

SCIENTISTS TO BUILD

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, OF GLENDALE, TO ERECT OWN BUILDING

One of the most prosperous and advancing religious bodies in the city of Glendale is the "First Church of Christ, Scientist." This body inaugurated its establishment in Glendale in May, 1912. At that time it was not a very numerous body. Since then it has grown and continued to grow until now it is an influential section of the religious life of the community. It numbers among its members many of the most valuable and most valued of Glendale's citizenship. This progressive body is about to build a new church building on Maryland avenue and Second St. Mrs. Sherwood of 1320 N. Maryland avenue, is the president of the board of directors of the church. She came to Glendale in 1914 and has seen a very remarkable extension of the work of the church here. The First Reader of the church is Mr. Russell, Kilgore and the Second Reader is Mrs. Whitten.

For a long time the church met in the old Masonic hall and latterly has been holding its services in the Masonic Temple. It has also conducted a reading room at 415 1/2 S. Brand boulevard.

The varied activities of the church have at last become of such dimensions as to demand the possession of a building suitable for such work. The members of the church have at last settled on building and having two commodious and suitable lots at the corner of Second and Maryland avenue, have made their plans for building there.

This new building will be merely a temporary building, though it may serve the congregation for years, as it will be quite substantial. Ultimately they hope, however, to erect a permanent stone building that will be a thing of beauty. This present building will be a frame structure, one-story in height. Its dimensions will be 70x90 feet. It will have a classical front with those graceful and pure lines one is accustomed to see in Christian Science buildings.

In the center of the building will be an appropriate dome which will serve at once as external ornament and for internal ventilating purposes. The body of the church will seat 525 people. There will also be six classrooms and two readers' rooms in the rear. One excellent feature of the building will be the superior lighting facilities that the building will enjoy. There will be numerous windows, lending an air of cheerfulness to the interior. The body of the church is seated with comfortable opera chairs.

This building will cost $8000. It is to be erected by Retts & Boyd of Glendale. The architect is A. L. Acher of Los Angeles, who has succeeded in designing a building that is pleasant to behold and convenient for the purpose for which it is designed. The foundation is of concrete and a broad flight of ecclesiastical looking steps leads up to the main entrance. In every way the new church building will be a handsome addition to the public buildings of the city and a great adjunct to the neighborhood in which it will be situated.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Glendale, is a self-supporting body and it expects much benefit from the new building and many additions to its membership when it is opened. It is expected that the building will be completed in June and opened in the same month.

TENTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J. Haydn Taylor of 210 Myrtle avenue, Eagle Rock, entertained thirty children Tuesday afternoon in honor of the tenth birthday of her son, Boyd. She was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Alice Anderson, Mrs. William Vince and Mrs. J. R. Low. The rooms were bowers of Cecil Brunner roses. During the games which were arranged to entertain the young guests, prizes were won by Lorene Sprinkle, Frank Lerchen and Olive Lee. The dining room was arranged as a cafeteria and the delicious refreshments were served cafeteria style.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

This evening at 7:30 Prof. H. W. Kellogg of Occidental College will speak at the pre-communion service on the subject of "Prayer." Dr. Kellogg, who is well known locally, will have a message which will no doubt be heard by a large number. The invitation is a general one. At the close of the service the Session will meet those who expect to unite with the church next Sunday morning.

Dr. Pratt's class will meet tomorrow evening as usual. Visitors welcome.

SCHOOL AND CAMPUS

GLENDALE HIGH BASEBALL TEAM DEFEATS COVINA 13 TO 3

Saturday afternoon Glendale won the third game of the County League from Covina at the valley city, by the score of 13 to 3. For the first six innings it was a fast game, but after that a walkaway for the Glendale boys. Glendale did not get a hit up to the sixth inning, but with two down, the Covina team blew up, and Glendale batted the Covina pitcher out of the box, scoring seven runs. As Alhambra lost on Monrovia this places Glendale at the head of the league.

This year we have a well balanced team and have a fine chance of winning the pennant. The coach has developed a number of new players, Verdugo, Sharpe, Scholes, McGillis, West, H. Crandall. Without doubt the best pitcher in the league is Horace Lakens. This year he is at his best and is expected to pitch Glendale into the championship.

