Title 5—Administrative Personnel

CHAPTER I—CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

PART 890—FEDERAL EMPLOYEES HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM

Opportunities To Register To Enroll and Change Enrollment; Open Season

AGENCY: Civil Service Commission.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment provides for a Federal employees health benefits (FEHB) program open season from November 13 through December 8, 1978, and in all future years from Monday of the second full workweek in November through Friday of the first full workweek in December.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 31, 1978.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Edward G. Borchers, Office of Policy Development and Technical Services, Bureau of Retirement, Insurance, and Occupational Health, Room 4334, 1900 E Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20415, 202-632-4684.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION: On Tuesday, August 8, 1978, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 35046) proposed rulemaking explaining the proposed amendment regarding the 1978 and all future open seasons and giving all interested parties an opportunity to submit comments.

Of 15 comments received, all favored the proposed 1978 open season dates and all but one favored having future open seasons as proposed. The opposing commenter suggested that future open seasons should be held for the entire month of November, in lieu of the 4-workweek period proposed by the Commission. The commenter believes that since many Postal Service employees are required to work overtime on weekends after the Thanksgiving holiday, these employees may not have sufficient time to study the health plan brochures during the last part of open season (the first week in December). We believe, however, that our proposal allows all employees sufficient time to study materials and make a decision. As a result, we have not adopted this suggestion.

Accordingly, § 890.301(d)(1) of Part 890, Title 5, Code of Federal Regulations is revised, as set out in the following:

§ 890.301 Opportunities to register to enroll and change enrollments.

* * * * *

(d) Open season. (1) An open season will be held from November 13, 1978, through December 8, 1978, and in all future years from the Monday of the second full workweek in November through the Friday of the first full workweek in December, as announced by the Civil Service Commission. During this open season:

(i) An unenrolled employee may register to be enrolled;

(ii) An enrolled employee or annuitant may change to another plan, another option, from self only to self and family, or any combination of these changes.

Title 7—Agriculture

CHAPTER III—ANIMAL AND PLANT HEALTH INSPECTION SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

PART 354—OVERTIME SERVICES RELATING TO IMPORTS AND EXPORTS

Overtime Work at Border Ports, Seaports, and Airports

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document amends the regulation which establishes charges for overtime work at border ports, seaports, and airports. Agricultural quarantine inspectors of the U.S. Department of Agriculture are charged with performing inspection duties relating to imports and exports at border ports, seaports, and airports. Such services may be performed outside the regular tour of duty of the inspector when requested by a person, firm, or corporation and the charge for such overtime is recoverable from those requesting the services. The following document amends the regulation entitled, "Overtime Work at Border Ports, Seaports, and Airports," by increasing the hourly rates for such services performed on a Sunday or holiday, or at any other time outside the regular tour of duty. These increases are commensurate with salary increases provided Federal employees in accordance with the Federal Pay Comparability Act of 1970 (Pub. L. 91-656), and Executive Order 12087 dated October 7, 1978.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 31, 1978.

§ 354.1 Overtime work at border ports, seaports, and airports.

(a) Any person, firm, or corporation having ownership, custody, or control of plants, plant products, animals, animal products, or other commodities or articles subject to inspection, laboratory testing, certification, or quarantine under this chapter and subchapter D of chapter I, title 9 CFR, who requires the services of an employee of the plant protection and quarantine programs, on a Sunday or holiday, or at any other time outside the regular tour of duty of such employee, shall sufficiently in advance of the period of Sunday or holiday or overtime service request the plant protection and quarantine program inspector in charge to furnish inspection, laboratory testing, certification, or quarantine service during such overtime, or Sunday or holiday period, and shall pay the Government therefor at the rate of $22.28 per man-hour per employee on a Sunday and at the rate of $14.76 per man-hour per employee for holiday or any other period; except that for any services performed on a Sunday or holiday, or at any time after 5 p.m. or before 8 a.m. on a weekday, in connection with the arrival in or departure from the United States of a private aircraft or vessel, the total amount payable shall not exceed $25 for all inspectional services performed by the Customs Service, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Public Health Service, and the Department of Agriculture; and except that owners and operators of aircraft will be provided service without reimbursement during regularly established hours of service on a Sunday or holiday; and except that the overtime rate to be charged owners and operators of aircraft at airports of entry or other places of inspection as a consequence of the operation of aircraft, for work performed outside of the regularly established hours of service on a Sunday will be $19.44 and for work performed outside of the regularly established hours of service for holiday or any other period will be $11.96 per hour, which charges exclude administrative overhead costs.

Determination of the hourly rate for overtime services and of the commuted traveltime allowances depends entirely upon facts within the knowledge of the Department of Agriculture. It is to the benefit of the public that this amendment be made effective at the earliest practicable date. Accordingly, pursuant to the administrative provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553, it is found upon good cause that notice and public procedure on this amendment are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest and good cause is found for making this amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

NOTE: The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service has determined that this document does not contain a major proposal requiring preparation of an inflation impact statement under Executive Order 11821, as amended, and OMB Circular A-107.

Commuted Traveltime Allowances

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document amends administrative instructions prescribing commuted traveltime. This amendment establishes commuted traveltime periods as nearly as may be practicable to cover the time necessarily spent in reporting to and returning from the place at which an employee of Veterinary Services performs overtime or holiday duty when such travel is performed solely on account of overtime or holiday duty. Such establishment depends upon facts within the knowledge of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service.

CHAPTER II—FEDERAL RESERVE

SUBCHAPTER A—BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

[Reg. Z]

PART 226—TRUTH IN LENDING

Right of Rescission

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Final interpretation.

SUMMARY: The Board hereby adopts an amendment to interpretation § 226.904 of regulation Z concerning disclosures which creditors may use to satisfy certain requirements of the regulation in connection with open end credit plans secured by consumer's residences. Specifically, the amendment modifies the sample disclosure which creditors may use to advise consumers of their rights when a change in the underlying terms of such a credit plan is proposed by a creditor. The amended disclosure is intended to emphasize these rights of the consumer. However, use by a creditor of the disclosure as originally promulgated by the Board shall not constitute a violation of the regulation.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 31, 1978.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Glenn E. Loney, Section Chief, Division of Consumer Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551, 202-452-3867.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 3, 1978, the Board published (43 FR 34111) an amendment to regulation Z, § 226.9(g)(6) of the regulation, creating an exception to the rescission provisions of the regulation for individual transactions under certain open end credit accounts secured by consumers' residences. Under the terms of that amendment, consumers would not have the right to cancel each individual transaction on such accounts, provided that the specific requirements of the amendment are met.

The amendment provides, among other things, that a creditor may not change the underlying terms of an open end account secured by a customer's home without affording the customer an opportunity to refuse the change in terms. If the customer refuses the proposed change in terms, the creditor need not extend any further credit on the account; however, the customer retains the right to continue to repay any existing obligation on the account under the then existing terms of the account. The amendment requires that a creditor that proposes to change the terms of a customer's account disclose these rights to the customer.

Interpretation § 226.904 of regulation Z, published by the Board together with the amendment, provides, among other things, a sample disclosure which creditors may use to satisfy, as to form and content, the amendment's disclosure requirements in connection with a proposed change in terms. For convenient reference, that sample disclosure is reproduced below:

It has been suggested to the Board that the foregoing disclosure, specifically the third sentence thereof, may not sufficiently inform consumers of the rights which they have in the event of a proposed change in terms of open end credit accounts secured by their homes and, further, that the impression may be created that the right to pay any existing obligation without the change in terms is, in fact, a penalty to consumers who refuse such a change.

The Board believes that it may benefit consumers to modify the disclosure set forth above to further emphasize consumers' rights in connection with changes in the terms of open end accounts secured by their homes and to avoid any implication that these rights constitute a penalty. However, by amending the disclosure, the Board does not intend that use of the disclosure as originally published shall constitute a violation of regulation Z.

Inasmuch as the following amendment to interpretation § 226.904 constitutes an interpretive rule within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 553 (1976), and, further, because the amendment provides only a sample disclosure which creditors may but need not use, the Board finds that publication of the amendment for public comment prior to final adoption and a delay in the effective date of the amendment are unnecessary.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority granted in 15 U.S.C. 1604 (1976), the Board hereby amends official Board interpretation of regulation Z, 12 CFR 226.904, effective immediately, by deleting the third sentence of the disclosure captioned "Section 226.9(g)(6)(iii) (Change in terms)" which reads, "If you refuse this change in terms, we have the right to refuse to extend any further credit on your account and may require you to repay any existing obligation on your account under the present terms of the account" and substituting therefor "If you refuse this change in terms, you have the right to continue to repay your existing obligation under the present terms of the account. However, we would then have the right to refuse to extend any further credit, except pursuant to these new terms", so that the disclosure reads as follows:

Section 226.9(g)(6)(iii) (Change in Terms)

NOTICE TO CUSTOMER REQUIRED BY FEDERAL LAW:

(Name of Creditor) _____
 Intends to change the terms of your open end credit account which is secured by your home. You have a right to refuse to accept this change in terms. If you refuse this change in terms, you have the right to continue to repay your existing obligation under the present terms of the account. However, we would then have the right to refuse to extend any further credit, except pursuant to these new terms. You may exercise your right to refuse the change in terms within three business days of (date disclosure delivered to customer) _____ by notifying us at (address of creditor's place of business) _____ by mail or telegram sent not later than midnight of (date) _____. You may also use any other form of written notice to refuse the change in terms if it is delivered to the above address not later than that time. This notice may be used for that purpose by dating and signing below.

I hereby refuse the change in the terms of my account.

Title 15—Commerce and Foreign Trade

CHAPTER I—BUREAU OF THE CENSUS, DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

PART 30—FOREIGN TRADE STATISTICS

AGENCY: Bureau of the Census, Commerce.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule amends the Foreign Trade Statistics Regulations to provide that for a period of 6 months, for exports of used vehicles from the United States (including vehicles shipped to Puerto Rico), the exporter or his agent must present the Shipper's Export Declaration bearing that vehicle's identification number to Customs at least 48 hours in advance of exportation; and that carriers may not depart with used vehicles unless and until a copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration approved by Customs has been delivered to the carrier.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 30, 1978.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Emanuel A. Lipscomb, Chief, Foreign Trade Division, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233, 301-763-5342.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On February 24, 1978, a notice of proposed rulemaking was published (43 FR 3510-07) to amend the Foreign Trade Statistics Regulations to provide that for a period of 6 months, for exports of used vehicles from the United States to all destinations, the required Shipper's Export Declaration must show that vehicle's identification number and be presented to Customs by the exporter or his agent at least 48 hours in advance of exportation. The summary information in the notice further provided that carriers must submit such declarations to Customs prior to the departure of such carriers. The sole purpose of this proposed amendment was to assist law enforcement agencies in the deterrence of vehicle theft.

A total of 12 letters of comment was received in response to the proposed changes. Five letters of comment were received from law enforcement agencies, and all were in favor of the proposal. The remaining letters of comments were from carriers, carrier associations, and agents, and expressed objections to the proposals.

DISCUSSION OF MAJOR COMMENTS: Objection was expressed to the wording of proposed § 30.42(c) that "Failure of the exporter (or his agent, including the carrier) to provide Customs at least 48 hours prior * * *" since in those cases where the carrier acts as agent of the exporter, the phrase "exporter or his agent" would render "including the carrier" superfluous. This wording has been changed to eliminate any inference that it is the carrier's responsibility (as carrier) to present the Shipper's Export Declaration to Customs 48 hours in advance of exportation.

In addition, objection was expressed to the proposed requirement, indicated in the summary but not addressed in the amended regulations, that in addition to the exporter's (or his agent's) having to present the Shipper's Export Declaration to Customs for approval at least 48 hours in advance of exportation, the carrier would have to present the Shipper's Export Declaration to Customs prior to exportation of the used vehicle, instead of with the vessel's complete manifest as is normally done. It was argued that no useful purpose would be served by this requirement. The Bureau of the Census agrees. Since in accordance with proposed § 30.42(b) " * * * carriers may not export used vehicles from the United States until the required Shipper's Export Declaration bearing the notation of its prior receipt by Customs has been received by the carrier" (italics added), there appears to be no reason to require the carrier to resubmit the declaration in advance of shipment. Since the proposed regulations never carried the stipulation that the carrier file the approved copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration with Customs prior to exportation, no change in the wording of the proposed regulations is required.

Carriers in the United States to Puerto Rico trade objected to the proposal in its entirety. Shipments of used autos to Puerto Rico are handled primarily by only three or four carriers and, in many cases, Shipper's Export Declarations are prepared by the carriers on behalf of their clients. If advance presentation of the Shipper's Export Declaration should be required, it was argued that serious problems would be encountered in storage facilities, scheduling shipments, extra costs, and delays. Moreover, the largest of such carriers described in detail the degree of surveillance already being exercised by that company to avoid exportation of stolen vehicles; e.g., it already furnishes the Federal Bureau of Investigation a list of the vehicle identification numbers prior to exportation; it compares reported vehicle identification numbers with actual vehicle identification numbers and notifies Customs of any discrepancies; etc.

In view of the nature of the objections submitted by the carriers in the United States to Puerto Rico trade, and the limited number of carriers involved, and since Puerto Rico is subject to U.S. jurisdiction, the Bureau of the Census has concluded that where carriers of merchandise from the United States to Puerto Rico make satisfactory arrangements to, inform Customs of the vehicle identification numbers of used vehicles scheduled for exportation sufficiently in advance of actual exportation to permit Customs to query its stolen vehicle list and detain any vehicles determined to be stolen, the proposed new rules would be unduly onerous with respect to shipments from the United States to Puerto Rico and may, therefore, be waived by the Foreign Trade Division of the Bureau of the Census. Accordingly, a new sentence is being added to § 30.42 to provide for the granting of exemptions from the new requirements for shipments from the United States to Puerto Rico.

To effect these changes in reporting requirements, the Foreign Trade Statistics Regulations (15 CFR Part 30) are amended as set forth below.

These regulations are to be issued under the authority of Title 13, United States Code, section 302; and 5 U.S.C. 301; Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1950, Department of Commerce Organization Order No. 35-2A, August 4, 1975, 40 FR 42765.

1. Section 30.7 is amended by the addition of the following sentence, immediately after the first sentence, and preceding the present parenthetical sentence.

§ 30.7 Information required on Shipper's Export Declarations.

* * * (See § 30.42 for additional information required for a limited time on Shipper's Export Declarations covering the exportation of used vehicles to foreign countries.) * * *

2. A new § 30.42 is added to read as follows:

§ 30.42 Special temporary requirements for the exportation of used motor vehicles.

Shipper's Export Declarations covering exports of used motor vehicles, including automobiles, trucks, tractors, buses, motorcycles, special purpose vehicles, self-propelled farm machinery, self-propelled construction equipment, self-propelled special use equipment, and other similar vehicles are subject to the following special provisions:

(a) When a used motor vehicle as defined above is to be exported from the United States to a foreign country, or shipped from the United States to Puerto Rico, exporters (or their agents) shall show on the Shipper's Export Declaration required under these regulations, under the description of commodities, that vehicle's identification number.

(b) Shipper's Export Declarations covering the exportation of used vehicles shall be presented to Customs at the port of exportation at least 48 hours prior to exportation by the exporter (or his agent). One copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration, presented to Customs by the exporter (or his agent), bearing a notation of its prior receipt by Customs, must be delivered to the exporting carrier prior to exportation; and, notwithstanding the provisions of § 30.24 of these regulations relating to the delayed filing of Shipper's Export Declarations and manifests, carriers may not transport used vehicles from the United States until the required Shipper's Export Declaration bearing the notation of its prior receipt by Customs has been received by the carrier.

(c) Failure of the exporter (or his agent) to provide Customs, at least 48 hours prior to exportation, a copy of the required Shipper's Export Declaration containing the vehicle identification number of the used vehicle to be exported shall result in the detention of such vehicle by Customs until there is compliance with the above requirements.

(d) Where carriers of merchandise from the United States to Puerto Rico make satisfactory arrangements to inform Customs of the vehicle identification numbers of used vehicles scheduled for exportation sufficiently in advance of actual exportation to permit Customs to query its stolen vehicle list and detain any vehicles determined to be stolen, such carriers may inform the Foreign Trade Division of the Bureau of the Census of the details of such arrangements and may request waiver of the provisions of § 30.42(a)-(c).

(e) The provisions of § 30.42 shall be effective for a period of six (6) months only from the effective date of these regulations.

MANUEL D. PLOTKIN, Director,
Bureau of the Census.

I concur:

RICHARD J. DAVIS,
Assistant Secretary,
Department of the Treasury.

SUBCHAPTER D—DRUGS FOR HUMAN USE

[Docket No. 78N-0123]

PART 446—TETRACYCLINE ANTIBIOTIC DRUGS

Concentrated Liquid Dosage Forms of Tetracycline; Revocation of Provisions for Certification

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) amends the antibiotic drug regulations by revoking provisions for certification of concentrated liquid dosage forms of tetracycline which are labeled and formulated specifically for pediatric use. Less concentrated syrups and suspensions of tetracyclines, 25 milligrams per milliliter (mg/ml) or less, will continue to be certified because of the need for these products in certain geriatric patients, in patients who cannot swallow solid dosage forms, and in children for whom other antibiotics are not likely to be effective or are contraindicated.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 2, 1979.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Merle L. Gibson, Bureau of Drugs

(HFD-140), Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20857, 301-443-4310.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 19, 1978 (43 FR 21694), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs proposed to amend the antibiotic drug regulations by revoking provisions for certification of concentrated liquid dosage forms of tetracyclines which are labeled and formulated specifically for pediatric use. This action was taken because new evidence revealed continued extensive prescribing of concentrated liquid dosage forms specifically formulated for children, from infancy to the age of 8 years, despite known adverse reactions in this age group. Interested persons were invited to submit comments by July 18, 1978. Comments were received from consumers, pharmacists, dentists, physicians, nurses, and professional associations.

The agency received comments objecting to the proposal from persons who interpreted the proposal as intending to remove all liquid dosage forms of tetracycline from the market. These comments stressed that there is a demonstrated need for liquid dosage forms of tetracycline in certain patients who are unable to ingest solid dosage forms and in those few children for whom other antibiotics are not likely to be effective or are contraindicated.

The Commissioner believes the objecting comments misunderstood the proposal, which acknowledged the need for less concentrated syrups and suspensions (25 mg/ml or less) and proposed to revoke only the provisions for certification of the concentrated liquid dosage forms that are labeled and formulated specifically for children. The Commissioner considers the final rule, which is adopted as proposed, as responsive to the objecting comments, because the less concentrated liquid dosage forms will continue to be available.

The remainder of the comments were in agreement with the proposal.

All outstanding certificates of certification or release of batches of tetracycline concentrated syrups and suspensions formulated specifically for pediatric use are revoked on the effective date of this final rule. Recall will be requested to the retail level for all products covered by these certificates. Holders of the certificates will be notified by letter of the revocations of the certificates and of the details of the recall request.

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended (21 U.S.C. 357)) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 5.1), Part 446 is amended as follows:

1. In § 446.115a, the second sentence of paragraph (a)(1) is revised to read as follows:

§ 446.115a Demeclocycline oral suspension.

(1)  Each milliliter contains demeclocycline equivalent to 15 milligrams of demeclocycline hydrochloride. ***

* * * * *

2. In § 446.166, the third sentence of paragraph (a)(1) is revised to read as follows:

§ 446.166 Oxytetracycline calcium oral suspension.

(a) ***

(1)  Each milliliter contains a quantity of oxytetracycline calcium equivalent to 25 milligrams of oxytetracycline. ***

Effective date. This regulation is effective January 2, 1979.

ACTION: Final regulations.

SUMMARY: This notice is issued to inform the public that the Copyright Office of the Library of Congress is adopting final amendments to § 201.16 of our regulations. The effects of the amendments are: To establish requirements governing the correction of errors in applications for recordation of coin-operated phonorecord players and in related certificates; to clarify our examination of applications and our treatment of certain time limits imposed by the Copyright Act in connection with the recordation of coin-operated phonorecord players; to modify the requirement for the "full address" of an operator of coin-operated phonorecord players to include post office boxes in certain cases; and to make other technical amendments.

DATE: The final regulations are effective on October 31, 1978.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Susan Aramayo, Chief, Licensing Division, U.S. Copyright Office, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. 20557, 703-557-1397.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: 17 U.S.C. 116 establishes conditions under which operators of coin-operated phonorecord players—commonly referred to as "jukeboxes"—may obtain a compulsory license for the performance of nondramatic musical works.

A compulsory license permits the use of a copyrighted work without the consent of the copyright owner, if certain conditions are met and royalties paid. Section 116 establishes general rules governing the conditions of the compulsory license for coin-operated phonorecord players, and requires the Register of Copyrights to prescribe regulations governing compulsory license applications and the certificates to be affixed to licensed phonorecord players.

Section 116 also sets forth certain time limitations in connection with applications for recordation of jukeboxes: For jukeboxes already in use on January 1, 1978, the application was to be submitted between January 1, 1978, and January 31, 1978; for jukeboxes put into use after January 1, 1978, the application must be submitted before or within 1 month after the date performances are first made available on that player; and for jukeboxes previously recorded in the Copyright Office the application must be submitted between January 1 and January 31 of each succeeding year that the machine is in use. In addition, as an exception to the requirement that applications are to be accompanied by a royalty fee of $8 per player, the statute provides that, if performances "are made available on a particular phonorecord player for the first time after July 1 of any year, the royalty fee to be deposited for the remainder of that year" is $4.

On March 30, 1977, we published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (42 FR 16838) an advance notice of proposed rule-making in this matter. After considering the comments received in response to the advance notice, on October 11, 1977, we published a proposed regulation (42 FR 54840) and, on October 25, 1977, we held a public hearing on the proposal. After considering the comments made at the hearing and in supplemental filings, on December 20, 1977, we published (42 FR 63779) final regulations implementing section 116. In the light of our experience since January of this year, on August 23, 1978, we adopted interim amendments to the regulations (43 FR 37451). The amendments are fully discussed in the preamble to our notice of August 23, 1978; in summary:

1. We amended § 201.16(b)(1)(ii) to provide that, after consultation with postal officials, we will accept a post office box or similar designation as a jukebox operator's "address" in special cases where no better address for the operator's place of business is possible.

2. We amended § 201.16(c) to state our general operating principle in examining applications for recordation of jukeboxes: We will require the correction of errors appearing on the face of the application, but will generally not go beyond the information in the document itself. This amendment also makes clear that the issuance of a jukebox certificate by the Copyright Office shall not be considered "a determination that the application was properly prepared or that all of the requirements to qualify for a compulsory license have been satisfied."

3. We added a new paragraph (f) to § 201.16 to explain our handling of the time limitations established in the statute for the filing of applications for recordation of jukeboxes and the payment of royalty fees. This amendment: (a) States the general rule that the Copyright Office will not inquire into the timeliness of applications and will accept late filings where a proper fee is paid, for whatever effect a court may accord to such filings; (b) requires that applications filed before June 1 of a particular year and accompanied by $4 fees for listed players be supplemented by a statement that the players will not be put into use until after July 1 of that year; and (c) makes clear that applications filed after July 1 of a particular year and accompanied by $8 fees will be considered by the Copyright Office to cover players first put into use before that date.

4. We added a new paragraph (g) to § 201.16 to deal with situations where jukebox operators discover errors in their applications or certificates. This amendment specifies that corrections (and consequent refunds) will be made after the issuance of certificates in four cases: The duplicate listing of players; the entry of certain erroneous information in the application; Copyright Office error in issuing a certificate; and overpayment of an $8 fee where only a $4 fee is required. The amendment also establishes specific conditions under which corrections and refunds will be made in these cases.

5. We amended § 201.16(b)(2)(i) to require that applications for players that lack serial numbers must give the model number of the player only where that number is known to the operator.

6. We made a technical amendment to § 201.16(d) to correct a typographical error.

Members of the public were given until October 11, 1978, to comment on the interim amendments. One comment, from the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), was received. That comment "fully supported" the interim amendments.

The interim amendments as published on August 23, 1978, are adopted as final and are set forth below.

Dated: October 24, 1978.

FINAL AMENDMENTS

Part 201 of 37 CFR Chapter II is amended:

§ 201.16 [Amended]

1. By revising § 201.16(b)(1)(ii) (as adopted on Jan. 1, 1978) to read as follows:

* * * * *

(1) * * *

(ii) The full address of the operator's place of business, including a specific number and street name or rural route. A post office box number or similar designation will not generally be accepted. The Copyright Office will accept a post office box number or similar designation in special cases if, after consulting with officials of the U.S. Postal Service, the Office concludes that no better address for the operator's place of business is possible.

* * * * *

2. By adding the words "if known;" following the phrase "Its model number" in § 201.16(b)(2)(i).

3. By correcting the phrase "a statement in accordance with section 1746 or title 28 of the United States Code, and signed * * *" in § 201.16(d) to read "a statement in accordance with section 1746 of title 28 of the United States Code, made and signed * * *."

4. By adding a new paragraph (4) to § 201.16(c) to read as follows:

(c) Certificate. * * *

* * * * *

(4) The Copyright Office will advise jukebox operators of errors or omissions appearing on the face of forms submitted to it, and will require that any such obvious errors or omissions (including errors in the calculation of fees) be corrected before certificates will be issued. However, the issuance of a certificate by the Copyright Office shall establish only the fact, date of issuance, and date of expiration of the certificate; it shall in no case be considered a determination that the application form was properly prepared or that all of the requirements to qualify for a compulsory license have been satisfied.

5. By adding new paragraphs (f) and (g) to § 201.16 to read as follows:

(f) Time limitations. (1) The Copyright Office may, when it considers it reasonable and appropriate, advise applicants of the time limitations governing the filing of applications and amount of royalty fees as set forth in 17 U.S.C. 116. However, except as set forth in paragraph (f)(2) of this section, the Office will normally not inquire into the date on which performances were actually made available on particular phonorecord players identified in the application or whether such players were previously recorded in the Copyright Office. In the following cases, the Office's acceptance of the application and issuance of a certificate is not to be considered as relieving the operator from any legal consequences arising from the late filing, and shall have only such effect as may be attributed to it by a court of competent jurisdiction: (i) Where, on the date the application covering a particular phonorecord player was received in the Copyright Office, performances had been first made available on that player more than 1 month earlier; and (ii) where, in 1979 and thereafter, a particular phonorecord player had been recorded in the Copyright Office during the previous calendar year, but the application is received after January 31 of the year in question.

(2) In the case of an application that is received in the Copyright Office before June 1 of a particular year, and that is accompanied by a fee of $4 for each player identified in the application, the Copyright Office will not issue certificates unless the application is accompanied or supplemented by a statement that performances will not be made available on such players until after July 1 of that year. The statement shall be in the form of a letter addressed to the Licensing Division of the Copyright Office, and shall be signed by the operator named in the application or the duly authorized agent of that operator. If a business entity is the operator, the signature or name shall be that of an officer if the entity is a corporation, or a partner if the entity is a partnership, and shall be accompanied by the organizational title of that person. The statement shall, for all purposes including section 116(b)(1)(B) of title 17 of the United States Code, be considered a part of the application. The statement described in this paragraph shall not be required in the case of applications covering a particular year received in the Copyright Office after June 1 of that year. In any case, if performances are actually made available for the first time on any players covered by $4 fees on or before July 1 of that year, the Office's acceptance of the application and issuance of a certificate is not to be considered as relieving the operator from any legal consequences arising from the failure to pay the correct fee, and shall have only such effect as may be attributed to it by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) If an application received in the Copyright Office after July 1 of any year is accompanied by a royalty fee of $8 for each player identified, the Copyright Office will assume without further inquiry that the application pertains to players on which performances were made available for the first time on or before July 1 of that year.

(g) Corrections and refunds. (1) Upon compliance with the procedures and within the time limits set forth in paragraph (g)(3) of this section, corrections to applications for recollection of coin-operated phonorecord players will be made, and corrected certificates and refunds will be issued, in the following cases:

(i) Where the same player, identified by the same serial number or other identifying information, is listed more than once in the same application, or in two or more applications filed during the same year by or on behalf of the same operator. In these cases the operator named in the application shall be entitled to a refund of any duplicate fee paid;

(ii) Where any of the following information was incorrect at the time the application was signed: (A) The operator's name or address; (B) the serial number or name of the manufacturer of a player; or (C) the identifying information required by paragraph (b)(2) of this section. In any such case the Copyright Office will issue a new certificate containing the correct information. Each corrected certificate will be identified by a double asterisk following the name of the manufacturer.

(iii) Where an application contains information that was correct at the time the application was signed but, as the result of Copyright Office error, the certificate contains incorrect information. In this case the Copyright Office will issue a new certificate containing the correct information; and

(iv) Where an application was accompanied by payment of an $8 fee for each phonorecord player listed but, with respect to one or more such players, performances were actually made available for the first time after July 1 of the year in which the application was filed. In this case the operator named in the application shall be entitled to a refund of any excess fee paid and the Copyright Office will issue a new certificate for each player subject to the $4 fee.

(2) Corrected certificates or refunds will not be issued after the issuance of original certificates in the following cases:

(i) Where the application was correct on the date on which the application was signed, but changes (for example, a change in the operator's name or address, or the sale or destruction of a player) took place later;

(ii) Where the application identified one or more players that the operator named in the application never owned or operated, or did not own or operate at the time the application was signed, or where, before the application was signed, an identified player had been destroyed or otherwise rendered permanently incapable of being repaired; or

(iii) In any other case not specifically mentioned in paragraph (g)(1) of this section.

(3) Requests for corrections and refunds in the cases mentioned in paragraph (g)(1) of this section shall be made to the Licensing Division of the Copyright Office, and shall meet the following conditions:

(i) The request must be in writing, must be clearly identifiable as a request for a correction or refund, and, except in the cases described in paragraph (g)(1)(iii) of this section, must be received in the Copyright Office with the appropriate fee, certificate or certificates, and affidavit (where required) before the expiration of 30 days from the date on which the original certificate was issued by the Copyright Office. A request made by telephone or by telegraphic or similar unsigned communication, will be considered to meet this requirement, if it clearly identifies the basis of the request, if it is received in the Copyright Office within the required 30-day period, and if a written request meeting all the conditions of this paragraph (g)(3) of this section is also received in the Copyright Office within 14 days after the end of such 30-day period.

(ii) The original application pertaining to each correction must be sufficiently identified in the request so that it can be readily located in the records of the Copyright Office.

(iii) The original certificate pertaining to each correction or refund must be returned to the Copyright Office within the time period prescribed by paragraph (g)(3)(i) of this section. No request will be processed until the applicable certificate is returned; and

(iv) The request must contain a clear statement of the facts on which it is based, in accordance with the following requirements:

(A) In the case of duplicate listings (paragraph (g)(1)(i)) a precise and accurate identification of the particular player or players must be given.

(B) In the case of incorrect information given in the application (paragraph (g)(1)(ii) of this section) the request must clearly identify the erroneous information and provide the correct information.

(C) In the case of a certificate that contains erroneous information resulting from Copyright Office error (paragraph (g)(1)(iii) of this section) the error must be clearly indicated.

(D) In the case of overpayment within the meaning of paragraph (g)(1)(iv) of this section, the request must be accompanied by an affidavit under the official seal of any officer authorized to administer oaths within the United States, or a statement in accordance with section 1746 of title 28 of the United States Code, made and signed by the operator named in the application of the duly authorized agent of that operator in accordance with paragraph (b)(1)(vi) of this section. The affidavit or statement shall: aver that performances of nondramatic musical works were actually made available on the particular phonorecord player(s) for the first time after July 1 of the year covered by the application; Give the exact date, including month, day, and year on which such performances were first made available and the location where that event took place; specifically identify the particular phonorecord player(s) involved by the same identifying information as given in the application; and include a brief explanation of the reason for the original submission of a $8 fee for those players.

(v) In those cases where corrections or refunds are to be made under paragraph (g)(1) of this section, the request must be accompanied by a certified check, cashier's check, or money order in the following amount: (A) In the case of a duplicate listing (paragraph (g)(1)(i) of this section): $4 for each application involved; (B) in the case of an error in the operator's name or address (paragraph (g)(1)(ii)(A)) or overpayment within the meaning of paragraph (g)(1)(iv) of this section: $4 for each separate original application pertaining to the certificates to be corrected; and (C) in the case of an error in the serial number or name of the manufacturer of the player, or other identifying information (paragraph (g)(1)(ii) (B) and (C) of this section): $4 for each separate certificate to be corrected. No request will be processed until the appropriate fee is received; and

(vi) The request must be signed by the operator named in the application, or the duly authorized agent of the operator, in accordance with paragraph (b)(1)(vi) of this section.

(4) Each request for correction or refund will be made part of the original application in the records of the Copyright Office. Nothing contained in this paragraph (g) shall be considered to relieve the operator from its full obligations under title 17 of the United States Code, including penalties for affixing a certificate to a player other than the one it covers.

