NATIONS' DISCUSSION AT GENOA TO BE CONTINUED

Expect 2,500 Votes on Loan and Sunday Closing Plebiscite

Mayor Refuses to Vote on Closed Sunday Referendum; Anti-Blue Sunday League Confident of Overwhelming Majority Against Police Board Regulations; Result of Bridge Vote Causes Aldermen Anxiety.

Less than three thousand Victoria electors were expected at noon to vote to-day on the new Johnson Street Bridge Loan By-law and the unofficial Sunday closing plebiscite.

Voters arrived at the polls this morning in a slow but steady stream, most of them voting both on the plebiscite and the by-law.

Mayor William Marchant, accompanied by Mrs. Marchant, reached the polls before ten o'clock to vote in favor of the by-law.

"I think it would be most unwise for me to vote on the plebiscite," said the Mayor. "I came simply to vote in favor of the bridge by-law, which I hope will be carried by a large majority."

Anti-Blues Confident. Heads of the Anti-Blue Sunday League who directed the Sunday closing plebiscite were confident that the total vote would reach 2,500 and that the plebiscite would go overwhelmingly against the Police Board's present Sunday regulations.

Many electors who are not rate-payers and who, therefore, cannot vote on the bridge by-law, are voting on the plebiscite.

Herbert Kent, president of the Anti-Blue Sunday League, declared this morning, "We have no doubt as to the outcome of the plebiscite. If the forces opposed to us do not wish to vote then that is their fault. It seems extraordinary, however, if their leaders have such confidence."

One-acre farms for working men. Minister of Agriculture visits Burnaby Area. Plan includes clearing of the land.

Vancouver, May 11.—One-acre farms for working men are a probability as a measure of unemployment relief.

Following his tour to-day with Mayor Tisdall and Alderman R. P. Pettipiece, Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, expressed himself as being very favorably impressed with the possibilities of opening land in Burnaby to working men, in order to provide employment at land clearing and to give unemployed persons an opportunity to settle on the property and be, to a certain extent, self-supporting.

Mr. Barrow promised there would be an executive meeting on his return to Victoria to consider the matter.

"He agreed that the clearing of the land should start immediately, the most feasible plan being to let the work on contracts and specify that the contractors hire white men in need of employment, giving preference to married men."

Members of the Burnaby Council who accompanied the party stated that there was a great deal of land available in the municipality for such a purpose. They convinced the Minister of Agriculture that the soil is rich and deep and conditions in every respect favorable to the plan.

COUNTY COURT COSTS ARE FIXED No Provision for Sliding Scale in Witness Fees, Rules Court In County Court Chambers this morning His Honor Judge Lampman ruled that the decision of the registrar, that the scale of witness fees in the County Court remained fixed, as set prior to October, 1920, namely, at $2 per witness. C. H. O'Halloran appeared for the defendant who had paid $3.50 into the court, and been allowed only $2 of this by a decision of the registrar. R. C. Lowe, for the defendant, held that the registrar was right in his finding, and that the scale of witness fees was not a sliding one, and did not change with the tariff of costs on the Supreme Court. In October, 1920, the Supreme Court tariff raised witness fees from $2 to $3.50 a day. His Honor Judge Lampman ruled that there was no change in the County Court tariff, and that the framers of the Act had made no provision for any sliding scale, and where reference was made to the Supreme Court tariff, it must be taken as referring to that tariff at the time of reference.

Games and refreshments made up the pleasant programme of a very successful evening.

BRITISH SAY RUSSIAN REPLY MERELY STUPID Genoa, May 12.—A statement of the British view on the Russian reply to the memorandum of the Allies, issued at 10 o'clock this afternoon, terms the document "merely stupid" from the viewpoint of Russian interests, but says Great Britain is not prepared to adopt the view that Europe is to be divided into the Russian and the British spheres of influence.

HIS REWARD The other day a civic dignitary presiding at the local school giving, and took the opportunity of preaching a sort of Samuel Smiles' sermon to the scholars, with his words, "Many years ago," he said, "I was only like one of yourselves—a poor, ignorant little boy. Now, by hard work and perseverance, what have I become?" Like Marc Antony, he paused for a reply.

CAPT. S. W. BUCKNAM DIES IN PORTLAND Was Former Pilot Here; Identified With Beaver

Vancouver, May 12.—Death came on Thursday to a pioneer mariner and pilot of the coast when Captain S. W. Bucknam passed away quietly at Portland after a prolonged illness. Sixty years ago he first went to sea, and followed it steadily from that time until he retired from active service and removed to Portland to spend his declining years. Previous to that he resided in Victoria. The Victoria "Dredge" and the old "Beaver" were at one time under his charge. Then he joined the Pilotage Service and for twenty years acted in that capacity from Victoria. During the war he was master of the "Widgeon" and handled the traffic to and from James Bay. His wife and seven children survive.

STATED ADAMSON APPOINTED JUDGE Minister of Justice Answered Question About Manitoba Court Ottawa, May 12.—"Is it a fact that J. E. Adamson of Winnipeg has been appointed a judge of the Court of King's Bench for Manitoba?" asked Right Hon. Arthur Meighen of Sir Lomer Gouin, Minister of Justice, in the House yesterday afternoon. An expectant House waited for a few moments and then Sir Lomer, when the question was repeated, got up and slowly replied, "Yes, it is a fact." The House smiled.

RAILWAY CONTRACTS UNDER DISCUSSION Commons Deal With Orders Given During Meighen Administration Ottawa, May 12.—Charges that the Meighen Government let contracts for rails, accessories and tools to equipment on October 6, 1921, two months before the general election, were considered by the House yesterday afternoon. The contracts were let to the Meighen Government, and the House last night by George Bolvin, Liberal member for Shefford and former Deputy Speaker. On an item of $735,000 to provide for expenditure for rails, accessories and repairs to equipment on Government railways to December 31, 1921, Hon. W. C. Kennedey explained that this money was required for payment of contracts let on October 6, 1921, for the purpose of helping to relieve the unemployment situation.

RUSSIA'S REPLY DOES NOT END CONFERENCE; STATE THE ITALIANS Genoa, May 12.—The fate of the Genoa Conference may be settled to-day in Paris, in the opinion of many of the delegates, and the decision of Premier Poincare on the Russian reply to the memorandum of the Allies was awaited here with anxiety. Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and Signor Schanzer, Italian Foreign Minister, have used their influence with the chief of the French delegation, M. Barthou, to impress on him that the Russian note, although not so favorable as was hoped, still leaves the door open for discussion, and perhaps for general agreement. They urged him to reflect this opinion in his dispatches to the French Premier. It is believed that if left to themselves, the majority of the powers will favor continuance of the discussion, but if France withdraws from the conference, the certain of the other powers will follow her.

TRANS-ATLANTIC AIRMEN SAVED Pernambuco, Brazil, May 12.—The Portuguese trans-Atlantic aviators, Captains Coutinho and Escudora, are safe aboard the British steamship Paris City, says a wireless message from the Portuguese cruiser Republican. The fliers, who had not been heard from since they left the island of Fernando Noronha at 2.50 o'clock yesterday morning, were picked up by the Paris City at 2.45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. "News of the rescue was received with great rejoicing in the Portuguese colony here, where it had been feared the airmen were dead."

OBSEVE GROWTH OF UNIVERSITY (The University of British Columbia) have done in seven. "Although I am an old man, I hope to see this university one of the most successful institutions in North America." President L. S. Killick introduced Sir Robert Falconer, who gave the convocation address. "I bring greetings from the University of Toronto to you on this great day in the history of your institution," he began. "Universities in Canada are building up a common national life and a common academic world. You are one of the newest outposts of an ancient and royal commonwealth of universities; you are members of one of the great institutions of Western civilization. Falconer Spoke. Sir Robert Falconer, President of the University of Toronto, delivering the Convocation address, said: "We must keep pace with the United States if we are to have respect. They are one of the most wonderful nations in the world with regard to education, but our children must not be debtors to them for higher education. "It is the duty of the university to create new standards of taste in this community and this institution cannot fail to raise the present standards. "You have the third largest faculty of arts among the universities of Canada. You are a great university already and you are ready to go forward."

BRANDS SEMENOFF UNCOUTH EGOTIST arrange for the exchange of prisoners. Terstskaya told her benefactors that she was afraid of Semenov, who she claimed, was seeking her, and vowed that she would far rather be taken by the Reds than Semenov. The girl was in a frantic state, so Atkinson and Pickersgill decided to travel on the train. When Semenov officers boarded the train Terstskaya was concealed beneath one of the hospital cots, and thus escaped capture. Later on the girl was missing, and it was thought that she had fled to escape Semenov. At Manchoff. The next they saw of Terstskaya was at Manchoff, 50 miles distant from Chita, and on the Trans-Baikal Railway. Military bands were playing martial music for the arrival of General Semenov, and it was then that Semenov raised his hat. The British and other officers at the station noticed this and saluted. Semenov turned angrily away and it was then that the surprised Pickersgill recognized the missing Terstskaya.

LEAGUE COUNCIL MAY DISCUSS OIL

Question May Come Up in Connection With Palestine French Are Quoting San Remo Agreement

Geneva, May 11.—The American Government's consent to the British mandate for Palestine was the chief subject for discussion at the opening session of the Council of the League of Nations to-day. The Earl of Balfour, in the name of Great Britain, requested that the question of any proposal of the British mandate be placed on the agenda, but the French, Spanish, Italian and Brazilian delegates asked time in which to seek advice from their Foreign Offices on the question.

Lord Balfour explained that the United States had cordially agreed to the British mandate, making only one condition—that should the British ever give up the mandate, American rights in Palestine should be the same as those accorded her by Turkey before the war.

The possibility of the international situation being discussed in connection with the Palestine mandate is foreseen with the reported decision of France to invoke the San Remo oil agreement, in which Great Britain and France agreed not to negotiate any separate oil compacts in Palestine and Mesopotamia. France, it is reported, holds that Great Britain has not lived up to the exact letter of this agreement.

It became known to-day that the Vatican is taking a deep interest in the Palestine mandate, and would like to have the rights of religious places of worship kept entirely under Christian control.

LIQUOR APPEAL OF B. C. HEARD BY SUPREME COURT

Ottawa, May 12.—Arguments were heard in the Supreme Court of Canada yesterday in British Columbia's appeal from an Exchequer Court judgment dissolving that Province's action, which was brought against the Federal Government's right to impose customs duties on liquor imported into the Province for resale under the Government Liquor Act.

