DISCLOSURE OF HIGHLY CLASSIFIED MILITARY INFORMATION TO THE PRESS

The following statement from the Chairman, Committee on Armed Services, House of Representatives, will be brought to the attention of all military and civilian personnel:

On March 12 last, I stated that I had initiated an inquiry into allegations that the Department of the Air Force was intentionally "leaking" highly classified military information to the press on the B–36 bomber and other matters.

At my request this matter has been fully investigated. The report of investigation, which contains military information that cannot be released, has been submitted to me. The Committee has examined it closely.

The report of investigation indicates that these "leaks" have not been officially inspired by the Air Department. Further, it seems evident that so long as great controversy continues over the aircraft used by the Air Force, additional leaks are likely despite the best efforts of the National Military Establishment.

One additional point seems to be evident. Persons within the National Military Establishment, on the Government pay rolls, are endangering the national security through their efforts to sell the public their own particular views regarding air power.

The Armed Services Committee wants it clearly understood that if persons in the Armed Services or in their employ continue to pass statements to the press which are calculated to depreciate the activities of a sister Service and which at the same time, jeopardize the national security, the Committee will step in with a full scale investigation. We will not tolerate the continuance of this practice.

In the meantime, the House Committee on Armed Services is confident that the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Air Force and Secretary of the Navy will see to it that their civilian employees and military personnel, active or retired, are prevented from engaging in such activities.

II. ENGINEERS OF THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, 1941-1945.*—1. General.—a. The Engineer, General Headquarters, Far East Command, is preparing for publication an official report covering the activities of the Corps of Engineers in the Southwest Pacific in World War II. This report will be entitled "Engineers of the Southwest Pacific, 1941-1945," with the subject matter being divided into a series of separate volumes. The objectives of this report, as far as use within the Army is concerned, are threefold:

(1) To present to the Army and the Corps of Engineers a factual and comprehensive report of engineer plans, operations, and capabilities under the singular conditions of the Southwest Pacific with a detailed study of the character and extent of difficulties encountered and their ultimate solution.

(2) To make accessible to all Army officers and Army Schools a reliable and detailed reference library so that the lessons and valuable experiences of the past war may be learned now and mistakes that were made can be rectified by effective planning for the future. For the convenience of a wide variety of expected readers, many of whom will not be engineers, every effort has been made to depart from strictly engineer vernacular in an endeavor to lose for none the basic qualities of well-presented material coupled with significant detail and reader interest.

(3) By complete documentation to furnish a guide for further research into a portion of the engineer records of World War II as the needs for specialized studies are required.

c. The first volume to be published, "Engineers in Theater Operations," will be released in November this year. This volume is a prelude to the report and is required reading to either a short or long study of the volumes that follow. It provides an understanding of the general engineer problems and engineer flexibility in supporting the ever-changing theater missions; it shows the important part played by the engineers in the various campaigns of the Southwest Pacific and their contributions toward the winning of the war. This narrative covers the prewar conditions and the major campaigns from the time of Pearl Harbor to the occupation of Japan and Korea, utilizing these facts to provide the backdrop for the general portrayal of the engineers' organization, tasks, and performance.

d. Two other volumes are in press and the remaining volumes are in manuscript form. Announcement of the publication of each volume will be made in a Department of the Army circular.

2. Purpose.—The purpose of this circular is to show distribution and accountability of Volume I of "Engineers of the Southwest Pacific, 1941-1945."

3. Distribution.—Official distribution of this entire series will be made by the Chief of Engineers in accordance with a restricted distribution list approved by the Chief of Staff, United States Army. Distribution will include, among other agencies, Army schools, various posts, camps, and stations, administrative and technical services; divisions of the Department of the Army, Reserve Officers' Training Corps, and National Guard; senior Army instructors of the Officers' Reserve Corps; armies (ZI); Department of the Air Force; and oversea commands. On receipt of these books, commanding officers will arrange for their accounting as outlined in paragraph 4. After initial distribution, official copies will be stocked by the Office Service Division, Office of the Chief of Engineers. Separate announcement will be made when personal copies may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

