NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA*

JEROME STOKES, EDITOR • JAMES SMALLEY, JR., BUSINESS MANAGER

*Our revels now are ended. These our actors
As I foretold you, were all spirits, and
Are melted into air, into thin air;
And, like the baseless fabric of this vision,
The cloud-capped towers, the gorgeous palaces,
The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve;
And, like this insubstantial pageant faded,
Leave not a rock behind. We are such stuff
As dreams are made on, and our little life
Is rounded with a sleep.*

The Tempest

Four years ago we members of the Class of 1961 severed manfully our ties with the hearth and strode confidently toward college. We rejoiced in our new-found freedom and called all hail to the gods of higher learning.

Driven thus from the comforts of home we arrived at this institution of academic pursuit prepared to embrace warmly its traditions, its institutions and its football team. We were swept into its life and soon became a full and enthusiastic part of the Chapel Hill community.

During these four years we have labored diligently at the feet of these gods of learning, played with abandoned reserve and learned not merely to respect our fellow man but to love him. Now, as the last moments flicker to a sorrowful end, we leave the academic world and enter the Great Paths of Life — full, perfect, and sufficient men.

The only false note in this story is its lack of realism. We have not learned a great deal, because we have not wanted to. We have not wholly responded to the classroom challenge. Those resolutions voiced manfully before Mother vanished in a haze of beer, motion pictures, dances and football weekends. We met our requirements; we only did not exceed them.

Perhaps we did learn much of ourselves and our fellow man. We, to be sure, did not learn to love him, but we may have learned to tolerate him. We grew, albeit with hesitation, in that acquired wisdom that comes only through living and being.

There have been good moments and bad. There have been days when all of us must have wondered whether the grind and the frustration and the dissatisfaction were worth it all; and there have been days when an 'A' or a new-found love have lifted us to happiness and the courage to go on.

Through it all we have emerged to take our place in the American scene, passing through Chapel Hill to be forgotten as the next class takes our place. Our revels, indeed, are ended. Now we wait and move expectantly toward that moment when we realize that, somehow, we grew and flourished.

“Before me peaceful
Behind me peaceful
Under me peaceful
Over me peaceful
All around me peaceful . . .”

Navajo Indian

WISDOM is the principal thing;
therefore get wisdom:
and with all thy getting get understanding.

Proverbs IV:7

Youth is the time when we should see the light,
'Cause when we're old and wasted, the dues for what we've Tasted run so high
That we pay 'til we die—then we know that youth
That made us strong is wasted on the young
So—enjoy it gaily!
Love life! And live it daily

Chairman

The Campus Orientation Committee, with Jack Mitchell as Chairman, planned and supervised the activities of new students during orientation in September of 1960 and during the first session of summer school. The program was planned to include freshmen, transfers, graduate, and foreign students. The Chairman and a committee of twenty-five students met during March, April, and May to map out the schedules to be followed by the 275 student orientation counselors. Barbara Faulkner, Women's Coordinator; Tina Baensch, Foreign Student Coordinator; Hans Frankfort, Graduate Coordinator; and Bettie Ann Whitehurst, secretary; led the activities of the committee. Orientation activities included meetings with Chancellor Aycock, Dean Weaver, student government officials, and outstanding members of the faculty. Honor System lectures, registration, physicals, and an overall introduction to the institutions and traditions of the University were also on the orientation agenda.

In the way of generations past, with that same feeling of emptiness and loss which prompted Thomas Wolfe to write years ago of this time of life . . . "Which of us is not forever a stranger and alone," the class of 1964 arrived in Chapel Hill. The first days were filled with hesitant eagerness, but soon these changed to a deluge of adjustments, decisions, and crises, capped by new and more difficult academic demands.

Orientation . . . maps, leaflets, brochures, speeches, and tired feet . . . three in a room hardly big enough for one . . . at every step, a new face, a peculiar accent, a different race, a strange town . . . fraternity rush, acceptance for some, rejection for others . . . the poles of joy and depression . . . class elections, the great pumpkin, the first hour quiz . . . vacation, when we realize that home from now on is a place one hangs his hat . . . the succession of seasons . . . umbrellas, vests, beer, haughty coeds, friendly imports . . . Chem. II, Modern Civ., Math. . . Spring comes, sunbathing in the lower quad, May is here, a few finals, and home, a summer, and we are sophomores.

Yessir, Johnnyboy, we'll see you tomorrow night at 7—first thing.

Skits are always imaginative and the product of long hours, much work and talent. This is one of the highlights of rush.

RUSH

Perhaps the biggest, most thoroughly prepared, conscientious, and earnest undertaking for a segment of the University is a period entitled Rush. To the sororities it involves ten days of skits, charm, best possible appearances and inane conversation. This is all made doubly difficult because of the rapid changeover in sorority membership due to our two year program here for women.

To the boys, the atmosphere is less tense. No skits are involved but the appearances and conversation element are there as the various fraternities conduct five smokers of roughly two hours each. Perhaps the greatest problem to the fraternities is the number factor — having to pick forty out of five hundred people coming through.

But all the forced smiling, hand shaking, who-do-you-knowing and pressure soon subsides and everyone always comes out with "the sharpest pledges on campus."

Kappa charm and madras.

Heyhowyoudoing-ladtooseyou. Myname's . . .

Sororities

Seated: Mary Bruce Rhoades, Treasurer; Anne Wright, F. L. Lacy, Secretary; Memrie Mosier, Vice-President; Marjorie Crane, President; Louise Williams, Betty Mattern. Standing: Jeane Huntley, Edie Davis, Mary Hunter Kennedy, Sally Womack, Mariel O'Dell, Mary Alice Willwerth, Martha Hodsdon, Nancy Burnette, Dody Prevost, Lou Chapman, Anne Towers, Joan Jordan, Claudia McLaughlin, Elaine Livas.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

MARJORIE CRANE
President

The Panhellenic Council is composed of the Panhellenic advisor, Miss Isabelle MacLeod, and the President, Rush Chairman, and Panhellenic representative from each of the seven UNC sororities and from the Stray Greek Organization.

The purpose of this organization is to establish understanding and cooperation among the sororities. By discussing and reaching decisions regarding problems of sorority life, Panhellenic is able to set standards that are mutual for all groups. The Council also draws up and enforces the sorority rushing policies at Carolina.

During the year, Panhellenic plans and participates in various service projects, both in the town of Chapel Hill and on the UNC campus. In addition, they take part in activities sponsored by other Panhellenic groups from nearby schools and towns.

STRAY GREEKS

The Stray Greek Organization, which was founded in 1944 under the leadership of Twig Branch, is composed of sorority women whose chapter is not represented on this campus. Its aims are to preserve the bonds of unity and sisterhood in sorority life, to provide cooperation between sorority and dormitory women, and to serve its members as a service and social organization.

Each year the Stray Greeks take over the responsibility of the Panhellenic Post Office during sorority rush and its members serve as advisors in the dormitories. Following rush, the Stray Greeks hold the Pledge Tea and the Stray Greek-Panhellenic Pledge Picnic to honor the new pledge classes.

The Stray Greeks also participate in service projects, social events, various campus activities, and Women's Athletic Association.

"Ashamed of your date?"

With our twenty-four Pledges so happy are we
From third floor to wing smiling faces you'll see.
The arrow has led through a year full of fun:
Each campus event a race to be run;
Steaks at the Ranch House; the Faculty Tea;

To that sparkling Weekend, each Pledge held the key;
Nights spent in stuffing a chickenwire frame —
For the laughter we've shared, we'd all accept blame.
So with artists and scholars, beauty and pep,
The Pi Phis are always surely in step.

Pledge President

Women's Residence Council is the women's legislative branch of the Student Government. It makes and enforces all rules that pertain to the social standards and welfare of the women enrolled in the University. It constitutes a vital link in the network of student-faculty relations by cooperating with the Dean of Women, the administration of the University, Student Government, Honor Council, and the Carolina Women's Council. By executing these duties, Residence Council achieves its prime objective — to represent the women students of the University.

It is the goal of the Council to effect a better University home for all coeds by establishing social rules and regulations for women's residences, coordinating dormitory and sorority life within the University regulations, discussing any problems arising in the women's residences, granting late permissions, instilling in all coeds a respect for social regulations, and developing in them an appreciation for the helpful assistance offered to them by the dormitory and the University administrations.