The British Columbia Government contends that, under the British North America Act, any Province should be at liberty to procure spirits, etc. for the purpose of sale without payment of customs duties. Section 124 provides that "no lands or property belonging to Canada or any Province shall be liable for taxation," and it is contended by the British Columbia Government that "taxation" comprises customs duties and that "property" covers removable property.

BRITAIN'S TRADE GRADUALLY IMPROVES, SAYS MINISTER

London, May 12.—Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin, President of the Board of Trade, in introducing his estimates in the House yesterday, reviewed world trade, and said there was nothing in the condition of the Dominions, the United States, Holland, Scandinavia or Spain to prevent them from buying largely again. He referred to apprehension increase in tariffs especially in France, Italy, Spain and the United States, but was confident that Great Britain would hold its own in trade with the Dominions, owing to the generous preference.

A further disquieting feature, Mr. Baldwin said, was the attempted discrimination in certain maritime countries against British shipping. He hoped the Motherland and the Dominions would confer with regard to this matter before it was too late.

"Our productive power is greater than ever, while London remains the world's financial centre," said Mr. Baldwin.

He quoted the percentages of exports since 1913, showing that Great Britain is slowly climbing out of the appalling pit into which she fell in the collapse of the post-war boom, and giving real hope that the country is on the eve of better times.

Mr. Baldwin predicted that trade would continue its slow, gradual improvement, but it was necessary, he said, that all classes should co-operate in production.

WOMAN'S WORK NEVER DONE

It Seems So in Many Cases and Good Health is Always Necessary

Viscount, Saskatchewan.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness of the female organs. I had pains in the back and bearing-down pains in the abdomen and was in a general run-down condition. I could not sleep, rest or work and was quite unfit to do even slight household tasks. A friend told me about your Vegetable Compound and I in my turn truly recommend it, as my severe symptoms vanished and I am better in every way. I do my own work, look after my children and see to chickens, cow and my garden. I also recommend it for young girls who are weak and run down as my 16-year-old daughter has taken it and is quite her own gay self again."—Mrs. FARM, WILEY, Viscount, Saskatchewan.

I Live On A Farm

Upper New Horton, N. B.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and they have done me a world of good. Since then I have been able to do my housework and I have a lot of work to do as I live on a farm. Seeing your advertisement in the papers was what made me think of writing to you. I hope this will help someone else."—Mrs. Wm. B. KEVIER, Upper New Horton, New Brunswick.

COUNSEL IN BANK CASE ARE HEARD

Arguments at Macarow Hearing in Montreal

Ruling by the Judge Ten Days Hence

Montreal, May 12.—The claim of N. K. Lafamme, K. C., counsel for the defence, that the Merchants' Bank had been wrecked because of the opinion of one expert, H. B. MacKenzie to the effect that the rest fund had been depleted by $8,000,000, had been accepted, was made yesterday in the enquete court here in the case against D. C. Macarow, who was general manager of the Merchants' Bank, and who is charged with having wilfully signed a false return to the government for the month of October, 1921.

On the other hand, Mr. Lafamme said the opinion of George Edwards, an expert engaged by the Minister of Finance was that there should have been written off an amount of only $1,300,000. Had they had Mr. Edwards' opinion the bank might not have been wrecked, he said.

The defence did not conclude its case, and adjournment was made.

The case of Sir M. Aitken, who was President of the Merchants' Bank, was adjourned for a day, with the understanding that it would again be adjourned until the judge had given judgment in the Macarow case. Judge Cusson intimated that this decision would be made in at least ten days after the completion of the argument.

Letter of Law.

C. A. Wilson, K. C., counsel for the Government in his argument yesterday afternoon, insisted on the letter of the law as contained in various clauses in the Bank Act, maintaining that the legal interpretation meant there should be a committal.

Mr. Wilson stated that the true state of the bank had to be reported every month. The defence seemed to say that if a bank made a loss of several millions, it had no need to inform the Minister until the end of the financial year. That would make the monthly return a matter of routine.

Having mentioned that it was not his business to discuss the wisdom of the management of the bank in attempting to recoup themselves for losses, but merely what should have been reported on, Mr. Wilson insisted the bank knew its plight was going from bad to worse. It had to get out of the hole. It would not have looked well to have mortgaged the premises; so the Merchants' Realty Company, a subsidiary, was incorporated. Some eighty-nine properties were transferred to it for $2,000,000 of stock. Subsequently Mr. Macarow decided to raise more by placing a mortgage of $4,000,000 against the eighty-nine properties. A bond issue of $4,000,000 was floated which raised $3,950,000 to the bank.

While the bank held the $2,000,000 of common stock in the Merchants' Realty Company, it could not be said to have owned the premises, as mortgages of nearly $4,000,000 were held by the public in the shape of bonds. Yet the bank's return had shown bank premises at $4,250,000.

Still later, an additional $1,200,000 was raised by the bank by the sale of additional premises to the Realty subsidiary, he said.

Not Defended.

The fact that the Mackenzie report had shown premises at $6,000,000 did not have any bearing on the prosecution's case, as the latter did not seek to defend the Mackenzie report. Mr. Wilson said it was no excuse for the accused to plead that the bank had 845 branches and the reports from each for the monthly return could not be promptly handled. It was the duty of the bank to see it sufficient staff to enable it to comply with the requirements of the law. The Bank Act provided that reports on any particular month arriving too late for inclusion in the Government return could be held for the following month.

Mr. Lafamme, on behalf of Mr. Macarow, had asked why the Minister of Finance had taken no action from October 1921, till March, 1922. It appeared to him that the Minister had assumed the return was correct and believed he was dealing with law-abiding people; it was not until, as a result of the investigation by Mr. Mackenzie, the rest fund of the bank was reduced by the trifling

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.

It is not often that a Government succeeds in pleasing practically everybody in making an appointment to public office. There have been some remarkable exceptions in days gone by; but as a general rule political considerations or special favors of some kind are trotted out in order to record a measure of hostility to the course followed.

To the harmonious chorus of congratulation which has already reached the eyes and ears of the newly-appointed official we take pleasure in adding a warm note of our own. From our knowledge of Mr. McDonald we are satisfied that the appointment is an excellent one under every head.

RUSSIA'S REPLY.

Russia's reply has been drafted for consumption by a vaster audience than that which is gathered at Genoa. Its terms were required to act as balm to the restless at home and the expectant abroad.

The British statement describes the reply as "very stupid" from the point of view of Russian interests; but Great Britain will take the position that the peace of Europe and further consideration for the Russian people are of sufficient moment to override any technical objection to the terms employed in the document.

On the other hand the reply has emphasized the need of harmonizing the varied sentiments which are striving for dominance in the Conference itself. With France and Belgium allied against Great Britain the case of Russia would have to be left in abeyance.

NORTHCLIFFE'S BUNCOMBE

If Lord Northcliffe had spent any length of time in the Prairie Provinces during his tour of this country last year he would have discovered that the cattle embargo is not the absorbing topic which his latest "alarm" would seem to suggest.

market—is a great deal more concerned about the high tariff which virtually closes the American field to his enterprise. He might have heard a few suggestions to the effect that the British market for Prairie cattle is, after all, only a moderately good second to that which is so much nearer to him.

Such revival of interest in the embargo as has been apparent in this country of late is largely due to the increase of the American tariff and its disastrous effect upon our stock raising industry.

It will continue to interest Canada as long as both barriers remain. But the newspaper magnate who is so concerned about the effect of the embargo upon the survival of the British Empire may rest content in the assumption that the temporary disadvantage under which the Canadian stockman is compelled to conduct his business with his neighbor across the line is not going to be a permanent one.

THE ALARMIST.

It is a pity that those people who have nothing better to do than publish their fears of another world war cannot be gathered into one fold and instructed in some useful occupation. Practically every other day some fairly well known public man or politician throws himself into a trance and visualizes the marching of armies and the massing of aircraft in preparation for another gigantic struggle.

On the other hand the reply has emphasized the need of harmonizing the varied sentiments which are striving for dominance in the Conference itself. With France and Belgium allied against Great Britain the case of Russia would have to be left in abeyance.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Some time ago a Scotsman who had paid a visit to Canada returned home and brought his wife and family of eleven children back to this country. Just a little more optimism of this kind and a similar demonstration of faith on the part of others who are willing to work and we should soon be able to talk about paying our bills.

fattened, sold at £26, and the Irish at £23 10s. From the farmer's point of view, he laid strong stress on the fact that he could get a better profit from the Canadian stores than he could from the Irish.

In the midst of the suggestion of war and world chaos one finds comfort in expressions of confidence of trade revival. The British Chancellor of the Exchequer seems to be fairly well satisfied with the condition of his Department and is no less hopeful for the future.

One dispatch from Genoa today indicates that the fate of the Conference may be settled in Paris within the next few hours. It suggests that if Premier Poincare and his Government authorize the discontinuance of French participation as a result of the Russian reply other powers will adopt a similar attitude.

To the Editor:—There is an impression abroad in Ward Seven that the Saanich Council purposes to cancel its agreement with the City of Victoria regarding the sewer by-law.

so-called agreement) the Municipality of Saanich had to make large payments to the City of Victoria within the corporation of the City of Victoria, to connect with Victoria sewer system. That is required in the Saanich area affected will decline the question of the outlying wards have the right to swamp the inner wards and force us to build the sewers when they are not in a position to pay for cost of installation.

There was no contract signed between Saanich and Victoria when this sewer proposition was first mooted. What kind of an agreement was it that would put a liability on his friend for half a hundred thousand dollars without his sanction or knowledge?

—I think under these extraordinary circumstances they are warranted in assuming that our municipality should pay this bill. Providing that the Saanich Council should pay under this so-called gentleman's agreement, then I say their decision and verdict should stand and Saanich pay the bill in accordance with the law passed by the 1920 Saanich Council.

Wash it with Lux

Do not trust your sweater to the family washing—and it is not necessary to send it out to be "cleaned". Dip in the rich, creamy lather made by the wonderful LUX flakes. Do not rub or twist. LUX will do all the cleaning. Now rinse three times in water of the same temperature—squeeze the water out and dry in the sun. It is as easy as washing your hands.

