions of the play do. In supplying the dialogue, some of which is of the brightest and most sparkling, Mr. Mitchell caught the spirit of the novelist and dove-tailed Mitchell on to Thackeray with artistic Mitchell on to Thackeray with artistic and on the other we have a rare ac tress of parts that require acute in-tellectual and emotional comeeption and very subtle interpretation. Both in her tragic powers and her ability in comedy Mrs. Fiske undoubtedly stands as the foremost actress on the stage of this continent to-day. Of late years she has chosen rather to neglect her com-edy talents, which is unfair both to herself and her audiences.

Her Becky is Thackeray's Becky—ambitious, unscrupulous, heartless, but withal of a reckless gayety, witty and most fascinating, a thorough little hypocrite. The character is drawn as ch by suggestion as by still plays.

The mounting of the play showed all The mounting of the play showed and the nice attention to the most minute details that distinguishes every production with which Harrison Grey Fiske and Mrs. Fiske have to do. The scene of the Duchess of Richmond's ball, on the eve of Waterloo, is a great theatrical spectacle. Pity was that the cramped quarters of the Victoria stage prevented the scene being set in anything like its entirety.

THE WHISTLING LANGUAGE.

In Gomera, one of the smallest of the Canary Islands, the word. One of the secrets of Mrs. Fiske's art is the power she possesses by some little stroke of tone or look or gesture to summon or emphasize the suggestion which will convey more to the quick-minded than will much find a muletter from the interior. With whistling language, survives. A cor writes: "A traveller must land at the find a muleteer from the interior, With speech.
The first two acts do not give Mrs.
Piske full scope for her talents, but her opportunity comes in the third, where Becky and Rawdon Crawley are installed in the Curzon street house on nothing a year and up to the eyes in debt, with Becky scheming how to satisfy the more exigent of the creditors. The dramatic episode of book and play comes in the second scene of this act, that of Becky and Lord Steyne at supper surprised by Rawdon. This is preceded by a brief soliloquy, wherein the dramatist has condensed the essence of Thackeray's moralizing on the emptiness and vanity of Becky's ambitions. This Mrs. Fiske delivered with all the power and matchless sincerity and conviction that are a feature of her acting.

The final act discloses Becky—the same still—in more or less poverty in an attle at Pumpernickel. The act is one of pure comedy throughout. We have Becky in momentary roistering with German students, pretending to the resignation of a misunderstood and wounded nature with Amelia, gayly sentimental when Dobbir's His-long devotion is about to be rewarded a co-milk along, if, you have any, and so milk along, if, you have any, and s The first two acts do not give Mrs. him he must ride up the steep bridle wounded nature with Amelia, gayly sentimental when Dobbin's life-long devotion is about to be rewarded, a coquettish boon companion with Joseph Sedley and finally ringing the curtain down as the sanctimonious little hypocrite off to church with Sir Pitt and Lady Jane. It was indeed a treat to watch Mrs. Fiske's easy transition from mood to mood and the touches with which she indicated these many phases of Becky's character.

The Manhattan Company, like good wine, needs no bush. Every member of it is an artist, and it sometimes happens, with Mrs. Fiske's passion for ensemble, in instances where her own lines in a production are relatively few,

SEVEN MILLION GOING FOR ONE THOUSAND

Judgment Against an Ex-Convict is Offered on Wall Street For That

Wall Street devotees of the God of nance, whose orderly pursuit of their calling has been sadly disturbed of late by the dull and contrary stock arket, have found the silver lining of their cloud in this little advertise-ment which appeared in the financial columns of one of the afternoon news-rapers on Wednesday:

Seldom, indeed, even in Wa'l Street, in one set affoat a little venture at ich favoring odds as this 7,000 to 1 noon of a self-inflicted wound. Durham shot himself in front of the Grant hotel at 7 a. m. Durham lately has been out of work and he imagined the men at the fire department were to blame for his troubles.

