(ii) The Interpretation Act, 1921, applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3.—(i) The provisions of the Principal Regulations (other than those which relate to arrears cards, payment of arrears, record card and benefit records) shall with the necessary modifications apply to a person over 65 as if he were an insured contributor or an employed contributor who had not attained that age.

7. Where an employer has in his possession or under his control any Unemployment Book or Card issued under the Principal Regulations in respect of a person over 65, he shall, as soon as may be, return it duly stamped to that person, and that person shall forthwith surrender the Unemployment Book to the Ministry and the card to his Society, or if he is not a member of a Society, to the Ministry.