PART 65—DELAYED COMPLIANCE ORDERS

Delayed Compliance Order for Scott Paper Co., Everett, Wash.

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: By this rule, the Administrator of EPA issues a delayed compliance order to the Scott Paper Co. The order requires the company to bring air emissions from its sulfite pulp mill at Everett, Wash., into compliance with certain regulations contained in the federally-approved Washington State Implementation Plan (SIP). Scott Paper Co.'s compliance with the order will preclude suits under the Federal enforcement and citizen suit provisions of the Clean Air Act for violation(s) of the SIP regulations covered by the order.

DATE: This rule takes effect on October 31, 1978.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr Kenneth Brooks, EPA Region 10, 1200 Sixth Avenue M/S 513, Seattle, Wash. 98101 or telephone 206-399-1387.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On June 9, 1978 the Regional Administrator of EPA's region 10 office published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 25147) a notice setting out the provisions of a proposed delayed compliance order for Scott Paper Co. The notice asked for public comments and offered the opportunity to request a public hearing on the proposed order. No public comments or requests for a public hearing were received in response to the proposed notice.

Therefore, a delayed compliance order effective this date is issued to Scott Paper Co. by the Administrator of EPA pursuant to the authority of section 113(d)(2) of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. 7413(d)(2). The order places Scott Paper Co. on a schedule to bring its sulfite pulp mill at Everett, Wash., into compliance as expeditiously as practicable with Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 18-04-070 and PSAPCA Regulation I, a part of the federally-approved Washington State Implementation Plan. Scott Paper Co. is unable to immediately comply with these regulations. The order also imposes interim requirements which meet sections 113(d)(1)(C) and 113(d)(7) of the Act, and emission monitoring and reporting requirements. If conditions of the order are met, it will permit Scott Paper Co. to delay compliance with the SIP regulations covered by the order until July 1, 1979.

Compliance with the order by Scott Paper Co. will preclude Federal enforcement action under section 113 of the Act for violations of the SIP regulations covered by the order. Citizen suits under section 304 of the Act to enforce against the source are similarly precluded. Enforcement may be initiated, however, for violations of the terms of the order and for violations of the regulations covered by the order which occurred before the order was issued by EPA or after the order is terminated. If the Administrator determined that Scott Paper Co. is in violation of a requirement contained in the order, one or more of the actions required by section 113(d)(a) of the Act will be initiated. Publication of this notice of final rulemaking constitutes final Agency action for the purposes of judicial review under section 307(b) of the Act.

EPA has determined that the order shall be effective upon publication of this notice because of the need to immediately place Scott Paper Co. on a schedule for compliance with the Washington State Implementation Plan.

AUTHORITY: 42 U.S.C. 7413(d), 7601.

Dated: October 24, 1978.

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: By this rule, the Administrator of EPA issues a delayed compliance order to the Georgia-Pacific Corp. The order requires the company to bring air emissions from its sulfite pulp mill at Bellingham, Wash. into compliance with certain regulations contained in the federally approved Washington State implementation plan (SIP). Georgia-Pacific Corp.'s compliance with the order will preclude suits under the Federal enforcement and citizen suit provisions of the Clean Air Act for violation of the SIP regulations covered by the order.

DATE: This rule takes effect on October 31, 1978.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Kenneth Brooks, EPA Region X, 1200 Sixth Avenue, M/S 513, Seattle, Wash. 98101 or telephone 206-399-1387.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 31, 1978, the Regional Administrator of EPA's region X office published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 23615) a notice setting out the provisions of a proposed delayed compliance order for Georgia-Pacific Corp. The notice asked for public comments and offered the opportunity to request a public hearing on the proposed order. Therefore, a delayed compliance order effective this date is issued to Georgia-Pacific Corp. by the Administrator of EPA pursuant to the authority of section 113(d)(2) of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. 7413(d)(2). The order places Georgia-Pacific Corp. on a schedule to bring its sulfite pulp mill at Bellingham, Wash. into compliance as expeditiously as practicable with Washington Administrative Code 18-04-070(3) and NWAPA Regulation: Section 451—Emission of Air Contaminants; Visual Standard and Section 455—Emission of Particulate Matter, a part of the federally approved Washington State implementation plan. Georgia-Pacific Corp. is unable to immediately comply with these regulations. The order also imposes interim requirements which meet sections 113(d)(1)(C) and 113(d)(7) of the Act, and emission monitoring and reporting requirements. If the conditions of the order are met, it will permit Georgia-Pacific Corp. to delay compliance with the SIP regulations covered by the order until June 30, 1979.

Compliance with the order by Georgia-Pacific Corp. will preclude Federal enforcement action under section 113 of the Act for violations of the SIP regulations covered by the order. Citizen suits under section 304 of the Act to enforce against the source are similarly precluded. Enforcement may be initiated, however, for violations of the terms of the order, and for violations of the regulation covered by the order which occurred before the order was issued by EPA or after the order is terminated. If the Administrator determined that Georgia-Pacific Corp. is in violation of a requirement contained in the order, one or more of the actions required by section 113(d)(a) of the Act will be initiated. Publication of this notice of final rulemaking constitutes final Agency action for the purposes of judicial review under section 307(b) of the Act.

EPA has determined that the order shall be effective upon publication of this notice because of the need to immediately place Georgia-Pacific Corp. on a schedule for compliance with the Washington State implementation plan. (Authority: 42 U.S.C. 7413(d), 7601).

COMMITTEE

§ .22 Establishment and membership.

(a) There is hereby established a South Texas Melon Committee, consisting of ten (10) members, to administer the terms and provisions of this part. Six members shall be growers, three members shall be handlers, and one shall be a public member. Each shall have an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member.

(b) Each member, other than the public member, shall be an individual who is, prior to his selection and during his term of office (1) a resident of the production area, and (2) a grower or handler, or an officer or employee of a grower or handler, or of growers' cooperative marketing organization.

(c) Five members shall be growers from district 1 and one members shall be a grower from district 2. No person, if he handles melons, shall be eligible for selection as a grower member on the committee unless at least 100 percent of the melons handled by him during the fiscal period immediately preceding his proposed selection to the committee were his own production, or unless such person is an officer or employee of a growers' cooperative marketing association. Three members shall be handlers from district 1.

(d) The public member and alternate shall be a resident of the production area and be neither a grower nor a handler and shall have no direct financial interest in the commercial production, financing, buying, packing or marketing of melons, except as a consumer, nor shall such person be a director, officer or employee of any firm so engaged.

§ .23 Term of office.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the term of office of committee members and their respective alternates shall be for 2 years and shall begin as of March 1 and end the last day of February or for such other 2-year period as the committee may recommend and the Secretary approve. The terms shall be so determined that approximately one-half of the total committee membership shall terminate each year. Members and alternates shall serve in such capacity for the portion of the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified, and until their respective successors are selected and have qualified;

(b) The term of office of the initial members and alternates shall begin on the effective date of this subpart. Approximately one-half the initial committee members and alternates shall serve for a 1 year term.

§ .24 Districts.

To determine a basis for selecting committee members, the following districts of the production area are hereby initially established:

District No. 1: (Lower Valley) the counties of Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr, Brooks, Kleberg, Jim Hogg, Kenedy, and Willacy in the State of Texas.

District No. 2: (Laredo) the counties of Zapata, Webb, Duval, Jim Wells, Nueces, San Patricio, La Salle, McMullen, Live Oak, Bee, and Refugio in the State of Texas.

The committee may recommend, and pursuant thereto, the Secretary may approve, the reapportionment of members among districts, and the reestablishment of districts within the production area. In recommending any such changes, the committee shall give consideration to:

(a) Shifts in melon acreage within the districts and within the production area during recent years;

(b) The importance of new production in its relation to existing districts;

(c) The equitable relationship of committee membership and districts; and

(d) Other relevant factors. No change in districting or in apportionment of members within districts may become effective less than 30 days prior to the date on which terms of office begin each year and no recommendations for such redistricting or reapportionment may be made less than 6 months prior to such date.

§ .26 Nominations.

(a) Initial members. For nominations to the initial committee, the meeting or meetings may be sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture or by any agency or group requested to do so by the Department. The nominations, resulting from these meetings, for each of the six initial grower and three initial handler members of the committee, together with nomination for the initial alternate members for each position shall be submitted to the Secretary prior to the effective date of this subpart. In the event nominations for initial members and alternate members of the committee are not filed pursuant to, and within the time specified in this section, the Secretary may select such initial members and alternate members without regard to nominations, but selection shall be on the basis of the representation provided for in § .22.

(b) Successor members. (1) The committee shall hold or cause to be held, not later than January 15 of each year, or such other date as may be specified by the Secretary, a meeting or meetings of growers and handlers in each district for the purpose of designating at least one nominee for each position as member and for each position as alternate member of the committee which is vacant, or which is about to become vacant;

(2) The names of nominees shall be supplied to the Secretary at such time and in such manner and form as he may prescribe;

(3) Only growers may participate in designating grower nominees and only handlers may participate in designating handler nominees to the committee;

(4) Only growers and handlers who are present at such nomination meetings, or represented at such meetings by a duly authorized employee, may participate in the nomination and election of nominees for members and their alternates.

(c) Each person, whether grower or handler, is entitled to cast only one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives in designating nominees for committee members and alternates. An eligible voter's privilege of casting only one vote shall be construed to permit a voter to cast one vote for each position to be filled;

(d) The public member and alternate member shall be nominated by the members of the committee. The public member and alternate member shall not be growers or handlers, or employees of growers or handlers. The committee shall recommend rules for receiving names of persons to be considered for nomination to the public member and alternate positions. Rules shall also be recommended for establishing eligibility of persons nominated to the public member and alternate positions. The persons nominated for the public member and alternate positions shall be submitted by the incumbent committee to the Secretary by January 15, or such other date recommended by the committee and approved by the Secretary, of the years the terms expire together with information deemed pertinent by the committee or as requested by the Secretary. The names of the nominees for the initial public member and alternate shall be submitted to the Secretary not later than 90 days after the first regular meeting of the initial South Texas Melon Committee.

§ .27 Selection.

Committee members and alternates shall be selected by the Secretary on the basis of representation provided for in § .22 from nominations made pursuant to § .26.

§ .28 Failure to nominate.

If nominations, including initial nominations, are not made within the time and manner prescribed in § .26, the Secretary may, without regard to nominations, select the members and alternates on the basis of the representation provided for in § .22.

§ .29 Acceptance.

Any person selected by the Secretary as member or as an alternate member of the committee shall, prior to serving as such, qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary within the time period specified by the Secretary.

§ .30 Vacancies.

To fill committee vacancies, the Secretary may select members or alternates from nominees on the latest nomination reports or from nominations made in the manner specified in § .26 or from other eligible persons. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within 30 days after such vacancy occurs, the vacancy may be filled without regard to nomination, but such selection shall be made on the basis of representation provided for in § .22.

§ .31 Alternate member.

An alternate member of the committee shall act in the place and stead of the member for whom he is an alternate, during such member's absence or when designated to do so by such member. In the event both a member of the committee and his alternate are unable to attend a committee meeting, the member or his alternate or the committee, in that order, may designate another alternate from the same district and the same group (handler or grower) to serve in such member's stead. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, his alternate shall act for him until a successor of such member is selected and has qualified. The committee may request the attendance of alternates at any or all meetings, notwithstanding the expected or actual presence of the respective members.

§ .32 Procedure.

(a) Seven members of the committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum and the same number of concurring votes shall be required to pass any motion or approve any committee actions.

(b) In assembled meetings all votes shall be cast in person. However, the committee may provide for meetings by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication and any vote cast at such meetings shall be promptly confirmed in writing and recorded in the minutes of each meeting so as to reflect how each member voted.

§ .33 Expenses and compensation.

Members and alternates, when serving as members of the committee, shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for such expenses authorized by the committee and necessarily incurred by them in attending committee meetings and in the performance of their duties under this part: Provided, That the committee at its discretion may request the attendance of one or more alternates at any or all meetings notwithstanding the expected or actual presence of the respective members and may pay expenses as aforesaid.

§ .34 Power.

The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this part in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violation of the provisions of this part; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part.

§ .35 Duties.

The committee shall have, among others, the following duties:

(a) As soon as practicable after the beginning of each term of office, to meet and organize, to select a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary, to select subcommittees, and to adopt such rules, regulations, and bylaws for the conduct of its business as it deems necessary, and to recommend nominees for the public member and alternate;

(b) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any grower or handler;

(c) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(d) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary, to determine the compensation and define the duties of each such person, and to protect the handling of committee funds through fidelity bonds;

(e) To investigate from time to time and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to melons;

(f) To recommend research projects to the Secretary in accordance with this part;

(g) To notify handlers of each meeting of the committee to consider recommendations for regulations and of all regulatory actions taken which might affect growers or handlers and to provide such notification to producers through appropriate news releases or such other means as may be available to the committee;

(h) To give the Secretary the same notice of meetings of the committee and its subcommittee as is given to its members;

(i) To prepare a marketing policy;

(j) To recommend marketing regulations to the Secretary;

(k) To recommend rules and procedures for, and to make determination in connection with appropriate safeguards;

(l) To keep minutes, books, and records which clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and such minutes, books, and records shall be subject to examination at any time by the Secretary or his authorized agent or representative. Minutes of each committee meeting shall be reported promptly to the Secretary.

(m) Prior to or at the beginning of each fiscal period, to prepare a budget or anticipated expenses for such fiscal period, together with a report thereon;

(n) To prepare periodic statements of the financial operations of the committee and to make copies of each such statement available to producers and handlers for examination at the office of the committee;

(c) To prepare and forward to the Secretary, prior to the last day of each fiscal period, an annual report, and make a copy available to each handler and grower who requests it. This annual report shall contain at least:

(1) A complete review of the regulatory operations during the fiscal period.

(2) An appraisal of the effect of such regulatory operations upon the melon industry; and

(3) Any recommendations for changes in the program.

(p) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal period and at such other times as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request. The report of such audit shall show the receipt and expenditure of funds collected pursuant to this part. Two copies of such report shall be furnished to the Secretary and a copy of each such report shall be made available at the principal office of the committee for inspection by growers and handlers; and

(q) To consult, cooperate, and exchange information with other marketing order committees and other individuals or agencies in connection with all proper activities and objectives under this part.

EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§ .40 Expenses.

The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred during each fiscal period by the committee for its maintenance and functioning, and for such purposes as the Secretary, pursuant to this subpart, determines to be appropriate. Each first handler's pro rata share of such expenses shall be proportionate to the ratio between the total quantity of melons handled by him as the first handler thereof during a fiscal period and the total quantity of melons so handled by all handlers as first handlers thereof during such fiscal period.

§ .41 Budget.

Prior to or at the beginning of each fiscal period and as may be necessary thereafter, the committee shall prepare an estimated budget of income and expenditures necessary for the administration of this part. The committee may recommend a rate of assessment calculated to provide adequate funds to defray its proposed expenditures. The committee shall present such budget to the Secretary with an accompanying report showing the basis for its calculations.

§ .42 Assessments.

(a) The funds to cover the committee's expenses shall be acquired by the levying of assessments upon handlers as provided for in this subpart. Each handler who first handles melons shall pay assessments to the committee upon demand, which assessments shall be in payment of such handler's pro rata share of the committee's expenses;

(b) Assessments shall be levied during each fiscal period upon handlers at a rate per unit established by the Secretary. Such rates may be established upon the basis of the committee's recommendations and other available information;

(c) At any time during or after a given fiscal period the committee may recommend the approval of an amended budget and an increase in the rate of assessment in conformance with §

.41. Upon the basis of such recommendations, or other available information, the Secretary may approve an amended budget and increase the assessment rate. Such increase shall be applicable to all melons which were handled by each first handler thereof during such fiscal period.

(d) The payment of assessments for the maintenance and functioning of the committee may be required irrespective of whether particular provisions of this part are suspended or become inoperative;

(e) To provide funds for the administration of the provisions of this part the committee may accept the payment of assessments in advance;

(f) If a handler does not pay his assessment within the time prescribed by the committee, the assessment may be increased by a late payment charge or an interest charge at rates prescribed by the committee with the approval of the Secretary.

§ .43 Accounting.

(a) All funds received by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this part shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part. At the end of the fiscal period an annual financial audit shall be conducted by a competent accountant and two copies sent to the Secretary;

(b) The Secretary may at any time require the committee, its members and alternates, employees, agents, and all other persons to account for all receipts and disbursements, funds, property, or records for which they are responsible. Whenever any person ceases to be a member of the committee or alternate, he shall account to his successor, the committee, or to the person designated by the Secretary, for all receipts, disbursements, funds, and property (including but not limited to books and other records) pertaining to the committee's activities for which he is responsible, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in the successor, the committee, or person designated by the Secretary, the right to all such property and funds and all claims vested in such person;

(c) The committee may make recommendations to the Secretary for one or more of the members thereof, or any other person to act as a trustee for holding records, funds, or any other committee property during periods of suspension of this part, or during any period or periods when regulations under this part are not in effect, and, if the Secretary determines such action appropriate, he may direct that such person or persons may act as such trustee or trustees.

§ .44 Excess funds.

(a) If, at the end of a fiscal period the assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund of any such assessments which represent payments by the handler in excess of his pro rata share, shall be credited with such refund against his operations of the following fiscal period or such excess shall be accounted for in accordance with one of the following:

(1) The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish an operating monetary reserve and may carry over to subsequent fiscal periods excess funds in a reserve so established, except funds in the reserve shall not exceed approximately two fiscal periods' expenses. Such reserve funds may be used (i) to defray any expenses authorized under this part, (ii) to defray expenses during any fiscal period prior to the time assessment income is sufficient to cover such expenses, (iii) to cover deficits incurred during any fiscal period when assessment income is less than expenses, (iv) to defray expenses incurred during any period when any or all provisions of this part are suspended or are inoperative, and (v) to cover necessary expenses of liquidation in the event of termination of this part. Any funds remaining after termination should be refunded to handlers on a pro rata basis. If it is found impracticable to return such remaining funds to handlers, such funds shall be disposed of in such manner as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate;

(2) If such excess is not retained in a reserve or used to defray necessary expenses of liquidation, as provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, it shall be refunded proportionately to the handlers from whom collected, except any sum paid by any handler in excess of his pro rata share of the expenses during any fiscal period may be applied by the committee at the end of such fiscal period to any outstanding obligations due the committee from such handler.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

§ .48 Research and development.

The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish or provide for the establishment of production research, marketing research, and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, consumption, or efficient production of melons. The expenses of such projects shall be paid from funds collected pursuant to § .42.

REGULATIONS

§ .50 Marketing policy.

(a) Prior to or at the same time initial recommendations in any fiscal period are made pursuant to § .51, and as the Secretary may require, the committee shall prepare a marketing policy statement. (a) Each person who first handled apples shall, with respect to the apples so handled by him, pay to the committee upon demand such person's pro rata share of the expenses which the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the committee during each fiscal year. Each such person's share of such expenses shall be equal to the ratio between the total quantity of apples handled by him as the first handler thereof during the applicable fiscal year and the total quantity of apples so handled by all persons during the same fiscal year. The payment of assessments for the maintenance and functioning of the committee may be required under this part throughout the period it is in effect irrespective of whether particular provisions thereof are suspended or become inoperative.

(b) The Secretary, shall fix the rate of assessment not to exceed 5 cents per first sale unit or equivalent in any container or containers to be paid by each such person. At any time during or after the fiscal year, the Secretary may, subject to the limitations of this paragraph, increase the rate of assessment in order to secure sufficient funds to cover any later finding by the Secretary relative to the expense which may be incurred. A higher rate of assessment may be established but first must be approved by grower referendum. Such assessments shall be applied to all apples handled during the applicable fiscal year. In order to provide funds for the administration of the provisions of this part during the fiscal year before sufficient operating income is available from assessments, the committee may accept the payment of assessments in advance and may also borrow money for such purpose.

(c) The committee shall impose a late payment charge on any handler who fails to pay his assessment within the time prescribed by the committee. In the event the handler thereafter fails to pay the amount outstanding, including the late payment charge, within the prescribed time, the committee shall impose an additional charge in the form of interest on such outstanding amount. The rate of such charges shall be prescribed by the committee, with the approval of the Secretary.

§ .42 Accounting.

(a) If, at the end of a fiscal year the assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, such excess shall be accounted for as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, each person entitled to a proportionate refund of any excess assessment shall be credited with such refund against the operation of the following fiscal year unless such person demands payment thereof, in which event it shall be paid to him: Provided, That any sum paid by a person in excess of his pro rata share of the expenses during any fiscal year may be applied by the committee at the end of such fiscal year to any outstanding obligations of such person.

(2) The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish and maintain during one or more fiscal years, an operating monetary reserve in an amount not to exceed approximately 1 fiscal year's operational expenses. Upon approval by the Secretary, funds in such reserve shall be available for use by the committee for all expenses pursuant to § .40.

(3) Upon termination of this part, any funds not required to defray the necessary expenses of liquidation shall be disposed of in such manner as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate: Provided, That to the extent practical, such funds will be returned pro rata to the persons from whom such funds were collected.

(b) All funds received by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this part shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part and shall be accounted for in the manner provided in this part. The Secretary may at any time require the committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(c) Upon the removal or expiration of the term of office of any member of the committee, such member shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his possession to his successor in office and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor full title to all of the property, funds, and claims vested in such member pursuant to this part.

§ .43 Exemptions.

RULES OF PRACTICE IN ECONOMIC PROCEEDINGS

Applications for Route Authority; Correction

AGENCY: Civil Aeronautics Board.

ACTION: Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This document corrects a previously proposed rulemaking document. These proposed amendments would require a motion to have a new route application consolidated with an earlier one to be made within 30 days of the filing date of the earlier one. It would also prohibit petitions for reconsideration asking for changes in the scope of route proceedings after instituting orders have been issued. The Board is proposing these amendments on its own initiative to reduce the time needed to complete route proceedings.

DATES: Comments by: December 26, 1978.

Comments and other relevant information received after these dates will be considered by the Board only to the extent practicable.

ADDRESSES: Twenty copies of comments should be sent to Docket 33723, Civil Aeronautics Board, 1825 Connecticut Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20428. Individuals may submit their views as consumers without filing multiple copies. Comments may be examined in Room 711, Civil Aeronautics Board, 1825 Connecticut Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. as soon as they are received.

Bureau of the Census

CERTAIN POPULATION AND PER CAPITA INCOME ESTIMATES

Challenge Procedures

AGENCY: Bureau of the Census.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this proposed rule is to establish standard procedures to be followed in the event that a State or unit of local government wishes to challenge certain population or per capita income estimates prepared by the Bureau of the Census. The proposed rule is needed to formalize procedures which were previously followed informally and to extend to the State or unit of local government the right to a hearing prior to a final determination of the challenged estimate by the Director of the Census Bureau. In addition to this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, States and units of local government are being informed of this proposed rule through notification in the Census Bureau publication, "Data User News," advance notice to the National League of Cities and the National Association of Counties, and advance notice to the members of the Federal-State Cooperative Program for Local Population Estimates in each State.

DATE: Comments must be received on or before January 2, 1978.

ADDRESSES: Interested persons may participate in this proposed rulemaking by submitting written data, views, or arguments to: Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233.

Comments received on or before January 2, 1978, will be considered before final action is taken on this proposal. Copies of all written comments will be available for examination by interested persons at: The Census Library, Room 2471, FB No. 3, Suitland, Md. 20233.

The proposal may be changed in light of the comments received.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Daniel B. Levine, Associate Director for Demographic Fields, Bureau of the Census, Room 2061, FB No. 3, Washington, D.C. 20233, 301-763-5167.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This proposed rule would provide a two-part procedure for States and units of local government wishing to challenge the population or per capita income estimates (or both) of the Bureau. Under this proposal the State or unit of local government would initiate the procedure by writing the Bureau of the Census. The Bureau would receive and review any evidence and attempt to resolve the challenge informally, through letters and telephone calls.

If the challenge is unable to be resolved informally, the State or unit of local government would be given the opportunity of proceeding formally. A hearing officer would be appointed by the Census Director to review the data and to receive any further evidence, attempt to resolve the matter, and conduct a hearing if the State or unit of local government so requests.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed that a new part 90 be added to 15 CFR in the manner set forth below.

AUTHORITY: 13 U.S.C. 4.

§ 90.1 Scope and applicability.

These rules prescribe the administrative procedure available to States and units of local government to challenge the current estimates of population or per capita income developed by the Bureau of the Census.

§ 90.2 Policy of the Bureau of the Census.

It is the policy of the Bureau of the Census to provide the most accurate population and per capita income estimates possible given the constraints of time, money, and available statistical techniques. It is also the policy of the Bureau to provide States and units of local government the opportunity to challenge these estimates and to present probative evidence relating to the accuracy of the estimates.

§ 90.3 Definitions.

As used in this part (except where the context clearly indicates otherwise) the following definitions shall apply:

- (a) "Bureau" means the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce.
- (b) "Challenge" means, in accordance with this part, the process of objecting to or calling into question the Bureau's population or per capita income estimates of a State or unit of local government by that State or unit of local government.
- (c) "Director" means Director of the Bureau of the Census, or an individual designated by the Director to perform under this part.

- (e) "Estimate" means a statistically derived intercensal population or per capita income figure prepared to update earlier census figures.

(f) "State" includes the District of Columbia.

(g) "Unit of local government" means the government of a county, municipality, township, place, or other minor civil division, which is a unit of general government below the State.

§ 90.4 General.

This part provides a procedure for a State or unit of local government to challenge the population or per capita income estimates of the Bureau. The Bureau shall receive these challenges and attempt to resolve them informally with the locality. If the challenge is not resolved informally, the challenging State or unit of local government may then, at its option, proceed formally.

§ 90.5 When challenge may be filed.

A challenge to the population or per capita income estimates pertaining to a particular entitlement period may be filed any time up to 180 days after the beginning of the General Revenue Sharing (Pub. L. 92-512) initial entitlement period for which the estimates are issued. A challenge to an estimate may also be filed any time up to 180 days from the date the Bureau, on its own initiative, revises that estimate. If, however, a State or unit of local government has sufficiently meritorious reason for not filing in a timely manner, the Bureau has the discretion to accept the challenge.

§ 90.6 Where to file challenge.

A challenge must be in writing and is to be filed with the Chief, Population Division, Bureau of the Census, Room 2011, Federal Building 3, Washington, D.C. 20233.

§ 90.7 Evidence required.

The challenging State or unit of local government shall provide whatever evidence it has relative to the challenge at the time the challenge is filed. The Bureau may request further evidence.

§ 90.8 Review of challenge.

The Chief, Population Division, Bureau of the Census, or the Chief's designee shall review the challenge and the evidence supporting the challenge and shall attempt to resolve the challenge.

§ 90.9 When formal procedure may be invoked.

In the event the Chief, Population Division, is unable to resolve the challenge to the satisfaction of the challenging State or unit of local government, the challenging State or unit of local government shall be informed in writing of the reasons for the outcome and of its right to proceed formally.

§ 90.10 Form of formal challenge and time limit for filing.

The formal challenge shall be in writing and may be mailed or hand delivered to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233. The formal challenge shall include a list indicating the material submitted to the Chief, Population Division, during the informal stage, and shall include any additional relevant material it chooses to submit. The formal challenge shall be filed within 30 days of the date the State or unit of local government receives notification by certified mail (return receipt requested) of its right to proceed formally. If, however, a State or unit of local government has a sufficiently meritorious reason for not filing in a timely manner, the Bureau has the discretion to accept the formal challenge.

§ 90.11 Appointment of hearing officer.

Upon receipt of a formal challenge filed in accordance with this part, the Director will appoint a hearing officer to receive written and oral evidence.

§ 90.12 Qualifications of hearing officer.

The hearing officer, a person not involved in the preparation of the estimates being challenged, shall be appointed by the Director from a roster of employees of the Bureau of the Census who have been approved in advance by the Assistant Secretary for Administration, Department of Commerce.

§ 90.13 Offer of hearing.

The hearing officer shall receive the formal challenge and shall notify the State or unit of local government in writing of (a) its right to a hearing prior to the development of a recommended decision for the consideration of the Director; and (b) its right to the development of a recommended decision for the consideration of the Director without a hearing. If the State or unit of local government requests that a hearing be conducted, the hearing officer shall establish the date, time, and meeting place for the hearing.

§ 90.14 Hearing.

(a) The hearing shall be conducted by the same hearing officer who collected the documentary evidence, if possible, and shall be held at Bureau of the Census headquarters in Suitland, Md., unless the Director determines that the hearing should be held elsewhere.

(b) The hearing shall be conducted in a manner so as to bring out the pertinent facts relating to the challenge.

(c) The rule of evidence will not be strictly enforced but irrelevant and unduly repetitious testimony shall be excluded.

(d) Cross-examination of all witnesses is permitted and all testimony shall be received under oath or affirmation.

(e) The hearing officer shall have the authority to: (1) Administer oaths or affirmations, (2) rule on the admissibility of evidence, (3) limit the number of witnesses, (4) exclude any person from the hearing room for contumacious conduct or misbehavior that obstructs the hearing, (5) perform other such acts as are necessary or appropriate to the efficient conduct of any proceeding; and (6) make initial findings, analyses, and recommendations.

(f) The hearing shall be electronically recorded but no written record will be prepared unless the Bureau so orders or unless the challenging locality desires one in whole or part and pays the costs of such a written record, or the apportioned costs should the Bureau also desire a written record.

(g) The hearing officer shall prepare findings, analyses, and recommendations and shall transmit them along with all documentary evidence received and the tape or written record (if any) of the hearing to the Director.

§ 90.15 Decision by Director.

Upon receiving the material specified in § 90.14(g), the Director shall (a) review the findings and recommendations of the hearing officer, and (b) prepare and transmit a letter to the challenging State or unit of local government stating the decision and the reasons therefor. A copy of the hearing officer's findings, analyses, and recommendations shall also be transmitted to the challenging State or unit of local government, and is otherwise publicly available. This decision is final for the Department of Commerce.

§ 90.16 Notification of adjustment.

In the event that the Director finds that the population or per capita income estimate should be adjusted, the Bureau shall promptly inform the appropriate governmental agencies of the revision.

Dated: October 26, 1978.

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Correction.

SUMMARY: This document corrects a Commission document previously published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on Wednesday, October 11, 1978. The language of the "Summary" of the original document misstated certain provisions of the Commission's proposed order.

DATE: The correction is effective on October 31, 1978.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In FR Doc. 78-28588, appearing in FEDERAL REGISTER issue for Wednesday, October 11, 1978, 43 FR 46856, the language of the "Summary" of the document misstated certain provisions of the proposed order. Therefore, the following language is to be substituted for the previously published "Summary":

"In settlement of alleged violations of Federal law prohibiting unfair acts and practices and unfair methods of competition, this provisionally accepted consent agreement, among other things, would require a Park Ridge, Ill., medical society, composed mainly of physicians who have limited their professional activities to the practice of anesthesiology, to cease restraining or impeding anesthesiologists from engaging in the practice of anesthesiology on other than a fee-for-service basis, to cease including statements relating to compensation arrangements in membership documents, and to cease conditioning membership privileges on compensation arrangements. The society would be further required to delete from its files any record of disciplinary sanctions imposed upon members for engaging in practice on other than a fee-for-service arrangement and to advise affected parties of such deletion. Additionally, the society would be required to revoke the charter of any component society which fails to comply with the terms of the order."

COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

[17 CFR Part 1]

GENERAL REGULATIONS UNDER THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT

Proposed Rule Requiring That Records Subject to Inspection, and Copies Thereof, Be Provided to the Commission

AGENCY: Commodity Futures Trading Commission.

ACTION: Proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Commodity Futures Trading Commission is proposing to adopt an amendment to its record-keeping requirements expressly entitling its representatives to remove temporarily and reproduce any books and records required to be kept and subject to inspection under the Commodity Exchange Act as amended ("Act"),¹ unless copies of such are furnished to the Commission's representative as and when requested.

The Commission has been informed that some confusion exists regarding the procedure pursuant to which Commission staff may obtain books and records or copies thereof to facilitate completion of inspections conducted under the Act. The regulation is intended to clarify this procedure, to set forth expressly the obligations of those persons required to keep books and records pursuant to the Act and Commission regulations, and to facilitate implementation of the broad statutory inspection authority given the Commission.²

DATES: Comments must be received on or before November 30, 1978.

