FOREWORD

WITH no little pride—a pride born of effort if not of achievement—we, the editors of this year book, present it in the light of the present. With faint hearts we regard it in the light of the future, realizing full well that a decade hence today's handiwork will reflect upon us but small credit and little glory.

Glancing backward through dust-covered volumes of this book which depict other days and other styles, we find them but cumbersome collections of unimpressive pages and weird photographs. Meanwhile we groom this volume for a no less inglorious fate.

We present, then, the record of but a single college year—a fragmentary crayon sketch, the colors of which will fade and smear and become grotesque. But if the sketch, while fresh, is worthy, we have accomplished our purpose. We care not that the future college generations will regard our volume as a sort of curio—or that you, gentle reader, having found it in a long-forgotten corner, will some day hand it, open at a well-thumbed page, to your posterity, and point and say, smiling sheepishly the while—"That's how your papa looked when he was young."

ANDREW HENRY PATERSON, M.A., D.Sc.

DEDICATION

FOR twenty years Doctor Patterson was a member of the faculty of the University. Graduated here in 1891, he returned to teach in 1908. Many students knew him as an inspiring teacher, but more knew him as a sympathetic friend. He was never too busy to give of his time and interest to anyone who needed his help or advice. He had the gift of infinite patience and at the same time of untiring perseverance. Kindly, sympathetic, quiet, he exemplified as few men do the real meaning of the word 'gentleman.' He died in the prime of usefulness last September, but he made too deep an impression on Carolina ever to be forgotten. And so to the memory of Andrew Henry Patterson, scholar, teacher, friend, this volume is affectionately dedicated.

IN THAT IT IS OUR ENDEAVOR TO PRESENT THROUGH THIS VOLUME A MORE OR LESS COMPREHENSIVE VIEW OF ALL THE ASPECTS OF LIFE AT THE UNIVERSITY DURING THE YEAR PAST, ATTENTION IS AT ONCE DRAWN TO THE FACULTY. UNABLE TO INCLUDE THE ENTIRE FACULTY, THE SENIOR CLASS HAS CHOSEN THESE MEN AS ITS TEN MOST REPRESENTATIVE MEMBERS.

HARRY WOODBURN CHASE, PhD., LL.D.

The President's-Message

WITH passing years a book such as this comes to stand for youth at its happiest time. Much as this book means to you now, it will mean far more later on, as it brings back memories of carefree days on the campus of the University.

No man can live here for a campus generation without being forever a different person. Memories of splendid achievement reach out to him from the past. He feels himself a member of that great brotherhood which began here one hundred and thirty-five years ago. A University atmosphere which is alive and free surrounds him. For him, too, there is the challenge of the future. He comes into his kingdom at a time of opportunity and of the enlargement of horizons. He knows that, as a University man, tasks are waiting for him.

May this volume always recreate something of the mood in which you now stand facing life. May it be both a source of tender memories and a challenge and an inspiration to your spirit.

The Mary D. Wright Debate

March 15, 1929

THE Mary D. Wright Memorial Medal was begun years ago by the late P. E. Wright, of Landis, N. C., and is now continued by his estate through the agency of the present Mr. P. E. Wright, of the same place. It is awarded to the best speaker on the winning team in the annual debate between the Philanthropic Assembly and the Dialectic Senate.

The debate for the scholastic year 1928-29 was on the question, "Resolved, that the Volstead Act should be modified."

The representatives of the Philanthropic Assembly were E. H. Whitley and R. M. Albright, who upheld the affirmative side of the question. The Dialectic Senate was represented by B. C. Moore and Calvin Graves, who upheld the negative side of the question.

The Debate Council

THE Debate Council is the body selected to manage all student inter-collegiate contests of a forensic nature—oratory and debating—engaged in by the University. Beginning with the scholastic year 1927-28 with the consent of the University Administration, the two Literary Societies, and the student body, the Debate Council was organized in its present form, which is essentially as follows: It is composed of four students and three faculty members—two of the student members are elected by the student body at large and one each is appointed by the two Literary Societies; the three faculty members are appointed by the President of the University. The President of the Debate Council is always a student, and one of the faculty members is always Executive Secretary, the later office continuing from year to year.

