

SCHOOL AND CAMPUS

GET-ACQUAINTED LAWN PARTY TO BE HELD—LEROY FERGUSON CLASS TEACHER

Many of the rules of Glendale High School were cleared up by Principal Moyses in an assembly called shortly after noon yesterday. Mr. Moyses explained very carefully the absence and tardiness rules and contrasted them with the rules of other schools.

A sensation was created when the T. O. C.'s marched in, and, occupying a block of seats in one corner of the auditorium pulled some spicy new yells. This clears the mystery of the T. O. C.

Alleen Preeman made an announcement to the girls of the school, inviting them to a get-acquainted lawn party to be given by the Senior girls on Tuesday afternoon. Attention was also called to the big stunt party to be held in the Masonic Temple on the evening of the following Friday.

At a meeting of the Senior class yesterday afternoon Aleck Leroy Ferguson was elected class teacher by a practically unanimous vote. When notified soon afterwards, Mr. Ferguson accepted the position, and he will be lined up with the Seniors throughout the year.

The first class tennis tryouts of the year were held yesterday when Hollis Moyses beat Howard Thompson in a hard fought battle for a place on the Sophomore tennis team. Roscoe Puffer is captain of the team and Wendell Beldin manager.

Mr. Oliver, who is planning to buy a movie machine for the benefit of his students, recently made a test of a machine which was sent out for his inspection. He failed, however, to place his stamp of approval on the machine and has ordered a better one. Mr. Oliver is sparing nothing this year for the benefit of "his boys" in the M. A. department.

Miss Maybel Newcomb, office secretary, is giving a party today at Ocean park. The following young people have been invited: May Church, Cora Frenz, Merle Frenz, John Dunn, Earl Brown, Glenn Oliver and Eldred Marlatt. Mrs. Newcomb and Mrs. Tight will act as chaperones.

Miss Barbara Mitchell, a graduate, visited the school during the week.

Public Invited

A big crowd is expected to fill the High school auditorium next Wednesday afternoon at 3:05 p. m., when four of the most experienced debaters of the school will deliver stump speeches for the United States presidential candidates and their platforms.

Harland Durand, who will be remembered for his whirlwind oratory of last year, and who is an enthusiastic Wilson supporter, will tell why Woodrow should be re-elected.

The rock-ribbed Republican, Herbert Scheuner of La Crescenta, will give an exhibition of the Hughes steam roller.

Marion Lehman, who has seen a great light during the summer campaign, will expound Benson and Socialism.

Dan Hagin, a towering follower of the water wagon, will open the valve of information on Handy and the dry platform.

Mr. Root and Mr. Joy, members of the faculty who were scheduled to have appeared in a debate on this subject last year, will also express their views on the matter.

This is the first public program of the Rostrum, the High school debating society. As every High school student knows, these four speakers have had much experience in oratory and debating, so this first program promises to set a high mark of excellence. No one interested in our national affairs can afford to miss this great treat.

Remember the date, Wednesday, Sept. 27, at 3:05 p. m.

About fifty friends and relatives were present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. D. Blight. The bridegroom is in the service of a large bonding company in San Francisco.

JEFFRIES TO BUILD

It has been announced that Mr. Jas. J. Jeffries, the well-known retired pugilist, has negotiated to build a beautiful residence on his ranch near Burbank. The cost will exceed $15,000. The building will be of frame and cobblestones; it will be hardwood finish throughout, and will contain all of the latest modern conveniences. One particular feature will be the large patio, containing a barbecue pit and other accessories for the entertainment of Mr. Jeffries large circle of friends. Beautiful gardens will surround the house, and when finished it will be one of the handsomest and most complete residences of Southern California.

Plans have been prepared by F. A. Noyes, Jr., of Los Angeles, and work will be started on the building at once.