ADDRESS: Comments on the proposed amendment should be sent to: Commodity Futures Trading Commission, 2033 K Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20581, attention: Secretariat.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Eric Vinson, Esq., Contract Markets Section, Division of Trading and Markets, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, 2033 K Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20581, 202-254-8955.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 1.31 of the Commission's regulations, 17 CFR 1.31 (1977), implements the Commission's inspection powers over books and records required to be kept by the Act and Commission regulations. Such books and records are required to be kept readily accessible to facilitate inspection by Commission staff in the exercise of Commission regulatory functions. However, the ability to reproduce or copy information quickly is often an essential requirement for the effective, complete and thorough inspection of business records. Moreover, providing copies to Commission staff may reduce the burden and inconvenience, on the person required to keep records, of having Commission staff work with original business records for prolonged periods.

Accordingly, the Commission is proposing to supplement rule § 1.31 by clarifying the procedure Commission staff uses to conduct inspections. The requirement that persons required to keep records must immediately provide copies at their own expense is consistent with the existing provision in § 1.31(c)(3).

Although it is not anticipated that many instances will arise where further access to the original records will be necessary once copies are provided, the proposed amendment expressly provides that the obligation to keep records readily accessible for inspection does not cease after copies are provided. Of course, the copies provided must be true and accurate copies of the originals, and additional inspection may be required to verify that this is so.

The Commission also wishes to emphasize that the procedures covered by regulation 1.31 do not affect the obligations of any person to produce books, records or other documents through the exercise of Commission subpoena power during the course of a formal investigation.

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. All comments submitted will be available, both before and after the closing date, for inspection in the Office of the Secretariat.

The amendment is proposed under the authority of sections 4, 4g, 4i, 5, 5a, 8a, 7 U.S.C. 6, 6g, 6i, 7, 7a, 12a (1976), as amended by Pub. L. 95-405, September 30, 1978, 92 Stat. 865 et seq. In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend Chapter I of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations by amending § 1.31 as set forth below (paragraph (a)(2) is new language):

§ 1.31 Books and records; keeping and inspection.

(a)(1) All books and records required to be kept by the Act or by these regulations shall be kept for a period of five years from the date thereof and shall be readily accessible during the first 2 years of the 5-year period. All such books and records shall be open to inspection by any representative of the Commission or the United States Department of Justice.

(2) Without limiting the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, to facilitate effective completion of such inspections, any representative of the Commission may obtain and/or remove temporarily such books and records for reproduction, unless the person required to keep such books and records immediately provides copies thereof, at his own expense, and continues to keep the original books and records readily accessible for inspection in accordance with this section.

(b) Reproductions on microfilm may be substituted for hard copy as follows:

(1) Computer, accounting machine or business machine generated records may be immediately produced or reproduced on microfilm and kept in that form; other records may be immediately produced or reproduced on microfilm and kept in that form if prepared by any means from source documents which are retained in hard copy form for two years as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section;

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARESocial Security Administration
[20 CFR Part 404]COVERAGE OF EMPLOYEES OF STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

Annual Wage Reporting

AGENCY: Social Security Administration, HEW.

ACTION: Extension of Comment Period.

SUMMARY: This Notice extends the period for comments to the Notice of Proposed Rule Making (NPRM) published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 9, 1978 (43 FR 35344). The NPRM concerned a change in the wage reporting requirements for State and local governments. The NPRM would change the reporting frequency from quarterly to annual.

Several persons have requested an extension of the time for submitting comments on the proposed rules. They believe that a 60-day comment period is inadequate in view of the importance of these proposed rules. The Department of Health, Education, and Welfare has therefore decided to extend the comment period an additional 60 days.

DATE: Comments concerning the NPRM will now be considered if received on or before December 11, 1978.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 25, 1978 (43 FR 32264), the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) proposed procedures for the initiation, development, establishment, amendment, and revocation of performance standards for medical devices. These procedures would implement section 514 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 360d). The deadline for written comments was September 25, 1978.

The Food and Drug Administration has received a written request for an extension of the comment period, and the Commissioner of Food and Drugs has determined that it is appropriate to extend the period for comment on the proposal.

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 501, 502, 513, 514, 701, 52 Stat. 1049-1051 as amended, 1055-1056 as amended, 90 Stat. 540-552 (21 U.S.C. 351, 352, 360c, 360d, 371)) and under authority delegated to him (21 CFR 5.1), the Commissioner hereby grants an extension of the comment period until November 30, 1978.

CERTAIN RED AND BROWN ALGAE

Affirmation of GRAS Status as Direct Human Food Ingredients; Extension of Comment Period

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration.

ACTION: Extension of comment period.

SUMMARY: This document extends the comment period on the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) proposal to affirm the generally recognized as safe (GRAS) status of certain red and brown algae as direct human food ingredients. This action is taken in response to a request for extension of the comment period.

DATE: Written comments by January 31, 1979.

ADDRESS: Written comments to the Hearing Clerk (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Room 4-65, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20857.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Corbin I. Miles, Bureau of Foods (HFF-335), Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 200 C Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20204, 202-472-4750.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the FEDERAL REGISTER August 4, 1978 (43 FR 34500), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs proposed to affirm the generally recognized as safe (GRAS) status of a brown alga, Macrocystis pyrifera, as a direct human food ingredient. Interested persons were invited to submit comments on the proposal by October 3, 1978.

On October 2, 1978, a letter was received from Japan Food Corp. This letter requested an extension of the comment period for the GRAS affirmation proposal for certain red and brown algae for an additional 120 days, to January 31, 1979. The extension was requested to allow sufficient time for Japan Food Corp. to prepare comments on the proposed rule.

The Commissioner has decided that the opportunity to comment on GRAS affirmation proposals is an important part of the GRAS review process, that an extension of the comment period for this proposal would be appropriate, and that the additional time should be extended to all interested parties.

Therefore, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 201(s), 409, 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, 72 Stat. 1784-1788 as amended (21 U.S.C. 321(s), 348, 371(a))) and under authority delegated in 21 CFR 5.1, the Commissioner extends the comment period for the GRAS affirmation proposal for certain red and brown algae for an additional 120 days.

Accordingly, interested persons may, on or before January 31, 1979, submit to the Hearing Clerk (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, Room 4-65, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20857, written comments (preferably four copies and identified with the Hearing Clerk docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document) regarding the Commissioner's proposal. The envelope containing the comments should be prominently marked "Red and Brown Algae." Received comments may be seen in the above office between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Dated: October 24, 1978.

ADDRESS: Address all comments to: Executive Director, Federal Mine Safety and Health Review Commission, 1730 K Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20006.

- 2700.31 Settlement.
- 2700.32 Ex parte communications.
- 2700.33 Relief from final orders of the Commission.

2700.34 Hearings before the Commission or members thereof.

Authority: Secs. 105 and 113, Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977, Pub. L. 95-164 (30 U.S.C. 815 and 823).

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 2700.1 Scope; rules of construction.

(a) These rules govern all proceedings before the Commission and its judges.

(b) These rules shall be construed to afford expeditious, fair, and inexpensive procedures to all parties.

(c) Unless the context indicates differently, words importing the singular also import the plural and vice versa. Words importing the masculine gender also import the feminine and vice versa.

(d) On any procedural question not regulated by the act, these Procedural Rules, or the Administrative Procedure Act (particularly 5 U.S.C. 554 and 556), the Commission or any judge shall be guided to the extent practicable by any pertinent provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Federal Rules of Evidence as appropriate; except that hearsay evidence shall be admissible, in the discretion of the presiding judge or Commission, whether the declarant is available or unavailable, if the evidence is of the type that the presiding judge or Commission finds offers assurances of accuracy.

§ 2700.2 Definitions.

(a) "Act" means the Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977, 30 U.S.C. § 801 et seq.

(b) "Commission," "Secretary," "commerce," "operator," "agent," "mine," and "person," have the meanings stated in section 3 of the Act.

(c) Words used in these rules have the meaning with which they are used in the Act.

(d) "A paper initiating a proceeding" or "initiating paper" is: a request for temporary relief under section 105(b)(2), 30 U.S.C. 815(b)(2); a complaint under section 105(c), 30 U.S.C. 815(c); a notice of contest under section 105(d), 30 U.S.C. 815(d); an application under section 107(e)(1), 30 U.S.C. 817(e)(1); or a complaint under section 111, 30 U.S.C. 821.

(e) "Paper" includes a brief, petition, motion, statement of affirmative defenses, answer, response and initiating paper.

(f) The term "Judge" means an Administrative Law Judge qualified pursuant to section 3105 of title 5, United States Code, and appointed by or transferred to the Commission under section 113 of the Act.

§ 2700.3 Parties and representatives.

(a) Party status. A complaining miner, applicant, or a representative of a miner under sections 105(c) and 111, 30 U.S.C. 815(c) and 821, an affected miner or his representative who has filed a notice of party status before hearing, and an intervenor, are parties. Affected miners or their representatives who state after the start of the hearing their desire to participate as parties shall, upon just terms, be freely accorded party status.

(b) Intervention. A motion for leave to intervene may be filed at any time before hearing on the merits. The motion shall set forth the interest of the petitioner, and show that intervention will expedite rather than delay the determination of issues. The Secretary may at any time intervene as of right in proceedings under sections 105(c)(3) and 111, 30 U.S.C. 815(c)(3) and 821.

(c) Representatives. A party may appear through a representative. These rules do not require representation by a lawyer, nor do they prohibit representation by persons not lawyers.

§ 2700.4 Papers, responses, statement of affirmative defenses, answers to complaints.

(a) Responses not required; when to file voluntary response. Unless these rules state otherwise, or a party is ordered otherwise, a response to a paper is not required. A voluntary response shall be filed within 10 days after service of the paper.

(b) Statement of relief requested. Every paper, except notices of contest, shall contain a short and plain statement of the relief requested and supporting grounds; a request under section 105(b)(2), 30 U.S.C. 815(b)(2), shall be accompanied by a detailed statement giving reasons for relief. A complaint under section 105(c) or 111, 30 U.S.C. 815(c) or 821, shall state the amount of time or the date from which the complainant was idle or out of work, and his regular rate of pay.

(c) Answer to complaint required. Within 20 days after service of a complaint under section 105(c) or 111, 30 U.S.C. 815(c) or 821, and within 10 days after service of a request for temporary relief under section 105(b)(2), 30 U.S.C. 815(b)(2), a person against whom the complaint was issued or who opposes the request shall file an answer with the Commission. An allegation of the complaint or request shall be deemed admitted unless it is denied or the answering party states that despite diligent inquiry he lacks sufficient knowledge to enable him to admit or deny the allegation.

(d) Commerce coverage. Any order, complaint, citation, application, or other similar paper issued or filed by the Secretary, and any complaint issued or filed by a miner, representative of miners, or applicant for employment is deemed to impliedly allege that the pertinent mine has products that enter commerce, or has operations or products which affect commerce. This implied allegation is admitted unless specifically denied in a voluntary response, answer, or statement of affirmative defense.

(e) Statement of affirmative defense. A statement of affirmative defense shall be filed within 15 days of service of the initiating paper or with an answer or voluntary response.

(f) Reinstatement order proceedings. (1) Prior to issuing any reinstatement order, the administrative law judge assigned to the matter shall conduct a preliminary proceeding at which any application of the Secretary for a reinstatement order under section 105(c)(2) shall be supported by a showing of (i) jurisdiction, and (ii) the basis of the Secretary's finding that the miner's complaint was not frivolously brought.

(2) If the administrative law judge finds that the Secretary has adequately shown jurisdiction and that the miner's complaint is not frivolously brought, the administrative law judge shall immediately order the reinstatement of the miner pending final order on the complaint.

(3) No more than 20 days after issuance of the reinstatement order, a hearing shall be held on any application of an operator for modification or termination of the reinstatement order. At such hearing, the reinstatement order may be modified or terminated if the applicant for modification or termination shows:

(i) There is a substantial likelihood applicant will succeed on the merits; and

(ii) Such relief will not adversely affect the safety and health of miners.

(4) Any hearing under this paragraph shall not be a hearing on the merits of the miner's complaint, nor shall any modification or termination limit the right of a miner to proceed for reinstatement under section 105(c)(3) or the authority of the Secretary to issue a complaint under section 105(c)(2) of the Act.

(5) Any complaint filed by the Secretary under section 105(c) of the Act shall be filed within 90 days of the reinstatement order.

§ 2700.5 Amendments to papers.

(a) Amendment of some initiating papers as of right. A party who has filed a complaint under sections 105(c) or 111, 30 U.S.C. 815(c) or 821, a request for temporary relief under section 105(b)(2), 30 U.S.C. 815(b)(2), or an application under section 107(e)(1), 30 U.S.C. 817(e)(1), may amend his complaint, request, or application once as of right before a response is served, or if no response is served no later than issuance of notice of hearing.

(b) Amendment of responses as of right. A party who has filed a response to a paper initiating a proceeding may amend his response before the hearing begins once as of right within 5 days after service of his voluntary response, and within 10 days after service of his required response.

(c) Motion to amend. A motion to amend a paper, whether made before, during, or after a hearing, shall be granted unless prejudice to an opposing party's presentation of his claim or defense cannot be cured without unreasonably delaying the proceeding.

(d) Amendments to conform to issues tried. An issue not raised in the papers but tried by the actual consent of the parties, express or implied, shall be treated as if it has been raised in the papers. The papers may be amended at any time, upon motion of a party, the judge, or the Commission, to reflect or confirm the trial by consent of an issue not raised in the papers. A failure to object to the introduction of evidence relevant only to an issue not so raised may be considered an indication of trial by consent.

(e) Relation back of amendments. A claim or defense raised in an amendment, and a claim asserted against a party added by an amendment, relates back to the date of the original paper, if (1) the claim or defense raised in the amendment arose out of the condition, conduct, transaction, or occurrence that was the subject of the original paper, and (2), in the case of an amendment adding a party, the added party has, within the limitation period set by law, received such notice of the claim that the presentation of his defense will not be prejudiced, and the original paper reflected a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party.

(f) Amendment of notice of contest. This rule does not authorize amendment of a notice of contest.

§ 2700.6 Filing of pleadings and other documents.

(a) Where to file. A paper not filed in connection with interlocutory review shall be filed, once a judge has been assigned to the proceeding, with the judge, unless his decision has been issued. In all other circumstances, a paper shall be filed with and addressed to the Executive Director of the Commission at: Federal Mine Safety and Health Review Commission, 1730 K Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20006.

(b) Necessary information. The first paper filed by a party shall state his address and business telephone number. A paper shall state the docket number of the case, if one has been assigned.

(c) Effectiveness of filing. Filing is effective upon receipt.

(d) Number of copies. One copy of a paper shall be filed with the judge. Seven copies of a paper shall be filed with the Commission; but if the filing party is not represented by a lawyer or other representative, one copy shall be filed.

(e) Certificate. Every paper filed shall be accompanied by a certificate of service.

§ 2700.7 Service of papers.

(a) Service upon parties. A copy of a filed paper shall be served upon all parties.

(b) Service upon nonparties. A copy of a paper initiating a proceeding, a settlement proposal, and a motion to withdraw either a citation, order, or other request for relief by the Secretary, shall, if filed before a hearing, be served by the filing upon the representatives of affected miners; if there are unrepresented miners, the operator shall serve a copy of the papers by posting it on the bulletin board referred to in section 109(a), 30 U.S.C. 819(a). A posted copy of a paper initiating a proceeding shall be accompanied by a visible notice informing affected miners of their right to participate as parties and that all relevant papers are available for inspection and copying. The notice shall state that a miner may become a party by filing a notice of party status with the Federal Mine Safety and Health Review Commission, 1730 K Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20006. Papers shall remain posted until the hearing begins or until earlier disposition. Proof of posting on the bulletin board shall be filed within 4 working days after posting.

(c) Service of notice of hearing. The operator shall serve a copy of the notice of hearing upon the representative of affected miners. If there are unrepresented miners, he shall post a copy of the notice as if it were a paper initiating a proceeding.

(d) Exclusions from paragraphs (b) and (c). Paragraphs (b) and (c) do not apply to cases initiated by complaints under sections 105(c) and 111, 30 U.S.C. 815(c) and 821.

(e) Manner and effectiveness of service. Unless otherwise ordered, service may be accomplished by first class mail or personal delivery. Service shall be effective upon mailing.

(f) Service upon representative only. Service upon a party appearing through a representative shall be made only upon the representative.

§ 2700.8 Computation of time.

(a) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed in these rules, the day from which the designated period begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) When service of a paper is by mail, 3 days shall be added to the time allowed by these rules for the filing of a response or other paper.

Subpart B—Hearings

§ 2800.10 Docketing; assignment of judge.

Upon receipt of a paper initiating a proceeding, including a notice of contest, the Executive Director shall assign a docket number to the proceeding. The docket number shall indicate whether the proceeding must be expedited. The Chairman, or the Chief Administrative Law Judge, if authorized by the Chairman, shall promptly assign an administrative law judge to hear the matter.

§ 2700.11 Discovery.

(a) Exercise of authority. This rule defines the manner and circumstances in which the authority in section 113(e), 30 U.S.C. 823(e), is to be exercised.

(b) Discovery limited by judge. A judge may limit discovery to expedite any proceeding.

(c) Relevant evidence; privileges. Only relevant evidence not validly claimed to be privileged may be discovered.

(d) Names of miner witnesses and informants. A judge shall not disclose or order a person to disclose to an operator or his agent the name of a miner who is expected by the judge to testify or who a party expects to summon or call as a witness. A judge shall not, except in extraordinary circumstances, disclose or order a person to disclose to an operator or his agent the name of an informant who is a miner.

(e) Request for admissions. A party may request admissions of another party. A statement in a request is admitted unless, within 10 days, it is denied, objected to on stated grounds, or the party served states that despite diligent inquiry he lacks sufficient knowledge to enable him to admit or deny. Filed requests and responses shall be admitted into the record without motion by a party but may later be struck as irrelevant or for other reasons.

(f) Entry upon land. A judge may order, for good cause shown, a party to permit a party or his agent to enter upon designated land to inspect and gather information.

(g) Production of documents and objects. A judge may order, for good cause shown, a party to produce books, papers, documents or objects.

(h) Deposition and interrogatories. Depositions may be compelled, and answers to interrogatories may be required, in extraordinary circumstances.

(i) Subpenas. The Commission or a judge may issue a subpoena to testify or produce materials under section 113(e), 30 U.S.C. 823(e). A certificate of service shall be filed with the issuing person or body. A person served may move to revoke or modify a subpoena within 5 days of service or at the hearing, whichever is sooner.

§ 2700.12 Expedited proceedings.

(a) Expedited proceedings shall be had if required by the Act, or if ordered by two Commissioners upon their own motion or motion of a party. A motion of a party to expedite proceedings may be served and filed by telegram, or may be read verbatim over the telephone if followed by a written motion served with dispatch.

(b) The Commission or a judge, in expedited proceedings, may waive or modify any requirements in these rules. The judge shall order daily transcripts of the hearing, and may make other orders necessary to insure expedition. A petition for review of an interlocutory ruling of a judge during expedited proceedings will not be entertained, unless accompanied by a sworn statement that the interlocutory ruling will cause irreparable harm to a person.

(c) A hearing on the merits of the case shall not be scheduled with less than 4 days notice to the parties unless all parties to the proceeding consent to an earlier hearing.

§ 2700.13 Authority and duty of judges.

(a) A judge is authorized to: administer oaths and affirmations; require a party to state its position with respect to any issue; regulate the course of the hearing and maintain its decorum; hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of issues; hear reasonably short offers of proof; examine witnesses on his own motion; and take any other action authorized by law.

(b) A judge shall: conduct a fair and impartial hearing; assure that the facts are fully elicited, but without impairment of his impartiality; exclude irrelevant evidence on his own motion; and insure that persons entitled to an opportunity to participate as parties are given the notice required by these rules and the Act.

§ 2700.14 Decision of the judge.

On the day of his decision, the judge shall file with the Executive Director, the record, and as many copies of his decision as there are parties plus seven. After receipt of the record, the decision, and the correct number of copies, the Executive Director shall certify the record and promptly issue to each party a copy of the decision.

An order approving a settlement proposal is a decision of a judge; the judge shall transmit to the Executive Director as many copies of such an order as there are parties plus three.

Subpart C—Review by the Commission

§ 2700.20 Petitions for discretionary review.

(a) Length. Petitions for discretionary review if more than 10 pages in length shall contain a table of contents and a table of authorities cited.

(b) Authorities cited. An unreviewed decision of a judge shall not be precedent binding upon the Commission and is not a principal authority under section 113(d)(2)(A)(iii) of the Act, 30 U.S.C. 823(d)(2)(A)(iii).

(c) Denial of petition. A petition not granted is deemed denied.

(d) Statements in opposition to petitions for discretionary review may be filed at the times and places specified in this section for the filing of petitions for discretionary review. Any statement shall contain a concise statement on each portion of the petition to which it is addressed.

§ 2700.21 Interlocutory review.

(a) Petition for interlocutory review. A party who desires review of an interlocutory ruling of a judge shall file, within 3 days after receipt of the ruling, if written, or within 5 days after notice of the ruling, if oral, seven copies of a petition for interlocutory review. The petition shall be accompanied by supporting documents, a copy of pertinent portions of the record, if available, and a copy of the ruling, if written. A judge shall reduce his ruling to writing upon the request of a party desiring interlocutory review.

(b) Action upon the petition. A petition for interlocutory review shall be granted when the judge and two Commissioners, or three Commissioners, certify that the ruling involves a controlling question of law or policy about which there is substantial ground for difference of opinion and that immediate review may materially expedite the proceeding.

(c) Stays. The filing or granting of a petition shall not stay the proceeding or the effect of a ruling unless otherwise ordered.

§ 2700.22 Briefs before the Commission.

(a) Time for filing briefs. A party whose petition for discretionary review has been granted, shall file any brief within 20 days after the granting of the petition. Other parties shall file any briefs within 20 days after the petitioner's brief is served or due, whichever is sooner. If the Commission orders review on its own motion, all parties shall file any briefs they wish considered by the Commission within 20 days of the order. A party whose petition for interlocutory review has been granted, shall file any brief within 15 days after the granting of the petition. Any responsive brief shall be filed within 10 days of service or due date of the petitioner's brief, whichever is sooner.

(b) Length; table of contents or index. Except by permission of the Commission, a brief shall have no more than 35 pages of text. Briefs in excess of 15 pages shall include a table of contents or index and a table of authorities cited.

(c) Late filing; motion for extension of time to file brief. The Commission may reject a brief not timely filed. A motion for extension of time shall not be granted except in an extraordinary circumstance; the burden of a heavy caseload, or a lack of personnel, does not constitute an extraordinary circumstance.

§ 2700.23 Review by a panel of Commissioners.

The Chairman may designate, on behalf of the Commission, three or more Commissioners to serve on a panel. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, a panel may exercise any authority of the Commission. A decision of a panel may be reviewed by the full Commission upon its own motion or upon motion of a party.

§ 2700.24 Oral argument before the Commission.

The Commission may, in its discretion, grant an opportunity for oral argument.

Subpart D—Miscellaneous

§ 2700.30 Special circumstances; waiver of rules.

In special circumstances not contemplated by the provisions of these rules, or for good cause shown, the Commission may, upon application by any party, or upon its own motion, waive any rule or make such orders as justice or the administration of the Act requires.

§ 2700.31 Settlement.

(a) Policy. Settlement is encouraged at all stages of a proceeding including the review stage.

(b) Requirements. A settlement proposal shall be consistent with the provisions and purposes of the Act and these rules. It shall include motions which if granted would finally dispose of the controversy, and shall be signed by all parties.

(c) Service. Settlement proposals shall be served upon represented and unrepresented, affected miners who are not parties in the manner prescribed by § 2700.7(b).

PROPOSED RULES

(d) Action. A settlement proposal shall not be approved until 10 days after service upon represented and unrepresented miners who are not parties.

(e) Motions to withdraw. A motion to withdraw that is induced by a promise of another party shall be treated by the parties, the judge, and the Commission, as a settlement proposal.

§ 2700.32 Ex parte communications.

(a) There shall be no ex parte communication, with respect to the merits of any case not concluded, between the Commission, including any member, officer, or agent of the Commission who is employed in the decisional process, and any of the parties or intervenors.

(b) Any inquiries concerning filing requirements, the status of cases, or docket information shall be directed to the Office of the Executive Director of the Commission at: Federal Mine Safety and Health Review Commission, 1730 K Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20006.

(c) In the event an ex parte communication in violation of this section occurs, the Commission or the judge may make such orders or take such action as fairness requires. Upon notice and hearing, the Commission may take such disciplinary action as is appropriate in the circumstances against any person who knowingly and willfully makes or solicits the making of a prohibited ex parte communication.

(d) All ex parte communications in violation of this section shall be placed on the public record of the proceeding.

§ 2700.33 Relief from final order.

(a) Upon motion of a party or the Commission in the case of clerical errors, the Commission may correct clerical errors in a final order. Upon motion of a party and upon such terms as are just, the Commission may relieve a party from a final order for the following reasons: (1) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence not discoverable by due diligence; (3) fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the order is void; (5) the order has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior order upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or should no longer be given prospective effect; or (6) any other reason justifying relief. A party's motion shall be made within a reasonable time, before the filing of the record in a U.S. court of appeals, and, for reasons (1), (2), and (3), not more than 1 year after issuance of the order.

(b) Exclusion. This rule does not authorize relief from a final order "not subject to review by any court or agency" within the meaning of sections 105 (a) and (b)(1)(A) of the Act, 30 U.S.C. 815 (a) and (b)(1)(A).

§ 2700.34 Hearings before the Commission or members thereof.

Whenever the Commission deems it necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act or to avoid unnecessary costs or delays, it may order that any proceeding which may have been instituted before it or a judge be transferred to and continued before it or any panel of three members of the Commission. The provisions of this part shall, insofar as applicable, govern proceedings before the Commission or any members pursuant to this section, and the powers granted to administrative law judges in such provisions shall, for the purpose of this section, be reserved to and exercised by the Commission or the members thereof who shall preside.

MEDICARE PROGRAM

Cost to Related Organizations; Decision To Develop Regulations

AGENCY: Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), HEW.

ACTION: Notice of decision to develop regulations.

SUMMARY: The Department is proposing a revision of medicare reimbursement regulations applicable to services, facilities, and supplies furnished to a provider of services by an organization related to the provider by common ownership or control. The revision will codify policy presently included in program instructions (Provider Reimbursement Manual HIM-15-1) and clarify existing regulations. This revision supplements the notice of proposed rulemaking published on August 17, 1978 (43 FR 36488), which provides specific rules for reimbursement of services, facilities, and supplies furnished by shared service organizations. The Department has classified this as a policy significant regulation.

MEDICARE PROGRAM

Withholding of Payments to Providers of Services and Other Suppliers of Services; Decision To Develop Regulations

AGENCY: Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), HEW.

ACTION: Notice of decision to develop regulations.

SUMMARY: The regulation would clarify due process procedures that must be followed when payments to providers, physicians, and suppliers of services under the Medicare program (title XVIII of the Social Security Act) are withheld because of suspected fraud or willful misrepresentation. The intent is to assure that due process procedures are adequate and clear. The Department has classified this as a policy significant regulation.

MEDICAID PROGRAM

Fraud in the Medical Assistance Program Verification of Services; Decision To Develop Regulations

AGENCY: Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), HEW.

ACTION: Notice of decision to develop regulations.

SUMMARY: The Department is amending regulations to require all States to implement a written verification of services program with medicaid recipients. At present, only States with a medicaid management information system are required to do so. States would be permitted to initiate the program on a sample basis if the sample was sufficient to provide information regarding the extent and types of possible aberrant practices by medicaid providers. The regulations would require that the verification notification summarize the services claimed, request a response, and provide a means for the recipient to answer at no cost. The intent is to improve our capability to detect and deter fraud and abuse. The Department has classified this as a policy significant regulation.

Procedures for the Recovery of Overpayments, Withholding of Payments When There is Evidence of Fraud, and the Suspension or Exclusion of Providers Who Defraud or Abuse the Medicaid Program

AGENCY: Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), HEW.

ACTION: Notice of decision to develop regulations.

SUMMARY: The proposed regulation would set forth State plan requirements for States to establish mechanisms for recovery of overpayments, withholding payments when there is evidence of fraud, and the suspension or exclusion of providers who defraud or abuse the medicaid (title XIX of the Social Security Act) program. The intent is to ensure that States have the authority to take administrative action when there is evidence of provider fraud or abuse. AGENCY: Interstate Commerce Commission.

ACTION: Notice of study.

SUMMARY: This notice announces that the Interstate Commerce Commission is beginning a general study considering the adoption of depreciation accounting for railroad track structures. The study will consider the problems associated with any change to depreciation accounting as well as possible improvements to the existing betterment accounting rules.

DATES: Written responses and accompanying data should be filed with the Commission on or before January 2, 1978.

ADDRESSES: Send written responses to: Bureau of Accounts, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Bryan Brown, Jr., phone 202-275-7448.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Interstate Commerce Commission is reexamining its accounting rules for railroad track property. To aid this effort, the Commission requests comments from the public on any matter relevant to this subject. Several areas of specific interest to the Commission are outlined below.

The Commission is reexamining the current use of retirement-replacement-betterment accounting (betterment accounting) in light of (1) the April 30, 1976 petition by the Department of Transportation to consider revision of the accounting for existing railroad track structures, and (2) the adoption of depreciation accounting for track structures by five railroads in reports to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and to the public. The Commission investigated the issue of betterment versus depreciation accounting some 20 years ago and reaffirmed the appropriateness of betterment accounting. However, the Commission believes the railroad industry environment has so changed over the years because of increased Federal subsidization, large scale abandonments, and rehabilitation projects that a reexamination of this issue is warranted.

The Bureau of Accounts conducted an informal conference on February 15, 1978 and February 16, 1978 in Docket No. 36557, as an initial step in reopening the subject of depreciation versus betterment accounting for railroad track structures. No resolution of the problems associated with implementing depreciation accounting which reduce the reliability of the financial information was reached at the informal conference. Consequently, we seek to address the issues through publication of this advance notice of proposed rulemaking.

Theoretical arguments relevant to betterment versus depreciation accounting have been set forth in previous investigations without resolution. We believe any final decision can not be based on the theoretical arguments alone. The theoretical arguments are important and will be considered when a final decision is made. However, this study will seek to (1) address the implementation problems associated with depreciation accounting for railroad track structures, (2) address the issue of distortion of the income statement associated with charging massive rehabilitation expenditures of operating expense in the same year they are incurred, (3) consider solutions to the problem of accounting for impairments in economic value of a railroad line segment, and (4) the possible impact on the railroad industry's after tax cash flow.

SUBJECTS ON WHICH PUBLIC COMMENT IS SPECIFICALLY REQUESTED

1-1. Is it necessary to develop a uniform methodology in applying depreciation accounting to railroad track structures?

1-2. Is development of a standard definition for unit of property, which distinguishes capital expenditures from operating expenditures, feasible? If so, how should it be developed?

1-3. To distinguish between capital expenditures and operating expenditures, is routine or "spot" maintenance versus replacement or "programmed" maintenance a more effective criteria than using standard units of property criteria? If so, how should spot maintenance and programmed maintenance be defined?

a. What labor costs should be capitalized? Direct labor? Indirect labor?

b. Should overhead costs be capitalized? If so, how much and on what basis should these costs be allocated?

c. How should relaying of rail from one category of track to another be accounted for?

1-4. Should an estimate of service life apply to the entire track structure or its individual components?

a. Is it necessary or practical to apply separate depreciation rates to the same type of track component when made of different materials (e.g., concrete ties versus wooden ties)?

b. Should the volume of traffic moving over the tracks or the grade and curvature of the track result in different depreciation rates for a track component?

c. What method of life estimation is most appropriate under the circumstances (e.g., turnover method, simulated plant record method)?

d. Should the Commission consider adopting a straight-line method on a basis other than years (e.g., on a use basis) and if so, what should that basis be?

e. Should rail in place be depreciated in light of its high salvage value in comparison to its cost?

1-5. If ratable depreciation were required, can or should property accounts be restated to retroactively adopt depreciation accounting? If so, how should the beginning balance of accumulated depreciation be established? Also, should net worth be increased to reflect this new basis?

1-6. What would be the cost to implement depreciation accounting? Costs would include additional time and money spent for labor costs, revisions to the existing internal reporting system, additional data processing requirements, as well as possible anticipated increases in Federal, State, and local taxes.

2. Should massive track rehabilitation expenditures be capitalized as an alternative to expensing such costs (and possibly distorting the current period's financial statements) in the current period?

a. Under what circumstances would this accounting be appropriate?

b. How can or does a railroad differentiate between "normal" track maintenance, track rehabilitation and track improvement?

c. What problems, if any, can be seen in implementing this accounting?

3. Is accounting recognition of impairment in economic value of a railroad line segment necessary? If so, how should it be reported?

a. What criteria should be used to determine when impairment has occurred?

b. What are the problems in adopting such a procedure?

4. What would be the impact on after tax cash flow for either railroads individually or collectively?

Decided October 18, 1978.

By the Commission, Chairman O'Neal, Vice Chairman Christian, Commissioners Brown, Stafford, Gresham and Clapp.

