British Ministers Considering Higher Pay For the Miners

Confer With Experts on New Scale of Wages For Coal Workers; Representatives of Strikers Continue Negotiations For Settlement.

London, Oct. 25.—Premier Lloyd George and members of the Government this morning conferred with Government experts concerning a new set of figures for wages of the coal miners, and representatives of the miners met and continued the negotiations begun Sunday for a settlement of the miners' strike.

Confidence Felt. London, Oct. 25.—Conferences resumed at 10 Downing Street to-day between Premier Lloyd George and executives of the Miners' Federation were confidently expected to lead to a settlement of the coal miners' strike, which last week threatened to involve Great Britain in an industrial crisis.

It is believed that an arrangement will be reached by which each side can at least claim it has not yielded its main contention, and it is asserted Premier Lloyd George will submit proposals which he hopes will make an increased output of coal so certain that it will be possible to grant immediately the increase of wages demanded by the miners.

Newspapers of this city continue hopeful for the most part and express relief at the National Union of Railwaymen's decision to defer calling a strike. Such action is understood, will not be taken before Wednesday.

SOUTH AFRICAN NATIONALISTS' VIEWS Would Not Break With Empire Unless People Voted

Cape Town, Union of South Africa, Oct. 24.—The Free State Nationalist Congress is in session here, and adopted resolutions supplementary to a declaration of party principles, proclaiming the sovereignty will of the people of the Union of South Africa, their right to self-determination, their right to decide on the basis of British or break any existing bonds between the Union and Great Britain, and declaring opposition to a closer imperial relationship.

Practically the only question of importance before the Government at present is that of the sugar refiners. Since the Board of Commerce sugar order was permanently suspended after a hearing before the Cabinet, the matter of assistance to the refiners has been submitted and a number of suggested methods made whereby they might be rendered assistance. But, while a final conclusion has not been reached, it is doubtful if their suggestions can be large loan and of a rebate of customs duties on raw sugar are regarded as raising new difficulties, although some form of assistance along the latter lines has been made.

BONDS OF EMPIRE STRONG, SAYS CAVE

Privy Council Member, Back in Britain, Speaks of Canada

London, Oct. 25.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Viscount Cave, a member of the Privy Council, of the Empire's appeal tribunal, has just returned to England from a visit to Canada and the United States, where he addressed Canadian and American bar associations.

Speaking of the place which the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council has in the legal system of the Dominions, Lord Cave said that in Canada the feeling toward the Committee was, on the whole, one of complete approval. The Committee was regarded as a link with the Dominions and the people of Canada were impressed by the fact that it was the right of any part of the Empire which had a grievance to carry that grievance to the foot of the throne, which was the basis of the petitions which the Committee pronounced.

Lord Cave's general knowledge of the Dominion, he said, was the result of his visits to Canada and the United States, where he addressed Canadian and American bar associations. In The Times it is stated that he has come back deeply impressed by the strong affection which exists in Canada for the Old Country and by the fervent Imperial spirit which prevails in the Dominion.

TROOPS IN IRELAND REDOUBLE VIGILANCE

Anticipate Extension of the Guerilla Warfare Following Macswiney's Death

Cork, Oct. 25.—Fervid interest in possible developments caused by the death of Lord Mayor Macswiney, of this city, which occurred at Brixton prison, London, this morning, is mingled with the grief in which his death has plunged many people in South Ireland.

It is expected, however, there will be a considerable extension and intensification of guerilla warfare against the police and military forces, which, anticipating reprisals, are doubling their vigilance, especially in remote districts.

SENDING GOLD TO UNITED STATES

British Shipping All They Can; Restoring Healthy Financial Relations

London, Oct. 25.—(Canadian Press)—There is to be no change in the policy of the British Government regarding export of gold to New York, so that the large shipments of yellow metal will continue indefinitely, it is announced here. The volume will be limited only by output of the mines, as it is understood that the major part of all gold arriving in London will be sold for the account of the United States. Reports of gold arrivals in New York appearing in the financial columns of the London newspapers are now taken as a matter of course.

None of the gold recently shipped has been on the British Government's account. Shipments to cover the British share of the Anglo-French loan were completed long ago. All the gold now going is on private account, and the export is not merely permitted but promoted by the British as tending to restore healthy international financial relations. Every shipment of gold means that bills are being paid in that metal in New York as the easiest and cheapest way of settlement. A large part of the commodities represented by these payments are goods of British manufacture. The British Treasury sees no advantage in having the gold held in Great Britain. The reserve in the Bank of England cannot be augmented. The British banks are amply protected. With London as the world's immediate gold reservoir, the British Government is always in a position to regulate its outflow.

AMERICANS BUILD BIG AEROPLANES

Cruising Radius Sufficient to Enable Them to Cross the Pacific

New York, Oct. 25.—(Canadian Press)—Great aeroplanes, with a cruising radius sufficient to enable them to cross the Pacific Ocean, are now under construction, and will probably be available for use by the United States Navy Department early next Spring. It is announced by the Manufacturers' Aircraft Association.

Eight torpedo seaplanes with a cruising radius of 400 miles, the association announces, will be stationed at San Diego, Cal., where they will co-operate with the United States Pacific fleet and coast defenses. These planes, brought from Cleveland aboard twenty-three cars, comprised the largest shipment of fighting aircraft in the United States since the armistice.

Each of the torpedo planes have a total gross weight of 11,910 pounds, including load of 4,950 pounds. In addition to pilot, navigator and gunner, each machine will carry a 1,650-pound torpedo, 450 pounds of bombs, two machine guns, various instruments and accessories, and fuel for four hours' operation.

OUTLOOK FOR BIG CANADIAN BEEF EXPORT TRADE

Toronto, Oct. 25.—Cattlemen on the Western Canadian ranches are reported to be seriously concerned about the uncertainty facing the export of cattle on the hoof to the United States. Last year the value of the animals exported was roundly $50,000,000. This has been a growing trade since 1910, when 155,000 cattle were shipped over the line. In 1913 the total had risen to 342,000, and for the fiscal year ended with March last the figure was 516,000.

But there is in reassurance forthcoming. Canadian packers realize the seriousness of any threatened curtailment of livestock production and believe that if a tariff contingency had to be met they could fully take care of all the cattle that can be raised if two conditions are fulfilled. The "crub" bull must go so as to raise the general quality of Canadian beef, and stock-raisers must provide a steadier supply than in the past. These two factors are the main desiderata to the development of an export trade in beef similar to that which has proved for twenty-five years the mainstay of Canada's beef industry.

During 1919, out of 498,349 cattle marketed at stockyards for home slaughter, 359,418 graded "good" and 299,431 graded "common" at 45 per cent, and 48 per cent, common.

With so much unsuitable material to hamper an export market cannot be established to compete with the high class beef from Argentina and Australia. But if quality is improved and supply well regulated, packers emphatically assure stock-breeders—and this applies to East and West—of a readiness to aid in opening and building up a valuable market for all beef animals bred on Canadian farms.

JUDGE APPRAISED BARBER'S WORK

New York, Oct. 23.—(Canadian Press)—The failure of David Schaeffer of Bridgeport, Conn., and the proprietor of the Grand Union Barber Shop to reach a compromise regarding a dispute over the high cost of barbering resulted in their appearance in the Essex Market Police Court, where Magistrate Sweetser handed down a decision, after appraising the work done on the customer. The magistrate valued it at $2, and directed the barber to return to his customer $2.55, which he was overcharged, in the magistrate's opinion.

It seemed that Mr. Schaeffer had a sixty-cent haircut, a twenty-five-cent shave, a fifty-cent singe, a fifty-cent wash, a seventy-five-cent shampoo, a sixty-five-cent massage, a fifty-cent manicure, and a rub which sold for $1.70.

MORE SETTLERS FOR THE PRAIRIES

Western Canada Colonization Association's Efforts Succeed in Eastern Canada

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 25.—Every succeeding day brings fresh successes for the Western Canada Colonization Association. Each new achievement paves the way for those which inevitably follow. The organization has in fact acquired an impetus which carries all before it.

Eastern business men have received with open arms the delegations of Western business men representing the association. They have become infected with the optimism of the prairies and have adopted the association as their own. They see in the movement not only a basis of increased prosperity for the whole Dominion, but what is perhaps equally important, an opportunity to link East and West in a joint effort which will consolidate and harmonize public opinion throughout the Dominion.

In Montreal at the outset, the presidents, directors and working heads of great financial and industrial corporations placed the seal of their approval upon a great practical effort to multiply the population and production of the country from coast to coast. Not only did captains of industry and kings of finance place their names and their money behind the association, but they went so far as to put their offices at the disposal of the Western delegates, and even to go out and assist in securing fresh converts to a splendid cause.

Toronto. So it was in Toronto. Men whose names have a nation-wide currency became contributing founders of the organization, thus lending their reputations and their prestige to one of the most striking immigration and colonization efforts of modern times. When the Western delegates reached Hamilton the president of the local Chamber of Commerce called a number of prominent business men into conference with them. Industrial leaders such as Sir John Gibson, formerly Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, and now a director of the Canadian Westinghouse Company, Robert Holson, president of the Steel Company of Canada, Limited, and Dr. Copley, of Copley, Noyes & Randall, were not only present, but they offered to join the Westerners in waiting upon their fellow citizens and in pressing the logical claims of the association upon the attention of corporations and financial institutions. Sir John Gibson became a contributing founder. So did Senator John Milne, president of Burrow, Stewart & Milne, and F. F. Dalley, president of the F. F. Dalley Corporation, Limited.

About $200,000. With such local leadership to reinforce the efforts of the prairie visitors, a great deal of effective work was accomplished in the second industrial city of Ontario. Outstanding corporations made liberal contributions, while lesser companies and firms did their share with the net result that the Hamilton fund soon totalled $150,000. It is probable that before the conferences are completed this community of 34,000 people will have contributed approximately $200,000 to the Western Canada Colonization Association.

AEROPLANE FLIES AT THE PAS, MAN.

The Pas, Man., Oct. 24.—An aeroplane in charge of Pilot Douglas has been giving passenger flights here for a week, following a flight from Winnipeg. It is the first machine to fly "north of 53" in either Saskatchewan or Manitoba, and the Indians are greatly excited.

The pilot believes an air machine is unsuited to northern conditions, and he will report to the Canadian Air Craft Company that a seaplane is the more useful type for the North.

$5,000 FOR WINNIPEG EX-POLICE CHIEF

Winnipeg, Oct. 25.—A compensation of $5,000 for former Chief of Police Donald Macpherson, who was discharged at the time of the strike in Winnipeg last year, has been approved by the claims section of the civic finance committee on recommendation of the Police Commission.

If Mr. Macpherson had continued in office for another four years he would have been entitled to an annual pension of $2,500.

W. HOHENZOLLERN VISITS HIS FRIENDS

Former German Kaiser Moves Within Limits Set by Dutch

Doorn, Holland, Oct. 23.—The severe restrictions which the Dutch Government imposed on the movements of William Hohenzollern, former German Kaiser, at the time of the Kapp revolution in Berlin, at the request of the Allied Powers, appear to be gradually relaxing.