Resolution

Whereas, the United States, in order to hold her own in a future war, needs a trained citizenry capable of being welded into a fairly efficient army within a comparatively short time, and,

Whereas, drilling in the rudiments of military training is exceedingly beneficial, both physically and mentally, and,

Whereas, drilling in marching and setting up exercises is more interesting and of greater benefit to the pupil individually than ordinary gymnasium work, and,

Whereas, Military Training can be put into the High School course and would not have to be compulsory, and,

Whereas, many High Schools in California have recognized these facts and have introduced a course in military training, and,

Whereas, further, the legislature of the State of California in 1911 passed a bill appropriating money to furnish the guns for all High Schools adopting this course,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Student Body of the Glendale Union High School, do find such a course desirable and do petition our principal and Governor, Mr. George U. Moyle, to introduce a non-compulsory course of Military Training in this High School for the year beginning September, 1916.

General Notes

Merle Echols has been elected track captain for next year. Harry Glazier will be the manager.

Many High School people are planning to attend the great American Championship Debate, between Columbia University and the University of Southern California. It will take place next Friday night, March 14, at Trinity Auditorium. Tickets can be obtained from Mr. Post or Howard Stickney.

All the prize contests for the "Stylus" will close next Friday. This does not include the art work. If you have any good literary material or jokes, hand them in to a member of the staff this week.

The presentation of "The Land of Heart's Desire" by the Dramatic club, has been postponed until the first Wednesday after spring vacation. The cast consists of William Bode, Paul Williams, Dorothy Cloud, Ethyl West, Rebecca Gregg and Ralph Carmichael. The play will be given as a pay assembly.

The Seniors are planning to give a weiner roast next Wednesday night to celebrate the great victory in the Oratorical Contest. They wanted very much to entertain the Scrubs, but since the Scrubs are so many, and the dimes in the Senior Class treasury are so few, the older classmen will not be able to enjoy the presence of the infants.

Reading Contest

The interclass interpretation contest will take place next Friday during school hours. The contestants will be, Rachel McClure 1916, Evangeline Quackenbush 1917, Opal Peaster 1918, and David Johnson 1919.

Carlton West and Bill Balthis, Glendale's tennis stars, have left for the Ojai tournament. They will be back Saturday. We surely have reason to expect something from these young sharks. In fact, we don't see how they can possibly fail to take something, in doubles at least.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

PAPER READ BY MRS. C. H. RITCHIE AT HOLLYWOOD CONVENTION

The following paper was read at the Hollywood convention of Woman's clubs by Mrs. C. H. Ritchie, chairman of Civics of the Los Angeles district:

The new citizenship is both an ideal and practical citizenship; it is also a collective citizenship.

It is and must be an ideal citizenship because "we cannot live by bread alone" and "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he." If we have not the vision and the courage to shape our course thereto, life would be but a bare existence. We must "hitch our wagon to a star." The ideal of today is to make living conditions better for all, not ourselves alone.

This new citizenship must also be practical as well as ideal in order to make the dream of race betterment an accomplished fact.

But most of all must this new citizenship be a collective citizenship. The individualistic point of view is fast yielding to the collective—"The greatest good to the greatest number."

Woman, whose former sphere was exclusively individual, is beginning to work for her sex collectively, as she is also beginning to think and work for the child collectively—not just her child.

Woman is studying civic, social and industrial conditions in their collective aspect; she is realizing more and more that what affects the whole community, affects her and her family and visa versa. She is studying how, and striving to, make herself a component part of this great collective organization—the world. Today our faith is founded on the good in all humanity and our hope is for its collective betterment, and we are working to that end.

Therefore, Federation — which aims to cover the collective activities of everyday life and leaven those activities with the leaven of high ideals and practical methods. The time has passed when we can be indifferent to civic conditions. We must not only clean our own back yards, but we must help our neighbors to clean theirs.

Civic betterment, like charity, must begin at home, but also, like charity, it must not stop there. We must not only set our own houses in order, but we must help attain order in our whole community. By precept and example we must extend this new citizenship, with its high ideals, its practicability and its inclusiveness, to embrace all peoples and all conditions.

Our neighbors and our neighbors' children need the same conditions and environments to make them healthy and happy as we and our children need and demand. It is both our duty and our God-given privilege to contribute all in our power to bring about an ideal, a practical and a collective civic condition that will make possible this great end—race betterment, race happiness and race health.