H. G. HOMME, Jr.,
Acting Secretary.

A copy of the record pertaining to this decision is available for public review between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. in Room 6886C of the Department of Commerce Building, at 14th and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20230.

Docket No. 78-00299. Applicant: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Science and Education Administration, FR, Room 205, Building 004, ARC-West Beltsville, Md. 20705. Article: LKB 2128-010 UM Ultratome IV Ultramicrotome and Accessories. Manufacturer: LKB Produkter AB, Sweden. Intended use of article: The article is intended to be used for studies to be conducted on the pathological anatomy of higher plant cell interactions with virus, fungus, and bacterial pathogens; fungus-virus interactions; and virus-insect cell interactions. Studies will include investigations of the structural formation of viruses and virus-induced products of infection at the ultrastructural level. Chemical composition of diseased tissues is studied by histochemical and cytochemical methods in observations of thick and ul-trathin sections. The objectives of these studies are to investigate pathogen-host interactions both structurally and chemically as a basis for developing improved methods of disease control with an increased understanding of host cell modifications and pathogen development in the processes of disease development.

Comments: No comments have been received with respect to this application.

Decision: Application approved. No instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, is being manufactured in the United States.

Reasons: The foreign article has a cutting speed range of 0.1 to 50 millimeters/second (mm/sec). The most closely comparable domestic instrument is the Model MT-2B ultramicrotome manufactured by Ivan Sorvall, Inc. (Sorvall). The Sorvall Model MT-2B ultramicrotome has a cutting speed range of 0.09 to 3.2 mm/sec. We are advised by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in its memorandum dated September 26, 1978, that: (1) Cutting speeds in the excess of 4 mm/sec. are pertinent to the applicant's research studies and (2) the domestic instrument does not provide the pertinent feature. We, therefore, find that the Model MT-2B ultramicrotome is not of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article for such purposes as this article is intended to be used.

The Department of Commerce knows of no other instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, which is being manufactured in the United States.

Decision on Application for Duty-Free Entry of Scientific Article

The following is a decision on an application for duty-free entry of a scientific article pursuant to section 6(c) of the Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Materials Importation Act of 1966 (Pub. L. 89-651, 80 Stat. 897), and the regulations issued thereunder as amended (15 CFR Part 301).

A copy of the record pertaining to this decision is available for public review between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. in Room 6886C of the Department of Commerce Building, at 14th and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20230.

Docket No. 78-00163. Applicant: University of Rochester, 250 East River Road, Rochester, N.Y. 14623. Article: 2 (two) Imacon 675 Ultrafast streak cameras and accessories. Manufacturer: Hadland Photonics Ltd., United Kingdom. Intended use of article: The article is intended to be used in studies of the feasibility of heating targets with a pulsed high power laser to produce thermonuclear reactions to convert the laser photons to electrons and then sweep the accelerated electrons across a phosphor, transforming temporal to spatial variations. Using the known sweep rate, the length of the streaked laser output can be converted to time history and pulse widths.

Comments: No comments have been received with respect to this application.

Decision: Application approved. No instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, could have been made available to the applicant without excessive delay within the meaning of subsection 301.11(c) of the regulations at the time the foreign article was ordered (January 21, 1977).

Reasons: Excessive delivery time is described in subsection 301.11(c) of the regulations as follows:

Excessive delivery time. Duty-free entry of the article shall be considered justified without regard to whether there is being manufactured in the United States an instrument, apparatus, or accessory of equivalent scientific value for the purposes described in response to question 7 of the application form, if the delay in obtaining such domestic instrument, apparatus, or accessory (as indicated by the difference between the delivery times quoted by domestic manufacturer and foreign manufacturer) will seriously impair the accomplishment of the purposes. In determining whether the difference in delivery times is excessive, the Deputy Assistant Secretary shall take into account the relevancy of the applicant's program to other research programs with respect timing, the applicant's need to have such instrument, apparatus, or accessory available at the scheduled time for the course(s) in which the article is intended to be used, and other relevant circumstances.

The applicant issued a purchase order, No. B26599C dated January 21, 1977, for the foreign article which required delivery of the first camera on May 30, 1977 and the second camera on June 30, 1977 after receipt of order (ARO). The National Bureau of Standards (NBS) advises in its memorandum dated August 24, 1978, that an equivalent domestic camera was demonstrated to the applicant by General Engineering and Applied Research Inc., Palo Alto, Calif. (GEAR) in June 1977, but that this camera was not demonstrated as available at the time the foreign article was ordered. On September 24, 1976, GEAR indicated to the applicant (in a request for quote relating to a prior purchase), that it could not predict a viable delivery schedule for its streak cameras. GEAR wrote to NBS on October 4, 1977 (after the foreign article was ordered), and, among other things, stated on page 3, "Regarding delivery, we have tried to maintain a 4-month ARO for the Pico-V and a 6-month ARO for the Pico-X (emphasis added)." The Department concludes that GEAR, as late as October 1977, could not be certain a fulfilling a contract with specific delivery times.

The applicant identified important projects (requiring useable date by middle 1977), which would be seriously impaired by the delay in receiving the equivalent domestic cameras. NBS advises in its memorandum dated above that the difference in delivery between the domestic instrument and the foreign article is pertinent because any delay of his proposed use would seriously impair his program.

Accordingly, we find that the combination of uncertain domestic availability in January 1977 and the difference in commitment to prompt delivery between the domestic and foreign manufacturers amounts to "excessive delivery" within the meaning of subsection 301.11(c) as delay in delivery would seriously impair the timely accomplishment of the applicant's purposes at the time the foreign article was ordered.

COMMITTEE FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF TEXTILE AGREEMENTS

CERTAIN COTTON APPAREL PRODUCTS FROM THE FEDERATIVE REPUBLIC OF BRAZIL

Additional Import Controls

OCTOBER 24, 1978.

AGENCY: Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements.

ACTION: Controlling cotton apparel from Brazil in category 359 at a level of 152,174 pounds during the agreement year which began on April 1, 1978 and extends through March 31, 1979.

(A detailed description of the categories in terms of T.S.U.S.A. numbers was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 4, 1978 (43 FR 884), as amended on January 25, 1978 (43 FR 3421), March 3, 1978 (43 FR 8828), June 22, 1978 (43 FR 26773), and September 5, 1978 (43 FR 39408)).

SUMMARY: Under the terms of paragraph 16 of the Bilateral Cotton Textile Agreement of April 22, 1976, as amended, between the Governments of the United States and the Federative Republic of Brazil, the Government of the United States has decided to control imports of cotton textile products in category 359, produced or manufactured in Brazil and exported to the United States during the 12-month period which began on April 1, 1978.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 30, 1978.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Donald R. Foote, International Trade Specialist, Office of Textiles, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, 202-377-5423.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On July 12, 1978, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 29975) a letter dated July 7, 1978 from the Chairman of the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements to the Commissioner of Customs which established levels or restraint under the new textile category system for certain specified categories of cotton textiles and cotton textile products, produced or manufactured in Brazil, which may be entered into the United States for consumption, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, during the 12-month period which began on April 1, 1978 and extends through March 31, 1979. The agreement also establishes consultation levels for categories, like category 359, which are not subject to specific limits. In accordance with the terms of the bilateral agreement, the U.S. Government has decided to control imports in category 359 at the specified consultation level of 700,000 square yards equivalent (152,174 pounds) for the 12-month period which began on April 1, 1978. Accordingly, there is published below a letter from the Chairman of the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements to the Commissioner of Customs directing that imports in this category be limited to the designated level of restraint. The level has not been adjusted to reflect any imports during the period which began on April 1, 1978. Adjustments will be made to account for imports of 143,042 pounds during the period beginning on April 1, 1978 and extending through August 31, 1978.

ROBERT E. SHEPHERD,
Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements, and Deputy Assistant Secretary for Domestic Business Development.

COMMISSIONER: This directive amends, but does not cancel, the directive issued to you on July 7, 1978, by the Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements, concerning imports into the United States of certain cotton textiles and cotton textile products produced or manufactured in Brazil.

Under the terms of the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles done at Geneva on December 20, 1973, as extended on December 15, 1977; pursuant to the Bilateral Cotton Textile Agreement of April 22, 1976, as amended, between the Governments of the United States and the Federative Republic of Brazil; and in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order 11651 of March 3, 1972, as amended by Executive Order 11951 of January 6, 1977, you are directed to prohibit, effective on October 30, 1978, and for the 12-month period beginning on April 1, 1978, and extending through March 31, 1979, entry into the United States for consumption, and withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, of cotton textile products in Category 359, produced or manufactured in Brazil, in excess of 152,174 pounds.¹

¹The level of restraint has not been adjusted to account for any imports after

Entries of cotton textile products in Category 359, produced or manufactured in Brazil and exported to the United States before April 1, 1978, shall not be subject to this directive.

Cotton textile products in Category 359 which have been released from the custody of the U.S. Customs Service under the provisions of 19 U.S.C. 1448(b) prior to the effective date of this directive shall not be denied entry under this directive.

A detailed description of the categories in terms of TSUSA numbers was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 4, 1978 (43 FR 884), as amended on January 25, 1977 (43 FR 3421), March 3, 1978 (43 FR 8828), June 22, 1978 (43 FR 26773) and September 5, 1978 (43 FR 39408).

In carrying out the above directions, entry into the United States for consumption shall be construed to include entry for consumption into the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

The actions taken with respect to the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil and with respect to imports of cotton textile products from Brazil have been determined by the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements to involve foreign affairs functions of the United States. Therefore, the directions to the Commissioner of Customs, being necessary to the implementation of such actions, fall within the foreign affairs exception to the rulemaking provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553. This letter will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Sincerely,

ROBERT E. SHEPHERD,
Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements,

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. RI78-21]

BRADEN-DEEM, INC.

Order Granting Petition for Special Relief and Permitting Intervention

OCTOBER 23, 1978.

On December 7, 1977 Braden-Deem, Inc. (Braden Deem) filed a petition for special relief pursuant to § 2.76 of the Commission's General Policy and Interpretations (18 CFR 2.76) for the sale of natural gas¹ to Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. (Panhandle Eastern) from the White No. 1 Well, Robbins No. 1 Well and Barnes No. 1 Well in the Carver-Robbins Gas Field, Pratt County, Kans. Subsequently, Braden Deem filed and amended petition for special relief on March 21, 1978, and a second amended petition on March 28, 1978.

Braden Deem, an independent small producer, was issued a small producer certificate in Docket No. CS72-0151 on January 31, 1972. Braden Deem is currently receiving 35 cents per Mcf for the sale of this gas.

Notice of Braden Deem's petition for special relief was issued by the Commission on March 7, 1978; notice of Braden Deem's second amended petition was issued on May 11, 1978. Both notices were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. filed a timely petition to intervene in the original petition for special relief.

In their second amended petition for special relief Braden Deem requests a rate of $1.10 per Mcf for the sale of this gas.² Braden Deem states that it will be necessary every three to five years to pull and repair bottom hole pumps, repair pumping units, overhaul the pumping unit engines, overhaul the compressors and compressor engines, and treat the formation with a calcium carbonate scale inhibitor to prevent the deposition of scale on bottom hole pumps. Braden Deem states that it is not economical to continue producing gas from the subject wells at the current rate. Braden Deem filed with its petition for special relief executed amendments dated November 3 and 4, 1977 to its contract with Panhandle Eastern dated October 26, 1960, in which Panhandle Eastern agreed to pay the price for this gas authorized by the FERC.

² In its original petition Braden Deem requested a rate of 83 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia plus annual escalations of 14 cents per Mcf for the sale of this gas. In their first amended petition for special relief, Braden Deem requested a price of 97 cents per Mcf plus annual escalations of 14 cents per Mcf.

Braden Deem is not proposing to make any additional investment in these wells to recover the remaining gas. The petition does not meet the criteria for special relief set forth in § 2.76 of the Commission's regulations. Therefore, the petition will be considered as one seeking a rate in excess of the adjusted national rate pursuant to § 2.56(b)h of the Commission's regulations. The rate must be calculated on an "out of pocket" expense basis.

Based on data filed by Braden Deem, Staff has determined that the estimated production expenses over the remaining life of the project will be $241,082. Staff estimates that 218,313 Mcf of reserves attributable to the net working interest of Braden Deem remains to be recovered. Staff's cost study, using these expenses and reserves, indicates that a total rate of $1.10 per Mcf at 14.65 psia is required to recoup all out of pocket expenses associated with continuing production.³

Based on the record in this case, including Staff's cost analysis, the Commission concludes that the requested rate is cost supported and that it is in the public interest to grant relief.

The Commission finds. The petition for special relief by Braden Deem should be approved.

The Commission orders. (A) The petition for special relief filed by Braden Deem, as amended, is hereby granted;

(B) Braden Deem is authorized to collect a rate of $1.10 per Mcf at 14.65 psia for the sale of natural gas from the Barnes No. 1 Well, the White No. 1 Well and the Robbins No. 1 Well in the Carver-Robbins Gas Field, Pratt County, Kansas to Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. effective as of the date of the Commission order subject to the condition set forth in Paragraph (C) below;

(C) Braden Deem must file a Notice of Independent Producer Rate Change reflecting the above authorized rate within 30 days of the date of the order herein.

(D) Panhandle Eastern is permitted to intervene in the above-entitled proceeding, subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission: Provided, however, That its participation shall be limited to matters affecting asserted rights and interests specifically set forth in its petition to intervene; And provided, further, That the admission of Panhandle Eastern in the manner provided shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that it might be aggrieved because of any orders entered in this proceeding, and Panhandle Eastern agrees to accept the record as it now stands.

By the Commission.

KENNETH F. PLUMB,
Secretary.

AMBIENT AIR MONITORING REFERENCE AND EQUIVALENT METHOD DESIGNATIONS

Bendix Model 8303 SO₂ Analyzer; Meloy Model NA530R NO₂ Analyzer; Meloy Model SA285E SO₂ Analyzer

Notice is hereby given that EPA, in accordance with 40 CFR Part 53 (40 FR 7044, 41 FR 11252, 41 FR 52694), has designated two additional equivalent methods for the measurement of ambient concentrations of sulfur dioxide (SO₂) and one additional reference method for the measurement of ambient concentrations of nitrogen dioxide (NO₂). All three methods are automated methods (analyzers). The first and third are equivalent methods for SO₂, which employ the "flame photometric detection (FPD)" measurement principle. The other method is a reference method for NO₂, which uses the gas phase chemiluminescence measurement principle specified for NO₂ reference methods by Appendix F of 40 CFR Part 50 (as amended on December 1, 1976—41 FR 52688). The methods are as follows:

EQSA-1078-030, "Bendix Model 8303 Sulfur Analyzer," operated on either the 0-0.5 ppm range or the 0-1.0 ppm range.

This method is available from the Bendix Corp., Environmental and Process Instruments Division, Post Office Box 831, Lewisburg, W.Va., 24901. A notice of receipt of application for this method appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER, Volume 42, December 7, 1977, page 61894 (43 FR 61894).

*NOTE—With respect to the two Meloy analyzers, models NA530R (RFNA-1078-031) and SA285E (EQSA-1078-032), users should be aware that designation of ranges less than 0.5 ppm (500 ppb) are based on meeting the same absolute performance specifications required for the 0-0.5 ppm (0-500 ppb) range. EPA is considering—but has not yet established—proportionately more restrictive performance specifications applicable to ranges less than 0-0.5 ppm (500 ppb). Thus, designation of these lower ranges does not guarantee commensurably better performance than that obtained on the 0-0.5 ppm. (0-500 ppb) range.

A test analyzer representative of each of these methods has been tested by the respective applicant, in accordance with the test procedures specified in 40 CFR Part 53 as amended on December 1, 1976 (41 FR 52394). After reviewing the results of these tests and other information submitted by the respective applicants, EPA has determined, in accordance with Part 53, that these methods should be designated as either reference or equivalent methods as appropriate. The information submitted by the applicants will be kept on file at the address shown below and will be available for inspection to the extent consistent with 40 CFR Part 2 (EPA's regulations implementing the Freedom of Information Act).

As reference or equivalent methods, these methods are acceptable for use by States and other control agencies for purposes of §51.17 (a) of 40 CFR Part 51 ("Requirements for Preparation, Adoption, and Submittal of Implementation Plans") as amended on February 18, 1975 (40 FR 7042). For such use, each method must be used in strict accordance with the operation or instruction manual provided with the method and subject to any limitations (e.g., operating range) specified in the applicable designation (see descriptions of the methods above). Vendor modifications of a designated method used for purposes of §51.17(a) are permitted only with prior approval of EPA, as provided in Part 53. Provisions concerning modification of such methods by users are specified under §51.17(a)(f) (41 FR 11255).

In general, designation applies to any analyzer which is identical to the analyzer described in the designation. In many cases, similar analyzers manufactured prior to the designation may be upgraded (e.g., by minor modification or by substitution of a new operation or instruction manual) so as to be identical to the designated method and thus achieve designated status at modest cost. The manufacturer should be consulted to determine the feasibility of such upgrading.

Part 53 requires that sellers of designated methods comply with certain conditions. The conditions are given in 40 CFR 53.9 and are summarized below:

(1) A copy of the approved operation or instruction manual must accompany the analyzer when it is delivered to the ultimate purchaser.

(2) The analyzer must not generate any unreasonable hazard to operators or to the environment.

(3) The analyzer must function within the limits of the performance specifications given in Table B-1 of Part 53 for at least 1 year after delivery when maintained and operated in accordance with the operation manual.

(4) Any analyzer offered for sale as a reference or equivalent method must bear a label or sticker indicating that it has been designated as a reference or equivalent method in accordance with Part 53.

(5) If such an analyzer has one or more selectable ranges, the label or sticker must be placed in close proximity to the range selector and indicate which range or ranges have been included in the reference or equivalent method designation.

(6) An applicant who offers analyzers for sale as reference or equivalent methods is required to maintain a list of ultimate purchasers of such analyzers and to notify them within 30 days if a reference or equivalent method designation applicable to the analyzer has been canceled or if adjustment of the analyzers is necessary under 40 CFR 53.11(b) to avoid a cancellation.

(7) An applicant who modifies an analyzer previously designated as a reference or equivalent method is not permitted to sell the analyzer (as modified) as a reference or equivalent method (although he may choose to sell it without such representations), nor to attach a label or sticker to the analyzer (as modified) under the provisions described above, until he has received notice under 40 CFR 53.14(c) that the original designation or a new designation applies to the method as modified or until he has applied for and received notice of a new reference or equivalent method determination for the analyzer as modified.

Aside from occasional breakdowns or malfunctions, consistent or repeated noncompliance with any of these conditions should be reported to: Director, Environmental Monitoring and Support Laboratory, Department E (MD-77), U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Research Triangle Park, N.C. 27711.

Designation of these reference and equivalent methods will provide assistance to the States in establishing and operating their air quality surveillance systems under 40 CFR 51.17(a). Additional information concerning this action may be obtained by writing to the address given above.

Dated: October 25, 1978.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION

SEMIANNUAL AGENDA OF REGULATIONS

Pursuant to section 2 of Executive Order 12044, the Farm Credit Administration has established the following agenda of significant regulations which it will have under development and review during the period of November 1, 1978, through March 30, 1979.

SIGNIFICANT REGULATIONS UNDER DEVELOPMENT

12 CFR 612.2030—Nepotism. This regulation prohibits nepotism in the employment practices of the banks and associations of the Farm Credit System. The Farm Credit Administration is considering amending this regulation pursuant to 12 U.S.C. 2243 and 2252 to (1) more clearly describe the employment relationships which are prohibited, (2) remove from coverage certain relationships which are so remote that it can reasonably be assumed that they do not influence the employment practices of the institutions, and (3) prohibit the employment of relatives in certain positions which are not now covered by the regulation.

12 CFR 614.4334—Banks for Cooperatives. This regulation governs the manner in which a bank for cooperatives may offer participations in loans to other banks for cooperatives and financial institutions. Currently, Farm Credit Administration approval is required only for the form of the participation agreement used. In order to preclude the possibility that supplemental arrangements may be used to circumvent other requirements of the regulations, the Farm Credit Administration is considering amending this regulation pursuant to 12 U.S.C. 2243 and 2252 to require its approval of any supplemental agreements and modifications which directly affect such things as capitalization, interest, and loss-sharing.

Neither of the proposed amendments to the above regulations will result in (a) an annual effect upon the economy of $100 million or more, or (b) a major increase in costs or prices for individual industries, levels or government, or geographic regions. Therefore, a regulatory analysis of the type required by section 3 of Executive Order 12044 will not be prepared for these proposals.

SIGNIFICANT REGULATIONS SELECTED FOR REVIEW

12 CFR 615.5210—Annual Budget and Projections (net worth objectives). This regulation sets out requirements for budget and long range financial and operating projections of the banks and associations of the Farm Credit System.

12 CFR 618.8300—618.8350—Release of Information. These regulations govern the release of information concerning borrowers by officials of the Farm Credit institutions.

12 CFR 618.8430—Internal Controls. This regulation provides for the establishment of internal control policies to, among other things, effectively control and account for all funds, property, and other assets of the Farm Credit banks and associations.

STATUS OF REGULATIONS PREVIOUSLY SELECTED FOR REVIEW

On May 22, 1978, the Farm Credit Administration published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 21985) a list of significant regulations which it selected for its initial review. The current status of those regulations is as follows:

12 CFR 612.2030—Nepotism. The Farm Credit Administration has under consideration an amendment to this regulation. See Significant Regulations under Development above. The proposed amendment has been submitted to the Farm Credit banks for comment.

12 CFR 614.4260 (c)—Banks for Cooperatives (season loans to finance commodities). On June 27, 1978, the Farm Credit Administration published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 27732) a final rule which amended this regulation to conform to a revised list of commodities authorized for price support programs under regulations of the Commodity Credit Corporation.

12 CFR 615.5120 (a)—Purchase Eligibility Requirements (farm credit investment funds). On October 16, 1978, the Farm Credit Administration published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 47489) a final rule amending this regulation to clarify that Farm Credit Administration employees may not purchase these bonds.

12 CFR 615.5330 (a)—Banks for Co-operatives (surplus). On August 15, 1978, the Farm Credit Administration published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 36052) a final rule amending this regulation to permit a bank for cooperatives to maintain in surplus an amount less than 25 percent of its outstanding capital stock when approved by the Farm Credit Administration.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

PREEMPTIVE EFFECT OF SECTION 111(c)(1) OF MAGNUSON-MOSS WARRANTY ACT

Wisconsin Mobile Home Warranty Law

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Response to request for opinion.

SUMMARY: Published below is a letter with an analysis which responds to a request of the Wisconsin Attorney General for Commission interpretation of section 111(c)(1) of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act and its preemptive effect on Wisconsin's Mobile Home Warranty Law. The Commission has determined that several State requirements are rendered inapplicable to warranties complying with Federal law by section 111(c)(1).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Rachel Miller, Attorney, Division of Product Reliability, 202-523-0425, or Charles Taylor, Attorney, Division of Product Reliability, 202-523-3660, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The letter and analysis follow.

Hon. Bronson C. La Follette
Attorney General
State of Wisconsin
Department of Justice
Madison, Wis. 53702

Dear Attorney General La Follette:

By letter dated February 22, 1978, you requested an opinion on whether any of the provisions of Wisconsin's mobile home warranty law and regulations (§218.14 Wis. Stats. and IND 14.50 Wis Admin. Code) are subject to or preempted by section 111(c)(1) of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, 15

U.S.C. 2311(c)(1). At the request of the staff, Assistant Attorney General James Jeffries supplemented your request by filing on March 16, 1978, an informal interpretation of the effect of the Wisconsin law. This letter is in reply to your request for a Commission opinion in this matter.

The Commission has concluded that the following two requirements of the Wisconsin law, and the related provisions of the regulations of the Wisconsin Department of Industry, Labor, and Human Relations, submitted with your request are affected by operation of section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act:

(1) Disclosure in the written warranty of the address where notice of problems is to be given. Section 218.14(1)(c)(1), Wis. Stats. IND 14.50(2)(c).

(2) Disclosure in the written warranty of the fact that unsuccessful repair is a breach of warranty, and that the consumer's right to proper repair continues regardless of whether the warranty period has expired. Section 218.14 (1)(c)(2), Wis. Stats.

These requirements are inapplicable to warranties which meet Federal requirements by operation of section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

Paragraph (2) of section 111(c) of the Warranty Act provides a procedure whereby States may petition the Commission for permission to enforce a State requirement which would otherwise be rendered inapplicable to written warranties complying with Federal standards by operation of paragraph (1) of section 111(c). Upon application of an appropriate State agency the Commission is required to initiate a rulemaking proceeding under section 109 of the Warranty Act to determine if such State requirement affords greater protection to consumers than Federal requirements and does not unduly burden interstate commerce. If the Commission makes such a finding, the State requirement will be applicable to written warranties for so long as the State effectively administers and enforces such provision.

A copy of the Commission's analysis of the effect of the Warranty Act on the Wisconsin State law provisions is enclosed. If upon consideration of this matter you desire the public rulemaking proceeding described above, for consideration of the preservation of the two affected statutory provisions, you should submit an application pursuant to section 111(c)(2) of the Warranty Act to the Secretary of the Commission.

You are invited to contact Rachel Miller, Attorney, Division of Product Reliability, 202-523-1753, or Charles Taylor, Attorney, Division of Product Reliability, 202-523-3660, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580, should you have any questions concerning this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

[Signed]

CAROL M. THOMAS,
Secretary.

Enclosure.

ANALYSIS OF SECTION 111 OF MAGNUSON-MOSS WARRANTY ACT AND APPLICABILITY TO WISCONSIN MOBILE HOME WARRANTY LAWS

Section 111(c)(1)' of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act ("the Warranty ¹Section 111(c)(1). "Except as provided in subsection (b) and in paragraph (2) of this subsection, a State requirement—(A) which Act") provides that certain types of State warranty requirements are inapplicable to written warranties complying with the Warranty Act. Section 111(c)(2)² provides that an appropriate State agency may apply to the Commission for an exemption of any State warranty requirement from the preemptive effect of paragraph (1) of that section. Such an exception may be granted if after public hearings the Commission determines that the requirement meets the criteria set out in paragraph (2).

The Attorney General requests a Commission interpretation of paragraph (1) of section 111(c) and an opinion stating which provisions of Wisconsin's mobile home warranty requirements are affected by that paragraph. He has not requested exemption of any such affected requirements as provided in paragraph (2) of section 111(c); therefore the rulemaking procedure specified in the Act for exemption applications is not applicable in this instance. The Attorney General may choose later to request or not to request an exemption under the procedure of paragraph (2) for any provisions of Wisconsin law which the Commission determines are affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

This analysis builds on the findings made by the Commission in the California determination,³ which first considered the effect of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act on State warranty requirements. In general, the protections of the Warranty Act are in addition to, rather than in lieu of, warranty rights and remedies under State law.⁴ Only a very narrow class of State requirements are "preempted" (that relates to labeling or disclosure with respect to written warranties or performance thereunder; (B) which is within the scope of an applicable requirement of sections 102, 103, and 104 (and rules implementing such sections), and (C) which is not identical to a requirement of section 102, 103, or 104 (or a rule thereunder), shall not be applicable to written warranties complying with such sections (or rules thereunder)."

²Section 111(c)(2). "If, upon application of an appropriate State agency, the Commission determines (pursuant to rules issued in accordance with section 109) that any requirement of such State covering any transaction to which this title applies (A) affords protection to consumers greater than the requirements of this title and (B) does not unduly burden interstate commerce, then such State requirement shall be applicable (notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection) to the extent specified in such determination for so long as the State administers and enforces effectively any such greater requirement."

³Commission's Determination of Application of State of California, 42 FR 54004, Oct. 4, 1977 (hereinafter "California").

⁴Section 111(b)(1). "Nothing in this title shall invalidate or restrict any right or remedy of any consumer under State law or and other Federal law."

is, made inapplicable to warranties complying with the Federal requirements).

The Commission has already made clear that, while allowing the use of uniform warranty documents is a goal of section 111, this goal is subordinate to that of permitting States to fashion their own scheme or warranty rights and remedies which may be more protective than the minimum level of protection of the Federal Act. Only State requirements which have certain specific characteristics are affected by the Federal Act. Those characteristics are: that the requirement does not create a right or remedy for consumers;⁵ that it relates to written warranty labeling or disclosure;⁶ that it is within the scope of a requirement of sections 102, 103, or 104 of the Warranty Act, or rules under one of these sections;⁷ and that is not identical to that requirement.⁸ Only if a State requirement has all these characteristics is it "preempted," or rendered inapplicable to warranties complying with Federal law, under section 111 of the Act.⁹

Thus, a State provision which merely creates consumer rights or remedies, without providing for disclosure of them,¹⁰ would be entirely unaffected by the Warranty Act; that is, it would not be subject to "preemption." A provision which both creates a consumer right or remedy, and provides for its disclosure to consumers,¹¹ must be considered in two stages. The underlying right would continue to be effective in spite of any similarity with or difference from the Federal Act, since section 111(b) specifically preserves such rights and remedies. On the other hand, the method of disclosure of that right provided for in the State law must be considered as to whether it has the final two characteristics. If it does, then the method of disclosure in the State law is "preempted," though the underlying consumer right remains in effect. The Commission adopted this interpretation of section 111 in the course of its California determination because it is the only interpretation which gives meaning to both paragraphs (b) and (c) of that section and is consistent with the Act's legislative history.

In the California determination, the Commission defined the scope of its rule on disclosure of warranty terms, 16 CFR Part 701, to include any requirement that information appear in the warranty document itself.¹² The scope of the Federal labeling requirements, while discussed in the California determination, is not at issue in this analysis of Wisconsin law.

The California determination did not explicitly discuss the meaning of the last characteristic, that the State provision be "not identical to" a Federal disclosure or labeling requirement, although this was implicit in a number of determinations concerning mobile home requirements.¹³ Its precise meaning is particularly important where, as here, a State law mandates the giving of a written warranty with certain specified terms.

The Commission interprets "identical to" to mean "having the same effect as" or "resulting in the same disclosure as." If the item of information required by the State to be disclosed in the written warranty would also be disclosed under a Federal disclosure provision, the State requirement is "identical to" the Federal requirement for purposes of section 111. It is not essential that the State provision contain the same words as the Federal provision, or incorporate the Federal provision by reference.

The Commission's rule on warranty disclosure¹⁴ requires that up to 10 enumerated elements of a warranty be disclosed. Usually the manufacturer is free to choose the terms of a written warranty. However, when State law mandates that the written warranty contain certain terms, those mandated terms become terms of the warranty and thus must be disclosed under the Commission's rule. For example, when a State mandates a written warranty with a 1-year duration,¹⁵ that duration must be disclosed under the Commission's rule. Since the 1-year duration of the warranty would have to be disclosed under both State and Federal law, the two requirements are "identical" requirements for purposes of section 111(c)(1).

On the other hand, if the mandatory provision which the State requires to be disclosed is one which the Federal rule does not require to be disclosed, such as a telephone number for giving notice of defects under the warranty,¹⁶ then the State disclosure requirement is not identical to the Federal requirement. Thus if the State law requires disclosure of a term which is not 1 of the 10 elements enumerated in the Commission's rule, then the provision is rendered inapplicable to warranties complying with the Federal rule.

APPLICABILITY TO WISCONSIN MOBILE HOME WARRANTY LAWS

The following paragraphs discuss the specific provisions of the Wisconsin mobile home law¹⁷ and whether or not each is made inapplicable by section 111(c)(1) to warranties complying with the Federal Act, and why. In each case, only the disclosure or labeling aspect is discussed; the underlying rights created by State law cannot in any case be invalidated or restricted by the Federal Act by virtue of section 111(b)(1).

SECTION 218.14(1)

Requires giving buyers a written warranty with certain mandatory terms on mobile homes. The requirement of disclosure of the existence of the warranty is not within the scope of the Federal disclosure rule, which merely establishes what must be disclosed in the warranty once the initial decision to issue a written warranty is decided.

Requires the mandatory 1-year duration to be disclosed. This provision requires the same information to be disclosed as 16 CFR 701.3(a)(4), that is, the duration of the written warranty. Thus it does not meet the "not identical" condition of section 111(c)(1)(C). The State requirement, therefore is not "preempted" or rendered inapplicable to warranties complying with Federal requirements. (Note that the mandatory 1-year duration itself is a consumer right which is preserved by section 111(b)(1).)

SECTION 218.14(1)(a)

Establishes the characteristics or properties which are covered by the mandatory warranty, specifically, that it meet certain standards. This provision requires the same disclosure in the warranty as 16 CFR 701.3(a)(2), "[a] clear description and identification of * * * characteristics, * * * or properties covered by * * * the warranty." It therefore is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

SECTION 218.14(1)(b)

Establishes the characteristics or properties of the product which are covered by the warranty, specifically, that the product be defect-free and habitable. Like paragraph (a), this provision requires the same disclosure as 16 CFR 701.3(a)(2), and is therefore not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

Defines "reasonable care and maintenance." By letter of March 16, 1978.