EGAN SCHOOL OPENS

The Glendale branch of the Egan School was opened at Butler's Hall, Glendale, Friday, the attendance being extremely gratifying. Friday afternoon a reception was tendered the children and mothers and many were enrolled in the children's dancing and dramatic classes for each Friday afternoon at 3:15. The first session was more than interesting as all present enjoyed the excellent program given by students of the school and a pleasant social time with refreshments closed the afternoon.

In the evening the adult dancing classes were formed and the attendance more than justified all expectations. The Egan school furnishes a corps of experienced teachers, who teach all the modern, standardized ballroom dances in the most approved fashion. Excellent music is furnished and an attractive feature of the Egan plan is the fact that free refreshments are served throughout the evening, making it unnecessary for anyone to leave the hall. Much credit is due Miss Alice Frank, who has the management of the local branch of the school for the auspicious start—and without doubt the Egan Glendale branch school will have a most successful season. By phoning Miss Frank, persons wishing to enroll in the classes can secure all necessary information.

GLENDALE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Mrs. Danford, librarian of the public library, extends a most cordial invitation to both teachers and students at the Glendale schools to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the library and its staff, which are entirely at their service. The librarian and her staff will be pleased to offer aid in teaching the proper use of the reference library and its catalogues. Those who are studying special subjects will find it to their advantage to consult the librarian, whose knowledge is entirely at their command. Every facility to obtain books on special subjects will be given students and teachers.

FRENCH REPORT DESTRUCTION OF TEN GERMAN AVIATORS DURING AERIAL ENCOUNTERS YESTERDAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Fifty-six battles were fought in the air yesterday over the Somme front. The French, British and German airmen are in the air all the time and encounters are of frequent occurrence. In the pauses of the attacks the soldiers of the three armies gazed with much interest on the spectacular encounters in the air. Ten German planes were downed.

GERMAN WAR OFFICE REPORTS SUCCESSFUL ADVANCE IN THE GREAT DOBRUDJA BATTLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, Sept. 23.—Reports from Gen. Von Mackensen indicate that the great struggle in the near east is still going on. Both sides claim victory. Von Mackensen says that an encircling counter attack drove back the Russo-Roumanian army. It is also stated that the Bulgarians captured this morning the Roumanian villages of Sdepljuka and Kalamura, in Macedonia.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Dispatches from Rome state that the Germano-Bulgarian force in the Dobrudja is fleeing before the Roumanians. This is not credited here except to the extent that possibly a certain section of Von Mackensen's forces have been driven back. The reports say that the Teuton force is now in retreat, having been driven back five miles.

GERMANS CLAIM RUSSO-ROUMANIANS BEATEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, Sept. 23.—On the issue of the battle in the region of Constanza much of the future course of the war depends. Mackensen, the German field-marshal, is believed to have a strategic advantage and is believed to have made the most of his opportunities on the banks of the Danube, where his center and wing rest. Mackensen's latest report states that the Bulgarians have routed a big Russo-Roumanian force.

THE NEW REPUBLIC

AUDIENCE THROWS HIGH AUDITORIUM TO HEAR TEMPERANCE CANTATA

Glendale Union High School auditorium was crowded to the doors last night with an enthusiastic and interested audience, who gave frequent evidence of their appreciation of the excellent presentation of "The New Republic," a temperance or prohibition cantata, by Mrs. Hattie Corline Young, of Long Beach. The large company of Glendale people who, with very brief rehearsal, gave the presentation, are deserving of great credit for the excellent showing they made.

The principal parts were: Columbia, enacted by Mrs. Grover C. Cable, a local elocutionist of much experience and great charm of voice, personal appearance and histrionic power. Mrs. Cable made a charming Columbia and played her part with dignity and sweetness, aiding the whole presentation by her personal poise.

Miss Barbara Mitchell, as California, earned the constant applause of the audience, who fully appreciated the remarkable genius with which she threw herself into her character and the sympathetic acting by means of which she brought out the pathos and significance of her difficult part.

