JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 9.

AS TO THE LIST OF OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS OF THE LATE WAR.

1 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY, That the Governor, the Secretary of State, the Adjutant General, the Comptroller and the Treasurer, be authorized to cause to be published such number of copies as they may deem proper of the Record of Officers and Soldiers of the late War, now on file in the Adjutant General's Office; that they be directed to make such disposition of the same, upon such plan and in such manner as shall appear to them most judicious and consistent with the public interest.

2. RESOLVED, That the Treasurer be directed to pay upon the warrant of the Comptroller, the expense incurred in carrying the foregoing Resolution into effect.

Approved April 6, 1871.

REPORT OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
 ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
 TRENTON, July 4, 1876. }

TO HIS EXCELLENCY JESSE D. BEELE, GOVERNOR AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF:

SIR:—I have the honor to submit a special report accompanying the published Official Register of Officers and Men of New Jersey in the War of the Rebellion.

Since I was commissioned Adjutant General of this State, in April, 1867, I was directed by Governor MARCUS L. WARD, to prepare a complete and accurate military record of every Soldier and Sailor credited upon the quota of this State during the late War. All necessary arrangements were made and the proper prosecution of this labor and it was commenced at an early day. While our State had published a military record of all the wars of this Republic, a large majority of the States soon after the War had issued complete and reliable records, and by a thorough examination of all these volumes a plan for this Record was adopted. During the administration of Governor THEODORE F. RANDOLPH the preparation of this history was continued, and a Joint Resolution was passed by the Legislature of 1871, authorizing its publication. Since the death of Governor RANDOLPH, and the death of Governor JOEL PARKER, a contract was made by authority of the Commissioners mentioned in the Joint Resolution, to publish the same, and after considerable delay it was commenced. It has been prosecuted only so fast as the great labor of carefully reviewing and verifying the records and the verifying of each record would permit. Even with the greatest care the name of a soldier serving in the War may be spelled very different on different rolls, and there appears to be no way to prove it to be the same individual. The amount now as complete and accurate as it is possible to make it, by a thorough examination and compilation of the data on file in the War and Navy Departments at Washington.

A complete and correct list of the official reports of this office during the War period will be of interest. The first troops called into service in this State was Company A, National Guards of Trenton, for special duty by order of Governor CHARLES S. OLDEN, dated April 16, 1861. The first call was by the proclamation of Governor OLDEN, detaching from the Militia of the State, four regiments to serve for three months. These regiments were mustered in under this call was the Olden Guard, of Trenton, April 23d and within a week thereafter, the four regiments were formed into a brigade, and as such were the first fully organized brigade to reach the National Capital. The regiments were raised in the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th Regiments, New Jersey Militia, and afterward designated the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th Regiments of Infantry.

The first call for troops to serve for three years or during the War was made May 3, 1861. Under this requisition the First, Second and Third New Jersey Brigades were organized and were called the First New Jersey Brigade. Under a second call for troops, July 21, 1861, the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and 8th Regiments of Infantry, and Batteries A and B, Artillery, were raised. The Fourth Regiment and Battery A were attached to the First Brigade, and the remainder formed the Second New Jersey Brigade.

A second call for troops, by the War Department, September 5th, 1861, to organize a regiment of Riflemen, and under this call the Ninth Regiment of Infantry was raised and sent to the field.

The first call of 1861 for regiments, one of Infantry and one of Cavalry were organized independent of the State authorities. On the 22d of October, and February 19, 1862, respectively, they were by direction of the War Department placed under the care of the State. The regiments were designated the Tenth, Regiment Infantry, and the Halsted Cavalry the First Regiment Cavalry, or the Sixteenth Regiment in the Army.

The first call for regiments were organized under a fourth call, July 7, 1862, namely: Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Regiments of Infantry. The organized, equipped and drilled companies of militia in almost every city and town in the State furnished the material for these regiments to recruit rapidly for active service.

Under a fifth call, August 4, 1862, for eleven regiments to be raised in this State to serve for nine months unless sooner discharged. A disposition to avoid a draft was manifested in all parts of the State, and the quota for the call was filled by volunteers and placed in camp by September 3, 1862. The regiments thus organized were the Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Regiments of Infantry.

A sixth call for regiments, the Thirty-first Cavalry, called the Thirty-second Regiment, and Third Cavalry, called the Thirty-sixth Regiment, and the Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth and Fortieth, and Batteries of Artillery, were raised and sent to the field for active service. The Forty-first Regiment of Infantry was commenced but was discontinued before it was sent to the field.

The first call for regiments during the War thirty-seven regiments of Infantry, three regiments of Cavalry and one regiment consisting of three batteries of Artillery. At the close of the War they were returned to the State for discharge, excepting the Thirty-fourth Infantry, which was discharged on April 30, 1865.

A seventh call for regiments, the Thirty-first Cavalry, included Pennsylvania, in June, 1863, universal alarm was created throughout the entire North and West, and Governor CURTIS of Pennsylvania, by Governor CURTIS of Pennsylvania, to the Governors of neighboring States June 15, 1863, calling for regiments to serve for thirty days, to aid in repelling the invasion. Under this call a large number of regiments were raised in New Jersey. The Twenty-third and Twenty-seventh Regiments of Infantry, nine regiments of Cavalry, and one regiment of Artillery, were raised for the emergency. A similar call was made by Governor PARKER July 12, 1863, when the Governor of Maryland, Governor CURTIS of Pennsylvania, Maryland or District of Columbia, to serve for thirty days. One company responded, did the duty of a regiment, and was discharged on August 1st.

The following statement as appears by the report of this office for 1865, exhibits the number of men called for, the number of men furnished by this State and the term of enlistment, from April 17, 1861 to April 29, 1865:

Number of Men furnished for four years,	155
Number of Men furnished for three years,	12,573
Number of Men furnished for two years,	2,243
Number of Men furnished for one year,	16,812
Number of Men furnished for nine months,	10,787
Number of Men furnished for three months,	3,105
Number of Men furnished for one hundred days,	700
Number of Men furnished not classified,	2,973
Credited to State,	79,348
Furnished but not credited,	8,957
Total,	88,305
Total number of Men called for,	78,248
Surplus over all calls,	10,057

During the War, three thousand nine hundred and eighty one (3,981) Commissions were issued by the State to Officers in New Jersey Organizations.

During the Winter of 1863 and 1864, by authority from the War Department, a large number of Men belonging to New Jersey Regiments and in active service, were re-enlisted in the field for three years or during the War, and many men belonging in this State, who had served in regiments of other States, were re-enlisted to the credit of New Jersey.