In addition to its regular functions, the Council serves in a judicial capacity in conjunction with the Women's Honor Council, which then assumes the name of Women's Council. This body tries cases involving violations of social rules, campus code, and House Council appeals. The Council selects the editor of the Women's Handbook and also serves as an interviewing committee for selection of Women's Orientation Coordinator in the Spring.

EDIE DAVIS
Chairman

The Carolina Women's Council was organized in response to the need for cooperation and coordination in and among women's dormitories. The Council works in many areas of campus life, including academic, political, social, and athletic activities. The Social Chairman and the Activities Chairman from each dormitory make up the Council. The President is elected in the spring by campus-wide election.

Some of the activities endorsed or sponsored by Carolina Women's Council are a guide service for visitors to the campus; the Carolina Belles, official hostesses to athletic events; Homecoming activities; dormitory participation in the Beat Dook parade; award and reception honoring the outstanding dormitory women; and a scholarship cup awarded to the dormitory with the highest scholastic average.

The Carolina Women's Council strives to promote more spirit and participation by dormitory women in campus activities. This year the Council worked closely with Men's Interdormitory Council, Women's Residence Council, Women's Athletic Association, Stray Greeks, and the Student Athletic Council, in order to meet this goal.

UNIVERSITY PARTY

RICK OVERSTREET
Chairman

The purpose of the University Party is to encourage and promote better student government at the University of North Carolina through policies and platforms which reflect the opinions of students representing all parts of the campus. Its aim is to nominate and support the best qualified students for the services of student government and to promote them within student government policies. It is the responsibility of each member to live up to this purpose by active interest in all phases of student government life and by participating in the University Party.

The University Party is a political party, similar to political parties in national, state and local elections. It holds nominating conventions prior to every campus election. Periodic meetings are held to establish party policy and enlighten students on campus issues. The University Party has about 800 members from all parts of the campus. Membership is open to any student interested in Student Government. The Executive Board administers the party between regular party meetings.

UNC CARDBOARD

The UNC Cardboard, begun in 1948 by head cheerleader Norman Speer, organizes the largest section of its type in the Eastern United States. Approximately 200 hours of work are needed to produce clever stunts that last about 15 minutes. The Art Staff, the Office Staff, and Usher Staff prepare these stunts and place the cards under the seats in Kenan Stadium. There is a system of awards based upon length of service. The aims of the UNC Cardboard are to promote college tradition, provide color and stimulate spirit for our University.

OFFICERS — Tom Lawrence, President; Betsy Kiker, Vice-President; Bill Freund, Head Usher.

The 1960 cheering squad had a highly successful season. Despite the loss of several games, they led cheers enthusiastically and imbued the student body with their spirit — university support and school spirit had never been greater.

Other activities sponsored by the cheerleaders were several successful bonfires, pep rallies and parades.

Both at Kenan Stadium and on the road it was a winning year for the spirited fourteen.

Carolina climaxed an otherwise disappointing football season with a dramatic victory over arch-rival Duke. The season had two very ironic twists in that the Tarheels defeated two of the nation's stronger teams while losing to several teams that they should have defeated rather handily. The highlights of the season were the outstanding plays of Co-captain Rip Hawkins, who gained All-American booming and the great offensive games played by quarterback Ray Farris. With all three quarterbacks and all three fullbacks having another year to play the 1961 Tarheels should field a very exciting team to watch.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

In spite of a mediocre 2-3 season, the freshman football team showed great promise of producing many thrills in the future for Tar Heel fans. In the season's opener against State's powerful Wolflets, the Frosh acquitted themselves well despite losing 28-14. Against Clemson, after quarterback Charlie Shaffer suffered a knee injury, reserve Sandy Kinney and Bob Lacey sparked a fourth period aerial assault which fell just short of victory, Carolina being on the short end of 23-18. The Tar Babies then journeyed to Winston-Salem and earned their first victory, topping Wake Forest in a tight battle, 7-0. Next, they exhibited an explosive offense in a 35-0 trouncing of Virginia. On Thanksgiving Day, the Tar Babies played their season's finale against arch-rival Duke. Quarterback Rich Pierson along with teammates Kesler, Ellison, and Brown led Carolina to a 17-7 third period margin, but the Blue Imps stormed back to win 20-17. This fine team will add a great deal to the Varsity squad next year.

UNC BAND

In addition to the Marching Tarheels, the UNC Band program also includes the Concert Band and the Symphonic Wind Ensemble. The Marching Tarheels are recognized as one of the outstanding show bands of the South, and always feature special musical arrangements and unique shows at Carolina's football games.

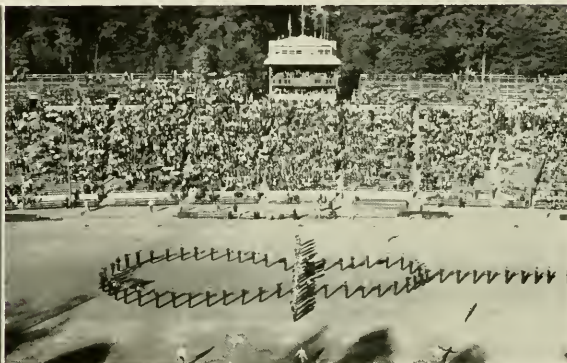

The Concert Band is organized immediately after football season, and works on the best in band literature, presenting local concerts and taking a concert tour each spring.

The Symphonic Wind Ensemble is a select group of musicians from the University band program, organized shortly after the beginning of the Fall semester. It has very extensive repertory of fine music, and has gained statewide recognition for its outstanding performances.

In addition to these groups, a pep band, consisting of members of the Marching Tarheels, performs at pep meetings, rallies, and other informal occasions.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Interfraternity Council of the University of North Carolina functions as the unifying and governing body of Carolina's twenty-four social fraternities. The council, which is composed of the president of each fraternity and an elected representative, dedicate their efforts and time to strengthening the fraternity system and helping it live up to the lofty ideals on which fraternities were founded. This is accomplished through the help of the various I.F.C. committees — Rush, Greek Week, Scholarship, Rules, Special Projects, Publicity, and Handbook — all of which are guided by the executive committee.

The I.F.C. Court is composed of seven men elected from the membership of the I.F.C. Enforcing the rules and By-Laws of the Interfraternity Council is their primary functions as the Judicial segment of the I.F.C. Moreover, the Court meets to try cases involving a fraternity's violation of the I.F.C. regulations and are empowered to levy sentences upon guilty fraternities.

Under the leadership of President Pete Austin, the I.F.C. has had an active and successful year. Improving scholarship, service to the community, financial aid to needy students, and bettering of fraternity-administrative relations have received additional attention this year by the I.F.C. in its attempt to benefit the fraternities, the university, and the community.

Moreover, the I.F.C. accompanies these basic functions with philanthropic endeavors as it awards each year, since 1948, a $2,000 scholarship to an outstanding and needy North Carolina high school graduate.

Finally, to encourage enthusiastic and faithful participation in I.F.C. and other worth-while activities, the Council awards each year the R. B. House trophy to the outstanding fraternity on campus, the Scholarship trophy to the fraternity with the highest average for the year, and the Strum trophy to the year's best pledge class.

The theme at the Lodge for the school year 1960-61 is conservative forward motion. The gap left both in the membership rolls and personality by the graduation of the outstanding class of '60 has been amply filled through the assumption of leadership by our capable officers.

Rest assured, there has been no social gap. The forays of the football season, headed by Homecoming, and aided by alumni participation, have been social successes.

In studies, sports, social life, and congenial brotherhood we continue in the tradition of those who have gone before us.

Fall was a long time coming this year, and it might have been an evening in August when 29 hot, sleepy-eyed freshmen looked down to see a new piece of jewelry on their lapels and began to wonder a little about its real meaning . . . Fountain declares at last that spring has come and heads for the beach . . . Overnight the talk is all of waterskiing, Morehead, and the best way to keep sand off an Army blanket . . . The year ended a little abruptly; we asked each other where the time had gone, and while the 12 seniors were uncertain of many things, they knew that Beta's 110th year was one to remember.

September and pre-rush preparations found Alpha Mu the center of the usual back-to-school parties. During rush we got down to more serious business and were more than pleased with the outcome. This was a very eventful year for Alpha Mu, and memories of life within the ivy-covered walls will never fade.