4. Accounting.—a. The books referred to in this circular will be regarded as being accountable property, or in other words, as nonexpendable supplies as defined in paragraph 11*c*, AR 35-6520. Except as otherwise provided herein, they will be transferred, accounted for, and disposed of in the manner prescribed for library books in permanent libraries in AR 35-6800. They will be regarded as being subject to the provisions of those regulations applying to Government-owned books procured from appropriated funds, and as being classified as technical.

b. At installations the use and circulation of these publications will be subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by the commanding officer with a view to affording priority of use to selected key military personnel to become familiar with their contents with resulting profit to the service. The commanding officer may in his discretion require the loan of these books by the library to post headquarters with such loan being recorded in the library in the same manner as any loan to an individual. Subloans to individuals may then be regulated by post headquarters under a system to be prescribed by the commanding officer.

c. The provisions of a and b above are applicable to oversea commands. Books supplied to oversea commands under authority of this circular are exempted from the provisions of Memorandum 35–6800–1 and will not be issued to or taken into field libraries reclassified as "field libraries" under authority of that memorandum.

d. Activities and offices located in the Military District of Washington not under the administrative jurisdiction of an installation commander or at installations so located and not served by a post library will be supplied with any authorized copies of these publications through the Coordinator, Department of the Army Libraries, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army, and such accounting as may be required by that activity will conform to the general policy requirements of Memorandum 3–50–1.

[AG 321 (28 Jul 48)]

IV..WEARING OF UNIFORM IN COMMUNIST-SPONSORED DEMONSTRATIONS.—1. The wearing of the uniform in a Communist-sponsored demonstration or activity of any nature by any person in the active service of the Army of the United States or by any person on the Regular Army Retired List is prohibited, and will be cause for disciplinary action; specifically, preferment of a courts-martial charge for violation of standing orders.

2. The wearing of the uniform in a Communist-sponsored public demonstration or activity of any nature by a member of the civilian components of the Army not on active duty is prohibited and will be grounds for action under the provisions of paragraph 74*c*, AR 140–5, with a view to prompt termination of commission or enlistment.

3. Commanders will issue appropriate orders to apply to personnel of their commands.

[AG 001 (19 Jul 48)]

V..WOMEN'S ARMY CORPS.—1. All headquarters, commands, and agencies charged with responsibility for the preparation of publications will scrutinize all proposed publications prior to issuance for applicability to the Women's Army Corps.

2. In the interim period, all publications referring to "training divisions" will be interpreted to apply with equal force to the Women's Army Corps Training Center, Camp Lee, Virginia, unless specifically excluded.

1. a. These Regulations set forth requirements for maintenance of property accounts and the audit thereof for aircraft assigned to and receipted for by activities and organizations of the United States Air Force. United States Air Force aircraft assigned to and receipted for by Department of the Army activities and organizations and Air National Guard (U. S. [AG 140.2 (1 Jul 48)]

II. ARMY SERVICE SCHOOLS.—1. Operation of the Army school system for the past two school years has indicated that the scheduling of 40 hours instruction per week results in a work-week far in excess of 40 hours for both students and overhead. In order to bring the work-week at schools into line with other military installations, the following policy is announced for all service schools of the Army:

a. In courses of more than 3 months duration.—Scheduled academic instruction may be reduced to a minimum of 30 hours per week, provided no required subject is eliminated from the program of instruction. (Required subjects include common subjects in the branch advanced courses.) This schedule is permitted on the assumption that academic assignments will require a minimum of 2 hours per day outside study, and that athletics and parades and ceremonies will be in addition to the scheduled 30 hours.

b. In courses of less than 3 months duration.—Scheduled classroom instruction

may be reduced to a minimum of 35 hours per week, provided no required subject is eliminated from the program of instruction. This schedule is permitted on the assumption that short-term courses are, in general, specialist courses requiring less research and study outside the classroom. In such courses, 1 hour per school day will be scheduled as a nonacademic activity (physical training, close order drill, care of clothing and equipment, etc.) to provide the necessary balance between active and sedentary classroom instruction without sacrifice of the primary objective of providing a usable technical skill in a short time.

c. Study time will not be included in the scheduled hours of the program of instruction.

[AG 352 (14 Jul 48)]

III..CLASSIFICATION.—1. Regrading of the security classification of TB SIG 150, 6 January 1945, Wire Despenser MX–301/G, is announced. Mark all copies, extracts and changes as follows:

2. Regrading of the security classification of TM 11–615A, 12 January 1943, Radio Set SCR–609–A, and Radio Set SCR–610–A, is announced. Mark all copies, extracts, and changes as follows:

Regraded UNCLASSIFIED order Sec Army by TAG/8N355.

