MAJAL PROBLEMS CALL FOR SOLUTION

Dominion to Decide Share, Says London Telegraph

London, March 15.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Discussing the naval estimates and the question of the development of Dominion navies, The Daily Telegraph remarks that while the Dominions enjoy the advantage of autonomous government under the protection of the Imperial navy their total contributions to naval defence now amount to less than £250,000. The Dominion statesmen have admitted, The Telegraph says, that this does not accord with the proper feelings of self-respect of the Dominions. The solution of the problems of establishing a partnership of the Dominions in the matter of naval defence is fraught with many difficulties, the paper adds and it is for the Dominions rather than for the Mother Country to determine the manner of meeting their responsibilities.

Re-Establishment Group At Ottawa Takes Up Task

Ottawa, March 14.—(Canadian Press)—The Special Committee of the House on Pensions, Insurance and Re-establishment will work this year along the same lines as last, taking up the different phases of its work separately and covering each as far as possible at one time. This was decided at this morning's initial meeting of the Committee.

The Committee decided to ask all who wish to give evidence to place a synopsis of their case before it in writing, so that as far as possible duplication may be avoided. To-morrow morning the Committee will deal with insurance.

HOHENZOLLERN'S STORY IS UPSET

Witte Gives Details of League Proposal

Arrangement With the Czar Was Overthrown

New York, March 15.—The proposal of the then Kaiser Wilhelm for a league of nations, described in Hohenzollern's book, written in an attempt to show Great Britain was responsible for the war, is challenged and contradicted in the forthcoming memoirs of Count Witte, noted Russian statesman.

Hohenzollern's account of the league of nations consisting of the Triple Alliance and the French-Russian alliance and that this proposal was accepted by the Russian Emperor and Count Witte.

Proposal. After detailing the proposal of the Kaiser for an offensive economic alliance between Russia and Germany against the United States, Witte refers to his so-called league of nations proposal.

In 1905 the Count saw the Kaiser on his way to Russia after negotiating the Treaty of Portsmouth.

Witte refers to his success at Portsmouth," says Witte, "he turned to the political situation in Europe.

The first amendment to the bill to permit beer selling by others than the Government and in other forms than in "sealed packages" will come up when the House tackles the interpretation clause of the bill in the re-reading to deal with debatable clauses which were left over.

This will deal with the definition of the word "liquor," which is now set out as any liquor over one per cent. of alcohol by weight, which is equal to 2½ per cent. proof spirits.

BOMB SET OFF AND DEATHS IN IRELAND

Explosion Killed Three Persons; Other Deaths

Dublin, March 15.—Five police recruits were wounded by the explosion of a bomb here last night while searching a house in Great Brunswick Street. Three civilians were killed and several were wounded by the explosion.

All troops in Dublin were confined to their barracks last night, officers fearing that there might be disorders as a result of the executions of six men in Mount Joy prison early in the day. The Dublin Corporation adjourned last week owing to the murder of several men in Limerick, and rejourneyed yesterday because of the executions.

Other Deaths. Cork, March 15.—Several British officers who were wearing citizens' clothes were held up by several unknown persons at Crosshaven last night and in the fighting that followed two men were killed.

John Moyasta, a farmer of West Clare, was shot and killed when he opened his door in response to a knock.

Several other murderous attacks were reported here during the night.

In Rome. Rome, March 15.—A pro-Irish meeting held by the Popular Party was attended by a large crowd and leading members of the Catholic Party.

Deputy Borromeo declared that the martyrs of the Irish people were heroic, with a refined cruelty aimed at destroying the Irish nation and its faith. Amid loud applause he presented C. G. Duffy, a Sinn Féin member of the British House of Commons, as the envoy extraordinary of "the Government of the Irish Republic."

"England wages war against us because we are Catholics and a rich country," Mr. Duffy declared. "England fears us."

His speech was interrupted with applause, and in his conclusion there were cries of "Viva Ireland!" "Down with England!" "Down with Lloyd George and King George!"

FIVE BURNED TO DEATH IN CAR

Tragedy on Moving Train in Colorado

Pueblo, Col., March 15.—Five persons were burned to death when their rear Pullman car on the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad caught fire early this morning between Pueblo and Walsenburg. The origin of the fire has not yet been determined.

Seven persons were asleep in the Pullman car when it caught fire. Two of them escaped by jumping from windows and were slightly injured. The train was traveling about twenty-five miles an hour, according to information received here. The sleeping car was the last car on the train and was completely destroyed. The bodies were dragged out in the mass of fire and wreckage when the train came to a stop.

The car ahead of the burned sleeping car was partially burned.

MEN RUSHING TO NEW OIL FIELD

600,000 Acres in Pouce Coupe Are Prospected

Two Drilling Rigs Already on the Ground

Pouce Coupe, B. C., March 14.—The stampede to the Pouce Coupe oil field is continuing unabated. During the last three days over 100 men with full outfits of staking paraphernalia and pack-horses made their way into the country and to-day stakers are arriving over both the Spirit River and Grande Prairie trails.

The rush is principally in a south-easterly direction from the original discoveries in unurveyed territory. Virtually the whole of Townships 76 to 82 in Ranges 11, 12, 13 and 14 have been covered, which amounts to approximately 600,000 acres. The fact of its being so near transportation has diverted a large number from the Fort Norman field. Two drilling rigs are already on the ground.

ROTARIANS WILL MEET NEXT YEAR IN VANCOUVER

Seattle, March 15.—Vancouver, B. C., was selected as the scene of the next Rotary Club convention in 1922.

C. P. D. AWAITING SETLED CONDITIONS

No New Expenditures in Western Canada

Winnipeg, March 15.—"The Canadian Pacific Railway has decided that no new project involving expenditures on capital account will be undertaken in the West until business conditions are more active in the West," a Canadian vice-president in charge of the Western lines of the system, to-day, Mr. Coleman has been in the East conferring with head offices.

"There is no occasion for gloom or despondency about the future of Western Canada, but Canadians at the moment certainly demand that business enterprises shall be conducted with prudence and caution," Mr. Coleman stated.

"If the situation clears up a bit later in the year we have in mind a reasonable programme of improvements and extensions, but for the time being any action in connection with that programme is deferred."

WAGES

Asked as to what the action of the Canadian Pacific Railway would be regarding wages, Mr. Coleman said: "The Canadian railways have not taken any steps up to the present in connection with a general wage adjustment. Of course any general movement in connection with the wages of railroad labor on this continent has tended hitherto to be international in its application."

Announcement of this effect was made by Hon. W. R. Rollo, Minister of Labor, in the Legislature yesterday.

Germany Notified She Must Pay Sum Treaty Stipulates

Payments to Allied Reparations Commission Before May 1 Next Must Total 20,000,000,000 Gold Marks Commodities to Be Accepted.

Paris, March 15.—Germany was called upon yesterday by the Allied Reparations Commission to carry out Article 235 of the Versailles Treaty, which stipulates Germany must pay before May 1 1921, the equivalent of 20,000,000,000 gold marks. The treaty provides that this payment may be made in gold, commodities, ships, securities or other valuables, and that out of this sum the expenses of the armies of occupation are first to be met.

The Commission also took steps to carry out Article 233 of the Treaty, which provides that Germany must be notified before May 1 next of the total amount of war damages imposed upon her by the treaty.

"If Germany persists in refusing to make payment," says The Petit Parisien in discussing the action of the Commission, "she will force us to impose upon her integral execution of the treaty. That was the significance of yesterday's meeting."

In discussing the protest made to the League of Nations by Germany against the penalties being enforced by the Allies on Germany because of her refusal to carry out her reparations obligations, The Petit Parisien says: "Germany is not qualified to demand arbitration from the League of Nations, as she is not a member of it."

Insurance. Negotiations between France and Germany concerning the transfer of funds collected for the purpose of paying disability and old age insurance to residents of Alsace and Lorraine have failed and France, it is declared, is preparing to ask that Article 77 of the Versailles Treaty be enforced. This article provides that the German Government shall undertake to pay over to the French Government a proportion of all reserves accumulated by the empire or by public or private bodies dependent upon it for the purposes of disability and old age insurance.

NEW MISTRESS AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE

Mrs. Walter C. Nichol Arrives to Become First Lady of Province

Mrs. W. C. Nichol, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, arrived in the city yesterday from England after spending a short time en route with her sister in Montreal, and has taken up her residence at Government House. After a few days here, Mrs. Nichol will leave for Vancouver to make the necessary arrangements for the removal of her personal belongings and furnishings to her new home.

A Charming Personality. Possessed of a particularly gracious personality and a wealth of that elusive quality charm, Mrs. Nichol is the ideal type of woman for the somewhat arduous position of the first lady in the province. Such at least, was the impression gained by a representative of The Times during a brief interview this morning. The representative's arrival coincided with the morning vocal practice which Mrs. Nichol keeps her beautiful soprano voice "from getting rusty," as she laughingly termed it. To a query as to whether she intended continuing her vocal studies, Mrs. Nichol alluded with amusement to the statement frequently through the press that she had been studying music in London, characterizing it as misleading. "While it is true that I do take lessons from time to time just to ensure that my voice does not get rusty, it is foolish to suppose that I, a woman of middle-age, would make the study of music the raison d'être of my stay in London," was her comment.

NIGHTS ARE GAY IN DUSSELDORF

Germans Mix With Allied Troops in Cabarets

Dusseldorf, March 15.—A night-long revelry in which German civilians, German police and French British and Belgian soldiers freely fraternize holds uninterrupted sway in Dusseldorf's gay cabarets, huge dance halls and restaurants.

The curfew regulations imposed by the French commandant have been lifted. Popping of champagne corks, the screeching of jazz music and the strident voices of girls entertainers continue till after the soldiers roll out of their bunks for reveille.

No Interference. The German "blue" police view the merrymaking from the rims of bubbling wine glasses and make no sign of interference if, as happens, on rare occasions, misunderstandings threaten.

The night crowds appear to take the occupation and the occupiers in cheerful-spirited and the proprietors of the amusement places, with most elaborate courtesies, are unable to conceal their delight at the steady piling up of profits.

PREPARE TO PAY U. S. INCOME TAX

American People Send in Their Returns

Washington, March 15.—The American people to-day had their annual day of reckoning. Their laboriously reckoned incomes and business profits for the year of 1920 were presented in the form of income and excess profits tax returns.

Uncle Sam as a result will be richer by approximately $50,000,000, according to a Treasury Department estimate. Receipts a year ago to-day were $800,000,000, but the general depression experienced during the last half of 1920 was counted on to decrease the total incomes and profits reported.

Reds Losing Control Of the Soviet Troops

Stockholm, March 15.—Russian Bolshevik authorities seem to be losing control of the Soviet troops. It is said in dispatches received here from Finland and Estonia. These messages, for the most part confused and unreadable, were pouring into this city yesterday and last night.

Artillery fire from the fortress of Kropstadt was directed yesterday along the southern coast of the Gulf of Finland between Petrograd and Oranienbaum. Bolshevik artillerymen shelled and destroyed the lighthouse at Tollbaskan, off Kronstadt, during the day.

A man who had just arrived from Kronstadt was interviewed on Sunday night. He emphatically denied Bolshevik reports that some of the Kronstadt forts had been recaptured by the Bolsheviks. He said the revolutionary leadership was wholly in the hands of laborers and declared that the fight for the fortress would be a long one, as the garrison of Kronstadt was relying on getting food stores from the Red Cross station at Viborg, Finland.

Refugees reaching Stockholm from Petrograd say that the streets of that city are strongly patrolled by Soviet troops and they declare that the ordinary Bolshevik soldiers are no longer to be trusted.

McADOO AWARD IS CONFIRMED

Railway Commission Chairman Scores Arrangement

Ottawa, March 15.—That the McAdoo award to the railway men was one of the most iniquitous pieces of legislation ever foisted on the United States, was the assertion of Hon. F. B. Carvell, K. C., chairman of the Board of Railway Commissioners, addressing the members of the Ottawa Rotary Club at a luncheon yesterday.

Working Conditions. Mr. Carvell made it clear that the scale of wages in the schedule was a fair one in his judgment, but the whole trouble lay in the working conditions, by which it was possible for workers, or many of them, to draw twice the amount scheduled—in many instances more than that.

Hopes For Scheme. Labor was being advised, he said, to give the very least for what was paid to it, and under these conditions it was impossible to reduce railway rates.

RESOURCES WERE SUBJECT OF DEBATE

Development in Canada Discussed by Commons

Resolution Offered by Manion Was Defeated

Ottawa, March 15.—(Canadian Press)—Capt. R. J. Manion, member for Fort William and Rainy River, moved in the House yesterday afternoon that "it is advisable that the Government should bring forward a policy having for its object the development of the natural resources of Canada."

While not binding himself to any particular course, Capt. Manion suggested as possible means of development: Tariff protection to encourage iron ore production.

Duplication and over-development of Canadian railways was stressed by Captain Manion in his claim that this country possessed one mile of railway to every 200 persons, as against one mile to 400 persons in the United States, and one mile to every 2,000 persons in Great Britain.

Reindeer. Frank S. Cahill, Pontiac, declared that the only development of the Government so far was to extend to a gentleman named Stefansson the privilege of raising reindeer. Very soon the reindeer industry would vanish as it was altogether likely that the Hudson's Bay Company would buy Mr. Stefansson out.

House Urged to Abandon P. G. E. Building and Construct Branch Line

Whiteside Would Give Up Plan to Tap Peace River Country; Other Members are Optimistic and Advocate Aggressive Railway and Development Policies

Pleas for an aggressive policy of development, colonization and railway building on one hand, and on the other the proposal of David Whiteside, Liberal member for New Westminster, that the plan to complete the Pacific Great Eastern line into Fort George be abandoned...

The House passed through its second reading a bill which authorizes the borrowing of $4,000,000 to be spent on P. G. E. work, but not until half a score of members — some of them optimistic, some hopeful and others frankly pessimistic had expressed contrasting views on the subject.

