The Gospel Trumpet.

One day as I was walking
Along a lonesome road,
My Saviour came unto me,
And filled my heart with love:
He chose me for his watchman,
To blow the trumpet loud,
To cheer the weak believer,
And to invite the proud.

The cross appeared heavy,
I then was in my youth;
O how shall I be able
To speak the word of truth—
But Christ says: 'I'll go with you,
And you may fear no ill;
Go, blow the gospel trumpet,
And do your master's will.

I said unto my Saviour,
My talents are but small;
Perhaps they will not hear me,
If on them I do call;
But if they will not hear you,
With you I shall go well;
Go, blow the gospel trumpet,
While they go down to hell.

These precious words of Jesus,
Caused me to mourn and weep,
My conscience spoke of Jonah,
As he lay in the deep.
I took the cross upon me,
I then began to blow,
I'll blow the gospel trumpet,
I'll blow where'er I go.

Come all ye blood-bought purchase,
On you I call to-day;
Fall at the feet of Jesus,
And there begin to pray.
Sinners! if you refuse him,
I'll bid you all farewell,
And blow the gospel trumpet,
While you go down to hell.

Behold the blood of Jesus,
Spied on mount Calvary;
Look up by faith and view him,
And he will set you free.
But if you do refuse him,
And disobey your Lord:
I'll blow the gospel trumpet,
And clear me of your blood.

HOME, MOTHER, HEAVEN.—What words so sweet as these! They bring forth such thoughts and feelings as remind us of all that is dearest and best here and hereafter. What place so sweet as home, where, in our childhood, we gathered about the knees of our mother, and spoke of holy and heavenly things? What blessed counsel fell from that mother's lips, counsel which, remembered years after, on the moment of temptation, stayed the uplifted arm, the angry word, and made us again like a little child, while we wept bitter, scalding tears of penitence. In that moment, when we turned away a better, a holier man, was our mother's love and care for us repaid. The remembrance of a far distant home oft saves the mariner from destruction, for he works willingly, being nerved to do his duty as his thoughts cross the sea—to his home where waits his wife and babe in silent anxiety, praying for the safe return of their loved one; and with a brave heart he puts forth every energy. The truant son, cast in prison, and awaiting condemnation for his crimes, thinks of his fond mother's love for her erring boy, and he swears, if permitted to be once more free, he will return to her who loves him.

Speak to that old man yonder, steeped in sin and wickedness—of holy things. He is unmoved, but I utter only the simple word "mother!" and it awakens an echo in his heart. There is still one cord unbroken, one green spot left untainted in his heart, through all these years of sin and vice.

What word reminds us so much of all that is calm, peaceful and holy as heaven? The echo of it seems to shed a solemn calm on our hearts. Were it not for the remembrance of that blessed home many a poor soul would give up struggling for holier things, and sink into the arms of iniquity forever.

Who can look upon the beautiful clear sky and doubt there is a place beyond more glorious than mortal eyes ever beheld? How the weary pilgrim longs and pants for a home in heaven. What joy will it be, after our long, toilsome journey, to ascend and be at home with our motes and friends who have preceded us. What bliss to walk along with the lamb of God, to be at peace, at rest, at last, at home.

MAKE A BEGINNING.—Remember in all things, that if you do not begin, you will never come to an end. The first weed pulled up in a garden, the first seed set in the ground, the first shilling put in the savings bank, and the first mile travelled on a journey are all important things; they make a beginning and thereby a hope, a promise, a pledge, an assurance that you are in earnest with what you have undertaken. How many a poor, idle, erring, hesitating outcast is now creeping and crawling his way through the world, who might have held up his head and prospered, if, instead of putting off his resolutions of industry and amendment, he had only made a beginning.

"You're my idle," as the quizzical husband said to his lazy wife.

IMPROVEMENT OF AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITIONS.

Agricultural exhibitions should be something more than mere shows to excite and gratify curiosity. In conducting them, this has been the principal motive apparent to too great an extent, whether or not designed by those having them in charge. Of what practical value is it to a cultivator to look upon a bullock fattened to unwieldy proportions, or a beet or pumpkin grown to monstrosity? Such displays, it is true, call forth expressions of wonder, and are interesting as being out of the ordinary line, but for all practical purposes there would be equal benefit in examining Barnum's woolly horse. At the exhibition of a County Agricultural Association held last year, and attended by the writer, the most instructive feature was a collection of samples of wheat, accompanied in each instance with a statement of the kind, time of sowing, method of treatment, period of ripening, and yield per acre. There was material enough in that corner for hours of profitable study, and a few knowing ones were busy there taking notes for future use. Without doubt many of their crops the present year will show that a most profitable day was spent at the exhibition. We insist that each article exhibited should be in itself an epitome of some valuable facts for cultivators, and that it should be accompanied with such written notes that the whole story could be readily gathered by the observers. It is comparatively easy to fill up a show specimen according to present method. Plant a few hills of Pumpkins on ground expressly prepared for the occasion. Select the most vigorous vine, leave only the most promising sample of fruit, prune the rampant growth and dose with liquid manure, and ultimately a monster may be the result. But who thinks this would pay in ordinary practice? And so of other agricultural productions. It may not be so attractive, but it is far more worthy attention to carefully conduct an experiment which, if successful, may be profitably repeated, and exhibits its results, and the details by which they were reached. It is pleasant and harmless amusement now and then to produce and exhibit articles of unusual proportions, but it is beneath the dignity of cultivators to allow such displays to be the chief attractions at their exhibitions. To a large extent the visitors at exhibitions are responsible for the mismanagement now objected to. They attend the annual agricultural gathering more with a view to sight-seeing, than of seeking improvement, and managers feel compelled to cater to their taste in order to raise the requisite funds for the support of the institution. Hence, the stimulus of prizes for the largest and most showy articles, the patronage of the race course, and the tolerance and introduction of shows entirely foreign to the object of the meeting. It is fully in the province of the managers of Agricultural Associations to institute a reform in these particulars, and to educate the public to a just appreciation of the appropriate work of such Exhibitions, viz, to show the proceeds of the best culture, and the methods by which all may secure like results. Farmers will gladly spend a few days and dollars if they can gather facts which shall increase their harvests or lighten their labors. It is not intended by these remarks to entirely condemn the present management of Agricultural Exhibitions in this country, but only to call attention to some growing abuses which threaten to bring these almost indispensable institutions into contempt. Taken as a whole, our Annual Exhibitions will compare favorably with those of any other country; it should be our aim not only to make them superior to others, but to raise them to the highest possible standard of excellence.—Am. Agriculturist.