Hohenzollern now moves about more freely perhaps than at any time since he came to Holland nearly two years ago. These movements, of course are confined to the territorial limits set by a royal decree, including the villages of Doorn and Amerongen, but inside this territory the exile is now fulfilling his dream of living the life of a Dutch country gentleman.

He goes frequently to Amerongen to visit Count Benneke, his former host, and to chat with the notary, Schroot, who is not only the former Kaiser's business agent and attorney, but also more or less of a personal friend.

Hohenzollern also calls on a number of families of the Dutch nobility who live around Doorn and Amerongen, principally those whose heads belong to the Knights of St. John, the order of which, as King of Prussia, the German Kaiser was leader.

Dutch guards escort him on these trips but he goes whenever he likes. Doorn has lost all curiosity in the Hohenzollerns and only the occasional tourist halts to stare at Wilhelm's automobile as it passes in the streets.

LECTURES TO AID FARMERS IN WORK

Deputy Minister Addresses the Metchosin Farmers' Institute

At a meeting held at Luxton Hall on Friday, October 23, under the auspices of the Metchosin Farmers' Institute in connection with the proposed Winter courses and lectures on Agriculture, some interesting figures and facts were given by Dr. D. Warnock, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, regarding agricultural products in British Columbia. Dr. Warnock realizes the difficulties of new settlers in the province, and is quite willing to arrange for suitable lectures and instruction as requested by the residents of Luxton and Happy Valley, and will take steps to send down soil experts to look over the district and report accordingly.

Chairman C. E. Whitney-Griffiths remarked that in his opinion the Department of Agriculture was understaffed, and Dr. Warnock replied that this was due largely to the lack of graduates occasioned by the call for men at the front and also due to the lack of funds.

Dr. Warnock said that in his opinion the Dominion Department might have done more towards assisting the provinces, but he put that down to the fact that previous Ministers had little knowledge of agricultural conditions outside of their own provinces.

In Dr. Tolmie, the present Minister of Agriculture, however, the country had a man with an extensive knowledge of agriculture in all its branches, and he gave as an instance the eradication of mange among cattle in Alberta, which was bad for years until Dr. Tolmie took steps and made dipping compulsory in June and July.

The United States now admits Alberta cattle on the veterinarian's certificate, which previously they refused to do.

The present Federal grant would expire in 1922, and Dr. Warnock hoped that it would be renewed with an increase.

Norfolk, W. V., Oct. 25.—Charles H. Hardenburg, of Trenton, N. J., has just returned to civilization after ten years spent as a hermit on Watts Island, in Chesapeake Bay. When he left for the island his health was impaired. He returned hale and strong.

GENERAL CURRIE'S MISSION.

General Sir Arthur Currie will be welcome in what he will still prefer to call his home town. His visit on this occasion, however, is somewhat different from that which marked his return as the victorious commander of the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

MANY OTHER MATTERS.

Public opinion in some quarters inclines to the view that the Government of this Province has decided to appeal to the electorate as a direct result of last Wednesday's plebiscite.

It is an open secret that the members of the Cabinet, like many others, were quite convinced that the present Prohibition Act would be sustained, and while holding that opinion each individual Minister had engaged himself to a programme of campaign speeches on the understanding known only to himself—that an election would take place some time this year.

But it must be remembered that the presentation to the electorate of a liquor policy is merely a detail in comparison with the large catalogue of public business which the Government will find it necessary to display to the people as a whole.

Financial, industrial and agricultural matters of prime importance will take up a very large share of campaign speeches, and the review of its legislation to which the members of the Government will treat the electorate very naturally will outweigh in provincial importance even such a "momentous" discussion of the manner in which the moderately bibulous shall purchase his liquid refreshment.

In its wisdom, however, it has seen fit to combine its proposal to control the people's liquor with the submission of a general accounting of its stewardship which it had previously arranged to give at this period, although a "dry" or "wet" policy must, of necessity, remain a small part of the public affairs of the country, the administration of which has been the concern of the retiring Administration.

LORD MAYOR MACSWINEY.

It had begun to look as if scientific ministrations during his recent unconscious moments would have saved Lord Mayor Macswiney from the consequences of his own self-imposed martyrdom.

His condition Saturday was regarded as extremely grave although there appeared to be no particularly new indications that the end was near. In fact the general impression had been created that some form of sustenance was being administered to His Worship without his knowledge during the intervals in which he slept. It is now fairly clear, however, that a remarkably robust constitution and the extraordinary care of the prison authorities were alone the joint agencies by which it was possible for the Lord Mayor to sustain life without food of any description for sixty-nine days.

Nevertheless it remains a matter of profound regret that His Worship should have succumbed during the period of his incarceration in Brixton prison. His death has taken place at a time when the Government is confronted with the gravest industrial crisis in its history, and although it may be difficult to imagine any new programme in which the Sinn Feiners might indulge that would add to the complexities of the Irish question as a whole, it is scarcely likely that the descent of the curtain upon Macswiney's martyrdom will be allowed to pass by those who will estimate his death in terms of propaganda value without a renewal of lawlessness in Ireland on a more ambitious scale.

On the other hand, however, the British Government could not have permitted his release. By succumbing to the many appeals for clemency in this particular instance there would have been established a precedent through whose application the administration of the law would have approached the farcical. The Lord Mayor's resolve to die for the cause of Sinn Fein forms a striking reminder of the grim determination with which its adherents are seized; but a very natural sympathy in this case will be tempered by the regret that a brave man found it necessary to carry his antipathy towards British rule to such extremities.

MAKING A MISTAKE?

It appears to us a matter for regret that the President of the Victoria Prohibition Association should consider it necessary to emphasize his belief that the local body will accept no responsibility whatsoever for the legislation that will be necessary in connection with the control and sale of the people's liquor. By the same token the general public must be excused if it looks with disfavor upon the adoption of an attitude by an influential body, with all its campaign machinery and marshalled arguments intact, which may be inimical to the welfare of the people as a whole.

The fact that the local Association is of the opinion that no measure of Government sale of intoxicating liquor can be a success—a matter upon which this newspaper already has expressed itself—does not relieve it of an obligation to the supporters of the cause which it espouses, who have the right to expect that every effort shall be put forth to obtain a statute which will leave no loophole for abuse. In this reasonable procedure the Prohibitionist might well cooperate with the Moderationist without in any way jeopardizing the right of the former to criticize afterwards. Were the liquor question within the realm of politics the matter would be different entirely. But it is nothing of the kind. It is of such vital interest to everybody as to merit the pooling of the best judgment of all parties including "drys" as well as "wets."

MR. FOREMAN RETIRES.

When Mr. A. E. Foreman retires from the position of Chief Engineer to the Department of Public Works at the end of this month the public service of this Province will lose a competent official and a technical expert of substantial attainment. It was into the hands of Mr. Foreman that the Hon. Dr. King placed the task of detailed development of his carefully planned proposals for the reorganization of the Department over which he was selected to preside by the late Premier Brewster. And the fact that the Minister's programme in behalf of a better administration of his own branch of the public service in general, and a more effective policy for the maintenance and construction of roads in British Columbia in particular, has singled out this Province's system as a pattern for adoption in other parts of the Continent, is a striking tribute to the Minister himself, and one in which Mr. Foreman may take a large share.

STILL NEGOTIATING.

While it is too early to speculate upon the outcome of Great Britain's industrial crisis there appears to be a fairly reasonable prospect that the negotiations which began yesterday will not be broken off until a solution has been found. It is suggested that Government experts already have reached a conclusion upon a new wage scale basis whose adoption by the men would benefit them financially and also obtain a quid pro quo which would guarantee a considerable increase over the present average rate of production. Should it be possible to come to a settlement along these lines it would virtually give effect to the Government's original proposals which the men rejected, although Robert Smillie argued latterly that with an increase of wages would come increased production—a condition not proven by recent experience. It is gratifying to observe, however, that the spirit of conciliation has entered into the inner councils of all parties to the deadlock.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS.

The October Prophets. (The Brooklyn Eagle.)

In early October the Prophet blossoms like a chrysanthemum. As a flower of the field, so he flourishes. Often in November the wind passes over him and he is gone, but for a time he is the delight of enthusiasts. The Republican Party has never had a prophet more like an October chrysanthemum than Will H. Hays. He is full of poetic imagination. He overflows with optimism. He tells a waiting world that the Democracy cannot possibly carry any commonwealth outside of eleven States in the Solid South. He sees a fine chance for Harding in Texas. He is pretty sure of North Carolina and Tennessee. And, as the Republican chairman of 1913 hinted at the same season, "It's all over but the shouting." Of course, the wish is father to the thought. Only the seventh son of a seventh son has the gift of second sight. The best advice anyone could give to Chairman White of the Democratic National Committee would be to abstain wholly from prophecy. For, after all, overconfidence that his party is going to win anyhow, keeps many a voter from the polls, which is not an aim of the propagandist of optimism.

The Stuff That Makes Heroes.

(The Topeka State Journal.) Led by a Santa Fe conductor, passengers on board a train at Las Animas rushed a bandit, recovered their valuables, and turned him over to the authorities. For hours, the passengers had been held at bay by the one lone man with a pistol in his hand. Each passenger wanted the bandit captured, but each feared to attempt it. For hours, the bandit dared not make the break toward him. When the train official led the attack, they all joined in. That is the difference between the heroes and the general run, the difference between those who succeed and those who stay in the rut. It is the man who forgets personal safety in an effort to serve his fellow, the man who dares to get out of his rut, who wins and stands out above the common herd.

WHY

DOES A LIGHTNING-ROD ABSORB THUNDER? (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheel Syndicate, Inc.)

Strictly speaking, a lightning-rod does not really absorb the thunder, because the material from which the rod is made cannot act as a deaener for sound of this nature. But the fact remains that no thunder is heard when lightning is carried off by the rod itself. This is because no lightning "discharge," in the usually accepted sense of the word, occurs.

The purpose of the rod is to prevent the accumulation of a destructive charge capable of breaking through the air between the thunder-cloud and the house or other object on the surface of the earth which is equipped with the protective apparatus. The pointed end of the rod, thrust upward towards the cloud, withdraws the electricity in a practically continuous current, and its function is analogous to that of the safety valve on a boiler. The latter prevents steam from rising to a pressure where it would burst the walls of the boiler and the former keeps the electricity from gathering in a quantity sufficient to cause a sudden and disastrous discharge. Without this discharge there is no production of thunder, and the rod therefore prevents the cause of the thunder, rather than deadening or absorbing after it has been created.

HIGH PRICES ARE BID FOR PROVINCIAL BONDS.

This is the highest price yet and is nearly three points above the price of 100.73 obtained three weeks ago on an issue of $1,000,000 six per cent. bonds. The financial men attribute their high bids to the great recovery the Province has made during the last couple of years in its financial standing.

MACSWINEY'S DEATH NEWEST DEVELOPMENT IN IRISH SITUATION.

All Precautions. Officials at the Home Office withheld comment on the case this morning, saying that every precaution had been taken and every means restored to, including forcible feeding during the last few days in an effort to keep the prisoner alive. Macswiney was unconscious for thirty-six hours before his death occurred, it is stated. Father Dominic therefore was unable to give him communion, but he administered Extreme Unction.

