Hussein Pacha is shut up in Schumla, and these measures were adopted to further the attack on that place. The march of Lieut. Gen. Ruliger upon Eski Stamboul has occasioned much uneasiness to the Turks, as they saw they were on the point of having the communication between the capital and the interior of the empire cut off. The Turks collected the greatest part of the cavalry and infantry and at-

Lord Hegesbury, the English Ambassador, arrived at Odessa on the 11th of Aug. It is said he is charged with important communications from his court.—On the 13th his lordship had a private audience with his Majesty, and had the honor to be introduced to the Empress and the Grand Duke Michael. On the same day there was a splendid Te Deum at the Cathedral, and thanksgiving for the taking of Kars. On the preceeding evening a courier reached that place, who brought despatches communicating the surrender of the Turkish fortress Poti, situated on the Asiatic Coast of the Black Sea, mas far from

FROM GREECE.—We learn, by the way of Corfu, that the Su tan has 8 positive orders to Ibrahim Pacha, not hi any means to leave the Morea. Intelligence has also been received at Corfu. FEGIE July 23, that 25 vessels from Alexan troops on board, had entered the port of the subscriber, to wit: of Navarino. It is added that Ibrahim Pacha has sent troops into the interio. of the Morea, to cut the corn and carry off all the cattle; and that these troops have spread devastation in every direction, and massacred some Greeks. As soon as this news arrived, the English and French admirals proceeded to Navarino with all the vessels under their command. Velley Bev, an Albanese Captain, having placed himself at the head of 8000 men, marched upon Arta, and after an assault of several hours took that fortress, and made the Bey prisoner. He then sent his brother, a man of great courage, at the head of 1000 men to Reschid Pacha's camp, to demand of him 6000 purses (about a million of Turkish piastres) threatening, in case of refusal, to sell Arta to the was about to take possession. The Revolutionists of Catalonia augment every day. The government maintains the strictest silence upon the subject; but it is well known that in the environs of Manreza there are more than 10,000 rebels.—In lower Arragon also, the revolt is beginning to break out. The 4th regiment of infantry of guards, under the command of M. Espelete, has marched from the capital for Catalonia:

American and English Tars .- I have athousand times observed one peculiar trait in the character of seamen.