N. J. Wright was a first-class impersonation of King Alcohol, who dominated the stage while speaking or singing, always strong and never vulgar. The other leading characters, J. P. Fansett as the drunkard, Roy Von Kolken as the father, Shirley Preston as the boy, Mrs. Shadrack and Miss Butterfield and several little children, as motherhood; the drunkard's daughter, Mary Brooks, Mrs. Clyde Brooks as Frances Willard, Mrs. Clara Pettitt as W. C. T. U., were all excellent.

A body of Young Campaigners gave a fine exhibition of their training in good principles and greatly pleased the audience with their songs and yells. In this set the leading boy, Ray Moore, spoke in a fine, clear and articulate voice, with correct emphasis and thorough appreciation of his part. The leading girl singer was Louise Martin, who sang with sweetness and confidence.

The White States were represented by: Miss Ruth Fairchild, Maine; Mrs. Louise Morton, Kansas; Mrs. Genevieve Goss, North Dakota; Melba Weiler, Tennessee; Mrs. Wagon, Oklahoma; Margaret Lusby, North Carolina; Grace Shropshire, Georgia; Elsie Tyler, Mississippi; Mary Hunt, Alabama; Dorothy Hunt, West Virginia; Mrs. Mae Knox, Washington; Ruth Gray, Oregon; Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, Colorado; Dorothy Stanton, Arizona; Hattie Beckman, Iowa; Jessie Lacey, Arkansas; Mabel Lelpelman, Idaho; Mrs. J. A. St. Clair, Virginia; Birdie Shropshire, South Carolina.

Flower girls: Lynette Hezmalchal, Elizabeth Brewer, Winifred Brewer, Evangeline Reith, Rebecca Brant and Patricia St. Clair.

Miss Elizabeth Mottern played the accompaniments for the whole cantata with much taste and feeling. Miss Evangeline Quackenbush played a violin obligato with great taste. Prof. Lowinsky, in the course of the evening played violin selections which were much appreciated. He was accompanied by Mrs. Lowinsky. The cantata was well staged and costumed and made a most effective appearance. It was given under the auspices of the Glendale City Women's Christian Temperance Union.

HIGH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT 546

Enrollment at the High school up to date is 546. This is the highest enrollment in the High school, at this date, that has ever been known. Interest is being centered on the commercial school. In fact the number of students who are desirous of taking up commercial studies is so large that additional classes have had to be formed for the purpose of handling the increase, and it has not yet been possible to accept all the applicants for that work.

BIBLE CLASS TEA

Mrs. Ellen M. Cooke of West Fifth street gave on Thursday afternoon one of her delightful little entertainments in the way of a Tea to some of the members of her Bible Class of the West Glendale M. E. church. There were present Mesdames Adams, Burrington, DeMuth, Frazier, Moak, Nisbet, Page, Robbins, Mrs. A. B. Morrison, wife of the former pastor and founder of the church, and Mrs. D. J. Hartsell, wife of the present pastor. Mrs. Morrison read in her usual clear and pleasing manner, three selections. Music and refreshments followed.

STEAM HEATED APARTMENTS—FEDERAL RESERVES—INTRODUCTORY PARTY

STEAM HEATED APARTMENTS

A few days ago a lady resident of Glendale expressed herself very freely on the subject of the advisability of having living rooms in Southern California heated by steam instead of being heated by small gas heaters. It is her opinion many tourists would spend the winter months in Glendale if they could secure steam heated apartments in which to live. The lady insists that it is not right to advertise to get people to come from a country of cold to spend the winter in California and then freeze them after getting them here.

FEDERAL RESERVES—NOTICE

All High school boys of the age of 18 and over, and all men up to the age of 45, are invited to meet at 1430 Burchett street on Monday night and any night during this week for the purpose of forming an Engineering Company in the Reserves of the U. S. Army.