PEOPLE HONOR PASTOR

The Rev. E. H. Willisford had a birthday yesterday. He has had some before but this was number fifty. Since Dr. Willisford had reached the half-century mark some of his numerous friends planned and executed a complete surprise on him.

The Men's Bible Class of which Dr. Willisford is the popular teacher and the Woman's Bible class, of which Mrs. Willisford is an active member, arranged a most bountiful supper to which the unsuspecting pastor was invited. Mrs. Willisford, knowing of the surprise, suggested to her husband that since it was his birthday it would be nice for them to spend the afternoon in the city and return for a 7 o'clock dinner.

As Mr. Willisford reached home at 7 o'clock he was told that he was wanted at the church for a few minutes to speak to a Sunday School class which was meeting. The unsuspecting pastor, on arriving at the church, found a goodly number of his flock surrounding well-laden tables.

Rev. Willisford was completely taken aback. Recovering from his surprise he eagerly joined the merry company. Following the dinner brief toasts were given by Rev. J. E. Storm, Mrs. B. Franklin, Mr. J. W. Colson, Mrs. I. McReynolds, Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mr. H. W. Yarik, Mrs. W. D. McRae, Mr. O. E. Von Oven, Mr. D. A. Lane and Mrs. A. B. Chappell. Mrs. Geo. E. Adams acted as toastmistress.

Mr. Willisford feelingly responded to the many kind things that had been said. He related some of his earlier experiences.

During the day Dr. Willisford received a large number of letters and birthday cards from former parishioners. They contained many pleasant congratulations. Dr. Willisford was presented with a number of beautiful bouquets of flowers from the assembled hosts and in behalf of the Sunday School classes, Mr. D. A. Lane presented the pastor with a "gold piece." Two very fine birthday cakes were placed on the tables on which were placed lighted candles.

An additional feature of the evening was the fact that it was also the birthday of the Sunday School superintendent, Mr. O. E. Von Oven. He was the recipient of a beautiful bouquet of flowers and shared honors with the pastor in the birthday cakes.

SURPRISE HURSTS

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hurst of 1419 W. Seventh street were unexpectedly host and hostess to a company of their friends, who surprised them Saturday evening. A most happy evening was spent in dancing and other amusements, a delicious buffet luncheon being served near the midnight hour. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. Gilman and Mr. and Mrs. F. Judy of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brooks of Lankershim, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hummel of Bairdstown, Mr. and Mrs. L. Barnett, Mrs. N. Conklin, Mrs. O. Jewell, Mrs. Meeks, Miss Ross and Messrs. A. Hummel, S. Lukeman, B. Hollway, R. Brooks, I. Brooks, all of Los Angeles.

DEATH OF AGED MINISTER

Rev. John N. Hutchison, pastor of a Minneapolis, Minn., Presbyterian church, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Schmidt, 439 E. Third St., Glendale, Tuesday, April 11, at the age of 79 years, 5 months and 19 days. Rev. Hutchison arrived here ten days ago from Minneapolis, having been granted a two months' leave of absence by his congregation. He came here to visit his daughter in the hope that the rest and change of climate would be beneficial to his health. The Pulliam Undertaking company is in charge of the body, which will be shipped to Minneapolis for burial tomorrow. The services will be held in the eastern city.

COMPLETION OF PANAMA CANAL

Once more the Panama canal is to be thrown open to the world and the riches of east and west will be interchanged. It will be remembered that when the Canal was opened it was a year ahead of the time scheduled for its completion. Col. Goethals, former governor-general of the Zone, the man who built the canal, and who, wearied with his long service in the tropics and the difficult work of grappling with the problems of excavation, tendered his resignation and returned home. When the slides occurred that blocked up the canal the ex-governor returned to the Zone and took up again the work of completing the canal. It is expected that he will again retire.

Those serious earth movements that finally blocked the canal began last September, about the time that Goethals offered his resignation to President Wilson. News of the occurrence of the slides, however, determined him to go back to the work on the canal. It had been anticipated that there would be earth slides in the Culebra cut, though it was not expected that they would all of a sudden slide into the cut. It was believed that they would come gradually and that the ordinary dredges would handle them with ease. As it really did happen millions of tons of rock slid off the hillsides and blocked up the canal.

Goethals employed bigger dredges and steam shovels than had been used on the canal itself. The earth and stones in the various slides were taken out and the canal carefully protected as far as the sides of the cut were concerned by the planting of such grass and vegetation as is known for holding qualities.