¹¹Section 111(c)(1)(A).

¹²Section 111(c)(1)(B).

¹⁴See California, Section II.

¹⁵For example, the UCC implied warranty of merchantability.

¹⁶For example, the requirement that repairs under California's statutory mobile home warranty be performed at the site of the mobile home.

Mr. James D. Jeffries, Assistant Attorney General of Wisconsin, informed the staff informally that this definition need not appear in the written warranty document. Under this analysis it is not a disclosure or labeling requirement and is unaffected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

SECTION 218.14(1)(c)(1)

Defines who is responsible under the warranty. This provision requires a disclosure included in those of 16 CFR 701.3(a)(5), that is, identification of the warrantor in the warranty; therefore this requirement is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

Requires disclosure of the warranty duration. Like section 218.14(1), this requirement is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

Requires disclosure of the time within which the consumer must give notice of problems. This requires a disclosure included in those required by 16 CFR 701.3(a)(5), that is, disclosure of what the consumer must do to get warranty service, and therefore is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

Requires disclosure of the address where notice is to be given. This requirement is within the scope of 16 CFR 701.3(a)(5), but not identical to it. The Federal provision permits warrantors to include in the warranty a toll-free telephone number where warranty information may be obtained or where notice of defects may be given in addition to or instead of an address. Since the address is not required under Federal law if such a telephone number is given, this provision of Wisconsin law will not apply to warranties which meet the requirements of Federal law, by operation of section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act. The State of Wisconsin may file an application for preservation of this provision under the savings provision of section 111(c)(2) of the Warranty Act.

Requires disclosure that repairs will be made within 30 days of notice of the problem. This provision requires a disclosure included in those required by 16 CFR 701.3(a)(3). The latter provision requires a statement of what the warrantor undertakes to do under the warranty. Although usually a warrantor is not required to commit itself to performing within a set time, where by law or by choice the warrantor is committed to a certain time for repairs, that time becomes part of its undertaking to be disclosed under the Federal requirement. Therefore the State requirement is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

Requires disclosure that repairs will be performed at the mobile home site. Like the previous requirement, this provision requires a disclosure also required by 16 CFR 701.3(a)(5).

Requires that manufacturers reimburse dealers for warranty repairs. Assistant Attorney General Jeffries has advised that this provision need not be disclosed in the warranty. Therefore, it is not a disclosure or labeling provision and thus is unaffected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

SECTION 218.14(1)(c)(2)

Requires disclosure of the fact that an unsuccessful repair is a breach of warranty, and that the consumer's right to proper repair continues regardless of whether the warranty period has expired. This disclosure requirement is not identical to any requirement of the Federal Act, and therefore it does not apply to warranties which meet the requirements of the Warranty Act. The substantive right created by this provision remains in effect; it is merely the requirement that the right be disclosed in the written warranty which is made inapplicable. The State of Wisconsin may file an application for preservation of this provision under the savings provision of section 111(c)(2).

SECTION 218.14(1)(d)

Requires disclosure of mandatory extension of the warranty for the amount of time the home is uninhabitable. This provision requires a disclosure included among those required by 16 CFR 701.3(a)(4), the measurement of warranty duration. This provision and section 218.14(1) establish that the mandatory duration of the warranty is 1 year's time during which the home is habitable. The provisions require further that this duration be disclosed; such a disclosure requirement is thus identical to the Federal requirement that the duration of a warranty be disclosed.

The other provisions of the Wisconsin law do not contain any requirements relating to disclosure or labeling, and are therefore unaffected by section 111(c)(1) of the Federal Act.

The following paragraphs discuss the effect of the Warranty on those Wisconsin administrative regulations¹⁹ concerning mobile homes which differ from the Wisconsin mobile home law.

IND 14.50(2)(a)(1)

Requires disclosure of the fact that alterations not approved by the regulating agency can affect the continued validity of the warranty. This provision is a statement of parts, characteristics, components, and properties which are excluded from the warranty, which must be disclosed under 16 CFR 701.3(a)(2). The State requirement is therefore within the scope of the Federal provision but identical to it, and so is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

IND 14.50(2)(a)(1)a

Requires disclosure of the fact that such alterations are not covered by the mandatory warranty. This also requires disclosures which 16 CFR §701.3(a)(2) would require, and is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

IND 14.50(2)(a)(1)b

Gives a definition of "alteration." In the above-mentioned letter of March 16, 1973, Mr. Jeffries stated that the regulation requires this definition to appear in the warranty document. This is merely a detailed description of those characteristics, etc., which are excluded from the warranty, and is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

IND 14.50(2)(g)

Requires disclosure of the date of delivery of the home, on which date the warranty begins. This requires the same disclosures as 16 CFR 701.3(a)(4) requires, that is, disclosure of the date of commencement of the warranty if other than the date of purchase. Therefore the provision is not affected by section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act.

The other provisions of the regulation, IND 14.50 and 14.56, either do not concern labeling or disclosure, or are the same as those of the mobile home law and are affected as discussed above.

In summary, the following requirements of the Wisconsin mobile home law and regulations are rendered inapplicable to warranties which comply with the federal warranty requirements, by operation of section 111(c)(1) of the Warranty Act:

(1) Disclosure in the written warranty of the address where notice of problems is to be given. Section 218.14(1)(c)(1), Wis. Stats.; IND 14.50(2)(c).

(2) Disclosure in the written warranty of the fact that unsuccessful repair is a breach of warranty, and that the consumer's right to proper repair continues regardless of whether the warranty period has expired. Section 218.14(1)(c)(2), Wis. Stats.

The other disclosure requirements of the law and regulations, as well as their substantive rights and remedies, are unaffected by section 111(c) of the Magnuson-Moss Act.

Wisconsin may apply to the Commission, under the procedure in section 111(c)(2), for preservation of either or both of the affected requirements. Those requirements will be preserved which the Commission finds, after a rulemaking proceeding under section 109 of the act, afford protection to consumers greater than the requirements of the Warranty Act, and do not unduly burden interstate commerce.

By direction of the Commission dated September 28, 1978.

CAROL M. THOMAS,
Secretary.

2,3,5,6-Tetrachloro-4-nitroanisole (CAS 2438-88-2) has been tested for cancer-causing activity with rats and mice in the Bioassay Program, Division of Cancer Cause and Prevention, National Cancer Institute. A report is available to the public.

Summary. A bioassay for possible carcinogenicity of 2,3,5,6-Tetrachloro-4-nitroanisole was conducted using Fischer 344 rats and B6C3F1 mice. Applications of the chemical include use as an agricultural fungicide and acaricide. 2,3,5,6-Tetrachloro-4-nitroanisole was administered in the feed, at either of two concentrations, to groups of male and female animals of each species.

Under the conditions of this bioassay; dietary administration of 2,3,5,6-Tetrachloro-4-nitroanisole was not carcinogenic to male or female Fischer 344 rats or B6C3F1 mice of either sex.

Single copies of the report are available from the Office of Cancer Communications, National Cancer Institute, Building 31, Room 10A21, National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, Md. 20014.

Availability

Aniline hydrochloride (CAS 142-04-1) has been tested for cancer-causing activity with rats and mice in the Bioassay Program, Division of Cancer Cause and Prevention, National Cancer Institute. A report is available to the public.

Summary. A bioassay of aniline hydrochloride for possible carcinogenicity was conducted using Fischer 344 rats and B6C3F1 mice. Applications of the chemical include use as an intermediate in the manufacture of dyes. Aniline hydrochloride was administered in the feed, at either of two concentrations, to groups of 50 male and 50 female animals of each species.

with the exception of 49 female mice in the high dose group.

Under the conditions of this bioassay, dietary administration of aniline hydrochloride was carcinogenic to male and female Fischer 344 rats, inducing hemangiosarcomas and a combination of fibrosarcomas and sarcomas NOS of the spleen and a combination of fibrosarcomas and sarcomas NOS of multiple body organs. There was no evidence of compound-induced carcinogenicity in B6C3F1 mice of either sex.

Pivalolactone (CAS 1955-45-9) has been tested for cancer-causing activity with rats and mice in the bioassay program. Division of Cancer Cause and Prevention, National Cancer Institute. A report is available to the public.

Summary: The bioassay of pivalolactone for possible carcinogenicity was conducted using Fischer 344 rats and B6C3F1 mice. Applications of the chemical include use as an intermediate in the production of polymers. Pivalolactone in water was administered by gavage, at either of two dosages, to groups of 50 male and 50 female animals of each species.

Under the conditions of this bioassay, pivalolactone was found to be carcinogenic to both male and female Fischer 344 rats, producing squamous-cell carcinomas and squamous-cell papillomas of the forestomach. This study provided no evidence for the carcinogenicity of pivalolactone in B6C3F1 mice of either sex.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Occupational Safety and Health Administration

CALIFORNIA STATE STANDARDS

Approval; California Plan

1. BACKGROUND

Part 1953 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, prescribes procedures under section 18 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (hereinafter called the Act) by which the Regional Administrator for Occupational Safety and Health, (hereinafter called Regional Administrator, OSHA) under a delegation of authority from the Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health (hereinafter called the Assistant Secretary) (29 CFR 1953.4), will review and approve standards promulgated pursuant to a State plan which has been approved in accordance with section 18(c) of the Act and 29 CFR Part 1902. On May 1, 1973, notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (38 FR 10717), of the approval of the California plan and the adoption of Subpart K to Part 1952 containing the decision.

The California plan provides for the adoption of State standards which are at least as effective as comparable Federal standards promulgated under section 6 of the Act. State standards have been revised in accordance with Part 1953 to meet the requirement of adopting Federal Standard revisions and State initiated changes. Accordingly, California has revised these standards and promulgated them in accordance with applicable State procedures. By letter dated July 15, 1977, from Steven A. Jablonsky, Program Manager, California Occupational Safety and Health Administration to Gabriel J. Gillotti, Regional Administrator, OSHA, and incorporated as part of the plan, the State submitted proof documents concerning standards equivalent to Federal amendments to Flammable and Combustible Liquids standards of 29 CFR 1910.106(a)(35), (1910.106(g)(3)(iv)(a) and (b), 1910.106(g)(3)(vi)(a), the storage and handling of Liquefied Petroleum Gases standard of 29 CFR 1910.110(b)(8)(ii), 1910.110(b)(14)(i), 1910.110(b)(14) (xiv) and (xv), 1910.110(e)(3)(ii), Powered Industrial Trucks standard of 29 CFR 1910.178(f)(1) and State initiated change to California General Industry Safety Orders Section 3203. Federal standards that were deleted but which California did not delete are the Sanitation standard of 29 CFR 1910.141(d)(2)(i), the Material Handling and Storage standard of 29 CFR 1910.184(f)(6) and the Toxic and Hazardous Substance standard of 29 CFR 1910.1005 with the deletion of the laboratory activities of §§ 1910.1003, 1910.1004 and 1910.1006 through 1910.1016. These standards, which are contained in Title 8, Chapter 4 of the California Administrative Code were promulgated by the State after public hearings between the dates of January 1, 1977 and June 30, 1977.

2. DECISION

Having reviewed the State submission in comparison with the Federal standards, it has been determined that the State standards are at least as effective as the comparable Federal standards. The detailed standards comparison is available at the locations specified below.

3. LOCATION OF SUPPLEMENT FOR INSPECTION AND COPYING

A copy of the standards supplement, along with the approved plan, may be inspected and copied during normal business hours at the following locations: Office of the Regional Administrator, OSHA, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, Room 9470, San Francisco, Calif. 94102 and California Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Room 3052, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, Calif. 94102; and the Technical Data Center, Room N2439R, 3d and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington D.C. 20210.

4. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Under § 1953.2(c) of this chapter, the Assistant Secretary may prescribe alternative procedures to expedite the review process or for other good cause which may be consistent with applicable laws. The Assistant Secretary finds that good cause exists for not publishing the supplement to the California plan as a proposed change and making the OSHA Regional Administrator's approval effective upon publication for the following reason.

The standards were adopted in accordance with the procedural requirements of State law which included public comment and further public participation would be repetitious.

This decision is effective October 31, 1978.

(Sec. 18, Pub. L. 91-956, 84 Stat. 1608 (29 U.S.C. 667).)

GABRIEL J. GILLOTTI,
Regional Administrator, OSHA.

GERALD D. HINES INTERESTS

Application for Variance

AGENCY: Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Department of Labor.

ACTION: Notice of application for variance.

SUMMARY: This notice announces the application of Gerald D. Hines Interests for a variance from the standard prescribed in 29 CFR 1910.66(b)(3), concerning power platforms for exterior building maintenance—design requirements.

DATES: The last date for interested persons to submit comments is November 30, 1978. The last date for affected employers and employees to request a hearing on the application is November 30, 1978.

ADDRESSES: Send comments or requests for a hearing to: Office of Variance Determination, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Third Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Room N3668, Washington, D.C. 20210.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. James J. Concannon, Director, Office of Variance Determination, at the above address. Telephone: 202-523-7121, or the following Regional and Area Offices:

U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, 555 Griffin Square Building, Room 602, Dallas, Tex. 75202.

U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, 1100 No. 505 NASA Road I, Houston, Tex. 77058.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

Notice is hereby given that Gerald D. Hines Interests, 2100 Post Oak Tower, Houston, Tex. 77056, has made application pursuant to section 6(d) of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 1596; 29 U.S.C. 655) and 29 CFR 1905.11, for a variance from the standards prescribed in 29 CFR 1910.66(b)(3) powered platforms for exterior maintenance—design requirements.

The address of the place of employment that will be affected by the application is as follows: Block 259 Development, 1100 Louisiana Street, Houston, Tex. 77002.

The applicant certifies that employees who would be affected by the variance have been notified of the application by giving a copy of it to their authorized employee representative, and by posting a copy at all places where notices to employees are normally posted. Employees have also been informed of their right to petition the Assistant Secretary for a hearing.

Regarding the merits of the application, the applicant contends that it is providing a place of employment as safe as that required by § 1910.66(b)(3), which states that all new powered platforms for exterior building maintenance shall meet the requirements for Part II and III of ANSI A120.1-1970. The ANSI standard requires that the design of the building or structure face in conjunction with the design of the building contact member on the working platforms shall provide continuous contact of the working platform with the building or structure in order to absorb wind forces and horizontal components of dead and live loads on the working platform.

The face of the building shall be provided with continuous T-rails, indented mullions, or equivalent guides which will positively engage building contact members on the working platform. On buildings where the working platform has a rise of less than 130 feet, guides providing positive engagement are not required.

The applicant contends that its design does not allow for continuous vertical mullions and, therefore, does not provide continuous T-rails or indented mullions required by ANSI A120.1-1970.

The applicant proposes to use an intermittent tie-in system using cable restraints at every third floor to restrict the horizontal movement, and to require that powered platforms used on the building be equipped with building face rollers. The applicant contends that this would provide a cable restraint device at a maximum vertical distance of 40-foot intervals in the areas served. The applicant states that the tie-in device would consist of an insert anchored to the concrete building column and projecting out to the face of granite cladding. A quick release pin will be used to attach the cable restraints to the anchor device. The applicant contends that the lower wing of the building is less than 130 feet high and, therefore, does not require the guides.

The applicant also contends that its alternative method of securing the powered platforms, as described above, is as safe and healthful as the requirements of the standard from which a variance is sought.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 25th day of October 1978.

EULA BINGHAM,
Assistant Secretary of Labor.

I. NOTICE OF APPLICATION

Notice is hereby given that Research-Cottrell, Inc., P.O. Box 750, Bound Brook, N.J. 08805, has made application pursuant to section 6(d) of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 1596; 29 U.S.C. 655), and 29 CFR 1905.14 for a variance, and interim order pending a decision on the application for variance, from the standards prescribed in 29 CFR 1926.451(a) (1), (4), (5) and (10).

The addresses of the places of employment that will be affected by the application are as follows:

Susquehanna Power Station, Berwick, Pa.

Pleasants Power Station, Willow Island, W. Va.

Belefonte Power Station, Hollywood, Ala.

Perry Power Station, Perry, Ohio

The applicant certifies that employees who would be affected by the variance have been notified of the application by giving a copy of it to their authorized employee representative, and by posting a copy at all places where notices to employees are normally posted. Employees have also been informed of their right to petition the Assistant Secretary for a hearing.

Regarding the merits of the application, the applicant contends that it is providing a place of employment as safe as that required by § 1926.451(a) (1), (4), (5), and (10) which sets general scaffolding requirements concerning toeboards, guardrail support spacing, and the maximum permissible spans for scaffold planks, respectively.

The applicant states that its Cooling Tower Division constructs reinforced concrete hyperbolic cooling towers currently ranging in sizes up to 450 feet in diameter and 560 feet in height. The unique shape of the thin-walled shell, called a veil, creates a constantly varying diameter in relation to height. The applicant contends that its veil scaffolds are multitiered scaffolds (usually four working levels), with the top level being the major work platform and the three lower levels being used for light auxiliary work. The top working levels are four planks wide, and the lower levels are two planks wide. The lower levels are hung from the underside of the top level by means of 2-inch by 3/16-inch carbon steel straps. The applicant further contends that there are a few variations of design and operation between different veil scaffolds at the different worksites, but basically they are similar in nature.

The applicant states that the veil scaffolds, installed completely around the veil, on both faces of the forms, must be capable of contracting and then expanding during the course of construction of the veil. Typical movement would be from an original circumference of 1,100 feet in to 645 feet, and then out to 785 feet during construction of the veil.

The applicant states that the scaffolds and the forms are independently supported from one main support system. It also alleges that the forms and the scaffolds are not, and cannot be, connected to each other in any manner because they must move independently of each other. The scaffolds are hydraulically jacked approximately 5 feet, once each day, in slightly over 4-inch increments.

The applicant contends that its main support system consists of independent pairs of nearly vertical aluminum beams bolted together radially through the previously placed concrete. The forms are primarily secured in the web areas of the beams, and the scaffolds are primarily secured to the outside faces of the flanges of the beams by a dog-and-ratchet system. The number of beam-pair supports required for a particular cooling tower is a function of the design requirements for the structure. The number of beam-pair supports does not change during construction of a veil. The contraction and expansion of the scaffolding is accomplished by varying the distances between support points. The applicant contends that the guardrails, midrails, and scaffold plank arrangements have been designed to safely adjust to the changes in circumference.

The applicant states that it is providing a place of employment as safe and healthful as § 1926.451(a)(4), which requires the use of toeboards on scaffolding more than 10 feet above the ground.

The applicant states that past attempts at toeboard installation have been unsatisfactory and have created additional hazards to the employees walking and working on the veil scaffolds. The applicant contends that it has not been able to develop a safe method of installing toeboards on the veil scaffolds that will: Serve the intended purpose for toeboards; be able to contract and expand; be able to be kept out of the walk and work areas on the scaffolds; and, be able to be kept tight against the scaffold planks.

The applicant states that because it has been unable to install a toeboard system to serve as "a barrier secured along the sides and ends of a platform to guard against the falling of material" (§ 1926.452(b)(31)), it has taken the following precautions to help prevent the falling of material, and to help prevent any material that might fall from striking anyone below:

(1) Limit the amount of loose material, such as reinforcing rods, on the scaffold to a 1-day supply.

(2) Tie loose material, such as buckets and wedges, to the scaffold or to the support beams so they cannot be accidentally knocked off.

(3) Use trash drums on the scaffolds for the proper disposal of trash and scrap thus preventing the loose waste from being kicked off the scaffolds.

(4) Completely enclose the exterior faces of the scaffolds with safety nets (6x6x½ nylon mesh) from the top guardrail on the top scaffold down to and completely under the bottom level of scaffold.

(5) Instruct the employees working on the scaffolds of the necessity for helping prevent any material from falling.

(6) Prohibit work directly below the veil scaffolds while overhead work is being done. The one exception to this is covered in Item 10.

(7) Provide access between the ground and the veil scaffolds by means of a temporary staintower on the outside face of the veil. Cover the exterior sides of the staintower with chicken-wire to help prevent material from falling.

(8) Install warning barricades and overhead work signs around the exterior face of the base of the structure to warn employees and other people of the overhead work.

(9) Install a covered walkway at the base of the structure to allow safe passage for employees who must pass under the work areas.

(10) Use one-lift mobile scaffolds with scaffold planks secured on the top of the scaffold, to provide overhead protection for the one to two employees who must work under the veil scaffolds while checking the alignment of the forms.

(11) Maintain a lifting area for materials in the center of the base slab (floor) and thus away from the overhead work. Material is lifted diagonally upward from the center of the base slab to the work areas on the scaffolds. The material is lifted by means of wire rope cables operated from base mounted drum hoists.

(12) Cover the base-mounted drum hoist locations with timber sheds, and locate them in the least susceptible locations within the structure.

(13) Instruct the drum hoist operators in the safest routes of travel to and from their operating locations.

(14) Install specific roadways in the base slab area for trucks delivering material to the central lift area, and post warning signs stating that pedestrians are to use the covered walkway.

(15) Conduct weekly safety training meetings for all employees to instruct and remind everyone of the proper safety methods, and to discuss any apparent hazards noticed on the work-site.

In addition to the above, the applicant proposes to install snow fence barricades and overhead work signs around the base of the structure, both on the inside and the outside of the structure, to warn employees and other people of the overhead work. The intent of the snow fence barricade is to serve as an "engineering control", a "physical barrier", against unintentional entrance into the area under the overhead work.

The applicant further proposes to install these snow fence barricades with the top of the fence approximately 4 feet high. It contends anchoring of the fence will depend on general conditions. Metal fence posts will be used if they can be driven into the ground.

Where ground conditions will not accept driven posts, concrete blocks will be used as anchors. In areas where the permanent concrete base slab has been installed inside the structure, the fence will be attached to the protruding reinforcing rods, or will be anchored used the concrete block method. Spacing of the posts or anchors will be determined through actual practice. However, the spacing will be adequate to support the fence in a neat, stable condition without unreasonable sag.

The applicant states that access through the fence will be provided by latching the end of a section of fence to an anchor point. Thus, by deliberately removing the latched section, and pulling the fence aside, access can be gained into the fenced area. Access into the fenced area will require permission from a member of site supervision. Access will be permitted if the employee will be exposed to the overhead work.

The applicant states that the work practices described above and snow fence barricades will prevent any employee from being struck by a falling object, thus creating a work environment as safe as the use of a toeboard on the scaffold.

Section 1926.451(a)(5) states in part, that guardrail supports shall be at intervals not to exceed 8 feet. The applicant contends that its guardrail support spacing is established by the distance between the main support beams. The guardrail supports are connected to the pairs of aluminum beams at the main support points. When the veil scaffold is originally installed, the spacing between the support points may be 11 feet. During construction of the veil, the support spacing will reduce to approximately 7 feet and then will expand to approximately 8 feet at the top of the cooling tower.

The applicant further states that to maintain safe guardrails, it uses 1½-inch and 2-inch schedule 40 carbon steel pipe for the guardrails and midrails on the top level of the scaffolds, and 2 x 4 lumber on the lower levels.

The applicant contends that the 2-inch pipe guardrails and midrails on the top level of the outside scaffold are anchored at one end to the 3 by 4.1 channel iron posts. The opposite end of the pipe extends through a hole in the channel iron post thus allowing the changes in spacing between posts. Adjacent sections of guardrails and midrails are set at slightly different elevations to allow one section to pass the adjacent section. The excess length of pipe extends beyond the post and outside of the scaffold.

The applicant contends that the pipe guardrails and midrails on the top level of the inside scaffolds consists of a length of 1½-inch pipe anchored at one end to the 3 by 4.1 posts with the opposite end of the pipe inserted into a 2-inch pipe which is secured at its far end to the adjacent channel iron post. Contraction and expansion is obtained by the telescoping action of the pipes. These sections of pipe are designed to have at least 16 inches of telescoped overlap when the distance between supports are the maximum.

The applicant alleges that all work on the lower levels of the scaffolds, where 2 x 4 guardrails and midrails are provided, is a one- and two-man operation which involves light working loads. The outside face of each lower level is completely covered by the safety net.

The applicant contends that the guardrail spacing will provide a safe and healthful workplace for the veil scaffolds and a work area as safe as the 8-foot interval supports required by § 1926.451(a)(5).

Section 1926.451(a)(10)—Table L-3 states that the maximum permissible span is 10 feet. The applicant states that its scaffold plank spacing is governed by the same dimensions as its guardrail support spacing intervals. The scaffold planks are supported by the same brackets that hold the guardrail posts.

The applicant states that to maintain safe planks, it uses 2 x 12 inches R4S, grade 171A lumber for all planking on all levels of the scaffolds.

The applicant further states that within each bay, one end of each plank is cleated and wired to paired C3x2.1 support brackets for the top scaffold. The opposite ends of the planks rest on top of the planks in the adjacent bay. With the maximum spacing between support brackets, the 14-foot long planks overlap the adjacent planks by 24 inches and the adjacent support by 18 inches.

The applicant contends that the three outside planks on both of the top levels of scaffolding are bolted to a 1½ x 1½ x ¾ angle iron scab on the underside of the planks near the midpoint of the span. The fourth plank, near the form, is hinged to the third plank to allow the fourth plank to be turned out of the way for form work prevented from being displaced or dropped. It is then folded back into place to close the opening between the form and the scaffold. The cleating together of the planks causes them to react to the working loads more as a single platform rather than as individual planks. The planking on the lower levels of scaffold is cleated and wired to a support bracket at one end and rides on top of the adjacent planking at the other end with a minimum overlap of 24 inches. Only work involving light working loads is performed from the planks on the lower levels. The lower levels of scaffolding are enclosed by the safety nets.

The applicant contends that the 2 x 12 planking and the planking system provides safety on the scaffolds, and a work area as safe as would have been required by § 1926.451(a)(10).

DENIAL OF INTERIM ORDER

The applicant has also requested an interim order to be effected until a decision is rendered on the variance application.

Section 1926.451(a) (1), (4), (5), and (10) provides specific requirements for toeboards, guardrail support spacing intervals, and maximum permissible spans for scaffolding planks respectively.

It does not appear that the applicant has presented a method or specifications which will assure that employees will be protected to the degree required by the standards. While work practices and the concept of a physical barrier design to prevent unauthorized entry are theoretically sound, they are not always practicable. We have determined that employees could enter into the danger area of the vail to gain access to other areas.

Therefore, it does not appear from the facts presented that the applicant will be providing a place of employment as safe and healthful as the requirements of the standard from which a variance is sought. For these reasons pursuant to the authority in 29 CFR 1905.11(c), and in Secretary of Labor's Order No. 8-76 (41 FR 25059), the application for an interim order is denied.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 25th day of October 1978.

Assistant Secretary of Labor.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

Notice is hereby given that Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., Campbell Works, P.O. Box 900, Youngstown, Ohio 45501, has made application pursuant to section 6(d) of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 1596; 29 U.S.C. 655) and 29 CFR 1905.11 for a variance from the standards prescribed in 29 CFR 1910.179(n)(1) concerning the prohibition for loading a crane beyond its rated load. The address of the place of employment that will be affected by the application is as follows:

Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., Campbell Works, P.O. Box 900, Youngstown, Ohio 44501.

The applicant certifies that employees who would be affected by the variance have been notified of the application by giving a copy of it to their authorized employee representative, and by posting a copy at all places where notices to employees are normally posted. Employees have also been informed of their right to petition the Assistant Secretary for a hearing, although one has already been requested by the applicant.

Regarding the merits of the application, the applicant contends that it is providing a place of employment as safe as that required by § 1910.179(n)(1), which states that cranes shall not be loaded beyond their rated loads except for test purposes.

The applicant states that it owns a Shaw Alliance overhead crane, identified as TM-6, that is located in the "Hall Shop" of the Coupling Department of the Continuous Tube Mill. The crane is rated at a 5-ton load capacity and is normally used to transport containers of threaded pipe sections within the "Hall Shop." These containers reach a maximum weight of 2 tons, or approximately 40 percent of the rated capacity.

The "Hall Shop" contains several Stamets boring machines, which were installed in 1939, and which are used to thread the pipe couplings manufactured by the applicant at its Campbell Works plant. The applicant contends that these machines presently require complete rebuilds by independent contractors. However, the "Hall Shop" is brick walled, with small, low doors. The shop is also inaccessible to heavy equipment since it is located in the middle of the mill surrounded by other shops. There is no way in which higher-rated portable or traveling cranes could be brought into the "Hall Shop" to move the Stamets boring machines to the door of the "Hall Shop."

The applicant contends that when the Stamets machines are removed for rebuilding, they can be almost completely disassembled and moved in segments, thus lightening the load. However, when the rebuilt machines are returned to Youngstown, they can only be disassembled to a limited extent without destroying the integrity of the machines alignment. The machines will then weigh a maximum of approximately 10 tons each.

The applicant further contends that in moving these machines from their present locations to the door of the "Hall Shop" following rebuilding, they are to be lifted approximately 10 to 12 inches off the ground. The total length of the moves will vary with each machine, but it is expected to be less than 100 feet total for each of them.

Since 1976, crane TM-6 has been radio controlled. Other than the handling of the Stamets machines, the crane has not been used for any over-size loads. It receives both general weekly and monthly inspections, conducted by trained and qualified Youngstown personnel, including one hourly employee, who is a Union member, and one supervisor, representing management.

The applicant proposes that the following conditions be utilized when operating the Shaw Alliance 5-ton overhead remote controlled crane, TM-6, for loads beyond its rated capacity:

(a) The maintenance history of the crane, including reports of any prior special lifts, shall be reviewed;

(b) Structural, mechanical, and electrical components of the crane design shall be checked by a crane manufacturer or other qualified person, according to accepted crane design standards such as CMAA No. 70 or AISE No. 6;

(c) The crane supporting structure design shall be checked for conformance to AISE or other applicable design standards;

(d) A complete inspection of the crane as described in OSHA Standard 29 CFR 1910.179(j) shall be made just prior to making the lift. The crane support shall be inspected and any deterioration or damage shall be taken into consideration in design calculations;

(e) The lift shall be made under controlled conditions under the direction of an appointed person. In addition to these requirements, all personnel in the area of the crane runway shall be alerted;

(f) The operator shall test the crane at his special lift by lifting the load a short distance and setting the brakes;

(g) Complete records of the lift, including all distances moved, shall be placed on file where readily available to appointed personnel;

(h) After the special heavy lift is concluded, a thorough inspection shall be made of all critical parts of the crane;

(i) All special heavy lifts shall be made under the charge of maintenance or rigger supervision and performed by qualified crane operators;

(j) A complete inspection of crane No. TM-6, track, and supporting members shall be completed on a monthly basis with a signed report;

(k) While the special heavy load is suspended and being moved, tag lines and/or guide poles shall be used to control movement; hand guiding shall be prohibited except when final set-down guidance is required;

(l) Temporary machine supports shall be preset to eliminate employee exposure;

(m) The President of Local 1418, USWA, shall be notified 10 days in advance of any special heavy load lifts on crane No. TM-6; and,

(n) The President of Local 1418, will designate two Union Members to be present while the special heavy load lift is being conducted.

The applicant contends that the conditions described above are patterned after but are more stringent than those specified in Item 2-3.2.1.1 "Special Heavy Lifts," of the latest American National Safety Standard, ANSI B30.2.0-1976, Overhead and Gantry Cranes (Top Running Bridge, Multiple Girder).

The applicant further states that no employees will be beneath the crane or its load during the lift, and that the only employees directly involved in the area of the lift will be those guiding the final setdown of the load.

The applicant contends that under the conditions, as described above, employee health and safety will be fully protected.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 25th day of October 1978.

Assistant Secretary of Labor.

WYOMING STATE STANDARDS

Approval

1. BACKGROUND

Part 1953 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations prescribes procedures under section 18 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (hereinafter called the Act) by which the Regional Administrator for Occupational Safety and Health (hereinafter called the Regional Administrator) under a delegation of authority from the Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health (hereinafter called the Assistant Secretary) (29 CFR 1953.4) will review and approve standards promulgated pursuant to a State plan which has been approved in accordance with section 18(c) of the Act and 29 CFR Part 1902. On May 3, 1974, notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (39 FR 15394) of the approval of the Wyoming Plan and the adoption of Subpart BB to Part 1952 containing the decision.