A surprising affair occurred at Kirkheaton, Yorkshire, England, when some children, in two separate houses, were, while sleeping in their beds, attacked most savagely by rats. Three children of one family were put to bed at the usual time, in their bed on the ground floor, and soon afterwards their parents retired to bed upstairs. During the night the parents were aroused by the screaming of one of the children, who declared that one of the other children was biting him. The noise of the children continuing, the mother got up and went down stairs. She was surprised to see blood streaming from all three of them, and on turning down the bedclothes was horrified at seeing four large rats jump from the bed, no fewer than twelve of them being in the room. All three children were more or less severely bitten on the head, arms and hands. The same night another child, in a house nearly adjoining, was bitten in a similar manner. On Tuesday night week, a man living in the same locality was also attacked by these ferocious animals while asleep in bed.

If we grasp quicksilver, it slips through the fingers; and this is apt to be the case with most silver.

SUMMER TREATMENT OF FRUIT TREES.

Much of the work of the pruning knife can be anticipated by a little care during the growing season. Dwarf fruit trees, especially, can be kept in such a condition that they will rarely require much cutting. Buds tending to develop into superfluous branches may be removed altogether, and branches making too vigorous growth of wood may be shortened and induced to form fruit buds. If in the Spring we examine a shoot of a pear tree for instance, we shall find a strong terminal bud with lateral buds at intervals, and that those lateral buds are largest and best developed near the end of the shoot and that those lower down are gradually smaller. In the Spring the terminal bud starts to grow and prolong the stem; a few of the upper side buds produce shoots while the lower ones do not start at all. The buds near the extremities are the strongest and appropriate all the nourishment, while those below are starved. If in the Summer, while this shoot is forming, we pinch off the point of it, the supply of food which would have gone to continue its growth and form the strong upper buds, is directed elsewhere: the lower buds receive nourishment which they would not otherwise have had, and some of them will be likely to form fruit buds. This pinching off the shoots to induce the formation of fruit-buds, is practiced by all good cultivators upon their dwarf trees. They are thrown into bearing much earlier, and are made much more fruitful than when this is neglected. The time at which it is done will be determined by the season; whenever the shoot has made a growth of three to six inches, according to the vigor of the variety, it is pinched off by means of the thumb and finger, at the sixth leaf, counting from below. It often happens that a shoot stopped in this way, pushes again from the upper bud. In this case the second growth should be pinched back to three leaves. Summer pinching should be practiced on young trees, to cause them to grow into proper shape. The upper branches of a young nursery tree, which has been cut back often, make such a vigorous growth as to overtop the leader: by pinching back these shoots, in time the tree may be brought into a proper conical shape. By timely pinching, the tree may not only be shaped at will, but be induced to bear fruit several years earlier than it otherwise would, and all cutting out of large branches be obviated.—Am. Agriculturist.

AN AWKWARD STATEMENT.

Several weeks ago, when one of our present justices of the Superior Court was district attorney, rather a laughable incident occurred, as related by himself. Court week he used to occupy a bed-room at Lewis' Hotel, the principal hotel at the county seat. He had his books and papers in this room—here he drew his indictments—and in important cases he used to direct the sheriff to bring the peoples witnesses for preliminary examination. It happened at one session that he had an important murder case coming on. The celebrated General (now Judge) Nye was counsel for the defendant. He examined the witnesses, as usual, and took careful minutes of what they would state on the stand. He found that a lady was the most important witness for the people, and he also discovered that she was rather excitable and highstrung, and a fast talker. Apprehensive of trouble he'd caution her a little. So he told her when she came on the stand not to talk. "Pay attention," says the district attorney, "to my questions, and answer them, but don't talk; and when Nye comes to examine you, you must be very careful and not get excited; for he's a great blackguard, and will try to get you mad. Just pay attention to his questions, and answer them—no matter how often repeated or how apparently silly—but don't allow him to get you off your balance." The district attorney and witness parted for the night. The next day the case came on. The district attorney called his witness, and she went through with her evidence, on the part of the people, to his perfect admiration, and he handed her over to Nye. He went along while very smoothly. Pretty soon he began to crowd her and she began to "flare up;" he crowded her the more and she resented the more, and very soon they had a regular breeze. Finally, losing all self-control, she broke out on him as follows: "I won't answer any more of your contemptible questions; you're a nasty, dirty blackguard, and the district attorney told me so!" After the laugh had partially subsided, Nye said: "What! the district attorney told you so? When and where did he tell you so?" "He told me so last night, up in his bed-room." The scene which followed this answer may be readily imagined. In the midst of the about Nye told the witness she might "pass."

