HUGE RESERVOIR IS BEING BUILT TO STORE WATER

INITIAL UNIT IN PLAN FOR MEETING REQUIREMENTS OF GROWING CITY

This is the second and last article on the development, distribution and storage of Glendale's water supply, the information being given The Glendale Evening News' representative by H. B. Lynch, consulting engineer for the public service department.

The 7,500,000 gallon reservoir, now under construction is the initial unit of a storage plan which will meet the requirements of this city, according to Mr. Lynch, regardless of the growth in population.

It is located on Verdugo Road at the mouth of the canyon from which flows the natural spring water still to be developed. Peter L. Perry, who has the contract for its construction, has a score of mules and more than that number of men working on the excavation, which will be sixty-five feet deep.

The dirt being scooped from the center is being used for a retaining wall, ten feet or more broad, and each six inches of earth is tamped to make the bank solid. The interior of the completed reservoir will be lined with four-inch, reinforced concrete and a two-acre, painted wood roof will complete the structure.

Capacity Increased Five Times
 The reservoir will have five times the capacity of the city's present water storage facilities, Mr. Lynch states.

A thirty-inch main will take the water to Glendale avenue and Doran street, where the 20-inch Doran St. main and a 16-inch Glendale avenue main will distribute the flow to the hundreds of smaller laterals.

A twenty-inch drain pipe leading to Verdugo Wash on the west of the reservoir will be used for emptying it. A six-inch sub-drain will carry away flood seepage that may get under the concrete pit.

A four-inch pipe is being used for piping to protect the storage works from Verdugo with floods, rip rap of willows being used between the piping. Among the other interesting little features connected with this big enterprise is a stone boat being used to remove boulders from the excavation.

Select Places For Tuesday Night Prayer

On Tuesday night, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, there will be held meetings for prayer in behalf of the John Brown evangelistic meetings. These meetings will be held in different parts of the city, and are open to everyone; they will not last over forty-five minutes, and all Christian people are urged to attend the meeting nearest their home.

Following is a list of the places where meetings will be held on Tuesday night:

Mrs. R. D. Jones, 322 East Dryden street.
 George W. Pyrell, 436 Palm Drive.

Mrs. Hutton, 326 East Colorado. John Camphouse, 217 East Maple. W. H. Nesbit, 338 Hawthorne. Mr. Kein, 342 West California.

Mrs. Charles Temple, 145 North Orange.

Mrs. L. E. Richardson, 1856 South Brand.

Mrs. L. E. Myres, 1316 South Central.

J. J. Davis, 240 North Louise.

R. P. Isitt, 509 North Maryland.

W. C. Boyd, 326 North Jackson.

Roy D. King, 24 North Belmont.

There will be a meeting of the committee at the Baptist church Monday night. All members are urged to be present.

School Children Are Parading For Bonds

At 2:30 this afternoon, the intermediate school pupils are marching through Glendale business section, some in track or swimming suits, carrying banners, urging the citizens to vote for the park and gymnasium (civic center) bonds at tomorrow's election.

They are stopping at Broadway and Brand to sing several songs and give a series of yells to the effect that "We want a swimming pool" or "We want a gymnasium." Richard D. White, superintendent of grammar schools, is personally directing the parade assisted by the athletic instructors and other teachers.

Today in all of the schools circulars urging that the park and civic center bonds be voted are being distributed to the pupils.

MISS RUTH WILSON, BRIDE-ELECT, IS HONOR GUEST

MISS DOROTHY HUNT GIVES TOWEL SHOWER; NUMBER OF UNIQUE FEATURES

Miss Dorothy Hunt of 420 West Elk avenue entertained with a towel shower Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Ruth Wilson. Invitations and replies were sent out in the form of rhymes. These were read Saturday afternoon and the reply of Miss Barbara Mitchell was declared to be the most clever. It was a sonnet of twelve lines.

Decorations were of bridal wreath and calla lilies, appropriate to the Easter season. One of the games of the afternoon was a contest to see who could make the most attractive looking miniature bride out of a clothespin, crepe paper and common pins, each guest being given the same materials to work with.

Miss Louise Robinson won first prize and consolation prize was awarded Miss Helen Snyder of Los Angeles, who is also a bride-to-be. Dainty refreshments in the form of heart-shaped nut sandwiches, charlotte russe, angel food cake and coffee were served. The favors were little Easter baskets, on one side of which were pasted the place cards which pictured a kiewpie leading a bride with ribbon strings, underneath which was the inscription, "All Aboard for New York!", which is to be the future home of Miss Wilson.

Laundry Wagon Arrives
 After vocal selections by Miss Marie Oliver and Miss Viola Yorba had been enjoyed, the shrill siren of a laundry wagon was heard. Mrs. Hunt, upon hearing the noise, declared that she believed he was coming to the front door.

Miss Wilson replied that she thought it quite rude of him, inasmuch as he could see that they were having a party. When Mrs. Hunt answered the door the laundryman shouted, "Laundry for Miss Ruth Wilson," and delivered a huge laundry bag and box, which Miss Wilson found to contain a shower of thirty-two towels, numerous bath mats, etc. The bridegroom was not forgotten, for in the collection was included a shaving towel for him. This was certainly a very unique way of presenting the gifts and was certainly a surprise to Miss Wilson.

List of Invited Guests
 The invited guests at this clever shower were Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Barbara Mitchell, Miss Viola Yorba, Miss Elleen Sullivan, Miss Louise Robinson, Miss Gertrude Champlain, Miss Dorothy Hutchinson, Miss Marie Oliver, Miss Ethel Land, Miss Bernice Haun, Miss Marguerite Hauber, Miss Helen Snyder, Miss Frances Neth, Miss Gladys Kline, Miss Louise Kline, Miss Rhea Ferdon and Mrs. F. Kester of Los Angeles; Miss Caroline Watling of Redlands; Mrs. Howard Ford, Mrs. Edward Rohr, Mrs. Seymour Smith, Mrs. Smith MacMullin and son Richard, Mrs. Vincent Salmacia, Mrs. Frank Salmacia and daughter, Margaret, Mrs. John Wilcox, Mrs. George Monberg, Mrs. William Sullivan, Mrs. Tom Furst, Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson, Mrs. Charles Morse and Mrs. Bertha Wilson.

New Business Corner Is Being Developed

A new business center is developing in Glendale at the corner of Colorado boulevard and Verdugo Road on the eastern outskirts of the city. In addition to the oil station which is now on the northeast corner, Fred Dixon is having a store building put up on the southwest corner for a tenant. It is understood that the north-west corner has recently been sold to parties who also propose to put in a general store.

Considerable activity in real estate is noted along Verdugo Road, several subdivisions having been platted out or contemplated.

Gregoria Pettit's Funeral Held Today

Gregoria P. R. Pettit, aged 1 year, 6 months and 7 days, died Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Pettit at Montrose. Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the San Gabriel Mission. Interment will be there. Pulliam & Kiefer are in charge of arrangements.

James S. Coleman's Burial Takes Place

Funeral services are being held this afternoon at the Pulliam & Kiefer chapel for James S. Coleman, who died at Tunjunga Friday. The Rev. Charles M. Calderwood is officiating. Interment will be in Grand View cemetery.

