PROSPECTUS ON FORMATION OF NIIGATA-KEN SOCIAL WORK FEDERATION

On account of the economic confusion after the defeat in the War, the social unrest increases more and more, the restlessness of the national life is felt keenly day by day, the number of the protected people increases very rapidly and, at the same time, the private social work to be engaged in the relief for them has suffered severe economic shock and is on the brisk of ruin.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

As per telephnone conversation from Lt. Wilson, 7th Infantry Division Port Patrol at Kamaishi, two American Merchant Seaman got drunk and missed their ship (S.S. PIKE???), Friday, 28 January 1949.

A subsequent telephone call to Lt. Wilson revealed that the two men, names as yet unknown, had created no other disturbance or misdemeanor and were guilty of illegal entry into Japan only.

Per telephone conversation with Lt. Col. H. R. Turner, IX Corps. Provost Court Officer, it was suggested that the two men be sent to the Merchant Marine Union Headquarters in Yokohama under the protective custody of ###### some one of the United States Army, a receipt be secured, and any further action be taken by the Union Headquarters. This would probably be deportation to the Zone Of the Interior by the next American ship sailing for the United States.

The two seamen in question should arrive in Morioka [redacted] the evening of 30th of January 1949. Lt. Green, 7th Infantry Division S-2, has said that he can get orders and personnel to travel with the men to Yokohama on the evening of the 31st of January. However, if the men arrive before the Southbound Allied Limited on the evening of the 30th and are sent down the same evening, it is possible that they can board their own ship, which has Yokohama as its next port of call from Kamaishi.