It rained so in Boston, the other day, that all the fishes in the harbor crowded under the bridge to get out of the wet.

NECESSITY OF OCCUPATION.

It is an imperative law of Nature that in order for any one to be happy they must have some occupation. The mind is so constituted that it requires some object on which its powers may be exercised, and without which it prays upon itself and becomes miserable. A person accustomed to a life of study longs for ease and retirement; and when he has accomplished this purpose he finds himself wretched. We are acquainted with persons whose early lives were passed in active business pursuits, and who, at the age of 40, having acquired a competence, have retired from business with the intention of passing the remainder of their days in leisure. For a while every thing seemed pleasant, and they flattered themselves that they could now enjoy life and be happy. But they had deceived themselves; their minds soon became restless, and there was a vast amount of time that they could not occupy, and they have said that their happiest days were passed in business. The pleasure of relaxation can be known only to those who have regular and interesting occupation, and on this account continued relaxation becomes a weariness, and the mind becomes tired of being inactive, and on this ground we maintain that the greatest degree of real happiness and enjoyment is not realized by the luxurious men of wealth, nor by the listless votary of fashion, but by the middle classes of society who, along with the comforts of life have constant occupation, which in itself proves one of their many sources of happiness. From these facts we draw the following conclusions:—That in order to be happy the mind must have some employment; but we would observe that it is not necessary for any person to make their occupation the sole end of their existence, and pursue it with such energy as to shorten their lives; but we believe that occupation, with proper seasons for relaxation, is conducive to and actually necessary for the happiness and welfare of every human being, and without it no one can enjoy life.

REBEL JOURNALISM.

The Sacramento Union has received a veritable copy of the Raleigh (North Carolina) Progress, of June 29th, from which it copies the following:

"The Yankees are all being killed up and we shall have peace in about six weeks. After every fight the telegraph tells us that the 'enemy' lost heavily—no one hurt on our side." The telegraph is a great institution. According to its statement Grant has lost nearly a half million of men since the siege of Vicksburg commenced. On this subject the Mobile Tribune says:

An ingenious friend of ours, highly gifted in the science of collecting statistics, sends us the following from his place of seclusion in the country:

"We have multitudinous rumors up here from Vicksburg. I figured up a few of them recently, and the result was that Grant had lost 265,000 killed, 1,825,000 wounded, and 2,000,000 prisoners since he commenced his attack upon the Hill city, and that he still had a tremendous army left! Most of the rumors are implicitly believed by the people hereabouts. I am somewhat skeptical, although I have no doubt Grant will be driven away from Vicksburg. The story of the capture of sixteen hundred of the enemy's gunboats at Port Hudson was rather staggering—was not universally credited—but the report of the taking of five hundred at Vicksburg, crews, armament and all, went down like hot cakes with fresh butter."

A CHURCH-GOING DOG.

A gentleman on Long Island owned a dog that regularly accompanied the family to church on Sunday, and also to the meeting held on Wednesday evening. If, however, for any reason none of them attended the service, the dog would start by himself, take his place where his master was accustomed to sit, and remain until the benediction was pronounced. This occurred rather frequently one season, and the sexton thinking his room better than his company, one day kicked him out. The dog immediately started for another church, about a quarter of a mile distant, took his place inside near the door, and remained a regular attendant at his new place of devotion until his death, which occurred recently.

A LADY paying a visit to her daughter who was a young widow, asked her why she wore the widow's garb so long?

"Dear mamma," replied the daughter, "it saves me the expense of advertising for a husband, as every gentleman can see for himself that I am for sale by private contract."

"Don't you think my son resembles me?" inquired an apothecary, as he introduced a greasy faced boy to the witty Dr. Meek. "Yes," replied the doctor, pretending to scan the physiognomy of each—"Yes, I think I see your ailments in his countenance."

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8TH, 1863.

Declaration of Homestead.

Persons wishing to procure a correct legal form for making out a Declaration of Homestead, as required by the Act of the last Legislature, with the acknowledgement attached thereto, will find printed blanks, on application to the KNIGHTS LANDING NEWS OFFICE. By filling out these blanks themselves, parties will be subject to no other expense than the fees for acknowledgement and record.

CHILDREN IN KNIGHTS LANDING.

The following returns have been furnished us by the Census Marshall as the result of the census just taken of school children of the Grafton District No 7: Children between 4 and 18 years.....97 Under 4 years.....47 Total number of children under 18.....112 Number of boys between 4 and 18.....45 Number of girls from 4 to 18.....55 Number reported attending public school.....42 do. private school.....11

There are others attend the private school, but they do not permanently reside in the district, and are not innumera- ted above.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.—The law passed by the United States Congress fixes the rates of postage on newspapers on and after the 1st of July, as follows:

Daily, per quarter.....35 Six times a week, per quarter.....30 Tri-weekly, per quarter.....15 Semi-weekly, per quarter.....10 Weekly, per quarter.....5

There is no longer any difference by reason of the circulation in or out of the state where published. The postage must be paid before the delivery of the paper. Persons having boxes in the post-office, to avoid inconvenience, should deposit a small sum with the Postmaster, as he is under Oath not to give credit even to the amount of three cents to any one. Two cents are required to send a paper.

THE receipts of the San Francisco Custom House for July were $417,185 31

JUDGE PRATT, of the 17th Judicial District, has decided that the test oath for litigants, prescribed by the last Legislature, is unconstitutional, absurd, ridiculous and disgraceful. The law only requires that a litigant charged with disloyalty shall take an oath to support the Constitution and Government before he can go on with his suit.