Aviation Luncheon Being Planned By Mr. and Mrs. Brand

Enclosing maps of northwest Glendale in his invitations to guests asked to attend an "aviation luncheon." Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brand plan to receive none except those coming by airplane.

The invitations with their accompanying map and photograph of the Brand field are said to be as novel as the luncheon is intended to be. Many army and navy flying officers have received bids to the affair as well as other aviation enthusiasts in southern California.

Mr. Brand owns a 330-horsepower limousine and a 150-horsepower flyabout.

Oh, yes. Almost forgot. The date of this affair is April 1— if dates mean anything.

Enrollment Increases

While in many towns the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic are diminishing rapidly, in Glendale it seems to be otherwise.

In the statistical facts which The Glendale Evening News publishes, the roster of the G. A. R. has been carried as 75.

A member of the post states that the membership is 110 now. Likewise, with the Glendale Union High school. The enrollment the first of March was 1028. During the month it has increased to 1042.

URGES SUPPORT FOR CITY PARKS AND CIVIC CENTER

COMMITTEE ISSUES STATEMENT TO VOTERS; PROPOSITIONS NO. 4 AND 5 URGED

Urging that the voters be sure to cast their ballots for propositions No. 4 and 5 at the special election tomorrow, the Committee on Parks and Civic Center has made public the following:

Among the propositions appearing on the ballot on the above date will be the following:

4. Shall the city of Glendale issue municipal bonds in the sum of $66,000 for the purpose of purchasing and improving three parks—one located in the northwest section of the city, one to be located in the southern section of the city, one to be located in the central-eastern section of the city?

5. Shall the city of Glendale issue municipal bonds in the sum of $33,000 for the purpose of constructing and equipping a gymnasium and the purchase of the necessary grounds in connection therewith?

Great Stride Forward
 It is to these two propositions that we would call your attention. If given the force of law by your votes, they will represent a great stride forward in the development of our city.

In order that there may be no doubt as to how the proceeds of the above mentioned bonds would be used, we quote the following published statement of the board of trustees of Glendale:

"If these bonds are authorized it is the plan of the board to expend $17,000 thereof as originally planned for the construction of the swimming pool in the new park on Patterson avenue and $5000 to finish paying for the park site, making in all $22,000.

"Two other parks will also be acquired. One of these parks will be located in the southern section of the city somewhere south of Windsor road. The third one is to be located in the middle eastern section of the city somewhere east of Glendale avenue. The authorizing of these bonds will make possible the acquiring and improvement of three parks, all of which will be situated within one mile of the business center and yet each one will be convenient for the district in which it is located.

"The proposition to issue $83,000 of bonds for a gymnasium is in fact a resubmission of the proposition passed favorably upon on November 2 to issue $83,000 of bonds for the purpose of establishing a recreation center.

"To Create Recreation Center
 The main object, however, will be the creation of a recreation center to provide an attractive place wherein the young people of Glendale and older people as well, may spend some of their leisure time in proper recreation and amusement. It is planned to give first consideration to the location, construction and equipment of this recreation center."

Nothing could be plainer. The objects of these proposed bond issues are: First, to provide parks, beauty spots, breathing places in the different sections of our city. We need

Missionaries From Burma In Glendale

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hamilton, returned missionaries from Burmah, were visitors yesterday at the offices of the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists here.

Prof. W. W. Ruble returned yesterday from Loma Linda where he has been in the interest of church educational work.

Elder W. F. Martin left last night on a business mission to Sacramento. B. M. Emerson returned the last of the week from a business trip to Sacramento, San Francisco and St. Helena.

W.C. Raley, auditor of the Pacific Union conference, underwent an operation Sunday for the removal of his tonsils at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

SEVEN MORE ARE DISMISSED
 WASHINGTON, March 28.—Seven more appeals in anti-profiteering cases brought under the Lever law were dismissed in supreme court today on motion of the federal government.

Today's World News In Brief

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

FIRST ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL IS CHOSEN
 WASHINGTON, March 28.—Colonel Hubert Work, Colorado, has been appointed first assistant postmaster general, the White House announced today.

CHICAGO GOES TO WORK HOUR EARLIER THAN OTHERS
 CHICAGO, March 28.—Chicago went to work an hour earlier today under the summer daylight savings schedule which has gone into effect. Clocks have been advanced one hour ahead of Central standard time. Through trains will continue on the old time, however.

DESTRUCTIVE ARSON CAMPAIGN THROUGHOUT BRITAIN
 LONDON, March 28.—The most destructive arson campaign yet attempted in England by Sinn Feiners was carried out over the week end. Damages amounting to thousands of pounds was done in Northumberland, Durham and Yorkshire, where forty farm fires broke out simultaneously. Hay ricks, thatch roof buildings and farm property were destroyed. One suspect was under arrest.

ILLINOIS FARMERS LOSE HEAVILY RESULT OF STORM
 SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 28.—Winter's dying gasp cost Illinois farmers and orchardists hundreds of thousands of dollars, according to estimates of the bureau of crop estimates of the department of agriculture today. Preliminary reports here indicate much fruit, garden truck and some grains were killed by the cold wave which swept the state last night and today.

OVER TEN MILLIONS LOSS RESULT OF FIRE IN TOKIO
 TOKIO, March 28.—Careful estimates of property loss sustained in Tokio's great fire Saturday night, indicated today that the total will exceed $10,000,000. Four large business houses, a bank and other important structures were burned in the fire, which also destroyed nearly 1000 homes. The Japanese Red Cross established relief stations for the thousands made homeless and cared for the injured.

TURKISH NATIONALISTS ARE DEFEATED, IS REPORT
 ATHENS, March 28.—The twelfth corps of the Turkish army has been dispersed, according to the Greek communique today. The war office reported the capture of Afioncarahisaar, east of Brusia, after Turkish nationalists were frustrated in an attempted surprise attack. The Greeks launched an immediate attack while the Turks were confused, the communique said, with the result that the enemy started headlong in disorderly retreat.

SIX DEATHS AND THIRTY INJURED IN AUTO CRASHES
 SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Six deaths and thirty persons injured was what the record today totaled for yesterday's automobile accidents in San Francisco and vicinity. The dead included John McPherson, whose mother lives at 388 Aileen street, Los Angeles; John Castro, Harry Lasson, Mrs. Gladys McIntosh, Joseph Conlin and seven-months' old Florence Hellund, of San Francisco. A total of seven arrests were made as a result of the accidents.

EMPLOYES OF SHORT LINE ROADS LOSE THEIR FIGHT
 CHICAGO, March 28.—Four thousand employees of seventy-seven short line railroads today lost their fight before the United States railroad labor board for the same pay and working conditions as enjoyed by employees of standard roads. The board in its decision said that no set rules could obtain on the short lines because of the diversified nature of the work. The roads are principally used in hauling lumber and other supplies and are situated in practically all states of the union.

BELIEVE PADDOCK'S RECORD WILL BE PLACED ON BOOKS
 NEW YORK, March 28.—Officials of the A. A. U. expressed no doubt here today Charlie Paddock's new world record of 20.45 seconds for 220 yards would be placed on the books. Official action cannot be taken until the reports of the officials at the Berkeley meet where the record was made Saturday, has been filed. Three of the timers' watches caught Paddock's time at 4.5 seconds and one at 3.5 seconds. The former record of 21.15 seconds was held jointly by B. J. Wefers, B. C. Craig and D. F. Lippencott.