"A Costly and Ridiculous Blunder" "We misjudged the situation entirely when we undertook to divert traffic from the north to the Pacific by way of Vancouver," Mr. Whiteside commenced. "That was where the great mistake lay. Prince Rupert is the logical Pacific outlet for the Peace River country and by attempting to make Vancouver the outlet and spending a lot of money that would never be seen again. This project, he asserted, would place upon the taxpayers of the Province an unjustifiable burden.

Would Not Help Development "We are forgetting," he said, "that in extending the line into Fort George we are in no way assisting the development of the Province. Pointing to the immense size of British Columbia and its tremendous resources, he declared that ultimately the Province would be a great manufacturing centre. "More and more each year we are getting on a par with the East in manufacturing," he pointed out, "and ultimately, I believe, the favorability will rest with the Pacific Province. It may surprise some members to know that we have to-day a woollen manufacturing industry in British Columbia as selling in Toronto and Montreal. We can...

much interested in the development of the C. N. R. as we are in the P. G. E. though not in as acute a manner. The Clinton-Ashcroft line would be very well financed out of the loan we are now putting through. We have heard before that a loan of four millions would finish the road to Fort George. Now to-day we find that all that money has been expended and $750,000 of the present loan already has gone by the boards on construction work.

Wants New Investigation "The time has about arrived for us to have another railway investigation different entirely from the last one and aimed entirely at a proper solution of this whole railway difficulty," Mr. Whiteside affirmed. "We are heading for very serious financial embarrassment in pursuing the policy we are following now. We are trying to maintain a long railway line beyond the means of the Province but if we treated it as a feeder for the C. N. R. it would be reasonable to expect the Dominion Government to co-operate with us in further construction, which is not possible under the present scheme of things. I hope we have reached an end of the bitter political controversy over this enterprise in the vain endeavor to have one party or the other assume all the responsibility for this road."

Mr. Pattullo Optimistic While he agreed that the whole P. G. E. scheme had been ill-considered, the Hon. P. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, urged the Legislature not to forget the pledges which had been given that the road would be finished—pledges upon which thousands of people were basing their plans. Mr. Pattullo was not prepared to say that the country between Squamish and Fort George would produce sufficient traffic to maintain the line, but he thought that too extreme a view had been taken of this matter. He was confident that the road would receive a far larger tonnage than was now generally supposed.

In dealing with the P. G. E., the Minister urged the House to take into consideration the general situation of the Province. Pointing to the immense size of British Columbia and its tremendous resources, he declared that ultimately the Province would be a great manufacturing centre. "More and more each year we are getting on a par with the East in manufacturing," he pointed out, "and ultimately, I believe, the favorability will rest with the Pacific Province. It may surprise some members to know that we have to-day a woollen manufacturing industry in British Columbia as selling in Toronto and Montreal. We can...

Make Best of Bad Job F. A. Pauline, Liberal member for Saanich, thought the Legislature should make the best of a bad job and finish the construction of the P. G. E. to Fort George. If this were done the present burden, he hoped, would be made lighter. Under present conditions the immense costs of the project were blocking other developments in all directions.

Quessell as Routing Point F. W. Anderson, Liberal member for Kamloops, was not opposed to voting the $4,000,000 for the railway, but he urged that the advice of the best experts should be secured before the road was completed to Fort George. "I can't see the absolute rush," he remarked, "to get the resources of the north and east tributary to this line and we should consider the logical routing of the line from Kamloops to the coast. The Premier will go slow in this connection. This line is one of the lowest standard lines on the continent."

Good Investment, Says Mackenzie "Business," Mr. Anderson answered, "don't let us look at this question from a viewpoint of local prejudice," he urged. "Retreging the pessimism displayed by Mr. Whiteside and Mr. Pauline and pleading for 'proper courage and vision,' Capt. Ian Mackenzie, Liberal member for Vancouver, declared: "We have a good investment, here as the future will show," and in this connection he paid a graceful tribute to the work of the late Sir Richard McBride. "The party which support is opposed to and contrary to railways," he proceeded, "but I maintain the C. P. R. would never have been a success if Sir Charles Phipps had not given it land grants and I maintain that when this line is completed to Fort George the administration should consult as to what lands are available for grants to the P. G. E. Then we shall be able to get rid of the milestones which hangs around our necks by encouraging corporations, syndicates and responsible men to complete the line to Ponce Coupe. If it is properly supported by proper financial optimism the future of the road will justify it. We hear that the Hon. Prime Minister is contemplating a large immigration scheme and, as British Columbia must be built up by colonization, I think that the Provincial Government could well find out from the Imperial Government how far it is prepared to go in a colonization scheme in this Province. I believe that the P. G. E. Railway will pay not from revenue along the present line but from the development of resources."

Takes Opposite Stand Kenneth Duncan, Independent member for Cowichan, took just the opposite stand. The immense costs of the P. G. E., he said, were preventing other new and important enterprises and were cutting down road expenditures. It was not the duty of the Provincial Government to provide railways but it should provide roads, he asserted.

B. C. AGRICULTURE HAS A YEAR OF UPS AND DOWNS

Big Potato Business Of the potato crop, 85 cars last year were inspected for export to the Prairies and 185 cars were inspected for the Vancouver market. There were also 167 cars of B. C. potatoes which went into home consumption, making a total of 292 cars for the local market.

During the first half of the year, 320 cars of the 1919 crop were exported to the United States and 1,686 tons to the Prairies and Eastern Canada. This makes the total exportation of 162 cars from B. C. to other Provinces last year.

Pure Bred Favorites Professor W. G. McDonald, Live Stock Commissioner, reports an improvement in the character of the stock kept in the Province both in sheep and beef herds. This is attributed to the increasing desire on the part of breeders to use pure bred sires. Hereford and Shorthorn breeders have each formed a Provincial Association in the Interior where a number of pure bred beef cattle herds are being established.

The dairy cattle industry is in a very healthy condition. An additional 100,000 head of dairy cows have been established on Vancouver Island, and in June last the Jersey Breeders' Association held its annual meeting in Victoria. For the coming year an important Jersey breeding centre. Holstein breeders held their annual sale at New Westminster on December 10 when a fine lot of animals were sold at auction.

Hogs Hard Hit Hog raising has not received the attention from farmers formerly given to it and the tendency to reduce or disperse herds has been largely due to the cost of grain and mill feeds. An outbreak of hog cholera in the Okanagan Valley was reported during the months of October and November, but it has been brought under control and it is hoped that there will be no further losses.

Sheep raising has suffered some reverses owing to the condition of the wool market, but there has been apparently no reduction in the number of sheep kept in the Province.

Tuberculosis Scarce Tuberculin testing of cattle has been carried on during the past year with satisfactory results and several parts of the Province are apparently free from the disease, notably the Okanagan Valley and the Gulf Islands. A few cases were found in the Okanagan Valley where cattle had been imported from outside of the Province.

The veterinary staff visited 2,498 premises and 17,071 head of cattle of which 732 were re-actors. The sanitary conditions of dairies and barns is also reported as showing an improvement.

Urges Better Butter Grading New creameries established at Vanderhoof and Quessell under the supervision of his branch of the service, the Dairy Commissioner reports information has been secured including data as to the amount of land held by Orientals for agricultural purposes.

Operations on the experimental plots at Gordon Head were carried on for extermination of strawberry weevil. After the crop was harvested, eight week-old cockerels were liberated on the plots and did good work in picking up migrating adult weevils.

After Codling Moth Codling moth control for several years has been carried on in the Okanagan Valley, but during 1920 a system of control had to be inaugurated at North Bend where an outbreak was noticed during the season of 1919. At Kelowna where the pest was supposed to have been eradicated several years ago, a fresh outbreak was detected late in the season on an area of about twenty acres within the city limits. Strict quarantine regulations will be enforced during 1921.

Other points receiving attention to avoid carrying infestation from one year to the other include Westbank, Okanagan Landing, Swan Lake, Vernon and Walhachin. To prevent introduction of the codling moth from foreign points, inspection of foreign refrigerator cars was carried on at Okanagan Landing and at Keremeos.

Honey Crop Short The work of the Apiculture Branch has proved very difficult owing to the prevalence of foul brood on the Lower Mainland, the rest of the Province being practically free of the disease. The honey crop was sixty tons short of that reported in 1919 and shows a decrease in value of $3,673, which is largely accounted for in the losses sustained in the infected area. Experimental work will be carried on to find a means to combat this difficulty.

Inspections Enforced Consequently upon a resignation of the former Coast Markets Commissioner, inspection work carried on under that branch of the service was transferred to the supervision of the Inspector of Imported Fruit and Nursery Stock, whose branch inspected the 1920 crop exportations of produce consisting of shipments sent to Prairie points and shipments of 185 cars for the Vancouver market. This branch also took the supervision of inspection at Vancouver under the provisions of the "Eggs Marks Act." The officials found that U. S. eggs were not being handled through the retail establishments but that an outlet was found for them through restaurants, hotels and out-side camps where markings are not necessary for U. S. products as in the case of Chinese eggs. Large shipments are also reported as being made to Prairie markets.

Diseases Cause Loss The inspection of imported fruit and nursery stock is carried on at twenty-six ports of entry giving an effective service against infestation from imports. The most troublesome...

chard surveys have been made in each of the four districts into which the Province has been divided for horticultural purposes and as a result of these investigations much valuable information has been secured including data as to the amount of land held by Orientals for agricultural purposes. NONE TOO ENCOURAGING.

British Columbia's agricultural production for the year 1920 is valued at $68,004,953 against $65,384,556 for the previous year which discloses an increase of $2,620,397 for the period mentioned.

The report tabled in the Legislature by the Minister of Agriculture yesterday is not as encouraging as it might have been. It had been hoped that the peak in value and quantity of imported foodstuffs had been reached and that the volume of production within the Province would have removed the necessity to depend to such a large extent upon outside sources of supply.

If the report does nothing else it should emphasize the urgent necessity of greater production in this Province. The bill which British Columbia is required to pay each year for products which should be grown within its own borders is altogether too large and offers too slender a promise of the industrial development to which it has a right to look forward.

IDENTICAL AMBITIONS.

Lord Charnwood has contributed a valuable and striking addition towards the desire for good-will between the United States and Great Britain in a recent issue of The Contemporary Review.

The writer finds something strange in the question as to whether one likes Americans. He likes the people in the Republic to the South and the people of England in the same way, without thinking about it, and "none the less so because there are American characteristics and English characteristics" which he does not like.

It is unfortunate for both countries that it is the surface developments on both sides of the Atlantic which are most heard of by the two peoples. They seldom, if ever, mean what far-off superficial observation suggests.

NOVEL ARGUMENT.

One of the indefatigable contributors to the correspondence columns of the press has entered an emphatic protest against the Government's desire to control the distribution of liquor in this Province and warns the Legislature that British Columbia wants no Czarism or Kaiserism.

In the last analysis it must be remembered that whatever the inevitable jars between the two countries may produce the better people in America are the controlling force.

THE STRIKE AVERTED.

In agreeing to use the arbitration machinery provided by the School Act the teachers and School Board of Saanich are to be congratulated. It is right and proper that the points upon which the two parties to the controversy are at variance should be investigated and placed in proper perspective.

BRAINS VS. BOLSHEVISM.

In his address to the assembled Rotarians in Seattle International Vice-Governor Timmins declared that the Soviet form of government never would be driven out by an Act of Parliament.

Mr. Timmins is quite right. Lenin and Trotzky have been able to exploit the peasant Slav because the poor fellow was an easy prey to his leader who had benefited by touch with a world unknown to eighty-five per cent. of his compatriots.

Once lighted, the flame will continue to burn until the combustible portion of the substance is consumed unless there is a break in the process of making the gases which mingle with the oxygen.

Czarism and Bolshevism are companion types of tyranny; but each system depends upon the same support—ignorance. The latter cannot hope to live as long as its predecessor; the people began to realize the extent of their power when the old order vanished in 1917.

MILK.

One of the most striking disclosures in the annual report of the Department of Agriculture is the fact that during the year 1920 the consumption of milk was half a million gallons less than in the year previous.

NOVEL ARGUMENT.

One of the indefatigable contributors to the correspondence columns of the press has entered an emphatic protest against the Government's desire to control the distribution of liquor in this Province and warns the Legislature that British Columbia wants no Czarism or Kaiserism.

import is taken away the Government would yield to the temptation to charge monopolistic prices for an inferior article. The argument is too absurd for serious treatment because the average schoolboy would understand that unless the whole of its liquor supplies it may as well give up the idea of controlling at all.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Any system that imposes a seventy-hour delay in the transmission of mail from Sidney to Victoria should be promptly killed and buried with fitting ceremony.

If there are any people who imagine for one moment that the Government of this Province intends, or would even dare, to sell inferior liquor at outrageous prices they may as well get it out of their minds altogether.

General Bramwell Booth told a Seattle audience that the Salvation Army may not always do things in the right way; but wherever he went he found that men and women respected its work.

Portland's Mayor views with alarm the advent of Government Control in this Province and contemplates the melancholy contrast of Vancouver's revenue from the sale of alcoholic liquors with the expenditure that will be necessary on the other side to prevent illicit importations from British Columbia.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

WHERE FLAME COMES FROM
The burning of any substance is due to the heat which turns the substance itself into a considerable part of it into gases which mingle with the oxygen in the air and produce fire.

As the House plans to adjourn early this afternoon so that its members can go to "the movies," the liquor bill will likely come up till to-night. It is planned to deal with the Liquor Act and other minor measures during the short afternoon session.

Will Aid Music. But music is one of Mrs. Nichol's dearest pleasures and it is her intention during her regime at Government House to give every possible encouragement to the growth of music in Victoria.