WE would call attention to the advertisement in another column of Hostetter, Smith and Dean, San Francisco.

BARLEY.—The Bulletin of August 1st says barley comes forward freely, and prices of the new crop are drooping—the supply being in excess of the demand.

UNION CONVENTION.—To day (Saturday) the Union County Convention will meet at Woodland for the purpose of nominating county officers.

The Agricultural, Horticultural and Mechanics' Society of the northern district of California will hold their fourth annual fair, cattle show and industrial exhibition, at Marysville, six days, commencing September 7th.

ARE YOU GOING TO THE SHOW TONIGHT? An Exhibition of the Great London Stereoscope will be given this (Saturday) evening, at the Union Hotel, commencing at a quarter before 8 o'clock. Among other things it contains splendid views of Niagara Falls, the entire scenery of the White Mountains of New Hampshire, scenery of the Mammoth Cave, Kentucky, Voyage across the Atlantic ocean, with a perfect representation of a storm at sea, scenery of the mountains of Switzerland, and scenery and ascent of Mont Blanc.

REESE RIVER COAL.—Bituminous coal of excellent quality has been discovered at Reese River, which will prove to be a valuable commodity to that mining region.

STOLEN.—On Saturday last, a fine mare, belonging to M. D. Rahm, was stolen from Woodland.

MARRIAGE LICENSES to the number of 127 were issued in San Francisco during the last month.

THERE were two earthquake shocks at San Francisco on Saturday night.

THERE were 574 patients in the Stockton Asylum on August 1st.

DIPLOMAS.—The State Agricultural Society announces that several diplomas are waiting to be taken away.

THIS WEEK we have no war news at all of any importance, with the single exception of Gen. Buford's reconnaissance near Culpepper Court House. His engagement with the enemy last Saturday was not a very great affair, but the fact that Gen. Lee, with his headquarters only a few miles south-east of Culpepper Court House, and with a considerable force of infantry at the Court House, permitted Buford's forces after the fight to rest at Brandy Station, five miles from the Court House, is significant, as indicating that Lee is determined not to risk a general engagement in that vicinity. General Meade seems at present to be engaged chiefly in receiving and organizing the new levies of drafted men from the eastern States, and so there will probably be a several weeks' "all quiet on the Rappahannock," unless Gen. Meade unexpectedly should determine upon a forward movement.

No intelligence has been received from Gen. Rosecranz since his cavalry occupied Huntsville, Alabama, on the 18th of July. It is not improbable that he waits for re-inforcements from Gen Grant, in order to have "a sure thing" on Bragg, when the proper time arrives. If this conjecture proves correct, the rebels in Tennessee and Mississippi are also likely to remain undisturbed for a short period, as it is announced from Vicksburg that the army there is undergoing a "thorough renovation."

It is reported from rebel sources, that Gen. Banks has been repulsed in Louisiana, but as Union dispatches from Vicksburg up to July 30th make no mention of it, it is probably only a canard, set on foot by rebel newspapers to enliven the sinking spirit of their readers.

Advices from Morris Island give no details of Gen. Gilmore's operations, but full confidence is expressed, that Charleston eventually will be taken. Our fifteen-inch shot must have told on Fort Sumter, as the rebels have been trying to protect its walls with cotton bales. The experiment failed, however, owing to the cotton taking fire from the guns of the fort itself.

The unconditional Union men in Kentucky have elected their candidates for Congress and State officers with about 20,000 majority.

WITHIN the last two weeks several horses have been taken from this vicinity, and it has been ascertained that a regular organized band of horse thieves infests this county, who are connected in the mountains with others of their gang. The farmers of our neighborhood are waking up to the necessity of a more careful vigilance respecting their stock, and hereafter all stock crossing at any of the ferries with suspicious parties will be closely examined. Farmers, attend to your interests in this matter.

Several men loitering around the country are closely watched. Some of them are known. One Chas. Smith, alias Howard, alias &c., &c.—an old State Prison convict, who escaped some years ago and was retaken at Placerville—has been seen hereabouts, and a sharp lookout is kept for him. Also in Woodland is known to be one of the same gang.

ACCORDING to the returns of the School Census Marshal, recently made to the office of the County Superintendent of Common Schools, there are in 18 of the 21 school districts of Yolo county, 1,290 children between the ages of 4 and 18 years, against 1,183 by the census of last October, showing an increase of 107, or more than 8 per cent. The entire number will probably exceed 1,500. The districts from which returns have not been received, are Monument, Washington and Merritt.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.—On Saturday next, the Teachers' Examination will come off at Woodland. A large attendance is expected.

CARSON City, with about 2000 inhabitants, has no church.

The Ship Boanerges sailed for China on Monday, with $344,700 in treasure.

DURING July $60,000 worth of bullion was shipped from Esmeralda.

The Odd Fellows' Hall and several stores at Vallejo were destroyed by fire on Sunday night.

The general election of Washoe is to be held on the 2d September, at the same time with that of this State.

OPENING ADDRESS.—Gov L. Stanford will deliver the opening address at the Agricultural State Fair to be held at Sacramento, commencing September 25th.

[Communicated.]

MR. EDITOR.—I find that an attempt is being made by certain members of the Union Republican party to injure Mr. E. Giddings, the present county Clerk of this county, and a candidate for re-election, by stating that he has employed "secession" deputies, meaning Mr. Samuel Ruland and myself. I find that this charge finds most of its force in the fact that I was once engaged for a few days in the clerk's office. Mr. Ruland seems to merit or receive but very little comment, and besides, he is abundantly able to speak for himself.

The facts in this matter are as follows: 1st. I am not a secessionist, but a peaceful law-abiding democrat of the copperhead genus.