All uniforms, guns, ammunition, surveying instruments and other equipment is furnished free. Drill but one night per week. This will afford a fine opportunity for young men to learn something valuable. Come early as there are but 22 positions left open.

INTRODUCTION PARTY

In order to introduce their nephew, Mr. Menzo James, of Scranton, Pa., to their circle in Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. Menzo Williams gave an introductory party, Friday evening, at their beautiful home, 1325 N. Central avenue. The immense pepper tree that shades the lawn was strung with electric lights, and under its sheltering branches several tables were arranged at which the guests sat and made merry. After a most delicious repast dancing and music were enjoyed.

Those present were Miss Catherine Clemens of Pasadena, Miss Eleanor Clemens of Pasadena, Mrs. Emma Barnes of Pasadena, aunt of the Misses Clemens; Miss Marie Oliver, Miss Wauanita Emery, Miss Marjorie Imler, Miss Evangeline Hunchberger and Miss Esther Schremp, Julius Kranz, Milton Kranz, Seymour Smith, Ralph Miles, Chancellor Livingstone and Fred Dodge. Mrs. Williams was assisted by Mrs. Harry Peterson and Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger.

ENROLLMENT OF RESERVES

Examination and enrollment of recruits for the Federal Reserves, a company of which is now being raised in Glendale, went on steadily Friday, in the fire house, between 2 and 9 p. m. Toward evening a very large number of men had been passed. Captain Muirhead, of the Coast Artillery, was the presiding officer, Lieut. Pounds, assistant surgeon in the Naval militia, was the examining officer. C. W. MacFarlane, battalion adjutant, Los Angeles, was also assisting with the records. A strict examination was given each man, according to the regulations of the United States army. By 9 p. m. all the men had not been examined and it is probable that there will be another session for examination today.

POST AND RELIEF CORPS

The Woman's Relief corps met in conjunction with the N. P. Bank's Post, at the G. A. R. hall, Glendale avenue, Friday. An excellent dinner was served by the hospitality committee. Under the direction of Mrs. Sanford of Sycamore canyon, assisted by Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Haskell and Mrs. Burns, the tables were amply supplied.

Commander U. H. Emick was in charge of the program and was assisted by President Susie Peck. Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore, of Tropic, gave several readings which were greatly appreciated. Col. Ginger of Los Angeles sang several songs. Post Commander Ross gave an address, Col. Gibbons of Los Angeles also addressed the societies. Comrade Goss followed with some appropriate remarks.

Mrs. C. R. Carmack returned this week from Redondo Beach, where she had been visiting. Mrs. Carmack received this week cards and letters from her brother-in-law, Harry Kendall, who with his family started out by auto to go to his old home in Indianapolis, Ind. They are at present at Hereford, Texas, where they are visiting relatives.

BUDAPEST—CAPITAL OF HUNGARY

Everyone hears a great deal about Hungary at present. The Hungarians are a great fighting race and they have borne themselves well in the terrific strain that has been put upon them as part of Austria-Hungary. If the truth were told it is possible that Hungary to begin with had little desire to enter this war; but as part of the empire involved in the war she was compelled to fight in self-defense.

This bold and courageous people have as a national capital one of the most picturesque cities in Europe. It is made up from two towns—Buda and Pest. It has one of the most beautiful parliament buildings in the world and is altogether a most progressive city, with underground street cars to relieve the congestion of the capital. That is the Pest part of it, which is more modern than the Buda part.

In the early wave of Celtic invasion or migration that rolled out from ancient India and Persia Budapest was one of the resting places of the restless Celts, who built a temple there, the remains of which were discovered not long ago many feet below the Roman foundation of the city.

Ordinarily the reader of the newspapers hears little about these things. Budapest is a mere name to such people; but as the Crusades brought east and west together, so the war in Europe is bringing a more extensive East and a new West together. Budapest is one of the places that will become familiar to the ears of the people of the world and the world will know at least a little more of itself than it has hitherto done.