NUMBER OF JUNE BRIDES WILL BREAK ALL RECORDS
 WASHINGTON, March 28.—June, this year, is expected to break all records for blushing brides. Approximately 100,000 women will go to the altar during that month, unless the data collected by the census bureau proves untrue. The year 1921 will bring more than 2,000,000 young men and women within the bonds of matrimony, it was predicted today. United States, which recently was discovered to be the greatest bachelor country of the world, seems on the verge of acquiring distinction as the most married nation.

JAPAN WILL WITHDRAW TROOPS FROM GERMAN ISLES
 TOKIO, March 28.—Japan will withdraw troops from the former German islands assigned to her, the Japanese foreign office announced today. The statement denied Japan is fortifying the islands, which it described as "economically and strategically unimportant." "It might as well be said," the statement read, "that America controls the Atlantic through purchase of the Virgin Islands, as to say that Japan, by occupying the mandate islands, has staked out an area of 4,000,000 square miles from Kamchatka to the southern Pacific."

BANDS OF COMMUNISTS FLEE THROUGH HILL COUNTRY
 HALLE, Germany, March 28.—Scattered bands of communists fled through the hill country surrounding Eisleben today, safety police in pursuit. Count Poninsky commanded the police, who were supported by artillery. Concentration camps of the rioters were shelled briefly, after which the police went in to mop up. Usually they found the reds had fled. Disorders of a minor sort cropped up in several nearby cities. More troops were brought in, however, and the situation appeared to be clearing. At Sangerhausen, communists took the offensive, charging a small force in the railway station there. The rioters were repulsed and the soldiers later extended their area.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 HAS SUPPORT OF CITY MANAGER

T. W. WATSON GIVES REASONS FOR BEING IN FAVOR OF ASSESSMENT PROJECT

By T. W. WATSON
 City Manager of Glendale

We have received a number of telephone calls at the office from citizens desiring to vote on Propositions No. 1 and 2. The desire seems to be that if one of these propositions has any material advantage over the other that it should be pointed out so that voters could decide as between the two propositions advisedly. In response to these inquiries, we submit the following:

We will not explain the propositions in detail, but will refer you to your sample ballot upon which propositions are stated.

Propositions No. 1 and 2 are both practicable as far as the water supply is concerned inasmuch as in either case the revenues of the water department will not be drawn upon to finance extensions of service mains.

Favors Proposition No. 2
 Propositions No. 2 has distinct advantages over Proposition No. 1 from the standpoint of equity and practicability. It is more equitable from the fact that only the property served will be called upon to pay the cost of service mains. It is more practicable for the reason that distribution mains may be laid on a given block or street as they are needed without calling upon the entire city to pass on the matter by voting bonds to cover the cost thereof. In other words a service main as a local improvement would be installed when locally required and paid for locally. Under this plan a system of four-inch cast iron service mains can be installed covering the entire city as the necessity thereof requires without the necessity of expense and prolonged campaigns for bond issues. On the other hand those undeveloped sections of the city will not be called upon to install service mains until the same are needed in these sections, neither will they be called upon to pay the cost of installing service mains in other sections of the city.

No. 2, if adopted, would establish a policy by which a system of four-inch cast iron service mains could be extended automatically over the entire city as the necessity thereof requires.

Proposition No. 1, as stated before, would require bond issues from time to time.

Mrs. George Pullman, Aged 82, Is Dead

PASADENA, Cal., March 28.—Mrs. George M. Pullman, aged 82 years, widow of the "place car" magnate, died in the Hotel Raymond here at 1:10 o'clock this afternoon after a lingering illness.

At her bedside was her daughter and the latter's husband, Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, who was before the last Republican convention as a presidential nominee.

Mrs. Pullman suffered from a pulmonary affliction. She had been unconscious most of the day.

Henrietta Storch Is Taken By Death

Henrietta Storch, aged 30, died in Glendale Sunday after a lingering illness. Her body is being prepared for shipment to her former home in Chicago for funeral services and interment by Pulliam & Kiefer, undertakers.

GROWERS ORGANIZE TO FURTHER LIMA BEAN DEMAND

Lima bean growers at Van Nuys and Owensmouth have formed a combined association and established offices at Marian. An effort will be made to increase the demand for the food crop as the market is a little dull.

Increased Markets Will Be Sought; News About San Fernando Valley
New School at Lankershim
The Board of Education at Los Angeles has completed plans for a new school at Lankershim. Instead of razing the old building, it will be remodeled along mission architectural lines and a second floor added which will give six additional class rooms.

To Call Drive "Pershing"
Pershing boulevard will be the name of a new paved drive for which rights of way have been secured from North Sherman Way in the vicinity of Van Nuys to San Fernando Road at a point near Pacoima.

Many Schools in Field Day
Fifty schools are expected to participate in a field day to be held April 9 at the San Fernando High school. Only schools in southern California having an enrollment of 350 or less are eligible to participate.

Syndicate Buys Townsite
A Van Nuys syndicate has purchased the Zelzah townsite on the Southern Pacific near San Fernando and a building program has been launched to make it another of the valley's thriving centers.

Plans for New Concrete Bridge
Plans and specifications have been prepared and approved by the State High Engineer and the County Bridge Engineer for a new concrete bridge across the Tunjunga river connecting the state highway extending from San Fernando to Pasadena. Bids will be requested next week by the board of supervisors.

One Act from "Richelieu"
Frederick Warde and the Mission players from San Gabriel will present one act from "Richelieu" at Bolton hall in Tunjunga on Thursday night, March 31.

Makes Display of Products

To Vote on Bonds
At Huntington Beach the board of trustees has set April 26 as the date for holding an election to vote bonds in the sum of $150,000 for municipal improvements, of which $50,000 will be used for the purchase of a site for a municipal pavilion, $75,000 will be used for the construction of the pavilion, and $25,000 for buildings for Orange county fair.

Beautiful Services Are Held By League
Very beautiful services of the Epworth League were held at the First Methodist Episcopal church last night. An Easter dinner was served in the social hall at 5:30 by the young people. The vesper services were at 6:15. Palms were used for decorations, as well as a very large and beautiful cross of white lilies, on which two spotlights were centered, the same furnishing the only lights in the room. The effect was very beautiful and inspiring.

Boulevard System
The committee on streets of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce will recommend to that city that a boulevard system be adopted. A plan under consideration provides for opening east and west streets connecting the parks and a mall extending from Central park to Raymond hill. It is not expected that the proposed plans will be immediately carried out but that they will furnish an ideal toward which the city may work whenever the opportunity is presented.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 HAS SUPPORT OF CITY MANAGER

to time for the purpose of installing four-inch cast iron service mains. This would involve a campaign of education in each instance and if the bonds should fail to carry owners of property fronting on streets needing service mains at that time would be inconvenienced by having to wait until another campaign for bonds could be had which would, of course, involve considerable delay. In the meantime these property holders may have to put up with poor service and possibly the improvement of their street would be delayed for many months.
On the general proposition of bonding the city for the cost of service mains it should be borne in mind that bond issues for general water development, storage and distribution system will amount to at least $600,000. It would seem that in view of the many other improvements that are needed for which bonds may be authorized (sewer system, for instance,) it might be well to confine the issuing of bonds on account of investments in the water business to the general development and distribution works and to install the service mains in accordance with Proposition No. 2.