[AG 312.1 (26 May 48)]

IV..JOINT VOICE AUTHENTICATION SYSTEMS.—1. The Joint Communications Board has rescinded previous authorization for the use of the Shackle Code for joint voice authentication, and has approved for joint use for voice authentication, only those systems contained in the Navy publication CSP 900 (A) and Training Circular 74, War Department, 1944.

2. In this connection it will be noted that Training Circular 74, 1944, as amended by section II, Training Circular 33, 1945, and Training Circular 1, 1946, has now been superseded by Training Circular 4, Department of the Army, 1948. Training Circular 4, 1948, contains substantially the same information as contained in Training Circular 74, 1944, referred to by the Joint Communications Board, and will be used for the indicated purpose.

3. The attention of all responsible commanders is directed to the security limitations that are set forth in these authorized publications, whenever selecting a specific system to be employed for voice authentication purposes.

[AG 353 (9 Jul 48)]

V..MILITARY MISSIONS.—1. General.—a. The purpose of this circular is to prescribe procedures for the submission and processing of applications for assignment to military missions of personnel qualified for, and interested in, such assignment.

b. There is a continual requirement for a limited number of specially qualified personnel for military missions established in most of the Latin American countries, and in some European and Asiatic countries; therefore, it is desired to maintain a special file of qualified personnel to meet such needs.

c. Transportation of dependents and household effects is provided for officers and for enlisted personnel of the first 3 grades; in the exceptional case where dependents are not authorized to accompany the individual, the selected applicant (if dependents are involved) will be given the opportunity to state whether he desires such assignment. In most cases, military mission personnel receive monetary allowances to defray additional expenses incident to this type of duty. The amount of additional compensation authorized is prescribed in Circular 196, War Department, 1947. Personnel assigned to military missions may expect the normal tour of foreign service prescribed for the particular area.

d. Although military personnel are not in a diplomatic status as mission members, they enjoy virtually all diplomatic privileges in military associations and social functions. Consequently, it is imperative that personnel be selected for military missions who, in their contact with foreign nationals and dignitaries, will reflect the highest credit upon the military service; and by reason of the special nature of this type of duty, it is essential that this requirement apply equally to accompanying dependents.

e. Personnel selected for assignment to military missions may be given the opportunity to attend the Army Language School for initial or refresher language training.

f. Maximum publicity will be given this circular.

2. Qualifications.—a. General.

(1) Physically qualified for oversea service.

(2) Pleasing personality—ability to meet, understand, and work with foreign nationals.

(3) Demonstrated general efficiency appropriate for such a special assignment.

(4) Mission members are in general specialists who will instruct foreign military personnel. Therefore, they must be patient, stable, and capable of conducting courses of instruction effectively.

Actual accomplishment of discharge and reenlistment will take place only upon notice of selection.
(c) In the first three grades.

Applications will be submitted on form Application for Military Mission (DA AGO Form R–5566) (fig. 1), which will be locally reproduced on 8- by 10½-inch paper. Each reproduced copy will include title, form number, and date. Applications will be accepted by The Adjutant General until 30 November 1948.

All applications will be accompanied by a medical officer's certificate to include the following: "The applicant and his dependents (if applicable) are free from inherent, latent, or incipient physical weaknesses which might make their residence in high altitudes or unhealthful surroundings inadvisable."

c. The application will constitute a volunteer statement for oversea service with a military mission.

d. The commander having custody of the personnel records of the applicant will check and verify the information contained therein, and in addition, will interview the applicant for the purpose of determining his qualifications with particular regard to the personal habits of the applicant.

e. Each officer's application will be indorsed by an officer of the grade of colonel or higher, in the chain of command, to include the statement, "This officer is (exceptionally well suited) (suited) (not suited) for duty with a military mis-

VI..MOTOR VEHICLE.*—1. Improper and unsafe transportation of personnel in vehicles is a major cause of injuries and fatalities to military personnel. Analysis of reports of accidents of this type shows that the majority of unsafe practices are preventable, and fall into the following categories:

a. Carrying personnel in a standing position.—Instability and shifting of the "live load," particularly when making turns, rounding curves, and in sudden starting or stopping.

