CHRISTIAN CALLING CONFERENCE HERE BENEFITS BOYS

Hundred Delegates Praise Way in Which Glendale People Arrange Big Event

The Southern California Christian Calling Conference of the Y. M. C. A., held here Saturday and Sunday, was a success in every way and the most delegates who attended were most enthusiastic in their praise for the manner in which Glendale people "put it across."

The delegates began arriving at the First Methodist church, conference headquarters, Saturday afternoon, and were immediately shown to the homes where they were to spend the night by the Glendale Hi-Y boys. The conference opened with a banquet Saturday night in the Methodist church where the women of the church had tables arranged in the form of a large triangle, occupying the entire social hall. It was at this session that George Jordan of Glendale was elected conference president.

Following the banquet Merle Waterman of Long Beach presided at the piano and lived up to everyone by his erratic playing. Rex C. Kelley, Glendale Y. M. C. A. secretary, then introduced David Black, who acted as chairman and toastmaster. He, in turn, introduced Dale Wood, the president of the Glendale Hi-Y, who welcomed the delegates. This welcome was responded to by Verne Eitmar of the San Diego Hi-Y.

The president of Occidental college, Dr. Rensson D. Bird, addressed on "Fundamentals in the Choice of a Life's Work" hit the keynote of the whole conference by telling the boys to be square with themselves and their God in the choice of a life's work.

Talks of Big Interest
George H. Gleason of Japan then held the audience in rapt attention by telling of some of his experiences in Japan and Russia and the price necessary to pay and the returns for work in foreign lands.

Dr. Willis Martin of Hollywood spoke on "Great Lives Invested in the Ministry," putting a challenge of that great profession to the delegates in his dynamic manner, making a most forceful appeal for that calling.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsley Surprised by Friends

About thirty friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lindsley of 327 West Wilson avenue assembled at the residence of Mrs. Ledyard, 323 West Wilson avenue, Saturday night about 8 o'clock and marched in upon the Lindsleys to assist in the celebration of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsley were taken completely by surprise. After congratulations had been extended and a social hour enjoyed H. W. Yarik, in behalf of the assembled friends, presented a few well chosen words, followed by Mr. and Mrs. Lindsley with a gold fruit plate and two gold salt and pepper shakers.

Mr. Lindsley responded in a very fitting and happy manner, emphasizing the good fortune of himself and wife in locating in the "sunshine neighborhood." Refreshments of ice cream and cake were then served and after spending a happy evening with them the guests departed, wishing them many more years of devotion to each other.

Animals Travel In Style; Even Camels Passengers on Truck

Watchfully waiting, or waitfully watching, which?

Residents of San Fernando Road are living in the expectancy of some day seeing a load of monkeys pass.

For it is nothing strange to see motor trucks touring through the west end of the city loaded with chicken coops or carrying cattle, or a couple of horses.

Pigs, goats, ostriches and what not travel along in style, but it is believed the limit was reached one day last week when a truck passed through loaded with two camels.

Maybe there is a camel farm in the vicinity of Palmdale. Who knows?

Or was it part of a picture outfit "shooting" desert stuff?

Or maybe the camels had gone the specified time without a drink and were being taken to where they could get one.

Who knows?

AUTO HITS TRUCK AND MILK SHAKE IS ONE RESULT

Both Vehicles Are Damaged by Crash and Lots of Liquid Spilled on Pavement

The milky way was quite visible early Sunday morning on Central avenue near Milford street.

About 250 bottles of milk were smashed when an Essex "town car" belonging to the Glendale Hudson Motor Company, 230 North Brand boulevard, crashed into the rear of a milk wagon belonging to the Glendale Creamery Company, 755 West Doran street.

"The milk wagon was standing on the right-hand side of the street with no light visible and I did not see the wagon until after I had struck it," stated Harry Wishart of 344 Burchett street.