Her assumption of the duties of chaitaine at the gubernatorial residence marks a new era in the life of Mrs. Nichol, for she has never before occupied a public position, the Lieutenant-Governor having kept hitherto aloof from political or public affairs, while his wife has contented herself with a quiet social life, free from ostentation and display, devoting herself to her home and to her family.

While raising the demands which her new position will make upon her, Mrs. Nichol intends to sacrifice none of her responsibilities as a mother and a daughter, Mrs. Nichol's eyes lighted up, and revealed the unmistakable mother-love which transcends every other emotion.

I.O.D.E. CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY OF CITY

Lady Douglas Chapter Held Anniversary Tea Yesterday at Empress Hotel

Victoria's seventy-eighth birthday was fittingly commemorated yesterday by the Lady Douglas Chapter, I. O. D. E., which, in accordance with its custom of the past eight years, held an anniversary tea in the Empress Hotel. The affair was held in the private dining suite, nearly one hundred members of the Chapter and interested citizens, including representatives of pioneer families, enjoying the attractive programme prepared by the regent, Mrs. R. B. McMicking.

Special Poems.

In her opening remarks, Mrs. McMicking alluded to the founding of the city on March 14, 1843, and drew the attention of her hearers to the Chapter's motto, "Keep one hand on the traditions of the past and green the memory of her illustrious dead," words uttered by Earl Grey on the eve of his departure for England after relinquishing the Governorship of Canada.

She then introduced Mr. George G. Bushby, grandson of the late Sir James Douglas, who read Ernest McGaffey's dedicatory poem, also the following poem specially composed for the occasion by T. H. Wilson:—

Unmuffled, 'tho' within the city's heart,
 Stands Beacon Hill, and its encircling lands;
 Entrancing beauty making every part
 A symphony divine from Nature's hands.

The sea, a carpet, lying at its base,
 Majestic, snow-capped mountains
 wall the sea,
 With but one open casement, through its space
 A vision dawning of eternity.

Where e're you turn fresh beauty
 meets the view,
 As if the eyes were blessed with
 magic power
 To conjure forth, in conformation new,
 The perfect sequence of each tree and flower.

The maples in their early, tender green,
 The swaying pines, the oaks so gnarled and old;
 Beyond, the green sward, glossed with sunlight's gleam,
 The yellow broom, which laquers
 all with gold.

Its lakes, pure gems of beauty, mirroring
 Low-hanging willow boughs, the sky,
 The flowers of varied hues, full-blossoming,
 The water-lilies whispering in the breeze.

Victorians, remember that you owe To Sir James Douglas, tenure of this Park!
 What fairer heritage could man bestow?
 Could bronze or stone his memory better mark?

The kindly thought which led him to confer
 this gift on generations yet to be,
 Bespeaks his noble, knightly character,— Engraves his name upon the memory.

Regret at their inability to attend was expressed in communications from His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Judge Howay, of New Westminster, read by the regent.

Tribute to Pioneers.

Mr. Lindley Crease, K. C., member of one of Victoria's pioneer families, gave an interesting address dealing with the early history of Victoria and the life of Sir James Douglas, paying earnest tribute to the courage and foresight of Sir James and his contemporaries. Mr. Bushby in a brief address referred with pride to the part played by his illustrious grandfather in evolving the Cariboo Road and the other great highways of the Province, and pleaded for the exercise of similar precedence in the men holding public office to-day.

Musical Program.

During the afternoon a musical programme arranged by Mrs. R. L.
 Phillips added much pleasure to the affair. Vocal solos were beautifully rendered by Miss Dorothy Dorrell, Miss Ashdown and Capt. R. Morris-son, Mrs. A. A. Meharey officiating as accompanist. At the close of the formal proceedings tea was served in the palm court.

MORAL QUESTIONS CONSIDERED BY WOMEN'S COUNCIL

Seek Amendments to Criminal Code; Oppose Franchise to Chinese

A resolution sponsored by the Social Service Council, and calling for an amendment to the Criminal Code dealing with such cases and pointed out the inadequacy of the present punishment, the highest penalty possible under the existing law being six months imprisonment, with or without hard labor. The resolution also commended the question of corporal punishment for offenders in such cases, which met with the approval of the members of the Council. The resolution was unanimously adopted and is to be forwarded through the proper channels to Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Gaining Houses.

Mrs. C. C. Spofford also brought in a resolution calling for an amendment to the Criminal Code in the matter of the operation of gaming houses, which recommendation was unanimously passed by the meeting. Miss Crease, the president, referred to the recent changes in the personnel of the Board of Police Commissioners and suggested that the time was opportune for bringing to the attention of the Commissioners the need for an extension of and improvement of the city's policing arrangements, especially in the matter of the after-care of juvenile delinquents. A lengthy report of the work carried on by the Women's Protective Division of the Seattle police force was read at the meeting and it was decided to send copies to the Police Commissioners of Victoria for their consideration.

Oppose Chinese Franchise.

On the recommendation of Mrs. Grace Johnson, of the Women's Independent Political Association, the Council went on record as favoring the appointment of a woman to the Liquor Control Board.

The Council also passed a resolution unanimously opposing the petition recently presented to the Legislature and calling for an extension of the franchise to Chinese born in British Columbia of naturalized parents.

Some time was taken up with the consideration of the remainder of the proposed Women's Platform, which was discussed in part at the annual meeting recently. Miss Cann also spoke briefly in connection with the proposed scheme to foster the establishment of a school for and bursaries in connection with the Victoria College.

Standing Committees.

Conveners to standing committees were appointed as follows: Laws, Mrs. Spofford; Citizenship, Mrs. Johnston; Conservation of Natural Resources, Mrs. R. B. McMicking; National Recreation, Mrs. H. W. Graves; Mental Hygiene, Miss Winde; Education, Miss Cann; Taxation, Mrs. Andrews; Press, Dr. Helen Ryan; Peace and Arbitration, Mrs. Mays; Professions and Employment, Miss Marriot; Public Health, Mrs. Laing.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Facts About Your Name; Its History; Its Meaning; Whence It Was Derived; and How to Choose a Lucky Day and Lucky Jewel.

By Mildred Marshall.
 (Copyright, 1921, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

DELIA.

Delia is a name of curious and conflicting history. There are several origins from which she might have sprung. In England, she appears most frequently in those ancient pastorals, bore the dignity of Cornelia. The truly Irish flavor of Delia and the popularity of Delia in that country, might give rise to the contention that the latter name is the diminutive of the old name Delia. But Delia, according to the best etymological authorities, is a separate and independent name which has its source in no less an exalted realm than the mythology of ancient Greece.

It was Artemis, or Diana, the moon goddess who, being born at Delos, caused the place of her nativity to be immortalized in Greek mythology history.

In honor of the goddess the feminine name Delia was evolved from Delos, and sprang to instant fame in Arcadian poetry. Lovely shepherdesses who figure in those ancient pastorals, bore the name, and it reached England by the literary route. The sound of it was good to Irish ears and it was straightway adopted by that country.

Since Artemis was the moon goddess, it is fitting that Delia's talismanic gem should be the moonstone. It will bring its wearer good fortune, and will prove an exceptionally lucky jewel if it is a gift from a sweetheart. It is said that lovers can read the future by looking into its depths when the moon is full. Monday is Delia's lucky day and 4 her lucky number.

Esquimalt Women's Institute. — To-morrow afternoon at 2.30 at the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt, the inaugural meeting of the Esquimalt Women's Institute will be held, when it is hoped women residents of the municipality, and especially the wives of soldiers, will attend. Mrs. Alfred Watt, M.B.E., will preside, and Mrs. Tyrell Godman will give an address. A musical programme and an exhibition of home-made garments will be among the attractive features, and at the close refreshments will be served.

BABBLING BROOK'S SYMPATHY.

One day a babbling brook that ran along the side of the woods where there were many trees and shrubs began to chatter to them. "Oh, how dull it must be for you all!" it said; "you have to wear those old green clothes all Summer long, and it must be terrible in the Winter when you lose even those."

"Oh, dear, how sorry I feel for you! I don't know what I should do if I could not dance and sparkle and look pretty!"

The trees and shrubs waved their pretty green leaves and said: "We think our color very pretty, and then, you know, Babbling Brook, that in the Fall we wear gorgeous colors; you have forgotten that, I am sure."

"Oh, no, I haven't," said the little brook; "I have seen you then, but I really think you are too gaudily dressed. For my part, I like glistening things like the sunlight on the rocks, where I run over them."

"Then the moonlight makes me look like silver, and sometimes I make myself to notice us when we wear our gorgeous jewels and our wonderful furs."

"Furs?" said Babbling Brook; "now what do you mean—the mosses?"

Surely, you do not call moss fur, and as for your wonderful jewels, I cannot think what you can mean."

"Wait until the Winter comes," said the tree, "and some morning when the sun gets up, or when the moon is shining, and we are dressed for the evening, look at us and if you do not say we surpass in beauty of dress anything you ever saw, then it will be that you are too jealous of us to tell the truth."

"Oh, dear, oh, dear," laughed Babbling Brook; "how funny you are! The very idea of such a thing makes me laugh," and off danced the brook, laughing as it went.

Then one cold Winter night, when the ice had formed in little patches around the edge of the brook, it heard some one calling, and when it looked up there were all the trees and shrubs dressed in their furs and jewels.

"Could a king be more royal in his ermine than we in ours?" asked the tree. "Or a queen wear jewels more gorgeous than ours?"

Babbling Brook for once did not chatter; it could only look and admire the snow had clothed the pine and fir trees in cloaks of ermine, while drops of frost like pearls crested the edges of the twigs and bare branches of the other trees.

Points of glistening diamonds hung from some of the branches, and as it looked Babbling Brook had to confess it was never as beautiful as the trees and shrubs.

"Wait until the sun shines on us in the early morning," said the big tree, "but the brook was again running along its way and never again did the trees or shrubs hear it babble its sympathy because of their plain garments."

Tender Gums — A Warning

Beware of gum tenderness that warns of Pyorrhoea. Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhoea—many under forty, also. Loosening teeth indicate Pyorrhoea. Bleeding gums, too. Remember—these inflamed, bleeding gums act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infesting the joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.

Forhan's positively prevents Pyorrhoea, if used in time and used consistently. As it hardens the gums the teeth become firmer.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's. It cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean.

If gum shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 35c and 60c tubes in Canada and U. S. If your druggist cannot supply you, send price to us direct and we will mail tube postpaid.

"Could a king be more royal in his ermine than we in ours?" asked the tree. "Or a queen wear jewels more gorgeous than ours?"

Babbling Brook for once did not chatter; it could only look and admire the snow had clothed the pine and fir trees in cloaks of ermine, while drops of frost like pearls crested the edges of the twigs and bare branches of the other trees.

Points of glistening diamonds hung from some of the branches, and as it looked Babbling Brook had to confess it was never as beautiful as the trees and shrubs.

"Wait until the sun shines on us in the early morning," said the big tree, "but the brook was again running along its way and never again did the trees or shrubs hear it babble its sympathy because of their plain garments."

OLD TOLMIE SCHOOL TO BE REPAIRED

"I move that the old Tolmie School be closed as soon as accommodation can be furnished for the children."

"TIZ" FOR TIRED AND SORE FEET

Use "Tiz" for Puffed-Up, Burning, Aching, Calloused Feet and Corns.

Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?
"Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is glorified for tired, aching, sore feet. No more shoe tightness—no more foot tortures.

said Trustee Mrs. Humphries, after the building had been warmly commended by Chairman Holloway, when the Saanich School Board was last night discussing how best to expend the $18,000 grant from the Council.

Too Much Education.

"There is entirely too high a value placed upon education these days," said Chairman Holloway, "the children in the city don't want to get out and work," he said, stating it was impossible to get a hired boy to work on the farms—as they would not get up and do the necessary before-breakfast work, and refused to consider the long hours of field work. Much of this attitude he blamed on education.

Trustee Thorne maintained that the educational system in Saanich was not to be compared for excellence with the system in Manitoba.

Repair Old School.

The discussion then returned to the overcrowding in the inner wards, Trustee Mrs. Humphries maintaining that two rooms are needed at Tillicum, without allowing for transference of pupils from the old Tolmie School.

Trustee Oldfield then moved that an estimate be secured as to the cost of putting the old Tolmie School into usable shape, including concrete footings, re-flooding, and a number of other details. These changes the Board considered should cost $600, and provide for another year or two service.

THE RIDDLE OF THE FROZEN FLAME

By MARY E. AND THOMAS W. HANSHAW

Hastily he began to dress, and even as he struggled into a pair of tweed trousers came the sound of a soft knock upon his door, and he whipped round as though he had been shot, his nerves all a-jingle from the very atmosphere of the place.

"And who the devil are you?" he snapped out in an angry voice, all the more angry since he was conscious of a slight trembling of the knees. The door swung open a trifle and the pale face of Borkins appeared around it. His eyes were wide with fright his mouth hung open.

"Sir Nigel, sir, I heard a dreadful noise—like a pistol shot. It was coming from this room! Anything the matter, sir?"

"Nothing you ass!" broke out Merriton, fretfully, as the butler began to show other parts of his anatomy round the corner of the door. "Come in, or go out, whichever ever you please. But for the Lord's sake, do one or the other! There's a beastly draught. The noise you heard was that window which possibly hasn't been opened for a century or two, groaning in pain at being forced into action again! Can't sleep in this beastly room—haven't closed my eyes yet—and when I did get out of that Victorian atrocity over there and take to the sofa by the window, why, the first thing I saw were those flames flickering out across the horizon like signal-flares, or something! I've been watching them for the past twenty minutes and they've got on my nerves. I'm goin' out to investigate."

Borkins gave a little exclamation of alarm and put one trembling hand over his face. Merriton suddenly registered the fact as being a symptom of the state of nerves which Merriton Towers was likely to regulate one. Then Borkins shambled across the room and laid a timid hand upon Merriton's arm.