Construction work at the terminals at Colon and Panama has been completed. There are vast coaling docks for the warships and other vessels. When the big ships pass through the canal today they will find it in a more advanced state than it was when the slides occurred. The locks are now in excellent working order and will be able to handle the vessels more expeditiously than ever. The former time for passing a vessel from Atlantic to Pacific was 10 hours. It will be greatly reduced.

As long as the canal lay idle there was always fear that the United States fleet might be on the Atlantic side of the country when any trouble might break out on the Pacific coast. In that case it would not be possible for the fleet to get round the Horn in time to prove of real value in any attack on this country. It is different now and it is almost certain that there will be a lessening of tension between this country and Japan in consequence.

It is wonderful to note what a remarkable difference is caused in the discussion of international differences when both nations are conscious that in the ultimate resort there will be no taking of either of the countries by surprise and that there will be no initial advantage to either should fighting begin. It will undoubtedly be the case that all discussions involving Pacific countries and the United States will assume a more reasonable aspect now that the Canal is completed and open and the Atlantic fleet within 10 hours' reach of the Pacific ocean.

Such advantage as the Germans possess in the Kiel canal is now the possession of this country and it is conservative to say that its strategic strength as regards Mexico is more than doubled.

TEACHING CHILDREN TO PLAY

One of the tendencies of modern education is to assist parents in the upbringing of their children. Modern university education especially aims at helping mothers and teachers to answer the question so often put by children, "What shall I play?" in such manner that the children shall reap the greatest mental, physical and moral good from profitable use of leisure time. During the coming summer the University of California will conduct a "School of Directed Activities," from June 6 to August 5, under the direction of Prof. Frank L. Kleeberger, head of the department of Physical Education of the University.

This novel school will be conducted under the shade of a grove of lofty eucalyptus trees on the University grounds, a "University Play Center," throughout the summer. Teachers and others interested in the modern playground movement will be playing there every afternoon, so there will be ample opportunity to practice leadership in playground activities.

To aid those interested in the Boy Scouts and the Camp Fire Girls, courses will be conducted for Scout Masters and Camp Fire Guardians. Children ranging from six to fourteen years of age will be enrolled for instruction in a typical Girls' Camp Fire and Boy Scout Camp. Carpentering work, basket weaving and various arts and crafts to develop the perceptive powers of children, their artistic sensibilities and their skill in the use of muscle and eye will be taught.

There will be cross-country walks in which teachers and parents will be shown how to develop the powers of observation in children and how to cultivate in them the profitable and pleasing habit of reading the roadside or trail-edge like an open book.

Then there will be open classes in kindergarten activities, a course in Camp Fire Girls' activities in which elementary instruction will be given in nature study, folk dancing, dramatics and work in arts and crafts, and playground leadership instruction, for beginners and also for playground workers who want training in methods of organizing and conducting basketball or baseball leagues, track meets, swimming contests and other forms of outdoor amusement and exercise. After all that there should be no difficulty in finding amusement of the right sort for young people.

Germany is rapidly approaching the famine which was foreseen since last summer by those who have been behind the scenes enough to read the facts under the iron suppression of all news on this phase of Teutonic existence. The state of the German people will soon be what Germany reduced the Belgian people to and from which that noble nation would still be suffering had it not been for the charities of foreign nations. The final swoop of the famine may be delayed for a period by certain conditions and very uncertain factors. The 1915 summer harvest has been sown and reaped. There was practically no rain from the end of March until the beginning of July. Lashing storms completed the damage. The German harvest of 1915 was a failure. War was to blame in part for this calamity. The ground was not manured, all railway equipment has been monopolized for the war so there was no means of obtaining manure. Horses and carts were scarce because the War Moloch had devoured them. The skilled agriculturists are dead, wounded or at the front. Implements of war are being made and agricultural implements are not to be had. Famine is inevitable whether peace comes or not. German values have so risen that at present 5 marks' worth of goods costs 20 marks.

STUDY OF AMERICAN RIVERS

Water in surface streams has at all times played an important role in the industrial and commercial development of the country. In the early settlement the rivers served not only as the principal means of communication and commerce but also furnished power for grinding grain, carding wool, manufacturing lumber, and for other industries. They also furnished a medium for transporting logs from the forest to the mills.