The present composition of the Debate Council is as follows: L. Taylor Bledsoe, President; Professor George M. McKie, Executive Secretary; Professor Howard M. Jones; Professor Albert Coates; J. C. Williams; H. B. Parker; and J. M. Mewborn.

A SMASHING triumph in the first game of the season and a triumph in the last game, not as decisive but none-the-less smashing, marked the 1928 football campaign for Carolina.

A four year old nemesis, Wake Forest College, was turned back, rather routed, in the opening game in Kenan Stadium. Every man on the squad participated in the 65-0 triumph of the Tar Heels.

Following this game the Heels invaded Maryland and Massachusetts on successive Saturdays. Against the "Old Liners" the Heels effectively used their passes to win 26-19. However, they met a tartar on Soldiers Field, for the Harvard eleven showed enough power in the first half to score 20 points. The end of the game found the Heels attempting to score and Harvard clinging to its 20 points.

Two fast travelling outfits, one from V. P. I., and the other from Georgia Tech, invaded Kenan Stadium in October and both carried away victories. The "Pony" backfield from Blacksburg liked the turf of the Stadium and they galloped to a 16-14 win. A field goal scored early in the contest proved their margin of victory.

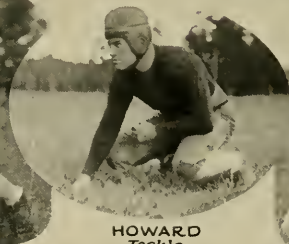

Carrying two All-American players on its roster and boasting the most powerful outfit in the country, Georgia Tech's "Golden Tornado" blew into the Stadium. Before the final whistle sounded, however, the tornado had subsided into a tiny zephyr and the Techmen were clinging to their three touchdowns scored early in the game. Nash featured the contest with the most elusive open field running ever seen in the Stadium. Jackson scored the Carolina touchdowns following a march down the field. Tech won 20-7.

Battered and weary from four successive hard games the Heels met State College. A desperate passing attack late in the game saved the Heels, for Gray caught a long heave from Maus as the whistle sounded to give the Heels a 6-6 tie.

Neither North Carolina nor their southern neighbor, South Carolina, was able to score on the mudsoaked field October 10 and the game ended in a scoreless tie.

Led by the great work of Ray Farris in the line and the work of Spaulding, Magner, Jackson, Wyrick, and Nash behind the line, the Heels crushed Davidson in the second half of the game and won 30-7. The Cats led at the end of the first session 7-6, but the innumerable passes of the Heels sent them down.

Heels through strenuous workouts following the Cat contest. President Coolidge and Governors McLean and Byrd were on hand when the game opened. Virginia, using its long passing game to an advantage, kept close to the Heels throughout, but a pass to Erickson late in the game brought Carolina a 24-20 victory. Sloan led the Cavaliers, while Magner, Nash and Koenig were outstanding for the Heels.

With the state title in balance, Duke and Carolina met December 8. Duke scored early, but Magner and Erickson combined to drive over two touchdowns for the Heels in the last half. Carolina's 14-7 victory brought the State title back to the "Hill" after an absence of two years.

Coaches Collins and Cerney were signed for two years following the Duke contest.

THE SEASON

BEGINNING inauspiciously, rising to great heights, and then crumbling before the attack of a worthy foe distinguishes the 1929 basketball season from previous ones.

The dearth of men of varsity calibre handicapped the Tar Heel mentor from the outset, but persistent work overcame this obstacle. However, the lack of reserve material faced Coach Jim Ashmore throughout the remainder of the season.

Opening against Butler, the Heels found rough going and lost 43-20. The following night found the Phantoms again on the short end of a 43-30 score. For the third successive night Carolina lost, this time to Louisville University 27-19.

However, on meeting Southern Conference opposition, Carolina found its stride and toppled Kentucky 26-19. Continuing to meet Conference opposition and continuing to play better basketball Carolina whipped Tennessee 28-26 at Knoxville.

Examination week interrupted further court activities until the Davidson contest, January 12th. The Heels won their first "Big Five" contest 34-21.

The joy of this victory was short for the South Carolina Gamecocks caught the Heels off guard and whipped them 28-25 in a ragged contest in the Tin Can. Despite this setback Carolina was ready for Wake Forest. Led by "Puny" Harper, Carolina won this game in easy fashion, trimming the Deacons 42-19.

