Notes

*House of Representatives: includes 37 anti-coalition Democrats and 33 coalition Democrats.

People's Cooperative, Social Renovation, and New Farmers Parties were dissolved as national parties on 10 May 1949. House of Representatives members of those parties together with 6 members of the Kosei Club formed the New Political Council.

(a) - As of 18 May 1949.

(b) - As of 1 July 1949.

(c) - As of 20 May 1949.

(d) - As of 1 June 1949.

(e) - The New Liberal Party, which was composed of members of the Liberal Party ideologically opposed to the Democratic Liberals, was dissolved as a national party immediately following the 23 January 1949 general election to the House of Representatives. The Party's two successful candidates, along with Independent elements, formed the Kosei Club.

(f) - Japan Farmer Party: Fifteen of the sixteen successful candidates bolted this party on the eve of the 23 January 1949 election. They formed the New Farmers Party and, on 10 May 1949, combined with others to form the New Political Council. The one remaining member of the Japan Farmers Party became an Independent.