b. Riding on loads.—Lack of stable support for the rider; shifting of insecure loads; personnel projecting above loads.

c. Overloading of vehicles with personnel.—Loading beyond prescribed capacity; overload on brakes; vision obscured by standees.

d. Improper riding on vehicles.—Sitting on sides of truck beds, hanging feet over ends of tailgate, riding on running boards and fenders, and in other insecure and unsafe positions.

e. Mounting and dismounting from moving vehicles.—Jumping on or off moving vehicles; failure to lower tailgate before mounting or dismounting.

f. Backing personnel carriers.—Failure to procure guidance before backing; failure to check before backing; failure to give warning signal.

2. Dual responsibility for the accident causes listed in paragraph 1 is indicated by investigation as follows:

a. Supervisory failure on the part of the motor pool officer, dispatcher, unit commander, or foreman when ordering personnel to be transported in a vehicle.

b. Driver failure in permitting unauthorized riders, unsafe mounting and dismounting, and hazardous positions of personnel.

3. Commanding officers will—

a. Bring to the attention of supervisors and drivers the causes of motor vehicle accidents involving personnel carried in vehicles under their control.

b. Instruct supervisors to enforce regulations pertaining to safe transportation of personnel, as follows:

(1) Only authorized personnel will ride in Army vehicles.

(2) Where more than one person besides the driver are carried frequently in a truck type vehicle, adequate fixed seating in the body must be provided; where the number so carried are few and the hauling of such personnel is not a regular function of a vehicle, personnel may be carried without fixed seats, provided each passenger remains seated wholly within the body and the body is equipped with stakes or side-boards; where a dump truck is used to transport personnel, the body must be securely fastened to the chassis by means of chains or other locking devices.

(a) Loads are adequately secured.

(b) Personnel are provided with sufficient room to keep entire body within the top and sides of vehicle and load.

(c) Appropriate safety devices are attached to vehicle to afford safe carrying, such as a hanging step on rear of garbage truck.

(4) The normal personnel carrying capacity of vehicles (i. e., jeeps—4, including driver) will not be exceeded.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 11652, Sec 3(E) and 5(D) or (E) NND# 740132

(5) Drivers of truck type vehicles carrying passengers are required to—

(a) Walk to rear of vehicle before starting, to assure that tailgate and safety belt are in place, and that all passengers are seated.

(c) Refuse to move vehicles in which personnel are not safely placed, such as when standing, attempting to ride between cab and body, hanging on sides, running boards, or fenders, or sitting on tailgates or sides of vehicles.

(6) Regulations pertaining to safe transportation of personnel prescribed in paragraph 87, TM 21–305, will be in effect where applicable.

X. TABLES OF ORGANIZATION AND EQUIPMENT AND REDUCTION TABLES.*—1. General.—As a result of lifting the suspension on publication of tables of organization and equipment, numerous tables are in process of publication and distribution. TM 20–410, including Changes 1 and 2, provides guidance and policy for the preparation of tables of organization and equipment, tables of distribution, reduction tables, and other personnel and/or equipment authorization documents. Guidance in effecting reorganization under new tables of organization and equipment, or reduction tables prepared therefor, is given below.

2. Tables of organization and equipment.—Tables of organization and equipment, and changes thereto, are published bearing one of the following remarks:

a. "This table supersedes T/O&E _____, _____ (Date)," or

b. "Reorganization to be effected under this table requires specific Department of the Army approval."

3. Superseding tables of organization and equipment.—Publication of a table bearing the remark shown in paragraph 2*a* indicates that replacement of the older version of a table by the superseding table is automatic and reorganization thereunder mandatory.