"For Gawd's sake sir—don't!" he murmured in a shaken voice. "Those lights, sir—if you knew the story! If you values your life at any price at all don't go out, sir, and investigate one. Don't! You're a dead man in the morning if you do."

"What's that?" Merriton swung round and looked into the weak, rather watery, blue eyes of his butler. "What the devil do you mean, Borkins, talkin' a lot of rot? What are those flames—" the days his own to cultivate her acquaintance in.

"You've fairly made my flesh creep with your beastly story!" he said, in a rather high-pitched voice. "Might have reserved it until morning—after my debut in this haunt of spirits, Borkins. Consider my nerves. I've made a hash of 'em. Get back to bed, man, and don't worry over my investigations. I swear I won't venture out to-night at any rate. Perhaps to-morrow I may have summoned up enough courage, but I've no fancy for funerals yet awhile. So you can keep your pleasant little reminiscences for another time, and I'll give you my word of honor that I'll do nothing rash!"

Borkins gave a sigh of relief. He passed his hand over his forehead, and his eyes—rather shifty, rather narrow, pale blue eyes which Merriton had instinctively disliked (he couldn't tell why)—lightened suddenly.

"Thank Gawd for that, sir!" he said, solemnly. "You've relieved my mind on that score. I've always thought—your poor uncle, Sir Joseph Merriton—and those flames there might 'ave been the reason for his disappearance, though of course—"

"What's that?" Merriton turned round and looked at him, his brow furrowed, the whole personality of the man suddenly awake. "My uncle, Borkins? How long have those—lights—been seen, Borkins—about? I don't remember them as a child."

"Oh, mostly always, I believe, sir; though they ain't been much noticed before the last four years," replied Borkins. "I think—yes—come August next. Four years—was the first time my attention was called to 'em. Merriton's laugh held a note of relief.

"Then you needn't have worried. My uncle has been missing for a little more than five years, and that, therefore, when he did disappear the flames obviously had nothing to do with it."

Borkins's wrinkled, parchment-like cheeks went a dull, unhealthy red. He opened his mouth to speak and then drew back again. Merriton gave him a keen glance.

"Of course, how foolish of me. As you say, sir, impossible!" he stammered out, moving backward toward the door. "I'll be getting back to my bed again, and leave you to finish your rest undisturbed. I'm sorry to 'ave troubled you. I'm sure, sir, only I was afraid something 'ad 'appened."

"That's all right. Good-night," returned Merriton curtly, and turned the key in the lock as the door closed. He stood for a moment thinking, his eyes upon the winking, flickering points of light that seemed dimmer in the fast growing light.

"Now why did he make that bloomer about dates, I wonder? Uncle's been gone five years—and Borkins knew it. He was here at the time, and yet why did he suggest that old wive's tale? I wonder, I wonder why the deuce he lied to me?"

CHAPTER III
Sunshine and Shadow.

When Merriton shaved himself next morning he laughed at the reflection that the mirror cast back at him. For he looked for all the world as though he had been up all night and his knees were painful and stiff as though he had strained some ligament in it.

"Beastly place in beginning to make its mark on me already!" he said, as he lathered his chin. "My eyes look as though they had been stuck in with burnt cork, and the devil take my shaky hand! And that railroad business yesterday helps it along. A nice state of affairs for a chap of my age!"

"I must say," he said, "scared as a kid at an old wive's story. Borkins is a fool, and I'm an idiot. . . . Damn! there's a bit off my chin for a start. I hope Nigel's goodness no takes it into their heads to pay me a visit to-day."

His hopes, however, in this direction were not to be realized. For the afternoon wore itself slowly away in a ramble round the old place, and through the stables—which in their day had been famous—the big, harsh-throated door-bell rang, and Merriton, in the very act of telling Borkins that he was officially "not in," happened to catch a glimpse of something light and fluffy through the stained-glass of the door, and suddenly kept his counsel.

"A second later Borkins ushered in two visitors. Merriton, prepared by the convenient glass for the appearance of one, was nevertheless not displeased to see the other. For the names that Borkins rolled off his tongue with much relish were those of Miss Brellier and Mr. Brellier, sir."

His lady of the thrice blessed wreck! His lady of the dainty accent and glorious eyes!

His face glowed suddenly and he crossed the big room in a couple of strides and in the next second was holding Antoinette's hand rather longer than was necessary, and was looking down into the roguish, greeny-gray eyes that had captivated his own eyes.

"Terrible, glorious moment he had held her in his arms, while the railroad coach dissolved around them. (To be continued.)"

Mrs. Much: "What dreadful language your parrot uses!" Mrs. Nothing: "Yes, my husband brought me one bird one day and brought it home in his car, and I have always suspected that he had engine trouble during the journey."

Nansime Parlor Show.

Nanaimo—The Nanaimo Kennel Club's parlor show in the Athletic Club Building on Saturday evening was without doubt the best seen here in years. One hundred and eighteen dogs were benched, and there was keen competition in all classes.

"Snowden Miss Flip," a wire-haired fox terrier owned by Mrs. E. E. Gravell, of Vancouver, made a clean sweep. The dog, besides capturing first in the class for wire-haired fox terrier bitches, carried off the Spratt trophy, the open sweepstake, and the prizes for the best conditioned dog, the best sporting dog, the best dog in the show and the best coated dog. This animal was bred in Nanaimo, by Messrs. Kneen and Pearson. Grecian Beauty, owned by E. Doran, Nanaimo, captured the cup offered by Dr. Ingham. Norman McConnell, of North Vancouver, was judge of the show, and his decisions gave entire satisfaction to all concerned. The children's class was judged by R. W. Watson, of this city. A large number of fanciers came over from the Mainland and had considerable success with their dogs. A banquet in the Foresters' Hall terminated one of the most successful shows of the Nanaimo Kennel Club.

ARBITRATORS TO INQUIRE INTO ALL PHASES OF DISPUTE

If Saanich School Board Refuses to Accept Ruling People to Vote

The school system in Saanich was in full operation this morning as a result of an agreement to investigate all phases of the salary dispute which was last night arranged between the School Board and the teachers, the latter being represented by Secretary Charlesworth of the B. C. Teachers' Federation and Miss Alward, President of the Saanich Teachers' Institute.

Moderate Demands. Asked by Trustee Mrs. Humphries as to what salary changes were contemplated, Mr. Charlesworth said the impression that teachers would receive up to $500 in certain cases was erroneous. He was sure that no cases would call for more than $150, the total addition to the salary roll being between $5,000 and $7,000.

Two Issues. Chairman Holloway summed up the problem as involving two decisions—first, when the salary year should properly start, and secondly, whether raises are warranted, and if so, to what extent.

effect when we get back to 1914 conditions, if ever we do," he said. Mr. Charlesworth said the teachers were only asking for an agreement for the present year, with a view to waiting to see how living costs went during the year, looking to the formulation by the Department of Education of a schedule, a proposal which had earlier been endorsed by the chairman.

Chairman Holloway said he saw no reason why the proposals made by Mr. Charlesworth should not be adopted. He was personally in favor of the suggested course, as a fair way out of the difficulty.

Report Says Resthaven Has Again Changed Hands

Sidney, March 15.—It is reported that "Resthaven" has been sold and Dame Rumor is spreading many ideas as to what use it is to be put to. One suggestion that it is to be used as a school, another one that an up-to-date Summer hotel is to be opened and a third that it is to be used as a country club.

Said To Be $38,000. The sum that was paid for Resthaven is set down as $38,000, and reports assign as the buyers the Seventh Day Adventists and others that some big American capitalist has bought it for purposes yet to be divulged.

Its History. Resthaven, which was completed in 1913, has quite a unique history. Originally opened by a company as a Resthaven for patients desiring a complete rest for their worn out physical and mental systems after strenuous overtime work.

PROTEST AGAINST CHOICE ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN MADE

Sergt.-Major T. A. Cresswell has become the subject of discussion in returned veterans' organizations. The Veterans of France last night passed the following resolution: "That the secretary get in touch with the Dominion Minister of Immigration, and strongly protest against the appointment of Mr. Cresswell as a married man with no children, over Comrade Mars, a temporary employee of the Department who was strongly recommended for a permanent appointment by officials in charge. He is furthermore a married veteran with seven children, and had proved efficient whilst employed during the last four months."

On inquiry to-day The Times was informed that Mr. Cresswell was one of eight men whose applications for permanent appointment in the immigration service were under consideration. It is understood that no recommendation in the matter has been made to the Civil Service Commission regarding his appointment.

The playlet, "Every Girl," which was so favorably commented upon at the Christmas concert, is being repeated by request.

Special business of unwelcome importance is to be discussed, and the members are asking for a full turnout of members in attendance. The executive meets one hour previously, at 7 o'clock.

To Discuss Water By-Law.—A joint meeting has been called by the Waterways' Association of Wards Two and Seven, Saanich, for Wednesday night, in the Tolmie School, to discuss the water by-law. School matters will also be taken up. This will be a public gathering and is scheduled to commence at 8 o'clock.

Hall, junior, will leave for Vancouver to-morrow, to meet those parents who threaten injunction proceedings, and as president of the Students' Welfare League to address meetings at New Westminster on Thursday and Vancouver on Friday.

Soldiers' Insurance.—"The Aspects of the Dominion Soldiers' Insurance scheme was the subject of an address by President Macnicoll to the Veterans of France last evening. The following committee was appointed to draw up proposed amendments to the Act and submit them to the committee on S. C. R. at Ottawa: Comrades Macnicoll, Clarke and McKenzie.

Ladies' Auxiliary, G. A. U. V.—The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Grand Army of United Veterans held their usual meeting last evening, when final arrangements were made for the whist drive to be held on March 24. Hall, Douglas Street, where a hot supper for business girls will be served at 6:15 p.m., the Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church kindly assisting. All girls working in the city are welcome at these weekly meetings, and an special invitation is extended to new comers and strangers. Girls leaving business early can avail themselves of the comfortable rest room provided by the club.

The School Estimates.—Contrary to expectation, the City Council did not deal further with the School Board estimates at last night's meeting, except to refer the whole matter to the Estimates Committee for a report. The Council has already refused the extraordinary estimates amounting to over $18,000, and also the ordinary estimates, claiming that an item of $1,700 in connection with the High School should be included in the extraordinary list. It is expected that the Estimates Committee will go fully into all the items of the ordinary estimates to see that they are in the proper classification. In the meantime it remains to be seen what action the School Board will take in the matter.

Arts and Crafts.—The general monthly meeting of the Island Arts and Crafts Club will be held in the club rooms, 202-3 Union Bank Building, on Thursday evening, at 8:15 o'clock, when Miss L. M. Mills will give a lecture on "Art and the Old Masters," with lantern-slide illustrations.

By-law Forecasts.—In thanking Inspector W. H. M. May for his exhaustive report on Saanich school and extensively quoted in The Times, the Saanich Trustees last night forecast the probability that the Council would be asked to submit to the ratepayers a by-law for a large sum, with which the consolidations recommended may be commended.

Special Service.—St. Columbia Presbyterian Church, Oak Bay will hold a special service next Sunday evening when Rev. Thomas MacConnell will speak on the subject of his personal experiences in the Great War. He was attached to the Imperial forces and the address will be very interesting. All world-war veterans are invited to attend in a body, and special music will be provided. Mrs. Webb and J. G. Brown being among those who will sing.

Ward Three Liberals.—Ward Three Liberals held a large and enthusiastic meeting last night under the presidency of F. R. Carlow. Every resolution brought up was spiritedly endorsed, and the meeting closed with the other wards of the city. Plans for the completion of the voters lists were forwarded and before the Court of Revision is held, it is hoped that Ward Three will hold its foremost place as the strongest numerically of all the wards. Ward Three is showing the way in initiative, and at tonight's meeting of Ward One their resolutions will be submitted. Tomorrow night, Wards Four and Five will have an opportunity of reading the resolutions and plans of Ward Three before they are submitted to the central executive on Thursday night.

GENERAL BOOTH TO ARRIVE TO-MORROW

Head of Salvation Army Will Have Splendid Reception

General Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army, will arrive in the city to-morrow afternoon from Seattle, and will speak to the Canadian Club on Thursday at noon, and in the evening to a meeting at the Metropolitan Church. For the Canadian Club luncheon tickets may be secured at the usual places, and ladies of the Women's Canadian Club will be welcomed at 2:30 o'clock. Speaking in Seattle Sunday, General Booth spoke in an interesting vein.

Its Early Difficulties

He traced the movement from its beginning when his father Rev. William Booth, an English Methodist minister with a comfortable salary felt that his real work in life was not with those "within my church, but those outside." He told of the first work of evangelism in London's slums when the Booth family often lacked enough money to pay the quarter's rent.

"My father found that his converts had a cheerful religion," General Booth said, "and that returned from the churches to which he directed them complaining that these churches were cold. 'Can't we stay with you?' they implored him. Then he founded the Salvation Army. His unique theory was that every convert should become a worker among those sinners who were like his unregenerated self."

Success of Organization

"That is the secret of the Salvation Army and its point of distinction from all other religious organizations. It sends back to the class from which a convert is won, the convert to make new converts. Wherever that is possible it is done. The Japanese is converted by Japanese converts and the workers in the tribes of Africa are the tribesmen."

Speaks of Father

Of his father Gen. Booth said: "His was a sanguine soul. He was always hopeful and possessed a great faith in the Lord. My mother was a more intellectual person. She was better read and better learned and practical. Neither of them could have accomplished great things. Together they accomplished what they did. In thirty years I never knew my father to say a harsh word to my mother, though on rare occasions he spoke with great freedom and irritation. My father was a magnificent old beggar. I wish I was as good. He always said to me, 'You can get the money for good works if you go to the right people.'"

As a religion the Salvation Army believes in the exemplification of the life of Jesus, but more than that, said Gen. Booth, it believes in carrying those ideals down to those who are in sickness, poverty and distress.