More men offered their services than the State had authority to accept, and so those who, although they had preferred to enlist in New Jersey Organizations, went into regiments of other States, the Excelsior Brigade of New York, the Forty-eighth New York Infantry, the One Hundred and Twelfth Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery, the Eleventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, First New York Cavalry, &c., &c., and the State lost the credit on her quota.

A large number of men residents of this State entered the service to the credit of the State, in organizations entirely under the control of the general Government. Under the provisions of a proclamation of the President of the United States, January 1, 1863, the enrollment of Colored men in the Army and Navy was authorized. This State had no regiments of Colored troops, but such as were enlisted to the credit of the State were forwarded to the general Rendezvous, at Philadelphia, Pa., for muster in and assignment to regiments of United States Colored Troops. The State lost credit for a large number of Colored men, they having entered the service in the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Massachusetts Infantry, First Rhode Island Heavy Artillery, &c.

The Veteran Reserve Corps was instituted under authority from the War Department, April 28, 1863, and was composed of Officers and enlisted Men who had been in active service but were disqualified for duty in the field by reason of disability, or wounds received in the line of duty. Very many availed themselves of this opportunity, enlisted therein and were credited on the quota of the State.

Under orders from the War Department, November 28, 1861, Hancock's Corps, United States Volunteers, was organized, to be composed entirely of those who had served in the Army not less than two years. A large number of men of this State enlisted in this branch of the service and were placed to the credit of the State.

Under the direction of the War Department, January 19, 1861, recruiting offices for the enlistment of men for the Regular Army of the United States were established in different places in the State. A large number of men were enrolled for this service, and were forwarded to their respective regiments. The State also obtained credit for a large number of men who had been previously recruited, such as Hospital Stewards, General Service, Engineer Corps, Ordnance Corps, Signal Corps, &c.

Under existing orders governing enlistments and credits, the State received no credit for those entering the Naval and Marine service prior to February 21, 1864. Under the provisions of an Act of Congress approved July 4, 1861, it is provided that all persons in the Naval service of the United States, who entered said service during the present Rebellion, who were not credited by reason of their being in said service, and not enrolled prior to February 24, 1864, shall be enrolled and credited upon the quota of the State in which they resided, upon satisfactory proof to the Secretary of War of their residence. The credits due this State under this act were determined by a commission of two, of whom the State named one and the Secretary of War the other. One thousand nine hundred and five (1,905) recruits of this class were credited by the commission, but this number was subsequently increased to four thousand eight hundred and fifty-three (4,853).

On the first of February, 1864, the President issued a call for five hundred thousand men. The quota of this State was fixed by the War Department, and a draft ordered, one in May and one in September. The draft was made but as a large number of those subject to draft had volunteered and had been placed to the credit of the State, very few were called into the service in this manner.

By an Act of the Legislature, May 11, 1861, the payment of State pay was authorized, of two dollars per month for single men and six dollars per month to the families of volunteers in the service. This was disbursed through county, township and city officials. The sum expended during the War to discharged soldiers and families of deceased soldiers, amounted to five hundred and fifty-five thousand eight hundred and forty dollars and sixty-three cents ($555,846.63), and to families and dependent mothers, one million seven hundred and sixty one thousand five hundred and thirty-three dollars and ninety-five cents ($1,761,533.95), total two millions three hundred and seven-thousand three hundred and seventy-four dollars and fifty-eight cents ($2,317,374.58). State pay was allowed—

I. To the wife, dependent children or widowed mother of enlisted men (including drafted men and substitutes) in New Jersey Volunteer Organizations, from date of enlistment to date of discharge, death or desertion, provided they resided in this State when the soldier enlisted.

II. To the wife, dependent children or widowed mother of enlisted men credited to New Jersey, who joined the United States Navy, Marine Corps or United States Colored Troops, from March 31, 1865 (date of passage of the Act,) to date of discharge, death or desertion, provided they resided in this State March 31, 1865.

III. To the wife, dependent children or widowed mother of enlisted men credited to New Jersey, who re-enlisted in the United States Army, or volunteer organizations of other States, from date of re-enlistment to date of discharge, death or desertion, provided, they resided in this State at the time of said re-enlistment.

IV. To the dependent mother of enlisted men credited to New Jersey, from March 31, 1865, to date of discharge, death or desertion, provided, she resided in this State March 31, 1865 (date of passage of the act)

V. To single men credited to New Jersey, from date of enlistment to May 1, 1864,—date of increase of pay to the Soldier by the general Government—except in case of previous discharge, death or desertion.

A system was adopted for the transmission of money through this office, from the troops in the field to their families at home, and in this manner a total disbursement was made of two millions two hundred and seventy five thousand nine hundred and eighty nine dollars ($2,275,989).

The State paid no bounties for Recruits, but bounties were offered by county, township and ward authorities on certificate of muster in to the United States service. It is estimated, that in this way, local bounties were paid in New Jersey, of more than twenty-three millions of dollars ($23,000,000).

During the War, Hospitals were established in this State, one at Jersey City, two at Newark, "Ward" and "Centre Street," one at Beverly and one at Trenton Barracks, Trenton.

Two National Cemeteries have been established in this State, one at Newark and one at Beverly. Within the Cemetery at Beverly, a hand some monument has been erected by authority of the Legislature, and at the expense of the State.

OFFICERS AND MEN OF NEW JERSEY

It is well to note here the fact not often stated, in regard to the authority for the muster out of troops at the close of the War, at different dates and places. All these orders for discharge were under the provisions of General Orders No. 77, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1865, for the general reduction of the Army. The instructions of May 3, 1865, were for the muster out of men at the head of May 4 for men in Hospitals, of May 12, for Paroled Prisoners; General Orders No. 83, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 8, 1865, for reducing the Cavalry arm of the service, and General Orders No. 105, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, June 2, 1865, for a reduction of Volunteer Artillery.

In the regiments raised in 1864 and 1865, and among the men forwarded in those years to older organizations, a very large number of deserters appear. This should not in any case bring discredit on these organizations. A very large proportion of these men, who were Drafted men and Substitutes deserted in going from the State to the Rendezvous, at Alexandria, Va., or deserted there before being sent to the companies and regiments to which they had been assigned. The records of this office show the enrollment of a large number of Substitutes, and of their assignment to regiments, but their record after enrollment is unknown. The officers of these regiments knew nothing about these men, and they are not borne upon their regimental rolls.

