Wedding

On Monday, the 26th of October, All Saints' Church was the scene of a noon-day wedding, when Miss Mary Webster Beechey became the bride of Mr. Guy Leslie Cornman. The bride wore a dark blue traveling gown, and a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The church decorations were pink and white cosmos.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Beechey, of Cricket avenue, Ardmore, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cornman, of Gladwyne, Pa.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. Andrew T. Burke.

The men's and women's Sunday school classes are having a substantial increase in membership. $100, raised by these combined classes, was handed to the church yesterday to pay for the covering of the Sunday school room floor. We invite you to join us next Sunday at 10 A. M. for helpful Bible study.

The topic of the sermon next Sunday morning is, "The Things That Abide."

The Young People's meeting will have for speaker next Sunday evening Professor Llewellyn Phillips, Bucknell University, Lewisburg Pa., who will be in Philadelphia next week as an instructor in the Baptist School of Methods.

An especially interesting evening service at 7.45. The speaker will be Professor Phillips.

The Teachers' Association held a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting last Friday evening. The present corps of officers, who have served the school with general acceptance, were re-elected for the ensuing year.

Men and boys were in the majority in the Sunday school last Sunday. Eight new scholars were received; a total gain of 61 in four months. A popular feature of the sessions is the singing led by Mrs. Arney.

A Men's Bible Class was recently organized with 14 charter members. The Bible will be studied systematically. Mr. Robert E. Pattison is president; Mr. W. J. McAuliff, vice president; Mr. J. F. Howenstein, secretary; Mr. James Scott, treasurer; Mr. N. W. Akers, teacher; Dr. F. W. Sadler, assistant.

A Woman's Bible Class of 11 members was also organized. Mrs. C. E. Anderson is president; Mrs. N. E. Smedley, vice president; Mrs. R. E. Pattison, secretary; Mrs. A. Souder, treasurer; Mrs. Sieler, teacher.

The Sunday evening service is well attended. Last week 125 persons were present. An attractive feature of the service is the hearty congregational singing and the selections of the chorus choir of 25 voices.

HERE IS A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU

THE WAY TO BOOM A TOWN is to bring people to it. You may not have the time or opportunity to go after them but by few minutes' thought, you may be able to think of a half dozen "out-of-town" friends who, if they were solicited, might be induced to become fellow residents.

If you want to help Narberth and incidentally receive from me my certified cheque for $25.00 or $100.00 try this:

Write me a Letter

Give me the names and addresses of some of your out-of-town friends who might be interested in Narberth as a home.

In each instance where we rent a property, we will pay you $25.00.

In each instance where we sell a property, we will pay you $100.00.

Send your Letter To-day

THIS OFFER IS GOOD FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY.

Men's Club Bring Educational Movies

For Monday evening, November 9, the Men's Club of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, have secured the educational films of the Bell Telephone Company, with one of the officers of the company to give an informal talk.

The latest type of "movie" machine will be used, and, as the Bell Company has worked out some exceedingly interesting graphics to show some of the operations that make for service from the time you lift the receiver in your home until you hang it up again, after having talked to your next door neighbor or to some one in Philadelphia, New York or Chicago, the talk and the pictures should prove exceedingly interesting and instructive.

A business meeting will be held at 7.30 o'clock, and at 8 o'clock the auditorium of the church will be opened to the public and all interested are invited to attend.

The high price of giving chiefly concerns mean souls.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Hallowe'en Socials

Hallowe'en has helped make the past week a very busy one in the local Y. M. C. A. Under the existing conditions, it is essential to have a Hallowe'en social on two nights. This year the Junior social was held Friday night and the Senior social Saturday night.

The Junior social was most interesting and successful this year. The Junior membership campaign, which was so successful a few weeks ago, has been the means of bringing into the building many who did not before attend any of these events. About a hundred came masked and 35 or 40 who were not masked. The entertainment consisted of some lively games, the grand march and refreshments, which was followed by a frolicsome hour, enjoyed by all, in the gymnasium. The judges awarded the prizes as follows: Best dressed boy—Virginia Downes. Most comic dressed boy—Junior Waine. Best dressed girl—Helen Cole. Most comically dressed—Esther Ricklin.

