FROM: Library Unit

TO: Info. Div., CIC

SUBJECT: Staff visit, Takamatsu

1. On 1 April 1948 Mr. Fred Kerlinger, CE Officer, Shikoku Region MG telephoned the Library Unit to suggest an alternate building for the CIE Library. The assistant Librarian visited Takamatsu 16 and 17 April 1948 to inspect this site.

2. The following persons were contacted:
Col. R. E. Coughlin, CO, Shikoku Region MG
Mr. Fred Kerlinger, CE Officer
Lt. Col. W. A. Haviland, CO, Kagawa MG Team

3. The building in question is well located and larger by 1,000 sq. ft. than the Mitsui Life Insurance Building. It is built of reinforced concrete and structurally much stronger. Furthermore, there seem to be certain advantages in being in the same building as the film exchange, which will occupy the third floor of this building.

4. It is recommended that the Japanese Government be requested to secure the first and second floor of the Ikedaya Building rather than the Mitsui Life Insurance Building.

5. A copy of this report has been sent to the Chief of the Kagawa Prefectural Social Education Division with instructions to secure the Ikedaya Building and have the building and furniture ready in two months. Copy also forwarded to Mr. Fred Kerlinger, CE Officer, Shikoku Region MG.

Equipment (Cont.)

1 Desk, office
1 Doormat, large
7 Fans, electric, small portable type
Fire extinguishers sufficient to meet Fire Department regulations
2 Hot plates, electric
2 Pencil sharpeners
1 Pliers, heavy, for opening stee-banded packages
1 Shears, about 9"
43 sect. Shelves, book. Each section to be 3' wide, and 6 shelves high, shelves to be 9" deep with 11" clearance between shelves; bottom shelf to be 3" above floor. Shelves may be built in units of one or more sections as long as they conform to floor plan. Note that in some cases the shelves are placed back to back.
33 sect. Shelves, magazine display. Each section to be approx. 3' wide; they are tobbe 14" deep, 5 shelves high, shelves to be sloping with approx. 14" clearance between shelves. Front lip on each shelf to be 3" high. Shelves may be slatted to save material. Instead of building them in single 3' units, it would be preferable to build in units of 2 or more in order to utilize every inch of available space. However, it must be borne in mind that these shelves must be brought up existing stairways unless built in the building.
24 sect. Shelves, magazine, storage. Each section to be 3' wide and 6 shelves high, shelves to be 12" deep with 12½" clearance between shelves, bottom shelf to be about 3" above floor. Shelves may be constructed in units of 1 or more sections as long as they conform to the floor plan. Note that these shelves are placed back to back.
Signs. After the arrival of the librarian, instructions will be given for several signs.
25 Tables, 3' x 6'
7 Tables, typewriter, suitable for holding a typewriter and material being copied.
1 Telephone, to be connected through the American switchboard.
10 Wastebaskets, one to be extra large.

Note: For convenience, the following Japanese units of measurement may be substituted for the American measurements used above:

1 inch (1") - - - - 1/12 shaku
1 foot (1') - - - - 1 shaku
6 feet (6') - - - - 1 ken

3. The purpose of this trip was to make a routine staff inspection of the operation of the Library Units concerned and to obtain data regarding their possible expansion into information centers where more than a library program could be carried on.

4. The Kumamoto Unit had not yet been opened when the visit was made and it was therefore impossible to judge its operation. Preparations for the opening were found to have been carefully planned and executed. The Japanese Government was carrying out satisfactorily the instructions given it regarding personnel, building renovation, and furniture construction. Excellent contacts had been made by the Unit Librarian with MG Officers, Japanese Government officials and community leaders. Everything indicated an auspicious start for this Center.