Heart Failure. The cause of Macswiney's death was heart failure, according to a statement issued at the Home Office. This statement is considered an indirect answer to the criticisms of Dr. Josiah Oldfield, the physician and publicist, who has declared it was wrong for the Lord Mayor's doctors to administer meat juice and brandy. He said brandy was a poison, and that a man at the point of death was very susceptible to its effects. Oldfield added that when a man fasted a long time the first food he could endure was fruit juice.

Urged by Doctors. When one of the officials was asked to-day regarding the removal of Macswiney's body from the bedside when death occurred, he replied by saying the restrictions which were recently imposed on the visits of relatives were urged by the attending doctors as vital to the prisoner's own interests.

Kept Moving. As soon as the news of the Mayor's death began to spread through the city, small knots of people began moving toward Brixton prison. The police, however, did not allow anyone to move into the street leading to the prison entrance, keeping the people moving so that a crowd would not form. Fears had previously been expressed that the Lord Mayor's death might cause a demonstration at the prison.

The Macswiney family arranged during the morning for the removal of the body from the prison to St. George's Cathedral in London as soon as the inquest was ended. The body will lie in state there until it is taken, probably on board a special train, to Dublin, where it is planned to place the body for a day or two in the Mansion House.

Grave. Macswiney's grave will be alongside that of his official predecessor, Lord Mayor Thomas Maccurtain, who was shot in his own home in Cork on March 29. Macswiney will be buried in the same plot, the others being Maccurtain, Sheamus MacQuirk, who was taken out of bed in his Galway home, and shot, and Jeremiah McNesty, who participated in the Easter rising in Dublin in 1916.

Services. These arrangements are contingent on the possibility of Governmental interference, which, however, is regarded as unlikely. The progress of the funeral party from Dublin to Cork will be marked by a series of services at all the populous centres en route. Final obsequies will be held in St. Fin Bar's Cemetery in Cork.

The grave in which Macswiney will be buried is known as the Republic Plot, which has been reserved for Irish Nationalist soldiers. Macswiney's hunger strike was begun on August 13 when, with ten of his associates, he was arrested by soldiers in Cork while attending a session of a Sinn Fein court. After trial by a courtmartial under the regulations of the Defence of the Realm Act, he was found guilty of seditious and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, which he was serving in Brixton prison in London.

Macswiney, then an Alderman of Cork, was elected Lord Mayor of the city at a special session of the Corporation on March 30 of this year. He was a well known Sinn Fein leader and, prior to his election, had been deported and imprisoned several times for his own personal safety in instances of his confinement having been in 1916 in connection with the Irish Easter revolt.

Captured. When arrested on August 13, Macswiney managed to escape to a street from the back of the City Hall, which soldiers had surrounded, but was captured outside. He was taken to the military barracks and pressed up for trial on August 14. A courtmartial found him guilty of having control of the secret police cipher, namely, a copy of a resolution of the Corporation of Cork, an allegation to the Dail Eireann, "the Irish Republican Parliament," and of having made a seditious speech on the occasion of his election.

His Stand. Already weak at the trial because of his refusal to take food, Macswiney disputed the jurisdiction of the court, saying: "I am the Lord Mayor of this city and its chief magistrate. I declare this court illegal and the taking part in it liable to arrest under the laws of the Irish Republic."

The day following his trial, Lord Mayor Macswiney was deported to England aboard a destroyer under a heavy military escort and was lodged in Brixton jail. The Government announced on August 19 that he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

Macswiney's hunger strike brought numerous solicitations and protests to the British authorities, many of the appeals being from sympathizers in the United States. There was even a threat from the Sinn Fein in Ireland of general strike and serious disturbances would prevail throughout the island.

Appeal to King. An appeal was taken directly to the King, but this also proved unavailing.

During his imprisonment Macswiney received numerous messages of encouragement and also petitions to abandon his strike. He replied to the latter that if he gave up his fight he would "give away Irish liberty" and that he would "rather die than do that."

Replying to reports that sustenance was being given Mayor Macswiney, the British Home Office declared, "If he is being fed, we do not know it," while members of Macswiney's family denied categorically that food had been given him.

Peter Macswiney, of New York, a brother of the late Lord Mayor, is an official of the American Commission for Irish Independence. Within the past week, when it be-

HOROSCOPE MONDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1920. Although Venus is in benefic aspect to-day, astrologers read that Saturn and Mars are strongly adverse. It appears that women are to gain great power under this rule of the stars and thus they will arouse the antagonism of men. This way is likely to affect political conditions. This is a planetary government peculiarly fortunate to all who depend on the patronage of crowds. Theatres and hotels should benefit greatly. The stars smile on new plays that are produced during this aspect, which makes for financial gain as well as artistic success. The seers prophesied two years ago that the stage would develop new leading women who would command public favor. They declare that there is to be a period when charm instead of genius dominates the theatre. Happy is the bride who has named this for her wedding day, unless she has chosen a husband much older than herself. Again a falling off of the number of marriages is indicated by the planets. Music is subject to the possible direction of the stars. The national capital is ruled by planets especially favorable to the development of all the arts. Return to old-fashioned standards of courtesy is prophesied, and the next few years will bring a completion of a circle of experience, astrologers foretell. This means that they who have started with wealth return to it, and

ISLAND RIDINGS READY FOR POLL

Five of Nine Constituencies
Have Been Poled Since Last
General Election

Vancouver Island electors have had more opportunities to express their views on British Columbia politics since the general election in the Fall of 1916 than any other section of the Province.

There have been two by-elections in Victoria, two in Alberni and one each in Newcastle and Cowichan, and as a consequence every section of thought among the groups in the Legislature is represented among the twelve members for the nine ridings of the Islands.

Two of the three seats where the majority is smallest throughout the Province are located in the vicinity of Victoria, R. H. Pooley's majority in Esquimalt and M. B. Jackson's majority in the Islands sharing with that of C. F. Nelson in the Slokan as the narrowest in this Province. Both Mr. Jackson and Mr. Pooley are regarded by their parties as strong candidates, and are expected to be in the running again.

While it is expected the Conservatives will oppose Mr. Hawthorthwaite in Newcastle, it is regarded as the most consistent constituency in British Columbia, and remembered as one of the two rocks against which the flood tide of the McBride-Howser regime rolled without immersing.

In Comox Mr. Stewart appears to be certain to be opposed by Charles Graham, of Cumberland, whose name was announced in the Cumberland Islander some months ago as likely to be in the field. The riding has a strong, well-organized soldier vote, linked now in a federation, which is likely to play a large part in the coming contest.

Soldier Members.

In Cowichan the sitting soldier candidate has selected, through meetings in the various polling divisions of his district, representatives who have kept him in close touch with the requirements of the ridings, and he is certain to have a large following at the polls. Meanwhile G. A. Cheeke, a well-known resident, has been chosen as the Conservative candidate. Mr. Cheeke has been active in the recent plebiscite campaign.

The other soldier candidates, Frank Gilmour, in Victoria, and Major Burde, M.C. of Alberni, are expected to be in the field again. Major Burde will probably have opposition from a Conservative candidate.

Hon. William Sloan's seat in Nanaimo is regarded as one of the safest Government seats in the Province, though it is scarcely to be expected he will be allowed to go in by acclamation, as the Nanaimo Conservatives are well organized.

While steps have already been taken by the Opposition to call a meeting of Spanish riding Conservatives to put a candidate in the field against F. A. Pauline, it will not be an easy position to disturb such a popular and energetic member as Mr. Pauline has proved himself.

FORMER PAYMASTER ON H.M.S. CAMELEON

Dr. Edward Boys, Stationed
Here in Sixties, Dies in Australia

The following from The Sydney Press, New South Wales, refers to Dr. E. T. Boys, who will be remembered here by old-timers, having been on the Esquimalt station as paymaster on H. M. S. Camellion in the early sixties, and whose death occurred last June in Australia:

"After living a noble and peaceful life, Dr. Edward Boys, of 'The Dane,' Gosport, passed peacefully away at the ripe old age of eighty-one years, June 5. He was buried beside his brother Richard at Stonequarry Taralga, who died at 'The Dane,' some twenty years ago. Dr. Boys was married in June, 1872, to Miss Mary Meston, of Rockwell. He was descended from Sir John Boys, of Canterbury, England, belonging to the Bethansea branch, and was born in Eastbourne, July, 1839. He was educated for the medical profession, but his health failing him, he took on seafaring life. Between the years 1856 and 1864 he was paymaster on H. M. S. Victory, Russell, Achol, and Camellion. In 1865 he resigned on his own request. All his certificates and resignation papers are still preserved. He came to Australia in 1869, and was in the Education Department for a number of years. He resigned after a few years to go on the land, where he spent the rest of his life.

"He leaves to mourn his loss a widow and eight children, all of whom are married. His youngest son, Lieut. Herbert J. Boys, enlisted in Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, and left Halifax 1915 for France. He died of wounds at No. 3 Canadian Hospital, Boulogne, May, 1918. He gained his commission soon after reaching France. In August, 1915, he married Ethel May, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McMicking, of Victoria, B.C."

TO-DAY'S JEWELS

The coral is to-day's talismanic stone. To wear it is to be a sure remedy from illness. Indeed, the ancients believed that one who wore a coral could not contract a sickness, since this gem has the power to give bodily strength and increase resistance against contagion.

The amethyst, which is the natal gem for those whose birth anniversary this is, has a somewhat similar power. Ancient legend has it that this gem gives freedom from harm, and the promise is read to be not alone physical but also mental and moral danger. The amethyst is an especially fortunate stone for those who are given to impulse.

White, the hue always associated with the moon goddess, is fortunate for wear to-day. It is a symbol of purity and sweetness, and is particularly potent when worn by young girls.

The yellow rose is to-day's special flower. Its presence is believed to dispel jealousy and false friendship.

POLICE PREPARE FOR BRILLIANT ANNUAL FUNCTION

Leaving No Stone Unturned to Make November 18 Red Letter Day

Lining up for the seventh annual ball, under the present auspices, the city police force are now busily preparing for the annual social event of the "Bobbies," to take place at the Main Agricultural hall at the Willows on November 18.

Living up to their reputation for doing all things thoroughly, the police are sparing no effort to make the annual ball one of the most successful of the entire issue, and are rapidly reaching a point in their plans that points to the fact that the annual ball this year will, if possible, eclipse all former occasions.

Osard's twenty-piece orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, and the leader has been making special arrangements for the rendition of a practically new and attractive programme of dance music that should appeal to even the hardest heart.

The ball will be held under the distinguished patronage of the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Prior, Premier and Mrs. Oliver, the Mayor and the Board of Police Commissioners.

A feature of the arrangements for this year's event is the fact that refreshments will be served under the same roof, an added attraction that has been missed on former occasions.

The "blue-coats" are hoping for fine weather for their annual event, and are already confident that the success of the occasion will far outclass all previous balls held by the department, which has the reputation of being among the very best of hosts in the city.

Tickets are on sale to-day under the direction of Constables Bishop and Florence. The management committee this year is composed of Constables Calwell, McLellan, Forster and Varney.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR SCHOLARSHIP

Mrs. Farris to Be Hostess at Bridge Party Thursday For Women's Club

To assist them in their endeavor to raise funds for a scholarship at the University of British Columbia, Mrs. de B. Farris is throwing open her charming house at Fowl Bay Road on Thursday evening for a bridge-party to be held under the auspices of the University Women's Club, of which she is the president.