Close upon the heels of this game was the State contest. Playing masterful basketball throughout the Phantoms dropped the Wolfpack 41-32. Goodwin, leading scorer for the Conference was held in check by Harper and Marpet.

The second venture of the Heels into foreign territory proved more successful than the first. Jumping off to a lead, Carolina barely whipped the Georgia Bulldogs 31-29. Captain Hackney and Henry Satterfield led the Carolina attack.

Following this contest the Heels visited Atlanta for a game with the Atlanta Athletic Club. In this contest the Atlanta team completely mastered the Heels, winning 34-18.

Revenge was reaped at the expense of the Gamecocks, however, for in the second game between the two institutions, the Heels were victors, 45-33.

Returning home for two games the Heels handled two visitors from Virginia rather badly, trimming the University's Cavaliers 28-20 in a game devoid of features, and then turning back the Collegians from Blacksburg 33-27.

Duke, boasting one of the speediest teams in the South and carrying three threats in the persons of Croson, Councillor, and Werber, greeted Carolina in the Duke Gym with a rush. Playing great basketball throughout the Devils won 36-20. This setback left Carolina with a narrow lead in the State title race.

The third and last trip before the Conference tournament found Carolina invading Virginia, Maryland, and New Jersey. Playing superior basketball the invaders defeated Virginia 40-25. Moving on to College Park Carolina next handed Maryland a defeat in a close game 28-22. Ending the trip with a contest with Princeton the Heels lost out 20-19.

Four "Big Five" contests remained for Carolina before ending the season with the tournament in Atlanta. Wake Forest showed little to worry Carolina and the Phantoms won 34-10. Playing State in Raleigh Carolina was barely able to nose out a 35-34 win. No more exciting game was ever played in the Tin Can than the second Duke-Carolina game. With the place filled with supporters of the two teams, Carolina grabbed an early lead. Playing its best game Carolina held this lead and when the final whistle cut short a desperate Duke rally Carolina had won 27-24.

Davidson and V. M. I. proved easy for the Phantoms. Scoring almost at will the Heels ran away with the Cats, 45-7. The Cadets proved more troublesome, but the Heels found little to concern them, winning 32-19.

Four days were devoted to preparation for the tournament beginning March 1st. Mississippi A. & M. were the Phantoms' first opponents. Playing bang up basketball the four times winners of the title began well against tournament competition, winning 43-18. At no time were the Heels headed in their quest of a fifth Conference title.

But the hope aroused in the hearts of Tar Heel supporters had little chance to live for Duke apparently was seeking a title in their first venture into Conference competition. Disposing of Alabama after a tough struggle the Devils were prepared for Carolina.

Starting with a flash the Dukemen handed the Heels their worst defeat of the 1929 season. Playing the greatest basketball of their career the eight men Coach Eddie Cameron used swamped the Heels 34-17. Until a great closing rally the Heels were hopelessly outclassed.

But the season could not be called anything but a success. The Carolina coach faced a dismal season from the outset; he moulded a team that bordered on greatness. But while the team had the heart they lacked the ability to stop a team playing unyielding basketball.

So Carolina 1929 courtmen will go down as "Big Five" Champions of North Carolina. Nothing more. Holding a title, but a title somewhat beclouded by State College's Conference Championship and Duke's second honors, the Phantoms closed the 1929 court season. Captain Rufus Hackney, Henry Satterfield, "Red" Price, and George Cathey closed their court play in the White uniforms of North Carolina.

Returning next year will be three men, Harper, Marpet, and Brown, who were regulars during the past season. Added to these will be several men who should prove valuable to Coach Ashmore. Chief among these will be Farleigh and Neiman, forwards, Dameron, center, and Craig, Smith, and Choate, guards. Several freshmen may be used to fill the vacancies caused by the graduation of Satterfield and Hackney.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Led by the redoubtable Johnnie Green, Chicago boy, the 1929 freshman team rounded out a successful season by winning second place in the state freshman title race. Meeting and defeating several of the leading freshman teams from Virginia, and winning from every yearling outfit in the "Big Five" circle in North Carolina the Tar Babies proved to be one of the best freshman teams in the state.

