We Celebrate

What if Carmel was a little previous last Thursday in celebrating the victorious peace. At least, we all had an opportunity to give vent to long pent-up emotions.

And we were not alone. New York, Chicago, San Francisco, and other cities fell for the same fake news.

After it was all over, several newspapers, published in towns that did not celebrate the same news that we received, boasted that they awaited official confirmation. Boah!

We are glad we had our street parade, our bell-ringing, speech-making and music.

When the "honest-to-goodness" news came on Monday we had a big bonfire celebration on Ocean Avenue.

Bob Leidig sent up a patriotic balloon. We all sang "The Star-spangled Banner" and "God Save the King." Then we heard a plea for Carmel people to do their allotted share in this week's United War Fund Campaign.

After that, young folks and old danced on San Carlos Highway.

Pine Needles

Mrs. Maxtone-Graham and her daughter, Mrs. Hare, came down last week to recuperate from the influenza.

Even after the war the American Library Association service will go on, because repatriation will take a year or two, and the Army is to be put to school during that period. Even after that, for the American library system has taken root in France. Subscribe to the War Fund.

The fund to send the Pine Cone to the Carmel boys in the Army and Navy has reached $12.25, and subscriptions covering this amount are being regularly forwarded.

With the customary reverence and pomp and ceremony San Carlos Day was celebrated at Carmel Mission last Sunday. Father R. M. Mestre conducted the services.

Mrs. Ernest Duvonck is expected home this week. She has been in the East several weeks.

Mrs. Nash a New York artist, with her mother, are here for the winter. They have taken the Marion residence.

Wm. Graham Murray has a letter from his people in Scotland announcing that his brother, Sergeant John Murray of the Black Watch, has received the Croix de Guerre for bravery in action.

Katharine Cooke's friends greet her now in the same old way. It is a month now since she left the hospital, so the danger of her communicating the flu bug is nil.

The rule of the P. I. Co. forbidding the running of dogs at large in the Del Monte Forest is being strictly enforced, as a measure of protection for the sheep that keep the grass short on the golf links.

Joseph Macaulay, who will be remembered as the leading man in the "Sons of Spain," given here in 1914, is now eligible to be an ensign in the Navy. He passed first in his class.

Mr. J. Guisance, a frequent visitor here, who is connected with the San Francisco Seaman's Institute, registered at Pine Inn this week. With him was Mr. Richardson, formerly one of the foremost English amateur cricket players.

Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Leidig, Miss E. A. McLean, R. W. Hicks, and R. E. Crouch. Song leaders were Mrs. Mabel G. Young and Mrs. Frances C. Pudas. The piano was loaned by Mrs. Ivy Basham.

The Library War Service has branch libraries in every Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and Jewish Welfare "hut" in the camp. Subscribe to the fund today.

Douglas Greeley is down from Grass Valley, where he has been employed by the State Highway Commission. He is in the next Army call.

The first Carmel affair to be given when things become normal again will be the comedy, "The Private Secretary." It will be given by the Arts and Crafts Club at the Manzanita Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanton (Nora), for many years the hosts at West Point Inn, Mt. Tamalpais, visited Garnet Holme last Friday. They have been closely identified with the famous Mountain Plays.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pockham of Pasadena, who have resided here several months, are now occupying the Warren house at the Highlands.

Masking Order

The Carmel Board of Health hereby orders as follows:

All persons entering the City for a short or long period, coming from places where the influenza has been prevalent, or where they have been directly exposed, are hereby ordered to wear a gauze mask in public during their stay here.

Prof. A. W. Lawson is on his way to France, according to word received here by Mrs. Lawson last week.

The Ohm family is expected down from the Cupertino ranch this week, to remain over Thanksgiving.

A number of friends of Mr. L. S. Slevin gathered at the Slevin home on Friday evening to help celebrate the gentleman's birthday.

Mrs. Lucy Wolters, for years a highly esteemed resident of Carmel Valley, passed away last Sunday, a victim of the dread Spanish influenza. She leaves many relatives to mourn her passing.