The seniors led by Fireball and Guerilla combined to put a strain on the walls of the bar and the patio. Cunningham moves to a new pad as Waller goes North. Greenday leads the bulls to new heights on the third deck. Thompson, Fowler, and Sanford appear to be headed for the altar. Fearing pleads innocence. McClure and Daniels handle the uncontrollables and Happer returns to use up another year of eligibility on the flick team. Fall is highlighted by football, Harriss' kitchen party, and the Schoolhouse which miraculously holds up under the attack. Joni James, Billy Mae, and the High-Lo's set the mood for Fall Germans and Graham finally gets started. Another successful year in intramurals takes shape with Skinny at the helm. Archie and Johnnie Walker spread good will among our southern chapters.

Second semester is launched by another roaring Black and White. The annual French Seventy-five party takes the usual toll. Snow parties and the tinkle of glass are reminiscent of a cold winter. In the spring we again entertain parents and alums. Moorehead and Hogan's regain popularity on the weekends.

In June the ranks are thinned by the graduation of a great class of seniors. As they regretfully leave with their best wishes for the future, a capable group of sophomores and juniors succeeds them. An occasional rumbling from the Bulls proves that everything is back to normal at the stone house on Cameron Avenue. AEKDB.

There's a Zete in the Wood Pile.

Out of fall 1960 into winter through a whirlwind of falling leaves and busy Lambdas . . . painting themselves into corners on the porch . . . going to Greensboro, Duke, etc. . . calling G. C. fruitlessly . . . dropping crests.

We're learning to sing after much disagreement, and now we can serenade the "winged seraphs." Ben keeps saying we are good enough to go on tour.

Our football team fares about as well as Carolina's, but the pledges still want to play the brothers for "something." After all, they did finish the crescent, and it only took two years.

Eldon still goes to A.C. even, and Fred's looking for a crescent girl. We still don't know what Al takes pills for.

With visions of a new house bright in our eyes, we still paint, scotch tape, nail, and stick together with chewing gum.

"What the hell do we do now?"

The Phi Delts' first Sturm Trophy winners finally at the helm (minus Lobo, Rat Mother, and Sickness) as the PDT's reach new height . . . Austin's Head, expanding for four years, finally explodes . . . "Cheeks" molds our twelve hardy pledges . . . Walldorf typical hard-boiled treasurer, but finds time to hit the insurance racket . . . Friday, Whale: "Anybody know about a good combo?" Bloom drops another pin proving you can't keep an "R. B." down . . . Corbett and Enk turn talents to dorms but Obie returns for a shower . . . Pope continues to strike sour notes and strike out . . . Doug leaves green thumb behind as Leader leaves (with the car) . . . Nichols tries sure-fire formula — one part law school, three parts Frances . . . Chow shocks and delights with weekly minutes . . . Norton still plays infield but may have stopped playing the field . . . Rat Dillon finally gets a birdie.

Parking lot finally paved, good food, Reet stumbles on, and Ma proves more than ever she's the greatest.

COMMITTEE ON STATE AFFAIRS

DAVIS B. YOUNG
Chairman

The Committee on State Affairs is a unique outlet of the University of North Carolina's Student Government. Founded in 1958, it was expanded in 1960-61 to include new ideas and new directions.

The Committee has a two-fold purpose:

1. To inform students of the scope and nature of their state university in light of changing conditions and policies, and
2. To educate the state about the needs of its state university through personal visits with members of the General Assembly and through continuous publication.

It has been the hope of the Executive Council of the Committee that the end result of this work in the years to come will be a dedicated and crusading group of Carolina alumni who will support all University programs in future years.

Although the main theme of this year's State Affairs work was the obtaining of a new student union-undergraduate library, the Committee supported with equal vigor all University budget requests.

Student Government is indebted to all of the students from North Carolina's 100 counties who gave of their time in this program.

COMMITTEE — Ed Riner, Bettie Ann Whitehurst, Bob Baynes, Davis Young, Ken Freedman, Wayne Babb, John Renger, Angus Duff.

OFFICERS OF THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Linda Tesh, Secretary; Kathy Pickrell, Social Chairman; Bruce Greene, President; Richard Vinroot, Vice-President; Phil Deaton, Treasurer.

The Sophomore year is the year for knowing. Gone is the uncertainty and strangeness associated with us as freshmen. As sophomores we know: the Campus . . . the best places to study for exams, the best places to park . . . who's in what fraternity, who's in what honorary, and who the BMOC's are . . . where to take a date, where to get a date . . . which sorority has the party girls, which the beauties, which the more down-to-earth type, which the individuals . . . when Happy Hours are . . . what clothes to buy and where . . . the name of the best combos . . . all campus slang.

As sophomores we have definite political opinions, have our parents all figured out and, in short, have the world by the tail. Graduation is away off in the hazy future and we know that there lies ahead of us at least two more years of college life . . . "On with the dance! let joy be unconfined."

The Tarheels opened the hardwood campaign with wins over the Tigers from LSU and the Cavaliers of Virginia in rather lopsided games. Carolina faithfuls were surprised to see Kentucky and Kansas State take the measure of the Tarheels in the next two games. Poor free throw shooting cost Carolina victory in each of these games. Carolina again attained high national ranking as they reeled off five consecutive victories which included impressive wins over Maryland, Villanova, and previously undefeated Duke in the annual Dixie Classic Championship in Raleigh. Carolina began the New Year by taking a trip to Charlotte to meet the fighting Irish of Notre Dame. The Tarheels were paced by the remarkable combo of York Larese and Doug Moe who both averaged over twenty points per contest. The return of Dick Kopley to the lineup after regaining form proved invaluable to the Tarheels drive to power. Carolina followers looked forward to the January and February contests with hopes that the win streak would continue.

SOCCER

The 1960 edition of the North Carolina soccer team turned in a respectable 8-3 record. Coached by Marvin Allen, who was assisted by Tom DiArvie, Ian Ward, and Sal Esposito, the team lost only to NCAA runner-ups Maryland, Lynchburg, and Duke.

Outstanding players this year were Captain Joe Perkins, whose hustle and drive inspired everyone; Jimmy Reston, the team's leading scorer as a sophomore; left wing Tom Sprinkle, who was second in scoring; All-South defensive ace Bob Quackenbush; Captain-elect Dick Bordogna; and sophomore goalie Larry Steele, whose early season performances were outstanding. Carolina finished third in the ACC behind Maryland and Duke, losing a 4-2 heartbreaker to the latter in an overtime game.

POPE SHUFORD
Captain

“And the green sophomores became talented, experienced juniors” is the best way to sum up the 1960-61 version of the UNC Wrestling Team. The grapplers after a dismal record last year opened the new season with a smashing double victory over Washington & Lee and Virginia. Notice was served that the Tar Heels would once again be among the nation’s elite on the mat.

Most of the credit for the Matmen’s success goes to Coach Sam Barnes who, last year, initiated his new look offense. The improved team displays this effect.

Returning starters include Mickey Nelson, Pete Gilchrist, Reggie Brooker, Cary McSwain, Pope Shuford, Tom Alexander, and Bill Shipp. The only seniors are 115 pounder Frank London and “handiman” Grover Wilhoit. Coles Kortner and Jim Kluttz are standouts from the Frosh Team last year.

THE STUDENT ATHLETIC COUNCIL

ANGUS DUFF
President

The Student Athletic Council, now in its second year of formal organization, endeavors to concern itself with events related to our athletic system. The Council is composed of fourteen presidents and leaders of our athletic organizations.

Among its duties and responsibilities are the planning of Homecoming, the development of the minor sports program, and the annual Student Caravan. The Council also fostered the beginning of the "Southern Belles," co-eds who greet and serve as hostesses for visiting teams.

The Council is responsible to the Student Legislature and makes periodic reports to them on the success of activities. One of its endeavors now is to promote support toward obtaining funds for a new all-purpose coliseum-field house.

The Council's purpose is to voice student ideas in the overall athletic program and in this it serves well.

LEWIS RUSH
President

1960 marked the one-hundredth anniversary of the beginning of the YMCA at the University of North Carolina. Throughout these years, the Y has been a non-denominational lay movement of students, faculty and other persons which has sought to find the meaning of the Christian faith as it relates to the contemporary world.

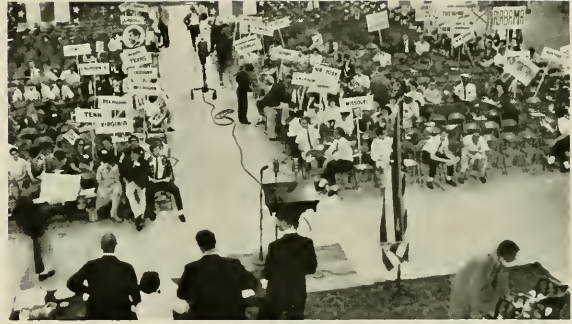

The Y has been a pioneering organization on the Carolina Campus. In the 1800's, the YMCA saw the need for a Book Exchange, Freshman Orientation, and intermural athletics, and thus fostered these additions to University life. Later, a Placement Bureau was started and deputations were begun to rural churches.