5. The Fukuoka, Nagasaki and Takamatsu Librarians all deserve high commendation for the excellent work they are doing. All of them have shown unusual ability in establishing effective relationships with their staffs, the public, and the local MG Teams. Following instructions, they have spent a large portion of their time in promoting the use of the libraries through community contacts, talks, releases, book lists and posters, and they have promoted other activities such as phonograph record concerts and story hours. The result has been that none of these Unit Librarians have been able to concentrate sufficiently on reference work in the libraries to obtain maximum usefulness of the reading materials on hand. Even though they have put in a considerable amount of unrecorded overtime, the Unit Librarians simply do not have sufficient time. In spite of the zeal of the Japanese staff members to learn American Library methods, and in spite of the efforts of the Librarians to teach them, it was clearly indicated that it would be very desirable to have two trained Americans at each of the Units.

6. Each Unit Librarian was scored "commendable", "adequate" or "weak" on thirty housekeeping and professional matters. In each case the preponderance of "commendable" scores over "weak" scores was high. In the few cases where minor weaknesses were noted, the Librarians' attention was called to them and assurances given that the correction would be made.

7. The most significant observation made on this trip was the good will and cooperation which the local MG Officers and the SCAP Librarians have extended to each other.

8. Although there are no prospects at present of extending any of the existing facilities to make an extended non-library program possible, it was found that at Fukuoka, Nagasaki and Takamatsu reasonably adequate space would be available in the same buildings occupied by the Information Centers, and that at Kumamoto such space is already available.

PRESS RELEASE TO THE JAPANESE PRESS 5 November 1948,-Takamatsu

Of special interest to boys of middle and high school age is an exhibit of photographs of the United Nations Boy Scout Troop, which can be seen in the show window of the SCAP CI&E Information Center, Minami Shin-machi, until Tuesday, November 9.

The photographs illustrate the follow story concerning the United Nations Boy Scouts: Two years ago Juan Yrisarry brought his young sons, Mario and German, from the war-torn Philippines to the United Nations and went to work in the Spanish Translation Section of the Secretariat. A year later ex-scouts from the delegations and the Secretariat who had formed the United Nations Scout Club, saw an unusual opportunity for making the international ideals of the scout movement live and grow at the United Nations headquarters. The boys were there - children of many nationalities, soms of representatives and staff memebers. All they needed was an organization to bring them together to practice internationalism in ~~exerday~~ everyday life.

This accounts for the fact that 15-year-old Mario Yrissary is now Senior Patrol Leader and most enthusiastic member of the recently ~~fxormed~~ formed United Nations Boy Scout Troop.

Before becoming a full-fledged Boy Scout, besides the regular tenderfoot training, Mario had to learn much more about the world Organization than any other Scout in the country. For the United Nations Boy Scouts have the proud privilege of Unsing the United Nations flag as well as their own troop colors. Naturallyx, this makes the boys

Before becoming a full-fledged Boy Scout, besides the regular tenderfoot training, Mario had to learn much more about the world Organization than any other Scout in the country. For the United Nations Boy Scouts have the proud privilege of Unsing the United Nations flag as well as their own troop colors. Naturally, this makes the boys much more aware of what the UN stands for and how it works. In addition to the usual Scout Oath, Mario was one of the first to take a special United Nations loyal ty pledge. Standing to attention before the blue flag of the United Nations he spoke these words:

> "As a Boy Scout, I solemnly pledge my loyalty to the United Nations and to the spirit of brotherhood for which it stands."

Now he assists the Scout Master in teaching the other 16 boys of 9 different nationalities.

Fortunately, there is no language problem in the Scout Troop as all the boys speak fluent English and many of them French and Spanish as well. Mario confesses that both his Spanish and Tagalog (language of the Filipinos) have become considerably rusty, but soon he will accompany his father on his home leave trip to Manila, and will probably regain fluency in both languages in a very short time.

Mario, a symbol of world youth, will grow up having seen international cooperation at work in the United Nation Boy Scout Troop made up of boys of nine different nationalities. For him the spirit of brotherhood for which the United Nations stands is a living reality.

FOR RELEASE TO THE JAPANESE PRESS - Takamatsu, Shikoku. 2 Sept. 1948

"How To Use a Public Library" is the subject of a series of large photographs now on display on the third floor of the Mitsukoshi department store.