The Wyoming Plan provides for the adoption of Federal standards as State standards after public hearings. Section 1953.23(a)(2) of 29 CFR provides that whenever a Federal standard is promulgated, the State must adopt or promulgate a standard or standard change which will make the State standard at least as effective as the Federal standard or change within 6 months of the Federal promulgation or change. In response to Federal standard changes, the State has submitted by letters dated June 27, 1978, July 10, 1978, and September 28, 1978, from Donald D. Owsley, Health and Safety Administrator, to Curtis A. Poster, Regional Administrator, and incorporated as part of the plan, State standards comparable to the 29 CFR 1910.1018 Occupational Exposure to Inorganic Arsenic which was published in FEDERAL REGISTER (43 FR 19584), Friday, May 5, 1978, and (43 FR 23472), Friday, June 30, 1978. These standards, which are contained in the Wyoming Occupational Safety and Health Rules and Regulations for General Industry, were promulgated after hearings held on August 11, 1978, and by resolution adoption by the Wyoming Occupational Health and Safety Commission on August 11, 1978, and became effective on September 25, 1978, pursuant to section 27-278 Wyoming Status 1957 as amended 1973.

2. DECISION

Having reviewed the State submission in comparison with the Federal standards, it has been determined that the State standards are at least as effective as the comparable Federal standards.

3. LOCATION OF SUPPLEMENTS FOR INSPECTION AND COPYING

A copy of the standards supplements, along with the approved plan, may be inspected and copied during normal business hours at the following locations: Office of the Regional Administrator, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Room 1554, Federal Building, 1961 Stout Street, Denver Colo. 80294; the Occupational Health and Safety Department, 200 East Eighth Avenue, Cheyenne, Wyo. 82001; and the Technical Data Center, Room N2439R, 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20210.

4. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Under § 1953.2(c) of 29 CFR Part 1953, the Assistant Secretary may prescribe alternative procedures to expedite the review process or for other good cause which may be consistent with applicable laws. The Assistant Secretary finds that good cause exists for not publishing the supplement to the Wyoming State Plan as a proposed change and making the Regional Administrator's approval effective upon publication for the following reason:

The standards were adopted in accordance with the procedural requirements of State law, which included public comments, and further public participation would be unnecessary.

This decision is effective October 31, 1978.

(Sec. 18, Pub. L. 91-596, 84 Stat. 1608 (29 U.S.C. 667))

Regional Administrator.

ALATEX, INC., ANDALA PLANT, ANDALUSIA, ALA.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3783: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on May 31, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on May 25, 1978 which was filed by the Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers' Union on behalf of workers and former workers producing men's dress shirts at the Andala plant, in Andalusia, Ala., of Alatex, Inc.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 20, 1978 (43 FR 26497). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Alatex, Inc., its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

The Department's investigation revealed that U.S. imports of men's and boys' woven dress and business shirts increased from 30,800,000 units in 1975 to 64,283,000 units in 1976 and increased to 64,446,000 units in 1977. U.S. imports of these articles increased from 16,011,000 units during the first quarter of 1977 to 17,168,000 units during the first quarter of 1978. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 36.2 percent in 1975, to 70.4 percent in 1976 and to 72.6 percent in 1977.

A survey conducted with the major customer of Alatex, Inc. indicated that this customer had substantially increased its purchases of imported men's dress shirts in 1977 compared to 1976 and continued importing men's dress shirts in the first half of 1978.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with men's dress shirts produced at the Andala plant, Andalusia, Ala. of Alatex, Inc. contributed importantly to the decline in sales and production and to the total or partial separation of workers at that plant. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers at the Andala plant, in Andalusia, Ala., of Alatex, Inc., who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 4, 1977 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

CATANIA CLOTHING CORP., NEW YORK, N.Y.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3165: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on February 21, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on February 6, 1978, which was filed by the Amalgamated Clothing & Textile Workers'

Union on behalf of workers and former workers producing men's suit coats and sportcoats at Catania Clothing Corp., New York, N.Y.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 3, 1978 (43 FR 8864). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from Catania Clothing Corp., its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

U.S. imports of men's and boys' tailored suits increased from 3,106 thousand units in 1975 to 3,562 thousand units in 1976 and to 4,091 thousand units in 1977.

The import to domestic production ratio increased from 19 percent in 1976 to 20 percent in 1977.

U.S. imports of men's and boys' tailored dress coats and sportcoats increased from 5,465 thousand units in 1975 to 6,965 thousand units in 1976 and then declined to 6,269 thousand units in 1977 before increasing to 1,776 thousand units for the first quarter of 1978 from 1,323 thousand units for the first quarter of 1977.

A Department survey was conducted with manufacturers who contracted work to Catania Clothing. One manufacturer, which also acts as a retailer, decreased contract work with Catania and increased its purchases of imported men's suits and sportcoats from 1976 to 1977 and in the first quarter of 1978 compared to the first quarter of 1977. Another manufacturer, which decreased contract work with Catania, had lost sales to retail customers which increased imports of suits and coats from 1976 to 1977. Workers at this manufacturer's firm have been certified as eligible to apply for trade adjustment assistance.

Workers at Catania Clothing Corp. were previously certified as eligible to apply for trade adjustment assistance on January 23, 1976 (TA-W-291). That certification expired January 23, 1978.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with men's suit coats and sportcoats produced by Catania Clothing Corp., New York, N.Y., contributed importantly to the decline in production and to the total or partial separation of workers at that firm. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification.

All workers of Catania Clothing Corp., New York, N.Y., who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 23, 1978, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

CITY TERRANCE SPORTSWEAR, INC., NEWBURGH, N.Y.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3487: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on April 11, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on March 31, 1978, which was filed by the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union on behalf of workers and former workers producing rainwear at City Terrance Sportswear, Inc., Newburgh, N.Y. The investigation revealed that women's coats and raincoats are produced.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 2, 1978 (43 FR 18790). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of City Terrance Sportswear, Inc., its customers, the National Cotton Council of America, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

U.S. imports of women's, misses', and children's raincoats increased from 191 thousand dozen in 1975 to 261 thousand dozen in 1976 and decreased to 242 thousand dozen in 1977. In the first quarter of 1978, imports increased to 129 thousand dozen compared to 84 thousand dozen in the same period of 1977. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 36.8 percent in 1975 to 45 percent in 1976 and decreased to 40.3 percent in 1977.

U.S. imports of women's, misses', and children's coats and jackets increased from 1,517 thousand dozen in 1975 to 2,252 thousand dozen in 1976 and increased to 2,723 thousand dozen in 1977. In the first quarter of 1978 imports decreased to 572 thousand dozen compared to 590 thousand dozen in the same period of 1977. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 48.3 percent in 1976 to 54.9 percent in 1977.

A survey of the manufacturer which contracts most of the production at City Terrace Sportswear, Inc., revealed decreased sales by the manufacturer in 1976 and 1977. A survey of this manufacturer's customers revealed that some of these customers had increased import purchases while decreasing their purchases from the manufacturer.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports like or directly competitive with women's raincoats and other women's coats produced by City Terrace Sportswear, Inc., contributed importantly to the total or partial separation of workers at the plant. In accordance with the provisions of the act, I make the following certification:

All workers at City Terrace Sportswear, Inc., Newburgh, N.Y., who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 20, 1977, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

DAVIS-LYNCH GLASS CO., STAR CITY, W. VA.

Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

On September 25, 1978, the petitioners for workers and former workers of Davis-Lynch Glass Co. requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's negative determination regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance. This determination was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 8, 1978 (43 FR 40075).

The petitioners cite new evidence that imports of glass lamp products, especially from Mexico, have resulted in lower sales of Davis-Lynch Glass Co. products and imply that the Department's survey of Davis-Lynch Glass Co.'s customers was inadequate.

CONCLUSION

After review of the application, I conclude that the claims of the petitioners are of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

DEL-BA COAT, INC., HOBOKEN, N.J.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3615: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on May 8, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on April 28, 1978, which was filed by the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union on behalf of workers and former workers producing ladies' coats and suits at Del-Ba Coat, Inc., Hoboken, N.J. The investigation revealed that the company produced only ladies' coats.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 26, 1978 (43 FR 22793). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Del-Ba Coat, Inc., its customers (manufacturers), the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, the National Cotton Council of America, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. The Department's investigation revealed that all of the requirements have been met.

U.S. imports of women's, misses', and children's coats and jackets increased from 2,252 thousand dozen in 1976 to 2,723 thousand dozen in 1977. Imports declined from 590 thousand dozen in the first quarter of 1977 to 572 thousand dozen in the first quarter of 1978. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 48.3 percent in 1976 to 54.9 percent in 1977.

The Department conducted a survey of the principal manufacturers for which Del-Ba Coat, Inc. worked in 1977 and 1978. Manufacturers that accounted for a significant portion of sales in 1977 reduced purchases from Del-Ba Coat, Inc. and increased purchases of imports in the first half of 1978 compared to the first half of 1977.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with the ladies' coats produced at Del-Ba Coat, Inc., Hoboken, N.J., contributed importantly to the decline in sales and to the separation of workers at that plant. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Del-Ba Coat, Inc., Hoboken, N.J., who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 1, 1977, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3726: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on May 18, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on April 10, 1978 which was filed by the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union on behalf of workers and former workers producing ladies' better dresses at E Plus E, Inc., Los Angeles, Calif.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 13, 1978 (43 FR 25498-9). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

[TA-W-3328]

GOODYEAR TIRE AND RUBBER CO., AKRON PLANT II, AKRON, OHIOCertification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of E Plus E, Inc., its customers (manufacturer), the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. Without regard to whether any of the other criteria have been met, the following criteria has not been met:

That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the total or partial separations, or threats thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Imports of women's and misses' dresses decreased from 659,000 dozen in 1976 to 587,000 dozen in 1977. Imports increased from 114,000 dozen in the first quarter of 1977 to 194,000 dozen in the first quarter of 1978. The ratio of imports to domestic production decreased from 4.6 percent in 1976 to 4 percent in 1977.

E Plus E produced ladies' dresses as a contractor for only one manufacturer until August 1978. That manufacturer reduced purchases from E Plus E but did not purchase imports. The manufacturer's sales did not decline in 1977 and in the first quarter of 1978 were higher than in the first quarter of 1977.

The manufacturer produces women's designer or couture ready-to-wear clothing, excluding sportswear. Industry sources and customers of the manufacturer who were surveyed indicated that price competition is not an important factor in the market for ladies' designer apparel.

CONCLUSION

After careful review I determine that all workers of E Plus E, Inc., Los Angeles, Calif., are denied eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

[FR Doc. 78-30592 Filed 10-30-78; 8:45 am]

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3328: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on March 9, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on February 24, 1978 which was filed by the United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastic Workers of America on behalf of workers and former workers producing passenger car tires at the Akron, Ohio Plant II of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

The Notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 24, 1978 (43 FR 12401). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The determination was based upon information obtained principally from officials of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., its customers, the Rubber Manufacturers Association, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

The Department's investigation revealed that U.S. imports of passenger car tires increased to 12,643 thousand units in 1976 compared to 9,940 thousand units in 1975 and increased to 13,077 thousand units in 1977. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased in 1976 compared to 1975 and then decreased in 1977 compared to 1976.

Goodyear's imports of bias passenger car tires increased 2,913.3 percent in 1976 compared to 1975 and decreased 88.1 percent in 1977 compared to 1976, but the 1977 figure was 260.0 percent higher than the 1975 level of company imports. Goodyear's imports of radial passenger car tires increased 374.6 percent in 1976 compared to 1975 and increased 12.7 percent in 1977 compared to 1976.

The Akron Plant II has been primarily a bias-ply production facility with approximately two-thirds of the plant's output being bias-ply and bias-belted passenger car tires in 1976 and 1977, the remaining being radial passenger tires. These tires are sold in the replacement market.

In the national tire market radials are rapidly replacing traditional bias-ply tires. This is reflected both in increased production of radials and increased imports which are believed to be predominately (over 90 percent) radials. Radial tires are directly competitive with bias tires.

Imported passenger car tires, predominantly of radial construction, are primarily targeted for the replacement market. This impacts on the Akron Plant II in two ways: The longer life of radials and the preference by consumers for imported radials which replace both domestically produced bias and radial passenger car tires.

The Department conducted a survey of the major customers of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. Some of these customers increased import purchases while decreasing tire purchases from domestic sources, including Goodyear in 1976, 1977 and the first half of 1978. Several customers claimed that tire imports were capturing an increasing share of growth in tire demand.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with passenger car tires produced at the Akron, Ohio Plant II of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. contributed importantly to the decline in sales or production and to the total or partial separation of workers of that firm. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of the Akron, Ohio Plant II of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 27, 1977 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

GRAVINER, INC., MOUNTAINSIDE, N.J.Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3872: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on June 20, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on June 16, 1978, which was filed on behalf of workers and former workers producing industrial fire protection systems at Gravinier, Inc., Mountainside, N.J. The notice of investigation incorrectly identified the petitioner.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 30, 1978 (43 FR 28580). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The determination was based upon information obtained principally from officials of Gravinier, Inc., industry analysts and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. The Department has determined that services are not "articles" within the meaning of section 222 of the Act.

Workers at Gravinier, Inc., were not engaged in the production of smoke detectors. They were engaged only in the testing and marketing of imported smoke detectors. Gravinier, Inc., purchased the finished smoke detectors from Gravinier, Ltd., in the United Kingdom. Each unit was tested at Gravinier, Inc., at Mountainside, N.J. No workers involved in the testing of the smoke detectors worked solely or primarily on them.

CONCLUSION

After careful review, I determine that all workers employed in marketing services at Gravinier, Inc., Mountainside, N.J., be denied eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

HACKNEY CORP., BIRMINGHAM, ALA., COLUMBIANA, ALA.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3537 and 3537a: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on April 25, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on April 12, 1978, which was filed by the Unified Steelworkers of America on behalf of workers and former workers producing chain link fence and fittings at the Birmingham, Ala., plant of Hackney Corp.

The investigation was expanded to include the Columbiana, Ala., plant of the Hackney Corp. as well as distribution centers at Birmingham and Mobile, Ala., Louisville, Ky., Jacksonville, Fla., and Charlotte, N.C.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 5, 1978 (43 FR 19478-9). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Hackney Corp., its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

The Department's investigation revealed that U.S. imports of chain link fencing increased from 5.3 thousand short tons in 1975 to 8.7 thousand short tons in 1976. Imports decreased to 6.3 thousand short tons in 1977. Imports increased from 1.9 thousand short tons in the first quarter of 1977 to 3.7 thousand short tons in the first quarter of 1978.

U.S. imports of carbon steel pipe and tube increased from 1,542.5 thousand tons in 1975 to 1,820.7 thousand tons in 1976. Imports increased to 2,343.9 thousand tons in 1977. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 22.8 percent in 1975 to 35.8 percent in 1976, and increased to 38.5 percent in 1977.

A departmental survey of customers of Hackney Corp. indicated that customers accounting for a significant proportion of the subject firm's sales increased purchases of imported chain link fencing and fence components and decreased purchases from the subject firm in 1977 compared to 1976.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with chain link fencing and fence components produced at the Birmingham and Columbiana, Ala., plants of Hackney Corp. contributed importantly to the decrease in sales and production and to the total or partial separations of workers of those plants. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of the plants and distribution centers of Hackney Corp., listed below, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 1, 1977, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Plants: Birmingham, Ala., Columbiana, Ala.

Distribution centers: Birmingham, Ala., Mobile, Ala., Louisville, Ky., Jacksonville, Fla., Charlotte, N.C.

Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3315: investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on March 7, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on February 21, 1978 which was filed by the Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers Union on behalf of workers and former workers producing men's tailored clothing at Mavest, Inc. and Modern Manufacturing Corp. in Timonium, Md. Subsequent investigation revealed the company primarily produces sportcoats.

Workers at Mavest, Inc. and Modern Manufacturing Corp. were previously certified as eligible to apply for adjustment assistance on July 7, 1975. That certification expired on July 7, 1977 (TA-W-24).

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 17, 1978 (43 FR 11277). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Mavest, Inc. and Modern Manufacturing Corp., its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. Without regard to whether any of the other criteria have been met, the following criterion has not been met:

NOTICES

That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Imports of men's dress coats and sportcoats declined from 6,965 thousands of units in 1976 to 6,269 thousands of units in 1977. For the period January through June 1977, imports again declined from 3,537 units to 3,237 units in the same period January through June 1978. Likewise, the ratio of imports to domestic production declined from 30.0 percent in 1976 to 26.5 percent in 1977.

CONCLUSIONS

After careful review I determine that all workers of Mavest, Inc. and Modern Manufacturing Corp. located in Timonium, Md. are denied eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3569: investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on May 3, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on April 20, 1978 which was filed on behalf of workers and former workers producing ladies' vests, slacks and skirts at Pen-Jay, Inc., Fall River, Mass.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 16, 1978 (43 FR 21068-21069). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The determination was based upon information obtained principally from officials of Pen-Jay, Inc., its manufacturer, the National Cotton Council, of America, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. Without regard to whether any of the other criteria have been met, the following criterion has not been met:

That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

During 1976 and the first 8 months of 1977 a substantial proportion of Pen-Jay's business was comprised of contract work performed for a single manufacturer. With the cessation of orders to Pen-Jay, the manufacturer increased orders to other domestic contractors. Sales by the manufacturer increased in 1977 compared to 1976.

RCA CORP., DEPTFORD, N.J.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3388: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on March 21, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on March 6, 1978 which was filed on behalf of workers and former workers marketing and distributing electronic receiving tubes at the Deptford, N.J. facility of RCA Corp.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 28, 1978 (43 FR 12967). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of RCA Corp., industry analysts and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. The investigation revealed that all of the requirements have been met.

On May 9, 1976, the Department issued a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance applicable to workers of the Deptford, N.J. facility of RCA Corp. engaged in employment related to the production of electronic receiving tubes. (TA-W-625). That certification expired on May 9, 1978—2 years from its date of issuance.

The certification applicable to TA-W-625 covered workers involved in the sales and distribution of electronic receiving tubes formerly produced by RCA Corp. at a plant in Harrison, N.J. With the closure of the Harrison plant in March 1975, workers engaged in such activities were transferred to Cherry Hill and Deptford, N.J. Previous determinations by the Department (TEA-W-249 and TA-W-1198) covered workers involved directly in the production operations at Harrison.

RCA is continuing to gradually phase out its electronic receiving tube operations. The firm continues to sell off inventories of tubes produced at Harrison prior to its closure. As inventories are depleted, RCA reduces the workforce engaged in the sales and distribution of electronic receiving tubes at Deptford and at several regional locations (workers at the regional locations are considered Deptford employees). Thus, increased imports of electronic receiving tubes which resulted in the closure of RCA's Harrison plant continue to have an adverse impact on workers engaged in the sales and distribution of tubes formerly produced by RCA.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with electronic receiving tubes formerly produced by RCA Corp. contributed importantly to the separation of workers engaged in employment related to the sales and distribution of such products by RCA's Deptford, N.J. facility. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of the Distributor and Special Products Division of RCA Corp., Deptford, N.J., engaged in employment related to the distribution and marketing of electronic receiving tubes, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 9, 1978 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-4016: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on July 31, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on July 18, 1978 which was filed on behalf of workers and former workers producing ladies' undergarments at Twinkle Undergarment Co., New York, N.Y.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 8, 1978 (43 FR 35130-31). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Twinkle Undergarment Co., Inc., its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

Imports of women's, misses' and juniors' underwear declined in absolute terms from 1973 to 1974, increased from 1974 to 1975, and increased from 1975 to 1976. Imports increased 33 percent from 1,861 thousand dozens in 1976 to 2,470 thousand dozens in 1977. The ratios of imports to domestic production and consumption increased from 2.2 percent for both ratios in 1975 to 2.7 percent for both ratios in 1976.

The Department's survey of Twinkle Undergarment Co.'s customers revealed that respondents increased their purchases of imported ladies' panties (Twinkle's major product) in 1977 compared with 1976. Purchases from Twinkle Undergarment Co. were reduced during the same period.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases in imports of articles like or directly competitive with ladies' undergarments produced at Twinkle Undergarment Co., New York, N.Y. contributed importantly to the decline in sales and production and to the total or partial separation of workers of that firm. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Twinkle Undergarment Co., Inc., New York, N.Y. who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after July 11, 1977 and before January 1, 1978 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974. All workers separated after January 1, 1978 are denied program benefits.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-2828: investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on December 28, 1977 in response to a worker petition received on December 12, 1977, which was filed by the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union on behalf of workers and former workers producing chemical fertilizers at Valley Nitrogen Producers, Inc., Hercules, Calif.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 10, 1978 (43 FR 1554). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The determination was based upon information obtained principally from officials of Valley Nitrogen Producers, Incorporated, its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analyst and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. Without regard to whether any of the other criteria have been met, the following criterion has not been met:

That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

U.S. imports of nitrogenous fertilizers and intermediate products increased from 1,827.6 thousands of short tons in 1975 to 2,190.8 thousands of short tons in 1976 and increased to 3,350.2 thousands of short tons in 1977. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 6.2 percent in 1976 to 10.3 percent in 1977.

Valley Nitrogen Producers, Inc. opened its Hercules, Calif. plant in October 1976. Production and employment remained stable through July 1977. Workers at Hercules went on strike on August 2, 1977 and remained on strike until the plant closure in November 1977. This strike was the dominant factor in the declines in sales and production at the Hercules plant.

CONCLUSION

After careful review, I determine that all workers of Valley Nitrogen Producers, Inc., Hercules, Calif. are denied eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-4047: investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the act.

The investigation was initiated on August 8, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on August 8, 1978 which was filed by the Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers' Union on behalf of workers and former workers engaged in employment related to the warehousing and distribution of men's dress shirts at the Montgomery, Ala. Distribution Center of Alatex, Inc.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 29, 1978 (43 FR 38634). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Alatex, Inc. its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

The Department's investigation revealed that U.S. imports of men's and boys' woven dress and business shirts increased from 30,800,000 units in 1975 to 64,283,000 units in 1976 and increased to 64,446,000 units in 1977. U.S. imports of these articles increased from 16,011,000 units during the first quarter of 1977 to 17,168,000 units during the first quarter of 1978. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 36.2 percent in 1975, to 70.4 percent in 1976 and to 72.6 percent in 1977.

A survey conducted with the major customer of Alatex, Inc. indicated that this customer had substantially increased its purchases of imported men's dress shirts in 1977 compared to 1976 and continued importing men's dress shirts in the first half of 1978.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with men's dress shirts produced by Alatex, Inc. contributed importantly to the decline in sales and production and to the total or partial separation of workers at the Montgomery, Ala. Distribution Center of Alatex, Inc. In accordance with the provisions of the act, I make the following certification:

All workers at the Montgomery, Ala. Distribution Center of Alatex, Inc. who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 31, 1978, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 25th day of October 1978.

Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility
To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3762: investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the act.

The investigation was initiated on May 24, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on February 7, 1978 which was filed by the United Steelworkers of America on behalf of all workers producing copper rod and tubes and atomic shielding at the Perth Amboy plant of Asarco, Inc. The investigation revealed that Asarco produced cast alloy rod and tube and lead products (atomic shielding). These operations were sold to its subsidiary, Federated Metals Corp., in April 1977. The two operations are known as the Asarcon Division.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 6, 1978 (43 FR 24634). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Asarco, Incorporated, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974 must be met. Without regard to whether any of the other criteria have been met the following criterion has not been met:

That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

The Department's investigation revealed that sales and production of cast alloy rod and tube and lead products increased in quantity and value in the first 6 months of 1977 compared to the same period in 1976. When the labor contract with the United Steelworkers expired at the end of June 1977 there was a strike. The plant never reopened. In January 1978 Federated Metals completely shut down the Perth Amboy plant.

CONCLUSION

After careful review I determine that all workers engaged in employment related to the production of cast alloy rod and tube and lead products at the Asarcon Division of Asarco, Inc., and Federated Metals Corp., Perth Amboy, N.J., are denied eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3836: investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the act.

The investigation was initiated on June 14, 1978 in response to a worker petition received on June 12, 1978 which was filed by the International Association of Machinists on behalf of workers and former workers producing motors for lawn mowers and air-cooled outboard motors at Clinton Engines Corp., Maquoketa, Iowa.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 27, 1978 (43 FR 27924). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The determination was based upon information obtained principally from officials of Clinton Engines Corporation, its customers, manufacturers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

Imports of gasoline engines under 11 horsepower excluding outboards increased both absolutely and relative to domestic production in 1977 from 1976 and in January-June 1978 from the same period in 1977. Imports of outboard motors increased in 1977 from 1976.

Clinton Engines Corp. began importing four cycle engines in August 1977. Separations resulting from the termination of four cycle production occurred during the second half of 1977. Company imports of four cycle engines were terminated in July 1978.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with the motors for lawn mowers and air-cooled outboard motors produced at Clinton Engines Corp., Maquoketa, Iowa contributed importantly to the decline in production and to the total or partial separation of workers of that firm. In accordance with the provisions of the act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Clinton Engines Corp., Maquoketa, Iowa who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 8, 1977 and before December 31, 1977 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974. Workers separated after December 31, 1977 are denied program benefits.

GENERAL REFRACTORIES CO., U.S. DIVISION,
CLAYSBURG, PA.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3132: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on February 15, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on February 2, 1978, which was filed by the United Steelworkers of America on behalf of workers and former workers producing silica coke oven brick at the General Refractories Co., U.S. Division, Claysburg Works, Claysburg, Pa.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 28, 1978 (43 FR 8209). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The determination was based upon information obtained principally from officials of the U.S. Division of General Refractories Co., the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

U.S. imports of silica refractory products increased from 4,124 thousands of 9-inch brick equivalents in 1976 to 7,591 thousands of 9-inch brick equivalents in 1977. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 10 percent in 1976 to 26.1 percent in 1977. Imports increased from 911 thousands of 9-inch brick equivalents in the first 3 months of 1977 to 1,835 thousands of 9-inch brick equivalents in the same period of 1978. The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 13.9 percent in the first 3 months of 1977 to 21.89 percent in the same period of 1978.

Refractory products are produced according to contracts awarded by customers on a competitive bid basis. Evidence developed during the course of the investigation revealed that bids lost by General Refractories to foreign refractory producers in 1977 constituted a major portion of the decline in Claysburg's sales in that year.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with silica refractory products produced at the Claysburg, Pa., plant of the U.S. Division of the General Refractories Co. contributed importantly to the decline in sales or production and to the total or partial separation of workers of that firm. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of the Claysburg, Pa., plant of the U.S. Division of the General Refractories Co. who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 31, 1977, and before February 1, 1978, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974. All workers separated from employment after February 1, 1978, are denied program benefits.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 25th day of October 1978.

KOPPERS CO., INC., CONTAINER MACHINERY DIVISION, CRANFORD, N.J.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-3767: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on May 24, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on May 22, 1978, which was filed on behalf of workers of the Cranford, N.J. plant of the Container Machinery Division of Koppers Co., Inc.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 6, 1978 (43 FR 24634-24635). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The determination was based upon information obtained principally from officials of Koppers Co., Inc., its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. It is concluded that all of the requirements have been met.

U.S. imports of machinery for making corrugated boxes increased in value from $18 million in 1976 to $22.8 million in 1977. Imports increased from $12.4 million during January-June 1977 to $18.5 million during January-June 1978. Imports amounted to 13.5 percent of total domestic production in 1976 and 14.7 percent in 1977.

A survey conducted by the Department revealed that some customers who decreased purchases from the Container Machinery Division of Koppers Co., Inc., in 1977 and the first quarter of 1978 increased purchases of imported machinery during the same period.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with machinery for the corrugated box industry produced at the Cranford, N.J., plant of the Container Machinery Division of Koppers Co., Inc., contributed importantly to the decline in sales or production and to the total or partial separation of workers of that plant. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of the Cranford, N.J. plant of the Container Machinery Division of Koppers Company, Inc., who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 15, 1977, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-4035: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the act.

The investigation was initiated on August 3, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on August 2, 1978, which was filed by the International Union of Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers on behalf of workers and former workers producing residential smoke detectors at Pyr-A-Larm Inc., of Dublin, Ga.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 1, 1978 (43 FR 39193). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Pyr-A-Larm, Inc., its customers, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the act must be met. The investigation revealed that all of the criteria have been met.

U.S. imports of smoke detectors increased from 900,000 units in 1976 to 2,600,000 units in 1977, and further increased from 1,200,000 units in the first 6 months of 1977 to 1,700,000 units during the same period in 1978. The import-to-production ratio increased from 12.7 in 1976 to 25.0 in 1977, and from 23.1 in the first 6 months of 1977 to 23.3 during the same period in 1978.

The decline in the Dublin, Ga. plant's sales and employment is directly linked to the import influence in the industry. A major U.S. firm and a price leader in the U.S. market, imports 100 percent of its residential smoke detectors from Europe. This major firm increased its imports of smoke detectors 43 percent in 1977 compared to 1976 and 152 percent in the first 9 months of 1978 compared to the same period in 1977. Another major U.S. participant in the residential smoke detector industry imported virtually all of its products from Hong Kong in 1978 and increased its imports significantly over 1977. These import increases reduced the market share for Pyr-A-Larm and placed downward pressure on prices. As a consequence of this important development, inventories of domestically-produced smoke detectors grew, making it unprofitable for Pyr-A-Larm to continue production at former levels.

The Department's investigation revealed that company sales and production of smoke detectors by Pyr-A-Larm Inc., decreased significantly in the third quarter of 1978 compared to the same quarter in 1977.

CONCLUSION

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with smoke detectors produced at the Dublin, Ga., plant of Pyr-A-Larm Inc., contributed importantly to the decline in sales and to the total or partial separation of the workers of that plant. In accordance with the provisions of the act, I make the following certification:

All workers at the Dublin, Ga. plant of Pyr-A-Larm Inc., who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 15, 1978, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of October 1978.

SPORN DRESS CO., FREEHOLD, N.J.

Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-4015: Investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on July 31, 1978, in response to a worker petition received on July 28, 1978, which was filed on behalf of all workers and former workers producing ladies' gowns, dresses, and pants suits at the Freehold, N.J., plant of the Sporn Dress Co.

Subsequent investigation revealed that ladies' dresses were the only product produced at the plant.

The Notice of Investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 8, 1978 (43 FR 35130). No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of the Sporn Dress Co., its customer, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met. Without regard to whether any of the other criteria have been met, the following criterion has not been met:

That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof contributed importantly to such total or partial separation, or threat thereof, and to such decline in sales or production.

Imports of women's, misses', and children's dresses declined from 1,614 thousand dozen in 1976 to 1,420 thousand dozen in 1977. The ration of imports to domestic production of women's, misses', and children's dresses declined from 8 percent in 1976 to 6.7 percent in 1977.

The Department of Labor surveyed the only customer of the Sporn Dress Co. This customer indicated it did not purchase imported dresses or use foreign contractors to produce dresses in 1976 and 1977.

CONCLUSION

After careful review, I determine that all workers of the Sporn Dress Company, Freehold, N.J., are denied eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 25th day of October 1978.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. DIABLO CANYON NUCLEAR POWER PLANT, UNITS 1 AND 2

Order Extending Construction Completion Dates

Pacific Gas & Electric Co. is the holder of Construction Permit Nos. CPPR-39 and CPPR-69 issued by the Atomic Energy Commission¹ on April 23, 1968 and December 9, 1970, respectively, for construction of the Diablo Canyon Nuclear Power Plant, Units 1 and 2, presently under construction at the Company's site in San Luis Obispo County, Calif.

On August 11, 1978 and August 23, 1978, Pacific Gas and Electric Company filed requests for extensions of the completion dates for Units 1 and 2.

On May 11, 1976 and September 10, 1976, the Commission's staff published Supplements 4 and 5 to the Safety Evaluation Report for the Diablo Canyon Nuclear Power Plant documenting the need for a reevaluation of the plant's seismic capabilities, the criteria to be used in the reevaluation and the staff's request that Pacific Gas & Electric Co. perform such a reevaluation. This reevaluation has resulted in significant modifications to upgrade the plant's seismic resistance. For Unit 1, additional time is required to complete the modifications and to conclude the licensing process. For Unit 2, additional time is required to complete the modifications by personnel who are giving priority to completing Unit 1.

This action involves no significant hazards consideration; good cause has been shown for the delays; an environmental statement, negative declaration or environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with the extension; and the requested extension is for a reasonable period, the bases for which are set forth in a staff evaluation of request for extension.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the applicant's requests for extension of the construction permit completion dates dated August 11, 1978 and August 23, 1978 and (2) the staff's related evaluation, all of which are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20555 and at the Local Public Document Room located in San Luis Obispo County Free Library, P.O. SAN DIEGO GAS & ELECTRIC CO.

Availability of Final Site Environmental Statement for the Sundesert Nuclear Plant, Unit Nos. 1 and 2

Pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 and the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission's regulations in 10 CFR Part 51, notice is hereby given that the Final Site Environmental Statement prepared by the Commission's Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation, relative to suitability of the proposed site for eventual construction of the Sundesert Nuclear Plant, Unit Nos. 1 and 2 by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company in Riverside County, Calif., is available for inspection by the public in the Commission's Public Document Room at 1717 H Street, NW., Washington, D.C. and in the Palo Verde Valley District Library, 125 West Chanslorway, Blythe, Calif., and the San Diego County Law Library, 1105 Front Street, San Diego, Calif. The Final Site Environmental Statement is also being made available at the Office of the Governor, Office of Planning and Research, 1400 Tenth Street, Sacramento, Calif., and the Southern California Association of Governments, Suite 1000, 600 South Commonwealth Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif.