Harold Shaw, the milkman, was just about to climb back into the wagon after delivering a quart—or maybe it was a pint—of milk.

Both vehicles were somewhat damaged. The milk wagon sustained a broken left rear wheel and single tree. The automobile went away with a bruised radiator fan, distributor, front lights and fender.

A car driven by A. D. Hodgson of 1267 North Marengo street, Los Angeles, was hit in the rear as it was turning into the driveway of the A. G. Spohr residence, 402 South Central avenue, 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a car being driven north on Central by A. D. Hartley of 451 Hawthorne street. The damage was slight.

Here's Another One

Marie R. Boyd of 116 North Isabel street and James M. Rhoades of 459 Hawthorne street were drivers of cars which collided early Sunday afternoon at Los Felix road and Central avenue. Both machines were slightly damaged.

D. OF V. BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY IS HELD SUNDAY FOR LARGE SUCCESS

Enjoyable Program Is Given on Saturday Afternoon in the American Legion Hall

The second birthday anniversary of the institution of Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, of which Mrs. Susie Peck is president, was celebrated Saturday afternoon at American Legion Hall on East Broadway with the members of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., N. P. Banks Camp No. 22, Sons of Veterans, and the Women's Relief Corps, as special guests of the occasion.

A very enjoyable program occupied the greater part of the afternoon and included piano duets by Miss Flo Chadwick and Mrs. Joe Griffin, fancy dances in costume by Dezina Wood, vocal solo by Mrs. A. J. Van Wied, piano solo by Miss Frederica Brown, dance by little Eleanor Marek, vocal solo by Mrs. Irvin Bullock, and piano solo by Miss Flo Chadwick. Over 100 had availed themselves of the invitation to attend the celebration and enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon.

Give Addresses
At the close of the program the assembly was addressed by Mrs. Ada Judd, president of Helen J. Jean, Christie Tent No. 17 of Los Angeles and also Mrs. Lottie Fields who is southern California tent's organizer.

Joseph V. Griffin, past division commander of the Sons of Veterans, was also present and spoke briefly.

Refreshments consisting of brick ice cream, in which was inserted a souvenir flag, and home made cakes, were then served.

Mrs. Susie Peck, president of the tent, had made a large birthday cake for the occasion, and the honor of cutting this went to Mrs. Cora Jones, past president of the tent.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was an exhibition of photographs of the fathers or grandfathers of the members of the tent, which were placed upon a table in the center of the room for examination of the visitors.

Many of these photographs were of the old fashioned tintype and daguerreotype methods, some having been carried during the Civil war.

The hall for this occasion had been transformed into an immense, comfortable living room by Mrs. Susie Peck and Mrs. Agnes Richardson, by the addition of a number of brightly colored rugs, plants and furniture and a trollea, loaned by the Glendale Music company.

Park In Garage, So Boys Tell Policemen

When is a garage a home? Patrolman J. Seddon says he doesn't know but he does know that it is not a home when nobody lives there.

Saturday night he "collected" Ralph and John Wilde, age 11 and 12, upon the street. They said they were going home from a show and lived at a number on Verdugo road near Park avenue. This happened to be a garage. Failing to rouse an occupant of the aforesaid "automobile hotel" Mr. Seddon made a second trip there later on. Then he became convinced that the "kids" were spoofing him.

Investigation revealed the fact that they had run away from their home at 4416 Toland Way, Los Angeles, Friday night.

Catholic Congregation Attends Special Services; Rev. O'Neil Expresses His Thanks

Special music for the occasion marked the dedication yesterday morning of the new organ in the Holy Family Catholic church.

Both masses were well attended and the church was packed to the doors. About 1800 people attended both services and 300 were obliged to stand for lack of seating capacity in the church.

In addition to the children's choir of thirty-five voices, which had been trained by Miss Ada E. Gies of 823 North Brand boulevard, the regular adult choir of forty voices was under the direction of Harry Girard, who presided at the console of the organ.