During the War several Camps of Rendezvous for new organizations were for a time located in different parts of the State. In May, 1862, Camp Perrine, Trenton, was established. In 1863, it was converted into a general Rendezvous for the reception and forwarding of all Recruits, Drafted men and Substitutes received from the many Recruiting Agencies throughout the State.

In February, 1863, a State Agent, to reside in Washington, D. C., was appointed, with instructions to look after the interests of New Jersey, and of the troops belonging thereto, and being close to the scene of active operations, was in constant communication with the several departments of the Government, with the troops at the front, as well as those in the many Hospitals in the vicinity, and was the means of relieving the wants of the Soldiers, especially the sick and wounded. Volunteer Surgeons and Nurses were forwarded to the Army from time to time as their services were required, and Hospital and Sanitary stores transported for the use of the sick and wounded.

The reputation of New Jersey Troops was fully sustained during the entire War, being represented on all the principal battlefields. The First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty first, Twenty second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, Thirty seventh, Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Regiments Infantry, the Sixteenth (First Cavalry), Thirty-sixth (Third Cavalry) and First Regiment Artillery, served in Virginia; the Ninth Regiment Infantry served in North Carolina and Virginia; the Thirtieth, Twenty-seventh, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth Regiments Infantry, the Thirty-second (Second Cavalry) Regiment, served in the West and Southwest.

Under an Act of Congress awarding Medals of Honor for conspicuous bravery, quite a number of New Jersey Soldiers' were the recipients of this recognition of their service. The State by a Joint Resolution of the Legislature, March 27, 1866, also presented to all honorably discharged Soldiers and Sailors of this State, and to the widows and orphans of those who were killed or died in the service an "Honorable Testimonial".

In the preparation of this work I have received great aid at times from the Officials of the War and Navy Departments. Wherever the record of any Soldier seemed unreliable by reason of the disagreement of different vouchers, an application to these Departments made the record complete. I am under great obligations to them for prompt and reliable information.

The accurate list of burials of Soldiers of this State in National Cemeteries has been corrected up to the present date, and to this I am greatly indebted to the courtesy of a most efficient Officer of the Government, Captain A. F. ROCKWELL, Assistant Quarter Master, United States Army in charge of National Cemeteries. The records of the office show that two hundred and eighteen (218) Officers, and six thousand and eighty two (6,082) enlisted Men were killed or died in the service. Total, six thousand three hundred (6,300).

I cannot close without referring to the efficient labors of my assistants in this office. From the commencement to the completion of this compilation seven persons have aided in its preparation. To two gentlemen, however, Mr. WILLIAM N. NUTT, and Mr. JAMES S. KIGER, who, in addition to the routine business of the office, and the labor of preparation and publication during this period, of a record of Jersey men in the Revolutionary War, have worked most faithfully and successfully to make this volume complete and accurate. To them, I must accord much of the praise which, I trust, this work merits.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM S. STRYKER,
Brevet Major General and Adjutant General of New Jersey.

IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION.

On the 15th day of April, 1861, the Proclamation of the President of the United States was published, calling for 75,000 of the Militia of the several States, under the Act of Congress, approved February 28th, 1795, to "suppress insurrection." On the 17th day of April, a requisition from the War Department for the quota of this State was received by the Governor. His proclamation and order to detach one Regiment from each of the four Military Divisions of the State, was issued the same day. (Adjutant General's Report for 1861.) The first company reported April 23d, and in seven days the four Regiments were completed.

NEW JERSEY BRIGADE--MILITIA.

The Brigade, consisting of the First, Second, Third and Fourth Regiments, was mustered into the service of the United States, at Trenton, May 1, 1861, by Major THEODORE T. S. LAIDLEY and Lieut. ALFRED T. A. TORBERT, U. S. Army. On the 3d day of May the Brigade left the State, arrived at Annapolis, Md., May 5th, and reported to the President, at Washington, D. C., the following day, being the first fully organized Brigade to arrive for the defence of the National Capital. At the battle of Bull Run, Va., July 21st, 1861, the Brigade was held as a reserve, but not engaged. On the expiration of their term of service, the Brigade returned to New Jersey, for muster out.

NEW JERSEY VOLUNTEERS.

The second call for troops was made by the President of the United States, May 31, 1861, and on the 15th day of that month a resolution for Three Regiments of Infantry (Volunteers) to serve for three years or during the war, and General Orders No. 15, War Department Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 14th, 1861, giving the plan of organization, was received by the Governor of this State. A sufficient number of companies having already offered their services, the Governor informed the Secretary of War the following day (May 18th) that the three regiments called for were ready for muster. These organizations were designated respectively the First, Second and Third Regiment. Under the provisions of an act of Congress, approved July 23d, 1861, and an official letter from the President, dated July 21th, 1861, authority was issued for the raising of five additional regiments—under this call the Fourth Regiment and Battery A were organized, and assigned to duty with the three regiments already raised and in the field. These organizations constituted and were generally known as the First Brigade New Jersey Volunteers.

Brigade Band.

Under an Act of Congress, as promulgated in General Orders, No. 91, Act 10, Section 5, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 29th, 1862, the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 23d, 1861, authorizing Bands of twenty-four men each to be raised and to be attached to each Regiment, was repealed. Section 6, same act, authorized the raising of Bands of sixteen musicians to be attached to each Brigade in the U. S. service, to be known as Brigade Bands. Under the provisions of said act, the Band attached to the Brigade was raised. They remained in service until the close of the war, and were mustered out at Hall's Hill, Va., under the provisions of General Orders, No. 2, Headquarters Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac, July 7, 1865.

Second Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

was organized by the Adjutant General's Office, No. 15, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 15th day of May, and on the 26th day of the same month sailed for the United States, for three years, at Camp Obden, Trenton, N. J., by MAJOR THEODORE T. S. LAIDLAY, U. S. Army, Adjutant General's Office, No. 15, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25th, 1861. The Regiment was in the field for three years of the war; those who did not re-enlist were mustered out at expiration of service, at Newark, N. J., on May 11th, 1864. The 11th Infantry, U. S. Army, June 21, 1861—while those whose term of service did not expire with the expiration of the war were temporarily assigned to duty with the 15th Regiment, under orders issued May 29th, 1864, and so continued to serve with the 15th Regiment until they were consolidated into what was known as Co. A, 2d Battalion, and so remained until the early part of 1865, when the Regiment was reorganized and fully completed by the forwarding of large numbers of recruits, substitutes and drafted men, and reorganized with Company B, which was mustered into service, at Trenton, N. J., April 11, 1865, for one year, by JAMES W. LONG, Adjutant General's Office, U. S. Army, and continued its organization until its muster out at Hall's Hill, Va., July 11, 1865, by A. M. TYLER, Major and Assistant Commissary of Masters, First Division, Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac, in compliance with orders from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 7, 1865.