As a property holder who will soon have to pay my proportionate part for the installation of a four-inch main to serve my property, I am in favor of Proposition No. 2 for the reason that under Proposition No. 2 I will not be called upon to pay for that main until it is needed and when it is needed I will not have to wait for it until the entire city gets ready to vote bonds.

Secondly, these bonds will provide a swimming pool. Does your boy spend much of his vacation time on the road between Glendale and the plunge at Brookside park, Pasadena? Here is your opportunity to have him stay at home for his swim.
Keep Boys Off Streets
The third project contemplated is a recreation center where there will be supervised recreational activities. Do you want to keep our older boys and young men off the streets at night? Do you want them to stay in Glendale instead of going to Los Angeles for amusement and entertainment? If you do, you have your opportunity to secure the desired result through this recreation center.
There will of course be other features connected with the civic center, for example, public comfort stations, women's rest rooms, meeting places for civic organizations, etc.
On the whole we feel that the voters have here a rare opportunity to secure some very desirable and very valuable improvements for our city.
Respectfully,

ARCHITECT PRIEST PLANS NEW HOMES

A. S. FUNK TO HAVE SEVEN ROOM RESIDENCE; FLAT BUILDING PLANNED
Architect Alfred F. Priest of 1422 North Central avenue is preparing plans for a seven-room frame residence to be erected here for A. S. Funk, a recent arrival in this city.
Mr. Priest is completing plans for a ten-room, one-story patio style residence to be built at San Gabriel for Will C. Mulock.
He also is working on plans for a two-story and basement brick addition to be built at the rear of the present Elks' clubhouse at Redondo. This new addition will be fitted up for the lodge room and banquet hall and hinks quarters, including stage and dressing rooms, locker rooms, complete kitchen equipment, operators' room for motion pictures and a complete heating and ventilating plant.
A two-story frame and plaster flat building to be erected in the Wilshire district for Mrs. Helen Brown is another structure being planned by Mr. Priest.

State Your Terms!

I have a 5 room completely modern semi-colonial bungalow. Ivory finish, hardwood floors, built-in features, large front and back pergola, porches, screened porch, garage, fenced lot, improved grounds, ideally located in a restricted, fast building district.

cavation and the fact that Gregg Wilbur and his pipe-laying crew from the public service department is handling all of the heavy cast-iron mains with the greatest expediency. J. C. Knight, an engineer, is in charge of the inspection work.
Cost Is About $70,000
The cost of this one reservoir is in the neighborhood of $70,000. The 30-inch steel pipe line from the reservoir to Doran street will cost in the neighborhood of $42,000, the Los Angeles Manufacturing company having taken the contract.
Another reservoir, purposely built at the same elevation as the one just described, is located on Vine avenue in the far northwestern part of the city. It is one-twenty-fifth the size of the other, but is built on a seven-acre tract which is large enough to accommodate a reservoir of 7,500,000 gallons' capacity when the western section of the city requires it. This job is also being done by Mr. Ferry.
At the Vine avenue storage works, a small electric pumping plant will boost water to the high level reservoir in the hills back of L. C. Brand's home.

Reservoirs Are Connected
The backbone of the distributing system is provided by the connection of the two principal reservoirs by the Doran street main with its half dozen gates at principal north and south street intersections. There are other mains, too, which enter into the distribution, $34,000 having been spent for them from the $200,000 issue, but the system is too complex to attempt to explain without diagrams.
Mr. Lynch assures residents of Glendale that the water supply is now adequate, although it is necessary to have additional distributing laterals from the backbone of the system. It is for this reason that the people are called upon to vote $100,000 bonds tomorrow.
Citizens, who are all owners in this public utility here, should know that each meter served necessitates that $150 be added to the investment. In other words, if 1000 people move into Glendale during a year's time, approximately $150,000 must be spent by the water department to keep up with the demands for service.
Such is the situation today and, while the revenue somewhat lessens this figure, needs of the coming months of building activity must be anticipated, according to Mr. Lynch. This means that the program of extension must be carried on and the bond issue is the answer.

Nightly Rendezvous With Death Stopped

CHICAGO, March 28.—Police today were searching for a slender, well-dressed woman who had a nightly rendezvous with death in a sidewalk crypt.
Walter Jones, factory night watchman for the last few days had noticed a woman slip into an alley, across a vacant lot and then go under a sidewalk which is elevated ten feet.
Early this morning he followed her.
He looked in the sidewalk crypt and saw a crumpled form.
He thought it was that of the woman and called the police.
Searchlights flashed and the body of a man was found. The man was well dressed. His head rested on a

Disabled Veterans Have Happy Easter
The disabled veterans of the world war, at Thornycroft Sanitarium, enjoyed a very pleasant Easter Sunday. The rooms of those unable to leave their beds were brightened by quantities of flowers sent by thoughtful Glendale citizens. Specially prepared trays decorated with flowers and miniature chickens were sent to them.
The tables in the main dining room of the sanitarium were decorated with centerpieces of fluffy white bridal wreath surrounded by ferns and yellow chicks. The following menu was served:
Cream of Tomato Soup
Fresh Lobster Salad
Roast Chicken Mashed Potatoes
Green Peas
Brown and White Bread
Pineapple Sherbet Cake
Milk Tea Coffee

OPEN DOOR, INVITE CHRIST TO ENTER, URGES PASTOR

EASTER SERVICES ARE HELD AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH; TALK BY REV. EDMONDS

The Easter morning sermon at the Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, has as its text two passages: "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world" (Matt. 28:20); "Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in their midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you." (John 20: 19). A brief outline follows:

It was Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The disciples were assembled in the house of the widow Mary in Jerusalem;—but not all were there at that hour, for some were away. Probably Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea with some of the ministering women were there. The doors were fast shut and barred. Why so? To begin with, great sorrow had come into their lives. They had seen their Master on the cross, had heard "My God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" had seen Him bow His Head and die; they had seen His body taken away to his tomb. They had come back home and shut and bolted the doors for fear. They had known no fear when Jesus was with them.

Another reason for being behind closed doors, something back of fear,—unbelief. Now, as they talked, a knock, and Mary was admitted. She told them her amazing story of having seen the Lord, and that He had bidden her go and tell the disciples. They did not believe her at all. They had been dwelling too long at the cross. It is good to sing "At the Cross;" it is better to sing "Hallelujah, Christ Arose;" best of all. This same Jesus is coming again. Then again their frightened hearts hear a knock and the voice of Mary Magdalene. She enters and tells them the wondrous fact of the open and empty tomb, the angels and their statement of the risen Christ, and last that she herself had seen Him and He had talked with her. But the disciples believed her not. Then came Peter, telling that he and John had been to the tomb and found it empty. Believe him? No. And Cleopas comes and tells of the sad walk out to Emmaus, of the traveler who joined and talked with them, and at supper was revealed to them as their Lord. Yet the sad group did not believe.