During the past decade, the Y has helped lead the campus toward a better understanding of the problems of the world of students. The U.N. Seminars, Cosmopolitan Club, Symposium on Public Affairs, Campus Chest and Seminars Abroad are exemplary of the Y's concern.

In 1960, Community Work became an even more significant part of the Y's program, thus bringing closer to reality one of the purposes of the YMCA as stated in the Constitution of 1860. Out of a concern for the University, the magazine Parlance was initiated. Throughout the year, significant programs in International Relations, Foreign Student work, Public Affairs and Human Relations helped to complement the contribution of the YMCA in relating the Christian Faith to the world.

As the YMCA begins its second century at the University of North Carolina, it remains alert to the spiritual, educational and social needs of the academic and world community of which it is a part.

Hospital volunteer workers on the job.

The YWCA at Carolina is an inter-denominational organization open to all coeds, which strives in all of its work to manifest a sincere adherence to Christian ideals.

An executive council, composed of seven elected officers, and a cabinet of twenty-two selected committee chairmen comprise the core of the Y's organization. Committees are geared to meet the interests of every coed by offering opportunities for experiences in a variety of activities. A few of these areas include volunteer aid at Memorial Hospital; recreational work with children at the Blind School, Catholic and Methodist Orphanages; the preparation of a Model U.N. Assembly; the planning and presentation of a Mock Democratic Convention; participation in various conferences concerning prescribed topics of discussion; and the organization of a Vespers Program in the coed residences.

Christmas for the young at heart.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

In all of its endeavors, the YWCA seeks to offer its members an opportunity both to work with and to share beneficial experiences with their fellow students. Above all, however, the

Y attempts to keep ever present a realization of the truth in the words . . . "What you keep you lose, and only what you give remains your own."

The Baptist Student Union meets for a Friday night study.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

Through a varied program of study, worship, service and fellowship, the Baptist Student Union works together to apply the principles of Christian faith to daily existence and to find a new and deeper meaning of Christian discipleship as University students. A friendly welcome awaits every student at the Baptist Student Union center on Rosemary Street.

HILLEL FOUNDATION

Hillel at Carolina, a branch of the national B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation is the Jewish Student Center on campus. Its functions here are to unite the Jewish student to his historical Jewish heritage and to his fellow students. Various religious, cultural and social activities, including Sabbath Services, Sunday brunches, discussion and study groups, seminars, workshops, a Freshman Cabinet, all help to achieve this goal.

Working with Director Rabbi E. M. Rosenweig are Beverly Lapkin, Assistant; Ronny Birke, President; Bob Scott, Vice-President; Betsy Melasky, Recording Secretary; and Judy Stuhl, Corresponding Secretary.

Hillel members get together for fellowship.

Canterbury Club members meet for a Sunday program and fellowship.

CANTERBURY CLUB

Each Sunday evening, the Canterbury Club, an organization for the Episcopal students at Carolina, meets to worship, to eat supper and together enjoy a program designed to develop broader Christian understanding. Ranging from jazz discussions to foreign speakers and picnics, these programs allow students to get together informally, while at the same time promoting Christian fellowship.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Lutheran Student Association is a group of students concerned with growth and expression of their faith. Convinced that religious beliefs do make a difference, the LSA seeks to develop a deeper understanding of Christianity and its relevance to life. Meeting every Sunday night for supper, worship and a program featuring a speaker, panel or a group discussion, the LSA strives to find richer meaning in its faith through its fellowship.

Lutheran students gather for fellowship and study.

Members of the Cosmopolitan Club, representing many different nations, meet together.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

The Cosmopolitan Club's aim is to bring together people of all nations and backgrounds in an atmosphere of friendship to exchange cultural ideas and to have fun. Officers are: Zoe Willet, President; Pappy Churchill, Social Chairman; Tim Tetlow, Cultural Chairman; Sandy Bryant, Secretary; Bill Warren, Treasurer; Jerry Green, Publicity; and Fatama Ramazanoglu, Editor of Cosmo.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' BOARD

The International Students' Board attempts to coordinate the activities of the various internationally oriented organizations on campus. Among its unique activities are coordination of the Goettigen University exchange program, programming of tours for foreign students, and execution of International Emphasis Week-end and the International Symposium.

Its recent activities are directed toward acquiring an international house, starting an exchange with some other European university and collecting information about work and study for Americans abroad. The members, appointed by the President of the Student Body, come from all walks of student life, several members being representatives to the board from other organizations.

The International Students' Board collect to discuss planned projects.

Juniors

Our first conferences with our departmental advisors . . . elections when we assume the posts of leadership in the various major campus positions . . . now we realize that we are an integral and contributive element in the University. Gone are the pains of General College . . . phys ed, hygiene, lab courses . . . and beves of new coeds from assorted colleges deck the campus.

The "Gung Ho" spirit of our sophomore year has subsided, the senior maturity and solemnity has not come upon us, so we are juniors.

GRAHAM MEMORIAL

The cast of the Petite Dramatique Production of "Solid Gold Cadillac."

Petite Musicale presents pianist Charles Vardell in Hill Hall.

R. V. FULK
President

Graham Memorial, our student union, has sought to bring together all phases of campus life — the academic, the recreational, the cultural, and the social. The purpose of the union is to meet every student's needs while he is attending the university. Besides presenting a campus-wide program for the students, Graham Memorial seeks to develop leadership and responsibility by encouraging student participation. With this in mind, many committees have been organized to give students an opportunity to take part in the various G.M. activities. These committees are: drama, films, star series, music, current affairs, calendar, publicity, social, tournaments, and house. The members plan activities for the entire year, from appearances by big-name entertainers to bridge tournaments, from combo parties to political discussions.

Cultural entertainment, open houses after football games, free flicks each weekend, receptions for guests of the university, and the presentation of student-produced drama, such as The Solid Gold Cadillac, are merely a few of the many functions sponsored by G.M.A.B. The Productions Board has brought such artists as Marcel Marceau, the Weavers, Pete Seeger, and Varelend Bailly. The highlight of the spring is Sound and Fury, an original musical which is student written, student produced, and student acted.

The doors to Graham Memorial are always open and every student is welcome. Graham Memorial is the living room of the campus.

GRAHAM MEMORIAL ACTIVITIES BOARD

COMMITTEE HEADS — Seated: Anne Towers, Jayne Hayes, Leafy Pollock, Pam Patterson, Mary Stewart Baker. Standing: Inman Allen, Joe Bell, Warren Williams, Henry Mayer, Warner Bass, Jim Hynes.

Seniors

Now at last that mad lesson about life and friends and the meaning of them all ends. And that teasing doubt has attacked our minds through this whole year, asking, re-asking, what will we do when this is all over; how will we manage these hands, direct these feet; will the passions be controlled, the temper mastered, the goal achieved, the drive consummated? Or will we have to learn all anew in life's harder, more industrious school? We think not. We believe we've learned a lot already — rushing from class to GM, from Y Court to the football game, from the library to Memorial Hall, from a big weekend to a blue Monday. Come back to us, as you will, in the face and the image of thousands. Continue Mr. and Miss Alumna, as you will, in the love and admiration of millions.

AUDIT BOARD

The primary function of the Audit Board is to supervise the Student Activities Fund Office. The group also serves as a financial control and in an advisory role to Student Government.

Five students and two faculty advisers constitute the membership of the Board. Members are appointed annually and meet throughout the school year, striving to provide continued and improved professional accounting services to student government and campus organizations through the Student Activities Fund Office. This office currently is responsible for sixty-five accounts, representing nearly two million dollars in annual transactions.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES FUND OFFICE

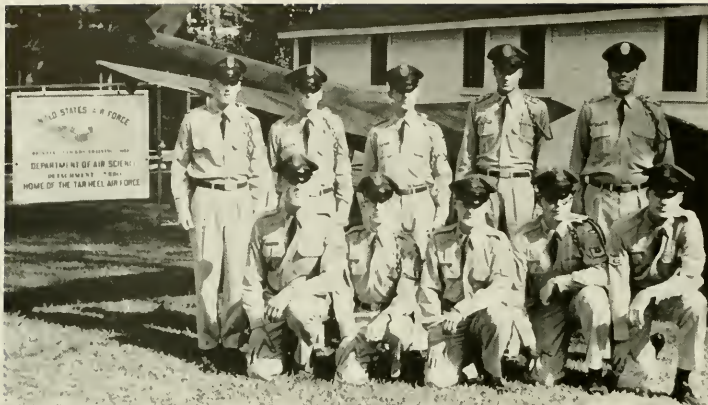

The Student Activities Fund Office audits books for fraternities, sororities, campus organizations, and others. This office has approximately seventy accounts. It works closely with Audit Board and the treasurer of each organization in keeping a record of accounts and counter-signing all checks.