The Regiment participated in the Four Regiments composing what was generally known as the First Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers, and was first attached to General Rungtson's Division of Reserves (Militia) at the Battle of Bull Run, Va., July 21, 1861; then to the First Brigade, First Army Corps, Franklan's Division, afterward to the First Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps, then to the First Brigade, First Division, Sixth Army Corps, and at the close of the war was assigned to what was known as the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Bull Run, Va., July 21, '61; West Point, Va., May 7, '62; Golden's Farm, Va., June 27, '62; Charles City Cross Roads, Va., June 30, '62; Malvern Hill, Va., July 1, '62; Manassas, Va., Aug. 27, '62; Antietam, Md., Sept. 14, '62; Antietam, Md., Sept. 17, '62; Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Gettysburg, Pa., July 2 and 3, '63; Fairfield, Pa., July 5, '63; Rappahannock Station, Va., Oct. 12, '63; Rappahannock Station, Va., Nov. 7, '63; Spotsylvania, Va., May 8 to 10, '61; Spotsylvania C. OFFICERS AND MEN OF NEW JERSEY

Fourth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

1. The 4th Regiment was authorized by an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 21, 1861, and from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861, and ordered to be organized by the 19th day of August, at which time it was duly mustered into the service of the United States by CAPTAIN ALFRED T. A. TORBERT and CAPTAIN DAVID B. MCKINNON, U. S. Army. It was organized at New York City, August 27, 1861, with a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non Commissioned Officers and Privates, 874; Total, 912. It was assigned to the Brigade of Brigadier General Kearny—then consisting of the First, Second and Third New Jersey Volunteers. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 194, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., August 18, 1861, the greater part of the Regiment re-embarked in the field, for three years or during the war: those who were discharged were first sent out at expiration of service in the field, at various dates and places, by CAPTAIN GEORGE M. STOKES, First Division, Sixth Army Corps, while those who were absent by authority, reported to the War Department by CAPTAIN JOHN W. LANE, Second Infantry, U. S. Army. During the fall and winter of 1861, the 4th Regiment was mustered out by the forwarding of a large number of Reenlistments and Substitutes. The Regiment returned to New York City, January 31, 1862, and was mustered out at Half's Hill, Va., July 9, 1865, by CAPTAIN GEORGE M. STOKES, First Division, Provisional Corps, in compliance with orders from War Department, Washington, D. C., July 1st, 1865.

2. The 4th Regiment composed what was generally known as the First Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers, First Division, Franklin's Division, afterward to the First Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps: (U. Fifth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Fifth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the War Department, Washington, D. C., July 21, 1861, and from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. It was organized and mustered into the service of the United States by the 22d day of August, at which time it was duly mustered into the service of the United States by Captain T. H. N. J., by CAPTAIN ALFRED T. A. TORBERT, U. S. Army. It left the State, August 29, 1861, for Washington, D. C., and there remained until the early part of December, 1861, at which time, in connection with the other regiments, they were ordered to report, under command of Colonel Samuel H. Starr, the senior officer, to the War Department, near Bull's Ferry, Md., where they were brigaded and known as the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division. A was disbanded, and the officers and enlisted men were assigned by transfer to different companies in the Third Brigade, as issued from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., a new Company A, of three companies, was raised, mustered and forwarded to the Regiment in the field, on or about the 1st of October, 1862. Under orders No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a number of the men were discharged. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported by orders No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., September 7th, 1861. During the war, the Regiment lost a large number of substitutes were forwarded to and joined the Regiment. These men, with those who had not expired, were assigned to what was known as Companies A, B, C and D, Fifth Battalion, and on November 6th, 1861, at which time they were transferred to and consolidated with the Seventh Regiment, and assigned to Companies No. 375, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., October 31, 1861, and by reason of the same, the Regiment ceased to exist.

The Regiment was composed of four Regiments composing what was generally known as the Second Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers, and the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division; afterwards to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Third Corps; then to the First Division, Second Corps, and then to the Third Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

Sixth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Sixth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 24, 1861, and from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 19th day of August, at which time it was duly mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., by CHARLES H. BURGHERLY, 1st Lieutenant 10th Infantry, U. S. Army. It left the State, September 10, 1861, with a full complement of men—Officers, 58; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 860. Total 918. Upon arrival at Washington, the Regiment went into camp at Meridian Hill, D. C., and there remained until the early part of December, 1861, at which time, in connection with the Fifth, Seventh and Eighth Regiments, they were ordered to report, under command of Colonel Samuel H. Starr, Fifth Regiment, (the senior officer,) to General Joseph Hooker, U. S. Volunteers, near Budd's Ferry, Md., where they were brigaded and designated the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a number of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the field, for three years or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by CAPTAIN JAMES W. LONG, Second Infantry, U. S. Army, September 7, 1861. During the months of August and September, 1861, a large number of substitutes were forwarded to and joined the Regiment. These men, with those who had re-enlisted and those whose term of service had not expired, were assigned to what was known as Companies A, B and C, Sixth Battalion, and continued their organization until October 12, 1861, at which time they were transferred to and consolidated with the Eighth Regiment, under the provisions of Special Orders, No. 313, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., September 22, 1861, and by reason of such transfer the Regiment as an organization ceased to exist.