The pictures, with captions in the Japanese language, tell the story of how a business man finds material on a special subject at a Public library. Clearly depicted are such procedures as contacting the librarian, using the card index, and using the magazine indexes.

Supplementing the main exhibit is a large group of colorful book covers from books to be found in the SCAP information library in the Ikedaya building.

The display of library photographs and book jackets will be shown until Thursday, September 9.

C.I.E Library at Takamatsu is now prosperous. Though they can understand English little or a little , boys, girls and youth have been gathering in the library every day since its opening.(with a photo of the reading room)

The C.I.E. Library was established on August 13 in Tamach, Takamatsu-city. It is jammed there every day by youths, especially boys and girls of primary and junior high schools during summer vacation. They say, "We do not understand English, but we are very happy even to see photos and cartoons." Electric-fans send cool breath on the desks. The several hundred kinds of magazines and 3,000 books are open to the public freely. The number of the frequenters who bring dictionalies and take notes elaborately, is increasing gradually.

From BRANCH LIBRARIANS' BULLETIN NO. 8, 12 July 1948

p. 1-2, par. III

POLITICAL INFORMATION AND EDUCATION

Be cause one of the major objectives of the occupation is to effect the democratization of Japan, the Library Units should increase their efforts in this direction. The Library Branch is revising its bibliography on government and when run off in qua ntities it will be distributed to all Units. Emphasis can be given not only by displays... not only at the library but in de partment stores and other public places... Local MG Information Officers should be contacted in order to coordinate the library's activities with those of MG and in order to see to it that everyone working with MG on this problem is making full use of the libraries...

p. 4, par. IX

LENDING OF READING MATTER TO MG TEAMS

The Chief of the Section called attention to the desirability of serving MG personnel at the Information Libraries located in communities where adequate libraries are not available to them. It has been suggested that in these places, books and magazines be lent to them, not only for use in their connection with their work with the Japanese but also for their recreational reading, inslfar as such limited service does not seriously interfere with the Information Library's main purpose of serving the Japanese. Unit librarians are therefore requested to act accordingly, using their best judgment in setting up procedures which are equitable and which will not affect unfavorably the regular service of the library.

COMMENT:

Attendance of 448 the second day is encouraging inasmuch as the English reading public of Takamatsu and area is estimated at 500. Almost all of the 142 available seats in the library were filled throughout the day.

An unusual number of children came to the library alone and showed great interest in the children's books and magazines.

Many members of the M G teams are intensely interested in the possibility of using the resources of the library in connection with their work.

Japanese Prefectural government did an excellent job in immediately providing six capable and alert students to assist in unpacking, checking and arranging the books and to clean. Without their help it would have been impossible to open the library before September 1st. Mr. Tamura from the Social Education office and Mr. Odo from the Liaison office also gave invaluable assistance. They came to the library every day to push work on the building, provide additional items of equipment, and assist with opening plans in every way possible.

The work of securing applicants for positions in the library was also well done and the staff, as a whole, seems promising. All of the assistants and also the janitor have some knowledge of English.

Needless to say having Hidetoshi Kato here from the Tokyo branch made the organizing much easier. He was indispensable. He worked very hard, was extremely resourceful and proved to be an excellent interpreter. I should like to have kept him.

The inauguration ceremony of CIE library was held on Aug 13 at 10 a.m., inviting many representatives from every quarter of Shikoku. Miss Boylan, chief of the library expressed her gratitude to a pressman.

As reported yesterday, the inaugural ceremony of the CIE library, at the Ikedaya Building in Minami Shinmachi, Takamatsu, was held on the 13th from 10 a.m. at the open space in front of the building, inviting many reprentatives from every quarter of Shikoku. Following the open address of Capt. Oertle, Lt. Col. Carden, Commanding Officer of the Kagawa MGT., Mr. Masuhara, Governor of the Kagawa Prefecture and Mrs. Maekawa Tomie offered the congratulations. Col. Coughlin, Commanding Officer of Shikoku M.G.R., also delivered a congratulation address. The message sent by Lt. Col. Nugent, chief of CI Bureau, SCAP, was made public.