State's wooflets copped the title by winning all but one game, dropping that to the Tar Babies. The Carolina yearlings won from State once, Duke once, and Wake Forest twice to take second place in the championship race. Duke dropped three games, one to Carolina, and two to State.

FOR the seventh successive season the Blue and White of the University of North Carolina reigned supreme on the tracks of the state. But it was not the seventh successive state title that marked the 1928 track season as different from that of preceding years, but it was the fact that for the first time in the history of track at the University, a Carolina track team sought national recognition and attained it.

Beginning with several outstanding men from the 1927 State championship outfit, Coaches Fetzer and Ransom soon had a well rounded outfit representing Carolina on the cinders. The Heels' greatest strength lay in the distance events, for such stars as Captain Pritchett and Galen Elliott of the 1927 team were back in uniform. Added to these two men were Barkley, Fisher, Hen-derston, Evans, Nims, and Harrison. John Pearson, hurdler, and Harper, discus man, remained from the preceding year's outfit. There were others who were to prove valuable to the team before the end of the season.

Opening against the strong Duke team, the Heels demonstrated their superiority over the next most powerful cinder outfit in the state by trimming the Devils 80-46. Although Duke remained on the heels of Carolina during the early part of the meet, the Champions soon outdistanced them and had the meet safe. The feature event of the affair was the two-mile run. Tuttle, Duke star, was doped to give the Carolina Captain a good race in the event, and it appeared that he would give Pritchett his first defeat against North Carolina competition. However, toward the end of the race John Henderson began a sprint that carried him well ahead of the veterans. His time of 9:38 $\frac{1}{5}$ established a new unofficial Southern Conference record.

Two meets were set against Virginia competition the following week. W. & L. proved easy for the Heels, Carolina winning 75 $\frac{5}{6}$ to 47 $\frac{1}{6}$. But in winning this meet the team suffered the loss of Henderson, for the oncoming star fractured his leg during the race.

Meeting Virginia and V. P. I. next Carolina was less fortunate, taking second place to Virginia. The superiority of the Heels in the distance events accounted for many of Carolina's points.

Listed as the "big home meet," the Georgia Teach affair proved to be so. Ed. Hamm, Olympic and World's champion broad-jumper, and Koontz, Conference quarter mile champion, were members of the powerful Teach team. The two teams battled on even terms until the final two events—the high jump and javelin. With Johnny Pearson doing great work in the high jump and all three Carolina hurlers coming through in the javelin Carolina won the meet 72 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 53 $\frac{1}{2}$. Dave Nims' conquest of Koontz in the 440-yard dash featured.

Several relay teams were entered in the Teach Relays by Carolina. Superior Western quartets proved their worth by defeating the Heels.

Undaunted by their failure in the Teach Relays Carolina entered Fisher, Elliott, Pritchett, and Barkley in the Penn Relay

4-Mile relay. Here it was that the Heels demonstrated that they deserved national recognition, for those four men ran away with the four-mile event despite the mud-soaked track.

Entering the State Meet in Greensboro heavy favorites, Carolina almost found a tartar in Duke. Again the superiority in the distance runs shined the Heels across. Elliott and Evans established new records in the mile and half mile, respectively. The latter race proved to be the feature of the meet. Taking the lead early in the race Evans led the entire way, and despite the desperate rally of Woodward of Duke, crossed the finish line in 1:59 2/5.

In the splurge of record breaking at Birmingham, Carolina had its part. Captain Pritchett established a new record in the two-mile run by copping the event in 9 minutes 47 3/5 seconds. Elliott repeated for the third time in the mile run while Fisher placed third in the event. Pearson took second in the high hurdles, while Harper placed second in the discus throw. Cowper scored with a third in the pole vault.

With this meet Carolina ended its 1928 season. Letters were awarded Captain Pritchett, Elliott, Henderson, Barkley, Harrison, Fisher, Nims, Stafford, Evans, Forte, Johnston, Cowper, Adkins, Harper, Pearson, and Smith.

Of the above the following are again representing Carolina on the track: Captain Henderson, Nims, Harrison, Barkley, Fisher, Adkins, Harper, Cowper, Stafford, and Smith. Cox, Perry, and Dry should prove valuable this year, while Gay, Neiman, Baucom, and Bagby from the 1928 freshman team are likely prospects.

