Fate or caprice may lead his feet
Ere that to-morrow come. Men have been known
Lightly to turn the corner of a street,
And days have grown
To months, and months to lagging years
Before they looked on loving eyes again.
Parting, at best, is underlaid with tears,
With tears and pain,
Therefore, lest death should come between,
Or time, or distance, clasp with pressure true
The palm of him who goeth forth; unseen
Fate goeth too! — Mary E. M. Davis.