2d. I never was the deputy of Mr. Giddings for more than 48 hours.

3rd. I was engaged for a few days, I believe three weeks, in the Auditor's department, working upon the Assessment Roll, the Delinquent List, &c. The reason why I was thus employed was the simple fact that no republican in Yolo county was able to do the work save one, Mr. Emery, and he was previously engaged in the Sheriff's office. If any one doubts this statement, let him point to one that could have been procured at that time. I confess that I would have been at a loss but for Mr. Ruland's assistance. My object in serving Mr. Giddings was money, and that I received.

My object in writing this statement is to do Mr. Giddings justice. I am opposed to him and to his election, always expect to be until he becomes a democrat. But I am not willing that my name should injure him under color of falsehood. If any republican is elected Clerk I confess a preference for Mr. Giddings, not that I expect or desire to be re-employed by him or in any way benefitted by his election, but I regard him as a gentleman, a quiet well behaved citizen, impartial in discharge of his official duties, an honest and life long Republican and beyond all comparison the best qualified man in his party for that office in this county.

I would state in conclusion that I do this at my own dictation, and that this publication will surprise no one more than Mr. Giddings. He never saw or heard of it. W. W. PENDEGAST.

DRAFT IN CALIFORNIA.—The Union's Washington correspondent writes:

There seems to be some uncertainty here as to the policy to be pursued in California touching the draft. If it were likely that there would be a large number of persons on the Pacific coast who would take advantage of the $300 clause, and thus help to raise the fund for the pay of volunteering returned soldiers, there is no doubt but the draft would be made in all the Pacific States; but as Californians are believed to be a fighting race, it is thought that many will accept the draft, and that the rest will find no difficulty in furnishing substitutes if it is once known that the men so raised are to go into active service on this side of the continent. Should you have any disturbances in the State or upon the border, from Indians or Secessionists, the draft will be made anyhow, and the enrollment will take place whether the conscription is made or not. Nobody has recommended any names to the Provost Marshal General for the appointments to be made in California under the conscription act, consequently none have been made, and Colonel Fry informs your correspondent that he waits for names to be submitted to him before taking any action. The law gives him no authority to exempt any State from enrollment, though economic reasons may induce the Secretary of War to exempt the States of the Pacific from an enforcement of the draft.

HOGS.—Congress has decided that a pig becomes a hog at six months old, and slaughtered hogs are mixed, while pigs are not. In one of the districts of New York city 160,000 hogs were slaughtered during the last two months. The assessors have no criterion by which to determine their ages, either by examining their teet, or measuring their tails; yet, in the performance of their duties, they are required to ascertain this fact. Congress will have to determine the criterion.

TREATY WITH THE SNAKE INDIANS.

—A Salt Lake dispatch says:

General Connor and Governor Doty made a treaty on Thursday, July 30th, at Box Elder, with the Chiefs Pocatella and Sagwich, who control the bands of Northern Indians, known as the Snakes or Shoshones. On his way to the treaty ground Sagwich was shot by a member of Captain Army's company, who were on their return from Fort Connor and were not informed of the projected treaty. Sagwich was not so badly wounded, however, as not to be able to attend. The only hostile Indians now consists of a small band of Goshutes, near Ruby, who have been driven back into the mountains, and must soon come in or be exterminated, there being six companies of soldiers at that place.

CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD.—James Bailey, Secretary of this road, made his report yesterday to the Board of Supervisors. By it we are informed that 6,000 tons of iron have been bought, part of which is shipped, and that 500 tons per month is to follow; six locomotives of various weight and power, passenger and freight cars sufficient for the opening of the road, including an expenditure in the aggregate of $850,000. The chief engineer, T. D. Judah, also reports in detail as to the grading and general construction of the road over the first division, which extends to near the Junction House, eight miles above the town of Auburn. The work from the point of intersection with the California Central Railroad (between Folsom and Lincoln) to Newcastle, is under contract, and remaining sections on the upper division of nineteen miles will soon be let to contractors. A surveying party is running and locating the second division of fifty miles, which will be put under contract next December. The third division will be ready for contractors by December 1st 1864.—Bee, Aug. 5th.

THE WESTERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Stockton Daily Independent of August 1st says:

We are happy to be enabled to state that the Company, on Thursday last, entered into a contract with Messrs. McLaughlin & Hueston, of San Francisco, for the construction of the Road from San Jose, via Stockton, to Sacramento, one hundred and twenty miles, the work to be completed, through, within the term of four years. The limit of time for the completion of the road to this city, in the absence of any estimate concerning the time that will be required to perform the work of tunneling about one and a quarter miles, was not embodied in the contract; but it is supposed that it will not exceed two years. It is expected that the portion of the road from San Jose to Vallejo's Mills, a distance of seventeen miles, will be completed and the cars running by February next.

BOUNDARY BETWEEN CALIFORNIA AND OREGON.—Geo Fall, who has been engaged with the party now running the boundary between California and this Territory, furnishes us with the following particulars relative to the survey: The line was run under the supervision of J. F. Houghton, Surveyor General of California, and Butler Ives, Commissioner of Nevada Territory, and John F. Kidder, acting as Chief Engineer, assisted by James Lawson. The party left Lake Bigler June 10th, and on the 9th of July the monument was erected on the Oregon line. The surveying party consisted of ten men, in addition to the Commissioner and Engineers, from Lake Bigler to Honey Lake, when they were reinforced by six others. At Smoky Creek Barracks, four soldiers joined them. The entire distance from Lake Bigler to Oregon was run by 20 men in one month. Honey Lake Valley was thrown into California, and a large part of Ting Valley. The party are now about starting for Lake Bigler, to run the southern line to the Colorado river.—Carson Independent.