a. Active army, zone of interior; Organized Reserves; and oversea commands or bases other than Far East Command and United States Army, Europe.—Reduction tables prepared for these agencies in accordance with section XI, chapter 3, TM 20–410 (C. 2), will be approved and distributed by the Department of the Army to accompany the tables of organization and equipment which they modify, so far as practicable. A reduction table together with the table of organization and equipment it modifies establishes the authorized strength and equipment allowances for affected company size units without further modification or reduction of the table for specific units. New tables with or without reduction tables must be utilized within the authorized requirement ceiling as established by the Department of the Army. Thus, for these particular components or commands, changes to stay within authorized troop ceilings will be made by addition or deletion of whole units not less than company size. For example, one infantry division may contain two regiments of three complete battalions, while another infantry division may be organized with two regiments of two battalions each. However, all similar reduced companies will be organized identically as authorized by the reduction table for this type company. Commanders of active army units, zone of interior; Organized Reserve units; and oversea commanders other than Far East Command and United States Army. Europe, designated by the Department of the Army as responsible for recommending troop bases, and required to submit reports for unit changes on receipt of new superseding tables and their accompanying reduction tables applicable to units under their control will—

(1) Institute a request to the Department of the Army for reorganization of specific units under full T/O&E strength, if warranted by mission or unit composition, or:

(2) Reorganize in accordance with the new table as modified by the approved reduction table.

(3) Submit a report of reorganization to the Department of the Army by specific unit.

(4) Submit to the Department of the Army for approval such whole unit additions or deletions as are necessary to stay within authorized troop ceilings.

Reorganizations will be accomplished by administrative entity such as separate companies, separate battalions, or regiments.

b. National Guard.—National Guard reduction tables establish the strength and equipment allowances authorized company size units of the National Guard. On receipt of superseding tables, the Chief, National Guard Bureau, will—

(1) Request authority to organize units under full authorization of a standard table (if warranted by the composition of the unit), or

(2) Prepare and submit reduction tables in accordance with section XI, chapter 3, TM 20–410.

Upon Department of the Army approval of his reduction table or organization under full strength, the Chief, National Guard Bureau, will effect reorganization of units concerned automatically. Reorganization will be accomplished by administrative entity such as separate companies, separate battalions, or regiments.

4. Tables bearing limiting remark.—On receipt of a table or tables bearing a limiting remark as stated in paragraph 2*b*, it may be assumed that these tables are not designed for general adoption by reason of personnel or supply implication. Units will not be reorganized in accordance with a table of organization and equipment or reduction table therefor bearing this remark, except by authority of the Department of the Army. Agencies who are required to submit reduction tables in paragraph 3*a* and b having units under their control to which the tables of organization and equipment of this type are applicable or desired for use, may submit requests for reorganization of specific units under the subject tables, or modifications prescribed by the reduction table therefor. Information of unit changes required in paragraph 3*a* and b will accompany this request.

5. Priority for preparation and submission of reduction tables.—a. First priority.—Reduction tables which can be submitted simultaneously with new tables of organization and equipment being processed for final Department of the Army approval and publication.

b. Second priority.– Reduction tables which modify tables of organization and equipment, dated 1 June 1947 and subsequently thereto.

c. Third priority.—Reduction tables which modify tables of organization and equipment, dated prior to 1 June 1947, under which units are organized and included in the current Department of the Army Troop Program.

d. Reduction table will not be prepared for tables of organization and equipment not included in Department of the Army Troop Program unless specifically directed.

6. Separate instructions will be issued to the Commanding Generals, Far East Command, and United States Army, Europe.

[AG 320.3 (7 Jun 48)]

XI. T/A 85–5T.—1. Pending the printing of changes in T/A 85–5T, Equipment for Home Training of ORC Engineer Units, units of the ORC may be furnished equipment actually required to conduct authorized training as follows:

a. Headquarters and Headquarters and Service Company Engineer Aviation Group organized under T/O&E 5–412.—Appropriate authorizations for Headquarters and Headquarters Company, Engineer Construction Group (T/O&E 5–72) listed in part two.

b. Engineer Aviation Battalions.—Appropriate authorizations for Engineer Construction Battalion (T/O&E 5–75) listed in part two.

2. Necessary adjustments in allowances of equipment will be made upon receipt of changes in table of allowances referred to in paragraph 1.