Some Experiences of a New "Y" Man in France

Perry Newberry Writes Interesting Account of His Work and Observations

THIRD ARTICLE

September 1, 1918

There is still war in France, for all around me pop the big guns, overhead buzz the Jerry-planes, and the mules kick along the picket line. Also it hailed to day and we all got wet. Also we had roast beef, boiled potatoes, cabbage, carrots, stewed apricots, bread and coffee for dinner. Not a particularly good dinner either, as dinners go in the 304th F. E. We live pretty high, believe me; and every day or two I yank in chocolate, cookies, jellies, jams, cigarettes, gum, cigars, etc., from the Y. M. C. A., and the boys certainly have no kick on the food question.

Be-cootied they are—and dirty. Not a chance for a bath or a change of underwear for months—and officers and men scratch and curse their dirtiness. I haven't had my clothes off since I joined the army, but I have not seen or felt a cootie yet.

Believe me, I have to work. To obtain supplies I have to go twelve miles, sometimes afoot, sometimes on horseback, more often in an autotruck. I've been lost several times and wandered miles out of my way. Day before yesterday, while on horseback, a Boche airplane flew low up the road and machine-gunned a line of infantry as I was passing. The infantry took cover in the ditch beside the road, while I galloped under the plane. I do not know how many the Boch landed.

When I get my supplies in, I apportion them out to the different batteries and companies, make up the boxes and see that they get into the proper men's hands for distribution. A large proportion goes up to the batteries, to the men on the guns, and I have to see that the boxes and sacks get on the ration wagons. I have an assistant, Private Brown, who was a school teacher in Brooklyn, and he is a dandy at this game. I have been able to get the boys two and three distributions a week, which is about ten times as much as they had before, so I stand well with them.

There is a great deal of rain, and rain is worse than shrapnel and almost as bad as gas to the men at the front. A shelter-tent, thirty inches high and six feet square, for two men, is far from being commodious and they do not shed rain worth mentioning. I am wet a great deal of the time, damp all the time, and cold some of the time. But, honestly, I enjoy it and will be sorry if the continued rumors of peace are true. I want enough more actual war to help drop shells into German cities and watch them crumble into dust and ashes like some of the French towns I have passed thru. We at the front want no German peace, and we are willing to fight in wet and cold until we get our peace—a righteous retributive peace. The Huns have never played fairly at war as individuals or collectively, and this peace they seek is as unfair as their methods of warfare. We must gain our own kind of peace.

It is morning again, a cold raw misty morning. I have started a camp fire in front of my shelter-tent.

GREEN TRADING STAMPS

I have dispatched a sergeant on horseback on a twelve-mile jaunt to the rail-head for newspapers. There is a barrage being laid down on our front which sounds like a continuous roll of drums, no shot being distinct in the enormous mass of shots. I have had my breakfast—bacon, pork and beans and coffee—and scraped the mud off my boots. I have been down to the captain's camp fire and passed the time 'o day with the company officers, learning that we will move this echelon this afternoon or perhaps tomorrow morning. Our guns moved ahead twelve kilometers last night, driving the Germans out of the woods. The enemy is on the run. Only his long range guns reach us now. Not a dozen shells fell in our neck of the woods last night, they tell me. I hadn't known of any, for I slept all night.

Well, moving the echelon means tearing down my tent, packing my boxes and roll-up, fiding a day or a night with Bill Hawkins, and making a new camp in the mud. Very well. So be it. War is hell.

Uncle Sam sends out the call; 3,000,000 boys are waiting for your answer.

 My dear sir:

Please permit me to express to you my appreciation of the good news conveyed in your letter of November 7th, that the University amendment carried in your district by such a good majority.

The good work carried on by your publicity is undoubtedly responsible for this result, and I certainly thank you for it.

Cordially yours,
 Ralph P. Merritt

Red Cross Notes

The only discomfort in having Fritz run so fast is the inability of Army supply wagons to keep up with the Yanks. At various times during recent drives on the west front Red Cross canteens furnished chow to the boys when the Boches were retreating in high gear. Airships delivered emergency rations. For plain and unadulterated ingenuity, pin roses on the Yanks.

Keep on gathering nut shells and fruit seeds for gas masks. Though the enemy army cries "Kamerad," Uncle Sam will not relax his vigilance. On with the drive.

Many will be the fervid blessings poured out in behalf of the United States by thousands of warmly clad Belgians this winter. Word has come from Washington that responses to the Red Cross appeal exceeded expectations.