Early in the day Durham sent in a false alarm of fire. Hiding near the fire box, he opened fire when hose cart
No. 3 drove up. He killed Fireman Grant and wounded Captain Sampsell and Fireman Elliott. He then fled goling to his own home, where he beat his wife and her child to heath. Durham then returned to the city on a street car. He was recognized by a few persons. After alighting from the car he walked cooly to a corner and bought a paper, Hurriedly scanning, the headlines, teiling of the shooting, he entered the plaza and walked out upon the lawn. Drawing his revolverhe placed the muzzle just above his Harper went to the Ohio peniten-tiary for a ten-year term, and when he came out tried to go through bank-ruptcy, asserting that he had only $50 of assets against liabilities of some $750.000.

Durham was taken to the emergency hospital, where he died.

It is thought Durham was driven insane by the brooding over fancied wrongs while employed at the fire house. When he left the company he treasured a grudge against several other firemen. He had threatened to "get them all." but the firemen though he was only talking.

warship-building centre, as being as auitable in that regard as the Tyne or as Aosyth.

With reference to the question of co-operation between the Admiralty and private enterprise, he mentioned the fact that Liverpool had just decicled to build an enormous dock, 1,000 feet by 120 feet without reference to the Admiralty for help. This enterprise is regarded as more than private or local. It was national and the nation should be grateful to Liverpool.

Besides being a shipping centre, he added, Liverpool was a centre where sithips were built, and this dock would very likely be used for building some of the big battleships.

-It was, he continued, a very difficult question for the admiralty to face—to give national money for the promotion or private enterprise, which would assist one set of competing firms in the building of national warships against airother set of competing firms in the building of national warships against airother set of competing firms in another district which and provided docks at their own expense.

Dr. Mary Pierson Eddy, was for nany years was the only woman phydelan in the Ottoman empire, is on a visit to America, and in an interview in New York, gave some interesting nformation about her work among tuerculosis patients in Syria. Dr. Eddy setablished the only popular sanitorium for tuberculosis victims in Turkey, and this has now been handed over to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Mis-

"The Syrians have a much greater than of smallpox, "The Syrians have a much greater fear of tuberculosis than of smallpox, leprosy, diphtheria, or any other contagious disease," said Dr. Eddy. DUST NUISANCE.

New Westminster, Aug. I. The drivers of motor cars and others travel-ling over the Westminster-Vancouver road, which runs through Burnaby municipality, will in the near future not be bothered any more with dust, if the plans of the municipal council do not miscarry. A portion of this road between Edmonds and Central park between Edmonds and Central park will be olled, largely as an experiment, in an effort to keep down the dust and make a better roadway. One mile of the road will be olled as a start and if this proves successful it is probable that the balance of the road through Burnaby will be likewise treated. While in Portland and Tacoma Reeve Byrne and Councillor Hill investigated the question of oiling the roads as well the question of oiling the roads as well as looking for more road machinery. They found that it worked out satisfactorily. It has been figured out that 1½ gallons of crude petroleum will oil one linea; yard of roadway. The oil will cost the municipality 4% cents per gallon delivered in Burnaby, so that to do a mile of roadway will cost in the neighborhood of $125 for the oil alone.

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

A mountain of books have been written, to show us the paths' should tread, and we have been laden with precepts, by sages both living and dead; and most of the wisdom is useless, for THE RULE that a man needs to do, is just to be gentle and true. OF LIFE | lad, just to be gentle and true. The name of the teachers is legion who'd point out the road to success; they'd have us believe that the journey, unguided, is full of distress; the se cret, however, is simple, and easy to carry in mind; it's just to be honest and kind, lad, just to be honest and kind. I don't care a cent for the theories and creeds that the wise men expound; for all of the words that are thundered are merely a wind and a sound; the logic of life is so simple, it leaves all the dogmas behind; it's just to be honest and kind, lad, just to be honest and kind.

Chinese Merchant at Vancouver Order-ed to Pay Fine of $500.

Vancouver, Aug. 1.—The honesty of Officer Levis resulted in a fine of $500 being imposed by the police magistrate on Hong Wing Chong, a Chinese merchant. The merchant was convicted or offering the policeman a $40 bribe, and the magistrate held that the serie ness of the offence did not justify the imposition of a smaller fine if there was a fine at all.