1. a. These Regulations set forth requirements for maintenance of property accounts and the audit thereof for aircraft assigned to and receipted for by activities and organizations of the United States Air Force. United States Air Force aircraft assigned to and receipted for by Department of the Army activities and organizations and Air National Guard (U. S. [AG 140.2 (1 Jul 48)]

II. ARMY SERVICE SCHOOLS.—1. Operation of the Army school system for the past two school years has indicated that the scheduling of 40 hours instruction per week results in a work-week far in excess of 40 hours for both students and overhead. In order to bring the work-week at schools into line with other military installations, the following policy is announced for all service schools of the Army:

a. In courses of more than 3 months duration.—Scheduled academic instruction may be reduced to a minimum of 30 hours per week, provided no required subject is eliminated from the program of instruction. (Required subjects include common subjects in the branch advanced courses.) This schedule is permitted on the assumption that academic assignments will require a minimum of 2 hours per day outside study, and that athletics and parades and ceremonies will be in addition to the scheduled 30 hours.

b. In courses of less than 3 months duration.—Scheduled classroom instruction

may be reduced to a minimum of 35 hours per week, provided no required subject is eliminated from the program of instruction. This schedule is permitted on the assumption that short-term courses are, in general, specialist courses requiring less research and study outside the classroom. In such courses, 1 hour per school day will be scheduled as a nonacademic activity (physical training, close order drill, care of clothing and equipment, etc.) to provide the necessary balance between active and sedentary classroom instruction without sacrifice of the primary objective of providing a usable technical skill in a short time.

c. Study time will not be included in the scheduled hours of the program of instruction.

2. Nothing in this policy is to be construed to permit an increase in over-all length of courses or a deviation from the established policy of a minimum 40-hour work-week.

III..CLASSIFICATION.—1. Regrading of the security classification of TB SIG 150, 6 January 1945, Wire Despenser MX–301/G, is announced. Mark all copies, extracts and changes as follows:

2. Regrading of the security classification of TM 11–615A, 12 January 1943, Radio Set SCR–609–A, and Radio Set SCR–610–A, is announced. Mark all copies, extracts, and changes as follows:

Regraded UNCLASSIFIED order Sec Army by TAG/8N355.

[AG 312.1 (26 May 48)]

IV..JOINT VOICE AUTHENTICATION SYSTEMS.—1. The Joint Communications Board has rescinded previous authorization for the use of the Shackle Code for joint voice authentication, and has approved for joint use for voice authentication, only those systems contained in the Navy publication CSP 900 (A) and Training Circular 74, War Department, 1944.

2. In this connection it will be noted that Training Circular 74, 1944, as amended by section II, Training Circular 33, 1945, and Training Circular 1, 1946. has now been superseded by Training Circular 4, Department of the Army, 1948. Training Circular 4, 1948, contains substantially the same information as contained in Training Circular 74, 1944, referred to by the Joint Communications Board, and will be used for the indicated purpose.

3. The attention of all responsible commanders is directed to the security limitations that are set forth in these authorized publications, whenever selecting a specific system to be employed for voice authentication purposes.

[AG 353 (9 Jul 48)]

V..MILITARY MISSIONS.—1. General.—a. The purpose of this circular is to prescribe procedures for the submission and processing of applications for assignment to military missions of personnel qualified for, and interested in, such assignment.

b. There is a continual requirement for a limited number of specially qualified personnel for military missions established in most of the Latin American countries, and in some European and Asiatic countries; therefore, it is desired to maintain a special file of qualified personnel to meet such needs.

c. Transportation of dependents and household effects is provided for officers and for enlisted personnel of the first 3 grades; in the exceptional case where dependents are not authorized to accompany the individual, the selected applicant (if dependents are involved) will be given the opportunity to state whether he desires such assignment. In most cases, military mission personnel receive monetary allowances to defray additional expenses incident to this type of duty. The amount of additional compensation authorized is prescribed in Circular 196, War Department, 1947. Personnel assigned to military missions may expect the normal tour of foreign service prescribed for the particular area.

d. Although military personnel are not in a diplomatic status as mission members, they enjoy virtually all diplomatic privileges in military associations and social functions. Consequently, it is imperative that personnel be selected for military missions who, in their contact with foreign nationals and dignitaries, will reflect the highest credit upon the military service; and by reason of the special nature of this type of duty, it is essential that this requirement apply equally to accompanying dependents.

e. Personnel selected for assignment to military missions may be given the opportunity to attend the Army Language School for initial or refresher language training.

f. Maximum publicity will be given this circular.

2. Qualifications.—a. General.

(1) Physically qualified for oversea service.

(2) Pleasing personality—ability to meet, understand, and work with foreign nationals.

(3) Demonstrated general efficiency appropriate for such a special assignment.