This Regiment constituted one of the Four Regiments composing what was generally known as the Second Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers, and was first attached to the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division; afterward to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Third Corps; then to the First Brigade, Fourth Division, Second Corps; then to the Third Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

The regiment took part in the following engagements: Siege of Yorktown, Va., April and May, '62; Williamsburg, Va., May 5, '62; Fair Oaks, Va., June 1 and 2, '62; Seven Pines, Va., June 25, '62; Savage Station, Va., June 29, '62; Glendale, Va., June 30, '62; Malvern Hill, Va., July 1, '62; Moburn Hill, Va., August 5, '62; Bristow Station, Va., August 27, '62; Ball Run, Va., August 29 and 30, '62; Chantilly, Va., Sept. 1, '62; Centreville, Va., Sept. 2, '62; Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 3 and 4, '63; Gettysburg, Pa., July 2 and 3, '63; Happing Heights, Va., July 24, '63; McLean's Ford, Va., Oct. 15, '63; Mud Run, Va., Nov. 29, 30, and Dec. 1, '63; Wilderness, Va., May 5 to 7, '64; Spotsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; *Spotsylvania C. OFFICERS AND MEN OF NEW JERSEY

Seventh Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Seventh Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the Secretary of War, State, and Washington, D. C., July 21, 1861, and from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. The Regiment was first organized and equipped by the 31 day of September, and although the strength of the Regiment was 2,000 men, it was only mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., by Major General First Lieutenant, Fourth Infantry, U. S. Army. At the urgent request of the Government that the Regiment be sent to the front, seven companies were dispatched to Washington, September 19th, and reported for duty the following day; the balance of the Regiment was recruited up to the number required, and left the State October 31, and joined the Regiment at Washington, October 27, 1861. Officers, 88; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 882. Total, 970. Upon arrival at Washington the Regiment was quartered at Mt. Vernon Hill, D. C., and there remained until the early part of December, 1861, at which time, in connection with the 2d, 3d and 4th Regiments, they were ordered to report under command of Colonel Samuel H. Starr, Fifth Regiment, (the senior Colonel of the U. S. Army, U. S. Volunteers, near Bull's Ferry, Md., where they were brigaded and designated the Third Brigade, Potomac Division. In the spring of 1862 Company B was disbanded, and the enlisted men were assigned by transfer to different Companies in the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th Regiments of the 3d Brigade, Potomac Division, and in the fall of 1862 they were again organized as Special Orders, No. 134, Par. 7, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., and the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th Companies, commanded by Captain Edward G. Sloat, then at Alexandria, Va., was assigned to the Regiment, and the 5th Company, commanded by Captain C. H. Felt, at the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 22, 1862, was organized. The enlisted men re-enlisted in the field, for three years or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose names were not in the muster roll were reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by JAMES W. LLOYD, Captain Second Infantry, U. S. Army, October 17, 1864. Those who remained were consolidated into and were known as the Seventh Battalion, and so remained until the 6th of February, 1865, when this Fifth Battalion was joined to it by transfer. The command was then re-organized and resumed its regimental organization. A large number of substitutes were taken during the years 1861 and 1865, the strength of the Regiment was augmented by the joining from Draft Registers of Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of substitutes. The Regiment continued its organization until the close of the war, and those who were discharged in the provisions of General Orders 26, Headquarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were discharged at Washington, D. C., and the remainder were mustered out of service near Washington, D. C., July 17, 1865, by THOMAS W. KELLY, Captain 16th Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Munitions, Second Division, Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac, in accordance with orders from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 7, 1865.

The Regiment was part of the Four Regiments composing what was generally known as the Second Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers, and was attached to the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division; afterward to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Third Corps; then to the First Division, Second Corps, then to the Third Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps; and at the close of the war was attached to the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

OFFICERS AND MEN OF NEW JERSEY

Ninth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

Under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the War Department, dated September 5, 1861, authorizing the raising and organizing of a Regiment of Riflemen. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, the raising and organizing of the Regiment of Riflemen was commenced, and as soon as the Companies were raised they reported at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., on September 13, 1861, and were organized into ten Companies by CHARLES H. BURNSIDE, First Lieutenant Fourth Infantry, U. S. Army, on September 13th, the last Company October 15, 1861. The Regiment consisting of twelve Companies was organized and reported its organization until the 14th of December, 1861, at which time it left the State with the National Guard, consisting of Officers and Privates, 1,115. Total, 1,159. Upon arrival at Washington, the Regiment was quartered at a table from the city, and remained there until the 14th of January, 1862, at which time it was sent to the base of the Burnside Expedition, proceeded to Annapolis, Md., and joined the troops assembled there for the purpose of attacking the States of North Carolina. On January 9th, the expedition embarked, in the time arrived at their destination, and commenced their operations. Their operations were confined to the States of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. In compliance with General Orders, No. 126, Par. 1, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, dated August 28, 1862, the Regiment was reduced from twelve to ten Companies. Companies A and L were disbanded and the Companies were re-designated in the Regiment. Company M was designated Company A. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 126, Par. 1, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, the greater part of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the Regiment. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired reported by order at Trenton, N. J., on July 1, 1863, Captain Second Infantry, U. S. Army, December 7, 1864. At different times during the years 1864 and 1865, the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Remtezevons, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of men. The Regiment on the 1st of January, 1865, contained 1,115 men, and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming from the State of New Jersey were mustered in the Headquarters Department of North Carolina, dated Raleigh, N. C., June 2, 1865, were mustered on the 1st of July, 1865, by A. B. SMITH, Captain 100th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, Commissary of Musters, Twenty-ninth Army Corps, and discharged out of service by the same officer, at Greensboro, N. C., July 12, 1865, in compliance with the provisions of an Act of Congress, dated July 9, 1865.

OFFICERS AND MEN OF NEW JERSEY

Tenth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and by authority issued by the War Department, the 10th Regiment of Infantry, resident of this State, and not in any way under the control or supervision of the State, was organized by the War Department, and its organization soon completed. It was then accepted by the War Department, and was designated the "Olden Legion." The Regiment went into camp at Beverly, New Jersey, on December 26, 1861, with a full complement of men—Officers, 35; Non-Commissioned Officers, 185; and 1,800 privates. On the 29th of January, 1862, the Regiment was ordered to Camp Clay on the Bladenburg turnpike, one mile from Washington. On the 29th of February, 1862, the Regiment was transferred to New Jersey Volunteers. On the 8th of April, 1862, Company G, which had been recruited at Trenton, N. J., was ordered to be mustered, by orders from the War Department. A Company of Infantry to fill the vacancy was ordered to be recruited at Trenton, N. J., on June 12, 1862. The greater part of the early service of the Regiment was performed in and around Washington, D. C., until the 12th of April, 1863, the Regiment was detached and proceeded to Philadelphia, Pa., in anticipation of the operations of the enemy at that point. Again detached in July, 1863, to Philadelphia, Pa., in anticipation of the operations of the enemy at that point. Again detached in the Fall of 1863 to the mining regions of Pennsylvania, to suppress the continuous rioting of the negroes. On the 12th of April, 1864, the Regiment was assigned to active duty with the Army of the Potomac, and proceeded to Washington, D. C., where it was attached to the First New Jersey Brigade. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a very large number of the enlisted men re-enlisted for three years or during the war, and those who had expired and were with the Regiment, but did not re-enlist, were mustered out in the field, at the expiration of their term of service, and were also at by authority reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by Captain James M. Peck, U. S. Army. At different times during the years 1863 and 1864, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the enlistment of recruits, and in 1865 by a large number of substitutes. The Regiment consisted of 1,800 men at the close of the war, when those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, dated May 17, 1865, were mustered out at Hall's Hill, Va., June 22, 1865, by Major A. M. Tyler, U. S. Army, First Division, Eighth Army Corps. The remainder were mustered out of service by the same officer, at Hall's Hill, Va., June 22, 1865, by Special Orders, No. 158, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated June 22, 1865. The Regiment was assigned to the First New Jersey Brigade, First Division, Sixth Corps; and at the close of the war was assigned to the First New Jersey Brigade, First Division, Sixth Corps; and at the close of the war was assigned to the First New Jersey Brigade, First Division, Sixth Corps.