Your sweater will look like new, and will have that soft, "comfy," fluffy feeling that it had when you first bought or made it.

The thin, wafer-like flakes of Lux, made by our own exclusive process, dissolve instantly, so thoroughly that no particle of solid soap remains to rot or discolour the wool. LUX will not harm anything that pure water itself may touch.

Lux stands supreme—Sold only in sealed packages—dust-proof!

ALICE ADAMS

BY BOOTH TARKINGTON
INSTALLMENT NO. 12

"Get her out!" Adams said, harshly; then cried, "Wait!"
He stretched out his arm and pointed at her. "She says—she says you have a mean life, Alice."
"No, papa."
He came toward her. "Look at me!" he said. "Things like this dance now—is that so hard to bear?"
Alice tried to say, "No, papa," again, but she couldn't. In spite of herself she began to cry.
"Do you hear her?" his wife sobbed. "Now do you—"
He waved at them fiercely. "Get out of here!" he said. "Both of you! Get out of here!"
He dropped in his chair and bent far forward, so that his haggard face was concealed from them. As Alice closed the door, he began to rub his knees again, muttering, "Oh, my, my! Oh, my, my!"

There shone a jovial sun overhead on the appointed "day after tomorrow."
"You look so happy it's easy to see your father's taken a good turn," Arthur Russell told Alice.
"Yes; he has this afternoon, at least," she said.
"About that dance at Miss Lamb's—since your father's so much better—" Alice shook her head. "He won't be better to-morrow. He always has a bad day after a good one."

"But if this time it should be different," Russell persisted. "Why not wait and decide at the last minute?"
"There's another reason besides, papa," she said. "The truth is, I don't get on with Henrietta Lamb. As a matter of fact, I dislike her, and of course that means she dislikes me."
"This was a new inspiration; and Alice wished that she had thought of it earlier. "It wouldn't be very nice for me to go to her house," she went on, "when I wouldn't want her in mine—I've never been a friend of Henrietta Lamb's, and I almost wish she weren't taking such pains to be a friend of yours."
"Oh, but she's not. It's all on account of—"
"On Mildred's account," Alice finished this for him, coolly. "Yes, of course."
"It's on account of the two families," he was at pains to explain, a little awkwardly. "It's because I'm a relative of the Palmers, and the Palmers and the Lambs seem to be old family friends."
"Something the Adamsons certainly are not," Alice said. "Not with either of 'em; particularly not with the Lambs! You see, the differences between Henrietta and me aren't entirely personal. The Lambs and Adamsons don't get on with each other, and we've just about come to the breaking point as it happens."

"I hope it's nothing to bother you," "The break between the Adamsons and the Lambs is a pretty bothersome thing. It's been coming on a long time." She sighed deeply. "I hate it all so!" she added.
"Of course you must."
"I suppose most quarrels between families are on account of business," she said. And with that she began to sketch a history of the commercial antagonism that had risen between the Adamsons and the Lambs.
The sketching was spontaneous and dramatic. Mathematics had no part in it; nor was there accurate definition of Mr. Adam's relation to the institution of Lamb and Company. At all events, he was an old mainstay of the business; and he, as much as any Lamb, had helped to build up the prosperity of the company. But at last he had decided to leave the company and found a business entirely for himself. The Lambs were going to be enraged when they learned what was afoot.
Such was the impression, a little misty, wrought by Alice's quick narrative.
Alice was not serious too long, and she began to laugh as she came to the end of her decorative sketch.
"After all, the whole thing is perfectly ridiculous," she said. "In fact, it's funny! That's on account of what papa's going to throw over the Lamb business for! To save your life you couldn't imagine what he's going to do!"
"I won't try, then," Russell asserted.
"It takes all the romance out of me," she laughed. "You'll never go for a walk with me again, after I tell you what I'll be doing to."
They had come to the entrance of a little park; it was a pretty place, especially on a day so radiant. "I think I'll postpone telling you about it till we get nearly home again," Alice said, as they began to saunter down one of the gravelled paths.
"There's a bench beside a spring farther on; we can sit there and talk about a lot of things—things not so sticky as my dowry's going to be."
"Sticky?" he echoed. "What in the world—"
She laughed despairingly.
"A glue factory!"
Then she remembered to tell him that the project of a glue factory was still "an Adams secret." It would be known soon, however, she added; and the whole Lamb connection would probably begin saying all sorts of things, heaven knew what!
Thus Alice built her walls of flimsy. Everything she said seemed to be necessary to support something else she had said.
They had taken possession of the bench beside the spring by this time; and Russell, his elbow on the back of the bench and his chin on his hand, the better to look at her, had no guess at the cause of the blush, but was content to find it lovely.

They returned by the same ungentle thoroughfare. A series of soot-barred frames, two by two, all carrying the label, "Rooms," had the worried look of vacancy that houses have when they are too full of everybody without being anybody's home.
One of them had across its front an ample, jagged veranda. The four or five young men who lounged there this afternoon were of a type known to shady pool-parlors.
The veranda was within a dozen feet of the sidewalk, and Alice observed that each of these loungers wore, as a habit, a look of furtively amused contempt; the mouth smiled to one side as if not to dislodge a cigarette, but the eyes kept languidly superior. All at once Alice was reminded of Walter. Then Walter himself stepped out of the open door of the house and appeared upon the veranda. In his hand was a Malacca stick with an ivory top, for Alice had finally decided against it for herself and had given it to him. His mood was lively; he twirled the stick through his fingers like a drum-major's baton, and whistled loudly.
With him was a thin girl who had made a violent black-and-white poster of herself; black dress, black flimsy bon, black stockings, white slippers, great black hat frown upon the black eyes; and beneath the hat a curve of cheek and chin made white as whitewash, and in strong bilateral union with gum.
The loungers on the veranda halted with cackling; and one began to sing, in a voice all tin:
"Then my skirt, Sir, and me did go
Eight straight to the moving-pitcher show.
Oh, you bashful vamp!"
The girl laughed airily. "God, but you guys are wise!" she said. "Come on, Wallie."

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

MR. FOX DISCOVERS THE THIEF Part I

Mr. Fox was troubled for he was losing food from his pantry almost as fast as he could get it to place there. He could not watch every minute, for he had to go hunting, and the nights he did watch he had fallen

Up to the pantry window he hiked asleep and the thief had carried off the food and left no trace.
Something had to be done, so Mr. Fox sat down to smoke and think it over. When he set his wits working he usually got a good idea.
After while he got up and put down his pipe. His face was a smile, the one he always wore when he had an idea, for one had come to him—and he was about to carry it out.
He got a hammer and some nails end then a piece of board and a ladder from the cellar and right over his pantry window Mr. Fox began to work.

When he had finished there was a small shelf over the window, and that night after dark Mr. Fox placed on this shelf a pailful of whitewash.
To this pail he fastened a piece of strong twine, which he fastened to the window under the shelf, and with a small piece of wood he cleverly arranged it so that when the window was raised over would go the pail.
The whitewash would, of course, spill over the one who raised the window and this was exactly what Mr. Fox wanted, for if he was not awake the thief would be marked so that he would know him the next day.
When all was arranged Mr. Fox sat down in his rocking-chair by the pantry door to watch and listen, but the chair was too comfortable and he fell asleep, just as he had done before.
By and by Mr. Fox began to snore, and then slowly and carefully from among the trees and shrubs back of Mr. Fox's house came Mr. Billy Possum.
Right up to the pantry window he walked, and standing on tiptoe he softly began to raise the window, thinking of the good things he would find inside the pantry.
But his dreams this time did not come true, for no sooner had he slid the window just a little way open than over went the pail and down came the whitewash kerplash, not only on Billy's head but all over him.
His first thought was to "play dead," but he was too wet to risk that. He thought this might be a flood and if it was this was no time to play his usual trick.
All of this, Billy Possum thought, much quicker than you can read it, and off he ran, leaving behind him a trail of whitewash. But you see he did not know it was white, for he did not look behind him.

Billy Possum did not look anywhere. He just ran for home and jumped into bed and went to sleep, and he was alive.
But when morning came and he opened his eyes he was a very much surprised creature, for he had, as he thought, turned white from fright.
When a woman has nerves, you might as well make up your mind to give her whatever else she wants.

ARABIA MADE GOOD PASSAGE

O. S. K. Ship in Port After Trip of Thirteen Days from Yokohama

Capt. K. Komiya and officers of the O. S. K. liner Arabia Maru are congratulating themselves upon making a faster passage than the N. Y. K. liner Shidzuoka Maru.

According to Capt. Komiya the Arabia Maru sailed from Yokohama three days behind the Shidzuoka Maru and was but twelve hours in her wake in making quarantine. The O. S. K. ship having reached William Head at midnight.

Apart from one day, when the ship encountered heavy rain and adverse winds, the entire passage was completed under the most favorable conditions, stated Capt. Komiya. The trip from Yokohama occupied thirteen and a half days. The liner brought in over two hundred passengers, including 33 first class. Four first class passengers and 89 steerage came ashore at this port following the berthing of the ship at the Rithet Piers.

Big Silk Cargo.

The Arabia Maru carried a total cargo of 3,000 tons of general Oriental merchandise for all Pacific Coast ports. Her raw silk cargo was heavy, there being 2,821 bales stowed below decks and routed to New York via Seattle. This is one of the largest and most valuable silk cargoes brought in by an O. S. K. vessel for some time past. Among the passengers landing here were Mrs. Owston and children, Dr. Boulton, United States quarantine doctor at Port Townsend, who came over yesterday to pass the Shidzuoka Maru, remained over and returned by the Arabia Maru.

The Arabia sailed at noon to-day for Seattle with Pilot Willis in charge of the bridge.

LASKER AWAITING REPORT OF RELYEA

Ship Operators Repeat Stevedore Protest to Shipping Board Head

San Francisco, May 12.—Officers of the Pacific American Steamship Company here to-day repeated telegrams sent Ad Lasker, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, asking the board to cease its demands upon operators at Portland to employ union stevedores. It was believed here that Lasker was waiting the report of Frank W. Relyea, of the local office of the board, who is now in Portland.

Operators of vegetable oil refining plants in San Francisco will apply to the State harbor board for a dock to be used exclusively as an oil terminal. The operators assert that the traffic is not centralized at this time and often their steamers cannot get space for loading and unloading. The operators stated to-day that with a central location they hope to regain some of the business lost during the war.