Gen. Booth made an appeal to Seattle for missionaries to China. "I want 500 officers for China," he said. "I think it is a shame on the Christian Church that it has been so long carrying the gospel to the savage and barbarous tribes in China and Africa. I wish I might take some of these officers I need from Seattle."

The general's discourse was interspersed with kindly humor which met with response in laughter from his audience. At one juncture when a speaker lauded the Salvation Army uniform the general rose and said, "I shall give him the red jersey now."

General Booth, now in his sixty-fourth year, began public speaking indoors and outdoors at the age of twelve.

"Whitechapel Days"

At seventeen he found himself assisting his father in the modest little office adjoining the People's Market in Whitechapel Road, when then comprised the Headquarters of the movement. These were the notorious "Whitechapel days" of which the older generation of Salvationists still rejoice to speak in reminiscent conversation. They were the days of brickbats and mud-slinging.

In 1839 Mr. Bramwell Booth took up, at his father's direction, the second highest position in the organization, and for thirty-two years he was affectionately known and honored by Salvationists everywhere as "The Chief."

The ill-health which harassed the general in his earliest years was overcome by strong will power.

On one occasion, while in Sweden seeking health he was induced to found the Salvation Army in that country.

The General's Marriage.

In October, 1832, an event took place in the life of Mr. Bramwell Booth, the public importance of which has increased with the passage of years. This was the marriage of the Chief of Staff to Captain Florence Soper, who had been working in the great city of Paris. It was the first marriage in the late General's family, the first wedding ever conducted in the Clapton Congress Hall, and the first time the simple and becoming marriage ritual of the Salvation Army was introduced.

The general played a brave and sacrificial part in an event which has gone to make national history. This was his association with the late W. T. Stead in a successful effort on behalf of friendless and helpless young girls, whose ruin was then frequent and deliberate. Though this brought him considerable opposition, the judge before whom he appeared in court characterized his conduct in the case as that of a Christian gentleman. In connection with this memorable fight, the Chief of Staff and his wife, with a thousand Salvationist soldiers marched through London to the House of Commons and presented a mammoth petition in favor of the big dealing with a monstrous evil, and which ultimately passed.

It is not too widely known that the Slum Work of the Army was largely the creation of the General. While yet a young man he was burdened with the increasing onerous duties of his exalted office, but he contrived nevertheless to pay a frequent visit to the slum quarters of London, out of which grew the Slum Work, now so famous.

Chief of Staff.

Of later years the general has given increasing attention to administrative work.

For the last ten years of his father's life, Mr. Bramwell Booth was his chief executive officer, and years before that, when crisis threatened the organization, the Chief of

EXISTENCE OF MIDDLE CLASS FOREDOOMED

Dr. W. Bateson, in the Galton anniversary lectures of the Eugenics Education Society delivered in London, said that the Dean of St. Paul's had shown how recent legislation worked for the extinction of the intellectual middle class. In the Victorian epoch intellectual distinction was held as a thing of great worth even by people who had very little capacity for understanding it. This unnatural phenomenon was gone. While it lasted it bulled the intellectual classes into a false sense of security, recalling them to granting concessions which they could no longer recall. We might be perfectly certain that the ordinary laws of heredity held for man, and that in obedience to these laws the intellectual class might disappear, merged in the unsegregated population for most of whom the most rudimentary effort of the mind was an impossibility. Equality of political power had been bestowed on the lower elements of our population. This was nearing the final stage of democratic decay in which the lower not only had the power but exercised it. The force of the intellectual and professional classes was prodigious, and there was a chance that they would exert it in a co-ordinating manner. If they did, the rest of the race could offer no effective resistance to them. But history did not encourage us to think that they would do it. The truth had been revealed too late.

Police Court.—In a short police court session to-day V. R. Carver was fined $5 for improperly parking a car in the restricted area. Ernest Goode charged with vagrancy remanded on his own recognizance, failing to appear to answer his name, having apparently taken the hint to clear out. In the Saanich police court a Chinaman, Loue Joe, was charged with stealing a pullet, he having been incarcerated for safe keeping overnight in the city lockup. The hearing was adjourned until Thursday.

Objects to Action.—Objecting to being laid off work on Pandora Park, B. C. Bicknell lays all his troubles at the door of Park Superintendent Purdy, and in a letter to the Council last night declared that he had been given a "dirty deal." The letter was sent without comment. "I am impelled by my own interests to call your attention to the fact that Mr. Purdy has been frittering away his time at Pandora Park," the letter stated. Mr. Bicknell claims that he should not have been laid off, and says that the foreman told him the superintendent decided that not many men could be kept on a job of that kind.

Three Local Boys May Work With Ball Team

Hayley Jackson, Art Minnis and Johnny Cummings Will Be Given Chance to Join Spring Training Camp of Capitals; Manager Blankenship Anxious to Get Local Material and Develop It.

Three local ball players, Hayley Jackson, Art Minnis and Johnny Cummings, are to be given a chance to work with the Victoria baseball team this spring. Cliff Blankenship, manager of the club, stated yesterday that he would take these three stars for the training season and if they made good he would carry them on his regular string throughout the season.

It is not known as yet whether the boys will accept the proposition which has been offered them. The trio are keen ball-players but whether or not their ambitions lead them farther than the amateur circle is not known. The players have several weeks in which to make up their minds to take a whirl at professional baseball.

Are Best Amateurs. Jackson, Minnis and Cummings are the three best amateurs who have been produced here in a long time. Last season Jackson played first base for the Colliers-War Fets team; Minnis played short stop and caught a couple of games for the Elks, while Cummings, although he played a few games in the local league was working in Prince Rupert most of the summer and performed with a shipyard team there.

Cummings is the only one of the trio who has had the pros. angling for him prior to this. Last spring the Victoria ball club took a liking to Cummings and he was asked to report at the Royal Athletic Park with the rest of the team. Johnny showed up a couple of times but he received about as much encouragement from Manager Leard as a bootlegger does from the police. Cummings was not given a chance.

Manager Blankenship, however, proposes to give the amateurs, provided they accept his offer, every chance to make good. He is strong in developing local players in order to make the team a stronger spring ward when it is appearing at home.

Might Go Well. There are a lot of folks who think that Jackson, Minnis and Cummings with a little schooling from a veteran would go well in pro company, and might graduate into high league that the one which holds the controlling reins in this part of the country.

Jackson is a pretty nifty fielder. He bats in this part of the country. Minnis has gathered a neat reputation unto himself during the last two summers here. He is a general all-round player. His favorite position is at short, but he can also catch a very good game. Minnis is a very consistent hitter and fast on his feet.

Cummings Looks Good. Cummings is another native and performs as well in other sports as he does in baseball. He has been one of the mainstays of the Metropolis senior soccer team, and is regarded as one of the best forwards in the city.

Ralph has been guilty of pulling some funny things at the Arena during the hockey game intervals but it remained for him to stage his funniest turn last night, while the Senators and Towers were taking their breathers.

Following Ralph on to the ice was a small boy, a "caddy." He carried a potato sack, from which protruded a number of hockey sticks. The comedian prepared to tee off. He gave grotesque imitations of the swings necessary to prime one for a drive and then did a flop. On trying again the caddy stole the ball, which was one used for ping-pong, and Ralph made another vicious swing and missed.

Vancouver All Talk Over World's Series

Millionaires Handed Seattle 7-0 Trimming Last Night and Now Believe They Will Be Team to Meet Ottawa In Big Series; Play in Seattle To-morrow Night; Mets Seem to Have Little Chance.

Vancouver, March 15.—Vancouver versus Ottawa in the world's hockey classic. That's what it looks like following the first of the championship play-off series on the coast last night when the Millionaires rattled through the Seattle defence for seven goals in a row, holding the 1920 champions scoreless and handing them the most artistic trimming ever meted out to a team since the inauguration of the play-off system.

To-morrow night the teams play the final game at Seattle and next Monday the curtain goes up on the world's series. Vancouver, with a seven-goal lead, appears to be on the road to a championship—the third to come to this city in ten years, and unless the unexpected happens, the Millionaires and Ottawa will mingle on local ice in a three-in-five series for the Stanley Cup, the second meeting between these teams in six seasons. They last met in 1915 in Vancouver and the Millionaires copped the cup with three straight.

Walker Had to Quit. Minus the services of their star rover, Jack Walker, who left the ice after one minute's play, the injury sustained a couple of weeks ago proving too big a handicap, the champions of last year were completely outplayed by the Millionaires in all departments of the game. The Millionaires had a far greater edge than even the 7-0 score indicates. Opening up with a burst of speed they carried the fight to the Mets throughout sixty minutes of nerve-racking hockey. They beat them with defensive play, and they beat them even more decisively on the attack.

Unfortunate Goal Loses Hard Game for Senators

Dawson Scores Tally for Towers After Gong Sounded in Overtime — Best Amateur Game Played Here Since Selkirks Gave Display

Victoria's premier amateur hockey team, the Senators, tasted another defeat last night, when they succumbed after a gruelling overtime battle at the Arena with the Towers' septette from Vancouver. Full time found the score standing seven goals apiece. It was agreed to play two five-minute overtime periods, and at the close of the first extra spasm Dawson whirled through the Senators' defence and scored a goal.

Goal Was Allowed. The gong, a very feeble one, sounded for the cessation of play in the first overtime period, but neither Referee Clem Loughlin nor the play-spectators had time to proceed for ten seconds and Dawson went through and scored. The Senators protested the goal, but Clem claimed that the game must go on until the referee's whistle blew and consequently allowed the goal.

DOMINION
Exposing smug hypocrisy and telling a highly dramatic and appealing story, "The Inside of the Cup," a powerful Paramount-Cosmopolitan picture, admirably produced, was presented before an appreciative audience at the Dominion Theatre yesterday. This is an excellent pictorialization of Winston Churchill's powerful novel which excited world-wide controversy on its publication seven years ago.

The theme is an excellent one and the story of human lives which the narrative unfolds, has been charmingly developed. The picture is one that will inspire thought as well as entertain. The company of players, too, is far above the average. The character of John Hodder, the doctor, who exposes the hypocrisy of his rich parishioners, is excellently portrayed by William P. Carleton. That of Allison Parr, the daughter of Eldon Parr, a hypocritical financier, is finely presented by Edith Hallor. Kate Marcy, a salesgirl, is captivatingly portrayed by Marguerite Clayton. The support generally is unusually clever, but special mention should be made of the work of David Torrence, Jack Bohn, Richard Carlyle and Margaret Sedden.

This popular actor of the stage and screen has supported more golden haired stars and leading ladies than any other player in the films; but after playing opposite Carmel Myers in her latest photodrama, "Beautifully Trimmed," he has undergone a complete change of taste. He says that if the other dark haired stars are half as charming as Miss Myers he is "off the blondes" forever.

According to friends who knew him some years ago, a good architect was spoiled when Trenton, after graduating from the Columbia University, New York, fell victim to the charms of Julia Marlowe and sought an en-

He also acted as a brilliant manager of the stage as Maxine Elliott, Laurette Taylor, Marie Doro and Sir Herbert Tree, and played King Love in the original New York production of "Everywoman."

In "Beautifully Trimmed" Mr. Trenton plays the role of a wealthy young man who goes to war, becomes an actor, returns home a hero and with a changed view of life. It is his new attitude which brings Carmel Myers to a realization of the unworthiness of the part she is playing in the general scheme of things.

COLUMBIA
An event of lively importance and great popular interest occurred last night at the Columbia Theatre. The sordid, the beautiful, the adventurous, thrillingly blended—these furnish the favor of "The White Moll," a powerful photoplay special in which Pearl White appeared for the first time as a William Fox star, and in her first big production. Needless to say, a capacity house welcomed this popular screen star, who has definitely abandoned serial pictures in which she earned world fame. In "The White Moll," Pearl White surpasses anything she has previously done on the screen. She furnishes an abundance of thrills in a tale as intensely dramatic, framed in a story which grips the heart from start to finish. "The White Moll" is from the pen of Frank L. Packard, author of the celebrated play, "The Miracle Man." In it Miss White has many opportunities to utilize all the extraordinary magnetism which has made her the best known screen actress in the world. She possesses a great attractive presence, and her strongly emotional scenes is superb.

VARIETY HAS EXCEPTIONAL FILM

San Francisco Gangster Story Is Presented, With Priscilla Dean Starring

According to Lon Chaney, his role of the San Francisco gangster, Black Mike, in Tod Browning's Universal Jewel feature, "Outside the Law," and the big attraction at the Variety this week, is the best part he has ever played. Tod Browning wrote the part especially for Lon Chaney, and this peer of character actors was engaged weeks before the scenario was written, when it was merely outlined in Browning's mind. Every scene—those with Priscilla Dean, and the Wheeler Oakman with E. A. Warren, with Ralph Lewis and with the other characters in the story, is fraught with big acting possibilities, and Chaney takes advantage of all of them.

Lon Chaney had a number of interesting experiences during the filming of "Outside the Law." During the early scenes of the picture the famous detective, William J. Burns, visited Universal City, and gave the actor a lot of valuable information regarding the newest tricks of the big city gunmen—how they carry and use their weapons, their methods of attack and the latest fads of the underworld, and these Chaney has incorporated in his portrayal.

While in San Francisco on location, Chaney, dressed for his part, was waiting for the rest of the company to assemble at Union Square, in front of the St. Francis Hotel. He was sitting on a bench and attracted the attention of a vigilant policeman, who was about to arrest him as a suspicious character. At first Lon thought it was a put-up job, but when he discovered that the officer was in earnest, he asked him to accompany him to the hotel where the scene was shot. The clerk identified the actor and secured his release and many apologies.

"Outside the Law" now is being shown at the Variety Theatre, and both the afternoon and evening performances were to crowded houses.