Amid a thunderous clapping of hands. Col. Coughlin handed the key to Miss E. Boylan, chief of the library. Opening the door, she led the attendants into newly finished room smiling, and the ceremony was ended. The followings are the dialogue between Miss Boylan and I, reporter of the Shikoku Shimbun.

Question: What is your impression on Takamatsu?
Answer : I spent more than a year in Tokyo, when I heard that people in Shikoku are full of human feelings and kind. The scenery is beautiful,too.
Question: There are few in this district who can understand English well. Is there any way of making them utilize this library more and more?
Answer : It will be a way to form groups center around teachers who can understand English and lead the persons who want to learn English. Even though English can not be understood, I hope they would come here often and see new magazines and hear records. Many Japanese are coming to the CIE. library in Tokyo and Kyoto. Record concert or pictures show are held occasionally.
Question: Will new magazins and newspapers be provided with one after another?
Answer : They will be checked by the budget, out I want to have the newest ones secnt from Tokyo. I want to get along friendly with you at the library during eight month until my term of staying in Japan expires.

C.I.E library will be open at Takamatsu on 13 as the only one in Shikoku. Miss Elaine Boylan, directress of the library, stated her desire.

The only SCAP, CIE library in Shikoku region has come to be established at the Ikedaya building. After the opening ceremony performed there at 10 a.m. on the 13th under joint auspices of SCAP, CIE, Shikoku M.G.R., Kagawa M.G.T and the Kagawa Prefectural authorities, 3,000 copies of English medical and other books and 400 sorts of magazines will be opened to the public.

The library will be opened from 1.00 p.m. to 9.00 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday, and 9.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. each Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Miss Elaine Boylan, directress of the library, is a famous librarian even in U.S.A. She has been played an important role at SCAP libraries in Tokyo, Kyoto etc., since she came to Japan in May 1947.

She spoke:

"I hope that this library shall become the motive power of democratic education in Shikoku. For those who do not understand English, I invite to drop in here to listen to record music played in the room and to know what books are published in U.S.A.

C.I.E. Library opened yesterday

The openning ceremony of the C.I.E. Library was held at the square in front of the Ikedaya Building at Minami-shinmachi, Takamatsu beginning at 10 a.m., 13 Aug., attended by the representatives of each circle from all Kens in Shikoku.

With the speech by Capt. Oertle was opened the ceremony, followed by the greetings and congratulations by Lt. Col. Henry, H. Carden, K.M.G.T., representatives from each Ken, Masuhara, Governor of Kagawa-ken, and Mrs. Tomie Maekawa.

Soon after these speeches and greetings, Col. Conghlin greeted and message sent by Lt. Col. Nugent C.I. Bureau, G.H.Q. was announced at the same time.

Lastly, amid thunders of clapping of hands Mrs. Boilan, superviser of the library, received a key belonging to the library from Col. Coughlin and the ceremony ended with her showing them into the gorgeous library.

The following is the frank answers by Mrs. Boilan to my questions.

Quiz: What is your first impression of Takamatsu?
Ans : I had many times hearred that the people in Shikoku were kind and humane through some persons in Tokyo and Kyoto before my arrival in this place. Shikoku has many scenery spots.
Quiz: Have you any plan to make the best use of the library?
Ans : I think it is better good teachers and leaders of english to guide beginners, making many groups. In both Tokyo and Kyoto many Japanese visit the C.I.E. Library every day. Sometimes, in their places record concert or poster exhibition is held.
Quiz: Are you going to purchase new magazine?
Ans : Yes, I am going to purchase new ones one after another from Tokyo. I shall stay here for eight months. I desire you and I to keep intimate term through this library during the period.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Colonel Nugent, Chief of the Civil Information & Education Section, General Headquarters, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, has requested that I convey to you his deep personal regret at his inability to be in Takamatsu today and to read in his behalf the following message.