Thirty tables are being arranged for the affair and play will commence at 8 o'clock. It is hoped that men as well as women friends of the Club will rally to their support in this praiseworthy effort to provide a much-needed scholarship.

There are still a few tables unreserved and applications should be made to Mrs. Farris as early as possible.

Held Sale of Work.—The Junior W.A. of St. Mary's Church held a most successful sale of work in the school room on Saturday, when $124.75 was taken for the same. The room was tastefully decorated with festoons of flowers, and presented a gay show with its grouped stalls.

Mrs. Carmichael, president of the Junior W.A., was in charge of arrangements, while the stalls were in charge of the following conveners and assistants: Touch and take, Miss Taylor, Miss E. Fairhurst and M. McCosman; flowers and candy, Audrey Price, Eleanor Luney, Maude Crease, Beatrice Rutten, Eleanor Casey and Winnie Clarke; fancy goods, Miss Duncan, Mable Burgess, Daisy Hoadley, Mairie Grimmon and Florence Hoadley; Mrs. Carmichael presided over a delightful tea, which closed the proceedings of the afternoon, with nearly every article of the sale of work purchased.

Sale of Work Planned.—The Ladies' Guild of the Salora's Club, Esquimalt, is planning to hold a sale of work on November 3. The Guild was only formed a short time ago, and is planning several schemes for the benefit of the seamen. The officers are as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Moore; president, Mrs. Travis; acting president, Mrs. Gray; treasurer, Mrs. Geiger, and secretary, Mrs. White.

WOMEN'S INDEPENDENT ASSOCIATION FINDS THAT SUGAR MAY NOW BE IMPORTED

Realizing that the sugar situation is one which affects every housewife, the members of the Women's Independent Political Association have been investigating conditions with a view to ascertaining if there is any likelihood of a lowering in the price of this necessary food.

Their investigations brought to light the little-known fact that the necessity for the obtaining of a permit for the importation of sugar into Canada no longer exists, the Dominion Government having removed this restriction early in September. There is, therefore, nothing now to prevent the wholesaler, retailer or private consumer from sending to the United States, where the present retail price in the western cities is now nine pounds for a dollar.

The Association is continuing its investigation and the special committee appointed to inquire into the matter will report fully at the next general meeting.

EX-GRAND DUCHESS TAKES THE VEIL

Former Head of Duchy of Luxemburg Enters Carmelite Order

The ex-Grand Duchess of Luxemburg has taken the veil in the Carmelite convent at Modena.

According to the Corriere della Sera, the ex-Grand Duchess passed the night before entering the convent at the Hotel San Marco under the name of Countess de Benan. Besides her mother, the Dowager Grand Duchess, and her sister, the Princess Elizabeth, there were two ladies with her. The ex-Grand Duchess remained in her hotel till 8 o'clock in the afternoon, when she walked to the Carmelite convent of St. Theresa.

Her beautiful fair hair had been cut short, and she was dressed simply in blue with a black sailor cap on her head. Accompanied by her mother, sister, and two friends, she entered the convent and was received in the hall by Father Cherubino and other ecclesiastics.

Impressive Ceremony

The door leading to the convent opened, and the Mother Superior and two rows of sisters appeared carrying lighted candles, the faces of which being invisible under thick black veils. The ex-Grand Duchess kissed her mother and sister, and knelt, holding white flowers in her hands. Father Cherubino addressed a few words in French, congratulating her on her decision, and extolling the beauty of her sacrifice, which would be more than compensated by the conquest of a throne happier than that which she had abandoned. The ex-Grand Duchess listened smiling, then the sisters sang a hymn, and Father Cherubino pointed to the door.

Bids Relatives Goodbye

The new novice, Arona, walked slowly to the door, turned on the threshold to nod smilingly to her mother, and then disappeared through the door, which closed heavily with two turns of the key.

The ex-Grand Duchess Marie Adelaide, who is in her twenty-seventh year, succeeded her father, William IV, the last male of the House of Nassau, on the throne of Luxemburg on February 25, 1912. She abdicated on January 14, 1919, in favor of her sister, the reigning Grand Duchess Charlotte, who married Prince Felix of Bourbon-Parma in November last. The Dowager Duchess of Braganza, her grandmother, was for many years a nun in a convent in the Isle of Wight.

NEXT LECTURE ON "SPIRIT OF THE ART OF CHINA AND JAPAN"

The Directors of the Provincial Arts and Industrial Institute of B. C. have arranged a series of lectures for the coming Winter. One has already been delivered by Dean Quinlan on the art of using the English language! The next will be given by Mrs. Adams Beek on Nov. 12, her subject being "The Spirit of the Art of China and Japan." Other lectures already arranged are by Professor Sage on "The Value of Studying Local History"; by His Honor Judge Howay on "Cariboo and the Gold Rush"; by Mr. C. H. Froese on "The Hudson's Bay Company"; by Mr. Carter on "Oriental Rugs"; and by Professor Sedgwick on "The Poems of George Meredith."

The dates of these other lectures has not yet been fixed, because it is hoped that during the winter various distinguished visitors will come to Victoria, some of whom may consent to deliver a lecture during their stay here. Admission to these lectures, some of which will be held in the Exhibition Room of the Provincial Library and some in other places, is free to members of the Institute to whom cards of membership will be issued, and these cards must be presented at the door. A small charge will be made to other persons who may wish to attend. Full details of each lecture will be announced from time to time.

Masquerade Dance—Under the auspices of the West Saanich Women's Institute a masquerade dance will be held at the West Road Hall, on Wednesday evening, November 19. A popular orchestra will supply the music.

WILL MAKE AN ANNOUNCEMENT EARLY NEXT WEEK

Government Platform Will Be Based on Broad Needs of Country's Welfare

Premier Oliver stated this morning that no Government manifesto would be published until the end of the week, or early next week, when a statement of policy with regard to Governmental control of liquor, plans for financial undertakings and railway development would be given out. This would be an announcement of the Government's attitude with regard to these important affairs and the policy which could be expected to be followed if the Oliver administration is returned to power. Premier Oliver said definitely today that these matters had not been reached as yet, and it would be necessary to hold various conferences with the Cabinet Ministers, public bodies and other persons directly interested. In this connection the Premier will go to Vancouver Tuesday night.

Premier Oliver was notified this morning that G. G. McGee, Government member for Richmond, would not again be a candidate. J. S. Cowan, fifth member for Vancouver, will officially notify the Premier that he will now retire from the political arena.

Very few Government members are in Victoria at present. Among the few is F. W. Anderson, representative for Kamloops. Seen this morning he was optimistic over the Government's chances in the dry belt, and while stating that nominating conventions decided upon the choice of a representative, still gave the impression that he would be the Kamloops member after election if a Government member were returned.

The Government Ministers were besieged all forenoon with telegrams and delegations. Four delegates from the Victoria Liberty League waited upon the Premier, laying before him their views upon a moderation act. Seen after the interview they could say nothing for publication, having decided to co-operate with the Moderation League before making definite requests.

What changes are necessary in the list of returning officers will be announced to-morrow.

SAME RETURNING OFFICERS TO MANAGE GENERAL ELECTION

Returning officers for the Provincial election on December 1, are likely to be the same as those who presided in each electoral district over the polling in the prohibition plebiscite last Wednesday, according to Government officials in charge of preparations.

Asthma Cured To Stay Cured

Thousands Testify to the Lasting Benefit Secured From Catarrhazone CURES WITHOUT DRUGS

One of the finest discoveries in medicine was given to the public when "Catarrhazone" was placed on the market about fifteen years ago. Since then thousands have been cured of asthma and catarrh. An interesting case is reported from Calgary in a letter from Creighton E. Thompson, who says:

"Nothing too strong can be said for Catarrhazone. I suffered four years from asthma in a way that would beggar description. I went through everything that man could suffer. I was told of Catarrhazone by a clerk in Pindley's drug store and purchased a dollar package. It was worth hundreds to me in a week, and I place a priceless value on the benefit I have since derived. I strongly urge every sufferer to use Catarrhazone for Asthma, Bronchitis and Catarrh."

The one-dollar package lasts two months; small size, 50¢; sample size, 25¢; all storekeepers and druggists, or the Catarrhazone Co., Kingston, Canada.

HAS NO PAIN NOW

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Mrs. Peasey, of London

London, Ont.—"I suffered with periodic pains, was weak and run down, could not eat and had headaches. The worst symptoms were dragging down pains so bad I sometimes thought I would go crazy and I seemed to be smothering. I was in this condition for two of three years and could not seem to work. I tried all kinds of remedies and had been treated by physicians, but received no benefit. I found one of your booklets and felt inclined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I received the best results from it, and now I keep house and go out to work and am like a new woman. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to my friends, and if these facts will help some poor woman use them as you please. Mrs. J. Peasey, 208 Rectory Street, London, Ont."

The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

CONVERTING SHIPS BUILT HERE INTO MOTORSHIPS, REPORT

Portland Advances Indicate Changes Being Made in French Wooden Craft

Portland, Oct. 25.—Vessels built for the French government during the war by the Foundation Company's yards in Portland, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., are being dismantled in France and being converted into motor ships, according to word brought to Portland by American officers returning from the continent and who formerly served in the French craft.

In the reconstruction of the vessels the engines and boilers have been taken out, the masts removed and deckhouses converted. In place of steam they will be equipped with twin diesel engines and two bulb-headed masts.

SALVAGE OF JAMES CARRUTHERS UNDER WAY

PRINCE JOHN TO RUN ON NEW SCHEDULE

Smaller Boat Operates From Vancouver While Prince Rupert Is Out of Service

Effective October 25 the G. T. P. steamship Prince John will be operated on a new schedule between Vancouver and Prince Rupert, according to advices received by C. F. Earle, local passenger agent.

Since the wreck of the Prince Rupert the Prince John has been plying North in conjunction with the Prince George and her schedule included calls at Victoria.

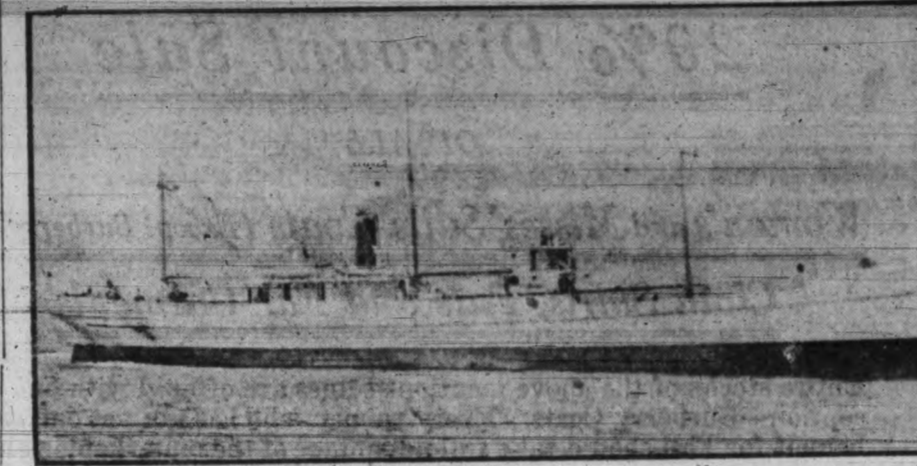

Up to the present, however, the Prince John has been unable to make connections with this port, and she has been turned back from Vancouver. Hitherto the Prince John sailed from Vancouver at 2 p. m. on Thursdays, arriving at Prince Rupert at 8 a. m. Saturdays. Southbound the Prince John will leave Prince Rupert 9 p. m. Sundays, touching at Ocean Falls and Beaver Cove, and arriving back at Vancouver at 7 a. m. Wednesdays.