PRINCESS
To-night at the Princess they are playing a special performance of the classic comedy "Sick-Abed," which made such a decided success last week. There is never a dull moment, and if you have not seen it do not miss it for it is a roaring farce with some of the cleverest lines and situations of the season, and if you want to enter the guessing contest for the large framed portrait of James Coots to be given away at the performance of "The Country Cousin" to-morrow night (Wednesday) you should not miss seeing "Sick-Abed," for those entering the contest are to see who can come nearest to the correct number of words spoken by Byron Aldern in the part of Reggie Jay in "Sick-Abed."

"The Country Cousin" will be the play to-morrow night, and being by Booth Tarkington it does not need any other recommendation aside from that there are beautiful growing and splendid scenic effects, and in fact the entire production will delight each and everyone of the Princess patrons.

"The Country Cousin" will be presented to-morrow, and the balance of the week.

BENEFIT CONCERT A BIG SUCCESS
Fine Programme at Caledonia Hall, Under Direction of J. G. Brown

The concert in aid of the aged woman and her infirm son, held last night in Caledonia Hall, was exceptionally well attended. The programme was under the direction of J. G. Brown, and every item on the programme was accorded. John Bobbie, Sr., gave two very humorous selections which pleased greatly. Mrs. Ogilvy's "Callie Martin," was deservedly encored. Prof. Hunt's violin solo, "Charlie Is My Darling," (with variations) artistically accompanied by Mrs. Hunt, was also encored. Mr. Walker rendered one of his recitations in old-time style. D. Munroe, a newcomer at Scottish concerts, was very acceptably received in his song, "My Native Home," and Mr. Ogilvy sang in fine style "Hurrah For the Highlands." Mrs. Butler is always a favorite with Scottish audiences, and secured a hearty en-cores for her rendition of the "Song of the Emigrant." Mrs. Knight sang in splendid voice, "O Whistle an' I'll Come to You, My Lad," receiving an insistent encore. J. G. Brown, "I'm Married to an English Wife," was very popular. The recitation, "Sellin' Sewing Machines," by D. Ogilvy, gave the audience lots of amusement, while Mr. Guy's singing of "Mary" and "Love's Old Sweet Song" was a rare treat, as was the ever new "Crookit Baybee," by Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvy. Mrs. Lewis Hall was the accompanist of the evening, and contributed in no small measure to the success of the concert by her finished playing. Miss Agnes Wallace contributed a burlesque solo and danced the Highland Fling, receiving an enthusiastic encore. Dr. Lewis Hall made an excellent chairman.

MAY ROBSON STARS IN "NOBODY'S FOOL"
Accomplished Actress Scores in Her Interpretation of Mrs. Bixby

May Robson has interpreted many leading roles, but it is doubtful if she has portrayed a character more suited to her exceptional talents. She was deliciously amusing and charmingly sympathetic as Mrs.

Bixby in Alan Dale's comedy, "Nobody's Fool," the vehicle in which she introduced herself last night to an enthusiastic audience at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

"Nobody's Fool" is a comedy that abounds with humor of the most subtle variety and the favorite comedienne captured all hearts in her interpretation of this refreshing role. The play gives Miss Robson the widest scope to display her unquestioned ability, and she made the most of the character as the devoted wife and mother smoothing over the domestic entanglements of the household.

The comedy abounds with amusing situations, and in the foremost role, May Robson proved that she has lost none of her distinctive charm.

DAVID GOLDSTEIN TO SPEAK FRIDAY

An intellectual treat is said to be in store for the people of Victoria when David Goldstein, author, Knights of Columbus lecturer and debater, delivers his address on "Bolshevism: What It Is: The Remedy For It." Everybody is invited to this gathering on Friday night.

Admission to the lecture is free to the public. Seats have been reserved for world war veterans who are at present taking a decidedly keen interest in the world's greatest problem. The lecture of Mr. Goldstein will be of special interest to them. The Knights of Columbus announce that the distinguished lecturer's address is not a tirade against the "Reds," but rather a constructive presentation of the subject, showing what this latest manifestation of Socialism in its brand-new Russian dress really is. Mr. Goldstein's appeal is to lovers of God and Country, to those who stand for civil law and ordered Liberty.

The address will be followed by a quizzing period, when the speaker will answer questions relating to any phase of the subject whether of the Bolshevism in Russia or of that propaganda in our own country.

Mr. Goldstein is well qualified to speak on the subject of Socialism, Communism, Bolshevism, since he was a leader in the Social movement of Massachusetts some twenty years ago, having been the first candidate of that party for mayor in his home city, Boston. His resignation from the Socialist movement, after three years' effort within the party to reform the organization, caused a sensation at the time, and it is con-considered the prime factor in the decline of its vote in the Old Bay State causing the defeat of two mayors the three Socialist members of the Legislature, and several aldermen and councilmen. It also caused the Socialist vote to be quickly reduced to one-quarter of its strength when he quit the movement. From that day to this the Socialist vote has been kept at a low ebb in Massachusetts.

Skilful gracefully and daringly is the latest accomplishment acquired by Corinne Griffith. The Viagraph star recently spent three weeks in the Adirondack Mountains making snow scenes for her forthcoming production, "What's Your Reputation Worth?" arriving there when the Winter sports were at their height. Although born in Texas, she just naturally took to skis and soon became an adept. Several views of Miss Griffith on skis will be shown in her new production.

Absolutely guarantees the return at the end of twenty years of all annual deposits, with accumulated profits, after giving you insurance protection for twenty years.

Easily Understood:

---OF---
this Special Cash Guarantee may be applied to increase the amount of your policy to more than $7500.

An Immediate Estate
The great advantage over any other form of investment is that a small percentage paid yearly creates immediately an estate of $5,000, or more.

These active, progressive years of life in which you are earning the most money are the years in which premiums can be more easily met.

Merchant Ship Loses In European Conflict

Over 9,000,000 Gross Tons and 40,000 Lives Lost Is Estimate Tabulated by the British Board of Trade.

The British Board of Trade has issued returns dealing with the shipping casualties and loss of life occasioned to merchant shipping registered in the United Kingdom and British Dominions, which occurred on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom from July 1, 1914, to December 31, 1918, covering a period rather more than that of the length of European hostilities.

The number of vessels lost by marine casualty was 915, of a gross tonnage of 1,048,498, while those lost by enemy action numbered 3,781 with a gross tonnage of 8,863,777, a grand total of 4,696 vessels, amounting to 9,412,275 gross tons.

Of the total losses to British registered merchant and fishing vessels during the four and a half years covering the period of the war 36.52 per cent. of the number and 88.86 per cent. of the gross tonnage were losses due to enemy action.

The total number of deaths of seamen, fishermen and passengers from all causes other than those due to enemy action which occurred during the same period were as follows: Seamen, 10,975; fishermen, 458; passengers, 7,466, a total of 18,900. In addition the lives lost by acts of war in British merchant and fishing vessels were: Merchant vessels: Crew, 14,428; passengers, 6,230; total, 20,658. Fishing vessels: Crew, 1,127; passenger, 1, total, 1,128, making a grand total of 21,886.

In addition to these four seamen were reported to have been killed by bombs from enemy aircraft, one, Captain Fryatt, was executed, 67 died while interned as prisoners of war in enemy countries, and two released prisoners of war died in Holland after removal from Germany.

The total number of deaths of seamen, fishermen and passengers, including prisoners of war, reported as having occurred during the period covered by this return was consequently 40,860.

HONEST PEOPLE TRAVEL ON CANADIAN NATIONAL

Osborne Scott, General passenger agent, Canadian National Railways, is perfectly satisfied as to the honesty of some people, and points with pride to an unsigned letter received by him, reading as follows: "Enclosed please find $6 in stamps to pay for merchandise or meal on train between Saskatoon and Edmonton."

The Canadian Australasian freighter Wainimo is due to leave Vancouver to-night for Ocean Falls to load paper for the return trip to Australia. The Wainimo is listed to go to Everett to load lumber and box shocks after she has completed at Ocean Falls.

ACTION TO RESULT FROM AUSTRALIAN SHIPPING CONTRACTS

Vancouver, March 15.—Word was brought by officers of the S.S. Wainimo from Australia, that action is to be started at an early date by the Australian Government against the Pacific S.S. Company, Anglo-California Trust Company, Anglo-London and Paris National Bank, W. L. Comyn & Company, and about ten other defendants for the delivery of a mortgage for $1,658,000 which the Commonwealth Government claims should have been turned over when the Government released the eight motorships which were built in America.

These vessels are known as the B. & C. boats in the San Francisco fleet to-day.

European Ports Full of Idle Tonnage, Says Melville Dollar on Return

A. Melville Dollar, Managing Director of the Canadian Robert Dollar Company, who has just returned to the Coast from a visit to the United Kingdom, reports the existence of stagnant business conditions in Europe. The shipping experts of Europe, he states, were not agreed on what period would elapse before business was back to normal.

Some predicted six months, others thought it would be two years. Mr. Dollar says between one and two thousand British tramp steamers were tied up in British harbors, while the ports of Sweden, Norway and Britain had large numbers of United States Shipping Board vessels lying idle.

Speaking of shipbuilding, he stated it was very quiet and that prices were dropping rapidly. New ships could be bought for about $72 a ton and vessels of from five to twenty years of age were being sold at from $28 to $50 a ton. There were many sellers but few buyers. Lord Inchcape, who is selling the captured enemy ships for the British ministry, has always a waiting list of a score or more fine vessels awaiting buyers. During his trip to England, Mr. Dollar concluded the purchase of the new German steamer Kurland now named the Robert Dollar. The ship is 522 feet long, 65½ feet beam and 45 feet 3 inches moulded depth. She makes a speed of twelve knots and will go on the round-the-world service of the Dollar Company together with the steamers M. S. Dollar, Grace Dollar and Esther Dollar. It is expected she will be on the Coast in about two months. She left Lethbridge on Friday and will touch at Boston and New York, loading for the Orient.

PRESSING DEMAND FOR ACCOMMODATION ON ATLANTIC ROUTE

C. F. Earle, District passenger agent, Canadian National Railways, has been advised that owing to the great demand for accommodation for May and June eastbound-Atlantic sailings in saloon and second class bookings it is imperative that intending passengers be impressed with the importance of making early reservations in order to secure accommodation on the date they may desire to sail.

STATESMAN IS QUE EARLY NEXT MONTH

Harrison Direct Freighter Expected From Glasgow About April 6

With freight for British Columbia ports from the United Kingdom the British steamship Statesman, of the Harrison Direct Line, will arrive here on February 25, and by this time should be in the canal zone.

The Statesman sailed from Glasgow on February 25, and by this time should be in the canal zone. The Statesman is being followed by the freighter Centurion. The Centurion is due to close at London, March 21. Antwerp, March 24; Glasgow, April 1, and Liverpool, April 7. She is a vessel of 4,821 tons register, and was formerly known as the Crown of Galicia, but on being taken over by T. and J. Harrison, she was renamed the Centurion. The service of the Harrison Line to this coast via the Straits of Magellan was inaugurated by the original Centurion in 1911. The big freighter was sunk by a German submarine during the war.

Chancellor Home. The Harrison freighter Chancellor is reported to have reached London on March 14, from Vancouver and Victoria via Seattle, Tacoma, San Francisco, Cristobal and Liverpool.

GOVERNMENT TO BUILD MODERN LIGHTHOUSE AT CARMANAH POINT

The Canadian Government has decided to go ahead with the construction of the new lighthouse at Carmanah Point, Straits of Juan de Fuca.

Tenders for the construction of a reinforced concrete tower are being invited and must be in the hands of the Minister of Marine at Ottawa by noon, April 1.

The decision of the Government to build a modern lighthouse at Carmanah will be welcome news to mariners.

Vessels Built on This Coast Appear in Casualty Lists

Three vessels known on this coast appear in the latest casualty column. These ships are the motorship Balcatta, and the steamers Iocasti and Navarcho Koundouriotis. The latter two were Coughlan steamers, launched as the War Charlot and the War Charger, respectively, at Vancouver. Both are Greek owned. The Iocasti is reported burned and sunk off Cape Gata on a voyage from New York to Constantinople. Fire broke out on February 8 and spread through the bunkers to the cargo. Officers and crew were taken off by the steamer Dante Alighieri February 9, the captain reporting the Iocasti taking a list and sinking.

The steamer Navarcho Koundouriotis burned in Salonica harbor early in February and was towed out into the bay and sunk in twenty feet of water.

The motorship Balcatta, one of the vessels built on the Sound for the Australian Commonwealth and later purchased at Seattle, is reported as towed into Talcahuano, Peru, bottom up. She was deserted by her crew after all hope of saving the vessel was lost.

The fire fended apparently was determined to get the two Coughlan steamers. They were the vessels that were damaged by the great fire which swept the Coughlan yards in 1918. Both were damaged then but were repaired and launched. They have been in the hands of the Greek owners for over a year.

CANADIAN TRAVELLER GOES INTO DRYDOCK

New Government Ship Left Upper Harbor in Tow Today for Esquimalt

Riding high out of the water and with her engines turning over, the steel freighter Canadian Traveller left the Upper Harbor this forenoon in tow of the tugs Swell and Spray for Esquimalt, where she was later floated into drydock.

The new vessel attracted a great deal of attention as she slowly passed out of the harbor. Her propeller churned the water ineffectually, being hauled out of the water. The ship was completely under control of the tugs, her engines being turned over to test out the machinery.

Enters Drydock. The Canadian Traveller was dry-docked to-day for the purpose of having her hull scraped and painted before she is sent out on her steam trials. Upon the completion of the drydocking the freighter will shift to the Ogden Point piers, where it is expected she will remain until the completion of the work of installing her refrigerating plant.

Superintendent Craig is well satisfied with the engine installation, the machinery having worked with the most smoothness.

After her trials, which will take place within the next few days, the Canadian Traveller will go on berth at Vancouver to load for her maiden voyage to India via the Far East.

The Canadian Traveller is the second and last of the 8,100-tonners to be built by the Harbor Marine Company, Ltd.