Men in all places and ages have marked with ceremony the start of important ventures. Today's observance of this universal custom is to open the Takamatsu Branch of the Library system which the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers has established for the Japanese people. It is to open to the people of Shikoku a means of looking beyond the horizons of Japan to the rest of the world, particularly the democracies.

Not every resident of Shikoku can have the opportunity to walk through the streets and enter the homes of a city like Washington or London or Geneva or Sydney to talk with the people who live there and see for himself the nature and quality of their daily life.

To overcome the difficulties of space and time, the knowledge must be brought to Shikoku in a form easily accessible to the people, and that is what this Library does. It brings to Shikoku some of the ideals, opinions, discoveries, deeds, hopes and fears of the American and other English speaking peoples. It should not go unnoticed that this library brings them, not in the form of specially prepared propaganda publications but in the same books and magazines which the democratic peoples themselves write and read.

To the people of Shikoku the Library says: Here for your reading and study and pleasure are books and periodicals which bring to you much of the vast world of Democracy. Take them from the shelves freely. Their only value is in the use made of them. If help is needed in finding in them what you want to know, ask the Librarian. To absorb and make your own anything and everything these books and magazines have to say is your right and privilege.

The Takamatsu SCAP CIE Information Library herewith is declared open. (Cutting the Ribbon). May it become a useful and treasured institution in the life of Shikoku. May the use made of it be such as to justify the endeavors of those who have worked so hard to make possible this opening today, especially the authorities of this City and Prefecture and the officers of the Kagawa Military Goverrment Team and the Shikoku Military Government Region.

Congratulatory Address

It is my great honour to offer congratulations at the opening ceremony of the C.I.E. Library, representing all women in Shikoku.

The equality between men and women has been secured by the new Japanese Constitution, but it is true that the scientific and cultural standard of women is far below that of men at present. This is, I believe, due to our old way of thinking, which has been cultivated strongly among the Japanese people in the long period of feudalistic ideas - that women cannot stand beside men in any thing at all.

It is, however, needless to say that this thinking is fundamentally wrong and we women must do our best to establish a new democratic and peaceful society by studying new science and culture in democratic countries and hereafter by deepening our general knowlege concerning social life.

We women are delighted that the S.C.A.P. C.I.E. Library has been established at Takamatsu in order to make a great contribution toward the democratic education in Shikoku region, supplying many books and magazines of democratic countries.

I, as a representative of women in Shikoku, congratulate you heartily on the happy opening of this library and express, at the same time, my whole-hearted gratitude for the kindness of the Occupation Forces authorities.

RELEASE TO THE JAPANESE PRESS - Takamatsu, 10 August, 1948

Although "13" is said to be an unlucky number in the western world it brings good luck to Shikoku for not only is the Takamatsu SCAP CIE library the thirteenth United States information center to be established in Japan but Friday the thirteenth is the date on which the library will be formally opened.

Immediately after the ceremonies which will be held promptly at ten o'clock, Friday morning, at the Ikedaya building, Minami-Shinmachi, the library will be open to the public.

Lt. Col. D. R. Nugent, chief of GHQ SCAP Civil and Information section, has sent a message setting forth the purpose of the library, and Col. R. E. Coughlin, Commanding Officer of the Shikoku Military Government Region, and Lt. Col. H. H. Carden, Commanding Officer of the Kagawa Military Government Team will extend greetings. Capt. R. L. Oertle, Information Officer, Shikoku Military Government Region, will be Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. Keikichi Masuhara, Governor of Kagawa Prefecture, and Mrs. Tomie Maekawa, chief of the [redacted] Takamatsu Women's Consultative association, will appear on the program representing the people of Shikoku.

Also attending the opening ceremonies will be information and education officers of the Military Government teams and at least seventy-five Japanese leaders from all prefectures of the island.