THE ROAD TO REESE RIVER.—The Carson Independent says:

From Mr. Chas. G. Chadwick, who has just returned from Reese River with an ox team, we learn that the road hence is in miserable condition, being a succession of sandy deserts the whole distance. The only feed to be found on the road is at Edward's Creek, about 130 miles from here. Mr. J. Sharp's train, loaded with supplies for Camp Douglas, lost upward of fifty head of stock before he reached Jacobville. Hay is worth from 6 to 7 cents per pound; barley sells readily at 15 cents, and meals, consisting of bacon and bread, 75 cents; whiskey, being a decoction of sage-brush, tobacco and alcohol, with a very little water added, 25 per cent. On some portions of the road the sand holes are so deep as to render it almost impossible for loaded wagons to maintain their equilibrium. The immense emigration of this year has consumed all the feed in the immediate vicinity of the road. Now that this road has become a great thoroughfare, would it not be conducive to the growing importance of the Territory to take measures to improve it?

WHAT INVENTIONS HAVE DONE.—The N. Y. Tribune, in presenting from Hunt's Magazine a series of tables showing the increase of property in this country from 1800 to 1863, says: There has been an accumulation of very nearly $16,000,000,000, with an increase of income from $86,000,000 to nearly $2,000,000,000. In fact it appears that three-fourths of this accumulation and increase of income have been made during the last twenty years. It is evident, therefore, that the power of production has received an immense impulse in the present century, in great part owing to the application of steam to transportation, (which has virtually multiplied capital by causing its more rapid conversion,) and the invention of labor-saving machines, with which, as the cotton gin, for instance, one hand can now do the same work that required 400 hands formerly.

Boarding House and Restaurant.

The undersigned would respectfully announce to the public that she has opened a Boarding House and Restaurant, at the corner of Mill and Third streets, Knight's Landing. Warm Meals or Lunch at all Hours. [j12-tf] Mrs. R. L. SNYDER.

SOMETHING LIKE A WHALE!—The Sydney (N. S. W.) Herald of 18th February says:

Capt. Charles Nichols, of the whaler Sea Gull, reports that on August 26th, in latitude 25 37 south, longitude 175 20 west, he encountered a sperm whale, which he imagined would yield about four tons of oil. The harpooner of the first mate's boat struck him with an iron, when the whale turned and attacked the boat with his mouth, and broke it up, precipitating the six men which it contained into the water. The second boat harpooned him, and shared the same fate; and a third boat shared the fate of its predecessors. Thus 18 men were precipitated into the water, and a fourth boat, lowered for their rescue, picked them up. The fourth boat launched its harpoon, and was in turn attacked by the whale, and although not destroyed entirely, was very much injured. The Sea Gull was run down close to the boat's fasteners, but the whale directed his entire attention to the boats, never recognizing the presence of the ship. Two boats were then got out for the rescue of the men, who were safely picked up. Chase was then given to the whale, who, during the encounter, had never sunk. Night fell on before they could overtake him, and the pursuit was given up, although he was considered to be in a dying state from the wounds. He had in his body seven irons, to which were attached 700 fathoms of line. Capt. Nichols reports that during an experience of 26 years, he has never seen so dangerous a whale. Considering its small size, the fight it showed was most unusual.

NOT A LEGAL TENDER.—Under this heading the San Francisco Bulletin publishes the following:

Here is a curious decision. Judge Wright, of the Police Court of Boston, decided lately that "bar-tending" is not a lawful employment, and sentenced a man who claimed this calling, to the house of industry." Such is the latest emanation from the puritanical seat of Justice. If this is the law, our bar keepers here will not be sentenced to the "house of industry," but to the "chain gang."

Female Beauty.

Ladies whose complexion is not as clear as they could wish, instead of resorting to those poisonous preparations in the form of Cosmetics, &c., should use Dr. Guysott's Compound of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. By purifying the blood and enlivening the respiration it gives clearness to the complexion, brightness to the eye and elasticity to the skin. "Leaving that beautiful which was so, And making that so which was not." Vexatious eruptions on the face resulting from want of exercise or sluggish circulation of the blood, at once disappear under its influence, leaving a rich bloom of health, that no cosmetic can impart. Ladies who have tried it express themselves surprised and delighted.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

The following dispatches are from the Sacramento Union:

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, August 2d. Buford's cavalry, with artillery and a supporting infantry force, crossed the Rappahannock at the railroad station yesterday, and hence, with cavalry and artillery, proceeded toward Culpepper, driving Stuart's cavalry before them. When near Culpepper, Buford encountered a large force of rebel infantry and artillery. A fierce fight ensued, lasting until dark, when Buford withdrew to Brandy Station. The loss on both sides was considerable. This reconnaissance confirms the concentration of Lee's forces near Culpepper, and indicates that his headquarters are at Strassburg, four miles south-east of Culpepper.

New York, Aug. 3d. The following is from the Herald's dispatch, in regard to the fight on Saturday, August 1st: Buford's cavalry crossed the Rappahannock at a ford about a half mile above the railroad station, at nine o'clock on Saturday morning, 1st of August. The force was composed of nine cavalry regiments, and the expedition was for the purpose of ascertaining the exact position of the enemy, and the amount of force they had, as well as to see if they were disposed to dispute any crossing which we might attempt. A half mile from the ford, Buford encountered the enemy's cavalry, consisting of Jones's and Hampton's brigades, Cobb's Legion, and the Jeff. Davis Legion. Our cavalry drove the enemy gradually, without any severe fighting, as far as a point about a mile and a half this side of Culpepper, where they fell back on infantry supports. We were obliged to retire after a brief fight with both cavalry and infantry, the rebels outnumbering us two to one in the fight near Culpepper, which was the most important. We had a few killed and 60 wounded.