The Senior social was held on Hallowe'en night, and, because of the many similar events, was not as well attended. About 40 or 50 came masked and enjoyed the event. The social side, with Mr. George W. Gifford in the lead, had its success assured. It is unfortunate that more did not attend this unusual feature. The decorating was confined to the lobby, where the committee did very creditable work. Shocks of corn fodder and numerous pumpkins practically transformed the place, and with the electrical side taken care of by Roy Griffith, it was indeed a creditable piece of work. The entertainment started off with the string cobbweb game, which caused much amusement. This was followed by the grand march and numerous games. The judges awarded the prizes as follows: Best dressed couple—Mrs. Moyer and Mrs. Shinn. Most comically dressed man—Mr. J. S. Harris. Best dressed lady—Miss Mildred Smith. Most comically dressed lady—Ida M. Dando.

A Howling Success to Our Town

The boys' class of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church are going to give a minstrel show under the instruction of "Professor" Bill Dennis, the black-faced comedian, on November 21, 1914, at Elm Hall. We will also have with us the two noted sketch artists, Hlass Warren and Bill Cartledge, and the famous Scotch comedian, Walter Lupton.

The rehearsals have been very progressive, and a large audience is expected. Admission will be 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Tickets will be on sale at Davis' and by all the young men of the class. Don't Miss This Show.

The directors of the Needle Work Guild of America will hold their annual meeting at the Presbyterian Church, Wednesday, November 11, at 2 P. M. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. An address will be delivered by Rev. W. Arthur Warner, superintendent of the Home Mission Society of Philadelphia (non-sectarian). An exhibit of the garments will be given, which will later be sent to various hospitals and other institutions.

THE ACID TEST OF THE CHURCH

The business of the Church is three-fold:

She Leads Men to God.
 She Organizes the Friends of God.

She Sets Her Members to Doing Good in the World.

These three things the Church is doing in every community in the country.

In some places she does them more efficiently than in others.

Study over these three propositions for yourself. Unfold them and see what they signify. Their implications are even greater than their assertions.

The Church Leads Men to God.

That means that she is the best agency of the highest civilization. She calls forth humanity's noblest powers, its divinest qualities, the side of its nature which has affinity with the divine. The way out of human nature's jungle leads through the Church.

The Church Has Bound Upward-Looking People Together.

Here is the good society of good people, to which everybody is eligible. Her organization is notable for its inclusiveness. She wants everybody to belong to this largest of all organizations among men, that its efficiency in unselfish service may be increased.

The Church Bids All Who Come to Her Go Out and Serve Their Fellow Men.

Her motto is that of her Master: "Not to be ministered unto, but to minister." She is the primary school and the college of social service. The Christ spirit in her has made her members missionaries of every form of good in the world.

You share in the Church's benefits, therefore go to church.

Why not share also in her work and responsibilities

In case of illness, death or other trouble, any minister will be glad to help.

The Three Questions.

There will be asked Narberth citizens this month: 1. Will you help support the Y. M. C. A. of Narberth? (Yes, No.) 2. How much? 3. When? This is not begging; it is a necessity. We have made it possible for the children to come; will you make it possible for them to stay? A group of sincere men will give a week of their time; do not waste it by idle discussion; either give or not; that we may know whether the Y. M. C. A. can or cannot continue this year. The workers will meet at the Y. M. C. A. building on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, organize the teams and receive instructions. Ardmore was appealed to last month, and the response was splendid. Let it not be said Narberth failed. Mr. William S. Horner is chairman of the committee, and if there is a man in Narberth who has not been asked to help, let him give his name in at the office of the Y. M. C. A. Are you a member? Will you help support it? It is up to you.