With the increased population and corresponding increase in commercial development came the need for better facilities for transportation and more power for industrial uses. Later came a demand for the use of water in streams for municipal supply and for irrigation, and it was found that a systematic study of the water resources of the country was necessary in order that works which depend for their success on the water in streams could be economically designed and operated.

As a result of this demand for data in regard to water resources of the country the U. S. Geological Survey started, about 25 years ago, systematic investigations of streams in order to determine their flow and obtain other information necessary for their economical development, and as a result of these investigations general information is available for practically all parts of the country.

ELECTRIC ENGINES

Electric engines can travel 2,000 miles without needing any overhauling, whereas a steam locomotive, engaged in mountain work, has to be gone over by "the doctor" at the end of every division, or about eighteen times to once required for the new tractor, which needs no tender, because it uses neither fuel nor water. It operates efficiently in the coldest season, when steam locomotives encounter difficulty.

The electric locomotive hauls twice the load of a steam engine at approximately half the cost. It has no fires to nurse, only a switch being needed to set it in motion by means of the current on the trolley wire. Instead of coal being burned to produce the energy, the force of streams serves for making the electricity, and the nation is benefitted by the fuel thus conserved.

Electric traction has had many difficulties to contend with, but technical skill has dealt successfully with the great majority of these. Where favorable conditions exist for the substitution of electricity-making, the days of the steam tractor are numbered.

THE ALPHABET IN STENCIL

Mothers who feel that the alphabet should be ever present in some form, for very small children to observe, are selecting the large blue and white solid plaided dish towel and stenciling the letters of the alphabet in blue on the white ground; the strips are then fagoted together to make the table-cloth the right size and hemmed all around, the hem being caught by feather-stitching. The letters are so arranged on the blocks that they form an ornamental centerpiece, and may be read by the children while they are at the table.

CORN BREAD

Beat together one egg, two table-spoons of sugar and one teaspoon of salt. Add one cup of cream. Sift together one cup of cornmeal, a half cup of white flour, and three table-spoons of baking powder, and add the egg mixture. Bake 30 minutes in a large thin sheet. This cornbread may be made with sour cream instead of sweet, if desired. In that case, use only two table-spoons of baking powder and a half teaspoon of soda.

JUDGING BLOODED STOCK

Where is the California boy who has the best eye for picking out fine livestock?

The University of California has invited all the boys in the State who like fine stock to pay a visit to the University Farm at Davis on the day of the annual picnic, Saturday, April 22, and to contest for the gold, silver, and bronze medals offered in the livestock-judging competitions. "The boys will have the best of material to work with, because among the animals to be judged are steers, hogs and other livestock which won champion honors at the Panama-Pacific Exposition and at other recent stock shows. There will be medals also for boys who win the athletic sports, and for all manner of contests.

GROW NEW KINDS OF LETTUCE

The epicure can still complain of monotony when it comes to lettuce. At present only three varieties are grown commercially in California. The University of California wants to make the epicure happy by giving him more variety, so it has planted the seed of eighty different varieties of lettuce and these remarkably varied new types are to be displayed at the eighth annual University Farm Picnic, at Davis, on Saturday, April 22, so that visitors may acquaint themselves with new types adapted to various localities and to varying market requirements.

There must be a clear distinction between the end of the world and the end of the age in the study of this "blessed hope." There has come the end of different ages in the history of the world, but not the end of the world as we well know.

Every age has begun with opportunity, has witnessed the failure of man, and has ended in judgment. Through all the past ages, God has given man an opportunity to seek and find him. If man will live up to the light he has, whether it be great or small, God will lead him so that no man can say that he has not had a chance. In consideration of the ages of the past we find the first beginning with Adam and ending with Noah.

God created man in his own image, and made him a free moral agent. He chose sin, and marred God's plan for him, destroying his perfection spiritually and physically. This age shows man's fall, the promised redemption, the corruption of the race and the judgment of the flood.

Another age begins with Noah, falling into two divisions, extends to Moses. Noah was at the head of a new race, but he and his descendants were not kept back from sin by the judgments of God. Human nature is the same from creation to today, judgments, however severe, do not change the hearts of men.

Willful purpose culminated in the building of the Tower of Babel. After the dispersion God called out Abram, giving him the promise, and making a covenant with him. His descendants deteriorated through each generation until God's people are brought into bondage in Egypt.

