Thou'rt not for - get the past dearest Der - - mot, Nor that night in the sweet summer tide, When I listen'd to thy words low and love - - ing, Till I promised to be thy bride: And oft in the pur - ple twi - light, When the flow - ers are all a - - sleep, And the pure stars are look - ing on thee kindly, Thou wilt sit by my grave and weep; Thou wilt sit by my grave and weep. Fare thee well, fare thee well - But I'll not for - - get thee dearest Der - - mot, And my soul ev - er lov - ing and free Will be steal - - ing from the home of An - gels, To the earth with a bless - ing for thee.

Thou'rt then to me a trea - sure dearest Der - - mot, Thy love was the light of my life, And the last joy that withered in my ho - - som, Was the hope of be - com - ing thy wife: Oh how can I leave thee dar - ling, And ne - ver a - - gain see thy face: E - ven death would be wel - come dear - est Der - - mot, If he found me in thy em - brace: If he found me in thy em - brace, Fare thee well, fare thee well - But I will not for - - get thee where I'm go - - ing, And my soul e - ver lov - ing and free, Will be steal - - ing from the home of An - gels, To the earth with a bless - ing to thee.