Knights of Columbus marched into the church in a body, occupied seats in the center of the church and took communion together at the 8 o'clock mass. They were led by Grand Knight J. A. Wright of 118 South Maryland avenue and other officers of Council 1920.

Following the services, breakfast was served to them at the White Inn where M. J. Brennan, 519 North Central avenue, presided.

Expresses Thanks

The musical program at the 10:30 o'clock mass included St. Cecilia's mass in its entirety with Mr. and Mrs. Henri LaBonte and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girard in solo parts supported by the full choir.

In the formal speech of dedication, Rev. Father O'Neil thanked all those who had aided in obtaining the organ for the church. He declared that he was much touched by the faithfulness of members of his congregation.

$25,000 Pledged to Presbyterian Church

More than $25,000 was contributed in advance payments on pledges towards the building fund of the Presbyterian church yesterday which was known as "Red Letter Day."

Large audiences were present at both services and when announcement was made immediately in order that contracts might be let at once for the work on the new structure to be erected at Louise and Harvard streets, the congregation responded with alacrity and made available the sum of $25,056.25.

Ground breaking ceremonies will occur Easter Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, states Rev. Louis Tinning, assistant pastor. "An appropriate program is now being prepared."

All checks and monies are payable to Dan Campbell at the Glendale National Bank, 1267 South Brand boulevard.

Wesley Kuhnle Plays for Memory Contest

Wesley Kuhnle of 111 West Maple street, who played the organ at the T. D. & L. theatre Saturday morning has commented upon the amount of interest shown by the school children during the final test of the music memory contest.

OFFICERS FOR LOCAL LETTER CARRIERS ARE INSTALLED

Large Meeting Held Saturday Night and Fine Program Given Postal Employees

The seating capacity was exhausted early in the evening.

The installation was followed by an entertainment of unusual merit, staged by Chairman Al Holcomb and his committee. The efficiency of the postoffice orchestra, which was recently organized, was demonstrated by several beautiful selections.

This was followed by an address by Mr. Hunt, the new president, in which he promised the continued untiring efforts of the carriers.

RELIGIOUS HOBOES? WHAT ARE THEY? PASTOR TELLS

Rev. J. C. Livingston Preaches on Weary Willie; Urges Convictions Displayed

"Religious hoboes" was the subject of Rev. J. C. Livingston yesterday morning. To a large audience at the Casa Verdugo Methodist church, he remarked: "Have you ever stopped to think that men will do to their religious convictions the things that they would be ashamed to do toward their business, civic or social life? On every hand we touch elbows with men of highest standing in the world of public affairs who would indignantly resent any intimation of delinquency but who, unfortunately, in their relation to the church and their profession of Jesus Christ regard their moral vagrancy as something smart. "There is something interesting about the Weary Willie, who is here because he does not happen to be somewhere else. He is interesting for the mystery of his past as well as for some 'mysteries' which may have to do with his person. He is interesting for the clothes he wears. They were not made for him. He is happily indifferent as to fit. Indifferent to Ending "Their value to him is wholly in that they are comfortable and that they cost no effort on his part. He is interesting for the happy abandon with which he goes life's way wholly indifferent as to final endings. "Have you ever in relation to the church and religion noticed any parallels to this type of person? What do you make of the class of professed Christian who is just looking around? I am thinking about the Weary Willie in the parallel of his job. "When he is out at Redlands or Riverside he could get a job if he were at Ventura, for he is a bean-picker. If he happens to be at Ventura, he can get no job there to his liking because his special vocation is that of picking oranges. Hence our man of the road, never being in the vicinity of his particular kind of a job, finds only the vagrant life to his liking. From Different Places "Go out on these highways this morning at the hour of service and you will find that a vast percentage of the multitude are church members from Iowa, Ohio and the corners of the continent who are doing the things that they would be ashamed to do in their home town. "God pity the children of our commonwealth who are to grow up with only memories of the home as a place where convictions were but lightly taken and standards were only to be torn down and trailed in the dust when it pleased selfishness."