Captain R. D. Chandler, in charge of the Hongkong agency for Struthers and Barry for several years, has resigned. He will be succeeded by G. P. Bradford.

The board of directors of the American Stevedoring Company, which handles practically all of the work for the lumber yards and lumber schooners of this port, passed a resolution to-day ordering all work on schooners and lumber yards to stop between 10 and 10.30 o'clock Saturday morning during the funeral of Edward Christensen, shipping and lumber operator who lost his life in a yacht wreck on San Francisco Bay last Saturday.

NIAGARA IN STATION AT DAYBREAK TO-MORROW

Capt. J. T. Rolls, commander of the Canadian-Australian liner Niagara, reports that he expects to make William Head at 6 o'clock to-morrow morning. The inbound liner has been making good time on her inward trip from Australia and New Zealand. She is expected to be alongside the Rithet piers about 8.30 o'clock to-morrow morning, Victoria time.

Six hundred passengers are aboard in her first, second and third classes.

Others who were delayed in leaving Manila owing to the indisposition of President Quezon and who will go via San Francisco are President and Mrs. Quezon, Speaker and Mrs. Gomenia, General Aguinaldo, Governor and Mrs. Rodriguez, three clerks and three private secretaries. The Keystone State is due at Victoria, B. C., May 23 and Seattle the same day.

CANADIAN PATROLS EVER ON THE ALERT

Too Severe With Fishing Vessels, Say Seattle Owners

Seattle, May 12.—Recent seizures of American fishing vessels by Canadian patrol cruisers on charges of violating the British Columbia regulations or of poaching inside the three-mile limit, to-day brought from members of the Fishing Vessel Owners' Association of Seattle the complaint that Canada does not reciprocate courtesy on this coast. They are withholding comment on the recent seizures until the details are ascertained, but they declare that as a general thing the Canadian authorities interpret their rules with great severity.

The Clarion, a Seattle salmon-buying boat, operating on the west coast of Vancouver Island, was seized two weeks ago by the Canadian patrol cruiser Thielvall and towed into Victoria, B. C. She is charged with some violation of the Canadian regulations against poaching in the waters of the Golden Gate, Chicago. She is being held in the city of Victoria, B. C., by two Prince Rupert men, was seized in northern waters by the Canadian patrol cruiser Malaspina a few days ago and towed into Prince Rupert on a charge of poaching inside the three-mile limit. According to word received yesterday, she is to be completed. The new owners had not completed payment for the vessel.

Under the laws of both countries a foreign vessel can stay indefinitely in port if she enters at the customs house. Otherwise she can stay only twenty-four hours. When an American fishing vessel takes refuge in a British Columbia harbor as a result of violent weather and is observed by a Canadian patrol cruiser, she is ordered to put to sea at the end of the twenty-four-hour period regardless of storm or gale, the Seattle hallit men assert.

Yet, they declare, Canadian fishing vessels are allowed to be for weeks in Yakutat Bay, Alaska, when storms rage on the Northern banks. It is never even hinted to the Canadians that they move out at the end of the twenty-four-hour period, according to the Seattle vessel owners. They are allowed to stay in the place of refuge until fair weather returns.

The Seattle men also point out that in the days of the sailing ships on this coast America never objected to the British windjammers lying in Callam Bay or Neah Bay beyond the twenty-four-hour period.

As regards the confiscation of Seattle fishing vessels on this coast, they point out that America could seize and confiscate the Canadian "boozie runners" that invade the three-mile limit on the Atlantic coast, but for no such confiscation has been reported so far.

The greater part of the freighter's 35,000 cwt shipment of whisky was unloaded at Vancouver.

Tyndareus Here.

The Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus sailed from Union Bay at 4 o'clock this morning and arrived here this afternoon to load 3,500,000 feet of baby squares for Japan. From here she will shift to Seattle to complete her Oriental cargo.

TREATIES MUST BE ABROGATED AND RIGHTS RESTORED

Declares Prominent Chinese Government Official Discussing Japanese Policy

"Until the great wrong is righted, until the so-called Chino-Japanese treaties of 1915 are abrogated, and until the Shantung rights and concessions are completely restored to China, we should forever remember that it was at 3 o'clock p.m. on May 7, 1915, that the ultimatum giving forty-eight hours for the Chinese Government to accept the twenty-one demands was delivered by the Japanese Minister in Peking to the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs—an event which can easily be the most important in the diplomatic history of the Far East, which the Chinese people will never forget or forgive, and which the world at large should remember as the climax of the 'forward policy' that Japan has adopted in the last thirty years in her dealings with China," said a prominent Chinese Government official while here to meet a party arriving on the Canadian Pacific SS. Empress of Russia.

"The ultimatum was served on the Chinese Government after three months of futile negotiation—sixty-five days after the presentation of the twenty-one demands, and eighty days after the first negotiation was held. The Imperial Government hereby again offer their advice, read the ultimatum in part, and hope that the Chinese Government upon this advice will give a satisfactory reply by six o'clock p.m. on the 9th day of May. It is hereby declared that if no satisfactory reply is received before or at the designated time, the Imperial Government will take steps they may deem necessary.

"It was because of this ultimatum that the Chinese Government on May 8, finding itself between the devil and the deep sea, accepted 'with the exception of those five articles of group V postponed for later negotiation,' virtually all the other articles of the twenty-one demands, including numerous concessions in Manchuria and Eastern Inner Mongolia, the Hanayehing monopoly, and above all, the Shantung disposition which was responsible more than any other thing for China's subsequent diplomatic defeat at the Peace Conference at Versailles.

Memorial Day.

"It was because of this ultimatum that 'May 7, 1915' has ever since become a memorial day with the Chinese," he explained. "The Americans remember May 7, 1915, because it was on that day that the Lusitania was sunk by a German submarine. The Chinese remember May 7, 1915, because it was on that day that the Chinese ship of state was hard hit, as if it were, by a Japanese diplomatic broadside. By the ultimatum the Chinese Government was forced to accept the first four groups of the demands, and the acceptance of these demands has since produced the direct consequences of the Chinese patriotic Chinese has mourned. Ask any Chinese, any educated Chinese who takes interest in the affairs of his country about the fall of the Republic on July 14, 1911. Like them the Chinese people celebrate their national birthday, October 10, 1911, when the Republic of China was established. Unlike them, however, the Chinese people have yet another day to commemorate. It is May 7, 1915—the day on which, as said before, the Japanese ultimatum demanding the acceptance by the Chinese Government of the twenty-one demands was delivered. It is not a day of national jubilation. It is a day of national humiliation.

Prepared to Wait.

"Leaving alone the twenty-one demands, the outrageous nature of which speaks for itself, let us emphasize the point that to wipe off the national disgrace calls for deeds, not words. Yearly commemoration of the event will help us remember it better, but mere remembrance is little use, if it does not stimulate us to struggle for the righting of the wrong. There is a May 7 every year, and every recurrence of the day should bring us added vigor and enthusiasm to wipe off the blot on China's national honor. Alsace-Lorraine was taken from France in 1871. The French people had never for a single moment forgotten the loss. They waited, and they prepared. And to-day Alsace-Lorraine is French again. We French people had never waited. Patriotism is largely a matter of sustained effort, and unless we can demonstrate it in practical manner, we can have no claim to it."

UNPROFITABLE

Two merchants met in the street. "What's a big fire at your place?" "Oh, no," said the other, "it isn't going to happen until next week, but how about you?" "You insured, too, aren't you?" "Yes, I carry both fire and hail insurance." "I can understand being insured against fire, but I didn't know any body could make it hail."—Paris Le Rive.

CRUDE WORK SAVED LIFE OF ENGINEER
Wounds in Abdomen Sewed Up With Sail Twine and Heavy Needles

Toronto, May 12.—A special dispatch to The Globe from New York says: "Heroic efforts by his shipmates, who sewed up seventeen wounds in his abdomen with sail twine and heavy needles and then wrapped his body with adhesive tape, saved the life of Boyd O'Neil, an engineer off-board the steaming New England, while at sea April 20, according to a report made to-day by Captain W. M. Rind, of the United States liner America."

The captain's own services in promptly answering the radio distress call of the New England, his taking aboard the injured man and providing adequate surgical aid also figured largely.

The transfer was accomplished in a sea stretcher. He was carried to Bremen and placed in a hospital there.

O'Neil was injured while making repairs in the engine room through the bursting of a steampipe.

Saunby was in the chair, and the following were elected: Mrs. Frank Adams, Mrs. Rerman and Messrs. Jeffrey, Alton, Nagwood, Roberts and Deaville. Following the election a concert was held, under the convener-ship of Mr. J. M. Thomas, which included selections rendered by Mr. Harry Hollands, piano; Mrs. Hollands, recitation; Messrs. Thomas, Willis, Hollands and Blakeway, male quartet; Mr. J. M. Thomas, solo; and a second selection from the quartet. A good attendance was present.

Appointment Popular—The elevation of David A. McDonald, K. C., to be a Justice of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, is causing satisfaction in legal circles here, where the appointee is deservedly popular. Mr. Justice McDonald served overseas during the war, being attached to the Canadian Railway troops, C. E. E., and in other capacities. He underwent an officer's training course at West Point Barracks in 1916, and refused the appointment as the city solicitor of Vancouver to leave for the front. That the appointment was a merited one, free from all political considerations, is the general opinion in legal circles here, it is said.

CAPITOL

During an entire life-time on the stage William P. Carleton, leading man in "Morals," the May McAvoy Reelart starring vehicle which is now at the Capitol Theatre, has made what is believed to be a world's record for the number of plays in which he has appeared.

Mr. Carleton, who scored a tremendous success recently in "Inside the Cup," has played leading roles in over one hundred and fifty musical works and four hundred plays, including all types of dramatic literature from Shakespeare to the Charles Hoyt farces.

"Morals," in which he appears opposite Miss McAvoy, is Julia Crawford Ivers adaptation of the famous William J. Locke novel, "The Morals of Marcus Ordeyne." William D. Taylor produced the picture.

PRINCESS

Once again the Princess has a winning offering in "At Cosy Corners," which is romping along at the popular Yates Street theatre in fine business with the noise of the laughter reaching the street.

All of the players do fine work, and it would be hard work to pick an individual member of the cast for special commendation. The stage settings are worthy of mention, as they seem to enhance the impression that the story creates. Lily Dooley has a pleasing musical number that fits in with the play as it is placed. Only two chances remain to see this most pleasing play. The matinee to-morrow should bring out the children.