(4) Mission members are in general specialists who will instruct foreign military personnel. Therefore, they must be patient, stable, and capable of conducting courses of instruction effectively.

Individuals without sufficient remaining service to be eligible may extend their enlistment under Circular 66, Department of the Army, 1948, or be discharged and reenlisted for an appropriate period under the provisions of AR 615–360. Actual accomplishment of discharge and reenlistment will take place only upon notice of selection.
(c) In the first three grades.

VI..MOTOR VEHICLE.—1. Improper and unsafe transportation of personnel in vehicles is a major cause of injuries and fatalities to military personnel. Analysis of reports of accidents of this type shows that the majority of unsafe practices are preventable, and fall into the following categories:

a. Carrying personnel in a standing position.—Instability and shifting of the "live load," particularly when making turns, rounding curves, and in sudden starting or stopping.

b. Riding on loads.—Lack of stable support for the rider; shifting of insecure loads; personnel projecting above loads.

c. Overloading of vehicles with personnel.—Loading beyond prescribed capacity; overload on brakes; vision obscured by standees.

d. Improper riding on vehicles.—Sitting on sides of truck beds, hanging feet over ends of tailgate, riding on running boards and fenders, and in other insecure and unsafe positions.

e. Mounting and dismounting from moving vehicles.—Jumping on or off moving vehicles; failure to lower tailgate before mounting or dismounting.

f. Backing personnel carriers.—Failure to procure guidance before backing; failure to check before backing; failure to give warning signal.

2. Dual responsibility for the accident causes listed in paragraph 1 is indicated by investigation as follows:

a. Supervisory failure on the part of the motor pool officer, dispatcher, unit commander, or foreman when ordering personnel to be transported in a vehicle.

b. Driver failure in permitting unauthorized riders, unsafe mounting and dismounting, and hazardous positions of personnel.

3. Commanding officers will—

a. Bring to the attention of supervisors and drivers the causes of motor vehicle accidents involving personnel carried in vehicles under their control.

b. Instruct supervisors to enforce regulations pertaining to safe transportation of personnel, as follows:

(1) Only authorized personnel will ride in Army vehicles.

(2) Where more than one person besides the driver are carried frequently in a truck type vehicle, adequate fixed seating in the body must be provided; where the number so carried are few and the hauling of such personnel is not a regular function of a vehicle, personnel may be carried without fixed seats, provided each passenger remains seated wholly within the body and the body is equipped with stakes or side-boards; where a dump truck is used to transport personnel, the body must be securely fastened to the chassis by means of chains or other locking devices.

(a) Loads are adequately secured.

(b) Personnel are provided with sufficient room to keep entire body within the top and sides of vehicle and load.

(c) Appropriate safety devices are attached to vehicle to afford safe carrying, such as a hanging step on rear of garbage truck.

(4) The normal personnel carrying capacity of vehicles (i. e., jeeps—4, including driver) will not be exceeded.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 11652, Sec 3(E) and 5(D) or (E) NND# 740132

(5) Drivers of truck type vehicles carrying passengers are required to—

(a) Walk to rear of vehicle before starting, to assure that tailgate and safety belt are in place, and that all passengers are seated.

(b) Walk to rear of vehicle after stopping, and remove safety belt and lower tailgate before passengers are permitted to dismount.

(c) Refuse to move vehicles in which personnel are not safely placed, such as when standing, attempting to ride between cab and body, hanging on sides, running boards, or fenders, or sitting on tailgates or sides of vehicles.

(6) Regulations pertaining to safe transportation of personnel prescribed in paragraph 87, TM 21–305, will be in effect where applicable.

X..TABLES OF ORGANIZATION AND EQUIPMENT AND REDUCTION TABLES.*—1. General.—As a result of lifting the suspension on publication of tables of organization and equipment, numerous tables are in process of publication and distribution. TM 20–410, including Changes 1 and 2, provides guidance and policy for the preparation of tables of organization and equipment, tables of distribution, reduction tables, and other personnel and/or equipment authorization documents. Guidance in effecting reorganization under new tables of organization and equipment, or reduction tables prepared therefor, is given below.

2. Tables of organization and equipment.—Tables of organization and equipment, and changes thereto, are published bearing one of the following remarks:

a. "This table supersedes T/O&E _____, _____ (Date)," or

b. "Reorganization to be effected under this table requires specific Department of the Army approval."