PASSION FOR TRUTH ONE GREAT NEED, PASTOR STATES

Rev. C. M. Calderwood Talks on 'Authority of Jesus' at Sunday's Service

"The Authority of Jesus" was the topic of the sermon yesterday morning at the Congregational church. "The most of us agree that the final authority over life is not in the church, not in the Bible," stated Rev. C. M. Calderwood. "The authority over life is Jesus Christ. We will work through the church because it is his. The Bible is good because it leads to Him and contains His greatest teachings. "Jesus came not only to save man but men. Problems concern us but man concerned Jesus. He had a passion for truth because truth affects personally. He was always seeking to create new character. The new teaching of Jesus was for the sake of a new humanity. He had a horror for sin because it robs man of his true personality. He recognized the worth of man and never taught the doctrine of total depravity. He tried to discover for man the possibility and potentialities of his life. "Big Men Are Needed "Big enterprises need big men else both will fail. Holy enterprises need holy men. Who have we to carry into the work of life? We may go with busy hands but empty hearts. Unless we are Christian our acts will not be Christian. "Politics, industry, business, social life will become Christian when Christian men and women carry Christianity into these activities. "Holiness is not an end in itself. There must be righteousness in character which finds expression in human relations. "Jesus gives no sanction to monastic holiness but he lays great emphasis on righteousness in relation to others. His test of God-like living was in loving and serving others. Do as Christ Tells "Theodore Parker said of Goethe: 'Tell me what he ever did for humanity.' There are people who are defenders of the faith, but not defenders of the weak. There are some who are lovers of truth, but not lovers of mankind. You are asking for Christian perfection. Ask the Master for it and do as He tells you. Jesus is the authority. 'This is my commandment that ye love one another.' "You cannot read Christ's message and stop where you please. It binds you with a chain and carries you forward. Men cannot see Christ and turn monk. They do his bidding by doing his work."

INFLUENCE ON LIFE OF YOUNG PEOPLE IS IMPORTANT

Dr. H. C. Funk Tells of Boy With Basket; Religion Is Necessary, He Says

"The boy with the basket" was the topic of Dr. H. C. Funk's sermon yesterday morning at the Lutheran church. Rev. Funk suggested that the boy may have been an orphan wandering around in a crowd of 5000 people. "But it was evident that he had something in the basket," he remarked. "For when Jesus saw the multitude and that they had nothing to eat, Philip discovered the boy with the basket and found that he had five barley loaves and two small fishes. He raised the question, 'But what are they among so many?' "Now every boy has five loaves and two small fishes. He has five senses; he also has two small eyes to see; two small feet to run errands; two small hands to perform duties assigned to him. Good Mother, Perhaps "When we come to think about it, however, this boy could not have been an orphan for this basket was too well filled. It is more probable that a good mother had carefully provided for his day away from home. "But what was there in his basket? Just what his mother had put into it. The fact is, that every boy has a basket which needs to be filled. He not only has a stomach but also a heart and mind and as he develops his capacity grows larger and larger. Indeed, every mother is filling up the empty room of her child's mind with things that are good or bad, with sweet loaves of barley or sour, kind words, loving counsel and tender affection or with careless neglect and criminal indulgence. "Every mother is surrounding her child with things which create a desire for worldly ambition or with such an atmosphere of prayer and true Godliness as will beget in him a longing after righteousness. Susceptible Influences "What shall we say then of your influence over the life of the precious one whom God has entrusted to your loving care? If left to itself the tender plant will die. Its life being sapped away by the weeds or the heat of the broiling sun. Your child is susceptible to the influences surrounding it. "I have heard men say that a child should be left to itself to choose and not be prejudiced in favor of religion. Ruskin was visited by a friend, who went out into the garden which he found prejudiced in favor of roses that require the tenderest care. So I prefer having children prejudiced in favor of religion for it develops the most beautiful character."