The steamship Prince George, Captain D. Donald, arrived from the North at 7 o'clock yesterday morning and cleared at 11 a. m. for Seattle. The Prince George will leave Vancouver to-night for Prince Rupert.

WINNER SOON TO BE READY FOR TRIALS

The steel steamship Canadian Winner is nearing completion at her berth at the Victoria Machinery Depot, and it is expected that the vessel will be ready to run her official trials by November 10. Under Superintendent Craig the work of outfitting the vessel for sea has proceeded smoothly and satisfactorily, and the last touches are now being put to the big steel craft preparatory to her being turned over to the Government.

Although no definite date has been set for the running of the trials it is confidently expected that the vessel will be ready for the final test at the expiration of three weeks.

Captain Walter Wingate, commander of the Canadian Winner, is standing by, and is now engaged in signing on his officers and crew.

When she has completed her trials satisfactorily the Canadian Winner will go on berth at Vancouver to load freight for New Zealand and Australia. She will probably sail on her maiden voyage at the end of the year.

After the Canadian Winner has been disposed of the wharf at the Victoria Machinery Depot will be occupied by the Canadian Traveller, which, since being launched from the Harbor Marine plant, has been tied up at the Chemical Works wharf in the Inner Harbor.

HERE FROM NADEN.

The steam whaler Black made port Saturday from the Naden Harbor station, and is now tied up with the White and St. Lawrence at Point Ellice.

Not Every Girl Can Make Herself Pretty and Attractive

Probably you know just such a girl. Perhaps she is sixteen—good to look at, and pretty—quite interesting because she reflects the graces and charm that give promise of happiness to herself and others. But she is not strong. The color in her cheeks, once so rosy, has faded away—her eyes are listless—the buoyancy of spirit and vigor she once possessed are sadly lacking. Parents, friends, this girl needs Ferronone—needs it to restore her nerve force that growth, study and the development of her fresh youth have exhausted. This girl will become a queen with Ferronone—which will restore her color—bring back her old-time energy—give brightness to her eyes and vivacity to her spirits. In persons every girl finds strength—then she can do things. In Ferronone there is endurance—that drives away morning tiredness and languor. For the girl or woman that wants to be happy, healthy, winning—who values rosy cheeks, laughing eyes and abundant good spirits, nothing can compare with Ferronone. 50c per box, or six for $2.50. GENERAL CURRIE STARTS PEACE DRIVE FOR M'GILL Leader of Canadians in France Opens Campaign For University Endowment General Sir Arthur Currie, who led the Canadians in their campaigns in France, to-day at the Canadian Club luncheon at the Empress Hotel, as the principal of McGill University, Montreal, entered upon his campaign of peace, the raising of an endowment fund of $5,000,000 to provide for extension and professors' salaries. From this city he will tour Canada in the interests of the University. Sir Arthur spoke of the place of the University in the nation, providing not only men of scientific training and classical culture, but men to lead in public service. When he arose to speak, McGill graduates dining together in one part of the ballroom, jumped up and gave the old McGill yell. The ballroom was crowded with members of both the men's and women's Canadian Clubs to hear Sir Arthur. Before he took up the subject of the University, Sir Arthur recalled his last appearance before the Canadian Club of Victoria just about a year ago on his return from France. He said on that occasion he had made statements about the great part the Canadians had played in the war, and he had been challenged by some men in the audience as to whether or not he was in a position to make such statements. During the last year, however, additional information has been forthcoming which proves the statements that he then made here. Canadian Scottish Supreme.—"We now know that British history does not chronicle anything more inspiring than the deeds of your fellow citizen-soldiers over there," said Sir Arthur. He told how in the reorganization of the Canadian militia was determined on, he urged that the Canadian Scottish regiment be given to Victoria. The Canadian Scottish regiment in one week of its fighting created more traditions than all the regiments of Canada have done in all the days of their existence," he said. Judge Its Products.—"I ask you to judge McGill by its products, and what they have added to the happiness of mankind," said Sir Arthur. "McGill men in every sphere of life have served brilliantly. The results are not only in the fact that it has not been for the limitation of its income. He explained that McGill derives its income only from its fees of its students, and what they have added as a result of an endowment in 1811 by the Hon. James McGill of 46 acres in Montreal and $10,000. To augment its present income to pay professors and provide new equipment and extensions, the university is out to raise $5,000,000. Other universities have also found it necessary to raise endowment funds to meet increasing expenses. Harvard has just raised $15,000,000 and Cornell $10,000,000. Producing Leaders.—"Canada to-day asks the universities to produce men for leadership and direction," Sir Arthur went on. "The nation and the university are inseparably linked together. The university produces men prepared to fulfill their duties as citizens. The university to-day is the home of men of ideas." Sir Arthur declared there are two ways, that of self-culture and that of service. The field of the former is the university and of the latter, the state. To Repair War's Waste.—"To meet the increasing cost of everyday life, we must produce more wealth from nature and to do that we must employ more scientific methods," he went on. "Strength and muscle or power are not enough as insurance is one of the most prolific causes of waste. In a nation that depends on the wit of its people, its strength lies in the intelligence of the state. Develops Talent for State.—"Another province of the university is the development of unusual genius. It is the duty of the university to take unusual talent, latent wealth, and develop it for the service of the nation. "To me it is deplorable that politics seems to be something avoided by the educated and respectable men of the community. Surely there is nothing in the government of our country that is essentially detrimental to the people. It is men of sound judgment and high ideals, prepared to fall by what they deem

WATCH YOUR GUMS—BLEEDING A SIGN OF TROUBLE Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the forerunners of Pyorrhea, that dread disease which affects four out of five people over forty. If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pyorrhea poisons generated at their base—poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. They cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and many other ills. To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment. 35 and 60c tubes in Canada and U.S. If your druggist cannot supply you, send price to us direct and we will mail tube postpaid.

Fortunate in Choice. The Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Education, and a McGill graduate, moved the vote of thanks. He said that after hearing Sir Arthur speak, no one could deny that the Governors of McGill had made the best of the situation in choosing the leader of the Canadian army overseas for the office of principal of the University. Among those at Sir Arthur's table who considered that the University was singularly fortunate in having Sir Arthur Currie to succeed the long line of able men who have been the heads of McGill, said Hon. Mr. MacLean. A. E. Foreman, another McGill graduate, seconded the vote of thanks. Among those at Sir Arthur's table with John Cochrane, president of the Canadian Club, were: The Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance; the Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education; the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture; J. S. McIntosh, M. P.; Judge Lampman, Mayor, Porters, Brigadier-General Ross, Col. Bennett, E. B. Paul, Principal of Victoria College; the Rev. John Gibson Inkster, J. L. Beckwith, Lieut.-Col. Harold Molson and E. B. Tilt, of Montreal, organizing secretary of the McGill Graduates' Society. Sam's High Principles Needed. "It is well to remember that while the problems affecting our nation and life are subject to variation as to their number and character, the principles of justice, duty and self-sacrifice—by which these problems may be solved, remain permanently unchangeable," said John Cochrane, president of the Canadian Club in introducing Sir Arthur Currie. "These principles received ample vindication in our world-wide triumph from the great world-conflict. "If this be so, there is a responsibility resting upon our successful military leaders to accept commanding positions in our civil life, to inculcate these principles in the rising generation and to render to the state in time of peace, that same magnificent service so freely and so loyally rendered in time of war." Training For Citizenship. "A little more than one year ago, we, as a Canadian Club, welcomed our guest upon his return to this, his home city, as the most successful military leader in our world-wide triumph. To-day, we greet him again most cordially as a great Canadian who, not only in time of war, laid himself upon the altar of his country, but who, in time of peace, has placed his superb talents for organization, leadership and inspiration to high ideals, at the service of the youth of our land, by accepting the principality of McGill University."

GOVERNMENT CONTROL WILL BE BENEFIT SAYS REV. J. G. INKSTER Explains to Congregation Stand on Liquor Issue; Profits From Sale The shortcomings of the Prohibition Act of 1916 and the lambent possibilities for good under the new order of things created by the recent overwhelming wave of public sentiment in favor of Government Control furnished the theme for a strong address by the Rev. J. G. Inkster at the First Presbyterian Church last evening. Premier Oliver and a number of well-known political figures were among the congregation. Citizen and Minister. Taking as his text the verses from the Gospel of St. Matthew, "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you," and "These things ought ye to have done and not leave the other undone," Mr. Inkster divided his address into two parts, the first dealing with his viewpoint as a citizen and the second from the standpoint of a minister. As a prohibitionist, Mr. Inkster explained the workings of the Prohibition Act of 1916, he described it as a piece of radical temperance legislation, part of which was a war measure, and part intended to be permanent. The Act had been criticized—at times unfairly—and many of those who had hoped to see much good achieved were disappointed because they expected too much of it. But while it did not cure all the evils arising out of the former "wide-open" conditions, he pointed out that it did reduce drunkenness, lessened the number of business failures, reduced crime and the number of prisoners, increased bank deposits, made homes happier and abolished the salaried government employees. On the other hand certain evils had arisen during the administration of the Act, declared Mr. Inkster, the principal being moonshining, bootlegging, lawlessness and anarchy. Of the three evils he characterized the latter as the most serious. Many people had blamed the municipal and provincial governments for alleged laxity in the enforcement of the law, but he had been assured on good authority that it was impossible to enforce the law. Remaining this he had himself voted for Government control, and the result of Wednesday's plebiscite had showed that popular sentiment justified these conclusions. What Government Control Means. Passing on to Government control, Mr. Inkster expressed the opinion that his introduction into British Columbia would mean not a wide-open wet province, but the tighter closing of the bars, the disappearance of bootlegging, the stoppage of the importation of liquor and strict limitation in the sale of liquor which, he understood, would be permitted only to ticket-holders in the province and would not thus be available to visitors from the outside. In addition, he continued, the profits from the sale would be used not to reduce taxes but to provide such public utilities as clubs instead of bars, public playgrounds, swimming baths, golf courses and other undertakings of benefit to the people, while the control of the liquor would be taken out of politics and out under

Announce Opening of Arena on November 2

Skaters Will Be Able to Follow Favorite Pastime Five Days Each Week; Band Will Be in Attendance, Which Will Greatly Add to Pleasure and Prices Are to Remain Unchanged.

Ice skating in Victoria will be resumed on Tuesday evening, November 2.

This announcement has been looked for with eager eyes by the kings and queens of the steel blades for several weeks, but Lester Patrick, manager of the Arena, was anxious to make sure that all arrangements for the opening were completed before he showed his hand. This morning Lester announced that rain or shine the ice palace would be ready to receive its patrons one week from tomorrow night. The time of opening will be 8.15 o'clock.

Every Night But One.