Eleventh Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Eleventh Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and by permission granted the President for the raising of a regiment in anticipation of a call soon to be issued by the President for more regiments of volunteers. The raising of the Eleventh Regiment for the purpose of the war was commenced in May, 1862, and continued until the issue of a call by the President for more regiments of volunteers, Washington, D. C., July 7, 1862, for three hundred thousand additional volunteers, to serve for three years or the duration of the war. At this time four hundred men had been recruited and were then encamped at Camp Ferrine, Trenton, N. J. On the 18th day of August, 1862, the Eleventh Regiment was received from the War Department, Washington, D. C., calling for five regiments of infantry from this State, and was organized and the provisions of General Orders No. 75, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., August 18, 1862, were complied with. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 18th day of August, 1862, and was assigned to the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Ferrine, Trenton, N. J., by LIEWELLYN HAYES, Major, Adjutant, U. S. Army. It left the State August 25, 1862, and reported at Washington, D. C., the day following, with a full complement of officers and men, and 160 of November, when it was attached to the Brigade of General Carr, Sickles' Division, and participated in the operations of the Army of the Potomac. At different times during the year 1864, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the arrival of recruits and those coming under the provisions of General Orders No. 26, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, May 17, 1865, were mustered out near Washington, D. C., June 6, 1865, by CHARLES H. HAYES, Captain First Regiment Massachusetts Heavy Artillery, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Third Division, Second Army Corps, the remainder were transferred to the Department of the Army with Special Orders No. 142, Par. 3, Current Series, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated June 5, 1865, and were mustered out with the Regiment.

The Regiment was assigned to the First Brigade, Second Division, Third Corps; then to the First Brigade, (Second N. J. Brigade), Second Division, Third Corps, then to the Third Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

The Regiment participated in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 3 and 4 '63; Gettysburg, Pa., July 1, '63; Wheatfield, Pa., July 21, '63; Kelly's Ford, Va., Nov. 8, '63; Locust Grove, Va., Nov. 27, '63; Mine Run, Pa., Dec. 19, '63; Beaver Dam, Va., May 5 to 7, '64; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; *Spottsylvania, C. Twelfth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twelfth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress approved July 22, 1862, and under authority of the President of the United States dated Washington, D. C., July 7, 1862, for three months' service in the field, to be extended as long as necessary or during the war. This Regiment was one of the five regiments reported to the Department of State as being authorized by the President to be raised and received from the War Department dated July 8, 1862. The raising of the Regiment was authorized by the President under the provisions of the provisions of General Orders No. 75, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 22, 1862. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 14th day of September, 1862, at Camp Stockton, near Woodbury, New Jersey, by Captain W. H. C. Brown, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C. The Regiment was assigned to duty under General Wood, commanding the Second Army Corps, and was ordered to march to Washington, D. C., on arrival at Baltimore, Md., and by reason of the threatened invasion of Pennsylvania and Maryland, the Regiment was ordered to march to Washington, D. C., on the 10th of December, 1862, in compliance with orders from the War Department, Washington, D. C. The Regiment proceeded to Washington and reported the following day, and on the 14th proceeded to meet the Army of the Potomac at Centerville, Md., on the 20th, and at once entered upon active duty. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865, transfers of officers and enlisted men were made by the joining from Dratt Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits, including officers and enlisted men, from the Pennsylvania State Troop, and the Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the issue of the war, as hereinafter shown by the following General Orders, No. 26, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, was transferred to Camp Meade, Md., on June 1, 1865, and Harvey Y. Russell, Captain Tenth Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissioner of Military Affairs, New York State, and Captain W. H. C. Brown, Captain 10th Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissioner of Military Affairs, New York State, were ordered to report to the Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C.