New York, Aug. 4th. The Times' special dispatch says: It is again asserted on the most undoubted authority that the main body of Lee's army is encamped between Rapidan Station and Orange Court House. It is positively known that this was the position on Wednesday night last, July 29th. Lee's real depot of supplies is Gordonsville. Two divisions of Longstreet's corps occupy Culpepper.

It is officially stated that the total number of wounded in the three days battle of Gettysburg is about 14,000. A fraction over 2,000 still remain in the hospitals there.

Chicago, Aug. 4th.—A rebel dispatch from Charleston, dated July 31st, says: Cummings Point was severely bombarded yesterday morning, commencing at ten A. M. The Ironsides and two Monitors were engaged. The bombardment lasted until three P. M., and was responded to by batteries Gregg and Wagner and Fort Sumter. No firing to day.

Louisville (Ky.), Aug. 4th. The election of State officers yesterday passed off quietly. The returns received indicate the election of Thomas H. Branlette, Union, over Charles A. Wickliffe, Democrat, for Governor, by 20,000 majority.

Philadelphia Aug. 4th. The draft in all the Congressional Districts of this city was completed to-day.

The Richmond Whig of Friday, July 31st, has a telegram announcing the death of William L. Yancey. The same paper says John B. Floyd is very ill and not expected to recover.

New York, August 4th. Money easy—a large supply seeking investment at 5 1/2 per cent; Sterling dull at 41; Gold opened at 28 5/8, and closed quiet at 27 3/4-27 7/8. Government Stocks without decided change.

The Richmond Dispatch, just received at Fortress Monroe, contains the following:

"As a partial relief from the unwelcome news which we have been receiving from the south, we have now intelligence that our forces gained a decided victory in Louisiana. The President yesterday received a dispatch from Lieutenant General Hardee stating that Gen. Dick Taylor had an engagement with the enemy under Gen. Banks, and that he had completely routed the enemy, capturing six thousand prisoners."

The Dispatch also publishes telegrams received from Weldon and Goldsboro (N. C.), announcing that the Federal forces had been repulsed near Fort Branch or Jackson, on the Roanoke river, and had retired to Plymouth. The same paper says the bridge over Tar river on the Wilmington and Weldon road, burned by the Yankees, in a recent raid, has been rebuilt, and trains are running regularly.

St. Johns (N. F.), Aug. 4th. The steamship Pacific went ashore yesterday morning, near Trepassy. No particulars received.

Cincinnati, Aug. 4th. As far as heard from, Clay [Thomas H.] and Smith, Unionists, have been elected to Congress from Kentucky. Returns of the State, heretofore considered doubtful, give a large majority for the Union candidates.

Vicksburg, July 30th. General Steele has been transferred to the command of Helena, Arkansas.

In the late movement against Jackson (Miss.), Sherman's loss in killed and wounded footed up about a thousand.

The army is now undergoing a thorough renovation, and some time will elapse before any movement of importance will be undertaken.

Reports in regard to Johnston are conflicting. It is certain, however, he can work us no harm.

The division under General Herron, at Natchez, obtained immense supplies of Confederate stores, including cattle from Texas and Salt from Louisiana, intended for Lee's army.

Washington, Aug. 5th. The National Republican contains an editorial to which semi-official importance is attached. It says, among other things: "If there shall be occasion for hostilities, and the two nations (the British and American) are likely to be involved in war, our steam marine will be at once converted into privateers, and the commerce of Great Britain will be swept from the ocean. This shows how the criminal neglect of the Queen of England's advisers tends to the disturbance of the peace of the world. War is not desirable, even with England, but war is not the greatest evil. A nation of spirit cannot submit to insolence and outrage through a series of years and make no effort to avenge its wrongs. The course of England during the trying period of our troubles has alienated every American of the loyal States, whatever his opinion upon the Administration or the conduct of the war. These are significant facts and indicate what a future is in store for us. The machinations of Napoleon in Mexico deserve attention and the country should bear in mind the great fact that the United States can restore Mexico to its place as a Republic whenever the attempt shall be made, and indeed it is not improbable that Napoleon will find an excuse for quitting a position which promises no good to the French empire."

New York, Aug. 5th. A Charleston letter, dated July 31st, says: The last day of July passes away with everything promising success, though perhaps not so soon as some may wish. All things are working well. We know that anxiety is felt in Charleston for the safety of the city. Last week there were hanging from the parapets of Sumter, as protection to the walls, lines of cotton bales. It told us plainly that fifteen-inch shot were equal to its destruction. But the cotton bales having been set on fire, as they were by their own guns, they were obliged to take them down. They are now piled up in scorched heaps behind the fort. Everything betokens fearfulness on the part of the rebels here, which is very encouraging to us.

Fortress Monroe, August 5th. The Charleston Courier of July 28th says: There were about 27 vessels inside the bar yesterday, including the Ironsides and six Monitors, and also 25 in Stone Inlet.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System. Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System. The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wanted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged. In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the oppressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Beware of Counterfeits. Purchase only of reliable dealers, Sold everywhere. HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN, Agents, 227 Montgomery street, (Russ Block), San Francisco.

