

EPOCHÉ

Epoché is looking to establish weekend discussion groups/workshops on Sunday afternoons. The general idea is to set up workshops in which ideas can be gathered, exchanged and developed. In these brainstorming sessions artists will be encouraged to develop works in progress, to create new projects or to share in the collaborative process.

The following areas are hypothesized:

- ¶ Literature/poetry discussion groups
- ¶ Philosophy workshop/discussion groups
- ¶ Performance workshops
- ¶ Interdisciplinary workshops

Epoché is looking to transcend the traditional notion of an alternative space. In its place we want to create a meeting place in which an atmosphere of sharing and collaboration is nurtured. By this process we seek to dispel the sobering apathy of the 80's art community.

We invite artists to come discuss more vital alternatives and their implementation. We hope to inject vitality into the community of artists - to combat and confront - to innovate ideas through the process of communication.

¶

....Bringing in the New Decade with a Big Bang

THE SEX SALON

Epoché is planning an erotic art show to explore eroticism through the arts. The show's ambition is to stimulate and to explore the diversity of sexuality in the culture. This month long exhibition will be punctuated by evenings featuring:

- ¶ Tripple XXX home movies and polaroids
- ¶ Sexual show down performances
- ¶ Love poems and provocative true stories

Submissions (anonymous) of letters, movies and polaroids are being sought as are artworks of highly erotic content. Contact Ladislav Czernek at Epoché: 599-1464. Epoché, 397 Whythe, Brooklyn, 11211