After the wandering Celt came the conquering Roman, who left the impress of his rule here as elsewhere. To this day Latin is spoken more or less throughout Hungary and is still used largely by the educated and noble class as the language of intercourse and court speech.

Huns, Ostrogoths and Slavs overran the country. The Magyars came and exploited it and retain much of it still. Pest has always had the reputation of being a Roman city. The Tartars destroyed it, but it rose again and became a royal city; but Buda grew in importance also and rivaled it in wealth and power.

The Turks took the two cities in the beginning of the sixteenth century and destroyed much of their picturesque. Bit by bit they began to change their relative positions and Pest began to outstrip Buda in wealth and importance. Flood, fire and war devastated both cities at different times.

Just at present Budapest is a center of vast importance. It is the ancient Magyar capital and on the government there depend large issues. The bond between Hungary and Austria is not very secure. The union is more of a customs-union than a strong national unity. There are different nationalities in both countries and their diversity is often the cause of trouble.

In the troubles that have visited Hungary in common with the rest of Europe Budapest has been always dignified and quiet and the reverse of boastful. The Hungarians realize that they are facing a crisis in European national life and that great changes may be at hand. They hold themselves ready for any event that may happen and though the capital may not be as gay as it was a few years ago it is still as picturesque and its people as steadfast.

VALUE OF FRIENDSHIP

"The friends thou hast and their affection tried," said Polonius to his son Laertes, "grapple them to thy soul with hooks of steel." The wonderful dramatist put into the mouth of the pompous Danish statesman some of the finest sayings regarding the direction of human conduct that the world has received and that is one of them. Friendship is a mighty possession. A man may lose his wealth and position but if he retain his friends he is still among the number of the elect and has still a chance.

No one but those who have experienced the position of being without friends can imagine how destitute an individual may be under such conditions. Money naturally is a stronghold. One with money always has friends of a kind and can anyway command service. But the individual who has neither money nor friends is poor indeed. Jesus of Nazareth, though so poor that he had not where to lay his head, still had friends, though in his latest hour they all forsook him and fled. Yet through his life the value of friendship was often manifest in the communion he held with his cherished household of admirers at Bethany. Christ was too full of the heavenly wisdom and knowledge to neglect or despise the friends of his marvelous manhood.

In life it is well to choose friends of the right kind. One is known by one's friends. Well did the old Jewish proverb say, "As iron sharpeneth iron, so doth the countenance of one friend that of another." It is not easy to make friends of the right sort; neither is it easy to retain them; but once friends have been made who are congenial it is the height of folly to permit them to slip away.

Friendship is a tree that is easily blighted. It is essential that selfishness be eliminated from the bond that unites congenial hearts. The friends of an hour are not usually material out of which can be made the friends of a lifetime. Unselfishness is the great principle by which friendship is preserved.

In life it is usually found that a man or woman is known by the friends they have. Gradually as people grow older their circle of friends narrows and contracts. All great souls are usually alone in life. The soul with the wide outlook is far removed from the shallow and unthinking and from year to year the process of isolation goes on until many a person is completely cut off from the enjoyment of real friendship.

Happy are those who pursue the even tenor of their way amid the kindly wishes, the kindly laughter, smiles and encouragement of those who have learned to know and appreciate them. It will be remembered how bitterly Macbeth regretted the course of his life that had by its savagery isolated him from all who otherwise would have been his supporters. "My way of life," he cried, "is

Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland and family have returned to their own home in Verdugo canyon, which they have rented during the past eighteen months, while living in Los Angeles.

Mrs. M. Blake, now of Seventh avenue, Los Angeles, is visiting her son, Mr. Geo. W. Blake, of 404 N. Maryland avenue, and will spend several days among her many Glendale friends.