Jesus Stands in Their Midst
Then suddenly Jesus Himself stood in their midst with his familiar blessing. How could He enter when the doors were closed? Tell me how He came to life in the tomb? We cannot understand infinity. Were the disciples convinced? No, they were terrified, until they looked upon the wounded hands and feet,—then they knew. Their reaction came into their lives, and these unbelieving men were transformed; they became men of God and men of courage. The eleven became a thousand, and presently the thousand became a million, and other millions, on down to us.

All these Easter observances are good; but over and above all else, have you seen the Risen Christ? Do you take it all as a second-hand message, or is it real and personal to your very self? It is the touch of the living Christ. He did not wait then upon bolts and bars to enter to them. But He will not enter into your life unless you open the door and invite Him in. There was a time when you were ready to let Him in, but did not. He stands before you today, with His wound-prints, seeking admission. You have seen the wonderful picture of Christ knocking at the door. A father was showing this to his little child. She asked, "Father, did He get in?"

RESURRECTION TEXT OF SERMON FROM REV. COOKMAN

WEST GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH IS LARGELY ATTENDED FOR SERVICES ON EASTER

At the West Glendale Methodist church the pastor, Rev. W. W. Cookman, delivered an Easter morning sermon to a large congregation. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers. Rev. Cookman selected for his text, Matt. 28:6, "He is not here; for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay," and said, in part:

"There is perhaps no doctrine connected with our holy Christianity fraught with more interest or with more importance than the resurrection of Christ from the dead. For as Paul very justly observes, 'If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.' To deny this is to aim a death blow at our religious system; it is to remove the cornerstone of our great spiritual temple; it is to chase from these 'low grounds' that heavenly messenger who not only cheers and comforts the desponding heart, but exalts and adorns fallen human nature.

"But although this is a truth which should be jealously cherished and eagerly defended by every created intelligence, yet it is a sad and an astonishing fact that men have spared no pains, and used every effort in order to destroy the only true foundation upon which their hopes for the future can rest. With a spirit which is of the wicked one, they have tasked all their powers of invention that they might find out discrepancies and seeming contradictions with which to meet and overthrow the plain, unsophisticated and well attested facts which appear upon these sacred pages.

"But notwithstanding their mighty and continued efforts, notwithstanding their subtle and sophisticated reasonings, still it appears beyond the possibility of doubt that Christ has risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept; that He has overcome death and vanquished the power of the grave. And we rejoice this Easter morning to be able to stand up and, adopting the language of the angel, to say to His followers, as well as to His foes, if such should be present, 'He is not here, but is risen.'

"To all of us here today how much this precious faith means when we are called from time to time to earthly separation from our loved ones! We have followed our dead to their last resting place, and like the woman at the tomb 'sat over and watched.' But the sun went down and night flung her shadows upon the grave. Then the awful thought of an eternal separation bore itself down upon our soul. 'Is that slab sealed forever, or will an angel come some day and burst the bars?'
"He who is Christianity Himself replies. In word He answered; better far, in work he responded; best of all, in His own person he grappled with the king of terrors, wrested the scepter from his grasp and marched forth from death's dominion with the note of triumph on His lips. 'I am the Resurrection and the Life.' Let all the bells of heaven ring on this glad Easter morning. With Christ we shall be buried in the grave. With Him we shall rise again and live forever."

STRICKLAND BOYS WIN TRACK MEET

TWO Y. M. C. A. GROUPS VISIT HOME AT ANNANDALE TO HOLD ATHLETIC EVENT

Saturday two Y. M. C. A. groups, under the leadership of W. G. Boyd and S. C. Wheeler, competed at a track meet with the boys at the Strickland home at Annandale. The score was 62 to 12 in favor of the Strickland home, Glendale boys winning only three events.

Several officials of the juvenile court were present. F. B. Silverwood of Los Angeles furnished refreshments, which consisted of ice cream, cake and oranges.

The Intermediate Y. M. C. A. group, led by Joseph Maier, enjoyed a swimming party at Bimini Saturday night.

The Hi-Y unit No. 2, under the leadership of G. Edwin Murphy, enjoyed a hike to the top of Mt. Baldy Friday. They returned Saturday night.

RECEPTION IS HELD IN BEHALF OF 40 NEW MEMBERS

BANNER SUNDAY AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH; FINE MUSIC PRESENTED

Yesterday was a banner day at the First Methodist church. Both services were largely attended and the programs appreciated.

The choir loft and pulpit were tastefully decorated with palms, ferns, smilax and calla lilies. The Sunday school hour was devoted to a pageant presented by the young men's Bible class, assisted by ladies from the J. O. C. class. It was in two parts, "The Fallen Peter and the Risen Peter." Also included in this program was a solo by Miss Isgrig, an anthem by the choir and orchestra music.

The regular service at 11 o'clock was opened by a prelude, "Resurrection Morn," special music by the large choir, followed by baptism of infants and small children. Then came the reception of new members, forty in number, from different points in the state and also from different parts of the country, Kansas, Ohio, Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Texas and Canada being represented.

The Easter sermon by Dr. Crist was based upon I Corinthians 15:20. "But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept." For many years the source of the River Nile was a mystery. Its great value in irrigating the large agricultural regions through which it flowed was known and appreciated, but its source remained a mystery until the last century. Then explorers traced its source back to Lake Victoria, high up among the mountains. But there is a greater river which has been flowing down through the ages, quenching the thirst of countless throngs and enriching the lives of men and women in all ages. The River of Salvation, flowing down from the skies, and the question arises, Whence its source? It is from the heart of God and the channel through which it flows is Christ—Christ, our Saviour. In life Christ was a great teacher, but His life does not save us. Only in death does He become our blessed Saviour. And His death became efficacious because He rose on that historic Easter morn, that great event that we celebrate this day. "Ye shall live because I live," said Christ.

"This 'then' is the greatest joy that has come into our hearts. Christ has risen from the dead. The two greatest days of all history are the days of the crucifixion and the resurrection—the darkest day and the brightest day. Joy unspeakable as the stone is rolled away, the tomb is empty and the angels give the message to the loyal women and disciples "He is risen." The life and death of Christ is generally accepted, but in some minds there exists a doubt of His resurrection. But this is essential, this belief that He arose. The apostle says, "But if there be no resurrection of the dead then is Christ not risen. And if Christ be not risen then is our preaching vain and your faith is also vain."

No Fact Better Proven
Dr. Arnold of Rugby, an eminent scholar, commenting upon the proofs, said, "No fact is better proven in all history than that Christ died and rose again." It is not my purpose this morning to go into the many proofs of the resurrection, but will briefly call attention to four indisputable evidences:

First. Doubting disciples, unexpected, surprised and convinced.

Second. The positive, unequivocal evidence of the Apostle Paul as recorded in four epistles twenty-nine years after the resurrection.

Third. Its importance in the chronology of the world. From that date His followers—devout Jews—changed from observing Saturday as the sabbath to Sunday in view of His hallowing it by rising on that day. This observance has continued and increased down to the present time.