ROYAL VICTORIA

Manager Denham of the Royal Victoria Theatre has booked for this week one of the most remarkable attractions ever given to local theatregoers. Louise Lovely will appear personally with her own company in two big stage presentations and as the star of her latest picture. Never before has a screen star given the public an entertainment so varied. First, Miss Lovely will present her headline vaudeville act, a high class playlet, entitled "Their Wedding Night." In this she is supported by Wilton Welch, the noted English actor. Originally, Miss Lovely played this act over the Orpheum Circuit and throughout England, Australia and the Continent. The beautiful stage and screen star will be seen in the part of a young bride who has married a titled Englishman. The bride is a millionaire's daughter, and the husband thinks she has married him only to elevate herself into a place in society. The playlet is filled with the most interesting situations. Miss Lovely gives a delightful performance.

The second big attraction is the great novelty stage presentation of "A Day at the Studio," in which Miss Lovely shows on the stage the inner workings of the motion picture studio, and how the "movies" are actually made. She carries her own camera and will make motion pictures of some of the scenes selected at each performance. At matinees, Miss Lovely will take several children from the audience and play a scene with them before the camera. It will give local aspirants to movie fame, a great opportunity to see if they are adapted to the art of the screen. Never before have potential motion picture stars been given the opportunity of acting before the camera and actually being able to see themselves on the screen afterwards. Coupled with this is the opportunity of having a famous motion picture star direct and show them just what to do.

COLUMBIA

Viola Dana, who will be seen at the Columbia Theatre to-day in "There Are No Villains," made her first public appearance at the age of five years as a solo dancer. At fifteen she was a Broadway star in "The Poor Little Rich Girl."

The diminutive star's first picture for Metro was "The Flower of No Man's Land." Her recent pictures include "Dangerous to Men," "The Chorus Girl's Romance," "Blackmail," "Cinderella's Twin," "The Offshore Pirate," "Puppets of Fate," "Home Stuff," "Life's Darn Funny," and "The Match Breaker."

Her newest picture, "There Are No Villains," is a Bayard Veiller production for Metro of Frank R. Adams' story, adapted by Mary O'Hara. The photography by Jack Arnold and the art direction by A. F. Mantz.

Shirley Mason has just finished her latest production at the Fox Hollywood studio. It is called "Very Truly Yours." The Fox star enacts the role of a stenographer who dreams big dreams and has some of them come true. Miss Mason will take a brief rest before her next picture.

NEXT SEASON'S LEADING BOOKINGS

Notable Artists Are Coming to Victoria in Future

The music season, fast drawing to a close, has been notable for the many visits of some of the most world famous singers, instrumentalists and lecturers, who in their tours have included the Capital City in their itinerary. Among these have been Joseph Bonnet, the French organist; Sir Philip Gibbs, noted newspaper writer, novelist and lecturer; Dame Clara Butt, Kennedy Rumford, the popular for many years with British people; Helfetz and Melsa, violinists; Leopold Godowsky, the master pianist; Goandia Mero, Hungarian pianist; the Cherninsky and others.

"Perhaps it is not generally known that such big artists are usually booked up many months before they appear. In this direction next Winter promises even a busier season than the past, and already contracted for are: Marcel Dupre, organist of Notre-Dame de Paris; Mme. Margaret Matzenauer, contralto of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York; Leo Ornstein, pianist, whose compositions occupy a position at the extreme outposts of ultra-modern musical advancement; Mischa Elman, violinist, known throughout the whole world; Florence Macbeth, coloratura soprano, heard here with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, two seasons ago; Felix Salmona, the English cellist; Jacques Thibaud, famous French violinist; and Myra Hess, the gifted English pianist, who created a sensation in New York at her recent concert at the Carnegie Art Club. She will visit Victoria in the order named, beginning next October, and throughout the Winter to May or June, and there are many other artists and organizations.

When the Actors' Club organized only two months ago to absorb any surplus talent not being used by the club, it was beyond all expectations of the executive to think of producing a revue with such a bevy of local talent as are being secured, and taking part in "Patches." The following list gives the names of some of the members taking part: Mr. Gideon Hicks, Mrs. Harry Bridges, Miss Ivy Holt, Capt. Allen, Fred Francis, Mrs. L. C. Smith, Miss C. Foote, Miss L. C. "Batter up!" Yes sir, that old cry, nearly worn ragged at the edges, will be heard echoing in the tall timbers to-morrow afternoon. The Victoria Amateur Baseball League is staging its opening game at the Stadium at 3 o'clock. The Eagles and Knights of Columbus have been billed to provide the amusement, and it should prove a real honest-to-goodness battle, such as the fans like to see from amateur teams.

The usual opening ceremony of tossing and receiving the first ball has been arranged. Jack Rithet, who handled the pro ball team here last year, is going to show the fans how to shoot the ball across the plate and Capt. J. W. Troup, honorary vice-president of the league, has agreed to catch anything within reason that Jack throws. The star battery is reported to have rounded off its training to-day.

Look For Big Crowd. It is expected that a new attendance record will be set for amateur baseball in Victoria. The ball fans have not been able to glimpse their favorite pastime this season and as the amateurs will have to do all the entertaining this year they will no doubt be well patronized. The league has arranged to admit all ladies and children under sixteen to the games free. The games will be played on Wednesday evenings and Saturday afternoon.

Dave MacFarlane, president of the league, is looking forward to a big season. "Personally I am convinced that the 1922 baseball season will prove a banner year," stated Dave this morning. "All managers have signed up strong line-ups, and each individual team has an equal chance of securing the pennant."

Let 'Em All Come. "I have decided to allow children under the age of sixteen to attend all league games free, and ladies, too, will be made welcome as our guests without charge. The Basketball Association is under a heavy financial obligation, but not having to compete with pro ball, and with a generous patronage from the Victoria fans assured, there is no question in my mind but that a successful season is guaranteed."

Want Fine Weather. It looks as though there will be good weather for to-morrow. The manager of the competing teams will not announce their batteries until they see just how high the temperature will go. If the mercury is a long way up, warm weather twirlers will be hustled to the mound, but if Jack Frost comes around some Eskimo's flingers will be used.

The team will be selected from the following players: Knights of Columbus, captained by George Allen—L. M. Moser, W. W. Hall, Jack Noble, E. R. Anthony, Fred Kenny, David Richdale, George Allen, Alex Strain, Fred McInnes, M. Y. Dunn, George Copas and H. W. Davie.

Eagles, captained by Alex Potts—J. R. Pettifer, John Cummings, Ed Hall, Dick Rosin, Eddie Brown, George Coleman, "Hap" Gandy, Al Bates, H. Cummine, R. Robinson, "Tammy" McGregor, "Smiler" Pettifer, H. Green and Alex Potts. Alex McGregor will be the umpire.

TURN'S ANKLE AND IS FORCED TO DEFAULT

Vincent Richards Has Hard Luck in Tournament With First Set Won

Berkeley, Cal., May 12.—Vincent Richards, national junior tennis champion, and third ranking player of the United States, sprained his ankle and was forced to default to Howard Kinsey in the Pacific Coast championship tennis tournament here yesterday. Richards had won a set 8-6. In making the last point by killing a lob, he jumped into the air and in coming down turned his ankle. Richards had to extend himself in the set played with Kinsey, who is thirteenth ranking player of the country, and with his brother, Robert, doubles champion of the Pacific Coast. Richards previously had put Herbert Suhr, Coast Junior champion, out of the running in straight sets in 20 minutes, 6-1, 6-0.

JOHNSTON HAD TO STEP. William M. Johnston, the second ranking player in the country, had to extend himself and play deuce sets to eliminate Willis E. Davis, eleventh ranking player. The scores were 7-5, 9-7.

WILLIAM TILDEN II, world's champion, won from C. J. Griffin, former mixed doubles national champion, 6-8, 6-1, 6-2.

WILLIAM PARKER, the sixth ranking player on the Coast, after having eliminated John Tussie, 6-1, 4-6, 6-2, was defeated by Irving Weinstein, fifteenth ranking player on the Coast, 6-4, 6-2.

Results of other matches follow: Men's singles—C. J. Griffin defeated Homer Levinson, 6-1, 8-6. Weinstein defeated Lyman Martin

Carpentier's Blow Fair, Experts Say

Lewis Was Foolish Not to Protect Himself; Up to Time of Unfortunate Ending of Bout in First Round Yesterday Lewis Had Much Better of Fighting and Plainly Had Frenchman Worried; Most Unsatisfactory Fight

London, May 12.—The blow with which Georges Carpentier knocked out Ted "Kid" Lewis in the first round of their championship bout here last night was perfectly fair and legitimate, according to all experts who reported the fight for this morning's newspapers. Cries of "Foul" came from all parts of the building when the blow was struck, and the writers go out of their way to prove that the Frenchman used nothing but fair tactics.

Joe Palmer, the referee, is quoted in The Daily Telegraph as saying: "The blow was perfectly fair. The men had broken from a clinch and it was Lewis's business to protect himself, this he failed to do."

FINAL INDOOR GALA SET FOR TO-MORROW

Twelfth Siege Battery Will Stage Interesting Water Event at Armories

To-morrow night at the Armories the final gala of the 12th Siege Battery Swimming Club will be held to wind up the season. A large entry list is expected. Only members of the club will take part. Post entries will be received.

The club has arranged to put on a very interesting programme of swimming races as well as comic events. The gala will be open to the general public and as is usual in events of this kind it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

It is asserted by some of the newspaper writers that Lewis had himself several times delivered blows on previous breakaways, although they did not get home and his failure to guard himself in the final break is declared a similar blunder which contributed to his defeat.

Doesn't Fight Like He Used To. One or two of the commentators, however, while conceding that Carpentier by the strict letter of the rules was entitled to act as he did, complained that his conduct lacked regard for the spirit of the regulations which the Frenchman has always displayed in his previous fights.

While agreeing that he was rightly proclaimed a winner, they prophesy that the legitimacy of a knockout during a breakaway will be long debated and that Lewis's supporters are likely to adhere to their opinion that the blow was a foul one, especially as they can argue that regard for the spirit of the regulations which the Frenchman has always displayed in his previous fights.

