My Dear Sister Richard & I will again compose a letter to thee we have occured, but one from thee this week and that thee sent without any direction on it. I suppose thee was in such a hurry thee forgot to direct it. James Stewart handed it to Mrs Bidsall and told him it was from thee it is a great wonder that we occured it. thee will have to look at them as thee handed them to thee into the cars for they might be lost. but I do not mean to read thee a lecture, only to inform thee that thee may be sure careful in future. I suppose thee was very glad to hear from Willie, Mella & John Alliger he brought it here for me to enclose in mine. Lydia & Hannah Fuller are at Aunt Marys and I believe they intend to spend a week or two with them. Uncle George is quite well at present was in here a few minutes ago and invited me to come up & spend the evening with them but I think I shall remain at home as there is no one to come for me but Maria ~~so I guess I will stay at home.~~

Killie has a great notion of writing notes to thee he thinks it is great fun. There has not mention<sup>ed</sup> you receiving those apples Father sent. We have had a very cold day but no snow with mention ing. I suppose you have heard of the great fire in Rochester have you not? How is cousin Siggie's picture progressing give much love to her and tell her that I intend to write to her <sup>for me</sup> sometimes or other I ~~will write~~ to her since she has been ~~in~~ Syracuse. You seem to have quite a household I think by thy letter. Does thee expect to send any. Valentines this year I do not expect to never send but two in all my life. please excuse this pen writing for the ink is very thick we forgot to get a fresh supply on Sabbath-day. with love I remain as ever thy affectionate sister

Mary.

Dear Brother Richard
well! we are now writing to thee again of which I suppose thee is very glad. Cousin Sarah and Julia attended a fancy dress party night before last.
Sallie went as a quakeress and Julie as a Gipsy, her dress was very pretty it consisted of a skirt of white with three rows of red and three rows of

Dear brother Richard
There was a deer
here yesterday that looked much like Flashy. He then &
I rode out 6 miles
in the country to look at some oxen. he offered

the more $100
and a red one
for them, a little
one. It is very cold to-day and was so yesterday.
Father has bought us each a pretty suit of summer
clothes. Old Buck

I Bright are getting very fat.
Father don't know
but he will sell
these large bundles soon. He must answer this letter for all things. Bright