Fourth. The value and effect of the resurrection to the Christian church. Following the direct charge of the risen Christ, His disciples assembled in the upper room and received the Pentecost promised and went forth as crusaders to herald abroad a risen Lord. And today the triumphant Christian church stands as the proof of the risen Lord. A dead Christ could not inspire a live church. Our civilization results from a risen Lord. Christ the Victor is moving down the ages. He lives and so shall we. Beloved, it doth not yet appear when we shall be, but when He shall appear we shall be like Him.

The choir rendered an Easter cantata in the evening service entitled "Victory Divine." Kenneth Crist, one of the minute men, delivered a short address, concluding with an appeal for the recreation center bonds.

Large Crowd Attends Eagle Rock Services

It is estimated that at least 16,000 persons gathered about Eagle Rock Easter morning for the sunrise services, at which Frederick Warde, impersonator of Sierra Junipero at the Mission Play, was the leading attraction. The venerable actor read Henry Van Dyke's "God of the Open Air."

The services were ushered in with bugle calls by G. C. Coloneus and were followed by a beautiful rendition of "Hail, Joyous Morn," by Mrs. Paula Dohrman. Laletsky's orchestra played Handel's "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" and Lake's "Easter Chimes."

Mr. Coloneus played "The Holy City" as a cornet solo and Herrold DeGrosse appeared in vocal number.

Rev. E. Morgan Isaac of the Eagle Rock Congregational church preached the sermon of the morning.

CHILDREN BIGGEST PART OF CHURCH, SAYS PASTOR

MAKE WORLD FIT PLACE TO CONTAIN LITTLE FOLK, PLEA OF REV. FORD

The Baptist Sunday school held its usual Easter service at 10 o'clock with songs and recitations by the primary and junior departments and Easter offerings from the various classes for relief of the needy children of the world and local needs.

The pastor, Rev. Ernest E. Ford, preached on the appropriate theme, "I Am the Life," saying that Easter morning is the time for song. The children are the biggest part of the church, he said, for tomorrow we shall be gone and our places filled by the children of today. It takes more than sunshine to grow anything of value; it takes time to grow an oak. We have a wonderful job in making the world a place where these little folks can grow up right. The most characteristic thing about children is life. Life in its unfolding is the most wonderful thing in the world. We know the most and the least about life. Even in the vegetable world, take a little seed in your hand and ask it to tell us its life story—how has it all the beauty of the blossom wrapped up in it? Who put its life in it? The answer is God! Who can begin to measure life? Nobody.

After you have studied the question tell me how long eternity is, continued the pastor. What is it? Life is more than the way, for it's life that wants to find the way home. We are all asking which way, and God is speaking to us through this beautiful land of ours. Jesus Christ said, "I am the way, the truth, but the truth is about life, which after all is the big thing. Easter is the day of the unfolding of life. The Sadducees said there was no resurrection. That first Easter morning when the women came they found the stone rolled away.

Greeting in Early Days It is an awful thing to be a stone in the way of the children coming to Jesus Christ, said Rev. Ford. It is an interesting thing that the angel who rolled away the stone sat upon it. In the old days the customary greeting on Easter morning was "The Lord is risen," and the answer, "The Lord is risen indeed!" The tragedy of the cross would have been unavailing but for the resurrection. Life is power. Spiritual life is from God. "I am the resurrection and the life." Easter is the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who is the life.

In the evening the pastor spoke along the same theme, emphasizing the fact that the resurrection is of no value to individuals unless they accept Christ as their own Saviour and follow His leading.

There was special music both morning and evening, with solos by Mrs. Vera McKee Neighbors, E. J. Ruentz of Los Angeles, and selections by a male quartet composed of Messrs. E. C. Boynton, M. G. Boynton, A. A. McCurda and E. J. Ruentz, accompanied by Mrs. G. Higbee of Los Angeles, as well as anthems by the choir.

SUNRISE SERVICES ON LOUISE HILL FINE SUCCESS

ABOUT 500 PERSONS ATTEND CEREMONIES AND FITTING PROGRAM IS GIVEN

There was a marked increase in the attendance at the sunrise service Easter on the hill at the head of Louise street over previous years. It is estimated that about 500 persons wended their way to the top of the first hill at the head of Louise street, coming on foot, by Pacific Electric and by auto.

An interesting program had been arranged by Miss Ethel Murphy and assistants. A cross had been erected and tastefully covered with flowers. A trio of cornets opened the exercises and made sweet music that floated out on the early morning air and greeted the people as they gathered from different directions.

At 5:30 C. K. Aston, M. Percy of Sunland and Dr. Lucas from a vantage point on the hill above the cross welcomed the people with familiar tunes played on their brass instruments. At 5:45 Mr. Aston opened the service with a cornet solo, "The Holy City."

A number of well known gospel songs were sung by the congregation, led by Dr. Joseph Marple. Solos were rendered by Dr. Marple and Miss Elizabeth Mottern.

Rev. Julius Soper of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church led in prayer. Scripture was read by Rev. Tinning, assistant pastor of the Presbyterian church.

A short but forceful address was made by Paul C. Brown, field secretary of the California Y. M. C. A. state organization. He said in part: "As we gather this wonderful Easter morning in commemoration of Christ's resurrection from the grave, there is little doubt either in our hearts or intellects of this glorious truth. Believing it, our hearts are changed. We may not be able to humanly reason it all out any more than we can reason out our physical birth. It affects our lives and leads us into paths of loving service."

He concluded his remarks by leading the congregation in singing "Where He Leads Me I Will Follow."

THEORY OF NOTED POEM IN PICTURE

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN SHOWN IN FEATURE ATTRACTION, GLENDALE THEATRE

"And I learned about women from her."

The theory of Kipling's poem is that a man can always learn something about the sex from any woman, no matter how much he may previously have known about the species. In "The Daughter Pays," the new Selznick picture starring winsome Elaine Hammerstein, which is being shown again today at the Glendale Theatre.

Mrs. Baillie Reynolds, who wrote the story from which this picture was made, has achieved something very much out of the ordinary. While building up a set of very extraordinary circumstances, she has not made too great a demand upon credulity, nor is the action strained or unnatural. It treats the situation of a young girl marrying an old man, apparently for his wealth, in a new and seemingly original way.

Each little girl attending the Glendale Theatre is presented with a "Geeka" dolly pattern in connection with the showing of the second episode of "The Son of Tarzan Serial." "The Hallroom Boys" in "Hired and Fired" proves a scream. "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" is Madame Clement's special number at the great organ. Tomorrow "The Devil to Pay" is the feature.

General Tone N. Y. Exchange Is Firm

NEW YORK, March 28.—Monday morning weariness was in evidence at the opening of the New York stock exchange today.

The general tone was firm, marking a continuation of the feeling at the close last week when traders were fighting off the bear attack. Dividend action and general business reports played an important part in early trading. Reviving business was reflected in motor and wool stocks. Tire and rail stocks were off.

American Woolen touched a new high for the year at 75, up 1, and Chandlee up 1% at 83% also made a new high for the year. Kelly Springfield made a new low for the year at 38%. Pennsylvania was sold heavily around 35. United States Steel was slightly lower.