The Arnold Air Society is a national honorary-professional-military fraternity of Air Force cadets. Each year, Arnold Air promotes an extensive program during which the most outstanding cadets from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes are selected. The Arnold Air Society provides for its members programs on various aspects of Air Force life. Because members seek to improve their knowledge of the Air Force, and their potential as future officers, the AAS seeks to further stimulate its members' interest in Air Force affairs. Arnold Air Society also fulfills a vital role in the AFROTC in that it furthers the participation of cadets in the processes of leadership. For many of its meetings, the Society invites noted personalities to speak on topics of a military nature, following the speech with a social hour. The Arnold Air Society also sponsors the Angel Flight, a group of coeds who serve as hostesses for cadet social affairs.

Back Row: Connie Burroughs, Jan McColsky, Linda Hurt, Ann Cummings, Ann Lee, Nazlee French, Louise Williams, Sylvia Scott, Minnie Barnes, Jeane Huntley, Rita McClain.

The Angel Flight is the auxiliary to and is sponsored by the Arnold Air Society. The purposes of the flight are to strengthen and promote interest in the Air Force, to gain information concerning the military services, and to aid the progress of the Arnold Air Society and the cadet corps.

Most of the activities of Angel Flight are carried on at the local level. The sponsors aid cadets in planning and preparing for social events, such as the annual Christmas dance, the Military Ball, and coffee hours. On the National level, the main activity is a National Conclave which is held annually at the national headquarters. Delegates from schools all over the nation gather to share ideas and discuss important issues of our national organization.

MEN'S INTER

SWAG GRIMSLEY
President

The IDC is the governing body of the twenty men's dormitories at UNC. Composed of representatives of each dorm, the IDC meets twice monthly to discuss dorm problems and plan programs which will enrich the life of men living in dormitories.

The IDC is an open forum for the discussion of interesting issues on campus. Any topic which directly or indirectly concerns dorm residents receives IDC attention and action.

A social program for the benefit of all residents is a major project of the IDC. In addition to all-campus functions, the IDC helps individual dorms plan dances and parties.

The IDC Court handles all infractions of dorm rules. It is composed of a Chairman and six members elected from the IDC members.

The Women's Athletic Association offers a wide variety of activities to all women students at UNC. The purpose of WAA is to promote interest in, and to provide opportunities for, participation in various recreational activities, and to promote interest in women's athletics.

During each season of the year, intramurals provide competition in individual and team sports. Besides intramurals the WAA cooperates with the men in planning co-recreational intramurals such as Co-Rec volleyball and swimming, and the annual Co-Rec Carnival. Other activities include play days, competition with other schools, and the annual Spring Picnic. All women students are members of the WAA.

Swimming

SWIMMING

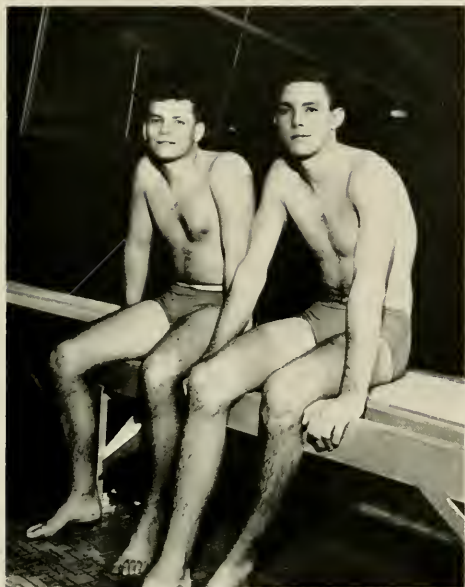

COACH PAT EAREY

Carolina's swimming team opened the 1960-61 season with promise for the most outstanding season in many years. This is taking quite a lot for granted as the Tarheels have won 38 of their last 42 matches and have won the ACC crown in two of the past three seasons. The tankmen have swept through the ACC matches they have had so far while losing only to powerful Navy in a meet at Annapolis which saw star Harry Bloom set an Annapolis record for the Middle pool. Bloom, along with seniors Vince Simonton and Harv Hamrick, form the nucleus of the team. Last year's freshman team was one of the finest in the history of the school and should certainly produce some fine swimmers before the season comes to a close. Bloom should prove to be one of the nation's best, perhaps great enough for All-America honors. This year's team is indeed a credit to the fine coaching of Pat Earey who has continually produced fine swimmers. With the fine group of sophomores, Carolina should continue to rank among the nation's finest.

The Playmaker's specialty is heavy drama. One of the finest examples of this was Tennessee Williams' "Summer and Smoke."

Bali Ha'i from "South Pacific."

CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS

The Carolina Playmakers serve a dual purpose as a laboratory organization for the Department of Dramatic Art and a community theatre. Participation is not limited to students in the department. The Carolina Playmakers use actors and technicians from all departments of the University as well as people in the community.

The 1960-61 season included Rogers' and Hammerstein's "South Pacific," Dylan Thomas' "Under Milkwood," Friedrich Duerrenmatt's "The Visit," a new Danish play by Niels Locher, "Day of Glory" and a melodrama, Alfried's and Wheeler's "The Great Diamond Robbery."

Three bills of one-acts, written, directed and staged by students, round out the busy program of activities for the Playmakers on campus, along with the productions of an experimental theatre group, the Student Theatre Workshop.

Cast assemblage of Dylan Thomas' "Under Milkwood."

CAROLINA HANDBOOK

There were only three weeks left on the school calendar when the Publications Board chose the editor of the 1960-61 Carolina Handbook. In those three weeks, a staff was assembled and the Handbook revamped completely in format and coverage. The Carolina Handbook has been UNC's official Orientation guide for all new male students since 1891. First published by the YMCA in an edition of 16 pages, the Handbook became a member of the University Publications Board in 1959 and functioned this year for the first time as a Student Government publication. After a half century of publication, the Handbook has expanded to 152 pages under a budget of $3,386.86. It is sent in August to all incoming male students.

UNC MEN'S GLEE CLUB

UNC MEN'S GLEE CLUB

The UNC Men's Glee Club is composed of approximately seventy-five Carolina gentlemen who offer their singing talents for the entertainment of fellow classmates and various groups and institutions throughout the state and along the entire eastern seaboard.

Dressed in tuxedos or their traditional blazers, they may be heard singing the serious works of Handel or other songs ranging from the traditional school songs to light calypso numbers from Trinidad. The Club presents special music for local churches, performs for University functions, and conducts a Fall and Spring tour. The Glee Club is the only touring choral group at the University.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB OFFICERS — John Canupp, President; Ken Beane, Bill Dalton, Al Miller, Sydney Huggins, Tom Fitzgerald, Jim Short.

CAROLINA FORUM

The Carolina Forum since 1935 has brought to the campus speakers of national and international interest. Since the Forum's purpose is to keep the students of the University in first-hand touch with the events of the day, world personalities intimately involved with these events have been and are being invited to present their views to the campus.

This fall the Forum featured a discussion on the taut Arab-Israel relations and an eye-witness report on the unrest in a divided South Africa. Programs during the spring were in the fields of American economy, modern literature and the modern state.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

The Publications Board is charged with the financial supervision of Student Government publications. Working with a budget of over $100,000, it awards contracts, salaries, and supervises the business of the Yackety Yack, Daily Tar Heel, Carolina Quarterly and the Carolina Handbook.

Its membership consists of the faculty advisors, two student legislators, one finance committee member, two presidential appointees, and the editors-in-chief and business managers of each publication. The board devotes many hours toward insuring the University of North Carolina the finest in student publications.

GERMAN CLUB

The highlight of the social season at UNC is the thrice-yearly presented German Club concerts. At this time, young ladies are imported from all over the South for a week-end of gala parties. Fall Germans featured Miss Joni James, the Hi-Lo's and the Billy May Band, who were all outstanding. Such high quality entertainment and attendance records have helped make this year most successful.