The Arena will be open to the public five afternoons and evening each week. Monday night has been reserved for the Victoria Skating Club and the amateur ice hockey games, which last year proved such an attraction. There will be a band in attendance every evening and on Saturday afternoon, which will greatly assist the skaters in their romp around the ice sheet.

Prices are to remain the same, announced Manager Patrick. "Although the overhead expenses have gone up by leaps and bounds in common with other businesses, it is the intention of the management to keep the pre-war prices in effect."

Rush For Skates.

The opening of the rink will cause the skaters to dig about in their cellars and unearth their skates, which have been in relegation for the past six months. Then there will be the necessary call on the man who spe-

COMMITTEE NAMED TO INVESTIGATE STATUS OF PRAIRIE AMATEURS

GRASS HOCKEY GAME RESULTS IN A TIE

Only one of the two matches scheduled to be played by the Victoria Grass Hockey Club at the Jubilee Hospital grounds took place on Saturday afternoon, when the Victoria Men's team drew with the University School, each side scoring one goal. The other match, between the Victoria Ladies and the High School Girls, was not played, as the latter team failed to turn out.

Dempsey-Carpentier Match Practically Assured Fans

New York, Oct. 25.—Terms for a boxing bout for the world's heavy-weight championship between Jack Dempsey, the titleholder, and Georges Carpentier, the French pugilist, have been virtually agreed upon, Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, announced today.

Kearns said a "final conference" of interested parties would be held tomorrow or Wednesday, and added he was confident the agreement would be signed before Carpentier leaves the United States a week from next Saturday.

It was reported the bout would be held in the United States, probably in Madison Square Garden, New York, and that the date would be either in January or June, 1921.

Fight fans all over the country have been looking forward to an announcement on the Carpentier-Dempsey fight for a long time. Carpentier is under contract to Cochran, the London magnate, not to discuss about with the world's champion until the end of the year, but the fans are crying for the scrap and maybe Cochran has eased up on his claim.

When Carpentier toppled over Battling Levinsky in New Jersey the other night it was natural that the Dempsey-Carpentier go should be mooted. Georges now is the light heavyweight champion of the world, and Dempsey is the heavyweight champion. Their ring weights give Dempsey an advantage of about fifteen pounds.

WANDERERS BEAT OLD BOYS SATURDAY

Grant's Clan Showed Fine Team-work and Won Out by 16-3; Big Crowd Out

Wanderers 16—Old Boys 3.

If any rugby enthusiast entertained the idea that the Wanderers would have trouble in fielding a team this season they should have seen the team in action against the University Old Boys at Oak Bay on Saturday afternoon. During the first twenty minutes of the match the collegians got across the Wanderers' line and had the best of the play but from that time on the Grant-Gillespie combination was all over the field. In the second half the Wanderers had things much their own way and piled up a good score.

The Old Boys opened the scoring. Fifteen minutes after the game started D. M. Grant missed a pass, which was quickly picked up by Challenger, who found a fine opening for a long run. Tim Matson took the pass near the line and went across. Billy Wilson failed in an attempt to convert.

Wanderers Aggressors.
The Wanderers assumed the aggressive and made an effort to kick goals from free kicks which were awarded them, but failed. The Old Boys broke up several dangerous rushes by the Wanderers' three-quarters, but eventually Sholto Gillespie carried the ball across and D. M. Grant converted. The score at half time was 5-1 in favor of the Wanderers.

Ken Macdonald left the field with a cut in the fact and was replaced by Harvey in the second half. The Wanderers had worn down the collegians in the first half and had things much their own way in the second. Pendray went across the line for the Wanderers' first try at the start, but Grant failed to convert. Shortly afterwards E. Gillespie got over after a pretty run and this time Grant converted. Before the expiration of time, Sholto Gillespie eluded the Old Boys and scored the last points of the match.

The game attracted a large crowd. Referee Cowan handled the game satisfactorily.

The Teams.
The teams were: Wanderers—Back, C. S. Williams; three-quarters, E. S. Walls, S. Gillespie, D. M. Grant and E. Gillespie; five-eighths, G. C. Grant; halves, Parker and Stewart; forwards, Pendray, Lowe, MacIvor, Stewart, Drummond, Monteith and Acland.

University Old Boys—Full back, B. R. Kerr; three-quarters, J. H. Wilson, W. Tolmie, H. Thurburn, T. Matson, F. G. Appleton, J. Chadwick and P. W. Nelson.

ASTON VILLA JUMPS INTO LEAGUE LEAD

Had Easy Victory Saturday; Huddersfield Showed Form; Cardiff Does Well

London, Oct. 25.—(By Canadian Associated Press)—Association football supporters had an international attraction Saturday in addition to the usual big league features. The team for Ireland met that for England at Sunderland and suffered defeat, as was expected, though the score of 2 to 0 against them, was not heavy. Aston Villa again came to the head of the first division with a 4-0 victory over Sheffield United and another decisive win was that of Huddersfield, 5-1, over West Bromwich, last year's champions.

In a keen local fight, Liverpool beat Everton.

Cardiff, by beating Notts County at Nottingham, emphasized the excellence of their previous performance, while Shields, who have the same number of points at the top of the league, had a runaway victory of 6 to 1 over Burnley Portvale.

Norwich City is bottom in the third division and the only club in the whole of the league which has not won a match.

made some pretty saves of hard shots that came from the toes of the Comrades. The front line Tommies succeeded in getting through for the only tally in the first half, when Hillier lifted a daisy which passed Shrimpton.

Dowell Equalized.
The Vets showed a burst of speed early in the second half and Dowell dropped a neat shot past Holt, placing the teams on equal terms. Both clubs tried vainly to break through the defenses and kick in the deciding goal, but for some time both goalies played safe. Then the break came and McMurray scored with a beautiful shot. The Vets tried gamely to again equalize the score, but found the Comrades' defence too strong. The teams were:
Comrades: Holt, Phillips, Petch, Faichan, Miller, McConnell, Harper, Bloom, Brewster, Hillier and McMurray.

Mets Again Victors.
The Mets came through once more, this time having the Sons of England as their victims. The match was played at Beacon Hill, and at full time the score stood 3-0 in favor of the Mets. The Sons showed to better advantage than they have all season. At the outset they pressed, but when Petticrew booted through a goal for the Mets the Sons labored considerably and their team-work suffered. A penalty awarded to the Mets was converted.

In the second half the Sons stood and carried the play into the Mets' territory, sending in a few hotshots which Leeming cleared. The Mets failed, however, and fought the Sons back, but were unable to increase their score. Both goalies pulled off some splendid saves.

VARSITY PREPARES FOR A TRACK MEET

Freshies and Sophomores in Keen Tussle at Vancouver Wednesday Afternoon

Vancouver, Oct. 25.—The stage is all set, and Varsity athletes are praying for fine weather for the annual track meet which is to be held at Brockton Point on Wednesday afternoon next. There are fourteen events on the list and the large numbers of entries from each class has made it necessary to run off an elimination meet this afternoon. Many of the college boys have been training and a great deal of inter-class rivalry has sprung up. The beautiful cup presented by the faculty for the class winning the highest total in the meet is the objective of nearly every class in the University. Science '24, Arts '24 and Arts '23 are prime favorites for the championship, but there is no means of making a sure prophecy. Last year Arts '23, then freshmen, cleaned up on the meet, gathering almost twice as many points as any other class. But last year there was a senior and a junior division. Wolverton, who won the senior championship, has migrated to Science '24 as have Arkeley, Arnott and several others who were a tower of strength to Arts '23. The sophomore class, however, still have F. M. Wallace, junior champion, and Dave Wilson, who captured a large number of the events. Arts '21 have Lou Hunter and Hughie Ross to count on for several points, while

REORGANIZE AMERICAN HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 25.—The American Hockey Association will be reorganized this year with Calumet back in. Calumet refused to join the league last year, and this action weakened the association considerably. The makeup of the circuit is not definitely known, but it is believed it will include Calumet, Houghton, the two Soo's and possibly St. Paul. The entry of the latter city seems to be conditional on the formation of a league on the Iron ranges, possibly including St. Paul, Duluth, Hibbing and Eveleth. If this league is formed, arrangements will be made for a post season series between the two circuits.

To-morrow the big Fire Sale will re-commence with bargains as plentiful as ever. Come and benefit.

Goodyear Tire Mileage Costs You Less Than Before the War

Goodyear Tires cost you less per year or per mile than they did before the war.

The price of Goodyear Tires in that time has increased less than 2% on some sizes, and only 15% on any size—while most commodities have increased over 100%.

We have been able to keep down the price of tires largely because of Goodyear's economical system of distribution (direct from factory to Service Station, saving jobber's profit and reducing shipping cost).

This slight increase is overshadowed by the greater mileage made possible by increased Goodyear Quality and broader Goodyear Service.

Owners now report cost-per-mile much below that of five years ago.

You, too, can secure fair Goodyear prices and long Goodyear mileage by calling on the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer.

THE GOODYEAR TIRE & RUBBER CO. OF CANADA, LIMITED

These are examples of Goodyear mileages above the average—mileages impossible six years ago. The increased Goodyear quality and broader Goodyear service which have made possible these greater mileages will also enable you to keep down your tire costs.

WITH THE QUOTERS

The large number of entries in the quilt handicap made it impossible to finish the games on Saturday and the finals will be played off next Saturday. D. McCaig will meet Billy Wallace, one of the novices, whose good pitching surprised all who were present, and T. Buchanan will play J. Leiper. Two more heads are being put in for practice games and for those who are learning the game. A general meeting of all quilters is being held on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, October 27, at room 25, Atlantic Hotel. A large attendance is requested, as several matters of importance will be discussed. Any player desiring a pair of quilts for private use, can purchase them very reasonably through the club secretary, who is ordering a supply for the club in the near future.

CROSS-CHANNEL SWIM.

Sporting Editor Times.—I was rather interested and pleased to read in The Times a few nights ago the intention and ambition of our famous lady swimmer, Miss Audrey Griffin, to attempt to swim the English Channel next year. While I admire her pluck and ambition, might I suggest that while she is in England she try something easier first. She will find the swim across the Channel a far different proposition to the Gorge, so I would like to suggest to her that she try a "Through London Swim" first, say from Richmond Lock to Putney, or something similar. This would indeed be a first-class advertisement for the lady swimmer from Canada, as there would be hundreds of thousands of people watching her effort. Should she be successful, which I hope she would, it would prove a good preliminary to her attempt to cross the Channel, and then if that was successful also, before she returns to Victoria she would have accomplished something really worth while during her trip in England. Well, here's wishing her luck and all success. E. H. BROWNLEY.

A. O. F. JUVENILES WIN FROM NAVAL BRIGADE

Neither of the opponents of the Boys' Naval Brigade nor the Foresters B team turned out on Saturday at the match arranged for that day. A match was arranged between the A. O. F. juveniles and the navy boys. The juveniles being the heavier team came off top with a score of two to nothing. Both teams played a nice game, and if they keep up their practice will be able to give a good exhibition of football. The bigger boys on each team were in good form, and put up a good fight. It will be interesting to see these juvenile footballers in a return match next Saturday. Any boy under sixteen wanting to play should be on hand at the game. Also any junior team under sixteen wishing a game must communicate with T. Smith, 546 Colinson Street.