Officer Levis said that on Sunday July 24th, as he was walking past 108 Pender street east, he heard a noise of hammering within and went inside to see what was the matter. He found a number of Chinamen working putting up fixtures, and Hong Wing Chong was pointed out to him as the boss. The officer asked him whether he did not know that it was acquist the law to know that it was against the law know that it was against the law to work on Sunday. Hong replied that he knew it was, but what was he to do? He had the place rented at great ex-pense, and wished to get it fixed up as soon as possible so that he might be getting some revenue out of it. "Me no want trouble," he said, and offered the officer three ten-dollar bills. The officer said he did not want the money but the Chinaman persisted in offering it to him, and pushed a $10 bill into his fiand. Officer Levis said that a police officer had no right to take money and he did not want it.

He proceeded to write down Hong's name and address, and while he was doing so the Chinaman pushed a folded $10 bill into his pocket.

policeman to pay it with and keep the rest for himself.

S. S. Taylor, K. C., who appeared for Hong, said his client was a very re-spectable Chinaman, and was one of the leading merchants of Nelson bea mistaken misapprehension and felt deeply his situation. He suggested that suspended sentence would prove a sufficient warning to other Chinamen meet the exigencies of the case. He would fine him $500.

Mr. Taylor said the fine was a very heavy one. He asked if it could not be reduced to $100.

The magistrate said that if there was to be a fine-at all it should not be less than that.

PLEASURES OF HOLIDAY AMONG SOOKE LAKES

A Paradise for the Weary and a Rare Haunt for the Angler Within Easy Reach

"Dougaid McDonaid McTavish" writes these jottings of a ramble on a holiday to the Times:

We are here at last, and probably we would have been here at first, had we come early enough. Just lay aside your goose-quill and say to your cares and worries "Get behind me," for I and worries "Get behind me," for I suppose editors have a few annoyances in common with other morta's, down from the days of Job to the present, and come here to rest awhile. This is paradise for weary, tired, busy mortals. Take with you your wife and bairns, and show to the world that there is one unselfish man in the city of "heads" were and bairns lassies." of "honest men and bonnie lassle of "honest men and bonnie lassles."
This is a wonderful place, Mecca for the weary, Bethesda for the sick. No noisy street cars, no speeding autos, no annoying dust, no blooming flies, no croaking frogs, no snakes, no mice, no nothing to disturb man or frighten woman.

The simple life is the law of the colony that lives in primitive condition and unalloyed happiness at this royal estate on the shore of the enchanted triple lake of historic Sooke, No housetriple lake of historic sooke. No house-cleaning to do, no carpets to shake, no rugs to air, so swell dances, no full-dress parties, no fashionable calls, no caste, no gossip. The mountains with heir kind compliments, send down from their ambitious summit to the happy folks at their base a stream of cold, clear, refreshing water, free to all dress parties, no fashionable calls, no caste, no gossip. The mountains with their kind compliments, send down from their ambitious summit to the happy folks at their base a stream of cold, clear, refreshing water, free to all scorning the eternal plague of meters and monthly water tax. The supply bed:

"Most of the land on the north side of the land on the north side of the land in the single size of the land on the north side of the land on the north side of the land in the single size of the land on the north side of the land in the prince of the stream forever singing as it ripples over its pebby bed:

"Men may come, and men may go, "But I go on forever."

The water of the lake is clearer than that of Loch Lomond. Rowing, salling, swimning, bathing, fashing, are holidays or their week-ends, as Caiwell, Borde, Todd, Meller, some of whom have already built of which innocent amusements of this happy company set from care and troubly free, and bent on the enjoyment of an ideal holiday, among the giant first in the primeval forest, on the shores of sooke lake, fringed with cedar, pins and map.

What Furniture Satisfaction Means

It means a satisfaction that cannot be expressed merely in dollars and cents for there an aristocracy in certain furniture (such as you see here)—inherent qualities about it that mark it as indisputably above the ordin-ary and commonly so-called "high grade." It is this kind of furniture that is a never failing source of pleasure to its owner.

In OUR furniture department may be seen a splendid assortment (an exclusive assortment) of all that is needed for a correctly furnished Bungalow, Cottage or Mansion, and during this month you can study your own interests best by visiting this store where "Sales" are never needed and where you can ALWAYS rely on getting the highest possible value for every cent you may spend with us at any time of the year.