The music of Billy May's band backed up the feature entertainment in November.

DI-PHI SENATE

The Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Society, founded at the University in 1795, is the oldest active debating society in the United States.

Each week the Society meets in its beautiful and hallowed halls to debate informally topics of current interest to the speaking abilities through the spirited interchange of ideas in a tradition as old as the University itself. In earlier years the Society was the student government organization. Its influence on the intellectual life of the University continues.

Many men and women have gone on from the halls of the Di-Phi to assume positions of responsibility and influence. The rolls of membership include a President of the United States, a Vice-President, Governors of North Carolina, U. S. Senators, Congressmen, and Cabinet Members. Thomas Wolfe, Dr. Frank Graham and Governor Luther Hodges are only a few of the many well-known alumni members of the Society.

Alpha Epsilon Delta is an international honor society for pre-medical and pre-dental students. It was founded at the University of Alabama April 28, 1926. There are over 13,000 members in sixty-four active chapters throughout the United States.

The North Carolina Beta Chapter was founded at the University of North Carolina on March 27, 1936. The object of the society, to recognize excellence in pre-medical and pre-dental scholarship, has grown to include stimulation of the pre-medical and dental student by presentation of speakers from the medical field, assistance to him by helping him to realize his responsibilities in his pre-professional education, and benefit to him by the offer of the companionship of similarly interested students.

Alpha Phi Omega, the only national service fraternity, was founded at Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania in 1925. Rho Chapter was established in 1930. The Torch and Trefoil is the official magazine, and the colors are blue and gold.

The purpose of Alpha Phi Omega is to assemble college men in the fellowship of the Scout Oath and Law, to develop leadership, and to promote service to humanity. This purpose is carried out through service projects and various social events including Parents' Day, a non-profit Book-S, an Ugliest Man on Campus Contest for charity, banquets, and parties.

TRACK

Senior co-captains Ray Stanley and Cowles Lipfert paced the Tarheel track team to successful indoor and outdoor seasons. In the Indoor Conference Games Carolina lost only to Maryland, edging arch-rival Duke by two points for second place. Outstanding indoor performances were Benjy Seagle's second place in the 600 yd. run and freshman Bill Croom's record setting 6' 3¼" high jump.

Outdoors, a lack of depth in the sprints resulted in a below par 3-4 dual meet record. In the ACC meet at Maryland, Carolina placed third. Fraser Smith and Ray Stanley climaxed their careers with championship performances in the discus and broad jump. Benjy Seagle achieved his personal best with a 47.9 clocking in the mile relay, and Rett Everett did likewise with a 9.29 in the two mile. Polevaulter Barrie Tiedemann placed second with a jump of 13' 6".

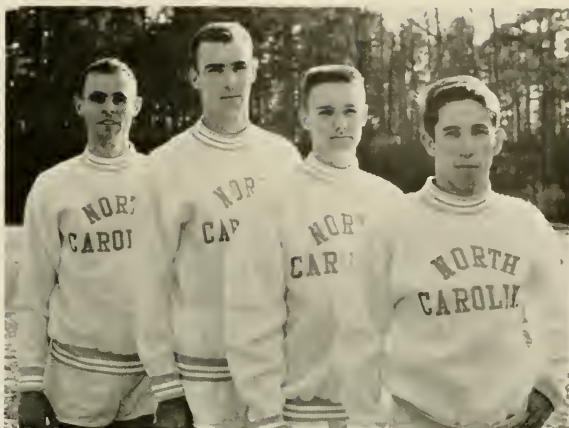

In the Carolina AAU meet the Tarheels decisively conquered Duke but lost to Winston-Salem State Teachers for the State Championship. Co-captain Lipfert made his last race for Carolina a memorable one, outsprinting Duke's Jerry Norse in the last lap of the mile. Carolina graduate student John Gutknecht won the three mile in 14.17, cutting 13 seconds off Jim Beatty's old record.

CROSS COUNTRY

Tarheel distance runners climaxed a successful season on November 14 by upsetting favored Maryland for their 18th conference championship in the last 35 years. Paced by fleet running Rett Everett, the Carolina harriers captured four of the first seven places in avenging a previous dual-meet defeat at the hands of the Terrapins.

Boasting a youthful but well balanced quintet, Carolina won six of their seven dual meets, then easily swept by arch-rival Duke in winning the State Championship meet in Raleigh.

Mainstays on the Carolina varsity were Captain Bing Somers, Rett Everett, Gerry Stuver, Mike Folk, Carmine Lunetta and Larry Henry. Sophomore Stuver, runnerup to Everett in the conference meet, broke the Finley course record set earlier by Maryland's Don Garten.

The objectives of the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps are two-fold: to provide a steady supply of well-educated Junior Officers to serve on active duty in the Line or Staff of the Navy or the Marine Corps, and to build up a reserve of officers subject to call in the event of national emergency. Students within the program take eight semesters of Naval Science along with the courses in their academic field of choice. There are two drill periods each week.

Activities within the unit include the Rifle Team and the unit newspaper, The Carolina Cutter. The Drill Team and the Drum and Bugle Corps participate at football games and parades in the area. The Quarterdeck Society handles unit-sponsored dances and parties which have proved quite successful.

SCABBARD AND BLADE

The National Society of Scabbard and Blade is an honorary military society composed at Carolina of outstanding Air Force and Naval ROTC cadets. The overall objectives of this organization are to promote interest and understanding of military affairs among the citizenry of the various colleges and universities at which it is represented. At Carolina, Scabbard and Blade presents the annual Military Ball for all AFROTC and NROTC cadets. It serves as a medium of coordination for all inter-corps activities — social, fraternal, and business. Scabbard and Blade, believing itself to be composed of responsible leaders, assumes the lead in projecting a modern attitude about the military services.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Government at Carolina has a long-standing reputation for excellence and serves as a model for colleges and universities throughout the country. The validity of this claim was demonstrated last year when UNC won the first place award in the Richard Welling Memorial student government competition sponsored by the United States National Student Association.

Operating on a budget of approximately $130,000, Student Government strives to promote the general welfare of the student body in every possible way. Patterned after the federal government, the executive, legislative, and judicial branches provide an excellent training ground for future leadership.

The acquisition of a new student union was the number one project for this year. This project was handled by a biennial Committee on State Affairs. The Committee on Academic Affairs continued a broad program of course evaluation. Installation of washers and dryers in dormitories and the development of a book exchange program between students were among the projects of the Campus Affairs Committee. The International Students Board worked to establish new exchange scholarships with foreign universities and to promote international awareness on the campus.

These and many other programs constituted the efforts of Student Government to instill in the student body a sense of social responsibility and thus to contribute to the welfare of the campus.

LEGISLATURE

The Student Legislature, founded in 1938, serves as the supreme legislative body of Student Government. In this capacity, the body has ultimate responsibility over almost every rule which pertains to student government or student life. Perhaps the largest responsibility of the Legislature is its control over the $132,000 student budget. In addition, the Legislature is the supervisory body for its own subsidiary organizations; it controls various campus activities and functions; it has the power to change the procedures and structures in our honor system; it approves all appointments made by the President of the Student Body; and it has the power to impeach and remove from office any elected official.

The Legislature is composed of fifty students elected from thirteen campus districts. The Vice-President of the Student Body presides over the Legislature as speaker. All other officers are elected by the legislators.

Most legislators are elected with partisan endorsements; and as a result, the Legislature is an important body of well-balanced opinion, debate, and action.

The Women's Honor Council is composed of nine members elected from the three judicial districts by all the districts' residents. The function of the Council is to try violators of the Honor Code. The Attorney General's staff investigates the cases. If the defendant is declared guilty, the Council imposes a penalty on her that is designed to help her. The Council carefully considers its responsibility to the individual and to the University, as it weighs justice with mercy before determining a penalty.

The Women's Council is comprised of the members of the Honor Council, plus five representatives elected from Women's Residence Council. This Council tries violations of the Campus Code and infractions of the major social rules.

The students at the University of North Carolina are striving to improve academically. Coupled with this academic growth, however, is the aim of developing the highest type of character and integrity. Each student is entrusted by the University with the duty of assuming the responsibilities of the college community. A student government gives extra impetus to the student to accept his duties because his peers express their approval or their disapproval of his actions.