MAPLE LEAFS TO OPEN AT ROYAL

Capt. Plunkett Brings Fine Overseas Company to City This Week

AMUSEMENTS TO-DAY

- Royal Victoria—"Camouflage."
- Dominion—"Humoresque."
- Pantages—"Red Hot Dollars."
- Columbia—"The Right to Happiness."
- Variety—"Are You Legally Married?"
- Criterion—"Belmont House."

Taking the original party as a nucleus for the present show, Capt. Plunkett has gathered together all the famous impersonators from the other divisional parties as well as from many of the twenty-eight concert parties which he directed in France. The result has been that the augmented "Maple Leafs" are offering the greatest of all-man "girl shows" ever staged.

Although the boys of the "Maple Leafs" are all able-bodied fighting men, each one having done a long stretch in the trenches prior to his having been chosen by Capt. Plunkett to entertain his comrades overseas, their performances of "Camouflage" is essentially a "girl show."

One of the most beautiful ensemble numbers in "Camouflage," is the Colonial Ball, where all the boys are dressed as belles of 1860. This dainty number and the big "rube" song, "Take Me Back to England," where the boys all portray old men, give ample evidence of their wide versatility and real histrionic ability.

"Camouflage" will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria for tonight and Tuesday and there is every reason to believe that it will prove one of the biggest sensations of the current theatrical season in this city.

CHARLES RAY IS STAR AT PANTAGES

Popular Young Actor Appears in "Red Hot Dollars;" Real Action Drama

Charles Ray dons overalls and carries a dinner pail in his new picture, "Red Hot Dollars," which will be the attraction at Pantages Theatre today and to-morrow. The youthful star has the role of Tod Burke, a machinist in a small town iron foundry, is cold and selfish and has been the means of driving to the wall Angus Muir, his old business associate. Muir, and his pretty daughter, Janet, live in poor financial straits in a humble cottage. Tod picks up an acquaintance with them. Later, his quick wit enables him to save his employer's life when a heavy timber falls, through Tod's aid is badly hurt. Old Garton is affected by the boy's sacrifice and, taking him to his mansion, looks after him while he regains his strength and then decides to adopt him. Tod tells Muir of his good fortune, innocent of the strong enmity between the Scotchman and Garton, and Muir drives him out of his house. There-up, Tod gets Janet a job in the Garton offices and the two evolve a clever and successful scheme to bring about a reconciliation between Muir and Garton.

FILM MASTERPIECE NOW AT DOMINION

Adaptation of Fannie's Hurst's Story of Humoresque Will Be Attraction

Every once in a great while there is produced a really great photoplay. A picture vibrant with tears and joys of life, which leaves a lasting impression on an audience, lifting it high above the average of every day productions. Such a picture is "Humoresque," one of the photoplay masterpieces of all time.

Nothing we can tell you in cold print about "Humoresque" will do the picture justice. It is one of those productions that you have to see in order to appreciate. Once you have seen it, you'll agree with us that it's one of the really big pictures of the season. It's a great heart-appealing drama of human lives.

Fanny Hurst wrote the story from which "Humoresque" was adapted. She is the highest paid story writer in America. Deservedly. No other author can approach the skill and sympathy with which she portrays the joys and tears and adventure of ordinary life. She surrounds it with a romance and intense interest that no out-and-out adventure tale can ever approach.

"Humoresque" appeared serially in The Cosmopolitan Magazine. It has been published in book form and sold like wildfire. It has run in all the Hearst newspapers throughout the country, illustrated with stills from the picture. Over 5,000,000 people have read the story and are eager to see the photoplay.

Moreover, we can promise with absolute truth that this remarkable story has been given a more-than-remarkable production on the screen. Alma Rubens, a brunette beauty of rare charm and ability, is the featured player. This attraction has shattered all records in attendance in many instances having to play an extended run of from six to eight weeks in some of the theatres where it has already been shown. "Humoresque" will be shown here at the Dominion for one week only, commencing to-day.

TWO PATHS TAKE DIVERGENT WAYS

Story of Petrograd in Time of Russian Imperial Oppression at Columbia

Into the Jewish quarter of the old St. Petersburg of nineteen years ago swept a horde of bloodthirsty Cossacks. With sword, rifle and torch they slaughtered the inhabitants and burned their homes, not even sparing the residence of Andrew Hardcastle, an American multimillionaire. They killed the Jewish nurse of Hardcastle's baby twin daughters and caused a separation of the children. When Hardcastle returned from a business trip next morning he found his palatial home a mass of charred and smoking ruins. One of his baby treasures was gone.

With bitter hatred in his heart he went to America and became a money-mad power, despising his fellowman, seeking only to extract the last drop of blood from his workmen and exploit the just feelings from their pay. His daughter was reared in idleness and luxury, caring only for self. Her chief amusement was toying with a mollusc-like lover.

But what of the lost baby? Adopted by a Russian family, she was reared in radicalism. She loved humanity with a love so overwhelming that she knew not how to direct her deeds. She became a radical leader, an agitator, a little comrade of the Nihilists, and as such was sent to America to sow seeds of unrest and discontent. And at length she led an angry half-crazed mob against the home of her own father.

Such is one of the dramatic elements on which Allen Holubar has created "The Right to Happiness," his last super-production featuring America's great emotionalist, the radiant Dorothy Phillips. In it is told the world's greatest love story. See it at the Columbia Theatre to-day.

"ARE YOU LEGALLY MARRIED" NOW HERE

Pictorial Sensation Occupies Variety, With Gripping Heart Interest

Verdict of press and public on "Are You Legally Married?" concedes it to be "the picture sensation of the century."

Florence Lawrence, of The Los Angeles Examiner, says: "Has a distinct appeal; packed to the doors at every performance."

Grace Kingsley, Los Angeles Times, says: "Human, poignant and appealing—wholesome and amusing."

Estelle Lawton Lindsay, former Los Angeles Councilwoman, says: "A revelation of astonishing legal facts no one can afford to miss."

In discussing "Are You Legally Married?" Dr. Jessie Russell, president of the California Congress of Mother and Parent-Teacher Associations, and prominent newspaper writer and author, said for publication: "It is a masterly exposition of the chaos resulting from marriage laws made by the states. Everybody should see it."

William F. Quinlan, Rector, St. Andrew's Rectory, Pasadena, Cal., wrote to the author relative to the story: "I wish you every success. I am convinced it is going to accomplish a vast amount of good, bringing out, as it does so forcibly the necessity of taking a strong hand against the terrible evil that is eating into the very vitals of our American life. You have my best wishes and prayers for its success. Sincerely yours (Signed) William F. Quinlan."

Miss Dell Greer, the young dramatist of New York, gives her impression of "Are You Legally Married?" after seeing it at Quinn's Rialto, Los Angeles during its phenomenal four weeks' run, wherein it made all Los Angeles gasp. "This young writer always sees more in a play than is there, but in this one she declares all there is, is there. Her own words:

"A legal secret has been lifted right out of the Supreme Court of Justice of the United States, and laid bare and guilty before the innocent public—a secret that hanks like a poisoned dagger over every man, woman and child in this United States. It sounds like Common Law Marriages. No it is about an uncommon law that governs marriage and is illegally legal. The picture brings out this secret of our Court of Injustice like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, and you literally feel hailstones on your head and chills down your spine from their icy contact. And, mind you, this 'thunderbolt' is not fiction, but reality! If you are not married, you will think twice before you are—if you are married, you will stay married! And if you are divorced—God Help You!"

The Los Angeles Record speaks of "Are You Legally Married?" on the front page over the caption, and on the right-hand column front page, saying: "Are You Legally Married?" at Quinn's Rialto Theatre, soon starts playing its fourth big week. It's a show which thousands have already seen and enjoyed, and is in the midst of a phenomenal run. It touches on great vital human problems of to-day."

EVERY MINISTER HAS CONFIDENCE IN HIS OWN ELECTORATE

How Political Situation Looks in the Mainland Constituencies

The selection of probable candidates at the provincial election is a matter of conjecture, so far as Mainland riding are concerned. Commencing with the Government Leader, there is every probability that Delta, the home and former constituency of Hon. John Oliver, will again be the Premier's scene of conflict. He may also run in Victoria, there being a strong desire on the part of many Liberal followers to see their chief sit for the capital city as Prime Minister, and the good people of Victoria would be anything but averse to being represented by the first official of the Government.

Opposing the Premier in Delta will be Capt. Frank J. MacKenzie, for many years a Conservative member in the Legislature. The Delta representative states he is looking forward to an easy victory, and says he would "like nothing better" than to have John Oliver as his opponent. The Premier, it is believed, has a mighty desire again to represent Delta. A third possible candidate in that riding is J. W. Berry, of Langley, who may be a farmer competitor.

Mr. Bowser will stand or fall in his home constituency of Vancouver, which he has represented for seventeen consecutive years, being a member of the first purely party government in British Columbia, when in 1903 the late Sir Richard McBride was called upon to form a government.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, and member for Prince Rupert, will run in Prince Rupert, according to an announcement he made from the public platform in that city towards the end of August last. Mr. Pattullo will leave Vancouver tonight to commence his campaign fight.

Hon. J. W. de B. Farris, Attorney-General and Minister of Labor, will seek re-election in Vancouver, where present sitting members, M. A. Macdonald, K. C., former Attorney-General, and Mrs. Ralph Smith, first woman representative for British Columbia, will be on the Liberal ticket.

Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Education and Provincial Secretary, will rely upon the voters of his own constituency, Greenwood, to return him to office. Rumors that he had been offered the Liberal nomination in Rossland for no reason, since his intention to make his stand at home was announced.

Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, is a certainty for a place on the Victoria ticket. Hon. S. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, returns to his agricultural constituency of Chilliwack and Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, will run in Cranbrook. Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines and Commissioner of Fisheries, will seek re-election in Nanaimo.

Private Members.
Only mild surprise is expressed in both government and opposition circles over the announcement of David Whiteside, member for New Westminster, that he will retire from the political arena, as announced Saturday.

A former supporter of the Oliver Government who has renounced his allegiance is Lieut. George S. Hanes, member for Vancouver. His annual determination to bring about an investigation in Pacific Great Eastern matters led to repeated and heated differences between himself and Premier Oliver. While not renouncing his Liberal principles, he has apparently had no recourse but to turn independent.

Another former Government supporter, or erstwhile supporter-opponent, to stand on an independent platform is W. Willson, member for Rossland.

Some surprise is occasioned over the evident retirement of J. S. Cowper, fifth member for Vancouver. Mr. Cowper's parliamentary career in British Columbia has been marked with considerable interest. His spirited campaign in connection with the retirement of M. A. Macdonald caused some uneasiness in the party. He has apparently entered the ranks of federal aspirants, though expected strongly to support his party in the coming Provincial contest.

In Omineca.
Alex. Manson, Omineca representative, will contest that riding, probably in a three-cornered fight. Alex. Prudholme is mentioned as a probable Independent-Liberal candidate, while George Murray, a returned soldier-farmer, is also in the fight. The Conservative aspirant in Omineca will probably not be known until nomination day.