For the fight as a fight, however, nobody has praise. The Times critic says the contest was as hard as it could have been, and that Lewis had ended in disqualification if it had not terminated as it did.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent declares he never wants to see anything like it again and says it offended the senses of every sportsman who witnessed it.

"The men were locked in holds, pulling and tugging and clinging to each other like men possessed, both refusing repeatedly to obey the referee's orders to break," he writes. "It was only worth the name of street-fighting."

Was Lewis's Fault. For this unsatisfactory display some critics hold Lewis responsible, saying that when the champion tried to pull away, Lewis held on and hit, and that Carpentier's finding he was being punished under what was apparently some new sort of rule, seemed to make up his mind to do the same.

Another view is that Lewis, recognizing his handicap in weight and size, resolved to rely on infighting, in which he proved much the superior of the two Carpentiers, according to Sporting Life, an unhappy time of it until Lewis's unweariness gave him his opportunity for the champion's body was redeemed all over where Lewis's blows had landed, and he was obviously worried. The writer believes that if Lewis had been able to give a fatal mislead, he would have given Carpentier a great deal of trouble, even if he did not win.

Good Luck, Boys. The best wishes of the many soccer fans in this city will be served and general play inaugurated in until 5:30 o'clock.

The committee of the club has arranged two ladder tournaments, one for ladies and the other for gentlemen, to commence next Thursday evening. Already there are forty-four members desirous of climbing the ladders.

Thursday evening of each week will be known as Beginners' Night, when those playing tennis for the first time this season will be able to have the help and advice of more experienced players. Plans are under way for ladies' American tournament in the near future, which together with the inter-club matches, Sunday School Tennis League activities and other forms of competition, suggest a full programme complete with interesting features. As the membership is limited to 50, any desirous of joining the club should apply to Miss Barkness, the secretary, at 212 Linden Avenue, before May 20, when the lists will be closed.

PITCHERS TO GET A BETTER DEAL BY NEW RULE FOR SCORING

St. Louis, Mo., May 12.—John A. Heydler, president of the National League, is in favor of changing baseball scoring rules, to permit more fairness to be shown toward pitchers in crediting them with defeats and victories.

President Heydler said he thought it advisable to amend the scoring rules so that a pitcher could be credited with half a victory or half a defeat in games where two or more pitchers were in winning or losing. He declared it was probable that such a new scoring rule as he suggested may be made for next year.

TRYING TO INVOLVE OLDROMAN IN WORK

Felsch Opens His Case to Recover Damage from Chicago White Sox

Milwaukee, Wis., May 12.—The case of "Happy" Felsch, one of the blacklisted White Sox players, who wishes to recover his salary and bonus of which he was deprived when the details of the 1919 world's series were divulged, opened here yesterday. The action was started for Felsch by Attorney Raymond J. Cannon, who announced he would soon launch a similar proceeding for "Buck" Weaver, Eddie "Cicotte" and "Swede" Risberg, other blacklisted Sox players. In an order signed by Circuit Judge J. J. Gregory, Charles Comiskey, president and Louis Comiskey, officer of the Chicago American League Club, are cited to appear Saturday to show cause why they should not be examined by Attorney Cannon.

Court Commissioner Nohl ordered the Comiskays to produce the books of record of the Chicago Club, which state the extent of the damage, back salary and bonus for the 1920 season might be determined.

What Will the "Roman" Say? In addition Felsch's attorney sets forth the questions which he desired to ask the Comiskays. One is regarding an alleged conspiracy between Charles Comiskey, president of the club, and Louis Comiskey players in 1917, to have the Detroit baseball players fraudulently lose games to the Chicago White Sox and intentionally to attempt not to sue the American League.

Another question asks if an agreement was entered into between Charles Comiskey and members of the White Sox to establish a fund by contributing $50 each to be paid certain pitchers of the Detroit team to "throw" games to the White Sox.

The statement that Charles A. Comiskey personally took part in an alleged conspiracy with Detroit players to lose games to the Chicago White Sox in 1917 so that the latter could win the American League pennant was virtually the only new change contained in the affidavit filed by Oscar "Happy" Felsch at Milwaukee yesterday, in connection with his suit to recover back salary and damages from the White Sox Club.

Persons familiar with the investigation of 1919 world series scandal, and the resultant trial of eight White Sox players charged with throwing games to Cincinnati recalled that in 1917 Detroit-Chicago incident was giving a thorough airing at that time. Two stories are current then, one that Detroit deliberately lost games to the Sox and another that the Sox raised a purse which was to be given to the Detroit players if they defeated certain other teams near the end of the season and thus helped the Sox to win the pennant.

It Was Expected. Testimony concerning these reports were presented to the Cook County grand jury which investigated the scandal and it was expected that the story would come out in the trial as Felsch and others were said to be ready to talk about it. After repeated announcements that the defendants would take the stand in their own defense and reveal these and other alleged scandals, their attorneys finally refused to let them testify and nothing more was heard of the rumors.

W. Landa, baseball commissioner, expressed little interest in Felsch's affidavit. "I guess no one will pay much attention to what Felsch said," he remarked.

Charles A. Comiskey could not be reached last night and Lewis Comiskey, his son, was out of town. The team is on the road.

Mrs. A. McAllister, of Shaughnessy, defeated Mrs. Parry, of Oak Bay, on the eighteenth green.

Mrs. McGregor, Vancouver Golf and Country Club, also won on the eighteenth from Mrs. Tweedale, of Shaughnessy.

PLAYS NINETY HOLES OF GOLF IN TWELVE HOURS IS NEW MARK

Princeton, N. J., May 12.—On a wager that he could not play ninety holes of golf in 12 hours an average of less than 85 strokes to 18, Robert W. Wintringham, captain of the Princeton golf team and winner of the Lakewood tournament last week, yesterday completed the unusual feat in less than nine hours. His average was 77 strokes. His scores for the 18 holes were 80, 75, 75 and 74.

Bill Doak Let Giants Down With One Hit and Shut Them Out for First Time

New York, May 12.—Bill Doak of the Cardinals, made room for himself in the 1922 Hall of Pitches. Acc yesterday by holding the Giants to one hit, that a slow moving bunt by Hancock in his first attempt at the bat. The westerner won, of course, gathering enough hits off Douglas to catch twice. It was the first shut-out of the season for the world champion.

Ty Cobb's Tigers won their fourth straight victory, turning back the Red Sox 5 to 3. Ty himself started the batting line that carried his men to triumph. Speaker's Indians, by way of some bunched bingles in the eighth inning, defeated the Athletics 4 to 4.

The Browns won from Washington by taking advantage of some errors and scoring five runs in one inning, the fifth.

Too Many Errors. The Yankees defeated the White Sox by virtue of Jones' good pitching and five errors by the Sox fielders.

Cincinnati defeated Boston in a slugger bee 9 to 5.

Pittsburgh gathered 18 hits off the Brooklyn pitcher, who won 12 to 6, while Philadelphia outgathered the Cubs, and won a ten-inning game 11 to 9, sending the Chicagoans down to fourth place.

DEPUTATION TOUR COMPLETED HERE

Dr. George Smith Arrives in City; Lectures on Peru

Dr. George Smith, of Toronto, secretary of the Evangelical Union of South America in North America, arrived in Victoria yesterday afternoon, terminating his deputation tour of Canada in this city. He is registered at the Strathcona Hotel. He has visited numerous cities, giving illustrated lectures on "The Inca Indians of Peru." Following his series of lectures in this city, Dr. Smith will proceed to Seattle, and thence to his home in Toronto, where he will resume his work as publisher of the quarterly magazine, namely, "The Neglected Continent."

In his illustrated lectures during his sojourn in this city the work done by the missionaries in this country will be depicted, while the customs and resources will be displayed to advantage by beautiful colored slides. Dr. Smith states that throughout the countries of Argentina, Brazil, Uruguay and Peru there are altogether 85 missions and they have to cope with the conversion of some 300 tribes of Indians.

During his stay in this city Dr. Smith will give his interesting lecture at the following places: Reformed Episcopal Church on Sunday morning; Metropolitan Church lecture room Monday night at 8 o'clock; St. Andrew's Church on Wednesday; Reformed Episcopal Church on Thursday; while on Monday at 1.45 he will address a gathering of teachers at the Normal School.

"TIZ" FOR ACHING, SORE, TIRED FEET

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, un-pestered, bunton-toured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

A few cents buys a box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel.

IN WILDS OF THE NORTHLAND

Interesting Story of Trip in Northern Manitoba

Edward Sullivan, of Vancouver, who is a missionary of the Western Branch of the Shantymen's Christian Association conducting meetings weekly at different points in and around Victoria, is very much enamored of the northern country around Port Nelson, on the Hudson Bay, from which part he has recently returned after spending the winter.

His description of the journey in from Winnipeg is really interesting. The first stage is by rail from the capital city of Manitoba to Hudson Bay Junction, on the Hudson Bay Railway. There he transferred to the Tamarac, a train that gives a twice a week service to Le Pas, leaving abundant provision for the inner man. Tea and coffee are always kept hot.

After partaking of a hearty breakfast the employees go into the woods to log, and as a general rule they "dinner" out, i. e., they receive a hot meal, which is taken out where they are working in a "vacuum" wagon, which brings the dinner out piping hot. A fire is lit in the centre.

Method of Record.

Work is resumed at 1 o'clock, and continued till 5 o'clock, then back to the main camp for hot supper and bed. The name of every employee is taken, also his next of kin, and a record in triplicate is made, one for the post office, one for the company's main office, and one for filing in local camp office, weekly renewals of the mailing list is checked off. The logging operations are conducted to get out the timber which is mostly spruce, tamarac and a little birch. The logs are taken out on an ice road, which is a simple road made in the ordinary way, flooded, and from a tank on the same system as street sprinkling, the water being frozen. The tank has a capacity of 100 gallons.

Typical Y.M.C.A. Camp Scene

Above is group of lads who took an active part in last year's camp programme. Such scenes as these are to be seen at the yearly camp conducted by the Y. M. C. A.

ing Le Pas at 5.30 p. m. he hit the trail for eleven miles when a "dinner" place was located. The next jump was of sixteen miles to a night sleeping place.

To Safeguard Laborers.