The library will be open [redacted] from 1:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday. Miss Elaine Boylan, professional librarian from the United States, will direct the library assisted by six Japanese.

We are gathered here this morning for a brief, but important, ceremony - the opening of the 13th CI&E Library which will serve the Shikoku District.// Before I introduce the speakers I should like to express on behalf of CI&E, SCAP, deep appreciation for the fine spirit of cooperation on the part of the officials of Kagawa Ken which made possible the reconstruction of this splendid building.//

It is now my pleasure to present to you, Lt. Col. H. H. Ca rden, ~~Commanding Officer~~ SMGO of the Kagawa M G Team.

And now, speaking on behalf of the people of Shikoku, Governor Masuhara.

This would not be complete unless the women were heard from so I am glad to introduce to you one you all know - Mrs. Tomie Ma ekawa.

At this point let me thank those representa tives from Kochi, Ehime and Tokushima who ha ve traveled a long distance to a ttend this opening. Let's give them our applause and thanks.

And now we come to the last speaker who, after he finishes speaking, will cut this ~~beautiful white~~ ribbon, present the keys to the Libra rian, and declare the Library Open. This is Col. R. E. Coughlin, Senior Military Government Officer of the Shikoku Military Government Region.

Congratulatory Address on the Opening of the Takamatsu C.I.E. Library

I esteem it a great honour to have the opportunity of offering congratulations, representing the whole people in Shikoku region, on the occasion of the opening ceremony of the Takamatsu C.I.E. Library.

This library has been established in order to enlighten the Japanese people concerning democracy through the perusal of books and periodicals, an objective to be accomplished in accordance with the Potsdam Declaration of the Allied Powers.

The construction of this library has made good progress since the embarkment in April 1948, owing to the noticeable assistance of the Occupation Forces authorities as well as to the earnest guidance by Miss. Elaine Boylan, the head librarian, since her arrival here on July 22, 1948.

I, as a representative of the whole people in Shikoku, congratulate you heartily on the happy opening of this library as a motive power of democratic education in Shikoku region and express, simultaneously, my whole-hearted gratitude and respect for the noble planning of the Allied Powers authorities.

I hope that the people in Shikoku understand the purpose of this library and make good use of it in order to master new science and culture in democratic countries and the essentials of democracy, and to answer the kindness of the Allied Powers authorities given us.

August 13, 1948

Keikichi MASUHARA,

Governor of Kagawa Prefecture

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

COLONEL NUGENT, CHIEF OF THE CIVIL INFORMATION & EDUCATION SECTION, GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, SUPREME COMMANDER FOR THE ALLIED POWERS, HAS REQUESTED THAT I CONVEY TO YOU HIS DEEP PERSONAL RECRET AT HIS INABILITY TO BE IN TAKAMATSU TO DAY AND TO READ IN HIS BEHALF THE FOLLOWING MESSAGE.

MEN IN ALL PLACES AND AGES HAVE MAR KED WITH CEREMONY THE START OF IMPORTANT VENTURES. TODAY'S OBSERVANCE OF THIS UNIVERSAL CUSTOM IS TO OPEN THE TAKAMATSU BRANCH OF THE LIBRARY SYSTEM WHICH THE SUPPREME COMMANDER FOR THE ALLIED POWERS HAS ESTABLISHED FOR THE JAPANESE PEOPLE. IT IS TO OPEN TO THE PEOPLE OF SHIKOKU A MEANS OF LOOKING BEYOND THE HORIZONS OF JAPAN TO THE REST OF THE WORLD, PARTICULARLY THE DEMOCRACIES.

NOT EVERY RESIDENT OF SHIKOKU CAN HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WALK THROUGH THE STREETS AND ENTER THE HOMES OF A CITY LIKE WACHINGTON OR LONDON OR GENEVA OR SYDNEY TO TALK WITH THE PEOPLE WHO LIVE THERE AND SEE FOR HIMSELF THE NATURE AND QUALITY OF THEIR DAILY LIFE.