Another age is ushered in with Moses as a leader of Israel's redemption from Egypt. This age witnesses the giving of the Law, instructions for the sacrifices, theocracy, monarchy, derision of the kingdom, Israel carried away into captivity, and Judah's captivity. Ending in judgment through God's people.

Man failed through all these ages, compelling God to hand them over to their enemies. This age, too will close in judgment, as all the others have done. Jesus Christ will come to take out of this earth "his own" before the judgment will come. "Watch therefore: for in such an hour as ye think not the son of man cometh."

FUNERAL OF S. H. GOLDSTEIN

Word was received today from San Francisco by Mrs. S. H. Goldstein, 717 W. Fifth street, that the remains of her husband, S. H. Goldstein, who was killed in a runaway accident between Mojave and Bakersfield, Saturday night, will be interred in the family vault of her own family in San Francisco Wednesday. It was also stated that the accident took place at 8 o'clock Saturday night and not in the afternoon as formerly announced. Mr. Goldstein, who was an orthodox Jew, did not set out on his journey until the expiration of the Jewish sabbath, which ends at 6 o'clock Saturday night.

Mrs. Goldstein is completely prostrated by the accident and is confined to bed under medical care, being in a very precarious condition. She fortunately has with her her twin sister, Miss A. Becker, who has come down from San Francisco to take care of Mrs. Goldstein.

The inquest on the body of Mr. Goldstein was held in Bakersfield Tuesday and the verdict was "accidental death."

CANTATA AT ADVENTIST CHURCH

The cantata, "David, the Shepherd Boy," was rendered last night at the Glendale Seventh-day Adventist church, corner Third and Isabel streets, to an audience which packed the building to capacity. The chorus of the Fernando Academy, an institution of the Adventists located at San Fernando, joined with the choir of the Glendale Adventist church in giving this musical treat, under the leadership of Mrs. Gertrude I. Bachman, vocal instructor at the academy. Ten soloists rendered the various parts assigned. There were 40 voices in the combined chorus.

The singers outlined the history of King David from the time he was found as a shepherd boy, and anointed by the prophet Samuel, until the coronation. Saul's despondency, David's valor in slaying the giant Goliath, his exile because of King Saul's fury, and Jonathan's intercession for his friend, all are made prominent as the song progresses.

The sweet voice of Miss Vera Magnussen, who took the part of Abigail, was much appreciated by the audience. Duffield Sturgis and Lucile Vlier represented Abigail's two attendants. Miss Rena Klooster sang the part of Michal. Prof. H. S. Premier, instructor in Bible at the academy, represented Saul, and C. H. Jones, of Glendale, the parts of Jesse and Jonathan. The other parts were as follows: David, E. A. McDonald; Samuel, Lowell Macklin; Abner, Arthur Dalglish. Anella Evans was the pianist and Mary Trautwein the organist. Mr. Jones deserves especial credit for the efficient manner in which he trained the Glendale choir for participation in the chorus.

DEATH OF MRS. E. DIDON

Mrs. Elizabeth Didon died at 715 W. Broadway, Monday evening. The deceased was 36 years of age. She had been residing with her sister, Mrs. W. K. Smith, of 1115 Collin street, Los Angeles, for some time. During her illness she was buoyed up by the hope of seeing her 12-year-old daughter, who had been visiting relatives in New York, and who was on her way to Los Angeles to be reunited to her mother. The funeral services of Mrs. Didon will be conducted at the Jewel City Undertaking parlors, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, by the Rev. B. Dudley Snudden of the First Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Didon, who was born in Sweden, was the daughter of the Rev. M. Saabye of Norway.

WILLIAM W. MURRAY

William W. Murray passed away at La Crescenta Tuesday, April 11, at 9 a. m. at the age of 53 years, 6 months and 17 days. Mr. Murray had lived in Los Angeles for the past four years and had only returned to La Crescenta a week ago. Funeral services will be at the Pulliam Undertaking parlors in Glendale and interment in Los Angeles, but arrangements as to time have not been completed.

WINS NATIONAL HONORS

Here is a new Queen of the Dairy! "Interested Jap Santa" has proved herself the best two-year-old butter producer of all the Jersey cows in America, and so she is to be shown in the Stock Parade at the annual University Farm Picnic, at Davis, on April 22, as one of the most distinguished bovine citizens of America.

While blue-blooded in the extreme "Interested Jap Santa" is of a family which has not lived long in America, for her ancestors were brought from the Island of Jersey no longer ago than 1890.