FIRST TEMPLE COST HUGE SUM, SAYS REV. EDMONDS

Four Billions of Dollars in Silver and Gold Materials Alone, Is Estimated

"God's Call to the Church" was the subject of the sermon yesterday morning at the Presbyterian church. "It is great to know the Lord speaks, to hear His clarion call," declared Rev. W. E. Edmonds. "So to Haggai, the prophet of Israel, on a certain day came the word of the Lord. It concerned the new temple which awaited building. We think of prophets as old men but Haggai was young and strong. God gave him a strong, positive message to his people for the replacing of the destroyed temple and promising that the glory which He would give the new temple should be yet greater than He had given the former one. "All this takes us back to Solomon. He carried out the great trust laid on him by his father, David, to build the first temple. He was occupied between seven and eight years with it, the greatest work of his reign and the wonder of the world.

Cost Huge Sum
"Its cost in silver and gold material alone was $4,000,000,000, besides other materials and aside from labor. The best was none too good for God. Wonderful choice woods were brought from Lebanon and elsewhere. Stone was quarried from the bowels of the temple hill itself and brought out in vast blocks, so vast that it is beyond understanding how they were handled, yet cut with utmost precision and laid in the foundation, walls without cement or mortar. Brass work was made down in the Jordan valley. Marvelous embroideries were made by wonderfully skilled hands that had hearts back of them. Everything was made according to exact plan and with highest artistic ability. All the multitude of workers worked with a free hand and free heart.

Impressive Dedication
"Then came the great dedication. Sacrifices were offered and divine fire came down and consumed them. The Book says that God came down and accepted the house and promised His blessing.
"The temple was built without noise. No hammer or tool was heard there for everything was brought prepared. There was harmony and perfect unity in all—the work and the workers. The Great Architect of the spiritual temple knows the place for every bit of His building.
"The temple was intended to overshadow the church, the spiritual house of the future where God now dwells by the Holy Spirit."

Letter Carriers Elect Officers, Enjoy Program

The executive board of the N. A. L. C., a Los Angeles resident, gave an interesting "look in" on the department's work at Washington and he also spoke on the letter carriers' retirement legislation. Carrier Joe Fallon of Hollywood stated he was amazed at the spirit of good fellowship existing here and declared himself a "friend for life" of Postmaster Jackson and the mayor.
President Newton of the clerks' federation, also was well received while the anecdotes by Harry A. James kept his audience convulsed. Carrier Kauffman played the piano and Mrs. Frank Enders told the women how to organize the auxiliary.

Program Pleases
Novelties offered by the Pearl Keller school of dancing and dramatic art included dances by Eleanor Marek, Cecilia Mae Fisher, Rosalita Ruggiero and the Turner Sisters while Geneva Marek gave several recitations. Harry H. Fraser and Alice MacDougall performed on the bagpipes, winning hearty approval, as did Mrs. C. A. Blakee, who sang.
At the close of the program refreshments were served by the auxiliary and A. S. (Sweet Patoot) Wood called off the good old dances of yesterday until after the midnight hour. The letter carriers appreciate the courtesies extended them by Roberts & Echols, the Loomis-Shuck music company and the Pearl Keller school in making the entertainment a most successful one.