The Regiment was first attached to the Second Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps, then to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Second Corps; and at the close of the war was attached to what was known as the Provisional Cavalry, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Chowan Bay, Va., May 3 and 4, '63; Castle Point, Va., May 2, 1863; Fort Watson, Md., Nov. 13, '63; Liburn Mills, Va., Oct. 11, '63; Battle Station, Va., Oct. 11, '63; Red Bank, Va., Oct. 11, '63; Richmond, Va., Nov. 27, '63; Manassas, Va., Nov. 28, 29, and 30, '63; Mathews Point, Va., Feb. 10, '64; Richmond, Va., May 7, '64; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; *Spottsylvania C. Fourteenth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Fourteenth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under a call issued by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 7, 1862, for three hundred thousand additional volunteers to serve for three years or during the war. This Regiment was one of the five regiments required as the quota of this State under this call, as set forth in a circular received from the War Department, dated July 8, 1862. The raising of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and was completed by the 1st of August, 1862, in conformity with General Orders, No. 73, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated July 8, 1862. The Regiment was organized and equipped and ordered by the 26th day of August, 1862, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States at Fort Monmouth, near Freehold, N. J., by WILLIAM B. RYLAND, Captain Fifth Regiment Cavalry, United States Army, with a full complement of commissioned and non-commissioned officers and privates, 968. Total, 1,067. It left the State September 2, 1862, en route for Washington, D. C. Upon arrival at Baltimore, Md., the Regiment was dispatched to Frederick Junction, Md., on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, to guard the bridge across Monocacy River, the advance of General Lee's army having entered Maryland. The Regiment remained in this duty engaged in guard duty, and assisted in protecting threatened and exposed points along the upper Potomac, until the 9th day of July, 1863, when it was assigned to the Third Army Corps, marched to the front and joined the main Army. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865 the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Headquarters, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits. The Regiment was re-organized and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 2, Headquarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were mustered out near Washington, D. C., June 18, 1865, by J. C. ROBERTS, Brigadier Major and Assistant Commissary of Musters, Third Division, Sixth Army Corps. The remainder were transferred to the Second Regiment of Cavalry, with Special Orders, No. 171, Army of the Potomac, dated June 18, 1865, and were mustered out with that Regiment.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Middle Division, Eighth Corps; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Third Corps; and to the First Brigade, Third Division, Sixth Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Manassas Gap, Va., July 17, '63; Whipping Heights, Va., July 24, '63; Culpepper, Va., Aug. 22, '63; Passapatanz, Va., Oct. 14, '63; Kelly's Ford, Va., Nov. 7, '63; Brandy Station, Va., Nov. 8, '63; Locust Grove, Va., Nov. 27, '63; Monocacy, Va., Nov. 29, '63; Wilderness, Va., May 4 to 7, '64; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; *Spottsylvania C. On the 10th day of Aug. 8, 1862 a draft of three hundred thousand Militia was ordered by the President, to be immediately called into the service of the United States to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged. Regulations for the draft were soon after received from the War Department which provided that an enrollment be immediately made of all able bodied male citizens between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five years, and assigned the quota of this State to be ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men. By a subsequent order it was ordered that the draft as ordered by the President be made on Wednesday, the 3d day of September, between the hours of 9 o'clock, A. M., and 12 o'clock, P. M., and to be continued from day to day until completed. To meet this demand the assessors were called upon for a correct enumeration of the State for military duty, and to ensure certainty, the same was required of the Brigade Commanders. The enrollment having been made, General Order No. 1, dated, Office of Adjutant General, Trenton, N. J., August 19, 1862, setting forth the quota required for each County and Township, was issued. It was also announced that volunteers in lieu of drafted men would be received up to the 15th of September. A general desire was manifested throughout the State to fill this quota by voluntary enlistment, and thus avoid the draft. This desire was promptly and energetically met by the proper State officials, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops, volunteer companies were authorized to be organized, and provisions for their reception were established in five different localities. The result was a full quota of men for the opening of September 3d, the day appointed for commencing the draft, the War Department was officially notified that the quota required of this State was in Camp without a single drafted man, and their acceptance urged. The men thus raised were organized into seven regiments of Infantry, and designated the Twenty-first to the Thirty-first Regiments, inclusive.

Twenty-first Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-first Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, was received by the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and on September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State was to be met by voluntary enlistment throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota of the Twenty-first Regiment to be voluntarily enlisted, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The Twenty-first Regiment served in the United States for nine months, at Trenton, N. J., by FRANK D. HOWELL, First Lieutenant Seventeenth New Jersey State Artillery, having a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 966. Total, 1,004. On September 21, 1862, en route for Washington. A few days after its arrival, it proceeded to Frederick City, Md., and soon after was assigned to the service of the Sixth Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in the service until its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out at Trenton, N. J., June 19, 1863, by Joseph P. Ash, First Lieutenant Fifth Cavalry, United States Army. The Regiment was assigned to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Sixth Army Corps. The following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Fredericksburg, Va., May 2 and 3, '63; Chancellorsville, Va., May 1, '63; Gettysburg, Pa., June 5, '63.

Twenty-second Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-second Regiment was organized under the provision of an Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, and under regulations governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for a term of ninety days, under discharge, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and on consecutive applications for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered was not to be carried out until the 15th of September, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested among the people of the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft gave an enthusiasm to organizing a volunteer regiment, the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 22d day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Trenton, N. J., by Thomas E. Murray, First Lieutenant Second Artillery, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 29; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 290; Total, 319. It left the State September 29, 1862, en route for Washington. Upon arrival, it was ordered into Camp ten miles north of Georgetown, D. C., having been assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defense of Washington. It remained in this vicinity until about the 1st of December, when it proceeded to Aquia Creek, Va., and was assigned for provost duty guarding the railroad and other duties. In January, 1863, the Regiment was assigned to the First Army Corps, and joined the Army of the Potomac. The Regiment captured its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Trenton, N. J., June 25, 1863, by Joseph P. Ast, First Lieutenant 11th Cavalry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defense of Washington, then to Patrick's Brigade, Provost Guard, Army of the Potomac, then to the Third Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements—Chancellorsville, May 2 and 3, '63.

Field and Staff, Twenty-second Regiment.

1	Amos Dunham	Musician	Sept. 1, '62	Sept. 22, '62	9 Mos	June 25, '63	Discharged at Camp near Tollytown, D. C., Oct. 27, '62—Disability.

Twenty-third Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-third Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and to determine the orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered was not to interfere with orders, concerning recruiting and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 31 day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 13th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Beverly, N. J., by WILLIAM B. ROYALL, Captain, Fifth Cavalry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 957. Total 996. It left the State September 26, 1862, en route for Washington, D. C. Soon after its arrival, it was ordered to Frederick City, Md., where it remained until the 8th day of October, when it was assigned to the Sixth Army Corps, and soon after joined the Army of the Potomac. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. While at Beverly, awaiting muster out of service, information was received of the invasion of Pennsylvania by General Lee with the Rebel Army, in strength. The command was immediately tendered to the Governor and accepted, and at once proceeded to Harrisburg, the threatened point. It remained in this vicinity until the danger had passed, when it returned to the State. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Beverly, N. J., June 27, 1863, by WASHINGTON I. NIXON, Major Second Cavalry, United States Army.

The Regiment was attached to the First Brigade, (First New Jersey Brigade) First Division, Sixth Army Corps.
The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericktown, Pa., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Frederickburg, Va., May 3, '63; Sidew Heights, Va., May 3 and 4, '63.

Twenty-fourth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-fourth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 16th day of September, 1862, at which time, the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Beverly, N. J., by WILLIAM B. ROYALL, Captain Fifth Cavalry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non Commissioned Officers and Privates, 916. Total, 955. It left the State September 29, 1862, en route for Washington. Upon arrival, went into Camp on East Capitol Hill, D. C., but soon after crossed into Virginia and was assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, and began to prepare for active service. It remained in this vicinity until December 1st, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac, having been assigned to the Second Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Beverly, N. J., June 29, 1863, by WALTER B. PEASE, Captain Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to the First Brigade, Ambercrombie's Division, Department of Washington, D. C.; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 3 and 4, '63.