In early 1978 following issuance of the Draft Environmental Statement, the California Public Utilities Commission issued an order to SDG&E to cease all expenditures on this project except as necessary to preserve the site and water supply for future use in meeting the electrical energy needs of Southern California. SDG&E then requested the NRC to continue the licensing effort with a view toward issuing the Final Environmental Statement for site suitability. Consequently, this Final Site Environmental Statement relative to determination of the suitability of the site for eventual construction of the Sundesert Nuclear plant is being issued. This statement is necessary for SDG&E and the Department of Interior to consummate exchange of ownership of the publicly-owned site for other lands; however, no hearings are presently contemplated by NRC.

The notice of availability of the Draft Environmental Statement for the Sundesert Nuclear Plant, Unit Nos. 1 and 2, and requests for comments from interested persons was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 6, 1978 (43 FR 4891). The comments received from Federal, State, and local agencies and interested members of the public have been included as appendices to the Final Site Environmental Statement.

Copies of the Final Site Environmental Statement (Document No. NUREG-0455) may be purchased, at current rates, from the National Technical Information Service, Springfield, Va. 22161.

Dated at Bethesda, Md., this 23rd day of October 1978.

TEXAS UTILITIES GENERATING CO., ET AL.
(COMANCHE PEAK STEAM ELECTRIC STA-TION, UNITS 1 AND 2).

Order Granting Intervention Petitions and Notice of Special Prehearing Conference

I

OCTOBER 19, 1978.

Petitions for leave to intervene in this proceeding have been filed pursuant to the Notice of Receipt of Attorney General's Advice and Time for Filing of Petitions to Intervene on Antitrust Matters (43 FR 34850, August 7, 1978). The State of Texas has intervened as "an interested state" pursuant to 10 CFR 2.715(c), and the Committee on Power for the Southwest has elected to make a limited appearance in accordance with the provisions of 10 CFR 2.715(a). Without objection, both are granted leave to participate in these respective roles.

On September 6, 1978, a petition for leave to intervene was filed by Central and South West Corp. (CSW), a public utility holding company, and its four operating subsidiaries, Central Power & Light Co. (CPL), Public Service Co. of Oklahoma (PSO), Southwestern Electric Power Co. (SWEP), and West Texas Utilities Co. (WTU). The Applicant, Texas Utilities Generating Co. (TUGCO), filed an answer on September 21, 1978, objecting to portions of the petition and urging that no ruling be made on CSW's party status until contentions have been submitted and responded to. The Staff filed its response on September 26, 1978, supporting the adequacy of the CSW intervention petition.

Under the Wolf Creek criteria,¹ an intervening petitioner must set forth with reasonable particularity (1) an in-interest in the proceeding, (2) an allegation of a situation inconsistent with the specified antitrust laws, (3) a nexus between the alleged inconsistent situation and the activities to be licensed, and (4) a request for specific relief.

CSW is a registered public utility holding company whose subsidiaries' service areas adjoin those of the operating company subsidiaries of Texas Utilities Co. (TU), whose system is allegedly the largest in Texas. The TU subsidiaries are the applicants in this proceeding. CSW alleges that the policy of TU and Houston Lighting & Power Co. (HL&P) to refuse to deal with interstate utilities, denies its subsidiaries meaningful access to the Comanche Peak nuclear facility. It is also claimed that this intrastate policy denies some of the benefits of existing interconnections to some of its subsidiaries. These allegations constitute an adequate showing of interest under 10 CFR 2.714.

CSW alleges that TU and its subsidiaries have combined with others to refuse to deal with interstate utilities, and that it has used its dominance to monopolize and attempt to monopolize various relevant markets. These actions are asserted to be inconsistent with sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Act and § 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. §§ 1, 2, 45). This is a sufficient pleading of a situation inconsistent with the antitrust laws.

CSW further alleges that TU has refused to grant interstate utilities access to Comanche Peak, and that the continuation of the policy would frustrate relief in another antitrust hearing (South Texas) because the intrastate only policy is enforced through the threat of disconnection by the combination of TU and HL&P, which are dominant in Texas. This pleading satisfies the nexus requirement of a connection between the anticompetitive situations and the licensed activities.

It is requested that any operating license be conditioned so as to effectively neutralize TU's intrastate only policy. This is an adequate request for relief in an antitrust licensing proceeding. Accordingly, CSW's petition for leave to intervene is granted.

II

By its petition for leave to intervene, filed on September 20, 1978, Tex-La Electric Cooperative, Inc. (Tex-La) sought to intervene in this proceeding on behalf of its seventeen member cooperatives which operate in Texas. TUGCO filed an answer on October 4, 1978, which denied the adequacy of the petition to show interest, a situation inconsistent with the antitrust laws, or nexus. The Staff's response filed October 10, 1978, considered that the petition satisfied the requirements of 10 CFR 2.714.

Tex-La's seventeen member cooperatives allegedly purchase substantial amounts of power at wholesale from TU through its subsidiary, TP&L. Its interest is to ensure that its members are not restricted from access to bulk power supplies from interstate or intrastate sources. Tex-La also asserts an interest in participating in the Comanche Peak Nuclear Facilities. These pleadings sufficiently assert a cognizable interest. Tex-La asserts that TU has conditioned its agreements with Tex-La and others to preclude the interstate transmission of electricity, that TU has restricted participation in Comanche Peak to intrastate utilities, and that TU's activities violate the antitrust laws. This is a sufficient allegation of a situation inconsistent with the antitrust laws, which should be refined by a statement of contentions within 15 days prior to the special prehearing conference under the provisions of 10 CFR 2.714.(b), as amended.

Tex-La further alleges that TU's intrastate restraint on participation in Comanche Peak is anticompetitive and constitutes the required nexus between the inconsistent situation and the licensed activities, citing Louisiana Power & Light Co. (Waterford Steam Electric Generating Station, Unit 3), CLI-73-25, 6 AEC 619, 620-21 (1973). These allegations sufficiently plead the nexus requirement.

Tex-La requests that the Comanche Peak operating license be conditioned to allow both interstate and intrastate access to the plants output, and to mandate an opportunity for Tex-La to participate in the facility. This request for relief satisfies the requirements of 10 CFR 2.714, as amended, and the request for leave to intervene is granted.

III

Notice is hereby given the parties that a special prehearing conference pursuant to the provisions of 10 CFR 2.751a, will be held at 9:30 a.m., local time, in the Nuclear Regulatory Commission Hearing Room, 5th Floor, located at 4350 East-West Highway, Bethesda, Md. 20014, on December 5, 1978.

Intervention petitions shall be supplemented to state contentions and the bases therefor reasonable specificity, in accordance with the provisions of 10 CFR 2.714(b), as amended.

It is so ordered.

Dated at Bethesda, Md. this 19th day of October 1978.

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) is considering the issuance of an amendment to Construction Permit No. CPPR-117 issued to Duke Power Co. for the Catawba Nuclear Station, Unit 2, located in York County, S.C.

ments on a proposed extensive revision of Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, for 1979. After considering all comments and suggestions, the Service will decide whether to adopt the proposed revision for 1979.

DATE: Written comments and suggestions should be mailed or delivered by December 15, 1978.

ADDRESS: Written comments and suggestions should be mailed or delivered to the Chairman, Tax Forms Coordinating Committee, Internal Revenue Service, Room 5577, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20224.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Robert I. Erauer, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20224, telephone 202-566-6150 (not a toll-free telephone number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The proposed revision provides the means for an organization to report the nature and amount of available resources, net changes in fund balances and the amounts expended for programs, fundraising and management and general purposes.

The proposed revision is simpler to complete for organizations that have gross receipts of $25,000 or less. A substantial number of organizations are in this category. They will have to complete: (1) Lines 1(f), 2, 3, 4, 5(c), 6, 7(c), 8(d), 9(e), 10, 14, and 15 of part I; (2) columns A and B of part II; (3) all of part III; (4) line 51 of part IV; and (5) all of part V. The specific instructions are keyed to the applicable line items and are explicit as to the information to be recorded thereon.

The Service is hopeful that this revised form will be adopted by states to meet their financial reporting requirements of charitable and other organizations.

Return preparers and organizations are cautioned not to make any program changes based on the proposed revision before it is adopted.

This document does not meet the criteria for significant regulations set forth in paragraph 8 of the proposed Treasury Directive appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER for Wednesday, May 24, 1978.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 990—RETURN OF ORGANIZATION EXEMPT FROM INCOME TAX

UNDER SECTION 501(C) (EXCEPT PRIVATE FOUNDATION), 501(E) OR (F) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

General Instructions—Exempt Organizations (Under Section 6033)

Rounding Off to Whole-dollar Amounts

Money items may be shown as whole-dollar amounts by eliminating amounts less than 50 cents, and increasing amounts from 50 cents through 99 cents to the next higher dollar.

A. Who Must File Form 990.—An annual return on this form is required of organizations exempt from tax under section 501(a) of the Code (including foreign organizations and cooperative service organizations described in sections 501(e) and (f)) except the following:

(1) A church, an interchurch organization of local units of a church, a convention or association of churches, or an integrated auxiliary of a church (such as a men's or women's organization, religious school, mission society, or youth group).

(2) A school below college level affiliated with a church or operated by a religious order, even though it is not an integrated auxiliary of a church.

(3) A mission society sponsored by or affiliated with one or more churches or church denominations, more than one-half of the activities of that society are conducted in, or directed at persons in, foreign countries.

(4) An exclusively religious activity of any religious order.

(5) For tax years ending on or after December 31, 1976, an organization (other than a private foundation as described in (8) below) that normally has gross receipts in each taxable year of not more than $10,000.

(6) A State institution whose income is excluded from gross income under section 115.

(7) An organization described in section 501(c)(1). Section 501(c)(1) organizations are corporations organized under an Act of Congress that are:

(a) instrumentalities of the United States, and;

(b) exempt from Federal income taxes (under such Acts as amended and supplemented).

(8) A private foundation exempt under section 501(c)(3) and described in section 509(a). (Required to file Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation Exempt from Income Tax.)

(9) A stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing trust which qualified under section 401. (See Form 5500, Annual Return/Report for Employee Benefit Plan.)

(10) A religious or apostolic organization described in section 501(d). (Required to file Form 1065, U.S. Partnership Return of Income.)

Return When Exempt Status Not Established.—If your application for exemption is pending with the Internal Revenue Service and you claim exempt status under section 501(a) prior to a determination by the Service, you should file the appropriate return. An organization acknowledging that is a private foundation should file Form 990-PF.

B. Section 501(c)(3) Organizations.—Section 501(c)(3) organizations (other than private foundations filing Form 990-PF) must also complete Schedule A (Form 990), Organization Exempt Under 501(c)(3), Supplementary Information.

C. Filing Requirements Tests.—You are exempted from filing Form 990 if your gross receipts are normally not more than $10,000. Your gross receipts are the sum of lines 1(f), 2, 3, 4, 5(a), 6, 7(a), 8(a), and 9(e) of Part I, plus the expenses of special fundraising events and activities deducted on line 9. (These expenses must be added back because line 9(e) reflects the net income rather than the gross amount received from the special fundraising events and activities reported on that line.) If you meet this exception we ask that you fill in only the heading of Form 990 and check the first box in the note above Part I. Send this information form to the service center for your area. This will help us keep our records current and we won't have to contact you later asking why a return wasn't filed.

D. Shortened Return Format for Small Organizations.—If your gross receipts (see instruction C for computation) are $25,000 or less but normally more than $10,000, you should complete only the shaded items in Parts I, II, and V and all of Parts III and IV. Be sure to check the second box in the note above Part I, Form 990, so that we know that you didn't have to complete all items, and you won't be subject to a penalty for and incomplete return.

E. Complete Returns.—All line items on Form 990 must be completed unless the organization has gross receipts of $25,000 or less. (If this exception applies, refer to instruction D.) There are items on Form 990 which may not be applicable to you, but for which we need an answer even if it is negative.

A penalty of $10 a day for failure to file a return under section 6652(d) (see instruction F below) may be charged if an incomplete return is submitted. If one or more line items on the return are not filled in we may consider the return incomplete or contact you for the missing information. Therefore, we urge that you be sure to make and entry in each part of the form, even those that do not apply to you. If a part or line item does not apply enter "N/A" (not applicable), or if a dollar amount is zero enter "—0—." Please make sure your return is complete before it is submitted. (See Rev. Rul. 77-162, 1977-1 C.B. 400.)

F. Accounting Period.—The return shall be on the basis of the established annual accounting period of the organization. If the organization has no such established accounting period, the return shall be on the basis of the calendar year.

A group return (see "K" below) shall be on the basis of the established annual accounting period of the central organization. To change your accounting period, file Form 1128, Application for Change in Accounting Period.

G. Period to Be Covered by Return.—File the 1979 return for the calendar year 1979 and fiscal years beginning in 1979. If the return is for a fiscal year, fill in the taxable year space at the top of the return.

H. Accounting Methods.—Gross income, receipts and disbursements must be computed in accordance with the method of accounting regularly used by the organization in maintaining its books and records, unless otherwise specified in the instructions.

I. When and Where to File.—This return must be filed on or before the 15th day of the fifth month following the close of the accounting period.

Requests for extension of time to file may be made by filing Form 2758, Application for Extension of Time to File.

In case of a complete liquidation, dissolution or termination file the return on or before the 15th day of the fifth month following complete liquidation, dissolution or termination.

If the principal office of the organization is located in—

J. Penalty for Failure to File on Time.—If an organization fails to file the return on or before the due date, section 6652(d) imposes a penalty of $10 for each day the return is late (not to exceed $5,000), unless it can be shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause. The Internal Revenue Service may make written demand that the delinquent return be filed within a reasonable time after notice of mailing of the demand. The person failing to file the delinquent return (unless it can be shown to be due to reasonable cause) will have to pay $10 for each day (not to exceed $5,000) after the period expires, if more than one person is liable for failure to file the delinquent return, all such persons shall be jointly and severally liable with respect to such failure. (See section 6652(d).)

There are penalties for willful failure to file and, for filing fraudulent returns and statements. (See sections 7203, 7206, and 7207.)

K. Group Return.—A group return may be filed by a central, parent, or like organization for two or more local organizations, none of which are private foundations, provided the local organizations are: (a) affiliated with the central organization at the close of the central organization's annual accounting period; (b) subject to the general supervision or control of the central organization; and (c) exempt from tax under a group exemption letter which is currently in effect. Each local organization must annually authorize the central organization in writing to include it in the group return and must also annually file with the central organization a declaration, under penalty of perjury, of the truth and completeness of the authorization and statements required by this form. The group return is in addition to the separate return of the central organization but instead of separate returns by the local organizations included in the group return. There shall be attached to such group return schedules showing separately: (a) the total number, names, addresses, and employer identification numbers of the local organizations included; and (b) the same information for those not included therein.

If no local organization included in the group return has more than $25,000 of gross receipts, a group return may be prepared in accordance with general instruction D.

Receipts by a central organization from organizations included in a group return need not be itemized in the central organization's separate return.

The four-digit group exemption number required in block "F," page 1 of the return, is not to be confused with the nine-digit employer identification number (EIN) required in block "A" in the heading of the return.

L. Public Inspection of Form 990.—The information reported on or with Form 990, including all attachments other than the list of contributors required with respect to line 6, Part I, will be made available for public inspection under section 6104(b). This applies both to information required by the form or instructions and to information furnished voluntarily.

The forms and attachments should be such quality that they can be reproduced photographically.

M. Signature and Verification.—The return must be signed by the president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer, or other corporate officer (such as tax officer) authorized to sign. A receiver, trustee, or assignee must sign any return which he or she is required to file on behalf of a corporation. If the return is filed on behalf of a trust, it must be signed by the duly authorized trustee or trustees. The return must also be signed by any outside person, firm, or corporation who was paid for preparing it. If prepared by a paid firm or corporation, it should be signed in the name of the firm or corporation. The verification is not required if the return is prepared by a regular full-time employee of the organization.

N. Form 990-T.—Every organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), except organizations described in section 501(c)(1), must file a return on Form 990-T if it has gross income of $1,000 or more derived from business which is unrelated to the purpose on which the organization's exemption is based. There are special rules for foreign organizations; organizations described in sections 501(c)(7), (9) and (19); unrelated debt-financed income; rents; and income from controlled subsidiaries. Domestic organizations taxable at corporate rates must file a return on or before the 15th day of the 3d month following the close of the taxable year. Those taxable at trust rates must file on or before the 15th day of the 4th month. See Form 990-T. For further information, you may obtain Publication 598, Tax on Unrelated Business Income of Exempt Organizations, from your local Internal Revenue Service Office.

O. Information Returns and Forms That May Be Required.—

(2) Form W-2P.—Statement for recipients of annuities, pensions or retired pay.

P. Attachments.—If you need more space on forms or schedules, attach separate sheets and use the same arrangement as the printed forms, but show your totals on the printed forms. Be sure to put your name and employer identification number on these separate sheets.

Q. Organizations Organized or Created in a Foreign Country or United States Possession.—Amounts must be reported in United States currency (state conversion rate used) and information must be furnished in the English language. All items must be reported in aggregate including amounts from both within and without the United States.

R. Liquidation, Dissolution, Termination or Substantial Contraction.—In the case of liquidation, dissolution, termination or substantial contraction, organizations required to file this return shall attach a statement to the return showing the nature of liquidation, dissolution, termination or substantial contraction, and in the case of a complete liquidation of a corporation or termination of a trust, whether or not a final distribution of assets has been made and the date made. Such organizations will also attach a certified copy of the resolution or plan, if any, of liquidation, etc., together with all amendments or supplements not previously filed and a schedule indicating the names and addresses of all recipients of assets distributed in liquidation, dissolution or substantial contraction and the nature and fair market value of assets distributed to each such recipient.

If the organization ceases to exist, write "Final Return" at the top of the form.

Substantial Contraction.—The term "substantial contraction" shall include any partial liquidation or any other significant disposition of assets (other than transfers for full and adequate consideration or distributions out of current income).

A "significant disposition of assets" shall not include any disposition for a taxable year when the aggregate of:

- (1) the dispositions for the taxable year, and
- (2) where any disposition for the taxable year is part of a series of related dispositions made during prior taxable years, the total of the related dispositions made during such prior taxable years, is less than 25 percent of the fair market value of the net assets of the organization at the beginning of the taxable year (in the case of (1) above) or at the beginning of the taxable year in which any of the series of related dispositions was made (in the case of (2) above).

The determination whether a significant disposition has occurred through a series of related dispositions will be determined from all the facts and circumstances of the particular case.

Label—Name, Address, and Employer Identification Number.—If you received a Form 990 from the Internal Revenue Service with a pre-addressed removable label, please affix the removable label to the name and address area of the return you file. If the name or address on the label is wrong, draw a line through the incorrect portion and enter the correct information.

You should have only one identification number. If you have more than one number and have not been advised which one to use, notify the appropriate Internal Revenue Service Center shown under instruction I above, of the numbers you have, the name and address to which each number was assigned, and the address of your principal office. The Service will then advise you which number to use.

T. Fair Market Value of Assets at End of Year.—Enter on page 1, under F, the total fair market value of securities for which market quotations are readily available plus the total fair market value of all of your other assets. If the fair market value of an asset is not readily ascertainable, you may use an estimated figure.

U. Definitions:

Gross Receipts for Purposes of this Return.—Gross receipts means the gross amount received by the organization during its annual accounting period from all sources without reduction for any costs or expenses; including for example—cost of goods sold or cost of assets sold, cost of operations, or expenses of earnings, raising, or collecting such amounts. Thus, gross receipts includes but is not limited to (a) the gross amount received as contributions, gifts, grants and similar amounts without reduction for the expenses of raising and collecting such amounts; (b) the gross amount received as dues or assessments from members or affiliated organizations without reduction for expenses attributable to the receipt of such amounts; (c) gross sales or receipts from business activities including business activities unrelated to the purpose for which the organization received an exemption, the net income or loss from which may be required to be reported on Form 990-T; (d) the gross amount received from the sale of assets without reduction for the cost or other basis of the property and expense of sale; and (e) the gross amount received as investment income such as interest, dividends, rents and royalties. Instruction C indicates how to compute gross receipts.

Organizations Described in Section 501(c)(3).—In the case of organizations described in section 501(c)(3), where a local organization merely collects insurance premiums for the parent organization and forwards them to the parent without asserting any right to use them or otherwise derive benefit from their collection and the parent fully and currently reports the collection of those premiums, the premiums shall not be considered as gross receipts by the local organization. (Rev. Rul. 73-364, 1973-2 C.B. 393.)

Normally Not More Than $10,000.—For the purpose of instruction A(4) above, the annual gross receipts of an organization are normally not more than $10,000 if:

- (1) in the case of an organization which has been in existence for one year or less, the organization has received, or donors have pledged to give, gross receipts of $15,000 or less during the first taxable year of the organization,
- (2) in the case of an organization which has been in existence for more than one, but less than three years, the average of the gross receipts received by the organization in the first two taxable years is $12,000 or less, and
- (3) in the case of an organization which has been in existence for three years or more, the average of the gross receipts received by the organization in the immediately preceding three years, including the year for which the return would be filed, is $10,000 or less.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

PART I.—ANALYSIS OF REVENUE EXPENSES AND FUND BALANCES

Part I has three columns headed "Total," "Restricted," and "Unrestricted." All organizations required to file this return must complete the Total column and provide the information inquired in the line items to the left of that column.

The Restricted and Unrestricted columns are strictly for the optional use of organizations that want to reflect any externally imposed restrictions on the use of contributions, gifts, grants, endowment income, and other amounts received in the current year. These columns also provide a summarized accounting for the utilization of restricted funds received in the current year or in any prior year. Externally imposed restrictions primarily refer to those designated by donors and grantors as to the use of their separate contributions and grants and in the case of endowment gifts, the income earned by such funds. However, the term could also apply to restrictions imposed by any applicable State or Federal statute or regulations issued by an administrative agency of a State or the Federal Government. An appropriation of funds made at the discretion of the organization's governing body is not an externally imposed restriction.

The Restricted and Unrestricted columns are a breakdown of the information required to be reported in the Total column and the individual line items to the left of that column. Therefore, for any line item, the combined amount of the Restricted and Unrestricted columns should equal the figure reported in the Total column or to the left of that column.

When any externally imposed restriction on the use of funds lapses, the transfer to an unrestricted fund should be reported on line 17 of Part I by showing a decrease in the amount involved in the Restricted column and a corresponding increase in the Unrestricted column. These offsetting entries would result in a -0- entry in the Total column. The change would also be reflected in lines 57-61 of the fund balances section of the balance sheet in Part IV of the return. Do not show the transfer on lines 1-10 of Part I since those lines are for reporting the initial receipt or accrual of restricted and unrestricted amounts.

Although the IRS does not require any organization to complete the Restricted and Unrestricted columns, an organization that does so should follow the above instructions. Also, an organization may complete only those line items in the Restricted and Unrestricted columns that it chooses to complete and not all the applicable lines in those two columns.

Line 1—Contributions, Gifts, Grants, and Similar Amounts Received

Lines 1(a) through (e) are to be used to report amounts received as voluntary contributions: i.e., payments for which the payer (donor) does not receive full and adequate consideration from the recipient (donee) organization. (In the case of grants see the discussion below under the heading "Grants Equivalent to Contributions".) Income from fund raising events such as dinners, door-to-door sales of merchandise, raffles, carnivals, bingo games, and dances should not be reported as contributions received, but as either gross sales (line 8) if the sale of merchandise is involved, or other revenue (line 9) in all other circumstances. However, when the amount received or to be received from the payer exceeds the value of the consideration furnished by the filer, the excess represents a contribution and should be reported as such. When the recipient organization furnishes consideration having only nominal value, the entire amount received should be reported as a contribution. (See the instructions for line 2 for a discussion of when membership dues and assessments should be treated as contributions.)

On lines 1(a) through (f) do not report as a contribution received the value of any donated services rendered to the organization or similar items (such as the free use of facilities or equipment) for which a charitable contribution deduction is not allowable under section 170 of the Code. This applies whether the services or facilities are provided by individuals or organizations, including organizations that are exempt from tax. This amount may be reported in the block on line 70 of Part V.

Attach an itemized schedule (not subject to public inspection) where money, securities, or other property of $5,000 or more is received directly or indirectly from one person during the year showing the name, address, date received, and the total amount received from each such person.

An organization described in section 501(c)(3) which meets the 33½ percent support test of the regulations under section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) (without regard to whether such organization otherwise qualifies as an organization described in section 170(b)(1)(A)) need only furnish the above information for a person contributing $5,000 or more if the contribution exceeds 2 percent of total contributions, bequests, and devises received by the organization during the year.

An organization need only report the name and address of the contributor where it has actual knowledge of the contributor. For instance, an organization need not require an employer which withholds contributions from the compensation of employees and pays over to the organization periodically the total of amounts withheld, to specify the amounts paid over with respect to a particular employee. In such case, unless the organization has actual knowledge that a particular employee gave more than $5,000 (and in excess of 2 percent if the above paragraph is applicable), the organization need report only the name and address of the employer and the total amount paid over.

Organizations in determining whether a person has contributed $5,000 or more need only aggregate gifts of $1,000 or more from such person. Separate and independent gifts need not be aggregated if less than $1,000. If a contribution is in the form of property where the fair market value is readily ascertainable (such as market quotations for securities), the description and fair market value must be submitted. If the fair market value of the property is not readily ascertainable, you may submit an estimated value.

The term "person" includes individuals, fiduciaries, partnerships, corporations, associations, trusts and exempt organizations.

Organizations described in section 501(c)(7), 501(c)(8), 501(c)(10), or 501(c)(19) that receive contributions or bequests to be used exclusively for the purposes described in sections 170(c)(4), 2055(a)(3), or 2522(a)(3), must attach a schedule with respect to all gifts which aggregate $1,000 or more from any one person showing (a) the name of the donor, (b) the amount of such contribution or bequest, (c) the specific purpose for which such contribution or bequest was given, and (d) the specific use to which such amount was put. In the case of an amount set aside for such purposes, the organization shall indicate the manner in which such amount is held (for instance, whether such amount is commingled with amounts held for other purposes). If the contribution or bequest was transferred to another organization, the schedule must include (a) the name of the transferee organization, (b) a description of the nature of such organization, and (c) a description of the relationship between the transferee and transferor organizations. Such organizations must also attach a statement showing the total dollar amount of contributions and bequests received for such purposes which are $1,000 or less.

Grants equivalent to contributions.—Only those grants that are equivalent to contributions should be reported on lines 1(a)-(c). As discussed in section 1.509(a)-3(g) of the Income Tax Regulations, a grant is normally made to encourage the grantee organization to carry on certain programs or activities in furtherance of its exempt purposes. It may contain certain terms and conditions imposed by the grantor to ensure that the grantee's programs or activities are conducted in a manner compatible with the grantor's own programs and policies. The use of the grant funds may be restricted to one or more specific projects or activities of the grantee, as, for example, a voter registration drive or the restoration of a historically significant building.

A grant would still be equivalent to a contribution if the grantee performs a service or produces a work product which only incidentally benefits the grantor. (See the examples in the instructions for line 1(d).) However, if the terms of a grant require that a specific service, facility, or product be provided the grantor—the purpose of which is to serve the direct and immediate needs of that grantor rather than primarily to confer a direct benefit upon the general public or that segment of the public served by the organization in the case of organizations other than those described in section 501(c)(3)—such grant does not represent a contribution but a payment for services and/or rental income depending upon the specific facts. In general, any payment made primarily to enable the payer to realize or receive some economic or physical benefit as a result of the service, facility, or product obtained should not be treated as a contribution.

As an example, assume that a public interest organization described in section 501(c)(4) makes a grant to another organization to conduct a nationwide survey using a scientific sampling method. The purpose of the survey is to determine voter attitudes on various issues in which the grantor has an interest. The grantor plans to use the survey results in planning its program for the next three years. Under these circumstances the grant to fund the survey does not represent a contribution since conducting the survey and furnishing the survey report primarily serve the direct and immediate needs of the grantor and the benefit to the grantor would be more than incidental. The grantee should treat the grant funds as other revenue (line 9) when they are taken into account as income.

Research leading to the development of tangible products for the use or benefit of the payer should generally be treated as a service provided to serve the direct and immediate needs of the payer, whereas basic research or studies carried on in the physical or social sciences generally should not be so treated.

(a). Contributions, etc. received directly from the public.—Enter the total contributions, etc. received by the organization directly from the public. However, do not include any amounts received through a professional fundraiser which are required to be reported on line 1(b).

Amounts to be reported here include contributions, gifts, grants, etc. received from individuals, trusts, corporations, estates and foundations. Also to be included are contributions and grants from public charities and other exempt organizations that the not fund raising organizations (see instructions for line 1(c)) or affiliates of the filing organization (see instructions for line 1(e)). To the extent that membership dues and assessments represent contributions from the public rather than affiliated organizations, they should be reported on line 1(a).

Amounts contributed by any commercial co-venturer should be reported on line 1(a) as a contribution received directly from the public. These are amounts due to the donee organization for letting an outside organization or individual use its name in a sales promotion campaign in which the donor advertises that it will contribute a certain dollar amount to the named donee organization for each unit of a particular product or service sold or for each occurrence of a specified type.

1(b). Contributions, etc. received through professional fundraisers.—Enter the amount of contributions received from the public through any solicitation campaign conducted for the organization by a professional fundraiser. Under such an arrangement the fundraiser typically utilizes its own mailing list and conducts the mail campaign (or has employees who solicit contributions in person or by telephone), is compensated for certain direct costs such as printing and mailing expenses and employee salaries and is paid a fee that may be based on the use of the mailing list and the net contributions received (total contributions reduced by mailing list charges and/or direct expenses).

Do not include on line 1(b) contributions received through solicitation campaigns conducted by the organization itself.

1(c). Contributions, etc. received as allotments from fund raising organizations.—Enter the total of contributions received indirectly from the public through solicitation campaigns conducted by federated fund raising agencies (such as a United Way organization and certain sectarian federations) and similar fund raising organizations. These organizations conduct fund raising campaigns, normally within a single metropolitan area or some part of a particular State, and allot a portion of the net proceeds to each participating organization on the basis of the designations made by individual donors and other factors taken into account by the particular distribution formula utilized.

Contributions from public charities and other publicly supported organizations that are not fund raising agencies of the type described above should be reported on line 1(a) unless the donor and donee organization are affiliates. In the latter event, the donee should report such contributions on line 1(c).

1(d). Contributions, etc. received as government grants.—The discussion under Grants Equivalent to Contributions is particularly applicable to this line item. A grant or other payment from a governmental unit represents a contribution if the purpose of the payment is primarily to enable the donee to provide a service to, or maintain a facility for, the direct benefit of the public (even if part of the expense of providing such service or facility is paid for by the public) rather than to serve the direct and immediate needs of the grantor.

Following are examples of governmental grants and other payments that satisfy this requirement and therefore represent contributions.

- (1) Amounts paid by a government unit for the construction or the maintenance of library or hospital facilities which are open to the public.
- (2) Amounts paid under government programs to nursing homes or homes for the aged in order to provide health care or domiciliary services to residents of such facilities.
- (3) Amounts paid to child placement or child guidance organizations under governmental programs serving children in the community.

The general public derives the primary benefit (and a direct one) from the above payments. Any benefit to the governmental unit itself would be indirect and insubstantial as compared to the public benefit.

1(a). Other contributions, etc.—Enter the aggregate amount of contributions, etc. received from all sources other than those covered by lines 1(a)–(d). As indicated by the instructions for line 1(a), contributions and grants from organizations affiliated with the donee organization should be reported on this line 1(e)).

A national organization's affiliates would include its local, State, and area chapters. The affiliates of any of these chapters would include both the national organization and any other chapter. An auxiliary or similar organization is an affiliate of the organization that it operates in close association with (whether or not there is any overlapping control) and to which it provides financial support or from which it receives such support.

1(f). Total contributions, etc.—Enter the total of the contributions, gifts, grants and similar amounts reported on lines 1(a) through (e). See the instructions for line 1 above for information regarding the schedule of contributors required in some circumstances.

2. Membership dues and assessments.—Enter the total of membership dues and assessments from members and affiliates for the year that do not represent contributions. The rationale applied in Revenue Rulings 54-565, 1954-2 C.B. 95, and 68-432, 1968-2 C.B. 104, is applicable in making this distinction. These rulings state that dues paid to a charitable organization are a form of contribution to the extent that the amount paid exceeded the monetary value of the benefits and privileges accruing (but whether or not availed of) to the dues payer as an incident of membership.