3. Superseding tables of organization and equipment.—Publication of a table bearing the remark shown in paragraph 2*a* indicates that replacement of the older version of a table by the superseding table is automatic and reorganization thereunder mandatory.

a. Active army, zone of interior; Organized Reserves; and oversea commands or bases other than Far East Command and United States Army, Europe.—Reduction tables prepared for these agencies in accordance with section XI, chapter 3, TM 20–410 (C. 2), will be approved and distributed by the Department of the Army to accompany the tables of organization and equipment which they modify, so far as practicable. A reduction table together with the table of organization and equipment it modifies establishes the authorized strength and equipment allowances for affected company size units without further modification or reduction of the table for specific units. New tables with or without reduction tables must be utilized within the authorized requirement ceiling as established by the Department of the Army. Thus, for these particular components or commands, changes to stay within authorized troop ceilings will be made by addition or deletion of whole units not less than company size. For example, one infantry division may contain two regiments of three complete battalions, while another infantry division may be organized with two regiments of two battalions each. However, all similar reduced companies will be organized identically as authorized by the reduction table for this type company. Commanders of active army units, zone of interior; Organized Reserve units; and oversea commanders other than Far East Command and United States Army, Europe, designated by the Department of the Army as responsible for recommending troop bases, and required to submit reports for unit changes on receipt of new superseding tables and their accompanying reduction tables applicable to units under their control will—

(1) Institute a request to the Department of the Army for reorganization of specific units under full T/O&E strength, if warranted by mission or unit composition, or:

(2) Reorganize in accordance with the new table as modified by the approved reduction table.

(3) Submit a report of reorganization to the Department of the Army by specific unit.

(4) Submit to the Department of the Army for approval such whole unit additions or deletions as are necessary to stay within authorized troop ceilings.

Reorganizations will be accomplished by administrative entity such as separate companies, separate battalions, or regiments.

b. National Guard.—National Guard reduction tables establish the strength and equipment allowances authorized company size units of the National Guard. On receipt of superseding tables, the Chief, National Guard Bureau, will—

(1) Request authority to organize units under full authorization of a standard table (if warranted by the composition of the unit), or

(2) Prepare and submit reduction tables in accordance with section XI, chapter 3, TM 20–410.

Upon Department of the Army approval of his reduction table or organization under full strength, the Chief, National Guard Bureau, will effect reorganization of units concerned automatically. Reorganization will be accomplished by administrative entity such as separate companies, separate battalions, or regiments.

4. Tables bearing limiting remark.—On receipt of a table or tables bearing a limiting remark as stated in paragraph 2*b*, it may be assumed that these tables are not designed for general adoption by reason of personnel or supply implication. Units will not be reorganized in accordance with a table of organization and equipment or reduction table therefor bearing this remark, except by authority of the Department of the Army. Agencies who are required to submit reduction tables in paragraph 3*a* and b having units under their control to which the tables of organization and equipment of this type are applicable or desired for use, may submit requests for reorganization of specific units under the subject tables, or modifications prescribed by the reduction table therefor. Information of unit changes required in paragraph 3*a* and b will accompany this request.

5. Priority for preparation and submission of reduction tables.—a. First priority.—Reduction tables which can be submitted simultaneously with new tables of organization and equipment being processed for final Department of the Army approval and publication.

b. Second priority.—Reduction tables which modify tables of organization and equipment, dated 1 June 1947 and subsequently thereto.

c. Third priority.—Reduction tables which modify tables of organization and equipment, dated prior to 1 June 1947, under which units are organized and included in the current Department of the Army Troop Program.

d. Reduction table will not be prepared for tables of organization and equipment not included in Department of the Army Troop Program unless specifically directed.

6. Separate instructions will be issued to the Commanding Generals, Far East Command, and United States Army, Europe.

a. Headquarters and Headquarters and Service Company Engineer Aviation Group organized under T/O&E 5–412.—Appropriate authorizations for Headquarters and Headquarters Company, Engineer Construction Group (T/O&E 5–72) listed in part two.

b. Engineer Aviation Battalions.—Appropriate authorizations for Engineer Construction Battalion (T/O&E 5–75) listed in part two.