Twenty-fifth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-fifth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and soon after fully completed, officered and equipped. It was then duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months. Companies A, C, E, H and K, were mustered in at Trenton, N. J., September 18, 1862, by FRANK D. HOWELL, First Lieutenant Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army. Companies B, D, F, G and I, were mustered in at Beverly, N. J., September 24, 1862, by WILLIAM B. ROYALL, Captain Fifth Cavalry, United States Army. The headquarters of the Regiment was established at Beverly, from which place it left the State, October 10, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C., having a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 960. Total, 998. Upon arrival at Washington, it was assigned to the Second Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, and went into Camp on East Capitol Hill, and immediately began to prepare for active service. It remained in this vicinity until the 30th day of November, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac, having been assigned to the Ninth Army Corps. On the 11th of February, 1863, the Regiment in connection with the Ninth Corps was detached from the Army of the Potomac, and proceeded to Newport News, Va. On the 13th of March it proceeded to Suffolk, Va., to assist in repelling a threatened invasion by the enemy at this point. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Beverly, N. J., June 20, 1863, by WASHINGTON L. NEWTON, Major Second Cavalry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to the Second Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Ninth Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Near Suffolk, Va., May 3, '63.

Twenty-sixth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-sixth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 18th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Newark, N. J., by SAM'L M. STROLE, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 969. Total, 1007. It left the State September 26, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival it went into Camp on Capitol Hill, having been assigned to the Second Army Corps. It remained in this vicinity until the 1st of October, when under orders it proceeded to Hagerstown Md., where it was assigned to the Sixth Army Corps, and with it proceeded to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Newark, N. J., June 27, 1863, by GEORGE H. BURNS, Second Lieutenant Fifteenth Infantry, United States Army. The Regiment was first attached to General Briggs' Brigade, Second Army Corps; then to the Second Brigade, Second Division Sixth Army Corps. The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredricksburg, Va. Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Fredricksburg, Va. May 3, '63; Shiloh Heights, Va., May 3 and 4, '63; Franklin's Crossing, Va., June 5, '63.

Twenty-seventh Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-seventh Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 31 day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 19th day of September 1862, at which time the command, consisting of eleven Companies, was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Newark, N. J., by SAMUEL M. SPROLE, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 41; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 1,038. Total, 1,079. It left the State October 10, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival it went into Camp on Capitol Hill, D. C., but soon after crossed into Virginia, encamped near Alexandria and was assigned to the Second Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. The Regiment remained at this point perfecting itself for active service, until December 1st, 1862, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac, having been assigned to the Ninth Army Corps. On the 11th of February, 1863, the Regiment in connection with the Ninth Corps, left the Army of the Potomac, and proceeded to Newport News, Va., to assist in repelling a threatened invasion by the enemy, near Suffolk. It remained in this vicinity until the 19th of March, 1863, at which time by order of the War Department, it was detached with the Ninth Army Corps for service in the West. While in this Department, by an unfortunate accident the Regiment lost one officer and thirty-two enlisted men by drowning, in crossing the Cumberland river, near Somerset, Ky., on the 6th day of May, 1863. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. On arrival at Cincinnati, Ohio, June 17, 1863, information having reached the Regiment of the intended invasion of Pennsylvania by General Lee, with the Rebel Army in strength, the command was immediately tendered to the President of the United States and accepted. The Regiment remained in the vicinity of Pittsburg and Harrisburg for ten days, and until the threatened danger had passed. It then continued its return to New Jersey and was mustered out of service at Newark, N. J., July 2, 1863, by Colonel H. BRASS, First Lieutenant Fifteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to the Second Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to the Second Brigade, First Division, Ninth Army Corps.

Twenty-eighth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-eighth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 22d day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Camp Vreelburgh, near Freehold, N. J., by FRANK D. HOWELL, First Lieutenant Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 886. Total, 925. It left the State October 2, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival went into Camp on Capitol Hill, but soon after crossed into Virginia, having been assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. The Regiment remained in this vicinity perfecting itself in drill and discipline, for active service, until December 1st, 1862, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac, having been assigned to the Second Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Freehold, N. J., July 6, 1863, by CHAMBERS McKIBBIN, Second Lieutenant Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to the First Brigade, Abercrombie's Division, Defences of Washington; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Second Army Corps.

Twenty-ninth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-ninth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made up by the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 20th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Camp Fredenburgh, near Freehold, N. J., by FRANK D. HOWELL, First Lieutenant Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 20. Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 909. Total, 948. It left the State September 28, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival went into Camp on East Capitol Hill, D. C., but soon after crossed into Virginia, and was assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. It remained in this vicinity employed at various duties until the 30th of November, when under orders it proceeded to Aquia Creek, Va., and was assigned for provost duty, guarding the railroad and other duties. In January, the Regiment was assigned to the First Army Corps and joined the Army of the Potomac. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Freehold, N. J., June 30, 1863, by ROBERT P. KING, First Lieutenant Fifteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C., then to Patrick's Brigade, Provost Guard, Army of the Potomac; then to the Third Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps.

Thirtieth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirtieth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 17th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Flemington, N. J., by SAMUEL M. SPROLE, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 972. Total, 1,011. It left the State September 30, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival went into Camp near Tennyallytown, D. C., and was soon after assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. The Regiment remained in this vicinity, perfecting itself in drill and discipline for a five service, until about December 1, 1862, when under orders it proceeded to Aquia Creek, Va., en route to the front. At this point the Regiment was assigned to duty with the Provost Guard of the Army of the Potomac, and here remained until the 10th of January, 1863, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the main army, having been assigned to the First Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Flemington, N. J., June 27, 1863, by GEORGE L. BROWNING, Second Lieutenant Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to Patrick's Brigade, Provost Guard, Army of the Potomac; then to the Third Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps.

Thirty-first Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-first Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made up by the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 31 day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, ordered and equipped by the 17th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was assigned to the service of the United States for nine months, at Flemington, N. J., by SAMUEL M. SPROLE, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 958. Total, 997. It left the State September 26, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival went into Camp on Capitol Hill, but soon after removed to and encamped near Tetanallytown, D. C. where it was assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. The Regiment remained in this vicinity, engaged in picket and other duties, until about December 1, 1862, when under orders it proceeded to Aquia Creek, Va., to the front. At this place the Regiment was assigned to duty with the Provost Guard of the Army of the Potomac, and was then detached and proceeded to Belle Plais, Va., to do guard and provost duty, where it remained until the early part of January, 1863, when it was ordered to the front and joined the main army, having been assigned to the First Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Flemington, N. J., June 24, 1863, by GEORGE L. BROWNING, Second Lieutenant Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to Patrick's Brigade, First Guard Army of the Potomac; then to the Third Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagement: Chancellorsville, Va., May 2 and 3, '63.