Continuing east along the G. T. P. comes the immense Fort George riding, now represented by W. R. Ross, K. C., former Minister of Lands. Here it is expected the Liberal nomination will go to Mayor Harry G. Perry, with Dr. Alward, a Prince George dentist, right in the running among the Conservatives. There is no dearth of aspirants in this riding. Samuel Cooker, a Vanderhoof rancher, is making a bid for the Conservative support, while ex-Mayor Hiram Carney, of Prince George, is also potentially ambitious. F. E. Burden, B. C. L. S., of Green Bros. & Burden, surveyors, has also been pressed to run for the Conservatives. John Melhais, former Socialist member in the House, who fought W. R. Ross to within five votes of victory in 1916, and who is now police commissioner for Prince George, is not expected to stand for election. It is stated Mr. Ross will not seek re-election in Fort George.

Peace River District.
This brings the great northern half of the riding into the limelight. Mr. Bowser states that one of the first acts of his Government will be to give the Peace River section of the Fort George riding a member, his intention being to hold a by-election there during the Summer of 1921. This is perhaps responsible for the fact that as yet no Conservative candidate has loomed up looking for the Fort George nomination.

Atlin Vacancy.

The retirement of W. R. Ross does not eliminate the family from provincial life, since Mr. Ross's son, William, will in all probability be a candidate in Atlin, the constituency left without a representative through the death of Frank H. Mobley. Young Mr. Ross is practicing law in Stewart. Miss Kate Ryan is expected to enter the field in the Atlin contest, while the favorite Government candidate appears to be Mr. Andrews, of Ansox, formerly Government agent there.

Mr. McConnell Active.

Carlson is being asked to return John Yorston again, a member who receives strong support among farmers and Liberals alike. J. A. Fraser, whom Mr. Yorston defeated in 1916, will not be a candidate. John P. McConnell, former Vancouver editor, is in the field as an Independent, looking to the mining fraternity chiefly for support.

Liberals claim the election of Dr. W. H. Sutherland, of Revelstoke, by acclamation, although Mr. Bowser stated Sunday there would be a Conservative candidate in every constituency.

Dr. Ross, Conservative member for Nelson, will be opposed by Mayor J. A. Macdonald, while the Conservatives claim the election hands down of J. H. Schofield in Trail.

The veteran Speaker of the House, Hon. John Keen, of Kaslo, faces a fight with Col. Fred Lister, C. M. G., D. S. O., a returned soldier, Conservative candidate, and the first superintendent of the Camp Lister soldier settlement near Creston.

Another veteran, Archie Macdonald, of Lillooet, will run again, although known to have a desire to quit the political game. He has been a Conservative member for many years.

MISS MARJORIE WOOD IN "CHU CHIN CHOW"

Playing Part of Auctioned Slave Girl Involves Much Brown Paint

Probably no actress on the American stage is working harder at the present time than Miss Marjorie Wood, leading woman in "Chu Chin Chow," the big spectacular production of Orient which P. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest will present at the Royal Victoria Theatre for five days, commencing Tuesday, November 9.

Miss Wood is playing the role of the slave girl, who is sold by auction in the big slave market scene. The role is not only very long, lasting through fourteen scenes, but the stage directions require that Miss Wood shall make-up as a desert woman by painting her body with brown liquid paint before every performance. Inasmuch as the costumes designed by Percy Anderson, of London, for this role are not very elaborate, Miss Wood never knows just what part of her body to overlook when she applies the brown paint, and to be on the safe side she uses about a quart of the liquid at every performance.

This difficult "make-up" makes it necessary for Miss Wood to reach the theatre at a very performance fully one hour and thirty minutes before the curtain rises. With the assistance of her maid she applies the "make-up," dons her costume and then goes on the stage to act in nearly every scene from 8 o'clock in the evening until the final curtain falls at 11.15.

The average actress is usually able to get out of the theatre quickly after the last curtain, but in the case of Marjorie Wood in "Chu Chin Chow" it is necessary for her to stay in the theatre more than an hour while her maid tries to scrub off the brown paint and remove every trace of the "make-up."

"I used to play in society dramas," cried Miss Wood last week in her dressing room. "I could dawdle over dinner to my heart's content, then dash madly to the theatre, put on a simple evening gown, play several comedy scenes with a star and then get out of the theatre before eleven o'clock in time to go to supper with some of my numerous admirers. All that is changed now, however. I have to work hard in "Chu Chin Chow" and believe me I am never going to accept an engagement for such a part again. I am sure brown paint will make me sick every time I think of it hereafter."

KILLED WHILE ADJUSTING PUMP

Fatal Accident Occurs in Number Three Mine, Extension. Ladysmith, Oct. 25.—Michael Thompson has been killed while working in No. 3 Mine, Extension. It is stated that Mr. Thompson was adjusting a pump, the pump being along side the track. There was a string of cars standing ready to be taken outside, and the rope rider called to Mr. Thompson that he was going to let the cars loose. The latter replied "allright." As the cars were passing he slipped off the pump platform and fell between the cars. Forty minutes after the accident he died. Mr. Thompson leaves a widow and six children. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. The following first aid team has been chosen to represent the Extension Mines at Vancouver on October 30 at the annual competition for the Cadair Cup, emblematic of the championship of Canada, Allan McDonald, James Delaney, James Ferguson, Alex. Brown, Thomas Hardy and Hamilton Allan. After an extended visit over four months to his old home in Scotland, Mr. William McGuire has returned to Ladysmith. Mrs. Carter left for Whitesod, Sask. after an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Hudson. Mrs. Hudson accompanied her mother as far as Vancouver. Mrs. H. DAVIES: Metchosin Institute to Hear of Land Settlement Board's Work. Metchosin, Oct. 25.—A Special meeting will be held on November 5 at Metchosin Hall under the auspices of the Metchosin Farmers' Institute, when the head of the Land Settlement Board, Colonel Davies, probably accompanied by the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Provincial Minister of Agriculture, will present a full report of the operations of the Land Settlement Board. This is of particular importance as the land-clearing methods adopted by the Board have resulted in some most interesting economies. The Colonel will give facts showing the surprising results through adoption of the tractor and using other new ways in clearing up the bush land that settlers in British Columbia have taken over. This will be the first occasion on which a public report has been given and the Metchosin Farmers' Institute feels fortunate in being so that to arrange for such a meeting as that. Several here who are engaged in land-clearing will be able to get first-hand information regarding the latest discovery in connection with British Columbia's most difficult problem in agriculture. Considerable success has been achieved by the Board in creating better social conditions and thereby bringing about contentment among the women and children in the settlement at Creston, which consists of a large number of families. Several who have been built to accommodate the children and details will be given showing the tendency to improve the social, educational and economical conditions of the settlers. After the address and any discussion, which will be invited, a short entertainment will be given and refreshments provided in the usual manner, followed by a dance. Everyone is invited and it is hoped to attract a very large attendance. No charge will be made for admittance; the meeting will be thrown open to the public. Several people of note from Victoria are expected to attend the meeting. Grain Growers. The annual meeting of the Victoria Local of the United Grain Growers, Ltd., of which there are over 120 shareholders in Victoria district, was held on October 21 at the company's office on Douglas Street. The following board was elected to act for the ensuing year: Messrs. R. Fox, A. Wilson, R. G. Clark, J. W. Bristol, J. B. Dill, E. Cooney and C. E. Whitney-Griffiths. The board then appointed the chairman, R. Fox, and Secretary C. E. Whitney-Griffiths. A discussion among the shareholders took place as to securing the at-

PALE, NERVOUS WOMEN

Told How To Acquire Strength And Energy. Since Vinol was first introduced here some years ago it has made a great many friends among the women, because it is such an unusual remedy. It is the first cod liver medicine ever to have been made without the oil and nauseating grease, and the iron employed in its composition is an improvement over old medicinal iron. Many women here who were once pale and sallow and always tired, are now robust and strong, because Vinol certainly and quickly creates red blood and makes one's daily food produce the necessary nourishment for good health. POLITICAL POT IS NOW BOILING

Intense activity prevailed all through this morning in political circles, both local and in the adjacent constituencies.

A meeting of the executive of the Victoria Liberal Association has been set for 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening in the rooms in the Arcade Building...

The World's Favorite Condiment. The condiment that has gained, and retained for over a century, the favor of the people, in all parts of the world, is COLMAN'S D.S.F. MUSTARD

In the Islands constituency there is a possibility that M. B. Jackson, K.C., will retain the seat without opposition.

George Clark, of North Saanich, past president of the United Farmers Association of British Columbia...

Mr. Harrison entered a preliminary objection to the argument of the opposing counsel on the ground that his clients had already had recourse to one mode of appeal from the police court conviction...

Under the Summary Convictions Act, stated Mr. Harrison, there could be no second appeal, also disqualified offenders convicted under the municipal by-laws might go on appealing indefinitely...

At this point Mr. Justice Morrison asked for enlightenment on the stated case proceedings, when Mr. Moore stated that his clients had obtained an order directing the police Magistrate to give a direct finding on the evidence before him in this conviction under the Smoke Nuisance by-law...

The issue then turned upon the point of whether a stated case was analogous with a county court appeal, it being held by Mr. Justice Morrison that such was the case.

Mr. Moore then held that his own former proceedings in the stated case had been illegal by virtue of the fact that he had intended to tender notice of appeal to the other side, but this objection was overruled.

Mr. Moore then advanced the argument that the Smoke Nuisance by-law was bad law, and therefore void as he stated, it called for an impossibility. The provincial statute had given power of affirmative legislation to the city to compel the defendant company to install apparatus to prevent the alleged nuisance.

Mr. Justice Morrison speaking to that point, stated that in his opinion the by-law followed the act precisely, and that it was designed first and last for the safety of the public.

At this point the proceedings resumed in a mass of legal references. Judgment Reserved. Mr. Justice Morrison reserved his judgment, stating that he would look up the references quoted and give a decision later.

OPPOSITION LEADER

SURE OF SUCCESS

Mr. Bowser Leaves Questions of Day For Conventions

"What are you offering the electors in the way of a moderation platform?" was a question asked Mr. W. J. Bowser, Leader of the Opposition, prior to the Conservative chief's departure for the Mainland, where he will take up in earnest the political fight.
"I don't know," was the brief answer.
"Will you announce a definite stand on the issue?" was the next question.
"I don't know," came the laconic reply.
"What about your Vancouver slate?" queried the interviewer, and again the negative.
Then, as a last hope, what of your party's chances on December 1?
"We'll be elected on nomination day, and that because carrying the party banner will be some of the best representative business men in the Province, but as far as announcements go I have absolutely nothing to say. Our conventions must be held and nomination day will have to tell its own story."

FORWARD SUGGESTIONS

Prohibitionists Will Hold Supper For Workers on Friday

The lecture room of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was well filled on Saturday evening, when local Prohibitionists met to discuss future plans and policy. H. A. Beckwith, president of the Association, presided. Several resolutions dealing with future policy, were passed. But, in view of the fact that these resolutions were recommendations to the provincial executive, which will meet in Vancouver, in the near future, it was decided that they should not be made public. The provincial executive will meet in the near future, when the policy will be decided upon, and a public statement made.
In the meantime, the local Prohibitionists will carry on, and intend holding a supper next Friday evening, for their workers and supporters. All arrangements are in the hands of a strong committee, and the time and place will be announced later.
One noteworthy feature of the meeting Saturday night was the spirit of harmony which seemed to prevail. The meeting confined itself to purely constructive work.