Christmas parcels may be sent to person in the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Salvation Army, and similar organizations operating with the military and naval forces of the United States, or serving in the armies of the Allies in Europe or allied expeditious forces elsewhere. The nearest relative of anyone in the these organizations may deposit with the nearest Red Cross Chapter one Xmas package conforming to the regulations. Full information may be obtained from the Work-room Director of Carmel Chapter.

A Narrow Escape

A favorable wind and hard work on the part of the fire department saved Pine Inn from destruction by fire on Tuesday night.

A Japanese employee of the hotel, occupying one of the shacks in the rear of the large building, was awakened by a burning cloth near his couch. Before he could get assistance or water the blaze gained much headway.

Two autos were removed from the garage close by when the fire was at its height.

There was a strong pressure of water and the hydrants worked well. Chief J. E. Nichols directed the fire-fighters.

Grain Saved by Clean Threshing

In thirty-three states where campaigns toward cleaner harvesting and cleaning have been conducted, more than 16,000,000 bushels of wheat has been saved, according to reports made public today by the United States Food Administration for California. This saving represents wheat cargoes of 30,000 bushels each for 500 food ships, and will materially aid America to save and export the 17,500,000 tons of foodstuffs pledged prior to June 30, next.

Many other states where the food administration's so-called "blanket test" has shown growers how to determine when a threshing machine is extracting the grain properly, have reported greatly reduced harvest losses, and other methods of farm conservation have resulted in further savings of marketable grain.

Under agreement of the food administration with the food controllers of the Allied nations, our breadstuffs export program for the coming year will aggregate 409,320,000 bushels, which is equivalent to more than 60 bushels for every farm in the United States. Of this total between 190,000,000 and 165,000,000 bushels will be rye, barley and corn.

Trustee Meeting

Owing to Election night last Tuesday, the regular monthly meeting of the City Trustees was held on Wednesday night.

It was a short session, devoted mainly to routine matters.

Trustee Taylor was authorized to look into the matter of two new lights on Ocean Avenue.

Trustee Kibbler's suggestion that the wearing of gauze masks be made obligatory only when the first influenza case occurs here, was concurred in.

Treasurer L. S. Slevin's report showed the city's finances in good shape.

Second reading was given a new ordinance amending the present tax ordinance.

To the People of Carmel :

Your committee for the United War Work Campaign feels sure that if the last three days of the week show as many contributions as on previous days, we shall "go over the top."

But to do this, those of you who have not yet given, should delay no longer.

And your gifts should be generous — as generous as you can afford to make them. If they are so, we shall not make a house-to-house canvas. All gifts will have been voluntary—a fine thing!

Think of what your money will do for our boys "over there"!

And respond promptly—and generously—at the Pine Cone office.

And a Thousand Fighters Call Him Dad!

THERE is a new kind of fighter in this war. He wears a uniform but he doesn't carry a gun. He carries cheer and comfort and a great big heart. Never mind whether his uniform shows the emblem of the Y. M. C. A. or the Knights of Columbus, the Jewish Welfare Board or the Salvation Army. He doesn't care—and neither does your boy.

This new kind of fighter is making a new kind of fight. He is fighting against lonesomeness and heart-ache and monotony and worry. He is fighting for that quality which wins wars—morale! Your boy has it. This man is fighting to let him keep it.

Maybe your boy hasn't had a letter for a long time. Or maybe there was something that worried him in the letter that he got this morning.

Or maybe he has had a disappointment—hoped for promotion and didn't get it. Or maybe he'd give a million dollars just to see his folks one minute.

It hurts to lock up things like that, deep down inside your heart. It helps to pour them out.

And that is where this man comes in—the Daddy of them all. They know that he will understand—that he won't laugh or preach. They know that he is there with the right word and the right pat on the back when it's needed most.

You Daddies of America, you men who want to go and can't, let's keep this Daddy on the job!

Why You Should Give Twice as Much as You Ever Gave Before!

The need is for a sum 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,000,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1918 these:

- 1,000 Recreation Buildings
- 1,000 Miles of Movie Film
- 100 Landing Stage Boats
- 2,000 Athletic Director
- 1,500 Libraries supplying 1,000,000 books
- 20 Hospital Buses
- 15,000 Big-brother "mentors"
- Billions of dollars of home comforts

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comfort of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theater, a crowded home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs.

Now give to motivate—the things that is winning the war!