Examples of such benefits and privileges include subscriptions to publications, newsletters (other than those which merely provide information as to the activities of the organization), free or reduced rate admissions to events sponsored by the organization or the use of its facilities, and discounts on articles or services available for purchase by both members and nonmembers. Other intangible benefits, such as the right to attend meetings, vote or hold office in the organization and the publicity or distinction arising from being a member of the organization, may be disregarded in determining the value of the benefits of membership.

In the case of membership organizations, other than those described in section 501(c)(3), there are generally benefits or consideration received in return for the payment of dues and therefore the dues are not contributions. This is particularly true with organizations described in section 501(c)(5), 501(c)(6) or 501(c)(7), although the benefits accruing to members may be somewhat indirect.

When a dues payment is made primarily to provide financial support for the activities of the recipient organization rather than for the payer to derive certain benefits having more than nominal monetary value, that dues payment represents a contribution. The fact that benefits whose aggregate value is more than a nominal amount are available to the dues payer evidences that that person's intent (and that of all members of the same class) in paying the dues was to receive those benefits and not to make a contribution.

3. Interest.—Enter the total interest income for the year including interest on certain governmental obligations that is not subject to tax in accordance with section 103 of the Code, but excluding amounts earned on program-related investments (reportable on line 9). Program-related investments are those made for the primary purpose of accomplishing an exempt purpose consistent with the investing organization's exempt status rather than for the production of income. All income from loans, the purpose of which is to accomplish an exempt purpose, should be reported on line 9. Following are examples of such loans: scholarship loans; low interest loans to charitable organizations, indigents, or victims of a disaster; loans to affiliated organizations; and loans by a credit union to its members. Loans to officers, directors and trustees do not fall within this category.

4. Dividends.—Enter the total dividend income for the year, excluding any capital gains dividends which should be reported on line 7. Dividends on stock that represents a program-related investment (see instructions for line 3 for definition) should be reported on line 9.

5(a). Gross rents.—Enter the gross amount of rental income for the year from investment property. Do not include amounts that represent income from an exempt function (program service) which should be reported on line 9 (and the related expenses of which should be reported in column (C) of Part II). For example, an organization whose exempt purpose is to provide low-rental housing to persons with low income would derive exempt function income from such rentals. Renting office space or other facilities or equipment to unaffiliated exempt organizations does not give rise to income from an exempt function (and, therefore, should be reported on line 5(a)) unless the charge is materially below the fair rental value of the property, and the lessor's purpose in charging less than fair rental value was to assist the lessee in carrying out its exempt purposes. For purposes of completing Form 990 only, income derived from renting property to affiliated exempt organizations should be treated as exempt-function income and reported on line 9.

5(b). Rental expenses.—Enter the total expenses paid or incurred that are attributable to the income reported on line 5(a). These expenses included depreciation if that expense is recorded on the organization's books of account.

5(c). Net rental income.—Enter the difference between lines 5(a) and 5(b). Any loss should be shown in parentheses.

6. Royalties.—Enter the total royalty income for the year from all sources.

7(a)-(c). Capital gains.—Attach a schedule showing with respect to each asset (whether or not depreciable) sold or exchanged: (a) date acquired, manner of acquisition, date sold, and to whom sold; (b) gross sales price; (c) cost, other basis, or value at time of acquisition if donated (state which); (d) expense of sale and cost of improvements subsequent to acquisition; and (e) if depreciable property, depreciation since acquisition.

Publicly traded securities.—In the case of sales of publicly traded securities through a broker, an organization may aggregate the gross sales price, the cost or other basis, and the expense of sale on all securities sold and report lump sum figures in lieu of the detailed reporting required in the above paragraph.

For purposes of this return, publicly traded securities include common and preferred stocks, bonds (including governmental obligations) and mutual fund shares which are listed and regularly traded in an over-the-counter market or on an established exchange and for which market quotations are published or otherwise readily available.

An exempt organization may use average cost basis in reporting gain or loss from sales of securities, provided such averaging is confined to sales reported for informational purposes only. For this purpose, when securities are sold, gain or loss may be computed by comparing the sales price with the average cost basis of the particular security.

The gross sale price should be entered on line 7(a) of Part I, the cost or other basis, expenses, etc. (less depreciation if applicable), should be aggregated and entered on line 7(b), and the net gain or loss entered on line 7(c). Capital gains dividends, the organization's share of capital gains and losses from a partnership, and capital gains distributions from trusts should be reported on lines 7(a) and 7(c) and the source indicated on the schedule described above.

8(a) through 8(d). Gross profit on sales of inventory.—On the appropriate line provided, enter the amount of gross sales, returns and allowances, cost of goods sold, and gross profit (or loss) from the sale of inventory items. These are items either produced by the organization itself for sales to others or purchased by the organization for resale. The latter does not include investments on which the organization anticipated deriving a profit through appreciation and subsequent sale. (Such sales should be reported on line 7.) Sales revenue and the related cost of goods sold should be reported on line 8 whether the sale of the merchandise involved constitutes an exempt function of the organization, unrelated trade or business, or a special fundraising event or activity.

9. Other revenue.—The amount of income from all sources not covered by lines 1 through 8 should be entered on lines 9(a) through 9(d). The nature of the income items should be stated in the spaces provided.

Reporting income from special fundraising events and activities.—Income from fundraising events and activities involving the sale of merchandise should be reported on line 8. Income from all other special fundraising events and activities such as dances, carnivals, bingo games, etc.—BUT NOT RECEIPTS REPRESENTING CONTRIBUTIONS—should be reported on line 9. In themselves, these fundraising activities do not accomplish an exempt purpose other than incidentally. Their sole or primary purpose is to raise funds to finance the exempt activities of the organization.

For the above types of special fundraising events and activities that are reportable on line 9, report the net income from each such event or activity in the Total column of lines 9(a)-(d). A description of the event or activity generating the receipts, the amount received, and the total expenses incurred should be entered on the line to the left of the Total column or on an attached schedule. For example, a line entry might be "Dance receipts, $2,400; less expenses, $850" and the net income of $1,550 would be entered in the Total column.

For each special fundraising event or activity, attach a schedule reflecting the expenses incurred. Do not report these expenses in column (B) of Part II.

10. Total revenue.—Enter the total of lines 1 through 9.

Lines 11 through 14—Expenses

The completed schedule of expenses in Part II provides the information needed to complete the Total column of lines 11 through 14. In completing Part II, it is necessary to add together expenses of the same object classification (salaries, travel and entertainment, occupancy, etc.) to reflect the functional activity (fundraising, program services, or management and general) in connection with which they were paid or incurred, without regard to whether the expenses were financed out of restricted or unrestricted funds. In completing lines 11-14 of the Restricted and Unrestricted columns, it is necessary to resegment these amounts to reflect the utilization of funds subject to externally imposed restrictions and those free of such restrictions.

11. Fundraising.—In the Total columns, enter the amount from column (B) of line 38.

12. Program services.—In the Total column, enter the amount from column (C) of line 38.

13. Management and general.—In the Total column, enter the amount from column (D) of line 38.

14. Total expenses.—In the Total column, enter the amount from column (A) of line 38.

Lines 15 through 18—Fund Balances

15. Excess (deficit) for the year.—Enter the difference between line 10 and line 14. If line 14 is greater than line 10, enter the deficit in parentheses.

16. Fund balances or net worth, beginning of year.—Enter the amount from column (A) of line 61.

17. Other changes in fund balances or net worth.—Attach a schedule explaining any changes in fund balances or net worth between the beginning and end of the year that are not accounted for by the excess or deficit on line 15. Transfers between restricted and unrestricted funds should be reflected in the Restricted and Unrestricted columns (by organizations that elect to complete those columns), but the net effect of such transfers would be -0- in the Total column.

18. Fund balances or net worth, end of year.—Enter the total of lines 15, 16, and 17. The figure in the Total column should equal the amount reported in column (B) of line 61.

PART II.—ALLOCATION OF EXPENSES BY FUNCTION

Part II reflects the organization's expenses by object classification (e.g., salaries, printing and postage, supplies) allocated into the three functional areas of fundraising (column (B)), program services (column (C)), and management and general (column (D)). These functional areas are explained below. Any expense item required to be reported on line 5(b), 7(b), 8(c) or 9 in Part I should not also be reported in Part II.

Organizations should follow their normal method of accounting in reporting their total expenses paid or incurred in column (A). If the filer's accounting system does not segregate expenses into categories that are readily compatible with columns (B), (C) and (D), any reasonable method may be used to allocate expenses among the three categories. Figures should be reasonably accurate if precise figures cannot be determined.

Expenses attributable solely to a specific function should be reported in the column appropriate for that function. Expenses such as officers' salaries that are attributable to several functions should be reflected as an expense of the separate functions on the basis of the time devoted by each of the officers. Some shared expenses such as occupancy, supplies, and depreciation of furniture and fixtures must be allocated among columns (B), (C) and (D) using an appropriate basis for each type of cost while other shared expenses should be reported in column (D) only. The instructions for the individual columns discuss this further.

Column (A). Total.—Column (A) is the total of columns (B), (C) and (D) for each line item in Part II. With the exception of those expenses reported on lines 5(b), 7(b), 8(c) and 9 of Part I, all of the expenses paid or incurred by the organization (including contributions awarded and depreciation expense, if any) should be reported in column (A).

Column (B). Fundraising.—Fundraising expenses include the total costs of soliciting (restricted and unrestricted) contributions, gifts, grants, etc. Both direct and indirect expenses, including allocable amounts of overhead and other shared costs, should be reported in column (B). Expenses incurred in connection with special fundraising events and activities such as dances, raffles, bingo games, carnivals, etc. should not be reported in this column or anywhere else in Part II. Such expenses should be reported on line 8 of Part I if the sale of merchandise is involved or on line 9 in all other circumstances. See the instructions for line 9 for additional discussion of the reporting of income and expenses from special fundraising events and activities.

Column (C) Program services.—Program services are those activities conducted by the organization that form the basis of the organization's qualification for exemption from tax as an organization described in section 501(c). When reporting these expenses, it does not matter whether these activities are self-funded (in whole or in part) or funded entirely out of contributions, investment income, accumulated income or any other source.

When an organization receives a grant requiring it to conduct research, produce a work product or perform a service either to meet the specific needs of the grantee or for the direct benefit of the public, the costs incurred represent program service expenses. These costs should not be treated as fund raising expenses even if the grant is reported as a contribution on line 1.

Column (D). Management and general.—This column is to be used to report those expenses which relate to the overall management and functioning of the organization rather than the direct supervision or conduct of fundraising activities or program services. Specific types of expenses that should be reported here include those attributable to meetings of the board of directors or similar group, committee and staff meetings, general legal services, accounting, personnel and other centralized functions, auditing, investment expenses other than those relating to rental income (line 5(b)), general liability insurance, preparation, publication and distribution of an annual report and office management. However, this is true only regarding expenses of a general nature and not expenses incurred in connection with a special meeting or other activity dealing with fund raising or specific program services.

Salaries of officers and their staffs and related expenses should be allocated to program services and fund raising on the basis of the officers' time devoted to those functions. Only the remainder should be reported as management and general expenses.

19. Contributions, gifts, grants, and similar amounts awarded.—Attach a schedule to support contributions, gifts, grants, scholarships, etc., showing: (a) each class of activity; (b) separate total for each activity; (c) name and address of donee and amount of distribution to donee; and (d) relationship of donee; if related by blood, marriage, adoption, or employment (including children of employees) to any person or corporation having an interest in the organization such as creator, donor, director, trustee, officer, etc. Activities should be classified according to purpose in greater detail than merely charitable, educational, religious, or scientific. For example, payments for nursing service, or laboratory construction, for fellowships, or for assistance to indigent families should be so identified. In case of payments for assistance to indigent families, the identity of the individual donees need not be reported on the attached schedule.

Although the actual distribution of cash, securities or other property is to be entered on line 19, column (C) the expenses in connection with the distributions are not to be included on that line, but should be entered on lines 21 through 37 of column (C).

Where the fair market value of the property at the time of disbursement is the measure of a contribution, the schedule must also show: (a) description of the contributed property; (b) book value of the contributed property; (c) the method used to determine the book value; and (d) the date of the gift. In such case the difference between fair market value and book value should be reflected in the books of account.

20. Benefits disbursed to or for members.—Organizations furnishing benefits to members or dependents (such as those organizations exempt under section 501(c)(8), 501(c)(9) or 501(c)(17)) attach a schedule showing amount of: (a) death, sickness, hospitalization, or disability benefits, (b) unemployment compensation benefits, and (c) other benefits (state nature). Do not report on this line the cost of benefits furnished officers and employees of the organization.

21. Compensation of officers, directors, and trustees.—Enter the aggregate amount of compensation of officers, directors, and trustees for the taxable year. The name, compensation, and other information relating to each officer, director, and trustee must be listed in Part III.

The organization's officers, directors, trustees, etc., should include in their income all payments and allowances made to them or on their behalf, unless the payments are specifically excluded by some provision of the Code. For more detailed information regarding the types of income to be reported here, please see Publication 525, Taxable Income and Nontaxable Income.

All organizations, except for certain ones exempt under section 501(c)(3), that pay salaries, wages, or other compensation to officers or other employees are generally liable for filing Forms 941 and 940 to report social security, withholding, and Federal unemployment taxes. Your exemption letter will state whether or not your organization is subject to these taxes.

22. Other salaries and wages.—Enter the aggregate salaries of all employees not reported on line 21.

23. Pension plan contributions.—Enter the employer's share of contributions to qualified and nonqualified pension plans for the year. Complete Form 5500 for your plan and file as a separate return. If you have more than one plan, complete a Form 5500 for each plan. File this form on or before the last day of the 7th month following the close of the plan year.

24. Other employee benefits.—Enter the amount of your contributions to employee benefit programs (e.g., insurance, health and welfare programs) that are not an incidental part of a pension plan included on line 23. Also, see instructions for Form 5500.

25. Payroll taxes.—Enter the amount of Federal, State, and local payroll taxes for the year, but only those taxes that are imposed on the employer. This would include the employer's share of FICA taxes, the FUTA tax, State unemployment compensation taxes, and other State and local payroll taxes. Do not include taxes (such as Federal and State income taxes and the employee's share of FICA tax) withheld from employees' salaries and paid over to the various governmental units.

26. Fees for fundraising.—Enter the amount paid or incurred as fees to outside fundraisers in connection with solicitation campaigns conducted by them and the receipts from which are reported on line 1(b). (See the instructions for line 1(b).) Also include fees paid or due to fundraisers for services such as providing consulting services in connection with a solicitation campaign conducted by the organization itself.

27. Other professional services.—Enter the total expense for the year for professional services including legal, accounting, investment advice, medical and other professional services not reported on line 26. Do not include amounts paid to employees of your organization.

28. Interest.—Enter the total interest expense for the year. Do not include any interest expense attributable to rental property which is reportable on line 5(b).

29. Occupancy.—Enter the aggregate amount paid of incurred for the use of office space or other facilities, heat, light, power, and other utilities other than that reported on line 32, outside janitorial services, and similar expenses.

30. Rental and maintenance of equipment.—Enter the total expense of renting and maintaining equipment other than automotive equipment. Include the latter on line 35 (other expenses) along with all other automobile operating costs.

31. Printing and postage.—Enter the total printing and postage costs for the year from all activities.

32. Telephone.—Enter the total telephone expense for the year. Telegram expenses may be included on this line or listed separately on line 35.

33. Supplies.—Enter the total cost of office, classroom, medical, and other supplies utilized during the year as determined under the organization's normal method of accounting for supplies.

34. Travel and entertainment.—Enter the total of all travel expenses (other than automobile operating costs reportable on line 35) and all entertainment costs for the year.

35. Other expenses.—Enter the total of all other expenses and attach a schedule reflecting the type and amount of each.

36. Total expenses before depreciation.—Enter the total of lines 19 through 35.

37. Depreciation, depletion, etc.—If your organization follows the accounting practice of recording depreciation, depletion, and similar expenses, enter the total of such expenses for the year. Include any depreciation (amortization) of leasehold improvements. If you do record depreciation, attach a schedule (or use Form 4562, Depreciation) showing: (a) description of property; (b) date acquired; (c) cost or other basis (exclude land); (d) depreciation allowed or allowable in prior years (e) method of computation; (f) rate (%) or life (years); and (g) depreciation this year (total additional first-year depreciation claimed must be shown on a separate line of the depreciation schedule).

Attach Form T if a deduction is claimed for depletion of timber.

38. Total.—Enter the total of lines 36 and 37. The figures entered in columns (A), (B), (C), and (D) should be reported on lines 14, 11, 12, and 13, respectively, of the Total column in Part I.

PART III.—LIST OF OFFICERS, DIRECTORS AND TRUSTEES

Enter the amount of compensation and other payments made by the organization during its annual accounting period (or during the calendar year ending within such period) to the officers, directors, and trustees (or any person having responsibilities or powers similar to those of officers, directors, or trustees) of the organization.

Column (E). Expense account and other allowances.—Enter only those amounts that are includable in the gross income of the recipients (i.e., reportable on their separate income tax returns) because no accounting was provided the organization, because allowances or reimbursements exceeded the expenses incurred by the payee in rendering services to the organization, or for any other reason.

PART IV.—BALANCE SHEETS

The balance sheets should agree with the books of account or any differences should be reconciled.

Lines 57 through 61—Fund Balances and Net Worth Section

Fund Accounting

Organizations that use fund accounting should check the block in the left column and complete lines 57 through 61 using the line item captions in that column. Fund accounting is a procedure under which an organization segregates its assets, liabilities, and net worth into separate funds according to externally imposed restrictions on the use of certain assets, similar designations by the organization's governing board, and other amounts that are unrestricted as to use. Each fund is like a separate entity in that it has a self-balancing set of accounts reflecting assets, liabilities, equity (fund balance), "income", and expenses. Since these funds are actually components of a single entity, they are all included in that organization's own financial statements. Similar accounts in the various funds may or may not be consolidated in those statements according to the organization's preference and practice. Parts I, II, and IV of this form, however, require such consolidation. Recognition of the separate funds and the net changes within the various funds during the year is accomplished by the fund balances section (lines 57 through 61) of the balance sheet.

57(a). Current funds, unrestricted.—Enter the fund balance per books for the current unrestricted fund.

57(b). Current funds, restricted.—Enter the aggregate fund balances per books for all current restricted funds.

58. Land, buildings and equipment fund.—Enter the fund balance per books for the land, buildings and equipment fund (plant fund).

59. Endowment and similar funds.—Enter the aggregate fund balances per books for the (permanent) endowment fund, term endowment funds, and funds functioning as endowment (funds designated by the board to be retained and invested, with the income to be used for either general or specified purposes). The fund balances of the annuity and life income funds may be reported here if immaterial in amount or on line 60.

60. Other funds.—Enter the aggregate fund balances per books for all funds not reported on lines 57 through 59.

61. Total fund balances.—Enter the total of lines 57 through 60. The beginning of the year figure in column (A) should be carried over to the Total column in Part I at line 16. The end of year figure in column (B) should agree with the figure on line 18 of the Total column in Part I.

62. Total liabilities and fund balances.—Enter the total of lines 56 and 61. That total must equal the figure for total assets reported on line 51 for both the beginning and end of year.

All Others

All organizations that do not use fund accounting should check the block in the right column and report their net worth on lines 58 through 61.

58. Capital stock or trust principal.—For corporations, enter the balance per books in the capital stock accounts representing the par or stated value (or total amount received upon issuance in the case of stock with no par or stated value) of all classes of stock issued and, as yet, uncanceled. For trusts, enter the amount in the trust principal or corpus account.

59. Paid-in or capital surplus.—Enter the balance per books for all paid-in capital in excess of par or stated value for all stock issued and, as yet, uncanceled. Also, organizations that record them in such manner should include any paid-in capital representing donations from both stockholders and others. (Note: This does not apply to section 501(c)(3) organizations and most of the other organizations that file this form.) Any current year donations that would be included in the line 59 total must also be reported on line 1 of Part I.

60. Retained earnings or accumulated income.—For corporations, enter the balance in the retained earnings or similar account, less the cost of any treasury stock held by the corporation. For trusts, enter the balance per books in the accumulated income or similar account.

61. Total net worth.—Enter the total of lines 58 through 60. The beginning of the year figure in column (A) should be carried over to the Total column in Part I at line 16. The end of year figure in column (B) should agree with the figure on line 18 of the Total column in Part I.

62. Total liabilities and net worth.—Enter the total of lines 56 and 61. That total must equal the figure for total assets reported on line 51 for both the beginning and end of year.

PART V.—STATEMENTS REGARDING CERTAIN ACTIVITIES

63. Description of activities.—Provide a brief activities of the various exempt purpose activities you engaged in during the period covered by this return. Generally, these will include those program services, the expenses of which are reported in column (C) of Part II. See the instructions for column (C).

64. Change in activities.—Attach a statement explaining any significant changes in the nature of type of activities that you conduct in furtherance of your exempt purpose. These new or modified activities would be those not specified as being conducted currently or planned in your application for recognition of exemption or those not previously made known to the Internal Revenue Service by means of a letter to your key district director or by an attachment to your return for any prior year. Besides the commencement of new activities or the modification of existing ones, any major program activities that are being terminated should also be disclosed.

65. Changes in organizing or governing documents.—Attach a copy of any changes to your articles of incorporation, constitution, trust instrument or other organizing document or your bylaws or other governing document. When a significant number of changes are made, a copy of the entire organizing instrument or governing document, as revised, should also be provided.

66. Unrelated business income.—See general instruction N for a discussion of unrelated business income and the Form 990-T filing requirements for section 501(c) organizations having such income. All items of income and expense reported on Form 990-T must also be reported on Form 990 when the organization is required to file both forms.

67. Liquidation, dissolution, termination, or substantial contraction.—See general instruction R for definitions and instructions regarding the information required to be furnished in the event of a liquidation, dissolution, termination, or substantial contraction.

68. Relation to other organizations.—Answer this question "Yes" if a majority of the organization's governing body, officers, trustees or membership consists of individuals who are also officers, directors, trustees or members of any one other organization.

A strictly coincidental overlap of membership with another organization, i.e., where membership or affiliation with one organization is not a condition of membership in the other, should be disregarded.

Affiliation with any statewide or nationwide organization also should be disregarded.

69. Expenditures for political purposes.—An "expenditure for political purposes" is any expenditure intended to influence the selection, nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to any Federal, State, or local public office or office in a political organization, or the election of Presidential or Vice Presidential electors, whether or not such individual or electors are selected, nominated, elected or appointed.

An expenditure includes a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift, of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement to make an expenditure, whether or not legally enforceable.

Section 501(c) organizations are required to file Form 1120-POL if the amount of their expenditures for political purposes and their net investment income each exceed $100 for the year.

Section 501(c) organizations that maintain separate segregated funds described in section 527(f)(3) should refer to the instructions for Form 1120-POL for filing requirements.

70. Donated services or facilities.—Organizations that receive donated services or the use of facilities or equipment at less than fair rental value should not report the value of such items in Part I or II of this return. (See instructions for line 1.) However, some organizations may want this information to be reflected on the return since, as discussed in instruction L, Form 990 is available for public inspection.

Organizations that maintain records indicating the amount and aggregate value of the donated services or use of assets may enter that information in the space provided on line 70. (The IRS does not require the maintenance of such records or the reporting of this information.) Also, estimates may be furnished where there is a clearly objective basis for measuring the value of donated services or facilities.

71. Section 501(c)(5) or (6) organizations.—Attempts to influence the opinion of the general public, or any segment of the general public, with respect to legislative matters or referendums constitute grassroots lobbying. Such lobbying may be explicit in the case of an advertisement which urges or encourages the public to contract members of a legislative body for the purpose of proposing, supporting, or opposing specific legislation. Grassroots lobbying may also be implicit in any advertisement or other communication directed at the public if the intent of the communication is to mold the public's opinion on a particular legislative matter or referendum. Any lobbying directed at the members of the organization is directed at "potential" members, employees of members, or stockholders of members would be. See section 1.162-20(c) of the income Tax Regulations for further discussion of grassroots lobbying.

72. Clubs exempt under section 501(c)(7).—A 501(c)(7) organization is permitted to receive up to 35 percent of its gross receipts, including investment income, from sources outside of its membership without losing its tax-exempt status. Of the 35 percent, not more than 15 percent of the gross receipts should be derived from the use of a social club's facilities or services by the general public.

Gross receipts are defined for this purpose as those receipts from normal and usual activities of the club (that is, those activities it has traditionally conducted) including charges, admissions, membership fees, dues, assessments, investment income (such as dividends, rents, and similar receipts), and normal recurring capital gains on investments, but excluding initiation fees and capital contributions. However, where a club receives unusual amounts of income, such as from the sale of its clubhouse or similar facility, that income is not to be included in the formula; that is, such unusual income is not to be included in either the gross receipts of the club or in the permitted 35- or 15-percent allowances. On the other hand where college fraternities or sororities charge membership initiation fees, but no annual dues, such fees will be included in their gross receipts, notwithstanding that initiation fees are ordinarily excluded.

If an organization has outside income in excess of the 35-percent limit (or 15 percent in the case of gross receipts derived from nonmember use of a club's facilities), all the facts and circumstances are to be taken into account in determining whether the organization qualifies for exempt status.

If the application of the above rules does not affect the club's exempt status, the amount of income shown on line 72(b) must be reported on Form 990-T.

Public Law 94-568 provides, in part, that an organization described in section 501(c)(7) is not exempt from income tax for any taxable year beginning after October 20, 1976, if, at any time during such a taxable year, its governing instrument, operating procedures or any written policy statement provides for discrimination against any person on the basis of race, color or religion.

73. Section 501(c)(12) organizations.—For purposes of section 501(c)(12), the term "gross income" means gross receipts less cost of goods sold.

74. Public interest law firms.—Public interest law firms exempt under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) must attach a statement that sets forth the cases in litigation, or that have been litigated during the year. With respect to each such case, the statement must include a description of the matter in dispute and an explanation as to how the litigation will benefit the public generally. See Rev. Proc. 71-39, 1971-2 C.B. 575. The firms must also attach a report of all fees sought and recovered. See Rev. Proc. 75-13, 1975-1 C.B. 662, for procedures for the acceptance of attorneys' fees.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Office of the Secretary

TITANIUM DIOXIDE FROM BELGIUM, FRANCE,
THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY, AND THE UNITED KINGDOM

Antidumping Proceeding

AGENCY: U.S. Treasury Department.

ACTION: Initiation of Antidumping Investigation.

SUMMARY: This notice is to advise the public that a petition in proper form has been received and an antidumping investigation is being initiated for the purpose of determining whether imports of titanium dioxide from Belgium, France, West Germany, and the United Kingdom are being, or are likely to be, sold at less than fair value within the meaning of the Antidumping Act of 1921, as amended. There is substantial doubt that imports of the subject merchandise, allegedly at less than fair value, are causing, or are likely to cause, injury to an industry in the United States. Therefore, the case is being referred to the U.S. International Trade Commission for a determination on the injury question.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 31, 1978.
FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mary S. Clapp, Duty Assessment Division, U.S. Customs Service, Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20229, telephone 202-566-5492.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On September 18, 1978, a petition in proper form was received pursuant to sections 153.26 and 153.27, Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.26, 153.27), from counsel on behalf of SCM Corporation, New York, N.Y., alleging that titanium dioxide from Belgium, France, West Germany, and the United Kingdom is being, or is likely to be, sold at less than fair value within the meaning of the Antidumping Act of 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160 et seq.) (referred to in this notice as the "Act").

Titanium dioxide, TiO₂, is the primary white pigment consumed in the paint and coatings, paper and paper bond, and plastics industries. It is classifiable under item 473.70 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States.

It appears that foreign producers and some purchasers in the United States are related within the meaning of the Act and, therefore, it will be necessary to establish the exporter's sales price of the merchandise in the U.S. market.

Based upon the information set forth in the petition and that derived from the Customs Service's summary investigation, it appears that the margins of dumping may range from as low as 5 percent to as much as 37 percent depending on the source of the imports.

There is evidence on record concerning injury, or likelihood of injury, to the U.S. industry from the alleged less than fair value imports of titanium dioxide from Belgium, France, West Germany, and the United Kingdom. The petition indicates that the alleged less than fair value imports represent an increasing share of the U.S. market, having expanded from 4.1 percent of the U.S. market in 1973 to 10.2 percent in 1977. Although year-end stocks of titanium dioxide have grown continuously since 1973, preliminary reports show a small decline in 1977.

The petition also indicates that domestic production of titanium dioxide dropped 4 to 5 percent in 1977. However, the volume of overall domestic shipments and consumption has been rising. In addition, the capacity utilization of the domestic industry apparently has stabilized with a substantial expansion of production capacity likely in the near future. Finally, although the petitioner has submitted information to demonstrate that the industry's profit margins have eroded in the last 2 years, annual price increases have occurred with the most recent increase made effective in June 1978. More importantly, if price suppression does, in fact, exist, it may be a result of competition among domestic producers rather than a result of sales by foreign manufacturers at less than fair value.

On the basis of such evidence, it has been concluded that there is substantial doubt of injury or likelihood of injury to an industry in the United States by virtue of such imports from Belgium, France, West Germany, and the United Kingdom. Accordingly, the U.S. International Trade Commission is being advised of such doubt pursuant to section 201(c)(2) of the act (19 U.S.C. 160(c)(2)).

Having conducted a summary investigation as required by section 153.29 of the Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.29), and having determined as a result thereof that there are grounds for so doing, the U.S. Customs Service is instituting an inquiry to verify the information submitted and to obtain the facts necessary to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to reach a determination as to the fact or likelihood of sales at less than fair value. Should the International Trade Commission, within 30 days of receipt of this referral, advise the Secretary that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is being, or is likely to be, injured by reason of the importation of such merchandise into the United States, this investigation will be terminated. Otherwise, the investigation will continue to conclusion.

This notice is published pursuant to section 153.30 of the Customs Regulations (19 CFR 153.30).

ROBERT H. MUNDHEIM,
of the Treasury.*

Applicant has acquired all of the issued and outstanding stock of the Dardanelle and Russellville Railroad Co., (D&R), and proposed to merge the D&R into Applicant. In accordance with the Commission's regulations (49 C.F.R. 1108.8) in Ex Parte No. 55 (Sub-4), Implementation—National Environmental Policy Act, 1969, 352 I.C.C. 451 (1976), any protests may include a statement indicating the presence or absence of any effect of the requested Commission action on the quality of the human environment. If any such affect is alleged to be present, the statement shall indicate with specific data the exact nature and degree of the anticipated impact. See Implementation—National Environmental Policy Act, 1969, supra at p. 487.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, the proceeding will be handled without public hearings unless comments in support or opposition on such application are filed with the Secretary, Interstate Commerce Commission, 12th and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20424, and the aforementioned counsel for applicant, within 30 days after date of first publication in a newspaper of general circulation. [Decisions Volume No. 41]

DECISION-NOTICE

Decided: October 16, 1978

The following applications are governed by special rule 247 of the Commission's rules of practices (49 CFR §1100.247). These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after the date notice of the application is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Failure to file a protest, within 30 days, will be considered as a waiver of opposition to the application. A protest under these rules should comply with rule 247(e)(3) of the rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (as specifically noted below), and shall specifically with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. A protestant should include a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describe in detail the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or upon applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such request shall meet the requirements of section 247(e)(4) of the special rules and shall include the certification required in that section.

Section 247(f) provides, in part, that an applicant which does not intend timely to prosecute its application shall promptly request that it be dismissed, and that failure to prosecute an application under the procedures of the Commission will result in its dismissal.

Further processing steps will be by Commission notice, decision, or letter which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication.

Any authority granted may reflect administratively acceptable restrictive amendments to the service proposed below. Some of the applications may have been modified to conform to the

We find: With the exceptions of those applications involving duly noted problems (e.g., unresolved common control, unresolved fitness questions, and jurisdictional problems) we find, preliminarily, that each common carrier applicant has demonstrated that its proposed service is required by the public convenience and necessity, and that each contract carrier applicant qualifies as a contract carrier and its proposed contract carrier service will be consistent with the public interest and the national transportation policy. Each applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform the service proposed and to conform to the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and the Commission's regulations. This decision is neither a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment nor a major regulatory action under the Energy Policy and Conservation Act of 1975.

It is ordered: In the absence of legally sufficient protests, filed within 30 days of publication of this decision-notice (or, if the application later becomes unopposed), appropriate authority will be issued to each applicant (except those with duly noted problems) upon compliance with certain requirements which will be set forth in a notification of effectiveness of this decision-notice. To the extent that the authority sought below may duplicate an applicant's existing authority, such duplication shall not be construed as conferring more than a single operating right.

By the Commission, review board number 2, members Eaton, and Liberman, board member Boyle not participating.

Acting Secretary.