TURNEY TO MANAGE WALLACE OPERATIONS AT PRINCE RUPERT

John Maitland, Formerly of Coughlan's, Also Goes to Northern Port

Vancouver, March 15.—H. J. F. Turney, of Wallace Shipyards, Ltd., has gone to Prince Rupert, where he will be general manager of the Wallace plant at the northern British Columbia port.

John Maitland left on Monday night for Prince Rupert. He has just severed connections with the firm of J. Coughlan & Sons, Limited, to take the position of manager in the engineering department of Wallace's at Prince Rupert. He will have charge of the drawing office and outside and inside management. Mr. Maitland is classed among the best marine engineering specialists of the British Empire. He served his apprenticeship with Napier, on the Clyde, and after going through all the shops was appointed on Dr. Kirk's technical staff. Dr. Kirk was one of the best marine engineers of the Clyde. Mr. Maitland was with the firm for fourteen years, the last two with Messrs. Beardmore & Company when they took over the Napier shops.

During his time with Napier he represented them for two years in Russia, installing the machinery in Russian battleships. After leaving Messrs. Beardmore he was manager for Messrs. Murray, McVinnie of Glasgow and while with them had considerable experience at Belfast fitting galley equipment and heating arrangements for Harland and Wolff and Workman, Clark vessels. He was next with A. N. Gordon, who is leading naval architect for the Allan Line and has great experience of Glasgow, and when with him supervised the building of the steamers Alsatian and Calgarian. Mr. Maitland next came to Canada and has been associated with the Coughlan plant since it started.

After a four days' stay in Burrard Inlet the Canadian naval fleet under the command of Captain H. G. R. Adams will return to Esquimalt Harbor to-morrow afternoon.

Commander H. E. Holme, R. C. N., in charge of the Esquimalt Dockyard, has been advised that the light cruisers Aurora and the destroyers Patriot and Patricia will sail from Vancouver about 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, and steaming at slow speed down the Gulf, will make Esquimalt about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The Aurora will be moored at the dockyard jetty, and it is probable that the destroyers will swing alongside the cruiser at the naval landing stage.

Public Inspection. Captain Walter Rose, R. C. N., director of the Canadian Naval Service, is authority for the statement that the public will be accorded every opportunity to inspect the ships. The date has yet to be arranged, but will be announced in due course. Saturday has been set apart for members of the Navy League to visit the ships. By that time the ships will be spick and span and ready for inspection. It is expected that the general public will be allowed to go aboard the ships of the fleet early next week.

LIQUOR RESERVE FUND IS FEARED

Mr. Bowser Says Municipalities May Be Done Out of Share of Profits

The reserve fund which the liquor bill proposes to build up in connection with the administration of Government sale was attacked yesterday by W. J. Bowser, K. C., Leader of the Opposition, as a means of robbing the municipalities of the fifty per cent. share in the profits which they were promised.

"I know what is going to happen this reserve fund," Mr. Bowser said. "It is going to be very large. Next session the Government will come and say that they have a very large reserve revenue and will suggest that it be thrown into the Treasury and be used by the Government in carrying on the expenditures of the country."

There is some ulterior motive behind the reserve fund. I can see no justification for ninety per cent. or it may even be only ten per cent. of the profits and putting it into a reserve fund. If this money should go anywhere it should go into the consolidated revenue, the same as any other revenue. But every dollar set aside for the reserve fund will be so much less for the municipalities."

WAS SUFFERING FROM INDIGESTION NO FEAR OF PAINS NOW

Indigestion is one of the worst forms of stomach trouble, and many people suffer terribly after every meal they eat. The rising and souring of the food, pains in the stomach, heartburn, water brash, belching of wind, vomiting shortly after eating, etc., are some of the symptoms.

There is no need for any person to be troubled with indigestion, dyspepsia or any other stomach trouble if they would only take Burdock Blood Bitters, which contains a combination of nature's roots, herbs, barks and berries; a combination that cannot help but put the stomach right.

Mr. H. H. Collins, Norton, N. B., writes:—"I was with the overseas forces for four years and two months, and in October, 1916, I was unfortunate enough to be wounded and taken prisoner. I was a prisoner for 2 1/2 years, and the food they gave us was not good, at times, and after a few months I found I was suffering from indigestion. When I came home in July, 1919, I was nearly a wreck. I was told to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I did so and found great relief, and can now eat without fear of pains and sickness. I would recommend B. B. B. to all who suffer from indigestion."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over forty years, and during that time has made a reputation second to none for relieving all stomach troubles. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BOWSER ATTACKS FOREST BILL

He Declares Encouragement to Newcomers Unfair

For upwards of an hour Monday afternoon W. J. Bowser, K. C., Leader of the Opposition, devoted himself to a criticism of the amendments to the Forest Act, introduced by the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands. The chief clauses of the new bill, which have been published in these columns, were declared by Mr. Bowser to be "dangerous," and to provide too much in the way of special privileges for persons coming into the Province in the future to carry on pulp and lumber mills.

Mr. Bowser said that British Columbia had the largest areas of pulp timber in the entire country, and even the Americans were looking to Canada and particularly to this Province for their future supply. He thought the restrictions placed upon operators according to the old act passed by the Conservative Government were protective in their nature and that they should not be changed. These regulations, pointed out the Opposition leader, made it necessary for a new concern to invest $50,000 in a mill and to put up a deposit of $50,000. Now, he said, it was proposed to allow the Minister of Lands to decide upon the amount which should be invested. This power, said Mr. Bowser, should be vested solely in the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

No Special Privileges
Mr. Bowser found fault with the clauses which provides for the establishment of pulp zones. He said that the Department now proposed to grant newcomers the right to revive "dead" leases, combine them into an area and thus obtain rights which were denied the firms originally operating here.

Hon. Mr. Pattullo pointed out that the bill aimed to develop the resources of the Province, but it certainly was not intended to do anything that would endanger the resources of the Province or give special privileges to anyone.

The Leader of the Opposition opposed the principle of returning cruising costs to a man who becomes a successful tenderer for Government timber.

In answering Mr. Bowser's criticism of the proposal to establish pulp areas at different points, the Minister of Lands said that care would be taken not to injure those already established in the lumber business.

Objects to Rate Increase
Mr. Bowser spoke of the opportunity for a new pulp industry in the Prince George district, where he said there was an adequate supply of pulp timber for many years to come. He expressed surprise that persons interested had not centered their eyes upon that section long ago and he urged the Government to do nothing which would restrict operations there.

Mr. Bowser also objected to the clause increasing the fee for forest conservation from one and a half to two and a half cents per acre. Surely this was unnecessary, he argued. What was the reason?

Hon. Mr. Pattullo said the answer was simple. Fires had caused the increase. Mr. Bowser replied that last summer was a wet season and he could see no reason for the additional charge. He was told by the Minister that the summer of 1920 was a very bad one from the fire hazard point of view and that the fund would have to be increased in order to protect the timber.

The Case for Daily Newspaper Advertising

The question has been asked: What are the Advantages of Daily Newspaper Advertising by contrast with all other forms of advertising?

In setting out these advantages, Daily Newspaper Publishers do not discount supplementary forms of publicity. But the area of Canada and its distribution of population are such, that Daily Newspaper Advertising has been and must be the basis of all the pointedly successful Canadian advertising campaigns.

G.W.V.A. FUND REQUIRES MORE SUBSCRIPTIONS

The G. W. V. A. Relief Fund was inaugurated in the hope that the citizens of Victoria would not knowingly allow the families of men who served during the war days, to suffer hunger on account of unemployment. Up to the present this hope has been realized, but the decline of public support has placed the fund in a precarious position. More than 500 persons have been assisted and much suffering has been prevented.

WINTER PERIOD OF RELIEF EXTENDED

Veterans of France Asks Consideration for Disabled Veterans

A resolution dealing with relief of disabled veterans and asking that the Federal authorities extend the period of relief for another month, was passed at a meeting of the Veterans of France last night.

The preamble relates that from reliable data obtained on the unemployment situation it is considered unlikely that any considerable improvement will be brought about for another month.

The resolution urges the Federal Government to extend the relief for another month as the expenditure would be justified by the results and would obviate any risk of starvation or suffering to a body of men who deserve well of the country.

KIWANIS WELCOME

President Harding Replies to Message of Congratulation

The initiation of three additional members formed the central feature of the Kiwanis Club at the noon day luncheon at the Hamilton Hotel today, when Frank S. Day, William A. Paterson and Reginald Hayward were formally admitted into the active membership of the club.

Messrs. Walter Macguire, S. J. Willis, Kenneth Ferguson, Secretary Walter Walker, Harold C. Cross, Robert H. Johnson and President Mark Graham giving brief addresses of welcome to new members upon admittance. The aims, objects and development of the club was explained to the newcomers, who were cordially welcomed by all present.

Secretary Walter Walker received a telegram to-day from Secretary George Christensen for President Harding, thanking the Kiwanis Club for their felicitations on his recent election.

President Harding Replies. The telegram read: "The President desires to express to you and through you his deep appreciation of your kind telegram of felicitation."

L. A. Rayner, on behalf of the Navy League of Canada, tendered a general welcome to the Kiwanis Club to be present on the occasion of the address by Gordon H. Jackson at the Royal Victoria Theatre to-morrow evening, when the Dominion secretary of the Navy League of Canada will speak on the "Significance of Sea Power."

Kiwanian William Ritchie acted as chairman of the entertainment committee to-day, and was complimented along with his energetic committee for the excellency of the arrangements. The attendance prize donated by Mr. Ritchie was won by Kiwanian Henry Dibble, who has shown phenomenal luck in this matter to the extent of winning the reputation as a safe bet for that honor on every alternate occasion.

Kiwanians J. W. Spencer and H. Knapp were given consolation prizes, having lost in the final draw for the main award.

UGLY SIGN BOARDS THAT JAR BEAUTIES OF NATURE AT ISSUE

An effort has been made by the member for the Islands, M. B. Jackson, K. C., to have the objectionable sign-boards advertisements on the route between Vancouver and Victoria removed.

In introducing a bill to control "hoardings" in public places, Mr. Jackson aims to do away with the unsightly sign-boards in Active Pass and in other places frequented by the travelling public. The bill was introduced following the protests appearing from time to time in the press, and Mr. Jackson expressed the hope that the bill would have the support of all the members of the House, since its aim was the beautifying of the public places of the Province.

Estimates This Week. The consideration of the estimates for the ensuing year will commence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the House. Mr. H. H. B. Minister of Finance has introduced a motion to this effect.

MONTHLY RECITAL AT THE COLUMBIA SCHOOL OF MUSIC

An excellent programme was rendered last night by the intermediate and junior pupils in piano, vocal and violin.

All the pupils acquitted themselves most creditably and deserved the warm applause they received. Among the pianoforte numbers special mention should be made of Vera McNaughton, Hazel Clyde, and Marguerite Reid.

The programme was as follows: Piano Solo—Valse Dansante... Rogers Hazel Clyde. Vocal—Wind Song... Rogers Hazel Clyde.

Appoint Architect.—The Saanich School Board last night appointed Hubert Savage as architect to address on possible extensions of Tillamook and Cloverdale schools.

PAYS TO OBSERVE FUEL ECONOMIES

Saying at the Bung and Wasting at Spigot Too Common a Practice (By Ernest Coler in "Motor Life")

In considering the bogy which, for want of a better name might be called the motor fuel situation, there is to my mind at least—altogether too much coddling of future generations.

The Latest, Loveliest Shoes of Spring In Which Fashion Reigns Supreme

Never has the style theme of the season been so diversified or developed in so many individual ways. True style lies in correct fashion, not in fads. So instead of featuring one "season's novelty" without discrimination, designers have carefully provided correct shoes for each occasion—each costume.

The well dressed woman chooses her shoes as she does her hats—with careful regard for the costume they will wear with and the use she shall give them. 'Tis economical to do so, for when shoes are chosen with due regard for the use they will receive the wearer obtains the utmost in service.

Strap Pumps, with one or two straps, cross-straps and the sabot effect, are in demand in patent, black, brown and grey kid, also in black, brown and grey suede.

Low Heeled Footwear

Dame Fashion has not forgotten the woman who requires shoes on the medium and lower heel types, as many of these new shoes will prove.

GOLD BRICK SWINDLE STILL FINDS VICTIMS

It is still possible to sell "gold bricks" in Montgomery, Ala. This developed recently when it became known that Sam Katz, a Montgomery merchant, had interested himself to the extent of $600 in a bar of yellow metal that later proved to be a finely polished chunk of brass. Katz explained his investment as due to a pure lack of confidence in two small "strangers" who had come to him, he said, "strangers" to each other and to himself, entered his place. While one of them praised the merchant's brand of coffee and courtesy, the other casually let it be known he had on a deal to sell a local dentist a bar of pure gold, but any one who would pay him its value of $2,400 could have it. Grossman suggested a pool to buy the brick, himself "putting up" $1,000. Another "stranger" who had become interested in the discussion contributed $100 and Katz put in $600 as his share. "The bricks" was left with Katz until the remainder of the money was put up. He still has it.

The beginner gazed wrathfully at the caddy for a moment. "Look here," he said, "I'm tired of you laughing at my game. If I hear any more of your nonsense I'll crack you over the head." "All right," replied the caddy, moving away. "But I'll bet you don't know what's the right club to do it with."

CHARTER MARKET FINDS MOTORSHIP MOST IN DEMAND

Economically-operated Vessels Appear to Have Advantage Over Steam-craft

Vancouver, B. C., March 15.—Spot ships can demand a good figure for freights but futures on charters are slack and going at no particular fixed rate.

Wheat rates from the Pacific Coast to Europe have been slashed to a point where steamers cannot compete against motorships.

The River Plate is quoting to the United Kingdom on heavy grain 30 shillings, on light grain 25 shillings, and ordinary oats, 35.50 shillings.