Two other Jerseys and several Holsteins which are undergoing official test at the University Farm are members of the pure-bred herd of over a hundred pedigreed dairy cattle, maintained for the instruction of students, which will march in the Stock Parade at the University Farm Picnic on April 22.

You ought to see all the horses being shod at C. M. Lund's Shop, Third and Howard. 195-16.

HEAR STATESMAN OF INDIANA

Hon. James Stutesman, an intelligent statesman and a good orator from Indiana, will address citizens of the Glendale community at a public meeting to be held under the auspices of the Republican club, at the High School auditorium, Thursday evening, April 13. The time has come when every man and woman should be ready to learn more about the practical workings of the governmental machinery.

GERMAN WOMEN DEMAND EQUAL RIGHTS

It is reported that the two German political equality organizations have joined under the name of "The Imperial Association for Woman Suffrage." In its constitution the association expresses these aims:

"To secure for German women equal political rights with men in state and municipality; to induce women already enjoying political or other franchise in German municipalities to exercise this right, and to encourage the participation of women in all branches of political and social activity by educating them politically."

THE USE OF NET

As the season advances, we shall recognize more and more the use of net, which has been brought out in all colors. This will be employed for evening gowns and demi toilettes, and for afternoon reception dresses. One point in good net is that, being durable, it is not an extravagance, and will restore to fashion and freshness a gown past its first youth. But do not be led away into buying a short supply; a great deal is needed to make a dress satisfactory a la mode, says the Queen, London. The additional usefulness of such gowns is insured by the fact that the bodices are made of more substantial material. Metallic brocade, satin, velvet, and silk brocades assimilate well with net. Velvet is assuming a back place, except as an adjunct.

PLURALITY, NOT MAJORITY

EDITOR EVENING NEWS:
Allow me to call your attention to a slight misstatement in your report of the result of the recent election as given in your last issue, in which you state that "All of the candidates of the Citizens' Welfare Association ticket and all of the propositions supported by the association met with the approval of the majority of the voters at the polls."

Such is not the fact in regard to the candidates, as is shown by the table published in your same issue. Even Mr. Hoffman, who led his ticket, failed to receive a majority of the votes cast for that office, as there were 2300 votes cast for treasurer, a majority of which would be 1151, and Mr. Hoffman thus lacked 32 votes of receiving a majority of the votes cast. In like manner Mr. Sherer lacked 59 votes of receiving a majority of the votes cast for clerk, and in the case of the trustees the discrepancy is even greater.

The officers elected were made so by a plurality of the votes received and not by the wish of the majority of the voters who cast their ballots at Monday's election. Respectfully,
F. WILKINSON.

DEATH OF MRS. ISABEL HOFFMAN

Bragden of Los Angeles and Mrs. John Duffield of Toledo, Ohio. The funeral services will be held at the Jewel City parlors, Thursday at 2 p. m. Interment in Rosedale cemetery.

A NEW OLD SONG

The Spring comes slowly up this way,
Slowly, slowly!
A little nearer every day.
The blackbird's trilling shrill and gay
His roundelay and virelay;
Good luck, as though the March were May!
In kirtle all of green and gray;
Slowly, slowly,
The Spring comes slowly up this way!

She hath delicious things to say,
But will not answer yea or nay,
Nor hast her secrets to display.
'Twere well if Spring might always stay!
Slowly, slowly,
The Spring comes slowly up this way.
—Katherine Tynan.

Aigrette plumes are now obtained in India in much the same manner in which we get our ostrich plumes. When captured, the birds become very tame. They are fed upon fish. The birds grow rapidly, and each year produce four sets of the delicate, highly prized aigrettes. The aigrette is removed without the least injury to the bird. India seems to be the only country in which aigrettes can be obtained without killing the mother bird for her plumes.

SEA-ANEMONES

We must take a peep today into one of the loveliest spots along the beach, a little sea-garden among the rocks. So exquisitely beautiful are these rock-pools, one might almost believe them the little sea-gardens of the mermaids.

All about the sides of the rocky tide pools the beautiful seaweeds—red and pink and green. And as for flowers—even the rarest beauties are not lovelier than the delicate sea-anemones which "blossom" so brightly everywhere in these wonderful gardens of the sea.