The 1928 Season

ALTHOUGH Coach Jim Ashmore had tutored the Tar Heels to a state championship in 1927, little hope was held out for a title in 1928, although several veterans remained from the championship nine.

Opening early against Elon College, Carolina found the going easy and batted out a 11-2 verdict against the Christians.

Following this contest the Carolina nine began their Tri-State League schedule against Maryland. Although pounding the ball all over the lot to win 15-3 in the first game, they couldn't locate the ball as well the day following and barely managed to eke out a 3-2 win.

Pennsylvania University took a close one from the Carolina nine 5-3, but with the entire team functioning almost perfectly Carolina captured the second contest 7-6.

Although finding little trouble hitting the ball the Heels experienced more trouble handling it. Washington and Lee took the third Tri-State game from the Heels on Emerson Field 6-4.

The annual Easter Monday Classic found the Heels facing Davidson College in Salisbury. A 3-0 verdict was rendered in favor of the Tar Heels. "Lefty" Ball did the hurling for Carolina.

Continuing their trip Carolina entered Virginia for a week of games. Rain played havoc with the schedule, cutting it in half. W. & L. again set the Heels back, this time to the tune of 1-0.

The first of the annual three-game series with Virginia followed. Combining Tar Heel hits with Cavalier errors, Carolina won 6-4. Until the fifth inning the Cavaliers had been helpless before the offerings of Fulcher, but at that time they got next to him for three runs. Ellison relieved him then and held the Cavaliers scoreless the remainder of the contest. Mackie led Carolina with two hits.

Maryland and Carolina engaged in a free hitting contest at College Park with Carolina getting the better of the argument, 12-9.

Stopping over a day Carolina shut the V. M. I. Cadets out, winning 7-0.

The second "Big Five" game for Carolina found Wake Forest as the opponents. Continuing their heavy hitting the Heels won 4-1.

V. M. I. invaded Emerson Field for a game and carried away the short end of a 7-5 score.

State with its heavy hitting nine trimmed the Heels in their third "Big Five" contest. Following this contest the Heels entertained Georgia on Emerson Field. The Georgians grabbed everything Carolina offered and carried the big end on a 12-1 score when the game ended.

They were less successful the following afternoon for Carolina played great ball to win 6-5.

Duke continued its great ball playing and manhandled the Heels roughly in the first encounter between the institutions, winning 13-1.

The second game of the Carolina-Virginia series found Captain Stephens of the Cavaliers holding Carolina well in hand. Carolina secured only three hits off the offerings of the Virginia leader. Cardwell and Byrd led the visitors with two hits each.

Closing the series in Greensboro the following afternoon Carolina took the rubber game and the series 8-4. Captain Joe Westmoreland pitched great ball to win. Jumping into an early lead the Heels led throughout, but their big inning was the seventh when 3 runs were shoved across the plate. Jackson featured the defensive play of Carolina, while Luffy, Coxe and Barnhardt led at the bat.

Wake forest was turned back 5-3; but State won 4-2 to end the season.

Prospects are bright for a successful season this spring despite the lack of hurlers. A heavy hitting and sure fielding team is sure to take the field for the Heels. Nap Luffy, leading hitter from the 1928 outfit, is captain of the 1929 nine. Other lettermen in togs are Satterfield, Coxe, Barnhardt, Jessup, and Ball.

The Electric Button---

STEPPING through countless generations, the mythical force which performs magical wonders for the hero of the Arabian Knights is found in the wall switch of every modern home, industrial establishment and business enterprise.

This power today moves mountains with the ease that it whips an egg. There is hardly a task left that cannot be fulfilled completely, more quickly and at a less cost by the use of electric power.

From the energy controlled by the switch on your wall you can light your home, cook your meals, refrigerate your food, sweep your rugs, wash and iron your clothes, pump your water and put a permanent wave in your hair.

And this power, coming to you over copper wires reflects the untiring energy that is maintained that you may have service.

WE endeavor, in producing school annuals, to render a helpful and constructive service directed toward enabling a student staff to get out a representative, distinctive book within their budget.

In connection with our new and modern printing plant we maintain a large Art and Service Department where page borders, cover designs, division pages, and complete decorative and illustrative motifs are created and worked out.