Sugar boats from Cuba report about twenty charters from Cuba to Great Britain and France.

Intercoastal freight is not very strong this month as this is the usual quiet month, but the new rates made this week are expected to coax cargoes out from hiding.

Sea-bound copper rates broke this week from 39 Canadian funds to 38.

New York has reduced freight rates to Far Eastern points as follows: including Bombay and Calcutta: General measurement $21 per 40 cubic feet, or 51 1/2 cents per cubic foot, or 92 1/2 cents per hundred pounds, or 50 cents per hundred pounds.

A commercial traveller visited a certain West coast village, and sold the proprietor of the general store quite a lot of jewellery.

"Look here, Pat," said an old gent, "to-morrow evening, if you bring my tea without spilling a drop in the saucer, I will give you a shilling for yourself."

"Right, sir," said Pat, and the following evening he won the shilling by bringing the cup in one hand and the saucer in the other.

NEVER DREAMED SUCH THINGS COULD HAPPEN

Winnipeg Man Gets Big Surprise When Tanlac Builds Him Up So; Splendid Health After Over Two Years of Suffering

"I thought Tanlac must be a mighty fine medicine from what I heard of it, but I never dreamed it could do me half the good it has," said Harry Lewis, of 394 Ellice Avenue, Winnipeg, well known stockkeeper for the Grand Trunk Railway Company. "About two and a half years ago I suffered a general breakdown from the after effects of influenza, which had kept me in bed for two months. I had no appetite, and the food I ate caused me to suffer from indigestion. I had to live on a very restricted diet, and I lost considerable weight. I was bothered a great deal with constipation, my kidneys worried me a lot and I had the severest kind of pains in my back. I was very out of the question. Why, I was so run down some of my friends hardly knew me, and I was told I would have to go to a different climate for my health. "Well, six bottles of Tanlac have put an end to all my troubles, and I eat and enjoy three good hearty meals every day without ever feeling a sign of indigestion. My kidneys don't bother me, I don't have an ache or pain, and I sleep like a top at night. I have gained twelve pounds in weight, too, and am feeling fine in every way. Tanlac is too good a medicine for all suffering people not to know about it." Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas streets, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

SAANICH BOARD REFUSES TO CHANGE STAND ON GARDENS

Beautification of School Grounds Will Be Only Work Done

"It looks like a weakness on the part of this Board to us to make a decision and then revert," said Chairman man Holloway last night, when a letter from J. W. Gibson, Director of Elementary Technical Education, covering the employment of an agricultural supervisor was read.

Trustee Mrs. Humphries said: "The weakness was in making a hasty decision, it takes a strong man to change his opinion when he finds himself wrong."

Mr. Gibson had written that Saanich could look for a continuation of the present governmental assistance until March 31, 1923, and that he looked for the enlargement of the work to a scale requiring a whole time instructor, as soon as Saanich instituted a High School, which he believed to be imminent.

Trustee Mrs. Humphries maintained that to receive and file his letter was not in accord with the promise made Mr. Gibson last week, that his arguments in favor of continuing the courses should be given careful consideration.

Chairman Holloway maintained that by a vote face the Board would be reopening sectional controversies already settled, and said the manner in which Supervisor Hallwright had expended his grants had caused many protests from farmers, who did not know the Board had no control over such expenditures.

More Land Needed. "If we undertake to continue gardening, we cannot discriminate, it means buying sites at Tillicum and other schools without available lands," he said.

Trustee Mrs. Humphries repeatedly protested, but Chairman Holloway cited an onion patch at Saanichton, of which but one-third was needed, the rest "ran wild," with a result that Mr. Holloway declared had caused protest by all the farmers who saw the tract and its condition.

Trustee Hull said that he believed Supervisor Hallwright was doing as well as any other agricultural instructor would have done, the trouble being due to too much work for one man.

Holidays Interfere. Trustee Oldfield considered the teachers were generally opposed to the gardening courses, and it was also stated that the best use of the gardens was lost through the Summer holidays interfering with continued work.

The Board then decided finally to abandon further supervision, the letter from Superintendent Gibson was formally received and filed, and the teachers will be informed that, if they wish to carry on gardening work to beautify the school grounds, they should prepare their plans on a basis of no outside supervision, the Board allowing each school $5 worth of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. There you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

as to the recommendation that the executive may make,"

Three times had Pat dived in and fished out of the river the would-be suicide, and then he calmly sat down and watched him take off his braces. He one end round his neck and the other to a bough. A man across the river shrieked and gesticulated in vain, and then he swam over. "You mad idiot!" he shouted, "why didn't you stop him?" The man's dead. "You don't say so!" Pat said bewilderedly. "Sure, an I thought he was hangin' himself up to dry!"

SUGGESTS PLAN FOR TAXATION

Acting Mayor Todd Has Scheme For Meeting General Deficit

Taxation problems were brought to the attention of the City Council last night through a suggestion from Acting Mayor Todd that taxation should be levied this year with a view to covering a large general shortage of $199,505.58, at all events for all items excepting that of $97,082.26, the city's share of the 1920 local improvements unpaid. The matter was referred to the Estimates Committee for report.

Acting Mayor Todd's letter follows: "As a result of a number of conversations I have had with City Comptroller Raymur recently in connection with financial affairs, I think it well to report to the Council as follows: "Mr. Raymur states that, for each year, for some years past (exclusive of shortages on the part of the public of local improvements taxes), the bill of local improvements has been running behind at the rate of, in round figures, $200,000 annually. No provision has been made, from year to year, to take care of this shortage, following out the practice of some nine or ten years ago and previously, at which periods shortages of this kind invariably adjusted themselves through collection of tax on arrears. Unfortunately, for several years past, conditions have been quite different, and the city, through tax sales and collection of arrears of taxes, has not been able to catch up with the yearly shortage. This has brought about a situation which, taken in conjunction with the public's share of local improvement taxes, has created a deficiency, in round figures, of about $3,000,000, approximately $2,500,000 of which is on account of sinking funds.

Reverted Land as Asset. "Against this shortage of about $3,000,000, the city has assets of all reverted lands and all unpaid taxes. Inasmuch as the city has not yet sold any special securities against assets of delinquent taxes, it is probable that, between the amounts received from sales of reverted lands, payments on account of delinquent taxes and arrears of a comparatively moderate amount of securities, it will be possible to finance properly, when the time comes, this shortage of about $3,000,000. It, however, is allowed to develop indefinitely from year to year, and the time has probably arrived when the Council must take steps to terminate the regular recurring annual shortages.

"If increased borrowing, on account of annual shortage each year, is not yearly resorted to, and I do not think that it should be, then the only course open is to levy additional taxes each year for the shortage of the preceding year. This course, I believe, should be followed in the future, and the year just past, excepting, perhaps, upon the public's and city's respective shares of shortage of local improvement taxes.

Actual Expenditure. "Mr. Raymur has furnished me the following figures concerning last year. These figures, Mr. Raymur states, do not cover the public's share of shortage of local improvement taxes, amounting, in 1920, to $27,805.72.

Actual expenditure, 1920, ordinary items $1,996,607.82 Additional items, either paid or owing: Local improvement account 1,653.78 Bank overdraft 18,522.26 Unpaid accounts 33,891.15 Amount used to retire notes 35,000.00 City's share of local improvement unpaid 97,082.26 Less actual revenue 1,983,321.69 Shortage $ 199,505.58 "Mr. Raymur states that, inasmuch as the Auditor's report for 1920 is not yet completed, it is possible that there may be some slight alterations in the foregoing figures, but no change of a material nature.

"I would recommend to the Estimates Committee of the City Council that taxation should be levied this year for the entire shortage of $199,505.58, at all events for all

In making the foregoing recommendations, which seem to me to be along the lines of the course which will have to be followed from year to year from now on, I beg to again point out that in addition to the recommendation not covering the city's share of deficiency in 1920 local improvement payments, the city's share of the 1920 local improvement shortage is also not included. Probably, under existing conditions, unpaid local improvement instalments should be dealt with separately and in a different manner to other shortages."

MORE GERMAN WAR TROPHIES EN ROUTE

Six Machine Guns and Twelve Ammunition Boxes Allotted Victoria

With no definite steps taken with regard to the placing of the German war trophies delivered to Victoria last year, the City Council last night heard from the Director of War Trophies at Ottawa that in accordance with the distribution of war trophies approved by the Dominion Government, Victoria has been allotted six German Machine guns and twelve ammunition boxes.

The letter states: "These trophies, which have been declared the property of Canada, are sent to you with the understanding that proper care will be taken of them, and in taking over these guns it is understood that you agree to this condition."

The same condition was imposed in connection with the large guns now at the Willows and which have been there ever since their arrival in the city. At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce the Council is taking up with the Government the question of a site for the big guns somewhere on the Parliament Buildings grounds, and it is probable that later when the Empire Avenue War Memorial is established that the war trophies will be set out along that thoroughfare.

The communication respecting the donation of machine guns was referred last night to the Parks Committee for action.

ASSESSOR IS NOT UNDER DICTATION

Merely Expected to Carry Out His Duty; Aldermen Disagree

"Just to show the people over the Bay that the City Council does not pretend to dictate to the Assessor the valuation that should be placed on lands in the City," Alderman Sarjeant said at the City Council meeting last night.

"That the Assessor be informed that this Council holds no arbitrary power as to any fixed amount for which the lands of the city should be assessed, but rather they expect the Assessor as a reliable official to do his duty guided only by his own judgment.

Alderman Aitken seconded the motion, which was carried.

The resolution was the result of a letter from Acting Mayor Todd stating that he intended to go before the Private Bills Committee to oppose clause 2 in the Victoria Private Bill, now before the Legislature for amendment, providing that assessments shall not be affected by values placed upon reverted tax sale property.

My appetite failed, I tired easily and I fell off in weight from 180 to 154 pounds. The trouble seemed to affect my nerves, and often I could not get asleep for hours after I went to bed. At other times I would awake with a start, and I would lie awake, twitching and trembling. Finally I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and through their use I found my appetite restored, now sleep naturally and I have regained my former weight. I lose no opportunity in recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to friends and neighbors who may need a medicine.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail $1.00 a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CHANGES POLICY IN GRANTING TAG DAYS

Six Weeks Between Events City Council Decides; Four More Granted

Applications for tag days are coming in so thickly that the City Council last night once again changed its policy in regard to tag days, and hereafter they will be permitted only at intervals of six weeks.

No less than four applications were read from the Victorian Order of Nurses, Women's Auxiliary to the G. W. V. A., Navy League of Canada and the Connaught Seamen's Institute.

With the granting of the above and two already granted, available tag days are taken up for the next thirty-six weeks.

It was decided at last week's meeting of the Council that tag days should be permitted only every two weeks, but at that time it was not considered likely that applications would come in at such a rate.

BEEF INSPECTION AGAIN DISCUSSED

Two Points of View Are Presented to City Council

In connection with the discussion by the City Council over the question of proper meat inspection, Dr. A. G. Price, Medical Health Inspector, wrote the Council last night that as it would be impracticable to enforce the requirement that lungs be attached to carcasses shipped from any great distance, it would be necessary that such inspection be made at the place of slaughter, no steps be taken here other than to require the Dominion or Provincial stamp be affixed to the meat, a fee to be charged in connection with the inspection of meat slaughtered locally.

"I am anxious that the meat sold in Victoria shall be as efficiently inspected as possible, and that the method of above criticism, and I feel that the above plan would work well without undue hardship on the producer or anything impracticable," said the doctor.

Mr. Chester Replies. "The Council referred to Dr. Price another letter from Kenneth Chester, secretary of the B. C. Veterinary Association, replying to Dr. Price's charge that some of the statements made in his recent letter to the B. C. Anti-Tuberculosis Society were "a deliberate knock at Victoria." Mr. Chester holds that no discriminatory reference was intended, and that he and the Association were justified in examining and giving an opinion on conditions affecting the city's meat supply.

The concluding paragraph of Mr. Chester's five-page letter, follows: "The B. C. Veterinary Association feels that the subject of the prevention of tuberculosis would be more quickly advanced if the medical profession as a whole would realize that the modern veterinarian is just as competent to deal with the subject as the medical man, his years of study being the same, and as he is taught by the same principles in the universities and has a better knowledge of the disease in animals. The two professions should work in support of one another in attacking the problem of tuberculosis in human beings, is being admitted now that fifty per cent of human consumption is of bovine origin."

MUST ACT QUICKLY ON TELEPHONE RATES

Company's Application Will Be Heard Probably in Month

The City Council last night referred the question of proposed increases telephone rates, to which it has already expressed disapproval, to the Legislative Committee for report.

Alderman Fullerton remarked that quick action would be necessary. The matter should be probed locally, and it was also advisable that W. G. Lighthall, K. C., consulting secretary for the Union of Canadian Municipalities be asked to take immediate action to protect the interests of the municipalities.

A. D. Shibley, of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, advised the Council that the Railway Board would probably hear the Telephone Company's application in Vancouver or Victoria in about a month unless the municipalities asked for more time.

A letter from F. A. McDiarmid, parliamentary agent for the Union of B. C. Municipalities, expressed a doubt as to whether the inquiry would be held on the coast or at Ottawa. The Council authorized the sending of a telegram to Mr. Shibley requesting that the arrangements be made for the holding of the inquiry at the place most advantageous to all.

Widespread Effect. "The company operates in forty-five municipalities out of the sixty-three of the Province, and they seem to me to be all materially affected," wrote Mr. McDiarmid. "I am under the impression that no effective opposition can be given to this unless the service of a consulting engineer with extensive knowledge of telephone practice, nor without a firm of chartered accountants who will investigate as to whether or not the capitalization of the company is really of the nature set out in their application.

"While it is true that the exchange rates are only asked to be increased in Vancouver, Victoria, New Westminster, Nanaimo and North Vancouver, the service connection of change appears to be absolutely new.