These dinner places and sleeping quarters are provided free of charge to all those going in to that country by the Pas-Lumber Co. The company does this meritorious act not altogether from a charitable point of view, but to provide for and attract employees for the logging camps, of which it has many in that great north country, and labor in that part of the world is hard to get. The next stage of the journey brought the traveller ten more miles when lunch is provided under the same auspices, nine miles more of a hike brings the warehouse in view. Here the help, provisions, equipment and material is distributed to the different camps on this line, and other goods stored. From this point sled teams of six horse call at least weekly.

Resuming the trip dog-teams are passed coming out, and the trappers set their lines from this trail. On arrival at the end of the trail Mr. Traveller is welcomed with true northern hospitality, a bed being always ready, and the table set with

Le Pas has a population of about 2,500; no one of whom are hungry or in distress, has a model appointed electric lighted jail, hot and cold water, spring bed and mattress and steam heated, which is very seldom in use. The Grey Unions conduct an up-to-date hospital in Le Pas, which is a very fine building with good nursing, finest of medical attention, and is well equipped. An addition is now being put up to handle the patients, and to keep pace with the growth of Le Pas. The town has very good schools, several churches, public buildings, one newspaper, The Le Pas Herald, and the celebrated town band, which is a congregation of very good musicians. The town becomes very lively when the miner, the logger and the trapper and prospector go back to civilization after a season in the woods. The costume of the country during the winter season is heavy woolen underwear, two pair socks, one pair moccasins, rubbers, sweater coat, leather vest as a wind shield and a mackinaw jacket. Mr. Sullivan wore riding breeches and putties, being wind proof. A fur cap to go down over the ears, woolen gloves and leather mitts over them complete the outfit. Mr. Sullivan, who intends returning in the Fall, points out the possibilities from the sportsman's and trapper's viewpoint. The game consists of moose, wolf, small mink, fox, muskrat, ermine and weasel form the fur bearing contribution to the natural wealth of the district, while wood chicken, pheasant and partridge also abound. The best known fish are of the whitefish and trout family.

The historic day of the year is the Deer Derby, when competitors and spectators come in for hundreds of miles to take part and to take a gamble on their fancy for the 200 miles non-stop race. It is a regular carnival week a northern holiday in a northern way, and takes place about February 25. A court consisting of a Queen and six court attendants elected by the coupon system, preside over the festivities, the Queen being officially crowned by the Mayor of Le Pas.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN?

"Daddy," asked a mite of eight Summers, "God makes us do the good things, doesn't he?"
"Yes," replied the father.
"And Satan makes us do the naughty things?"
Again, "Yes."
"Well, who makes us do all the funny things?"
Keeper—"Here, I say, I'll have you know the fish in these waters are preserved."
Fisherman—"Ha, then that accounts for all these fish I'm handling."

ROYAL MARYS

Mary is a name which had been given to no fewer than 17 daughters amongst 12 monarchs of England. The first nine so-named were Mary and nothing else. George III. and Queen Victoria had each three daughters upon whom the name was bestowed, while two of Edward VII's three daughters were likewise Mary. King George's only daughter is the only one of those who, possessing the name in supplementary order, has chosen to give it precedence over the others. In this way she has followed her Royal mother, both being named Victoria first and Mary as a "follow" by Queen Victoria's wish. It took a long time to establish the name in the Royal line of this country, for between the first Princess Mary and the second there is a gap of full 300 years, and only eight times does it occur in twice 300 years.—London Chronicle.

BELFAST AGAIN

An Irish Republican, taking his life in his hands, was delivering a passionate speech to a mixed crowd in Belfast.

He had suffered badly at the hands of one particular heckler, but at last his chance came.

"You think you're very smart, don't you?" asked the heckler. "Well, just tell us how many toes has a pig got?"

"Take your boots off and count!" was the lightning reply.

There were no further interruptions!

QUITE THE REVERSE

"A man isn't so apt to fib about his age as a woman, but he even ups the score when telling about his salary," remarks an exchange. True, but he rarely understates his salary as a woman does her age.

It Didn't Come to Pass—Now the Shoes Must Be Sold!

With everybody talking "good times ahead"; with every newspaper and every optimist in the country predicting "good times ahead"; with every manufacturer urging heavy buying "because you can look for a big business in the Spring"; and for many other reasons, chief among which was mistaken judgment on our part, we find ourselves DOUBLY OVERLOADED WITH SHOES! We expected a big business; we bought for a big business, and prepared for a big business. But it "didn't come to pass." And now we find ourselves with an immense stock in every department, all bought for this season's selling. We can't carry it over. It was bought to sell now and must sell now—not a year from now. It's a matter of self protection, self preservation, and we are going to turn these shoes into cash. ROYAL YEAST CAKES

Product of Canada

It was known many years ago that yeast is an excellent thing for the many ills that result from disordered stomach or run down blood condition. Lately eminent scientists have been investigating the matter thoroughly and their conclusions point to the fact that the beneficial effect of yeast has not been overrated. The yeast treatment is very simple and economical - and altogether harmless.

Before each meal eat a Royal Yeast Cake, or take a cake dissolved in water or fruit juices. The scientific investigators say that the curative elements in Royal Yeast are the vitamins and nuclei which it contains. It is certainly well worth a fair trial by those who suffer from any of the ailments mentioned above.

SUMMER CAMP WILL COMMENCE IN JULY

Y. M. C. A. Will Conduct One Month Camp; Young Men Have Old Gorge Site

With the prospect of breaking up of school, and the commencement of the long two months' vacation, boys' minds are thinking of the way they can make the best of their time. Perhaps there is no better way than an excellent camping period in which to polish up on every line of sport and secure all the entertainment there is to be had in the great outdoors.

Harold Cross, Boys' Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., announces July 3 as the opening date of the Y. M. C. A. camp, and this should be a big attraction to the boys of the city. Some 250 boys took part in the summer programme at the camp last year, and preparations are being made to accommodate an even larger aggregation.

August 7 is closing date, and following this the girls of the city will benefit by a ten-day camp which is being conducted by the C. G. I. T. and the Y. W. C. A. combined. Starting on May 29 the young men's division of the Y. M. C. A. will open their camp, and previous campers will remember the splendid time they had at last year's gathering.

Many Victoria boys are already planning to attend the Y. M. C. A. camp which is situated on Beaver Lake. A pleasant vacation is being looked forward to. Boating, swimming, baseball, athletic competitions, overnight hikes and numerous other attractions are being planned and those who attend are assured a good time. On an occasion of very wet weather a new pavilion has been erected in which the amusements will be conducted to pass away the leisure hours. The first week has been set aside for boys from 10 to 12, the following two weeks are for boys 12 to 17 years of age, while there are two one week periods for the older boys in which an extended and more elaborate programme will be made.

SHEPARD SUFFERED SO TERRIBLY FROM INDIGESTION SHE THOUGHT SHE HAD HEART TROUBLE—NOW WELL AND HAPPY

"I feel I would be doing a positive wrong in not telling others about this wonderful medicine," said Mrs. E. J. Shepard, of Bishop's Landing, B.C., in giving her experience with Tanlac.

"For three years my life was miserable from stomach trouble. Nothing I ate agreed with me. Gas formed which caused my heart to palpitate, so I was afraid I had heart trouble. Often I had to sit propped up in bed, and got very little sleep.

"I don't know what I would have done if I had not got Tanlac when I did. Soon after I started taking it I was like a new person, eating anything and not having a particle of trouble after meals. Tanlac is the greatest of medicines."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

FRIENDS MISSION IN JAPAN GROWING

Mr. and Mrs. Binford on Visit Here

To the majority of people any reference to a "Quaker" Mission among the Japanese would occasion some surprise, the reason perhaps being the Society of Friends, shows a good deal of natural modesty about publishing its good works.

For the presence in Victoria of two unassuming members of this famous religious body, Mr. and Mrs. Binford, members of the Mission staff in Tokio, the local church is responsible. A lecture on "The Political Situation in Japan With Regard to a World Peace," by Mr. Binford, having been arranged to take place last evening.

Talking to a Times representative yesterday Mr. Binford told of the opening of a Mission by the "Friends" so far back as 1884. He himself has been there since 1909, taking an active part at headquarters, where there are twelve other members engaged in the work, and traveling among the rural population. A proportion of fully 75 per cent of the Province is engaged in agriculture, he stated, although during the years since 1914 there has been a phenomenal increase in the number of factories. These include munitions, war supplies, such as boots and shoes, and cotton manufacturing. Cotton spinning is an important and steadily growing industry and shipbuilding has also increased rapidly of late years. The Japanese workman, Mr. Binford

Work Is Growing.

Questioned as to the special work of the Society of Friends in Tokio, Mr. Binford explained that in addition to their religious work he and Mrs. Binford take classes in English, though their religious services and propaganda work are always conducted in the Japanese tongue. Mrs. Binford has been engaged in the work since her marriage in 1893, which took place in the United States when Mr. Binford was home on vacation.

Five or six Japanese "Friends" are in the diplomatic service, one of these having the proud distinction of accompanying the Japanese Crown Prince on his visit to England. Several others occupy prominent government positions, and their religious training has borne much fruit in strengthening their efforts for international peace.

Further details of the Missions work in the Orient included their work on behalf of the temperance cause and anti-tuberculosis, and with regard to condition of labor in the factories. They saw a side of Japanese life which the usual traveling public do not often come in contact with, entering into the intimate family life of the people they work among and entering into close touch with their joys and sorrows.

The work in Japan is under the direction and control of the Society of Friends in Canada, with headquarters at Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Binford have just returned from the East, and have visited on route the thirty odd meeting houses maintained by the Friends in Canada. They have only been able to spend two or three days in Victoria, as they have still several other places to visit, and will sail on May 30 from San Francisco on their return to the Land of the Rising Sun.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION COUNCIL PROGRESSES

Aubone Hoyle Is Chosen New President

The annual meeting of the Victoria District Religious Education Council was well attended by the official representatives of the various co-operating units.

The secretary read a report showing that the council has done excellent work in the community during the year just closed. He emphasized especially the City Teacher Training Institute organized in the early part of the year, and which was well attended, about 120 being registered. This institute is part of a plan to assist the teacher in the church school by suggesting modern methods for their work, and the principles underlying all religious education.

The report from the treasurer showed an excellent balance on the right side, after all expenses were paid.