MEN'S HONOR COUNCIL

Beginning with orientation and continuing throughout the school year, the Men's Honor Council tried to further the ideals of personal honor and integrity among all students. The Council has original jurisdiction in all instances of violation of our Honor Code by men students. Because of the growth of the University, the Council worked with innovations that increased the representation of those who were involved in trying the cases of Honor Code violators. The random selection of juries and the election of Council members by districts were two such innovations. The Council tried to create an atmosphere of trust throughout the student body, and as well, the Council strove to display to the faculty and administration that the discipline of students is best handled by their fellow students.

Chairman

The Student Council is the University's supreme judicial power. It is vested by the Student Constitution with the authority to try cases arising from constitutional procedures, from executive or legislative action, and from Campus Code violations. This court also hears appeals concerning the election law and the various lower student judicial bodies.

The Student Council is responsible for upholding the traditions and reputation of Student Government at UNC and maintaining the high standards of conduct set forth in the Campus Code.

The 1960-61 Council was an active group, hearing cases in every sphere of its responsibility. In Campus Code cases important precedents were established, while other precedents of long standing were found applicable and were strengthened by the Council. In the other two areas of its original jurisdiction, the Council rendered interpretive rulings of particular importance.

In all its actions the Council attempted to make the Carolina students more conscious of their obligations under the Campus Code and sought to promote responsible student conduct at all times.

CONSOLIDATED UNIVERSITY STUDENT COUNCIL

The Consolidated University Student Council is composed of student leaders from each of the three branches of the Consolidated University — Woman's College, North Carolina State, and the University at Chapel Hill. The Council acts as a liaison group, discussing mutual problems and promoting understanding and cooperation among the three schools.

In addition to their participation in social activities, the Council promoted several projects. They made a detailed comparative study of the faculty salaries of the Greater University and worked with groups on each of the three campuses to have them raised. The Council also sponsored a student European summer tour program.

THE COMMITTEE ON ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

The Committee on Academic Affairs was established in the spring of 1959 as an executive appointed committee. Dealing generally with student participation in academic policy-making and specifically with any problem within this area which the Committee feels should be investigated, the Committee bases its action on the premise that the student voice is indispensable to a vigorous academic community. Membership varies according to interest and Committee needs, and members are held responsible for the completion of individual projects.

The Committee studied and reported on admissions policies, faculty salaries and the reading course offered by the Testing Service. Pamphlets, urging students in incentive courses, and brochures, requesting support for the passage of a bond issue, were distributed.

Seated: Ann Maxwell, Jo-Ann Sory, Terry Jackson, Wally Sayner, Phil Sowers, Ed Mendenhall. Standing: Jim Scott, Carroll Gray, Curtis Able, Al Rich, Ben Lenhardt.

HONOR SYSTEM COMMISSION

AL POLLARD
Chairman

The Honor System Commission has planned a vital program for the year 1960-61. Its main objective is to preserve and strengthen the Honor System at Carolina. The Honor System has been the subject of much debate in the past few years, and it is this Commission's job to improve the system as much as possible and to see that it is kept intact.

This year the Commission is in charge of choosing a jury at random from the student body for all Honor Council trials. To serve on a jury is, indeed, one of the most important and vital roles a student can play in preserving his Honor System.

Through the combined efforts of WUNC-TV, the Honor Council, and the Student Legislature, the Commission is to produce a movie on the Honor System and its workings. This movie will be invaluable in the future to incoming students to instill in them the meaning of the Honor System, and the way it must work.

Mock trials, discussions in the dorms, and surveys on what both the students and faculty think of the Honor System are all a part of this year's program.

With the help of the student body, the faculty, and the student government, the Honor System Commission hopes to provide the University of North Carolina with a better and smoother running Honor System than it has ever had before.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S STAFF

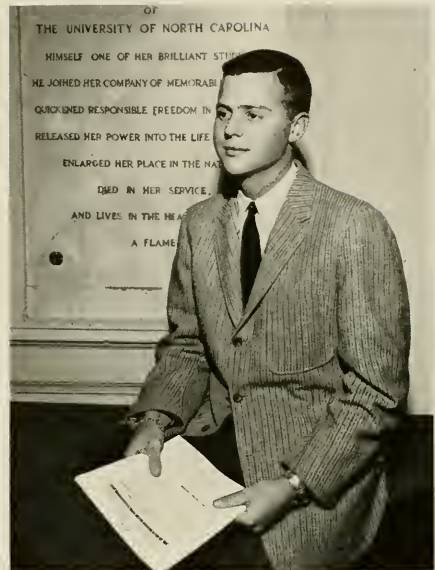

The Attorney General's Staff is charged, under the student constitution, with the responsibility of investigation and presentation of all cases tried by the Men's Honor Council, Women's Honor Council, and the Student Council.

In addition, the Attorney General as a member of the President's Cabinet, gives opinions and advice to the Executive Branch of Student Government.

This year's staff, headed by Bob Baynes and assistants Bill Stepp, Tim Burnett, and Tony Harrington, changed many of the traditional procedures and policies in an attempt to meet the demands of an increasingly complex Honor System.

Codification of the laws enacted by the legislature was given special attention, along with standardized procedures and better inter-staff communications. For the first time, new staff members are undergoing formal training.

All this is in the way of strengthening the Honor System at Carolina by increasing efficiency and effectiveness at every level.

BOB BAYNES
Attorney General

Seated: Tim Burnett, Bob Baynes, Tony Harrington, Bill Stepp. Standing: Dan Robbins, Walker Stevens, Joe Bell, Tom Cannon, Al Cronenberg, Fred Dashiell, Mike Sprinkel, Earl Trotter.

STATE STUDENT LEGISLATURE

This year marked the twenty-fourth session of the North Carolina State Student Legislature in the Capitol Building in Raleigh. The UNC delegation, composed of fourteen delegates and seven alternates, was chosen in October. The group met in the subsequent month to draw up its bill, which was introduced when the assembly met in December.

State Student Legislature is designed to give the students of North Carolina an opportunity to discuss and voice an opinion on areas of concern in state, national, and international politics. Every college and university in the state is invited to attend.

The State Student Legislature not only gives students an opportunity to voice an opinion on major issues, but it further serves to train them in legislative procedures and processes.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The University of North Carolina was instrumental in the founding of the United States National Student Association a little over a decade ago and has since played an active and vital role. The Association is a confederation of student bodies of three hundred and eighty American colleges and universities represented through their democratically elected student governments.

It is the responsibility of the National Student Association Coordinator and Campus Committee to administer the NSA program at Carolina and to assist in the planning and the execution of various interscholastic activities in the Carolinas-Virginia Region of the Association. This year the Committee was responsible for the recent Carolinas-Virginia Region's International Student Relations Seminar and was instrumental in bringing about the North Carolina Human Relations Conference sponsored by Student Government last winter.

CHAPEL HILL CLUB

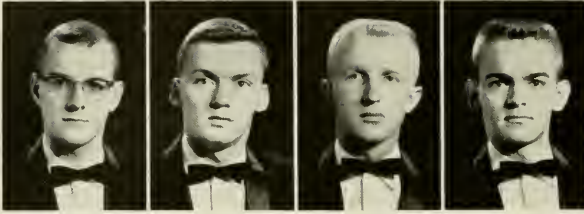

The Chapel Hill Club, composed of coeds living off campus, was formed to promote campus solidarity between its members and the remainder of the student body. This end was accomplished, in part, by sponsoring a Thanksgiving Dance with Graham Memorial. Other activities of the club included publication of a newsletter, formation of a bowling team, and provision for a needy family at Christmas. In addition, a tea honoring Dean Carmichael was slated for the year.

BUDGET COMMITTEE

The Budget Committee examines the anticipated expenditures of various campus organizations and formulates a complete Student Government budget which is then presented to Student Legislature for final approval. After legislative approval, the Budget Committee is responsible for keeping a check on the organizations to see that they don't overspend or misuse their appropriations. The committee may request the President of an organization to explain any expenditures that are ambiguous, and if necessary can freeze the organization's funds. The Student Government budget for the fiscal year 1960-61 was $132,000.

BUDGET COMMITTEE — First Row: John Fry, Jimmy Smalley, Swag Grimsley. Second Row: J. R. Brown, Tony Harrington, Dick Hendrickson, Rex Welton, Warner Bass.

DANCE COMMITTEE

The University Dance Committee members, distinguished by their blue and white rosettes, act traditionally as hosts for Carolina's dances and social functions. The dances held this year were all exceptional. Credit is due not only to the committee's diligent work, but also to the time, effort and advice of Ray Jeffries and the sponsoring organizations.