Dr. Guysott's Improved EXTRACT OF Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla Will Cure without Fail

Scrofula or King's Evil, Cancers, Tumors, Eruptions of the skin, Erysipelas, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Old Sores and Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Diseases of the Kidneys, Loss of Appetite, Diseases arising from the use of Mercury, Pain in the Side and Shoulder, General Debility, Dropsy, Jaundice, Lumbago, &c.

Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla put up in the largest sized bottles, contains more of the Honduras Sarsaparilla than any other preparation extant, which is combined with the extract of Yellow Dock, the extract of Wild Cherry and the Balsam of Fir, thus making the remedy more thoroughly efficient than any other Sarsaparilla before the public. At the same time it is perfectly free from ALL mineral poisons, which can not be said of any other of the Sarsaparilla compounds. The Invalid should beware of poisons. Mercury, Iron, Quinine, Potash, Iodine, Sulphur, Arsenic, and many other mineral and metallic poisons enter into and form the active basis of most of the sarsaparilla and panaceas of the day. Guysott's Compound Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla does not contain a particle of the substances; as any one can ascertain by applying the necessary tests.

These poisons may occasionally remove disease, but they so vitiate the blood and impregnate the whole system with their baneful effects, that the first cold or the first attack of disease, prostrates the patient's strength and subjects him or her to the most excruciating torture, and renders another cure almost impossible and hopeless. Let all poisonous sarsaparilla preparations alone, and use Guysott's Improved Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which is thoroughly efficacious, perfectly harmless and purely vegetable. All kinds of diseases yield to its genial influence.

Caution.—Beware of counterfeits. All genuine Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla has the name of JOHN D. PARK, Present Proprietor, Cincinnati, O., on the label.

Remember this fact when buying, all without the name of "JOHN D. PARK, Cincinnati, Ohio," on the label are counterfeits. Sold by all Druggists. HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN, sole Agents for Pacific Coast, San Francisco.

MADAME R—, of Paris, who is still a coquette in her advanced maturity, came to a private evening party after 11 o'clock.

JERROLD went to a party at which a Mr. Pepper had assembled all his friends. Jerrold said to his host, on entering the room:

"My dear Mr. Pepper, how glad you must be to see all your friends mustered"

"MY DEAR," said a returned volunteer to his wife, "have you noticed any difference in my height since I left for the war?"

"No," she replied, "what do you mean?"

"O, nothing," holding up his injured limb, "only I am shorter one foot."

THE PRESIDENT IS CHARITABLE.—On a recent occasion, some ladies placed before the President the report of a committee on the building of a hospital, to which the President added a story.

AUGUSTA, Maine, says the Portland Argus, is one of the largest cities in the world. According to the journal it contains sixty square miles.

UNCLE OR FATHER?—"I say, boy, whose horse is that you're riding?" "Why it's daddy's." "Who is your daddy?" "Don't you know? Why, Uncle Jones."

WHAT kind of currency do the soldiers get when they "change their quarters?"

ALBERT GUN was recently discharged for false entries in the Quartermaster's Department at Washington. His dismissal reads thus: "A Gun discharged for making a false report."

To keep your friends, treat them kindly; to kill them, treat them often.

WHICH is the best way of retaining a woman's affections? By not returning them.

THE skeleton in every man's house—The wife's modern steel skeleton skirt.

"PADDY, where's the whiskey I gave you to clean the windows with?" "Och, master, I just drank it, and I thought if I breathed on the glass it would be all the same!"

SAY what you will of old maids, their love is generally more strong and sincere than that of the young milk and water creatures, whose hearts vibrate between the joys of wedlock and the dissipations of the ball-room.

WHAT is the greatest curiosity in the world? A woman's.

BAKER & HAMILTON, IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN Farming Implements & Machines, J STREET, BETWEEN FRONT AND 2D, Sacramento.

VIZ: Threshing, reaping and mowing machines; horse hay rakes, cast and steel plows, plow castings, cultivators, harrows, harrow teeth, churns, cheese presses, grain cradles, seed sowers, corn planters, corn shellers, hoes, horse hoes, shovels, spades and trowels, garden shears, reels and lines, gard rakes, straw cutters, sugar mills, fan mills, hay and manure forks, hay knives, axes, hatches, ax-handles, sickles, scythes, snathes, bush scythes, road scrapers, grind stones, wheel barrows, sausage cutters and stuffers, ox yokes and bows, patent bow pins, budding and pruning knives, well wheels and buckets, etc., etc.

PATENT COMBINED GANG PLOW, SEED SOWER AND HARROW.

We have purchased the right this great labor-saving implement for the State of California, and are having a number made in the Atlantic States for this market.

With this combined Machine one man, with six horses, can do the work of three twelve inch plows, besides sowing the grain, and harrowing it in as he proceeds, thus finishing his work in the best manner possible, without being obliged to travel over the plowed ground. This Machine was very thoroughly tested by the farmers of Santa Clara county, where some eighty are now in use; also, by the Messrs. Hensel & Kethley, of this county, and Messrs. Hoppin Brothers, near Cacheville, Yolo county. It is made very substantial, is not liable to get out of order, and being on large truck wheels, the Gang Plow, Seed Sower and Harrow, runs lighter than three plows would, cutting the same amount of land.

We are desirous of having these plows generally introduced throughout the State, and are therefore prepared to offer very favorable inducements to farmers and the trade. The following are some of the names of our customers who have used them for the past two seasons: Sacramento county—Hensel & Kethley. Yolo county—Hoppin Brothers, L M Curtis, Caleb Davis, C Travers, A J Scroggins. Sutter county—M Bouliware, A L Chandler. Colusa county—James Timothy, J Crouch. Butte county—Major J Bidwell. Placer county—E Miles. ...ALSO...