Mrs. Daniels, vice-president of the Girls' Work Board, reported in the absence of Miss Henderson, the president, as follows: That Victoria has a number of religious training groups, one of which, the "Daughters of the King," led by Mrs. Guy, of Wesley Methodist Church, was one of the first ten in Canada to become an honor group. That a camp attended by 50 girls had been held at Beaver Lake, thanks to the kindness of the Y. M. C. A., with satisfactory results.

A conference had been held last November with an enrollment of 150 girls, led by Miss Gemmel, National Presbyterian Girls Work Secretary. A C. G. I. T. picnic at Esquimalt had been very successful. A large camp was being planned for next August, to which every C. G. I. T. girl in Victoria was invited.

Harold C. Cross in reporting for the City Boys' Work Board, mentioned among other activities of that organization, the holding of a National Tuxis athletic competition, two basketball leagues, the continuance of the Mentor's Club, the formation of several new Tuxis and Tarr Ranger groups, a meeting attended by 150 Older Boys held at the Congregational Church, and addressed by Rev. Jack Storey, formerly the Western Boys Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

The Provincial Council, Rev. E. R. McLean, being present, said six boys and girls camps had been held in the Province with a total attendance of 287. He stated that camps were one of the finest opportunities for close personal work with older boys and girls. That a boys' conference had been held for the first time at Revelstoke with an enrollment of 80, and prospects were very bright for the promotion of C. S. E. T. and C. G. I. T. programmes in that part of B. C. That a teachers' institute held in Vancouver had an enrollment of 150, signs were being made for the work of the R. E. C. was becoming rapidly one of the most vital factors in the promotion of religious education in the Province, new and greater interest was being aroused, and the future was bright.

Following Mr. McLean's report, a hearty vote of confidence in the provincial secretary was enthusiastically carried.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mr. Aubone Hoyle; vice-president, Miss de Wolf; secretary, Rev. W. C. Frank; treasurer, Mr. R. Chave.

Among other events being promoted by the Provincial Religious Education Council are the following: Go to Sunday School Day, May 28. Provincial Older Girls Camp, Wintcliffe, June 30 to July 10. Ocean Park Summer School, July 7-17. Provincial Girl Leaders' Camp, July 8-17. Okanagan Older Boys, Woods Lake, July 17-24. Okanagan Older Boys, Woods Lake, July 24-31. Provincial Boy Leaders, Howe Sound, August 4-14.

COULDN'T BE HIS.

A newly created knight who made a fortune out of the war was extremely proud of his honor, and had his crest stamped on nearly everything belonging to him.

Walking across a field in his estate one day he came upon a man who had obviously been poaching.

"Halloo! my man," he exclaimed, "have you been helping yourself to my rabbits?"

"I don't think so, my lord," replied the man; "I don't think they could be your rabbits; at least, they had no crests on them."

Cuticura Talcum Always Healthful

A MISSION OF MERCY

The Canadian committee of the Save the Children Fund has received so far a little over $300,000 in response to its appeal. This is indeed quite a splendid contribution to this worthy object, but it would be inhuman to relax our efforts while there are still many thousands of children to be saved. When one considers the immensity of the area which has been stricken by famine, and the dense population of that area, the obligation of the people of Canada to their fellows is not by any means met when they have subscribed three hundred thousand dollars. Those who have not yet subscribed should remember that a few good Canadian dollars will go a long way in Russia. They will supply the bare necessities of life to a few children, which is all that the Russian people can expect until order is brought out of chaos and that great country gets back to its normal condition.

The people of Canada are concerned chiefly with the salvation of the little boys and girls, who are not accountable for the terrible condition of their country. The responsibility for the moral obliquity of the Soviet should not be held against the innocents. Send your dollars on a real mission of mercy. Send your subscription to Sir George Burn, treasurer, Canadian Committee of the Save the Children Fund, or forward it through your local organization or bank.

RATEPAYERS ASKED TO AID DRAFTING SEWER BY-LAWS

Saanich Council Calls Public Meetings in Sewer Area Will Urge Ratepayers to Support By-laws

To secure the opinions of Saanich ratepayers immediately affected by sewerage problems, the Saanich Council last night decided to call meetings of ratepayers of Wards Two and Seven as follows: Ward Seven, at Tillamook School, on Wednesday, May 17; Ward Two, at Tolmie School, on Friday, May 19.

At these gatherings the Reeve and Councilors will explain the two by-laws to be laid before the electors for their choice and will urge passage of one without dissenting either. This feature of the proceedings proposed was emphasized at last night's Council session; the councilors were unanimous that the general good of Saanich demands the passage of at least one of the by-laws offered. Should both be endorsed the Council will abandon the smaller project by means of the "six months" plan to carry out the terms of the more ambitious scheme.

Debt Payment Plan.
 The smaller by-law will authorize issuing $361,500 of 5 1/2 per cent. debentures, on the general credit of Saanich. This issue would be sold at a price of about 95, and would provide $46,225.50 owed Victoria on principal and interest accumulated since March 7, 1917, amounting to $12,712.94.

The discount provided for is $2,562.37, and the debentures would run for 50 years, from September next, involving a yearly levy of $462.84 for sinking fund and $3,382.50 for interest.

The larger scheme involves a bond issue which ultimately would total $750,000, of which but $270,000 would be immediately used, the remainder being only issuable upon petition of majority ratepayers interested in extensions.

Should the main plan be adopted by the ratepayers of Saanich, the whole cost would eventually be borne by the ratepayers benefited, through the levying of a 4 mill rate on the sewer area, a frontage tax upon streets served, and a connection tax upon house owners, the total yearly cost for full service being $13 per residence on a fifty-foot lot.

The difference in principle between the two plans lies in the fact that the repayment of Victoria, if not a part of a larger sewerage plan, will be an act of the whole of Saanich, all wards bearing a share through its debt levy.

Action Delayed.
 The councilors last night deferred formally considering either plan until after the ratepayers immediately affected had expressed their views, this course being adopted to make easy any amendments which may be asked for.

Circularize Voters.
 To make the ratepayers who vote familiar with the terms of the two by-laws, Reeve Watson suggested that a summary of the arguments for the by-laws, together with the text of the documents, should be printed and mailed to all those who are shown by the polling lists to be accustomed to exercising their franchise. He estimated that from 1,500 to 2,000 copies would be necessary, and his suggestion was warmly approved of, though Councillor McWilliam reminded the Council that "we rely on the press to help us explain this matter to the people."

SEEK PERMANENT SOLUTION OF LOCAL UNEMPLOYMENT

Council Names Committee to Investigate Wood Scheme

Aldermen Harvey, Leeming and Dewar were appointed by the City Council yesterday as a committee to seek some permanent means of relieving unemployment here and to report particularly the possibility of commencing some form of wood-cutting scheme to provide relief for local unemployed. Appointment of this committee follows the hearing of representations from a large delegation of jobless.

Alderman J. H. Gillespie seized the opportunity to declare that wood threats by the unemployed did not "cut any ice" with him. Such threats, he said, only alienated the sympathy of the Council and the public from the unemployed.

"One man said at our last meeting that there was no remedy for the situation except one which he would not like to mention," said the Alderman. "I call that a pretty direct threat. We have received little in help or practical suggestions from the unemployed. We have got to work together."

Defends Society.
 Alderman Gillespie declared that complaints about the Friendly Help Society came mostly from people who did not want their cases investigated, and added that unemployment relief in the southern districts of Vancouver Island should be co-ordinated.

The Mayor suggested that unemployed should form their own vigilance committee "to fight the fraud." Miss Mary Lawson, secretary of the Friendly Help Society, appeared to answer criticism that she was not according proper treatment to the unemployed. She satisfied the Council that she was handling the work satisfactorily.

WATER STORAGE IS SIMPLE MATTER

Low Pressure Periods in Gordon Head Eliminated by Small Tanks

"Frankly, some people are making a mountain out of this mole hill of storage tanks for Gordon Head water service," remarked Reeve Watson last night when Councillor Vantreigh brought before the Saanich Council the existence of widespread protests in the area about to be served by the new extension.

It was pointed out to the Council that the erection of a thousand gallon tank for irrigation reserves was certainly an expensive matter, but was not contemplated by the Council when the users were advised to install storage facilities.

Small Tanks Save Trouble.
 The erection on household rafters of a three-foot cube tank was stated to contain a reserve ample for any household service, and would assure water users against the annoyance of having no water on occasions of low pressure. Such tanks, equipped with a ball valve, and placed between the household and the leaders from the main, would cost only $40, the Council was assured.

Protests Expected.
 "There is going to be a public meeting called in Gordon Head on this matter, and I certainly will be glad if the clerk and other councilors will come over and answer the kicks. Personally, I would rather be outside the meeting that night," declared the Ward Three Councilor.

Only Local Application.
 W. F. Salsbury wrote the Council and condemned as a "most remarkable document" the water service agreement signed by all users prior to connection to the system.

SAILORS' INSTITUTE IN ANNUAL MEETING

Reports Read for Year and Officers Elected

Reeve Lockley, of the Equimatt, was elected president of the Victoria Sailors' Institute.

The financial report read by treasurer Arthur Lee showed total receipts of $1,990.44 for the year. Mr. Lee, on resigning from the office of treasurer, was accorded a hearty vote of appreciation for the many years of valuable service he has rendered the work carried on in Victoria in the interest of the sailor. Reeve Lockley, R. H. Pooley, M. F. P., and Alderman David Leeming all paid a high tribute to Mr. Lee.

T. Wright Hill, Port Missionary, read his report, indicating the number of visits made to the ill and needy disclosing the fact that his work is one of great value. Mr. Hill spends his entire time in practical Christian service in the interest of sailors, soldiers, and others and his activities are not only appreciated by those directly connected with the organization, but by the community at large. Appreciation of the assistance given by Mrs. Sayers, Heaton's and Capitol orchestras and the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I. O. D. E., was expressed. The death of Miss Maud Cridge was deeply regretted.

Reeve Lockley commended the ladies on the work they were doing.

All of the reports read by the lady representatives showed that good results had been attained.

Mrs. Sayers read the report of the Ladies' Guild, outlining care and entertainment extended to visiting sailors. Many bulky Christmas hampers and packets of magazines, books and other reading matter had been sent to the lighthouses.

Mrs. Gordon Smith gave an excellent report of the finances of the Guild showing that the receipts for this year, added to the $484 on hand at Kingham, Col. Wilby, Captain J. W. Troup, E. Vernon-Thomson, Miss A. Pooley and W. F. Povah