Blame for Failure IS PLACED UPON MAN HIMSELF

Must Be Disposition to Go Forward, Says Rev. Crist at Methodist Church
"The man who fails not because he lacks opportunities but because he has not improved them," cannot blame God for his failures but himself alone," asserted Rev. C. M. Crist yesterday morning in his sermon at the First Methodist church.
"There must be a disposition to press forward on the part of the man. There must be a tremendous purpose without which a great life can never result. We sometimes spread ourselves out over too large a space to succeed. We all must climb the road to Calvary for only the man who suffers, can attain perfection.
"It isn't a matter of getting but a matter of giving that should be the principle of a Christian life whose ideal is to succeed.
"The supreme glory of the religion of Jesus Christ is that it demands our best. The mind of man never conceived anything more beautiful. I know of no man, who can lift himself up, but there is something that lifts us.
"What good thing must I do that I may have eternal life? was the question asked of Christ by the young man who had kept the commandments from his youth up. His answer was, 'Sell all that thou hast and follow me.'
"No ordinary man can attain perfection. It means more than keeping the commandments. It means sacrifice and service. It takes a strong man to look into a glass and see himself. How easy it is to measure the life of some other man. Remember that only as we look into the glass and see ourselves can we make the big success.
"Something More
"There must be something more than knowing to make success. It isn't the things we know which make us happy. We are to govern ourselves according to our knowledge. A man isn't blessed because he is naturally good, neither is he strong because he is free from temptation. We do not think of the innocency of a child as anything which can be applied to a man.
"Paul was a great success. As we become conscious of the power of this Holy Religion we can say in the words of Paul, 'I press forward toward the mark of the high calling of God.'

GRENDEL SQUAD AT TOP OF HEAP IN ELKS BOWLING

Take Tight Grip on First Position; Jimmy Appfel's Boys Coming Fast

The fast going Grendel squad of the Class A division of the Glendale Elks' scratch bowling league, which is composed of Captain Grendel, "Knock 'Em Dead" Wyckoff and Johnny Fanset, took a decided grip on first place during the past week by their complete victory over the Gilhuleys in Friday night's match. With but three more weeks of play scheduled until the close of the season they are conceded more than an even chance of annexing the titular honors.

While the Grendels have been playing a consistently brilliant game throughout the season, Jimmy Appfel's "Terrible Tarzans," who spent the earlier part of the tournament floundering around the bottom of the percentage column, have recently put on a burst of speed that has already put them in the runner-up position. By rolling all three games well above the coveted 500 mark on Friday night they swamped the Wards with a trio of wins, and incidentally moving up two pegs toward first place.

The Fortunato "Bruisers," league leaders since the opening night's play, were taken out of camp by the Clarks Friday night by winning the percentage column, have recently put on a burst of speed that has already put them in the runner-up position. By rolling all three games well above the coveted 500 mark on Friday night they swamped the Wards with a trio of wins, and incidentally moving up two pegs toward first place.

Plenty of Thrills in William S. Hart Film

Gunplay, the like of which has never been seen before, a most unusual hold-up, a vivid thunderstorm—these are but few of the thrills in William S. Hart's latest and most memorable Paramount picture "Travelin' On," to be shown for the last time tonight at the T. D. & L. theatre. This is a picture to make even the most hardened film fan sit in that most uncomfortable posture—balanced on the edge of a seat—right from beginning to end, wondering, with bated breath, just how the story is going to end. It is a picture to send the red blood coursing through one's veins, and that, surely, is a most desirable thing these days.

The Short Crucible
 By Davis J. Walsh
 International News Service Sports Editor

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 27.—When the young man removes his cap, the semi-tropical sun glimmers upon his pate, prematurely nude, with the gleam of a highly-polished cordovan boot. He is that kind of a young man, old beyond his years.

When his left-handed friend spreads his mouth into the folds of a smile, you see two rows of teeth too even and altogether too perfect to be natural. They are not the teeth that appeared by painful degrees in his early youth. He had those latter removed several years ago because he feared they were making him old before his time.

The young man who lost his confidence and the left-handed friend who lost his teeth are Dick Rudolph and George Tyler, respectively. They, in collaboration with the defunct Bill James, pitched the Braves into the greatest notoriety that year any ball club ever attained, and they did so under the tactical guidance of Fred Mitchell.