New York city now has 1103 automobile dealers, an increase within a year of 35 per cent.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 IS OPPOSED BY J. F. TATLOW

RESIDENT OF OAK STREET IS OBJECTING TO PROPOSAL IN REGARDS WATER MAINS

J. Fletcher Tatlow, painting and decorating contractor, 311 Oak street, requests The Evening News to publish the following communication:

Editor The Evening News—Can you grant me space to briefly comment upon proposition No. 2, which is to be voted upon March 29?

During the past fifteen years some of us have resided upon Oak street. When we located there we found that some time previous a two-inch water main, which had been dug up from some other street, had been installed. It had been laid so near the surface and was then in such a fragile condition that to my positive knowledge it was broken by contact with wagon wheels. A few years later, a petition having been circulated for the street improvement, the city engineer gave it as his ultimatum that every foot of curbing would have to be renewed for the double reasons that it would not withstand the lateral pressure of the roller and the grade was not as it should be, and in conjunction with this the sidewalks would have to be renewed in order to meet the new grading.

All of which expense the residents did not feel able to negotiate at that time.

"No Funds Available"

About ten years later, very recently, during all of which time we have been voting for bonds for schools, water, etc., etc., for the benefit of the residents of Glendale in general, we have been without adequate water service, not alone for irrigating, for fire protection, but actually for sanitary purposes; now when by petition we ask for street improvement to include a water main our city manager informs us that there are no funds available for water main, that the present two-inch main which is serving ten times the number of people it was ten years ago, "is all right for a few years, we can tear up the street later and lay a main, we need not regrade the street, the curb need not come up."

In other words, after ten years of wear the pipe is better than it was, the water runs, off better and the curb has so solidified that it will now stand the "lateral pressure."

But the city manager has a bright idea which he puts over on the city trustees, which they adopt "unanimously," to the effect that the citizens of Glendale be given the privilege to dictate to such other citizens who have been voting for higher taxation so that the city manager, the city trustees and others might have the convenience and protection of adequate water supply; that hereafter they pay for mains on their own frontage or go without—see proposition No. 2.

We, the residents of Oak street, vigorously protest that such a proposition is manifestly unjust. We plead with all fair-minded citizens to vote no on proposition No. 2.

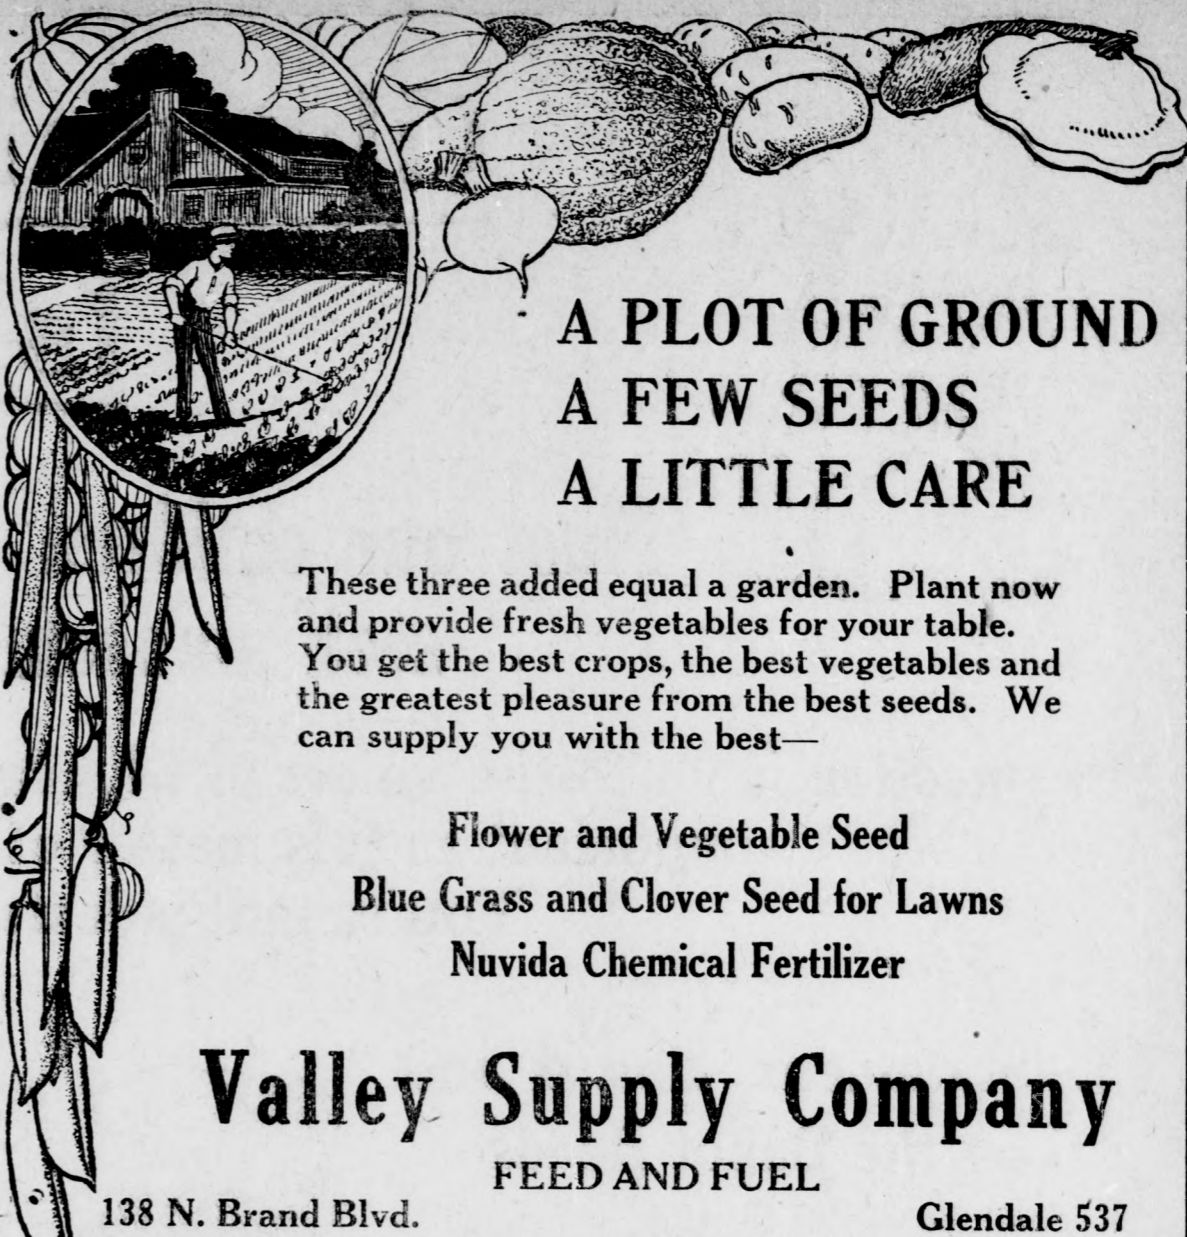

Very sincerely yours, J. F. TATLOW, 311 Oak Street.

POWERFUL NOVEL TOLD ON SCREEN WINSTON CHURCHILL'S STORY PICTURIZED; COMEDY ALSO AT PALACE GRAND

Exposing smug hypocrisy and telling a highly dramatic and appealing story, "The Inside of the Cup," a powerful Paramount-Cosmopolitan picture, admirably produced, was presented before an appreciative audience at the Palace Grand theatre yesterday. It shows again today. This is an excellent picturization of Winston Churchill's powerful novel which excited world-wide controversy on its publication seven years ago.