But the sea-anemones are not "flowers" at all. People call them that, and they look just like flowers, but really they are little sea-animals. They have tiny bodies, and their "petals" are their arms.

When the garden is all quiet, these flower-animals unfold into exquisitely lovely shapes and gorgeous colors—yellow and reds and greens. But should we touch one ever so lightly, instantly it closes, shrinking down into a shapeless mass on the rocks. All its bright color is gone, and so like the rock itself does it look that we should scarcely be able to spy it out had we not actually seen it growing there. But the little "flower" has not really withered away, for presently it will blossom again, lovely as before.

In these little sea-gardens are still other plant-like animals, which look so like the real seaweeds that people often do not know the difference between them. And they gather and press them, just as they do the other "sea-mosses." Various kinds of these plant-animals often grow on the shells of the hermit crabs.

ADVANCE IN PRICE OF BLUE PRINTS

Of interest to the architect, engineer, manufacturer and builder, is the information that the price of blue print paper and blue prints is likely to advance materially in the near future. This is due to the increase in the price of all chemicals employed in the blue process, and also to the big advance in paper.

Blue print paper is coated with an emulsion of iron and potash salts, which are combined by the action of light, and upon immersion of the paper in water the coating is precipitated on the surface of the paper in the form of Prussian Blue.

Red prussiate of potash, which is the form of potash used in the blue process, has been made exclusively in Germany. Before the war it sold for 19c a pound; today it is practically unobtainable at $7 per pound, or an advance of 3500 per cent. Citric acid, from which the citrates of iron and ammonium are made, has advanced 150 per cent, and oxalic acid from which the oxalate of iron are also made has advanced 1000 per cent in the same time.

The rise in the price of the cheaper grades of paper in which wood pulp is used is due to the pulp shortage caused by the scarcity of all paper making chemicals, and to the Swedish embargo, prohibiting the exportation of chemical wood pulp. The better grades of paper, made of all rag stock, have likewise advanced sharply due also to the price of paper making chemicals and to the shortage of supplies of rags.—N. Y. Commercial.

THOREAU OUT AT NIGHT

"It was very pleasant, when I stayed later in town, to launch myself into the night, especially if it was dark and tempestuous, and set sail from some bright village parlor or lecture room, with a bag of rye or Indian meal upon my shoulder, for my snug harbor in the woods, having made all tight without and withdrawn under hatches with a merry crew of thoughts, leaving only my outer man at the helm, or even tying up the helm when it was plain sailing. I had many a genial thought by the cabin fire 'as I sailed.' . . . It was darker in the woods, even on common nights, than most suppose. I frequently had to look up at the opening between the trees above the path in order to learn my route, and, where there was no cart-path, to feel with my feet the faint track which I had worn, or steer by the known relation of particular trees which I felt with my hands, passing between two pines for instance, not more than eighteen inches apart, in the midst of the woods, invariably in the darkest night. Sometimes, after coming home thus late in a dark and muggy night, when my feet felt the path which my eyes could not see, dreaming and absent-minded all the way, until I was aroused by having to raise my hand to lift the latch, I have not been able to recall a single step of my walk."

Speaking of grave problems, what is the Easter hat going to cost?

THE POMPADOUR PETTICOAT

The Pompadour silhouette, demanding a billowing fullness below the waistline at the sides, has promptly brought about a new petticoat, the lace petticoat of Madame de Pompadour herself being reproduced in a number of pretty ways. For example, a frock of beige green taffeta, caught up with tiny artificial flowers over the hips and draped at the front, opens over a petticoat made of tiny ruffles of ecru Chantilly lace. A petticoat of silver lace is worn under a light blue faille silk, the draped silk caught back at the hips and flowing on into a long train.

FINE ART

"Fine art is that in which the hand, the head, and the heart, of man go together. Recollect this triple group," Ruskin says, "It will help you to solve many difficult problems. And remember that though the hand must be at the bottom of everything, it must also go to the top of everything; for Fine Art must be produced by the hand in a much greater and clearer sense than Manufacture is. Fine Art must always be produced by the subtlest of all machines, which is the human hand. No machine yet contrived, or hereafter contrivable, will ever equal the fine machinery of the human fingers. Thoroughly perfect art is that which proceeds from the heart, which involves all the noble emotions;—associates with these the head, yet as inferior to the heart; and the hand, yet as inferior to the heart and head; and thus brings out the whole man."