Mrs. C. Cunningham and Miss Maud Cunningham, who have been living at 1414 Broadway for some time past, have removed to an apartment, in the residence of Mrs. Hagen, 330 Orange street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gardner of Los Angeles and their little son Joe were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger, 344 S. Central, Thursday. Mr. Gardner is Mrs. Hunchberger's brother.

The Rev. Matthias, formerly rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Glendale, along with Mrs. Matthias and their daughter, are spending a brief time in Glendale, at the home of Mrs. Remick, 223 Orange street. Mr. Matthias has been rector of the Episcopal church at Ventura. He goes Sunday to Ventura, to close up his work there. Next week the whole family will go to Anaheim, where Mr. Matthias will take up his new pastorate.

Lorin B. Litchfield, who graduated from the Glendale High school with the class of 1915, and is now assisting in the management of his father's ranch in Tulare county, is a visitor in Glendale for a few days, along with his mother and sister. His father Frank Litchfield, is a photographer in the Times office, Los Angeles. Lorin says that they have a flourishing fig, orange and grape ranch and find both pleasure and profit in ranching. They leave for Tulare county Monday.

COMMUNITY PRIDE

It is indeed pleasing to see so many store windows in Glendale containing the Packer picture. Mr. Packer is a Glendale man and is opposed for the office he seeks by no other Glendale candidate, so there is no cause for a division among the people of this community. We as people of a community boost for our schools, for our churches, for our basketball clubs, for our horse shoe pitchers, for our tennis players. The first thing a child learns when at play is to cheer for his side. The people of Glendale are cheering for Stephen C. Packer for supervisor because he is capable and because he is a local man.

CONCILIATION PLANS UPSET

NEW LONDON, Sept. 23.—Caranza's apparent failure to direct a successful pursuit of Villa and his raiders, after their attack on Chihuahua, has completely upset all the plans of the conciliation board of Mexicans and Americans, which has been negotiating in this place. Caranza's martial impotency it is claimed is no guarantee for the safety of the border. The American troops will therefore remain there indefinitely.

1458 CALORIES

The editor enjoyed the hospitality of Bro. Cowan, editor of the Glendale Evening News, last Thursday evening at a banquet given to a party of forty editors and chamber of commerce men to celebrate the News' third anniversary. The banquet was given at the Glendale Sanitarium, where a scientifically balanced vegetation ration was served. It surprised the editors to learn that so good a meal could be provided without chicken. The writer's score was 1458 calories or units of energy, and we would gladly have encored some of the dishes. The county Press Association held its monthly meeting in connection with the banquet and listened to a report by Dr. Jessie Russell of the federated Parent-Teacher associations on the proposed legislation to correct the school election laws. — Lordsburg Leader.

The Real Thing in Motors

Ride in a Willys-Knight.

You don't know the real thing until you've had this experience.

Don't judge it by any other car.

There's nothing with which to compare it.

The quiet powerful smoothness of the Willys-Knight motor is a thing to marvel at — it simply revolutionizes any previous notion you may have had about how smooth and soft a motor could be.

You can't possibly realize what it means until you try it.

You simply wouldn't have anything else after you know what it means.

A Dairy That Needs No Sanitary Legislation

Long before laws and ordinances were passed in regard to sanitary conditions of dairies and the handling of milk, MacMullin's had a sanitary dairy in every sense of the word, and all sanitary requirements were courted. MacMullin's dairy not only complies with all laws and ordinances, but meets more sanitary conditions than are required, and has justly won the reputation of being "the Most Sanitary Dairy in the San Fernando Valley."

THE GREATER GREATNESS

How wonderful the heavens, how vast
The changeless power that holds them there,
As through the ages still they last,—
These mighty spheres so far and fair!
And yet the flower beneath thy feet,

No less than blaze of sun or gleam
Of stars, bears evidence complete
Of that same workmanship supreme.

Ay, if there difference be where naught
Of difference truly can abound,
The lesser things which God hath wrought

Proclaim a greatness more profound.