The theme is an excellent one and the story of human lives which the narrative unfolds, has been charmingly developed. The picture is one that will inspire thought as well as entertain. The company of players, too, is far above the average. The character of John Hodder, the rector, who exposes the hypocrisy of his rich parishioners, is excellently portrayed by William P. Carleton. That of Alison Parr, the daughter of Eldon Parr, a hypocritical financier, is finely presented by Edith Hallor. Kate Marcy, a salesgirl, is captivatingly portrayed by Marguerite Clayton.

"Wedding Blues," a Christie comedy featuring Neale Burns, is a riot of laughs, while Preston Lodwick's marimbaphone solo features the Palace Grand's orchestra program.

Glendale's Reputation is at Stake

Must our children play on the Street? Must they seek amusement in questionable places?

The question is up to the voters of Glendale. It must be decided tomorrow. There is nothing as important as this matter of a place of amusement for the young people. You cannot sidestep your responsibility in this matter.

The Statement, Nos. 4 and 5 on the Ballot Reads

4. Shall the City of Glendale issue municipal bonds in the sum of $66,000 for the purpose of purchasing and improving three parks—one located in the northwest section of the city, one to be located in the southern section of the city, one to be located in the central-eastern section of the city.

5. Shall the City of Glendale issue municipal bonds in the sum of $83,000 for the purpose of constructing and equipping a gymnasium and the purchase of the necessary grounds in connection therewith?

FINE RECORD BEING MADE AT CHURCH BY REV. FUNK

TWENTY-FIVE NEW MEMBERS ARE TAKEN IN ON EASTER; CONGREGATION DOUBLES

With a record breaking attendance, large Easter offerings, and twenty-five new members added to the church, there was occasion for special rejoicing by the members and friends of the First Lutheran church. The recent accessions to the membership roll under the leadership of the new pastor have doubled the strength of the congregation.

Dr. Funk used for his subject the character of an uncultured religious enthusiast, based on the words found in the sixteenth chapter of the Gospel according to Mark, at the seventh verse. It was a message of an angel to the disciples as they were gathered together in an upper room at Jerusalem. Peter, the leader of the twelve, had denied his Master; yea, more, he cursed and swore that he did not know Him.

Sends Special Message
And yet this same Lord and Master on the morning of the resurrection graciously sends a special message to His fallen disciple, who must have been in a penitent mood and the most miserable man on earth at the time, assuring Peter that He had neither forgotten nor forsaken him. Peter's temperament and instability were well known to the Saviour; but by the power of His resurrection this weak, temperamental follower was transformed into "Petros" the rock. Have you forgotten, neglected or denied your Lord? If so, remember Peter, the pastor urged.

Educational Film Will Be Displayed

There will be shown at the Glendale Theatre Wednesday, March 30, an educational film consisting of three reels showing the building and operation of the transcontinental telephone line between San Francisco and New York, showing the offices and cities through which the call passes. This picture will be shown in addition to the regular show and will be displayed at the first show only.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH SERVICES ARE ELABORATE

VERY FINE PROGRAM GIVEN ON EASTER; NEW MEMBERS ARE GIVEN WELCOME

A very fine Easter program was enjoyed by the congregation of the Central Christian church at both its services. In the morning Rev. Cole spoke on "The Great Hope of the Easter Morning."

The choir rendered two beautiful anthems, "The Bells of Easter Morning" (Chaffin) and "Our Saviour Lives" (Schoebel). Mrs. Floyd Mercer sang "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" (Handel).

Several new members were taken into the church. Mr. and Mrs. Legget and daughter, Helen, and Mr. Legget's brother, Mr. Legget, came in by letter; Mrs. Darling and daughter, Faith, by letter; Miss Hilda Stevenson by letter; Mr. and Mrs. Noble Ripley by letter, and Miss Dorothy Jordan, Miss Mercer and Miss Georgia Young came in on confession of faith.

Baptismal Service
In the evening the sermon topic was "This World's Only Hope." After the sermon there was a baptismal service in which Miss Mercer, Miss Georgia Young and Miss Dorothy Jordan were baptized. The choir sang "Alleluia, He Is Risen" (De Reef). Mr. and Mrs. Lerchner came into the church by letter.

South Glendale Nine Wins From Catalina

A fast game of baseball was played at Catalina yesterday when the South Glendale nine defeated the Catalina cubs by a score of 7 to 3. It was a speedy game from start to finish, but South Glendale's new battery was too fast for Catalina. C. Cruz, the new pitcher for South Glendale, struck out 19 and held the cubs to only four hits. There will be a game on the home grounds, Park avenue and San Fernando road next Sunday, April 2. The South Glendale team is under the able management of H. E. Crane.

A new process for the manufacture of carbon from lignite will be utilized in a $1,000,000 plant to be built in Monroe, La. The new carbon will be used in the process of refining sugar, replacing the bone black now in use.

PARADE DISPLAYS ALL MODELS OF STUDEBAKERS

PACKER & WHITE AUTO CO. ALSO HAVE MORELAND AND CLETRAC IN PROCESSION

Giving the San Fernando valley the opportunity of seeing the latest in motorcars, trucks and tractors, the Packer & White Auto company held a parade on Saturday which made everyone acquainted with the Big Six seven passenger touring car, the Big Six special, special Chummy roadster, special three passenger, Light Six touring car, Light Six landau and Light Six sedan.

This display of Studebakers was followed by a 1 1/2 ton Moreland motor truck for which the Packer & White Auto company is San Fernando valley representative. It was equipped with pneumatic tires, electric lights, starter and generator. Riding on the truck was a Model W Cletrac (tank type) tractor.

Tractor For Orchards
The Packer & White Auto company have recently taken the Cletrac agency for a large district. It is largely constructed of steel instead of cast iron which gives greater strength and sturdiness with the minimum of weight. The slogan of the makers is "it stands the gaff." The machine runs on tracks which carry it lightly but surely over any kind of ground. It is especially adapted for orchard use.

Mr. White is more than proud of the record established by the Studebaker Light Six last Wednesday in beating a fast mail train's time from Los Angeles to Phoenix. While the motor car stood the test, the party of four making the trip in thirteen hours and sixteen minutes total elapsed time had to go to the hotel for a general overhauling. The record run was made over the Mecca-Blythe highway which is noted for its roughness.

AWARD OF $5,000,000 MADE
WASHINGTON, March 28—Award by a lower court of $5,000,000 to the Coronado Beach Co. for the seizure by the federal government for an aviation base of North Island, in San Diego harbor, was upheld by the supreme court today.

Los Angeles to Phoenix

13 Hours, 16 Minutes

Breaks Another Record!

On last Wednesday, March 23, the Studebaker Light Six smashed a record that has stood for eleven years when it covered the 422 miles between Los Angeles and Phoenix over the Mecca-Blythe road in 13 hours and 16 minutes—2 hours and 28 minutes less than any car ever covered the distance before.

This record following the marvelous Los Angeles to San Francisco Road Records fully establishes all the claims of performance and durability made for the Studebaker Light Six.