The latter is the speculative gent referred to and right now he happens to be manager of the Boston Braves. Mitchell, of course, has proved himself as a manager. He was merely an assistant to George Stallings in 1914, later went to the Cubs as manager, and with able assistance from Tyler, won the National League pennant in 1915. He came back to the Braves last year to succeed Stallings and now Tyler follows him back after being turned loose by the Cubs. Rudolph never left the Boston club during recent years. He is generally believed to be a bit passe, likewise Tyler. Mitchell will have none of this.

"I think I know Rudolph and Tyler better than any one else," he declared today as the extremely plausible Braves swung into stride for their first real workday of the year. "And I am sincere when I say that I don't think either of them is through. I expect to get good pitching from both."

Tom Mix Picture Is Big Hit at Glendale

Tom Mix has hit the bull's eye again in his latest William Fox production, "Trailin'," which came to the Glendale Theatre last night for a run of three days. The first showing audience made no secret of their enthusiastic approval. Max Brand, wrote the stirring story on which the photoplay is based.

pitchers. There is, for instance, Eugene Lansing, a right hander from Charleston, S. C. Eugene won eleven out of twelve games at the tag end of last season. Mitchell also thinks well of Bill Anderson, a left-hander; Cooney and Braxton, two Southpaws with the club last year, and Al Pierotti.

"Cy" Morgan gets the majority vote, however. Cy pitched himself silly, winning some thirty ball games for Springfield in the Eastern league in 1920 and did little beyond crowd Mr. Mitchell's bench a bit last season. He is said to be set for a killing this year.

The friend of both the bald young man and his left-handed friend appears on the local ball field, he watches both with a kindly, yet speculative eye. He knows them quite well, indeed, and has a reasonably good memory. The season of 1914 and the Boston Braves' melodramatic rush from last to first place and a world's championship is not too far removed to hamper one's memory excessively.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK
 It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair
 That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.
 Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.
 Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—Advertisement.

BETTER CONDITIONS BEING SHOWN IN BOARD REPORTS

Federal Reserve Statements on Past Month Show Trade Is Steadily Improving

By U. S. Press Association. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—The Federal Reserve Board reports that during the past month improvement of conditions in several basic industries has furnished a more hopeful prospect for the trade of coming months.

The net outcome of changed conditions which the Board finds to exist, has been to diminish the irregularity and unevenness noted in the movement of industry during 1921. The readjustment process, it would appear, has now definitely reached the stage of inter-industrial price revision.

The advance in value of agricultural products is deemed important, and the Board says it has tended to create conditions materially facilitating both the liquidation of loans at banks and the rapidity of movement of products to market. The more satisfactory marketing and price conditions have not only extended to grain but have also included tobacco and other products.

The long-continued slackness of employment and past uncertainty as to agricultural prices have produced an effect upon trade activity, with the result that both wholesale and retail trade indexes are disposed to show recession of buying in most parts of the country, save for seasonal activity in special lines, such as dry goods. Although betterment of retail demand has been reported in the farming districts, the effect of higher agricultural prices has not yet brought about any considerable modification of conditions. It should, however, be remembered in this connection that the farmer has already disposed, to a large extent, of his last year's crop.

Continued improvement is noted in building operations. Financially the month has shown continued reduction in the volume of credit required by the community. Portfolios both of reserve and member banks show still further reduction, while interest rates have remained fairly stable at the levels already reached. Foreign exchange has shown a decidedly stronger tendency, the highest levels for some time past having been reached in sterling, francs, and some other European currencies. Business failures are on a materially higher level than in 1921, while the month of February, as previously predicted by commercial agencies, also shows an increase in commercial failures as contrasted with January.

U. S. Export Trade If the increased exports of lumber and lumber products for the month of January can be regarded as forecasting the highest levels for a long time past having been reached in sterling, francs, and some other European currencies. Business failures are on a materially higher level than in 1921, while the month of February, as previously predicted by commercial agencies, also shows an increase in commercial failures as contrasted with January.