WUNC DEPARTMENT HEADS

WUNC is a service organization of the University, another voice which helps Chapel Hill become the heart and conscience of North Carolina. The operating staff under the capable management of Chuck Couch, is composed of University students who devote their time and energy entirely voluntarily.

The variety of programs was expanded and remote broadcasts were increased for special concerts this year. In addition, the staff worked on several dramatic productions of their own. All together this was one of the best years in WUNC's history.

A program in progress.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club

The Monogram Club is an honorary organization for the athletes on the Carolina campus who have obtained enough promise in their individual sport or sports to merit their earning a varsity letter. Once an athlete has won one letter, he has the privilege of becoming an active member of the Monogram Club. These are the men who have earned recognition due to their extra effort and work.

GOLF

The Tarheel golfers gave Carolina its third ACC title in spring sports by winning the ACC tournament held at Duke University. The golfers won 11 of 12 matches before winning the ACC title. Their only defeat was at the hands of powerful University of Georgia at Athens. Heading the talented Tarheels was junior Pete Green who went undefeated in 13 matches while being medalist or co-medalist eight times. Senior Ed Justa often played in the number one position and won eleven and lost two throughout the campaign. Justa was named to the second NCAA All-America team. The linksmen will have to replace Bob Galloway, Hugh Goodman, and Charlie Furman as they attempt to defend their title. The three were lost by graduation, and their score cards will be missed during the 1961 campaign. In conclusion the 1961 season should again prove to be very successful for Tarheel golfers.

It was a year of innovation for the Daily Tar Heel. With J. Y. at the helm and Wayne and M.S.B. close behind, the DTH sported a New Look (in accordance with Kennedy's New Frontier): new press, new type face, new format, new wire service and color.

J. Y. supported JFK, Farris and Hickey; Wayne supported the editor; Henry filled the paper with GM news; Lloyd initiated the "Don't Quote Me" series; Rip and Harry battled with the ad department for space; Susan frolicked "On the Hill" and elsewhere; Margaret Ann slid around the office; M.S.B. saw more movies than ever before; Ira entertained in the darkroom; and Harve hobnobbed with Terry, Luther, Addison and friends.

Despite Republican gripes, ad-filled pages, editor's Infirmary stay, lack of reporters, ancient typewriters and a once-broken press, the irrepresible DTH came out, meeting deadlines and by-lines. And the paper survived its 68th year of publication.

The Tarheels opened the season in Gainesville, Florida against the Gators of the University of Florida. The Heels were massacred 0-19 and the season that had held such high promise looked like it might be a long one. Carolina pulled together and worked to an 8-2 record as they entered into ACC competition. The Tarheels were jolted by Wake Forest, Maryland, and Clemson in succession and again the season looked bleak. After this miserable start the baseballers thundered to eleven straight wins and the ACC title during which Wayne Young was uncanny on the mound and outfielders Tommy Saintsing, Johnny Burgwyn, and Gerald Griffin led a fantastic defense which led the ACC in fielding. The final win over Duke's Blue Devils was a heartstopping finish to a truly cinderella ACC campaign. The Tarheels represented the conference in the NCAA District 3 playoffs and swept to three straight wins only to be eliminated in two straight games in the College World Series at Omaha, Nebraska. Under the superb coaching of Walter Rabb the Tarheels had a truly great year with a 22-7 record.

CAPTAIN BEN KEYS AND COACH DON SKAKLE

MARSHALL HAPPER

WALTER LOCKETT

Carolina's tennis team swept to the ACC title last spring while winning 14 matches and losing only to powerful Harvard and Williams. The Tarheels traveled to Washington early in the season to participate in the Cherry Blossom Tournament and swept to victories over Georgetown, Wisconsin and George Washington to win first place in the tournament. The Tarheels so completely dominated ACC play that they had only one close match, that being a 5-4 win over runnerup Duke University. The number one and two positions on the team were well-manned with senior Ben Keys and outstanding junior Bruce Sylvia. Sylvia won the ACC singles championship and then teamed with Keys to take the doubles title. The 1961 tennis team should be another championship one for Carolina with Sylvia and several young sophomores for Coach Don Skakle to choose from.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

This year represents the 81st year of medical education at the University and the eighth year that the M.D. is being offered by the University at Chapel Hill.

In addition to offering the four years of undergraduate medical education, the faculty and staff have given instruction to students in the Graduate School and all of the professional schools in the Division of Health Affairs. They also direct the training of interns and resident physicians at the Memorial Hospital and offer postgraduate medical courses throughout the state.

School of Dentistry

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

The graduates in dentistry, dental hygiene, and in the several graduate school programs have permitted a range of professional service to the people of this state and nation which has attracted the most favorable attention.

Again, the faculty and the dean are proud to present the class of 1961, wherein the individual members are assured a place of leadership at various professional and community levels.

One of the continuing obligations of the faculty in the clinical and basic science areas is the extension of the frontiers of knowledge, and, thereby, provide a greater health service to people everywhere. The expanded research interests in all areas is a positive expression that the faculty and graduate students have addressed themselves to this important mission.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The University of North Carolina School of Nursing was established in 1951 as an autonomous unit within the University and the Division of Health Affairs. A four-year program was designed to prepare nurses for beginning positions in the profession. In 1955, full accreditation (including that for public health nursing preparation) was granted by the accrediting service of the National League for Nursing.

Currently, the School offers programs on several levels. High school graduates are admitted to the four-year curriculum leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Registered professional nurses are enrolled as general nursing students with advanced credit toward the baccalaureate degree in nursing.

Students with a B.S.N. degree from the University of North Carolina, or a degree comparable to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing granted by the University may enter the graduate program leading to the degree of Master of Science in Nursing, with a major in Psychiatric Nursing, Nursing Administration, or Medical-Surgical Nursing. Other indications of progress are expanding developments in nursing research and in the continuation education program.

PHARMACY SENATE OFFICERS — Seated: Larry Lazarus, Recorder; Sam Goodwin, President; Barbara Bell, Secretary-Treasurer. Standing: Mack Jones, Reporter; David Kever, Parliamentarian.

PHARMACY SENATE

The Pharmacy Senate was founded at UNC in 1940, in order to stimulate and increase knowledge and appreciation for the profession of Pharmacy, to promote interclass co-operation within the school and to teach public speaking as a foundation for future leadership.

Meeting once a month, the body discusses new drugs, new pharmaceutical processes, and various problems facing the profession today, thus giving each member a chance to develop a better attitude toward the various situations, so that a more intelligent approach may be used in the future when faced with such problems of his own.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

After sixty-three years of pharmaceutical education at Carolina, a new five year program of study was initiated which replaced the old curriculum. The Pharmacy School building, which is located on Medical Hill and is in its second year of use, has proven an inspiration to students.

In the modern atmosphere of the Pharmacy building the spirit and activity of Kappa Epsilon improved and they began to circulate while Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Chi indoctrinated promising pledge classes to fill in the gap of the graduating students. Rho Chi enlarged their distinguished group with new members and the senate proved quite able and strong in its decisions — the Pharmacy Leaders surged ahead.

Although this has been a good year, we remain sad over the death of one of the School's most outstanding professors. Dr. Sigurdur Jonsson. He will long be remembered by faculty and students for his outstanding contribution to the world of Pharmaceutical Research and his understanding attitude toward the students. WE DEDICATE THIS PAGE IN MEMORY OF DR. SIGURDUR JONSSON.

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Students in the UNC School of Public Health are justifiably proud of the regional, national, and international recognition of their school.

Due to the influence of the dean, Dr. E. G. McGavran, and the faculty, the School of Public Health is a leader in the advancement of the theory of community-centered public health. As such, it is probably the most cosmopolitan division of the University in that students are attracted from all parts of the nation and the world.

The final goal of instruction is the inter-disciplinary public health team, skilled in working together for the solution of community health problems with the long-term goal of total community health.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

For more than a century, the University of North Carolina has offered instruction beyond the Bachelor's degree. A Master's degree in course was awarded as early as 1856, and the first degree of Doctor of Philosophy was conferred in 1883. In 1922, the University was invited to join the Association of American Universities, an organization of the principal institutions offering graduate work in North America.

On these pages are some of today's aspirants for graduate degrees which may be earned in more than fifty curricula, including most departments in the arts and sciences and many areas of professional training. The University's graduate students regularly come from more than forty states and over twenty foreign countries, comprising a stimulating fellowship in the quest for learning.
